And after reciting that under the provisions of certain Acts of Parliament recently passed, and certain rules for regulating the practice of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, the duties of the clerk of enrolments may be considerably increased;—

It is Enacted,

XXX. That if it shall appear reasonable and proper to the Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls to direct any remuneration to be paid to such clerk, in addition to the salary now payable to him, it shall be lawful for them to order, with the sanction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that such annual sum, not exceeding 150*l.* per annum, as they shall think reasonable shall be paid to such clerk, for the performance of such additional services, out of the Compensation and Suits Fee Fund Account for such period as they shall think fit.

XXXI. That no payment of any sum or sums of money to be made under or by virtue of this Act shall be subject to the payment of usher's poundage: and provided also, that every order to be made for the transfer, investment, or payment of any money under this Act or any of the provisions thereof shall be free of and discharged from the payment of any fee whatsoever to any officer of the said court.

XXXII. That so much of the said hereinbefore recited Act, 4 Geo. 4. c. 61, as shall be inconsistent with any of the clauses or provisions of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that so many and such part and parts of the clauses and enactments of the said recited Act as may be applicable to the several officers appointed and to be appointed under this Act shall extend and be construed to extend and be applied to such officers respectively as fully and effectually as if such clauses and enactments had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XXXIII. That it shall be lawful for all Extraordinary Commissioners of the Court of Chancery, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to take in England or Scotland the acknowledgment of recognizances by parties and others in suits and matters depending in the said court in such and the same manner as the Masters in Ordinary of the Court of Chancery may now take according to the practice of the said court respectively.

XXXIV. That any commission of bankrupt issued or to be issued in Ireland after the 1st of July 1836, founded on any trading or act of bankruptcy carried on or committed prior to the said 1st of July 1836, shall have the same force and effect as if such commission had issued prior to the said 1st of July 1836; and that in every case the petitioning creditor or creditors may prove his or their debt or debts before the Commissioner of Bankrupt in Ireland in the same manner as all other creditors of the bankrupt are permitted to prove their debts respectively.

XXXV. That the powers and authorities given by this Act to the Lord Chancellor shall and may be exercised in like manner and are hereby given to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the custody of the Great Seal respectively, for the time being.

XXXVI. That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 20th of October next.

XXXVII. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present session of Parliament.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

CLERKS TO THE REGISTRARS.		SALARY.
Yelverton O'Keefe, Chief Clerk	£500 per Annum.
John Kelly	300	—
William Young	130	—
Robert Levy	100	—
John Connor	100	—
Thomas Battley	100	—
ASSISTANT CLERKS.
Francis Whelan	100	—
John Kelly, jun.	100	—

SECOND SCHEDULE.

	SALARY.
The First Clerk to the Registrars	£400 per Annum.
Second	300
Third	200
Fourth	150
Fifth	150
Sixth	100

CAP. LXXV.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to extend the Jurisdiction and regulate the Proceedings of the Civil Bill Courts in Ireland.
(13th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Assistant barristers to hear and determine cases for sums not exceeding 20l.
2. Jurisdiction as to lands.
3. Service of civil bill in such cases.
4. As to recovery of lands.
5. Jurisdiction in replevin cases.
6. In cases of distresses for rent, particulars of demand to be given.
7. Appointment of replevengers.
8. Mode of proceeding in replevin cases.
9. Form of bond.
10. If proposed sureties be objected to, the reason of refusal to be stated in writing.
11. Copy of civil bill to be served on defendant.
12. Assistant barrister to hear and determine such civil bill.
13. Mode of assignment of bond.
14. Bond to be assigned if plaintiff do not prosecute suit.
15. If goods returned, no proceedings to be had on bond, and goods may be sold.
16. Repeal of 7 & 8 Geo. 4. c. 69, 10 Car. 1. (I.) in part, 3 Geo. 2. (I.) in part.
17. Legacies and distributive shares payable out of assets of any deceased person (when such assets shall not exceed 200l.) recoverable by civil bill.
18. Civil bill in such cases to be served twelve days before sessions.
19. Executors and administrators to lodge accounts if required.
20. Penalty on executors or administrators neglecting to lodge such account.
21. Examination of executor or administrator.
22. Executors or administrators to produce copy of will and letters of administration, and to submit to be examined on oath on trial of civil bill.
23. Assistant barrister may advertise for claims or assets.
24. Executors de son tort to be liable.
25. Money may be required by assistant barrister to be paid into the bank.
26. Legacies not exceeding 20l. charged on real estate to be recoverable.
27. Attested copy of will good evidence.
28. Civil bills, &c. to be in form prescribed in Schedule.
29. Provision of civil bills Acts relating to employment of counsel, &c. shall extend to proceedings under this Act.
30. Appeal.
31. In case of absence of plaintiff or defendant, how appeal may be prosecuted.
32. Assistant barrister may dismiss civil bill.
33. Decrees or dismissals may be renewed.
34. Decrees of assistant barrister may be signed by his successor.
35. Verbal or technical errors not material.
36. Parties may appeal to the oath of each other.
37. Regulating hours of sitting of Court of Quarter Sessions.
38. In case of death of clerk of the peace during sessions.
39. Order in which actions are to be heard.
40. Assistant barrister may hear and determine disputes in baronial or other divisions.
41. Bailiffs to be appointed to execute decrees of civil bill court.
42. Fees payable to bailiffs.
43. Bailiffs to give security.
44. 36 Geo. 3. (I.) repealed so far as respects the payment of 1s. to the sheriff.—Fees of 10s. 6d. for executing decrees for delivering possession.
45. Books of process servers to be evidence in certain cases.
46. Bailiffs may sell goods taken in execution.
47. Fees specified in second Schedule to be deemed lawful fees.
48. Penalty for taking larger fees.
49. Fees payable to the registers of the city and county of Dublin.
50. Table of fees to be exposed in some conspicuous parts of office of the clerk of the peace and court of quarter sessions.
51. So much of civil bill Acts as requires oaths to be taken by attornies every sessions repealed, and an affidavit substituted.—Form of affidavit.
52. Appeal given to the landlord in same manner as to the tenant under 56 Geo. 3. c. 88.
53. Power to appoint additional places for holding sessions.
54. Assistant barristers to appoint times for holding sessions in such additional places.
55. 56 and 58 Geo. 3. and 1 Geo. 4. amended, as relates to serving or affixing processes on civil bills.
56. Civil bill court to have jurisdiction if one defendant reside in the county.
57. Grand Jury of county of Cork to provide for salaries of criers at sessions in 4 Geo. 4. c. 43.
58. General orders to be made.
59. Lord Lieutenant may direct sessions to be held four times in every year in any town.
60. Perjury.
61. Former Acts to remain in force.
62. Decrees of civil bill court may be given in evidence under a plea of the general issue.

63. Interpretation clause.

64. Certain powers, &c. conferred upon chairman of sessions and recorder of Dublin.

65. Commencement of this Act.

66. Act may be repealed, &c. this session.

By this Act,

After reciting that proceedings by civil bill, under and by virtue of an Act, 36 Geo. 3, for the better and more convenient administration of justice, and for the recovery of small debts in a summary way at the sessions of the peace of the several counties at large within Ireland (except the county of Dublin), and the several Acts in force in Ireland amending and extending the provisions of the said Act, have been found very beneficial, and it is expedient to enlarge the present jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Courts in Ireland:—

It is Enacted,

- I. That from and after the commencement of this Act, the respective assistant barristers in Ireland shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine, within their respective jurisdictions, all disputes and differences between party and party for any sum or damages not exceeding 20*l.* sterling in all cases of debt, covenant, assumpsit, actions on the case upon assumpsit or promises, (penal covenants, breach of promise of marriage only excepted,) trover, conversion, trespass, for goods taken or detainue, or for any sum not exceeding 10*l.* in all other cases whatsoever, (slander, libel, deceit, and criminal conversation with a man's wife only excepted,) and also all cases for the recovery of any penalty not exceeding 20*l.* imposed or to be imposed by any Act of Parliament.
- II. That the respective assistant barristers in Ireland shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine, within their respective jurisdictions, all disputes and differences respecting the possession of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments held under any grant, lease, or other instrument for any term or interest the duration or extent whereof, when originally granted or created, did not exceed three lives, without any provision for the renewal thereof, or a term of sixty-one years determinable on three lives, or a term of sixty-one years absolute, and the yearly rent reserved or payable in respect whereof, under such grant, lease, or other instrument, shall not exceed 20*l.*, and in respect of which no fine exceeding 50*l.* was paid on the granting or execution of such grant, lease, or other instrument; and every person claiming such possession may proceed by civil bill in the court for the county, division, or district wherein such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any part thereof, shall be situate, for recovery of such possession; and every such civil bill shall specify the name and residence of the claimant, and the description of the property sought to be recovered, and the barony or parish in which the same is situate, and shall require the persons in possession of or claiming any interest in such lands, tenements, or hereditaments to appear before the assistant barrister, on a day and at a place to be therein mentioned, to answer the said civil bill.
- III. That every such claimant as aforesaid shall and he is hereby required to serve the persons who shall be in the actual possession of the lands, tenements, or other hereditaments specified in and claimed by any such civil bill, and also such other person or persons (if any) as shall be interested in the same or in any part thereof, with such civil bill thirty days at least before the commencement of the sessions in which such civil bill is to be heard or determined; and if there be not any person in the actual possession of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, then the affixing of such civil bill to or upon some conspicuous part of the premises so claimed, and upon the door of the church and of every Protestant chapel (if any), and also upon the door of every Roman Catholic chapel (if any), in the parish, place, or district wherein the said premises shall be situated shall be and be deemed to be good and sufficient service of such civil bill.
- IV. That in all actions and proceedings brought for the recovery of the possession of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments under or by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the assistant barrister to make an order or decree for the delivering up possession of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments to the party entitled thereto.
- V. That the respective assistant barristers in Ireland shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine, within their respective jurisdictions, all actions of replevin relating to distresses for rent between landlord and tenant, where the rent for or in respect of which any distress shall be or ought to have been made shall not exceed 50*l.* in amount or value.
- VI. That in all cases of distresses for rent the person making any such distress shall deliver to the person in possession of the premises for the rent of which such distress shall be made, or in case there shall not be any person found in possession shall affix on some conspicuous part of such premises, a particular in writing of the rent demanded, specifying the amount thereof, the time or times when the same accrued, and the person by whom or by whose authority such distress is made.
- VII. That the sheriff for the time being for every county in Ireland shall, within ten days after he shall be sworn in as sheriff, depute a sufficient number of persons in each county to act as replevengers in case of distresses for rent, so that there shall be at least one such replevenger in every town wherein General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace are held; and for every refusal or neglect to appoint within ten days a sufficient number of persons to act as replevengers as aforesaid, and also for every month during which there shall not be one such replevenger in such such sessions town, every such sheriff shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.*, to be recoverable by civil bill by any person who will sue for the same; and such replevengers so to be appointed as aforesaid shall have authority in the sheriff's name to grant replevins and make deliverance of all distresses in such manner or form as the sheriff may and ought to do, and shall be entitled to receive the fees mentioned in the second Schedule hereunto annexed, and no more.
- VIII. That where any party whose goods or chattels shall have been distrained for rent shall dispute the validity of the distress, and the amount of the rent distrained for shall not exceed 50*l.*, it shall be lawful for such party to lodge with the clerk of the peace for the county wherein such distress shall have been made a civil bill, stating the particulars of the property distrained, and the place where made, and the person and persons by whom or on whose behalf such distress was made, and requiring such person or persons to appear and answer such bill at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the district, division, or riding in which such distress was made, in case there shall be ten clear days between the day of lodging such civil bill and the first day of holding such sessions, and if not, then at the sessions for such division, district, or riding next after the expiration of ten days from the day of lodging such civil bill, and thereupon the said clerk of the peace shall issue an order requiring the sheriff of the county to replevy the goods and chattels so distrained; and the sheriff to whom any such order shall be directed, or his replevenger, shall and he is hereby required, upon good security (by the bond of the person obtaining such order and two responsible persons as sureties) being given to him in double the amount of the value of the property distrained, to execute such order, and make a correct and proper return of the manner in which the same shall have been executed, or to signify the cause why the same has not been executed, to the court of the assistant barrister for the county, within seven days next after such order shall have been delivered to him; provided that the value of the property distrained shall be ascertained by the said sheriff or replevenger in like manner as the value of goods distrained is now ascertained by law by the said sheriff on taking security in replevins.

IX. That the bond so to be given to the said sheriff shall be in the form or to the effect set forth in the first Schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit.

X. That in every case where the persons who shall be proposed as sureties on behalf of any party whose goods or chattels shall have been distrained shall be objected to, the reason or ground of such objection shall be stated in writing by the sheriff or replevenger so objecting.

XI. That in every case where any goods distrained shall be replevied as aforesaid a copy of the civil bill which shall have been lodged with the clerk of the peace as aforesaid shall be served, by or on the part of the plaintiff in such civil bill, upon every person named as defendant therein, in the same manner as civil bills for recovery of debts are now required to be served, six days at least before the first day of holding the sessions to which it is returnable: Provided always, that in case the party on whose behalf such distress was made shall not reside within the jurisdiction of such assistant barrister, service of such bill on the person who made the distress for him shall be deemed good service on such party; and such party, although not residing within the county, shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed and taken to be within the jurisdiction of the assistant barrister of the county in which the distress was made.

XII. That the assistant barrister shall in every such case of distress and replevin hear and determine the civil bill, and ascertain whether any and what rent was due to the defendant at the time of making such distress; and if it shall appear that any sum was due for rent, and that no tender of the sum so due was made before the said civil bill was brought, it shall be lawful for such assistant barrister and he is hereby required to make a decree for payment of the sum ascertained to be due for rent, and the costs of defending such civil bill and making such distress, and such sum and costs shall and may be levied by virtue of such decree; and in case it shall appear that no rent was due at the time of such distress, or no tender made of amount due and reasonable costs of distress previous to the bringing of such civil bill, it shall be lawful for the assistant barrister to direct the bond which shall have been so given as aforesaid to be delivered up to the party complaining of the distress, and also to make a decree for payment by the defendant to such party of such damages as the Court may think fit, and, if necessary, to direct that such damages and costs shall be set off against or deducted from any rent then due or thereafter to accrue due by the party complaining, and to make a decree accordingly.

XIII. That the bond so directed to be given as aforesaid shall be assigned by the sheriff or his representative to such person or persons as the assistant barrister shall direct, and such assignment shall be by an indorsement on the bond, which shall not require any stamp; and the assignee of such bond shall be at liberty to sue in his own name, upon or by virtue of such bond, in the court of the assistant barrister within whose jurisdiction any one of the obligors of such bond shall reside, without regard to the amount of the penalty of such bond; and such proceedings may be taken against all the obligors of such bond, or against any one or more of them.

XIV. That in case the person or persons complaining of any such distress shall not duly appear at the sessions, and there prosecute such civil bill, and obtain a decree therein, the assistant barrister shall and may, at the request of any party named as a defendant in such civil bill, make an order or decree that the bond so directed to be given to the sheriff as aforesaid shall be assigned to the defendant so applying; and such bond shall be assigned, as hereinbefore directed, to the party so applying; and such bond shall be and stand as a security for the full amount of the value of the goods distrained, and the costs of the proceedings in relation to the distress, and of the proceedings on such civil bill and such bond.

XV. That it shall be lawful for the assistant barrister to order and decree that the goods distrained shall be returned to the party who distrained the same; and in every such case where the goods distrained shall be actually returned to the party who distrained the same, and the costs of the proceedings paid, no further proceedings shall be had on the bond which shall have been given as aforesaid; and all such goods, if returned or recovered under any such decree as aforesaid, may be sold for the recovery of the rent due and expenses at the expiration of four days after the return thereof.

And after reciting the passing of 7 & 8 Geo. 4. c. 69; but that the provisions of the said Act have been found to be wholly ineffectual, and it is desirable that the said Act should be repealed:—

It is Enacted,

XVI. That from and after the commencement of this Act the said recited Act, 7 & 8 Geo. 4. shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that so much of an Act, 10 Car. 1. (1.) intitled, 'An Act for the impounding of Distresses,' and so much of an Act, 3 Geo. 2. (1.) intitled, 'An Act for the further explaining and amending several Statutes for protecting Under Sheriffs and Sheriff's Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs or Sheriff's Clerks more than One Year, and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Cases, and to take away the pretended Office of Barony Clerk, and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, and also for discharging of Prisoners unable to pay their Fees,' as relate to the appointing and proclaiming of deputies by sheriffs for making or granting replevins, and making deliverance of distresses, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XVII. That where the amount of the assets of any deceased person shall not exceed in value the sum of 200*l.*, it shall and may be lawful for any legatee of any specific chattel, or for any legatee of any pecuniary legacy payable out of the assets of any such deceased person, or any residuary legatee, or for any person or persons entitled as next of kin of any such deceased person, or the executors, administrators, or assigns of such legatee or next of kin, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to proceed by civil bill against the executor or administrator of such deceased person in the county or district in which such executor or administrator shall be resident, for the recovery of such legacies or distributive shares at any time after the expiration of one year from the decease of the testator or intestate, but not sooner; and it shall and may be lawful for such assistant barrister as aforesaid, upon due proof that the defendant had received, or without wilful default might have received, assets of the testator or intestate sufficient and liable, after payment of all just debts, for the satisfaction in a due course of administration either in the whole or in part of the plaintiff's demand, to make a decree for payment of such legacy or distributive portion rateably and proportionably with other legatees standing in the same situation, or other next of kin respectively, as the case may be; and in case the plaintiff shall establish his right to any specific chattel it shall and may be lawful for such assistant barrister as aforesaid to make an order for delivery of the same to the party entitled thereto, or to make a decree for payment of the value thereof and costs of suit; and in case the plaintiff shall establish his right as residuary legatee, it shall and may be lawful for such assistant barrister as aforesaid to make an order for the delivery, transfer, or payment of such residuary estate and effects to the party decreed entitled thereto.

XVIII. Provided, That every civil bill to be brought for the recovery of a legacy or distributive share under or by virtue of this Act shall, twelve days at least before the sessions, be duly served upon the party against whom the same is brought, or left at his usual or last known place of abode.

XIX. That where the property or assets of any deceased person shall not exceed in value the sum of 200*l.*, every executor or administrator shall, if thereunto required by notice in writing by any legatee, next of kin, creditor, or other person interested therein, within twelve months after the decease of the testator or intestate, lodge with the clerk of the peace of the county wherein such testator or intestate resided at the time of his death, and also in the county wherein such executor or administrator resides, a schedule or account setting forth the particulars of the property or assets of or to which the testator or intestate died possessed or entitled, and the amount, produce, and value of the same respectively, and the amounts and particulars of the debts, due by the said testator or intestate, and the amounts and particulars of the debts, legacies, and funeral and testamentary expenses of the testator or intestate paid by or on account of any such executor or administrator, and shewing the balance applicable to the purposes of the will of the said testator, or distributable amongst the next of kin of the said intestate, or the property or chattels then undisposed of; and every such schedule or account shall be verified by the oath or affirmation (as the case may be) of the executor or administrator, to be sworn before the clerk of the peace for the county wherein such executor or administrator resides, and which oath or affirmation the said clerk of the peace is hereby authorized and directed to administer; and such schedules or accounts shall be preserved and kept by the clerks of the peace among the records of their respective counties, and shall be deemed and taken as evidence against the said executor or administrator of the several matters therein contained.

XX. That in case any such executor or administrator shall neglect to lodge such schedule as aforesaid within the time hereinbefore specified he shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 20*l.* to be recoverable by civil bill before the assistant barrister of the county wherein such executor shall reside by any person suing for same.

XXI. That in all proceedings by civil bill by any legatee or next of kin for recovery of any legacy or distributive share as aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff, as such legatee or next of kin in such civil bill as aforesaid, to examine on oath, if the Court shall deem it necessary, in open court, such executor or administrator, in order to obtain a discovery of the estate and effects of the testator or intestate at the time of his or her decease, and the value thereof, and of his or her debts, funeral and testamentary expenses, and to obtain an admission that the defendant is the executor or administrator (as the case may be), and to ascertain all such facts as a party suing as legatee or as next of kin in a court of equity is entitled to discovery of.

XXII. That every executor or administrator may be compelled by summons, to be signed by the clerk of the peace, in like manner as witnesses are compelled to attend and give evidence in the civil bill courts, to attend and produce the probate (if any) of the will of the testator, or the letters of administration of the testator or intestate (as the case may be), and submit to be examined on oath in open court touching the matters aforesaid on the trial of any such civil bill in any riding, division, or district of the county where such cause shall be heard; and every executor or administrator who shall disobey any such summons shall forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.* as a penalty; but such fine or penalty may be mitigated or wholly given up, if the assistant barrister before whom he shall have been required to attend shall, upon good and sufficient cause being shewn, think fit to mitigate or give up the same.

XXIII. That it shall be lawful for any assistant barrister, in any action or proceeding for a legacy, or a distributive share of the property or assets of a testator or an intestate, to require the party suing to give notice, either by advertisement or otherwise, requiring persons having claims on the property or assets of the deceased to produce and verify such claims; and no such advertisement shall be charged with or liable to any duty, and all costs relating to such notice shall be borne and paid in such manner and by such parties as such assistant barrister shall order or direct; and the assistant barrister may, if he shall think fit to direct such notice to be given, adjourn the civil bill to some future sessions, so as to allow sufficient time for publishing or giving such notice.

XXIV. That any person rendering himself an executor de son tort shall be liable to be sued by civil bill in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, and shall be liable to the same extent as if sued in a superior court.

XXV. That in any such action or proceeding the assistant barrister may, if he thinks fit, direct money to be paid into the Bank of Ireland, savings bank legally established, or such branch bank of the Bank of Ireland as he shall direct, in the name of such clerk of the peace, to the credit of the cause in question, and such money shall be applied and disposed of according to the order and directions of the assistant barrister; and all payments of such monies shall vest in the clerk of the peace for the time being.

and shall be made upon an order in writing under the hand of the clerk of the peace for the time being, countersigned by the assistant barrister; which order shall be a good and sufficient warrant to all intents and purposes.

XXVI. That it shall and may be lawful for any legatee of any pecuniary legacy not exceeding 20*l.*, charged upon or payable out of any real estate, or any person to whom arrears not exceeding 20*l.* are due in respect of any rent-charge or annuity charged upon or payable out of any real estate, to proceed by civil bill against the person who shall be entitled to the real estate charged with such legacy or arrears; and it shall and may be lawful for the assistant barrister, upon due proof by the plaintiff that such real estate is liable to such legacy or arrears, and that the owner thereof has received therefrom, for his own use and benefit, more than the amount of the legacy or sum sought to be recovered, and that no personal property liable to the payment thereof is available for that purpose, to order or decree the payment of such legacy or arrears by the owner of such real estate.

XXVII. That in all proceedings under this Act to recover any legacy, or lands, tenements, or hereditaments, an examined or attested copy of the will bequeathing it, or of any will giving title to it, shall be received as evidence as if the original will or probate thereof was produced.

XXVIII. That the several civil bills, orders, proceedings, decrees, and dismisses which shall be brought, prosecuted, and pronounced in pursuance of this Act, shall be in the form or to the effect prescribed by the first Schedule to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit.

XXIX. That all and every the provisions of the several Acts now in force relating to civil bill courts in respect of the employment of counsel and the duties of sheriffs and of clerks of the peace in relation to any proceedings by civil bill, and all other regulations and provisions of the said Acts in relation to proceedings by civil bills, shall apply and extend to the proceedings under this Act, so far as the same are applicable thereto, or not repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and that all such provisions and regulations shall also extend and be applicable to proceedings in the court of the recorder of the city of Dublin, and in the court of the chairman of the sessions of the peace for the county of Dublin.

XXX. That in any case where any party shall be dissatisfied with the judgment or decree or dismiss of the assistant barrister touching or concerning any proceedings which may be instituted or prosecuted under or by virtue of the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for such party to appeal against such decision or decree, in like manner, and upon the like terms and stipulations, as appeals in other cases are allowed to be brought under or by virtue of the Acts now in force relating to proceedings by civil bill.

And after reciting, that plaintiffs and defendants appearing by attorney and not attending in person at the quarter sessions are deprived of their right of appeal by reason of their being necessary parties to the recognizance to prosecute such appeal;—

It is Enacted,

XXXI. That in case of the absence of any such plaintiff it shall and may be lawful for him to enter an appeal, without entering into such recognizance, upon paying the defendant or depositing with the clerk of the peace double the costs of such dismiss, and performing the other requisites now required by law in cases of appeal (save as to such recognizance); and it shall and may be lawful for any such defendant to enter an appeal on a like payment to the plaintiff or depositing with the clerk of the peace double the costs of such decree, and performing the other requisites as to appeals now required by law (save as to such recognizance); but a recognizance, in case of the absence of the defendant, shall in every case be entered into on his behalf by two solvent sureties, to prosecute the appeal, and to pay the amount to be decreed against the defendant, and costs.

XXXII. That whosoever the said assistant barrister shall in any civil bill brought under and by virtue of this Act grant a decree the same shall be with costs; but in case the plaintiff in any civil bill brought under or by virtue of this Act or any other Act shall not proceed in the same, or shall fail to establish his case to the satisfaction of the assistant barrister, such assistant barrister shall and he is hereby authorized and empowered to dismiss such civil bill with costs, and either without prejudice to the plaintiff's proceedings by a new civil bill, or on the merits, as he shall think fit.

XXXIII. That it shall be lawful for any plaintiff or defendant, or surviving plaintiff or defendant, or the executor or administrator of any plaintiff or defendant, or assignee or assignees of any plaintiff or defendant who shall have become bankrupt or insolvent, or the husband of any plaintiff or defendant, by whom any decree or dismiss was obtained, to renew any decree or dismiss, or any affirmation or reversal of any decree or dismiss of the assistant barrister affirmed or reversed on appeal; provided that all such renewals shall be subject to the same and the like conditions and regulations as are now required by law in case of any renewal which may now be made; and provided also, that no civil bill decree, or affirmation of a decree, or a reversal of a decree for possession, shall be renewed, save for the costs thereby decreed; and provided that it shall not be lawful for any assistant barrister to grant a renewal of any civil bill, decree or dismiss, affirmation or reversal, when two years shall have elapsed after such decree or dismiss, affirmation or reversal, shall have been pronounced, nor at any time to grant such renewal to or against any person not being an original party to such civil bill, unless upon proof made in open court that the party seeking such renewal caused notice in writing to be served upon the person against whom it is sought to renew such decree or dismiss, affirmation or reversal, setting forth the particulars of such decree and the amount for which the application to renew such decree is proposed to be made, such notice to be served in like manner as civil processes are required by law to be served, six days previous to the first day of holding the civil bill court to which such application is intended to be made, and to be entered with the clerk of the peace, and heard and determined in like manner as an original civil bill.

XXXIV. That in case of the death, removal, or incapacity of the assistant barrister of any county or riding, it shall and may be lawful for his successor, or the barrister for the time being acting for him, to sign any order or decree pronounced by the barrister so dying or removed or becoming incapable as aforesaid, and to act in all respects in reference to the orders made as the barrister so dying or removed or being incapable as aforesaid might have done; and the order and decree so signed shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been signed by the assistant barrister who pronounced the same.

XXXV. That no action or proceeding under or by virtue of this or any other Act relating to civil bill courts shall be treated or considered as invalid on account of any verbal or technical error in the same; and it shall be lawful for every assistant bar-rist to decide and determine what is a verbal or technical error or mistake in any action or proceeding, but all errors or mistakes which have not a tendency to mislead the opposite party shall in all cases be deemed merely verbal or technical.

XXXVI. That both parties shall be mutually at liberty to appeal each to the oath of the other on the subject of the alleged cause of action; provided that a notice in writing be served on the party so intended to be examined at least five days previous to the commencement of the sessions; but the assistant barrister may prevent and dispense with such appeal in such cases as he may think it expedient to do so.

XXXVII. That the Court of Quarter Sessions shall, after the first day of every session, commence its sittings in the months of December and January not earlier than nine nor later than ten of the clock in the forenoon, and in other months not later than nine of the clock in the forenoon, save when prevented by the illness or unavoidable absence of the assistant barrister or other fatality, and shall at once proceed with the criminal or civil business after the magistrate may be in attendance, but no decree or proceeding shall be in any manner impeached or questioned in consequence of any trial or civil bill having been commenced or heard at any time before or after any of those hours; and that no trial or case, criminal or civil, or other business, shall be entered upon after the hour of six of the clock in the afternoon of any day, nor shall any civil bill be called on after that hour, except at the request of both parties: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the assistant barrister to proceed in the criminal business although no magistrate shall be in attendance; any statute, law, charter, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVIII. That in case of the death or disability of any clerk of the peace during sessions, and of no immediate appointment of a successor or sufficient deputy being made, the assistant barrister shall appoint a fit and proper person to act as clerk of the peace in the meantime, and allocate a due proportion of the fees or salary in remuneration of the person so acting.

XXXIX. That all disputes and differences shall be heard and determined at every sessions in alphabetical order according to the surnames of the plaintiffs, and be entered accordingly in the book of the clerk of the peace, save and except in any case or cases where the assistant barrister shall see reason to vary the same.

XL. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any assistant barrister from hearing and determining such disputes and differences in such baronial or other divisions as to him shall seem meet; provided that within such divisions they shall be heard and determined in alphabetical order as aforesaid, and provided that such assistant barrister shall give three months notice of his intention to hear and determine disputes and differences in such baronial or other divisions, and provided that after an alteration in the mode of hearing disputes and differences shall be made by the assistant barrister no further or other alteration shall be made for the space of one year.

XLI. That the assistant barrister for the time being shall appoint a sufficient number of proper and responsible persons in every county to act as bailiffs for the execution of the decrees or orders of the civil bill court for the county, and no person shall be authorized or empowered to execute any decree or order of any civil bill court (save only decrees for possession) unless he shall have been so appointed bailiff as aforesaid; and all persons to be appointed bailiffs as aforesaid shall and may have and exercise all the powers and authorities which sheriffs of counties in Ireland or special bailiffs are enabled or empowered by law to have or exercise in the execution of the decrees or orders of the civil bill courts; and such bailiffs are hereby empowered and required to execute all decrees and dismissals, and all orders and decrees which shall be made by the assistant barrister of the county in which such order or decree shall be made, and any other assistant barrister, save only decrees for possession of lands, which shall be executed by the sheriff, and also decrees so far as respects costs in ejectment cases: Provided always, that the assistant barrister in ejectment cases shall, besides pronouncing a decree for possession or dismissal, as the case may be, issue his warrant for the levy of costs, and which shall be executed by the said bailiffs, and have the same effect as decrees on civil bills.

XLII. That the bailiffs so to be appointed as aforesaid shall be entitled to receive, on the execution of decrees and orders, the fee and poundage set forth in the second Schedule hereunto annexed, and no other fees or payments shall be recoverable or receivable by them, and the same shall be taxable against the party.

XLIII. That every person appointed to act as bailiff as aforesaid shall, before he acts in his said office, together with two responsible and sufficient sureties, give and execute to the clerk of the peace for the county in which such bailiff shall be appointed to act a bond in the penalty of 50*l.* conditioned for the proper performance of the duties of his office, and such bond shall vest in the clerk of the peace of the county for the time being, and may from time to time be sued on in his name, or in the name or names of any person or persons to whom it may be assigned under any order of the assistant barrister, which assignment shall be made by an unstamped indorsement by the acting clerk of the peace for the time being; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the peace for the time being to inquire and ascertain from time to time whether any of the sureties have become insolvent or have died, and to require the bailiff to give further or other security, and such clerk of the peace shall certify to the assistant barrister at each session that such sureties are alive, and have not become insolvent; and any person who shall sustain any damage by the neglect or misconduct of any such bailiff may proceed before the assistant barrister by civil bill to recover from him and his sureties the amount of such damages not exceeding 50*l.*; and the bond so given shall stand and be an additional security for such damages, and shall, if necessary, be put in suit to recover the sum and costs from the parties thereto or any of them; and it shall be lawful for any assistant barrister to dismiss any such bailiff for misconduct, and he shall report such dismissal to the Lord Lieutenant.

XLIV. That from and after the 1st of February the sum or fee of 1*s.* now payable to the sheriffs in Ireland for every special warrant granted at the peril of the party requiring the same shall be no longer payable; and that the said Act, 36 Geo. 3. (1.), so far as respects the payment to the sheriffs of the said sum or fee of 1*s.* be repealed; and that every sheriff shall be entitled to and be paid a sum of 10*s.* 6*d.* and no more, for executing every decree for delivering possession made by an assistant barrister or Judge on appeal; all which decrees the said sheriffs are hereby required to execute in person or by his deputy within a week after the same is delivered to him, and required by the party to execute the same.

XLV. That in case of the illness or unavoidable absence of any process server, the entries made in his book verified by his affidavit, or, in case of his death, verified as to his handwriting by some credible person, shall be received as evidence of the several processes stated in such book to have been served, and that the fee of 6d. allowed to such process server on each civil bill be in future taxed and allowed against the defendant, in like manner as other costs taxable against the party.

XLVI. That the bailiffs so to be appointed as aforesaid shall have full power and authority to sell goods taken in execution by them by public auction, without the assistance of a licensed auctioneer.

XLVII. That in all actions and proceedings by civil bill the fees specified in the second Schedule to this Act annexed shall be established and be deemed and taken as the lawful fees and emoluments for the discharge of the several duties therein specified, and no other fees or payments shall be recoverable for the discharge of such duties.

XLVIII. That every clerk of the peace, attorney, sheriff or his deputy, bailiff, or process server, who shall receive any greater fee, gratuity, or emolument, or other consideration, for any of the services specified in the said Schedule, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.* sterling for every such offence, to be recovered by civil bill or otherwise by any person who may sue for the same.

XLIX. Provided, that such of the fees specified and set forth in the said second Schedule as are thereby made payable to clerks of the peace of the different counties in Ireland for entering civil bills, and for signing decrees or diamissas, and signing and entering renewals, shall be payable to the register of the chairman of the county of Dublin and the clerk or register of civil bills for the city of Dublin respectively only in ejectment, replevin, and legacy cases, and in cases over which an entirely new jurisdiction is hereby created, and in all other cases the fees at present payable to the said respective registers shall continue payable and remain unaltered during the lives of the said present registers.

L. That every clerk of the peace shall cause to be constantly exposed, as well in his office as also in some conspicuous place accessible to the public, in every Court of General or Quarter Session, within his county, a fair and legible table, painted or printed in letters and figures not less than one half inch in length, of the fees payable upon all proceedings upon all civil bills, and likewise the penalty to which any person may become liable for receiving any greater fee than is set forth in the said second Schedule to this Act annexed for any of the services therein specified; and that on proof made on summary application to the court of any neglect or omission of such exposure, the clerk of the peace so neglecting shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.* to be paid to the treasurer of the county within which such penalty shall be incurred, and accounted for and applied by such treasurer to the aid of the expenditure of such county; and it shall be lawful for the grand jury of every county, at any assizes to be held in and for such county, to present the reasonable and actual expenses of preparing and exposing such tables to be raised by presentment upon such county, and to be paid to such clerk of the peace.

LI. That so much of the said Acts relating to civil bills as requires oaths to be taken by the attorneys practising in civil bill courts at the commencement of every session be repealed; and that in future such attorneys, on their commencement of practice in each county, shall make and sign an affidavit in writing to be attested by the assistant barrister, and to be deposited in the office of the clerk of the peace amongst the records of the court, in the form following; (that is to say,)

'I A. B., one of the Attornies, do swear, That I will faithfully discharge all such Duties and Business as may be intrusted to 'my Charge.'

And after reciting that it is considered that under the provisions of an Act, 56 Geo. 3. c. 88, intituled, 'An Act to amend the Law of Ireland respecting the Recovery of Tenements from absconding, overbuilding, and defaulting, Tenants, and for the Protection of the Tenant from undue Distress,' which Act is explained, amended, and extended by two other Acts respectively, 56 Geo. 3. and 1 Geo. 4, the tenant or defendant only is entitled to the right of appeal in proceedings instituted under the provisions of the said Acts;—

It is Enacted,

LII. That the landlord or plaintiff shall in all proceedings under the said recited Acts have and be entitled to all and every the same rights of appeal, under the same restrictions, conditions, and limitations, as in other cases of decrees on civil bills, as by the Acts in force relating to civil bill courts are provided for or given to defendants.

And after reciting that it would facilitate the administration of justice if a sufficient number of places were appointed for hearing and determining causes by civil bill, and transacting criminal and other business at a General or Quarter Session of the Peace;—

It is Enacted,

LIII. That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor of Ireland for the time being from time to time, by and with the consent and advice of the Privy Council, to divide the several counties in Ireland or any of them, or any riding or division of a county, into as many districts as shall be thought proper or expedient, for the purpose of more conveniently hearing and determining causes by civil bill, and of transacting all such criminal or all such other business, as may be cognisable or determinable at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and to appoint one or more convenient town or place, towns or places in any such district in which a civil bill court and a court for transacting such criminal and other business as aforesaid shall be held, and every such district shall be distinguished by the name of such town or place, and every such session and adjournment thereof shall be good and effectual for the administration of criminal business and civil bill cases, and doing all other business that may by law be done at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace; and the grand juries of the several counties in which such districts shall be situated shall and they are hereby required to present such sums as may be necessary for building or repairing sessions houses in such towns or places, and for paying the rent or hire of convenient places for holding such sessions until such sessions houses in such towns or places shall be built, in the same manner as they are empowered and required to present for such building and repairs, and hire or rent, by the said Act, 56 Geo. 3. c. 88, or any other Act now in force; and the assistant barristers and Justices of the Peace of such several counties shall have the same power in all respects of hiring such place or places for holding sessions as is given to them by such recited Act in relation to the places thereby directed to be provided for holding sessions.

LIV. That the assistant barristers of the several counties in Ireland shall, at the sessions by law appointed for fixing the times for holding the sessions fix the times for holding the sessions at any additional place or places, which shall be as near to the time for holding the other sessions as can conveniently be appointed by the clerk of the peace, who shall notify the time for holding such additional sessions in the same manner as he is now required to notify the time for holding the Quarter Sessions and other sessions of the peace.

And after reciting that by the said Act, 58 Geo. 3, it is enacted, that in all cases where any process upon any civil bill is thereby directed to be served upon any person, or to be affixed as therein mentioned, the said process shall be so served or affixed thirty clear days at the least previous to the day therein named for hearing and determining upon such civil bill: And that such last-mentioned provision has been found to be in many cases inconvenient, and it is expedient that the same should be altered or modified;—

It is Enacted,

LV. That from and after the passing of this Act, in all proceedings to be had or taken under the said Acts, 56 and 58 Geo. 3. and 1 Geo. 4, or this Act, where it would by virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them be necessary to serve or affix any such process as aforesaid thirty clear days at the least previous to the day therein named for hearing and determining upon such civil bill, the serving or affixing such process in manner in the said recited Act mentioned fifteen clear days at the least previous to the day therein named for hearing and determining upon such civil bill shall be to all intents and purposes good, valid, and sufficient.

And after reciting that doubts are entertained respecting the jurisdiction of the assistant barrister in cases where one or more of the defendants in an action resides or reside out of the county wherein such action is brought;—

It is Enacted,

LVI. That if one or more defendant or defendants resides or reside in the county or riding in which a civil bill shall be brought, the assistant barrister may make a decree against him or them, though another or other defendant or defendants may reside out of the jurisdiction of such barrister.

And after reciting that by 4 Geo. 4. c. 43, a salary of 30*l.* of the late currency of Ireland is provided for the crier at sessions in and for the county of Cork, which said county has been since divided into two ridings for the purpose of having separate and distinct sessions in each of the said ridings, but no provision was then made respecting the said salary of 30*l.*;—

It is Enacted,

LVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of the county of Cork and such grand jury are hereby required to present, to be raised off the respective portions of the said county constituting the said east riding and west riding, in lieu of the said annual sum of 30*l.* the two several sums not exceeding 25*l.* yearly, as and for the salary of each of the criers at sessions in the said two ridings, and that all enactments in the said last-mentioned Act relative to the salaries of criers at sessions shall extend to the said two salaries in like manner as if the same had been embodied in this present Act.

LVIII. That it shall and may be lawful for the assistant barristers in Ireland for the time being, or the majority of them, by and with the advice and consent of the Chief Justice or one of the Justices of the Court of King's Bench, and they are hereby required, to make and issue such general orders as they shall think fit for regulating the forms and manner of proceeding in the civil bill courts in Ireland, and for the settling and ascertaining the fees to be allowed to attorneys on proceedings by civil bill in cases where such fees are not specified or regulated by this Act or any Act heretofore made and provided, and for carrying the provisions of this Act into execution, and for simplifying, establishing, and settling the course of practice in the said courts or any of them, and from time to time to annul, alter, or vary any order or orders so as aforesaid made, and to make any new general order or orders for the like purpose; and copies of all such orders shall be transmitted to the clerks of the peace of the respective counties in Ireland, to be by them kept and preserved in their offices, and there to remain open at all times to public inspection; and such orders shall have the same effect and be as binding as if they were contained in this Act.

LIX. That from and after the commencement of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor of Ireland for the time being, by and with the advice of the Privy Council, to direct that a general session of the peace and civil bill court shall be held four times in every year in all or any of the towns appointed for holding sessions, and the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor of Ireland for the time being shall nominate and appoint the baronies or half baronies or parishes for which respectively such sessions shall be held.

LX. That if any person taking an oath or making a declaration or affirmation in any action, examination, or other proceeding under the provisions of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly swear, declare, or affirm falsely, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished accordingly; and if in any such action, examination, or other proceeding, the assistant barrister shall deem any witness or party to have so far wilfully and corruptly sworn, declared, or affirmed falsely as that in his opinion such witness or party ought to be prosecuted at the expense of the county within which the witness or party shall have so sworn or affirmed or declared, and shall certify such opinion in writing, then and in every such case, if any prosecution takes place, the Court in which such prosecution shall take place shall make an order for payment of the expenses of such prosecution by the treasurer of the county.

LXI. That all Acts heretofore passed and now in force relating to civil bill courts shall remain in full force and effect, except so far as the same or any part thereof respectively are or is hereby expressly varied.

LXII. That in any case where the decree of any civil bill court may be set up as a defence to any action in any superior court it shall not be incumbent on the party to plead such decree specially, but it shall be lawful for him to plead the general issue, and to give the decree in evidence as special matter.

LXIII. That in the construction of this Act all and every the powers and authorities conferred on assistant barristers in Ireland shall and may be exercised and performed in the county of Dublin by the chairman of the sessions of the peace for the county of Dublin, and in the city of Dublin by the recorder of the city; and so far as relates to the several matters and things to be done by or within the jurisdiction of the chairman of the county of Dublin, or of the recorder of the city of Dublin, the several proceedings and duties hereby directed to be had and done in the office of and by the clerk of the peace shall be had and done in the office of and by the register of the chairman of the county of Dublin, and in the office of and by the clerk or register of civil bills for the city of Dublin; and the provisions of this Act in relation thereto shall extend to such register of the chairman of the county of Dublin, to such clerk or register of civil bills; and wherever the clerk of the peace is named in this Act, the provision shall extend to the acting or deputy clerk of the peace, or other officer discharging the duties of a clerk of the peace under the civil bill Acts; and that the words "party and person," whenever used in this Act, shall extend to and include any corporation; and that all words importing the singular number or masculine gender shall be construed to extend to and include many persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, unless there be something in the context or provision repugnant to or inconsistent with such construction.

LXIV. That all jurisdictions, powers, and authorities conferred upon the assistant barristers of counties in relation to proceedings by civil bill previously to the passing of this Act, are hereby conferred upon the chairman of the sessions of the peace for the county of Dublin and the recorder of the city of Dublin.

LXV. That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st of November 1836.

LXVI. That this Act may be repealed, altered, or amended in this present session of Parliament.

SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Act refers.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Form of Civil Bill to be served upon the Defendant pursuant to this Act.

A. B. of in the County of [Residence and Addition of Plaintiff]	}	County of Division of to wit. By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for the said County.	THE Defendant is hereby required personally to appear before the said Assistant Barrister at on the Day of to answer the Plaintiff's Bill for [state the Cause of Action], or in default thereof the said Assistant Barrister will proceed as to Justice shall appertain. Dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred and Signed by [or on behalf of] the Plaintiff.
Do. of Plaintiff. Defendant.

Form of a Decree for Recovery of Lands.

A. B. Plaintiff.	}	County of Division of to wit. By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for said County.	It appearing to the Court that Plaintiff caused a Civil Bill to be brought against Defendant for Recovery of [here state the Cause of Action, as in Civil Bill], and it appearing to the Court that the Plaintiff is enti- tled to the said It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court, That the Plaintiff do recover from the Defendant the said together with costs; and the Sheriff for the said County of is hereby commanded to take possession of the said and deliver up the same to the Plaintiff; and the said Sheriff or the Bailiffs for the said County, and the several Bailiffs of the several other Counties of Ireland, is and are hereby commanded to take in Execution the Body or Goods of the said Defendant to satisfy the said Costs. Dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred and .
C. D. Defendant.			Attorney for the Plaintiff. Clerk of the Peace. Assistant Barrister.

[Assistant Barrister's Warrant to be added.]

Order of Replevin.

THE Sheriff of the County of is hereby required without Delay to cause to be replevied to A. B. (if he shall give sufficient Security) the Goods and Chattels which C. D. unjustly detains. Signed the Day of One thousand eight hundred and thirty .

Y. Z.
Clerk of the Peace for the said County of

Form of a Decree for Payment of Damages for improper Distress.

County of Division of to wit.

By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for said County.

Plaintiff. } It appearing to the Court that Plaintiff caused a Civil Bill to be brought against the Defendant for Recovery of Damages on account of the Goods and Chattels of the Plaintiff having been improperly distrained by the Defendant; and it appearing to the Court that the Distress in dispute was improperly made, or that the Amount due at the time of the Distress, with reasonable Costs of Distress, had been duly tendered: It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court, that the Plaintiff do recover from Defendant the Sum of for Damages and Costs; and the Bailiffs for the said County are hereby commanded to take in Execution the Body or Goods of the said Defendant to satisfy the same.

Dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred and .

Attorney for Plaintiff.
Clerk of the Peace for said County.
Assistant Barrister for said County.

[Assistant Barrister's Warrant to be added.]

Form of a Decree for Defendant in case of Distress.

County of Division of to wit.

Plaintiff. } By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for the said County.
Defendant. }

It appearing to the Court that Plaintiff caused a Civil Bill to be brought against the Defendant for Recovery of Damages on account of the Goods and Chattels of the Defendant having been improperly distrained, and it appearing to the Court that the Distress in dispute was not improperly made: It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court, That the Defendant do recover from the Plaintiff the Sum of for Rent due, and for Costs; and the Bailiffs for the said County, and the Bailiffs of the several other Counties in Ireland, are hereby commanded to take in Execution the Body or Goods of the said Plaintiff to satisfy the same. Dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred and .

Attorney for Defendant.
Clerk of the Peace for said County.
Assistant Barrister for said County.

[Assistant Barrister's Warrant to be added.]

Form of Replevin Bond.

County of Division of to wit.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we, A. B. of [Tenant] and C. D. and E. F. in [Sureties], are and each of us is jointly and severally held and firmly bound to Y. Z. Sheriff of the County of the Sum of of lawful British Money, to be paid to the said Sheriff, or his certain Attorney, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, for which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and each and every of us binds himself, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, firmly by these Presents, sealed with our Seals, and dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred and thirty- .

The Condition of the above-written Obligation is such, that if the above-bounden A. B. do prosecute his Suit against G. H. of in the Court of the Assistant Barrister for the said County of at the Sessions which will be held for the said County in the Month of next, for the taking and unjustly detaining of his Goods and Chattels, to wit [specify the Goods and Chattels], or do return all the said Goods and Chattels to the said G. H., his Executors or Administrators, then the above-written Obligation shall be void, otherwise the same shall be and remain in full force and virtue.

Form of a Decree for Payment of a Legacy.

County of Division of to wit.

By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for said County.

A. B. } It appearing to the Court that Plaintiff caused a Civil Bill to be brought against Defendant as Executor of Plaintiff. } A. B. for Recovery of the Sum of [here state the Cause of Action, as in Civil Bill], and it appearing to the
C. D. } Court that is due to the Plaintiff for his Legacy, and that the Defendant ought to pay the same Defendant. } and the Costs of this Civil Bill [or Part of the same, as the Case may be]: It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court, That the Plaintiff do recover from Defendant the said Sum of together with Costs; and the Bailiffs for the said County, and the Bailiffs of the several other Counties in Ireland, are hereby commanded to take in Execution the Body or Goods of the said Defendant to satisfy the said Debt and Costs. Dated this Day of .

One thousand eight hundred and .

Legacy Costs
Warrant

Attorney for the Plaintiff.
Clerk of the Peace for said County.
Assistant Barrister for said County.

[Assistant Barrister's Warrant to be added.]

Form of a Decree for Payment of a distributive Portion of the Assets of an Intestate.

County of _____ Division of _____ to wit.

By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for said County.

Plaintiff. } It appearing to the Court that Plaintiff caused a Civil Bill to be brought against the Defendant for Reco-Defendant. } very of the Sum of for his distributive Portion as one of the next of Kin of the Assets of of who died intestate, and it appearing to the Court that the Plaintiff is one of the next of Kin of the said and entitled to and that the Defendant is the Administrator of the said and that the Defendant has in his Hands of the Assets of the said a Sum sufficient to pay the Plaintiff's Demand [or Part of same, as the Case may be]: It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court, That the Plaintiff do recover from Defendant the said Sum of together with Costs; and the Bailiffs for the said County, and the Bailiffs of the several other Counties in Ireland, are hereby commanded to take in Execution the Body or Goods of the said Defendant to satisfy the said Debt and Costs. Dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred .
 Distribution Share, £ Costs
 Warrant

Attorney for Plaintiff.
Clerk of the Peace for said County.
Assistant Barrister for said County.

[Assistant Barrister's Warrant to be added.]

Form of a Dismiss of a Civil Bill.

No. County of Division of to wit,

By the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions for said County.

Defendant. } It appearing to the Court that the Plaintiff caused the Defendant to be served with Process to appear here Plaintiff. } this present Session for [here state the Cause of Action from the Civil Bill], and that the Plaintiff hath failed to prove his said Demand [or Right, as the Case may be]: It is therefore decreed by the Court, That the Plaintiff's Bill be and the same is hereby dismissed, and that the Defendant do recover against the Plaintiff the Sum of for Costs; and the Bailiffs for the said County, and the Sheriffs and Bailiffs of the several other Counties in Ireland, are hereby commanded to take in Execution the Plaintiff's Body or Goods to satisfy the said Costs. Dated this Day of One thousand eight hundred and .
Costs, £
Warrant

Attorney for Defendant.
Clerk of the Peace for said County.
Assistant Barrister.

Form of Assistant Barrister's Warrant.

County of _____ Division of _____ to wit.

I authorize and empower A. B. _____ of _____ one of the Bailiffs of this County, and his Associates, to execute the above Decree. Given under my Hand and Seal this _____ Day of _____ One thousand eight hundred and _____ Assistant Barrister of said County. [Seal.]

Form of Warrant for Costs in Ejectment Cases.

C. D. Plaintiff. } WHEREAS a Decree for Possession has been pronounced in this Cause; I do hereby authorize A. B.
E. F. Defendant. } one of the Bailiffs of this County, to levy the Sum of being the Amount of the Costs given in the said Action.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Containing a LIST of the FEES to be paid to the ASSISTANT BARRISTERS, CLERKS of the PEACE, ATTORNEYS, SHERIFFS, REPLEVINGERS, and BAILIFFS, for the Discharge of the several Duties in this Schedule specified.

To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for drawing or signing Civil Bill, 6d.

To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions for hearing, directing the necessary Proofs, entering the Civil Bill, for attending the hearing, (except in Ejectment, Replevin, and Legacy Cases,) and preparing any Summons required for Witnesses, and every Notice to produce Documents, to require the Attendance of any Party, or for any other Purpose, 2s. 6d.

To the Defendant's Attorney, for the like, and entering Defence, 2s. 6d.

- To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions for hearing, directing the necessary Proofs, and attending the hearing of Ejectment Cases under this Act, and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 7s. 6d.
- To the Defendant's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions for hearing, directing the necessary Proofs, and attending the hearing of Ejectment Cases under this Act, and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 7s. 6d.
- To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions in Replevin Cases under this Act, and attending the hearing thereof, where the Amount of Rent distrained for shall not exceed the Sum of 20l., and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 7s. 6d.
- To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions in Replevin Cases under this Act, and attending the hearing thereof, where the Amount distrained for shall exceed the Sum of 20l., and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 1l. 1s.
- To the Defendant's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions in Replevin Cases under this Act, and attending the hearing thereof, where the Amount distrained for shall not exceed the annual Sum of 20l. and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 7s. 6d.
- To the Defendant's Attorney, for like, where the Amount shall exceed 20l., 1l. 1s.
- To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for attending the hearing of Cases relating to Legacies and Distribution of Intestate's Effects, and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 5s.
- To Defendant's Attorney, for the like, and preparing all such Notices and Summonses, 5s.
- To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for attending and taking Instructions, and attending hearing in any Case for Recovery of a Penalty, 10s. 6d.
- To Defendant's Attorney, for the like, 10s. 6d.
- To the Plaintiff's Attorney, for drawing up and signing any Decree or Renewal, 1s.
- To the Defendant's Attorney, for drawing up and signing any Dismiss or Renewal, 1s.
- To the Clerk of the Peace, for entering any Civil Bill, 3d.
- To the same, for signing any Decree or Dismiss, 3d.
- To the same, for signing and entering any Renewal, 4d.
- To the same, for any Recognizance of Bail and Certificate of Appeal lodged, and entering the Appeal with Judge's Register, 1s.
- To the same, for issuing Order to Replevin, and entering Civil Bill thereon, and in lieu of all Charges relating to the Proceedings in Replevin Cases under this Act, 1s. 6d.
- To same, for each Copy of any Inventory of Assets lodged with him, and attesting same, per Folio of 90 Words, 4d.
- To the same, for entering any Verdict of a Jury, 1s.
- To the Assistant Barrister, for signing any Decree or Dismiss (except Ejectment and Replevin Cases, and Cases relating to Legacies and Distribution of Intestate's Effects), 1s.
- To same, for signing Decree or Dismiss in Ejectment, and in Cases relating to Legacies and Distribution of Intestate's Effects, 5s.
- To same, for Ditto in Replevin Cases, 10s.
- To the same, for signing a Renewal of any Decree or Dismiss, and Affidavit to ground same, 1s.
- To the Sheriff, for giving the Possession to any Party under a Civil Bill Ejectment Decree, 10s. 6d.
- To the Sheriff or his Replevinger, in drawing Affidavit of the Value of Goods distrained, and taking any Recognizance in Replevin Cases under this Act, and in full of all Charges for any Duties to be discharged by him relating thereto, 3s. 4d.
- To the Bailiffs to be appointed pursuant to this Act, for executing any Decree or Order, for any Sum not exceeding 1l.—1s.; and for any larger Sum, 2s. 6d.
- And 3d. in the Pound on the Amount recovered under such Execution.
- To the Sheriff, for summoning a Jury, 1s.

CAP. LXXVI.

AN ACT to reduce the Duties on Newspapers, and to amend the Laws relating to the Duties on Newspapers and Advertisements.

(13th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Reduced duties granted on newspapers in lieu of duties repealed.—Duties to commence on the 15th September 1836.—Powers and provisions of existing Stamp Acts to extend to the duties granted by this Act.
2. Discount of 25l. per cent. allowed on newspaper stamps in Ireland.
3. A separate stamp or die to be used for each newspaper.—After 31st December 1836 no newspaper to be printed on paper not stamped with such appropriated die.
4. Newspapers subject to the regulations of this Act.
5. Particulars to be printed on newspapers with supplements.—Penalty for omission, 20l.—Penalty for publishing supplements without the newspapers, 20l.
6. No person to print or publish a newspaper until a declaration be made and delivered at the Stamp Office.—Fresh declaration to be made in certain cases.—Before whom declarations are to be made.—Penalty if the declaration be false or defective.
7. Penalty for printing or publishing a newspaper, such declaration not having been made, 50l.
8. Declarations to be filed, and certified copies to be admitted in evidence against the persons making the same.—Commissioners, &c. to deliver certified copies of declarations, and the same to be received in evidence.—After production of the declaration, and a newspaper intituled as therein mentioned, it shall not be necessary to prove the purchase of the paper.—Penalty on unauthorized persons giving certificates, and on Commissioners or officers giving false certificates, 100*l*.

9. Service of legal process at the place of printing or publishing mentioned in the declaration shall be deemed sufficient service.
10. Titles of newspapers and names of printers and publishers to be entered in a book, and persons to have liberty to inspect it.
11. Printers, publishers, and proprietors of newspapers to give security for payment of the duties on advertisements.—Penalty for neglect or refusal, 100*l*.
12. Printers, &c. who have made affidavits and given security before the commencement of this Act not required to renew the same, except in the cases mentioned.—Cases in which such affidavits and securities shall be renewed.—Printers, &c. of the London and Dublin Gazettes not required to make declarations of the proprietorship.
13. Copies of newspapers shall be delivered to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes on penalty of 20*l*., and may be produced in evidence.—Commissioners may allow printer to lodge his paper with any distributor.
14. Name of printer and other particulars to be printed on newspapers.
15. None but Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes or their officer shall supply paper stamped for printing newspapers without having given security, with such conditions as herein mentioned.—Printer, &c. of newspaper shall not supply other printers with stamps.
16. Persons concerned in printing newspapers not duly stamped shall be debtors to His Majesty for the duty.
17. Penalty on persons printing, publishing, and selling, &c. newspapers not duly stamped, 20*l*.
18. Penalty for sending abroad newspapers not duly stamped.—Officers of stamp duties may seize unstamped newspapers.
19. Discovery of proprietors, printers, or publishers of newspapers may be enforced by bill, &c.
20. The duty on advertisements inserted in newspapers when and where to be paid.—Stamped paper may be refused to persons in arrear for advertisement duty.
21. A printed copy of every pamphlet or paper containing advertisements to be brought to the Stamp Office to be entered, and the duty thereon to be paid.—Penalty for neglect to pay duty, 20*l*.
22. Justices of the Peace on information upon oath may grant warrants to search for unstamped newspapers, and to seize presses, &c. used in printing the same.
23. On refusal of admittance on the execution of any search warrant, constables or peace officers may break open doors.—Penalty on persons resisting constables and officers acting in the execution of their duties under this Act, 20*l*.—Constables and peace officers to aid and assist in the execution of warrants.—Penalty for refusal or neglect of duty.
24. Persons possessed of printing presses may give notice thereof at the Stamp Office, and return lists of periodical papers for the printing of which such presses are used.
25. Persons who shall give such notice and deliver such list not to be liable to any penalty by reason of printing on unstamped paper any paper specified in such list, unless previous notice be given to them by a Commissioner or officer of stamp duties of its liability to stamp duty.
26. Limitation of actions against persons acting under Stamp Acts.—Venue local.—Notice of action.—General issue.—Tender of amends.—Costs.
27. Recovery of penalties.—No essoign, &c.—Application of penalties.
28. Mode of proceeding for the recovery of penalties before Justices of the Peace.—Appeal to sessions.—Notice of appeal.—Sessions may give costs.—Persons convicted to give security on appeal.—No certiorari.—Justices may mitigate penalties.
29. Form of conviction.
30. For compelling attendance of witnesses before Justices.
31. What shall be deemed good service of process, &c. in proceedings under this Act.
32. Repeal of Acts and parts of Acts, and duties thereby granted.—Acts passed in the Parliaments of Great Britain, viz. 10 Ann. c. 19; 11 Geo. 1. c. 8; 16 Geo. 2. c. 26; 5 Geo. 3. c. 46; 13 Geo. 3. c. 65; 16 Geo. 3. c. 34; 20 Geo. 3. c. 28; 29 Geo. 3. c. 50; 34 Geo. 3. c. 72; 37 Geo. 3. c. 90; 38 Geo. 3. c. 78.—Acts passed in the Parliaments of Ireland, viz. 23 & 24 Geo. 3. c. 28; 38 Geo. 3. c. 7.—Acts passed in the Parliaments of the United Kingdom, viz. 41 Geo. 3. c. 10; 44 Geo. 3. c. 98; 49 Geo. 3. c. 50; 55 Geo. 3. c. 80; 55 Geo. 3. c. 185; 56 Geo. 3. c. 56; 60 Geo. 3. c. 9; 6 Geo. 4. c. 119; 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 25; 5 Will. 4. c. 2.
33. Exception of all arrears of duty and all penalties, &c. incurred.—This Act not to revive any Act heretofore expired or repealed, nor to annul any indemnity granted.
34. Stamps rendered useless by this Act may be cancelled and allowed.
35. Construction of the terms used in this Act.
36. Act may be altered.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is expedient to reduce the stamp duties now payable on newspapers in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and to consolidate and amend the laws relating thereto and also to the duties on advertisements:—

It is Enacted,

1. That in lieu of the stamp duties on newspapers by this Act repealed as hereinafter mentioned there shall be granted, raised, levied, and paid unto and for the use of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the several duties or sums of money set down in figures, or otherwise specified and set forth, in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act annexed; which said Schedule, and every clause, regulation, matter, and thing therein contained, shall be deemed and taken to be part of this Act; and the said duties hereby granted shall commence and take effect on the 15th of September 1836, and shall be denominated and deemed to be stamp duties, and shall be under the care and management of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, who are hereby empowered and required to provide and use proper and sufficient dies for expressing and denoting the said duties; and all the powers, provisions, clauses, regulations, and directions, fines, forfeitures, pains, and penalties, contained in and imposed by the several Acts of Parliament in force relating to the stamp duties, and not repealed by this Act, shall be of full force and effect with respect to the duties hereby granted, as far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing of the said duties hereby granted and otherwise relating thereto, so far as the same shall not be superseded by and shall be consistent with the express provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said duties hereby granted.

II. That a discount after the rate of 25*l.* per centum on the prompt payment of any sum amounting to 10*l.* or upwards, for the duties on newspapers granted by this Act, shall be allowed to all proprietors of newspapers in Ireland on the purchase of stamps for the printing of newspapers in Ireland, which discount shall be denoted on the face of every stamp in respect of which the same shall be allowed: Provided always, that if any newspaper shall be printed in Great Britain upon paper stamped with a stamp denoting the allowance of any such discount, such stamp shall be of no avail, and such newspaper shall be deemed to be not duly stamped as required by this Act.

III. That from and after the 31st of December next after the passing of this Act in the stamp to be impressed on each and every newspaper under the provisions of this Act the title of such newspaper, or some part thereof, shall be expressed in such convenient manner and form as to the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes shall seem expedient; and the said Commissioners shall cause a proper die for stamping each such newspaper to be prepared under their directions, and a new or other die to be from time to time prepared, in like manner as they shall think necessary; and the reasonable costs and expenses of preparing such stamps or dies shall be from time to time defrayed by the proprietor of each such newspaper, and paid when and as required by the said Commissioners to such person as the said Commissioners shall appoint to receive the same, before any paper shall be stamped under the directions of such Commissioners for each such newspaper: and that from and after the 31st of December next after the passing of this Act no newspaper liable to duty under this Act shall be printed upon paper not stamped with such die, containing the title of such newspaper, or some part thereof as aforesaid; and if any newspaper shall be printed on paper stamped otherwise than as aforesaid the stamp thereon shall be of no avail, and such newspaper shall be deemed to be not duly stamped as required by this Act.

IV. That every paper declared by the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed to be chargeable with the duties by this Act granted on newspapers shall be deemed and taken to be a newspaper within the meaning of this Act and of every Act relating to the printing or publishing of newspapers, and shall be subject and liable to all the regulations by this Act imposed; and whatsoever in this Act or in any other Act or Acts relating to the printing or publishing of newspapers the word "newspaper" is or may be used, it shall be deemed and taken to mean and include any and every such paper as aforesaid; and in all proceedings at law or otherwise, and upon all occasions whatsoever, it shall be sufficient to describe by the word "newspaper" any paper by this Act declared to be a newspaper, without further or otherwise designating or describing the same.

V. That every sheet or piece of paper which shall be published as a supplement to any newspaper, except the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette respectively, shall be printed with the same title and date as the newspaper to which it shall be or shall purport to be a supplement, with the addition of the words "supplement to" prefixed to such title; and upon every such newspaper, except as aforesaid, there shall be printed in conspicuous characters some words clearly indicating that a supplement is published therewith; and if any sheet or piece of paper shall be published as a supplement to any newspaper, such supplement and the newspaper to which the same shall relate, not having printed thereon respectively the several particulars by this Act required to be printed thereon respectively, and in the manner and form by this Act directed, the publishers of such newspaper shall for every such sheet or piece of paper so published as a supplement, and for every copy thereof, forfeit the sum of 20*l.*; and if any person shall sell, deliver out, or in any other manner publish any sheet or piece of paper which shall be or shall purport to be a supplement to any newspaper, without at the same time selling or otherwise publishing and delivering therewith the newspaper to which the same shall be or purport to be a supplement, every such person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 20*l.*

VI. That no person shall print or publish, or shall cause to be printed or published, any newspaper before there shall be delivered to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or to the proper authorized officer at the head office for stamps in Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, or to the distributor of stamps or other proper officer appointed by the said Commissioners for the purpose in or for the district within which such newspaper shall be intended to be printed and published, a declaration in writing containing the several matters and things hereinafter for that purpose specified; that is to say, every such declaration shall set forth the correct title of the newspaper to which the same shall relate, and the true description of the house or building wherein such newspaper is intended to be printed, and also of the house or building wherein such newspaper is intended to be published, by or for or on behalf of the proprietor thereof, and shall also set forth the true name, addition, place of abode of every person who is intended to be the printer or to conduct the actual printing of such newspaper, and of every person who is intended to be the publisher thereof, and of every person who shall be a proprietor of such newspaper who shall be resident out of the United Kingdom, and also of every person resident in the United Kingdom who shall be a proprietor of the same, if the number of such last-mentioned persons (exclusive of the printer and publisher) shall not exceed two, and in case such number shall exceed two, then of such two persons, being such proprietors resident in the United Kingdom, the amount of whose respective proportional shares in the property or in the profit or loss of such newspaper shall not be less than the proportional share of any other proprietor thereof resident in the United Kingdom, exclusive of the printer and publisher, and also where the number of such proprietors resident in the United Kingdom shall exceed two, the amount of the proportional shares or interests of each several proprietors whose names shall be specified in such declaration; and every such declaration shall be made and signed by every person named therein as printer or publisher of the newspaper to which such declaration shall relate, and by each of the said persons named therein as proprietors as shall be resident within the United Kingdom; and a declaration of the like import shall be made, signed, and delivered in like manner whenever and so often as any share, interest, or property severally in any newspaper named in any such declaration shall be assigned, transferred, divided, or changed by act of the parties or by operation of law, so that the respective proportional shares or interests of the persons named in any such declaration as proprietors of such newspaper, or either of them, shall respectively become less than the proportional share or interest of any other proprietor thereof, exclusive of the printer and publisher, and also whenever and so often as any printer, publisher, or prop-nor named in any such declaration, or the person conducting the actual printing of the newspaper named in any such declaration shall be changed, or shall change his place of abode, and also whenever and so often as the title of any such newspaper or the printing office or the place of publication thereof shall be changed, and also whenever in any case, or on any occasion, or for any purpose, the said Commissioners, or any officer of stamp duties authorized in that behalf, shall require such declaration to be made, signed, and delivered, and shall cause notice in writing for that purpose to be served upon any person, or to be left or posted at any place mentioned in the last preceding declaration delivered as aforesaid, as being a printer, publisher, or proprietor of such newspaper, or as being the place of printing or publishing any such newspaper respectively; and every such declaration shall be made before any one or more of the said Commissioners, or before any officer of stamp duties or other person appointed by the said Commissioners either generally or specially in that behalf; and such Commissioners or any one of them, and such officer or other person, are and is hereby severally and respectively authorized to take and receive such declaration as aforesaid; and if any person shall knowingly and wilfully sign and make any such declaration in which shall be inserted or set forth the name, addition, or place of abode of any person as a proprietor, publisher, printer, or conductor of the actual printing of any newspaper to which such declaration shall relate, who shall not be a proprietor, printer, or publisher thereof, or from which shall be omitted the name, addition, or place of abode of any proprietor, publisher, printer, or conductor of the actual printing of such newspaper, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, or in which any matter or thing by this Act required to be set forth shall be set forth otherwise than according to the truth, or from which any matter or thing required by this Act to be truly set forth shall be entirely omitted, every such offender being convicted thereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

VII. That if any person shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or shall cause to be printed or published, or either as a proprietor or otherwise sell or deliver out any newspaper relating to which such declaration as aforesaid, containing such matters and things as are required by this Act to be therein contained, shall not have been duly signed and made and delivered when and so often as by this Act is required, or any other matter or thing required by this Act to be done or performed shall not have been accordingly done or performed, every person in any such case offending shall forfeit for every such act done the sum of 50*l.* for every day on which any such newspaper shall be printed or published, sold or delivered out, before or until such declaration shall be signed and made and delivered, or before or until such other matter or thing shall be done or performed as by this Act is directed; and every such person shall be disabled from receiving any stamped paper for printing such newspaper until such declaration shall be signed and made and delivered, or until such other matter or thing shall be done and performed.

VIII. That all such declarations as aforesaid shall be filed and kept in such manner as the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes shall direct for the safe custody thereof; and copies thereof, certified to be true copies as by this Act is directed, shall respectively be admitted in all proceedings, civil and criminal, and upon every occasion whatsoever, touching any newspaper mentioned in any such declaration, or touching any publication, matter, or thing contained in any such newspaper, as conclusive evidence of the truth of all such matters set forth in such declaration as are hereby required to be therein set forth, and of their continuance respectively in the same condition down to the time in question, against every person who shall have signed such declaration, unless it shall be proved that previous to such time such person became lunatic, or that previous to the publication in question on such trial such person did duly sign and make a declaration that such person had ceased to be a printer, publisher, or proprietor of such newspaper, and did duly deliver the same to the said Commissioners or to such officer as aforesaid, or unless it shall be proved that previous to such occasion as aforesaid a new declaration of the same or a similar nature respectively, or such as may be required by law, was duly signed and made and delivered as aforesaid respecting the same newspaper, in which the person sought to be affected on such trial did not join; and the said Commissioners, or the proper authorized officer by whom any such declaration shall be kept according to the directions of this Act, shall, upon application in writing made to them or him respectively by any person requiring a copy certified according to this Act of any such declaration as aforesaid, in order that the same may be produced in any civil or criminal proceeding, deliver such certified copy or cause the same to be delivered to the person applying for the same upon payment of the sum of 1*s.* and no more; and in all proceedings and upon all occasions whatsoever a copy of any such declaration certified to be a true copy under the hand of one of the said Commissioners or of any officer in whose possession the same shall be, upon proof made that such certificate hath been signed with the handwriting of a person described in or by such certificate as such Commissioner or officer, and whom it shall not be necessary to prove to be a Commissioner or officer, shall be received in evidence against any and every person named in such declaration as a person making or signing the same as sufficient proof of such declaration, and that the same was duly signed and made according to this Act, and of the contents thereof; and every such copy so produced and certified shall have the same effect for the purposes of evidence against any and every such person named therein as aforesaid, to all intents whatsoever, as if the original declaration of which the copy so produced and certified shall purport to be a copy had been produced in evidence, and been proved to have been duly signed and made by the person appearing by such copy to have signed and made the same as aforesaid; and whenever a certified copy of any such declaration shall have been produced in evidence as aforesaid against any person having signed and made such declaration, and a newspaper shall afterwards be produced in evidence intitled in the same manner as the newspaper mentioned in such declaration is intitled, and wherein the name of the printer and publisher and the place of printing shall be the same as the name of the printer and publisher and the place of printing mentioned in such declaration, or shall purport to be the same, whether such title, name, and place printed upon such newspaper shall be set forth in the same form of words as is contained in the said declaration, or in any form of words varying therefrom, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff, informant, or prosecutor in any action, prosecution, or other proceeding, to prove that the newspaper to which such action, prosecution, or other proceeding may relate was purchased of the defendant, or at any house, shop, or office belonging to or occupied by the defendant, or by his servants or workmen, or where he may usually carry on the business of printing or publishing such newspaper, or where the same may be usually sold; and if any person, not being one of the said Commissioners or the proper authorized officer, shall give any certificate purporting to be such certificate as aforesaid, or shall presume to certify any of the matters or things by this Act directed to be certified by such Commissioner or officer, or which such Commissioner or officer is hereby empowered or intrusted to certify; or if any such Commissioner or officer shall knowingly and wilfully falsely certify under his hand that any such declaration as is required to be made by this Act was duly signed and made before him, the same not having been so signed and made, or shall knowingly and wilfully falsely certify that any copy of any declaration is a true copy of the declaration of which the same is certified to be such copy, the same not being such true copy, every person so offending shall forfeit the sum of 100*l*.

ix. That in any suit, prosecution, or proceeding, civil or criminal, against any printer, publisher, or proprietor of any newspaper, service at the house or place mentioned in any such declaration as aforesaid as the house or place at which such newspaper is printed or published, or intended so to be, of any notice or other matter required or directed by this Act to be given or left, or of any summons, subpoena, rule, order, writ, or process of what nature soever, either to enforce an appearance, or for any other purpose whatsoever, shall be taken to be good and sufficient service thereof respectively upon and against every person named in such declaration as the printer, publisher, or proprietor of the newspaper mentioned in such declaration.

x. That the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes shall cause to be entered in a book to be kept at the bead office for stamps in Westminster, Edinburgh, and Dublin respectively the title of every newspaper registered at the said respective offices, and also the names of the printers and publishers thereof as the same appear in the declarations required by this Act to be made relating to such newspapers respectively, and all persons shall have free liberty to search and inspect the said book from time to time during the hours of business at the said offices without payment of any fee or reward.

xi. That no person shall print or publish, or shall cause to be printed or published, any newspaper, nor shall any officer of stamp duties or any vender of stamps for newspapers sell or deliver any stamped paper for newspapers to any printer or publisher of any newspaper, or to any person on his account, before or until such printer and publisher, together with the proprietor of such newspaper, or such one or more of the proprietors thereof, as in the judgment of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes or of the proper authorized officer may be sufficient for the purpose, together also with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the said Commissioners or such officer as aforesaid, shall have entered into security by bond to His Majesty in such sum as the said Commissioners or officer shall think reasonable and sufficient for payment of the duties which shall or may from time to time be payable for the advertisements which shall be printed or inserted in such newspaper; and every such bond, when duly executed, shall be delivered to and deposited with the proper authorized officer at the respective head offices for stamps in Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, according as such newspaper shall be printed in England, Scotland, or Ireland; and such bond shall be renewed from time to time, with sureties to be approved as aforesaid, whenever any one or more of the parties thereto shall die, or become bankrupt or insolvent, or reside in parts beyond the sea, and also whenever and so often as the said Commissioners or any officer of stamp duties authorized in that behalf shall require the same to be renewed, and shall give notice to the printer, publisher, or any proprietor of such newspaper for that purpose; and every person who shall print or publish, or shall cause to be printed or published, any newspaper before such bond shall have been entered into and delivered as aforesaid, or who shall neglect or refuse to renew such bond in manner aforesaid whenever the same is or shall be required to be renewed by or in pursuance of this Act, shall forfeit the sum of 100*l*., for every day on which such newspaper shall be so printed and published before such bond shall have been entered into and delivered as aforesaid.

xii. That no person being a printer or publisher or proprietor of any newspaper at the time of the commencement of this Act, and who in pursuance of any Act in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall have signed and sworn and delivered any affidavit, or shall have given or entered into any bond or security of the same nature and for the like purposes as any declaration or bond required by this Act, shall by reason of the passing of this Act be required or bound to deliver or make any new declaration, or to give or enter into any new bond or security, touching any newspaper mentioned in such former affidavit or bond or security, but every such affidavit and every such bond or security so made and delivered before the commencement of this Act as to the newspaper therein mentioned, whether the same shall be published before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be a compliance with this Act; and a copy of every such affidavit, certified as aforesaid, shall in all proceedings and upon all occasions whatsoever be received as conclusive evidence, against any and every person named in such affidavit as a person making, signing, or swearing the same, of all the matters therein contained, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided with respect to any declaration which may be made in pursuance of this Act, and shall be of the same force and effect to all intents and purposes as if the same had been made subsequent to the commencement of this Act, and in conformity with the provisions hereof: Provided nevertheless, that in case the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or any authorized officer of stamp duties, shall, by notice in writing to be given in the manner hereinbefore directed, require a declaration to be made and delivered, or any new bond or security to be given or entered into, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, by any such printer, publisher, or proprietor of any such newspaper, or in case any transfer, change, or alteration shall take place in the share, interest, or property of any person named in such affidavit relating to any such newspaper, or in the place of abode of the printer or publisher thereof, or of any proprietor named in such affidavit, or the place of printing the same, or in the person by whom the printing of such newspaper shall be conducted, or in the title of any such newspaper, then and in every such case a declaration shall be made and delivered, and a new bond shall be entered into and given, according to the provisions of this Act; and every printer, publisher, or proprietor of any such newspaper who shall knowingly and wilfully continue to print or publish any such newspaper, after the happening of any of the events aforesaid, before or until a declaration containing all the particulars required by this Act shall be made and delivered, and a new bond shall be entered into and given, according to the directions of this Act, shall be subject to all such penalties and disabilities as such printer, publisher, or proprietor would have been subject or liable to under this Act if no declaration relating to such newspaper had ever been made, nor any such bond entered into: And provided also, that nothing contained in this Act shall extend to require the printer, publisher, or proprietor of the London Gazette or Dublin Gazette to make any declaration required by this Act; but the printers and publishers of the said respective gazettes shall enter into the bonds by this Act required, together with the sureties hereinbefore mentioned, for securing the payment of the duties upon all advertisements which shall be printed in the said gazettes respectively; and shall renew the same from time to time in like manner as the printers and publishers of other newspapers are or may be required to renew their respective bonds by or under this Act.

xiii. That the printer or publisher of every newspaper printed or published in the city of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or within twenty miles of any of the said cities respectively, shall upon every day on which such newspaper shall be published or on the day next following which shall not be a holiday, between the hours of ten and three on each day, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes or to the proper authorized officer, at the head office for stamps in one of the said cities respectively in or nearest to which such newspaper shall be printed or published, one copy of every such newspaper and of every second or other varied edition or impression thereof so printed or published, with the name and place of abode of the printer or publisher thereof, signed and written thereon after the same shall be printed by his proper hand and in his accustomed manner of signing, or by some person appointed and authorized by him for that purpose, and of whose appointment and authority notice in writing, signed by such printer or publisher in the presence of and attested by an officer of stamp duties, shall be given to the said Commissioners, or to the officer to whom such copies are to be delivered; and the printer or publisher of every newspaper printed or published in any other place in the United Kingdom shall, upon every day on which such newspaper shall be published, or within three days next following, in like manner between the hours of ten and three, deliver or cause to be delivered to the distributor of stamps or other authorized officer in whose district such newspaper shall be printed or published two copies of every such newspaper, and of every second or other varied edition or impression thereof so printed or published, with the name and place of abode of the printer or publisher thereof signed and written thereon in manner aforesaid after the same shall be printed, and the same copies shall be carefully kept by the said Commissioners, or by such distributor or officer as aforesaid, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct; and such printer or publisher shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Commissioners, or such distributor or officer, once in every week, the amount of the ordinary price of the newspapers so delivered; and every printer and publisher of such newspaper who shall neglect to deliver or cause to be delivered in manner hereinbefore directed such copy or copies signed as aforesaid, shall for every such neglect respectively forfeit the sum of 20*l*.; and in case any person shall make application in writing to the said Commissioners, or to such distributor or officer as aforesaid in order that any newspaper so signed as aforesaid may be produced in evidence in any proceeding, civil or criminal, the said Commissioners, or distributor or officer, shall, at the expense of the party applying, at any time within two years from the publication thereof, either cause such newspaper to be produced in the court in which and at the time when the same is required to be produced, or shall deliver the same to the party applying for the same, taking according to their discretion reasonable security, at the expense of such party, for returning the same to the said Commissioners, or such distributor or officer, within a certain period to be fixed by them respectively; and in case by reason that such newspaper shall have been previously applied for in manner aforesaid by any other person the same cannot be produced or cannot be delivered according to any subsequent application, in such case the said Commissioners, or such distributor or officer as aforesaid, shall cause the same to be produced or shall deliver the same as soon as they are enabled so to do; and all copies so delivered as aforesaid shall be evidence against every printer, publisher, and proprietor of every such newspaper respectively in all proceedings, civil or criminal, to be commenced and carried on, as well touching such newspaper as any matter or thing therein contained, and touching any other newspaper, and any matter or thing therein contained which shall be of the same title, purport, or effect with such copy so delivered as aforesaid, although such copy may vary in some instances or particulars either as to title, purport, or effect; and every printer, publisher, and proprietor of any copy so delivered as aforesaid shall to all intents and purposes be deemed to be the printer, publisher, and proprietor respectively of all newspapers which shall be of the same title, purport, or effect with such copies or impressions so delivered as aforesaid, notwithstanding such variance as aforesaid, unless such printer, publisher, or proprietor respectively shall prove that such newspapers were not printed or published by him, nor by nor with his knowledge or privy: Provided always, that if any printer or publisher of any newspaper which shall not be printed and published in the cities of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or within twenty miles of the said cities respectively, shall find it more convenient to cause such copies of such newspaper to be delivered to any other distributor of stamps than the distributor in whose district such newspaper shall be published, and such printer or publisher shall state such matter by petition to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and pray that he may have liberty to cause such copies to be delivered to such other distributor as he shall so name at the office of such distributor, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to order the same accordingly, and from and after the date of such order the place of publication of such newspaper shall for that purpose only be deemed and taken to be within the district of such other distributor until the same shall be otherwise ordered by the said Commissioners.

XIV. That at the end of every newspaper, and of any and every supplement sheet or piece of paper, shall be printed the christian name and surname, addition, and place of abode of the printer and publisher of the same, and also a true description of the house or building wherein the same is actually printed and published respectively, and the day of the week, month, and year on which the same is published; and if any person shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any newspaper or supplement thereto whereon the several particulars aforesaid shall not be printed, or whereon there shall be printed any false name, addition, place, or day, or whereon there shall be printed any description of the place of printing or publishing such newspaper which shall be different in any respect from the description of the house or building mentioned in the declaration required by this Act to be made relating to such newspaper as the house or building wherein such newspaper is intended to be printed or published, every such person shall for any and every such offence forfeit the sum of 20*l*.

XV. That it shall not be lawful for any person other than a Commissioner of Stamps and Taxes, or officer of stamp duties, to sell, supply, or part with any paper stamped for the purpose of being used for printing newspapers thereon, unless nor until such person shall be duly licensed and authorized by the said Commissioners to vend newspaper stamps, and shall have given security by bond to His Majesty, with sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the said Commissioners, in such sum as the said Commissioners shall think reasonable, and the several conditions of such bond shall be as follow; (that is to say,) that such vendor of newspaper stamps shall and will deliver or cause to be delivered to the said Commissioners, within four days after the end of every six weeks, a true and accurate account of the quantities and kinds of all paper stamped as aforesaid by him sold, supplied, or delivered during such six weeks immediately preceding, and to what persons, naming them; and that such vendor will not sell, supply, or part with any such paper to or on account of any person other than a printer, publisher, or proprietor of a newspaper; and that such vendor will not sell, supply, or part with such paper to or on account of any such printer, publisher, or proprietor, until the person applying for the same shall have delivered to such vendor a certificate signed by one or more of the said Commissioners, or by the proper authorized officer of stamp duties, purporting that such security as is required by law hath been given by the printer, publisher, and proprietor respectively of the newspaper for the printing of which such stamped paper is to be sold, supplied, or parted with, and that such declaration hath been made and delivered respecting the same as is by this Act required; and that such vendor will not sell, supply, or part with any such paper to or on account of any printer, proprietor, or publisher of any newspaper, with respect to whom notice shall be given to such vendor by the said Commissioners or any such officer that such security has not been duly given, or has not been renewed, pursuant to this Act, or is not remaining in force, or that the parties or any of them who have given the same are or is dead, or gone abroad, or are or is not to be found, or that such parties or any of them have or hath given notice that they or he are or is no longer concerned as printers, publishers, or proprietors, or as a printer, publisher, or proprietor of such newspaper, or that no such declaration respecting the same, as required by this Act, hath been made and delivered, or that any such printer, publisher, or proprietor hath become disabled or disqualified under this Act to be the printer, publisher, or proprietor of any such newspaper or to receive stamped paper for the purpose of printing the same; and if any person as aforesaid shall sell, supply, or part with any such stamped paper for the purpose aforesaid without having given such security as aforesaid, or if any person who shall obtain or receive any stamped paper for the printing of any newspaper of which he is or shall be the printer, publisher, or proprietor, shall furnish or supply any other person with any such stamped paper, or if any person shall use for the printing of any newspaper any stamped paper which he shall receive or be furnished with by or from any person other than the said Commissioners or their officers, or some person duly authorized to sell or distribute such stamped paper, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 50*l*.; and in any proceeding for recovery of such penalty in the last-mentioned case it shall lie on the person sought to be charged with such offence to prove that the stamped paper used by such person in the printing of any newspaper was obtained by such person from the said Commissioners or their officers, or from some person duly authorized to sell or distribute such stamped paper; any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. That every person printing or publishing, or being concerned either as proprietor or otherwise in printing or publishing, any newspaper upon paper not duly stamped, shall be deemed and taken to owe to his Majesty such sums of money as would have accrued to his Majesty in case the same had been printed upon paper duly stamped; and whenever any information or bill shall be filed, or other proceeding shall be had on His Majesty's behalf, for discovery of the matters aforesaid, and for an account and payment of such sums, it shall not be lawful for the defendant to plead or demur to such information, bill, or proceeding, but he shall be compellable to make such discovery as shall be thereby required to be made: Provided always, that such discovery shall not be made use of as evidence or otherwise in any proceeding against any such defendant except only in that proceeding in which the discovery is made.

XVII. That if any person shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any newspaper on paper not duly stamped according to law, or if any person shall knowingly and wilfully sell, utter, or expose to sale, or shall dispose of or distribute, any newspaper not duly stamped as aforesaid, or if any person shall knowingly and wilfully have in his possession any newspaper not duly stamped as aforesaid, every person so offending in any of the cases aforesaid shall for every such newspaper, and for every copy thereof not duly stamped, forfeit the sum of 20*l*.; and moreover it shall be lawful for any officer of stamp duties, or for any person appointed or authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes in that behalf, to seize and apprehend such offender aforesaid, and to take him or cause him to be taken before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence shall be committed, who shall hear and determine the matter in a summary way; and if upon conviction such offender shall not immediately pay the penalty or penalties in which he shall be convicted, such Justice shall forthwith commit him to prison for any time not exceeding three calendar months nor less than one calendar month, unless such penalty or penalties shall be sooner paid: Provided always, that if any such offender as aforesaid shall not be apprehended and proceeded against in the manner hereinbefore directed, then the said penalty or penalties incurred by any such offence as aforesaid shall be recoverable by any other of the ways and means provided for the recovery of penalties incurred under this Act.

XVIII. That if any person shall knowingly and wilfully directly or indirectly send or carry, or endeavour to send or carry, or cause or procure to be sent or carried, or do or cause to be done any act whatever for or towards the sending or carrying, or for or towards the causing or procuring to be sent or carried, or with intent that the same should be sent or carried, out of any part of the United Kingdom, any newspaper, the same not being duly stamped according to law, such person shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of 50*l*.; and it shall be lawful for any officer of stamp duties, or for any person appointed or authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes in that behalf, without any other warrant than this Act, to seize and take away all newspapers not duly stamped wheresoever the same shall be found, unless the same shall be in the possession of some person having the custody thereof by lawful authority; and all newspapers not duly stamped which shall be seized or taken under any of the provisions of this Act shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes may direct.

XIX. That if any person shall file any bill in any court for the discovery of the name of any person concerned as printer, publisher, or proprietor of any newspaper, or of any matters relative to the printing or publishing of any newspaper, in order the more effectually to bring or carry on any suit or action for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of any seditious or libellous matter contained in any such newspaper respecting such person, it shall not be lawful for the defendant to plead or demur to such bill, but such defendant shall be compellable to make the discovery required: Provided always, that such discovery shall not be made use of as evidence or otherwise in any proceeding against the defendant save only in that proceeding for which the discovery is made.

XX. That the printer, publisher, or proprietor of every newspaper shall, within twenty-eight days after the last day of every calendar month, pay or cause to be paid the duty chargeable on all and every advertisement and advertisements contained in or published with such newspaper during the said calendar month to the Receiver General of Stamps and Taxes, or to the proper officer appointed to receive the same, at the head office for stamps in the cities of Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, if such newspaper shall be printed or published within any of the said cities, or within twenty miles thereof respectively, and if the same shall be printed or published in any other part of the United Kingdom, then to the distributor of stamps in whose district such newspaper shall be printed or published; and if any printer, publisher, or proprietor of any newspaper shall neglect to pay within ten days next after notice given to him by any officer of stamp duties, after the expiracion of the said term of twenty-eight days, the duty on any such advertisement, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and their officers, and they are hereby required to refuse to sell or deliver, and also to give notice to and to require any vendor of such stamped paper to refuse to sell or deliver, to or for the use of such printer, publisher, or proprietor, any such stamped paper for printing such newspaper thereon until all arrears of advertisement duty to the payment of which such printer, publisher, or proprietor may be subject shall be duly paid and discharged up to and for the last day of the month next preceding the month in which such payment shall be made.

XXI. That one printed copy of every periodical literary work or paper (not being a newspaper), containing or having published therewith any advertisements or advertisement liable to stamp duty, which shall be published within the cities of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, or within twenty miles thereof respectively, shall, within the space of six days next after the publication thereof, be brought, together with all advertisements printed therein, or published or intended to be published therewith, to the head office for stamps in Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin nearest to which such literary work or paper shall have been published, and the title thereof, and the christian name and surname of the printer and publisher thereof, with the number of advertisements contained therein or published therewith, and any stamp duty by law payable in respect of such advertisements, shall be registered in a book to be kept at such office, and the duty on such advertisements shall be there paid to the Receiver General of Stamps and Taxes for the time being, or his deputy or clerk, or the proper authorized officer; and one printed copy of every such literary work or paper as aforesaid which shall be published in any place in the United Kingdom not being within the cities of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or within twenty miles thereof respectively, shall, within the space of ten days next after the publication thereof, be brought, together with all such advertisements as aforesaid, to the head distributor of stamps for the time being within the district in which such literary work or paper shall be published, and such distributor is hereby required forthwith to register the same in manner aforesaid in a book to be by him kept for that purpose, and the duty payable in respect of such advertisements shall be thereupon paid to such distributor; and if the duty which shall be by law payable in respect of any such advertisements as aforesaid shall not be duly paid within the respective times and in the manner hereinbefore limited and appointed for that purpose, the printer and publisher of such literary work or paper, and every other person concerned in the printing or publishing thereof, and the publisher of any such advertisements, shall respectively forfeit the sum of 20*l*. for every such offence; and in any action, information, or other proceeding for the recovery of such penalty, or for the recovery of the duty on any such advertisements, proof of the payment of the said duty shall lie upon the defendant.

XXII. That upon information given before any Justice of the Peace upon the oath of one or more credible person or persons (which oath such Justice is hereby empowered and required to administer) that there is reasonable and probable cause to suspect any person of being or having been at any time within one calendar month last preceding in any way knowingly and wilfully engaged or concerned in printing, publishing, vending, or otherwise distributing any newspaper not duly stamped as required by law, or of being unlawfully possessed of any newspapers not duly stamped as aforesaid, or that any printing press, engine, machine, types, or other implements or utensils for printing is or are or have been by any person knowingly and wilfully used within the time last aforesaid for the purpose of composing or printing any newspaper not duly stamped as aforesaid, or that any such newspapers are sold or distributed, or kept for sale or distribution, or are unlawfully deposited in any place, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for such Justice and he is hereby required, upon the application of any officer of stamp duties, to grant a warrant under his hand, directed to any constable or other peace officer, or any officer of stamp duties, or other person or persons named in such warrant, authorizing and empowering him or them, with such other person or persons as he or they shall call to his or their assistance, to enter and search in the daytime any house, room, shop, warehouse, outhouse, building, or other place belonging to such suspected person, or where such person shall be suspected of being engaged or concerned or of having been engaged or concerned in the commission of any such illegal act as aforesaid, or where any such printing-press, engine, machine, types, implements, or utensils suspected to be or to have been used for any such illegal purpose as aforesaid shall be or be suspected to be, or where any such newspapers as aforesaid are suspected to be sold or distributed, or kept or deposited as aforesaid; and if upon any such search as aforesaid any newspapers not duly stamped as aforesaid, or any printing-press, engine, machine, types, implements, or utensils which shall have been used in printing or publishing any such newspaper as aforesaid within the time last aforesaid, shall be found, it shall be lawful for the person or persons named in such warrant, and his or their assistant or assistants, to seize and take away the same, together with all other presses, engines, machines, types, implements, utensils, and materials for printing belonging to the same person, or which shall be found in the same house, room, shop, warehouse, outhouse, building, or place; and all such presses, engines, machines, types, implements, utensils, and materials shall be forfeited to the use of His Majesty, and shall be proceeded against to condemnation in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively, in like manner as in the case of any goods seized as forfeited for any breach of the laws relating to His Majesty's revenues of Customs or Excise.

XXIII. That upon the execution of any warrant granted under this Act, authorizing any search to be made in any house, room, shop, warehouse, outhouse, building, or other place, if on demand of admittance and notice of any such warrant the door of any such house, room, shop, warehouse, outhouse, building, or other place shall not be forthwith opened, it shall be lawful for the constable or other peace officer having the execution of such warrant, or for any other person or persons to whom such warrant shall be directed, in the presence of any constable or other peace officer, in the daytime, to break open such door and to enter thereat for the purpose of making such search as aforesaid; and if any person shall refuse to permit any constable, peace officer, or officer of stamp duties, or any other person duly authorized in that behalf, to enter into any house, room, shop, warehouse, outhouse, building, or other place, for the purpose of making any search by or under this Act directed or authorized to be made, or shall resist, obstruct, molest, prevent, or hinder any such constable, officer, or person as aforesaid in the making of any such search, or in the execution of any warrant issued under or in pursuance of this Act, or in the seizing or taking away of any goods, chattels, articles, matters, or things which may be lawfully seized or taken, or in the apprehending or detaining of any offender or other person, who may lawfully be apprehended or detained, or otherwise, in the execution of any of the duties, powers, or authorities given to or vested in any such constable, officer, or other person as aforesaid by or under any of the provisions of this Act, every person so offending in any of the several cases aforesaid shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of 20*l*.; and all constables and other peace officers shall be and they are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the execution of all warrants issued under this Act; and if any constable or other peace officer shall neglect or refuse to do or perform any service or duty by this Act required or directed to be done or performed by him, or shall neglect or refuse to aid and assist in the execution of any such warrant as aforesaid, or of any of the provisions of this Act, upon proper application or notice made or given to him in that behalf, or shall neglect or refuse to execute or serve any warrant or summons granted or issued pursuant to any of the provisions of this Act, every such constable or peace officer shall forfeit 10*l.* for every such neglect or refusal.

xxiv. That it shall be lawful for every person having in his possession any printing press, or any engine or machine for printing, if he shall think fit, to deliver or cause to be delivered in the manner hereinafter mentioned a notice thereof signed with his own hand in the presence of and attested by an officer of stamp duties, which notice shall specify the christian name and surname and place of abode of the person possessed of any such printing press, engine, or machine, and a true description of the house or building and place in which the same shall be kept and used for printing; and every such person who shall give any such notice as aforesaid shall also at the same time, if he shall think fit, deliver or cause to be delivered in like manner a list of all or any of the periodical papers for the printing of which any such press, engine, or machine is used or intended to be used, and every such person as aforesaid shall afterwards from time to time quarterly, that is to say, within seven days after the 1st of March, the 1st of June, the 1st of September, and the 1st of December in every year, deliver or cause to be delivered in like manner a similar list of all or any of such periodical papers as aforesaid; and in the meantime and from time to time as often as such person shall undertake or permit the printing with any such press, engine, or machine as aforesaid of any periodical paper not specified in the last quarterly list delivered by such person, he shall, if he shall think fit, before the commencement of the printing of such last-mentioned paper, or within three days next after any part or number thereof shall be first printed with any such press, engine, or machine as aforesaid, give notice of the printing thereof in manner hereinafter mentioned; and every such list and notice of papers for the printing of which any such press, engine, or machine is used or intended to be used shall be signed by the person possessed of such printing press, engine, or machine with his own hand, or by some person appointed and authorized by him for that purpose, and of whose appointment and authority notice in writing signed by the person possessed of such press, engine, or machine as aforesaid, in the presence of and attested by an officer of stamp duties, shall be given to the said Commissioners, or to the officer to whom such lists as aforesaid are to be delivered; and every such list and notice of papers printed or to be printed as aforesaid shall specify and set forth the correct title of every such paper, and the name and place of abode of the printer thereof as the same shall appear in the imprint, and also the name and place of abode of the person who shall employ the person possessed of such press, engine, or machine to print or work off such paper, or who shall engage or use any such press, engine, or machine for that purpose; and every such notice as aforesaid relating to the possession of any printing press, engine, or machine, and also every list or notice of the papers printed or to be printed therewith, shall respectively be delivered to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or to some officer appointed by them to receive the same respectively, at the head office for stamps in Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, according as the person giving any such notice or list shall reside in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or to the distributor of stamps for the district in which such person shall reside.

xxv. That no person who shall have duly given such notice as aforesaid of being possessed of any press, engine, or machine for printing, and shall, within the respective periods and in the manner hereinbefore limited and directed for that purpose, have delivered lists and notices of all or any of the periodical papers for the printing of which any such press, engine, or machine shall be used, shall be liable to any penalty or forfeiture under this Act in respect of any paper, the same not being a registered newspaper, truly specified in the last quarterly list delivered by such person, or in any notice duly given by him since the delivery of the said list, by reason of such paper having been printed with any such press, engine, or machine of the possession of which such notice as aforesaid shall have been given, although such paper may be liable to stamp duty, and may have been printed on paper not duly stamped, unless the same shall be a registered newspaper, or unless the same shall have been so printed as aforesaid, after notice given by the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or some officer of stamp duties, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) provided always, that if a notice signed by any one or more of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or by any officer of stamp duties, shall be delivered to any person possessed of any such printing press, engine, or machine, or shall be left for him at the place mentioned in any notice given by him as aforesaid as the place of his abode, or the place where such printing press, engine, or machine is used for printing, informing him that any paper is chargeable with stamp duty as a newspaper under this Act, then if the same shall be so chargeable, and such person shall after such notice as aforesaid continue to print such paper, or any subsequent part or number thereof, or any paper of the like nature, whether under the same or any different form or title, or if after such notice as aforesaid such person shall permit or suffer any press, engine, or machine belonging to him or in his possession to be used for the printing of any such paper, part, or number as aforesaid, such person shall be liable to all the penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act for any offence committed against any of the provisions thereof, after such notice as aforesaid, without any further or other notice or caution: Provided also, that every person who shall neglect or omit to give any such notice or to deliver any such list as aforesaid in the manner and form and within the time hereinbefore directed and limited in that behalf, shall be liable to and chargeable with all penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act for any offence committed against the provisions thereof, without any previous notice or caution whatsoever.

xxvi. That all actions and prosecutions which shall be brought or commenced against any person for anything done in pursuance or under the authority of this Act shall be commenced and prosecuted within three calendar months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall in England or Ireland be brought and tried in the county or place where the cause of action shall arise, and not elsewhere, and shall in Scotland be brought in the Court of Exchequer; and notice in writing of such action and of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the action; and the defendant in such action may plead the general issue, and give this Act and any other matter or thing in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon; and if the cause of action shall appear to arise from any matter or thing done in pursuance and by the authority of this Act, or if any such action shall be brought after the expiration of such three calendar months, or shall be brought in any other county or place than as aforesaid, or if notice of such action shall not have been given in manner aforesaid, or if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action commenced, or if a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into court after such action commenced by or on behalf of the defendant, the jury shall find a verdict for the defendant; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or if the plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or shall discontinue any such action, or if, on demurrer or otherwise, judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover his full costs of suit as between attorney and client, and shall have the like remedy for the same as any defendant may have for costs of suit in other cases at law.

XXVII. That all pecuniary penalties under this Act may be sued or prosecuted for and recovered for the use of His Majesty in the name of His Majesty's Attorney General or Solicitor General in England or Ireland, or of His Majesty's Advocate General or Solicitor General in Scotland, or of the Solicitor of Stamps and Taxes in England or Scotland, or of the Solicitor of Stamps in Ireland, or of any person authorized to sue or prosecute for the same, by writing under the hands of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, or in the name of any officer of stamp duties, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster in respect of any penalty incurred in England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland in respect of any penalty incurred in Scotland, and in the Court of Exchequer in Dublin or by civil bill in the court of the recorder, chairman, or assistant barrister within whose local jurisdiction any offence shall have been committed, in respect of any penalty incurred in Ireland, or in respect of any penalty not exceeding 20*l.*, by information or complaint before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace in any part of the United Kingdom, in manner by this Act provided; and it shall not be lawful for any person other than as aforesaid to inform, sue, or prosecute for any such penalty as aforesaid except where, in the case of apprehending an offender by any person appointed or authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes in that behalf, it is by this Act otherwise expressly provided and allowed; and it shall be lawful in all cases for the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, either before or after any proceedings commenced for recovery of any such penalty, to mitigate or compound any such penalty as the said Commissioners shall think fit, and to stay any such proceedings after the same shall have been commenced, and whether judgment may have been obtained for such penalty or not, on payment of part only of any such penalty, with or without costs, or on payment only of the costs incurred in such proceeding, or of any part thereof, or on such other terms as such Commissioners shall judge reasonable: Provided always, that in no such proceeding as aforesaid shall any assign, protection, wager of law, nor more than one impariance be allowed; and all pecuniary penalties imposed by or incurred under this Act, by whom or in whose name soever the same shall be sued or prosecuted for or recovered, shall go and be applied to the use of His Majesty, and shall be deemed to be and shall be accounted for as part of His Majesty's revenue arising from stamp duties, anything in any Act contained, or any law or usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, at their discretion, to give all or any part of such penalties as rewards to any person or persons who shall have detected the offenders, or given information which may have led to their prosecution and conviction.

XXVIII. That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace within whose jurisdiction any offence the penalty for which shall not exceed 20*l.* shall be committed against this Act, and such Justice is hereby required, upon any information exhibited or complaint made by any person duly authorized in that behalf, to summon the party accused and also the witnesses on either side to be and appear before the said Justice or before any other Justice of the Peace at a time and place to be appointed for that purpose, and whether the party accused shall appear or not it shall be lawful for the said Justice or any other Justice present at the time and place appointed for such appearance to proceed to examine into the fact, and upon due proof made thereof to the satisfaction of any such Justice, either by confession of the party accused or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, to convict such offender, and to give judgment for the penalty and costs to be assessed by any such Justice, and to issue his warrant for levying such penalty and costs, and also the reasonable costs and charges attending the distress, on the goods of such offender, and to cause sale to be made thereof, in case the same shall not be redeemed within five days, rendering to the party the overplus, if any; and where goods sufficient cannot be found to answer such penalty and costs, such Justice, or any other Justice of the district or place in which such conviction shall take place, shall commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction, there to remain for any time not exceeding three calendar months nor less than one calendar month, unless such penalty, costs, and charges shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and if any person shall find himself aggrieved by the judgment of any such Justice, it shall be lawful for such person to appeal against the same to the Justices at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the district or place where the offence shall have been committed which shall be held next after the expiration of ten days from the day on which such conviction shall have been made, of which appeal notice in writing shall be given to the prosecutor or informer seven clear days previous to the first day of such sessions, and it shall be lawful for such Justices at such sessions to examine witnesses on oath, and finally to hear and determine such appeal; and in case any conviction of such Justice shall be affirmed it shall be lawful for the Justices at such sessions to award and order the person convicted to pay such costs occasioned by such appeal as to them shall seem meet: Provided always, that no person convicted before any such Justice shall be entitled or permitted to appeal against such conviction in manner aforesaid unless within three days after such conviction made he shall enter into a recognizance, with two sufficient sureties, before such Justice, to enter and prosecute such appeal, and to pay the amount of the penalty and costs in which he shall have been convicted, and also such further costs as shall be awarded in case such conviction shall be affirmed on such appeal: Provided also, that no such proceedings so to be taken as aforesaid shall be quashed or vacated for want of form, or shall be removed by certiorari, suspension, advocacy, or reduction, or by any other writ or process whatsoever, into any superior or other court or jurisdiction in any part of the United Kingdom, any law, statute, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this Act to mitigate as he shall see fit any pecuniary penalty by this Act imposed in cases where such Justice shall see cause so to do; provided that all reasonable costs and charges incurred as well in discovering as in prosecuting for such offence shall be always allowed, over and above the sum to which such penalty shall be mitigated, and provided that such mitigation do not reduce the penalty to less than one-fourth of the penalty incurred, exclusive of such costs and charges, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIX. That the Justice before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence under this Act shall cause the conviction to be made out in the manner and form following, or in any other form of words to the like effect, mutatis mutandis; (that is to say,)

'County of } Be it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord 'to wit, } at _____ A. B. of _____ was duly convicted before me C. D. Esquire, one of His 'Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of _____ in pursuance of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the 'Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled [Title of this Act], for that the said A. B. [here state the Offence], contrary to the 'Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided, for which Offence I do adjudge that the said A. B. hath forfeited the 'Sum of _____ and [if the Justice mitigate the Penalty] which sum of _____ I do hereby mitigate to the Sum of _____ 'over and above the Sum of _____ which I do allow to E. F. for his reasonable Costs and Expenses in 'prosecuting this Conviction. Given under my Hand and Seal this _____ Day of _____.'

xxx. That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to summon any person to appear before such Justice or before any other Justice of the Peace to give evidence touching any offence against the provisions of this Act; and if any person who shall be so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear, according to the exigency of such summons, at the time and place therein for that purpose named, without reasonable matter of excuse to be stated upon oath and proved to the satisfaction of such Justice before whom any information or complaint shall be depending or shall have been made touching any such offence as aforesaid, or if such person having appeared shall refuse to give evidence respecting any such offence or other matter as aforesaid, then every person so offending shall forfeit 10*l*.

xxx*i*. That in any proceeding either in any court, or before any Justice of the Peace, or otherwise, under this Act, or for summoning any party, witness, or other person in or for the purpose of any such proceeding, it shall not be necessary that the original or any other process or summons, or any notice, demand, or order whatsoever, should be personally served on the defendant or person to be summoned, but it shall be sufficient that such process, summons, notice, demand, or order, or a copy thereof respectively, be left at the last known place of abode of such defendant or person to be summoned.

xxx*ii*. That the several Acts and parts of Acts hereinafter mentioned, or so much and such part and parts thereof as are now in force, and the stamp duties thereby granted, or such of them as are now payable upon or in respect of newspapers, shall respectively remain and continue in force and be payable until and upon the 14th of September 1836, and shall from thenceforth cease, determine, and be repealed, (that is to say,) the several Acts and parts of Acts passed in the Parliaments of Great Britain hereinafter specified, namely,

So much of 10 Ann. c. 19, passed for the purpose (amongst other things) of laying duties upon several kinds of stamped vellum, parchment, and paper, and upon certain printed papers, pamphlets, and advertisements, as relates in any manner to the stamp duties on newspapers or the duties on advertisements, or as imposes any penalty with relation to the said duties or either of them:

And so much of 11 Geo. 1. c. 8, passed for the purpose (amongst other things) of explaining the said last-mentioned Act in relation to the stamp duties on newspapers, as in any manner relates to the stamp duties on newspapers:

And so much of 16 Geo. 2. c. 26, passed for the purpose (amongst other things) of punishing the vendors of unstamped newspapers, as in any manner relates to such purpose:

And so much of 5 Geo. 3. c. 46, intituled, 'An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Admissions into Corporations or Companies, and for further securing and improving the Stamp Duties in Great Britain,' as requires security to be given to His Majesty for payment of the duties on advertisements:

And the whole of 13 Geo. 3. c. 65, intituled, 'An Act for explaining Two Acts made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the First and the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty in relation to the Stamp Duties upon Newspapers:'

And so much of 16 Geo. 3. c. 34, passed for the purpose (amongst other things) of granting several rates and duties upon indentures, leases, bonds, and other deeds, and upon cards, dice, and newspapers, as in any manner relates to newspapers or to the stamp duties thereon:

And so much of 20 Geo. 3. c. 28, passed for the purpose (amongst other things) of granting additional duties on advertisements, as relates to such duties:

And so much of 29 Geo. 3. c. 50, for granting additional stamp duties on newspapers, advertisements, cards, and dice, as in any manner relates to newspapers or advertisements, or to the duties thereon respectively:

And the whole of 34 Geo. 3. c. 72, intituled, 'An Act to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Stamp Duties to stamp the Paper used for printing Newspapers thereon in Sheets of Single Demy Paper instead of Sheets of Double Demy Paper:'

And so much of 37 Geo. 3. c. 90, passed for the purpose (amongst other things) of granting certain stamp duties on the several matters therein mentioned, as in any manner relates to newspapers or to the duties thereon, or to any discount or allowance in respect of the said duties:

And the whole of 38 Geo. 3. c. 78, intituled, 'An Act for preventing the Mischiefs arising from the printing and publishing Newspapers and Papers of a like Nature by Persons not known, and for regulating the Printing and Publication of such Papers in other respects:'

And the whole of two several Acts passed in the Parliaments of Ireland hereinafter specified; (that is to say,)

An Act, 23 & 24 Geo. 3. c. 28, intituled, 'An Act to secure the Liberty of the Press by preventing the Abuses arising from the Publication of traitorous, seditious, false, and slanderous Libels by Persons unknown:'

And an Act, 38 Geo. 3. c. 7, for amending the said last-mentioned Act:

And the several Acts and parts of Acts passed in the Parliaments of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland hereinafter specified; (that is to say,)

So much of an Act, 40 Geo. 3, intituled, 'An Act to revive, amend, continue, or make perpetual certain temporary Statutes,' as makes perpetual or otherwise relates to the 38 Geo. 3. c. 7. (I.)

And so much of 41 Geo. 3. c. 10, for granting certain additional stamp duties, as in any manner relates to the stamp duties on newspapers, or to any discount or allowance in respect of the said last-mentioned stamp duties:

And so much of 44 Geo. 3. c. 98, intituled, 'An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof, as in any manner relates to newspapers or to the duties thereon, or to any discount or allowance in respect of the said duties :

And the whole of 49 Geo. 3. c. 50, intituled, ' An Act to amend so much of an Act made in the Thirty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, for granting to His Majesty certain Stamp Duties, as relates to the Limitation according to which the Discount on Newspapers is regulated : '

And the whole of 55 Geo. 3. c. 80, intituled, ' An Act to provide for the Collection and Management of Stamp Duties on Pamphlets, Almanacks, and Newspapers in Ireland : '

And so much of 55 Geo. 3. c. 185, intituled, ' An Act for repealing the Stamp Office Duties on Advertisements, Almanacks, Newspapers, Gold and Silver Plate, Stage Coaches and Licences for keeping Stage Coaches, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof, ' as in any manner relates to newspapers or the duties thereon, or to any discount or allowance in respect of the said duties :

And so much of 56 Geo. 3. c. 56, intituled, ' An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties in Ireland, and also several Acts for the Collection and Management of the said Duties, and to grant new Stamp Duties in lieu thereof, and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties, ' as in any manner relates to newspapers or to the duties thereon, or to any discount or allowance in respect of the said duties :

And so much of 60 Geo. 3. c. 9, intituled, ' An Act to subject certain Publications to the Duties of Stamps upon Newspapers, and to make other Regulations for restraining the Abuses arising from the Publication of blasphemous and seditious Libels, ' as subjects any newspaper or other paper or pamphlet to any stamp duty :

And the whole of 6 Geo. 4. c. 119, intituled, ' An Act to allow Newspapers to be printed upon Paper of a larger size than is now allowed, and to reduce the Stamp Duties now payable upon Supplements to Newspapers and other Papers in Great Britain : '

And so much of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 23, intituled, ' An Act to reduce the Stamp Duties on Advertisements and on certain Sea Insurances, to repeal the Stamp Duties on Pamphlets and on Receipts for Sums under Five Pounds, and to exempt Insurances on Farming Stock from Stamp Duties, ' as provides the mode of collecting the duty on advertisements contained in or published with any pamphlet, periodical paper, or literary work :

And the whole of 5 Will. 4. c. 2, intituled, ' An Act to amend an Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of King George the Third, for preventing the Mischiefs arising from the printing and publishing Newspapers and Papers of a like Nature by persons not known, and for regulating the Printing and Publication of such Papers in other respects, and to discontinue certain Actions commenced under the provisions of the said Act :

And the said several Acts and parts of Acts hereinbefore specified shall be and the same are hereby repealed accordingly, save and except only so far as is herein in that behalf provided.

XXXIII. Provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal any of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or parts of Acts with respect to any duty or arrears of any duty whatsoever which, before or upon the said 14th of September, 1836, shall have accrued and been incurred under or by virtue of the said Acts or parts of Acts, or any of them respectively, and which shall then or at any time afterwards be or become due or payable and remain in arrear and unpaid, or with respect to any fine, penalty, or forfeiture or punishment incurred and not recovered or suffered for in respect of any offence or crime committed or to be committed against the said several Acts or parts of Acts respectively, or any of them, upon or before the said 14th of September, 1836, or with respect to any proceedings, civil or criminal, commenced or to be commenced against any person for the recovery of any such arrears of duty, or of any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, or for the infliction of any such punishment as aforesaid, but that all such arrears of duty, fines, penalties, forfeitures, and punishments shall and may respectively be sued or prosecuted for, recovered, obtained, and inflicted, by the same ways and means and in such and the same manner as if this Act had not been passed : And provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal any of the said hereinbefore mentioned Acts or parts of Acts so far as the same or any of them repeal the whole or any part of any other Act or Acts ; and that no matter or thing whatever in this Act contained shall revive or be construed to revive, for any period or purpose whatsoever, any Act or Acts, or any part of any Act or Acts, which before the passing of this Act shall have expired, or which by any Act or Acts passed before the passing of this Act shall have been repealed ; and that the repeal of any Act or Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or any other matter or thing in this Act contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to repeal or annul or in any way to affect any indemnity granted under or by virtue of any Act or Acts so repealed.

XXXIV. That it shall be lawful for any person having in his possession any paper stamped with any of the duties hereby repealed, and not made use of, or who may at any time hereafter have in his possession any paper stamped for denoting the duties by this Act granted, and which may be rendered useless by reason of any change of dies, or by the operation of any of the provisions of this Act, to bring the same to the head office for stamps in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively at any time within six calendar months next after the said 15th of September, 1836, or within six calendar months next after the same shall be so rendered useless, in order that the stamps thereon may be cancelled and allowed ; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes or their proper officers to cancel and allow such stamps accordingly, and to stamp such paper or any portion thereof, and any other paper which shall be brought for that purpose, with stamps denoting the duty by this Act granted to the amount or value of the stamps so to be cancelled and allowed as aforesaid, after deducting the amount of any discount allowed thereon.

And in order to avoid the frequent use of divers terms and expressions in this Act, and to prevent any misconstruction of the terms and expressions used therein ;

It is Enacted,

XXXV. That wherever in this Act, with reference to any person, matter, or thing, any word or words is or are used importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, yet such word or words shall be understood and construed to include several persons as well as one person, females as well as males, bodies politic or corporate as well as individuals, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

xxxvi. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present session of Parliament.

SCHEDULE referred to in this Act.

SCHEDULE (A.)

Containing the Duties imposed by this Act on Newspapers; (that is to say,)

For every Sheet or other Piece of Paper whereon any Newspaper shall be printed, 1d.

And where such Sheet or Piece of Paper shall contain on One Side thereof a Superficies, exclusive of the Margin of the Letter-press, exceeding One thousand five hundred and thirty Inches, and not exceeding Two thousand two hundred and ninety-five Inches, the additional Duty of $\frac{1}{4}$ d.

And where the same shall contain on One Side thereof a Superficies, exclusive of the Margin of the Letter-press, exceeding Two thousand two hundred and ninety-five Inches, the additional duty of 1d.

Provided always, that any Sheet or Piece of Paper containing on One Side thereof a Superficies, exclusive of the Margin of the Letter-press, not exceeding Seven hundred and sixty-five Inches, which shall be published with and as a Supplement to any Newspaper chargeable with any of the Duties aforesaid, shall be chargeable only with the Duty of $\frac{1}{4}$ d.

And the following shall be deemed and taken to be Newspapers chargeable with the said Duties; viz. :—

Any Paper containing public News, Intelligence, or Occurrences printed in any Part of the United Kingdom to be dispersed and made public :

Also any Paper printed in any Part of the United Kingdom weekly or oftener, or at Intervals not exceeding Twenty-six Days, containing only or principally Advertisements :

And also any Paper containing any public News, Intelligence, or Occurrences, or any Remarks or Observations thereon, printed in any Part of the United Kingdom for Sale, and published periodically or in Parts or Numbers at Intervals not exceeding Twenty-six Days between the Publication of any Two such Papers, Parts or Numbers, where any of the said Papers, Parts, or Numbers respectively shall not exceed Two Sheets of the Dimensions hereinafter specified (exclusive of any Cover or Blank Leaf, or any other Leaf upon which any Advertisement or other Notice shall be printed), or shall be published for Sale for a less Sum than Sixpence, exclusive of the Duty by this Act imposed thereon : Provided always, that no Quantity of Paper less than a Quantity equal to Twenty-one Inches in Length and Seventeen Inches in Breadth, in whatever Way or Form the same may be made or may be divided into Leaves, or in whatever Way the same may be printed, shall, with reference to any such Paper, Part, or Number as aforesaid, be deemed or taken to be a Sheet of Paper :

And provided also, that any of the several Papers hereinbefore described shall be liable to the Duties by this Act imposed thereon, in whatever Way or Form the same may be printed or folded, or divided into Leaves or stitched, and whether the same shall be folded, divided, or stitched, or not.

EXEMPTIONS.

Any Paper called " Police Gazette, or Hue and Cry," published in Great Britain by Authority of the Secretary of State, or in Ireland by the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant.

Daily Accounts or Bills of Goods imported and exported, or Warrants or Certificates for the Delivery of Goods, and the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and also Papers containing any Lists of Prices Current, or of the State of the Markets, or any Account of the Arrival, Sailing, or other Circumstances relating to Merchant Ships or Vessels, or any other matter wholly of a Commercial Nature ; provided such Bills, Lists, or Accounts do not contain any other Matter than what hath been usually comprised therein.

CAP. LXXVII.

AN ACT for carrying into effect the Reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the State of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenue, so far as they relate to Episcopal Dioceses, Revenues, and Patronage.

(13th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Recital of Commissions and Reports.—Commissioners incorporated.
2. How vacancies to be supplied.
3. Commissioners to subscribe a declaration.
4. Five Commissioners to form a quorum.
5. Assent of meeting of Episcopal Commissioners essential to Acts under seal, &c.
6. Who to be chairman.
7. Commissioners to appoint a treasurer, secretary, and other officers.
8. Secretary to make and keep minutes.

9. Commissioners may call and examine witnesses, &c. and administer an oath or a declaration.
10. Commissioners to lay schemes before the King in council for carrying into effect their recommendations.
11. For preventing appointment of clergymen in Wales not acquainted with the Welsh language.
12. King in council may make orders for carrying schemes into effect; which shall be registered in each diocese respectively;—
13. And gazetted;—
14. And then to be of full effect for all purposes and as to all persons.
15. Copies of orders to be laid before Parliament.
16. Registrars to register all orders, subject to a penalty for neglect.
17. Fee to registrar.
18. No commendams to be held by bishops.
19. Jurisdiction of archdeacons.
20. This Act not to affect the jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts for one year.
21. Monitions to reside and for payment of stipends, &c. to issue in name of the bishop.—Same Court to have jurisdiction therein as at present.
22. Law of bona notabilia not altered for one year.
23. Marriage licences.
24. Ecclesiastical Courts to enforce production of documents.
25. Future appointments to offices in Ecclesiastical Courts not to give a vested interest.
26. Provisions applicable to Church Commissioners under Municipal Reform Act to apply to Commissioners under this Act, 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 76.

By this Act,

After reciting, that His Majesty was pleased, on the 4th of February and on the 6th of June in the year 1835, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching by commendam to bishoprics benefices with cure of souls, and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as may render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices: And that the said Commissioners have, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the 17th of March 1835, and the 4th of March, the 20th of May, and the 24th of June 1836: And that the said Commissioners have, in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that Commissioners be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before his Majesty in council such schemes as shall appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in council be empowered to make orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Canterbury consist of the county of Kent (except the city and deanery of Rochester, and those parishes which it is proposed to include in the diocese of London), and of the parishes of Croydon and Addington, and the district of Lambeth Palace, in the county of Surrey; and that the diocese of London consist of the city of London and the county of Middlesex, of the parishes of Barking, East Ham, West Ham, Little Ilford, Low Layton, Walthamstow, Wanstead, Saint Mary Woodford, and Chingford, in the county of Essex, all in the present diocese of London; of the parishes of Charlton, Lee, Lewisham, Greenwich, Woolwich, Eltham, Plumstead, and Saint Nicholas Deptford, in the county of Kent, and Saint Paul Deptford in the counties of Kent and Surrey, all now in the diocese of Rochester; of the borough of Southwark, and the parishes of Battersea, Bermondsey, Camberwell, Christchurch, Clapham, Lambeth, Rotherhithe, Streatham, Tooting, Graveney, Wandsworth, Merton, Kew, and Richmond, in the county of Surrey and present diocese of Winchester; and of the parishes of Saint Mary Newington, Barnes, Putney, Mortlake, and Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey and in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, together with all extra-parochial places locally situate within the limits of the parishes above enumerated, except the district of Lambeth Palace; and that the diocese of Winchester be diminished by the transfer of the parish of Addington to the diocese of Canterbury, and of the before-mentioned parishes to the diocese of London; and that the whole of the parish of Westminster be transferred from the diocese of Bath and Wells to the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol; and that the city and deanery of Bristol be united to the diocese of Gloucester; and that the southern part of the diocese of Bristol, consisting of the county of Dorset, be transferred to the diocese of Salisbury; and that the diocese of Ely be increased by the counties of Huntingdon and Bedford, now in the diocese of Lincoln, by the deaneries of Lynn and Fincham in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, and by the archdeaconry of Sudbury in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Norwich, with the exception of the deaneries of Sudbury, Stow, and Hartismere, and by that part of the county of Cambridge which is now in the diocese of Norwich; and that it be declared that the Scilly Islands are within the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Exeter and of the Archdeacon of Cornwall; and that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol be united, and that the diocese consist of the present diocese of Gloucester, of the city and deanery of Bristol, of the deaneries of Cricklade and Malmesbury in the county of Wilts and now in the diocese of Salisbury, and of the whole of the parish of Westminster, now in the diocese of Bath and Wells; and that to the diocese of Hereford be added the deanery of Bridgnorth, now locally situated between the dioceses of Hereford and Lichfield; and that those parts of the counties of Worcester and Montgomery which are now in the diocese of Hereford be transferred to the dioceses of Worcester and Saint Asaph and Bangor respectively; and that the diocese of Lichfield consist of the counties of Stafford and Derby; and that the diocese of Lincoln consist of the counties of Lincoln and Nottingham; and that the latter county, now in the diocese and province of York, be included in the province of Canterbury; and that the diocese of Norwich consist of the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, except those parts which it is proposed to transfer to the diocese of Ely; and that the diocese of Oxford be increased by the county of Buckingham, now in the diocese of Lincoln, and by the county of Berks, now in the diocese of Salisbury; and that the diocese of Peterborough be increased by the county of Leicester, now in the diocese of Lincoln; and that the diocese of Rochester consist of the city and deanery of Rochester, of the county of Essex (excepting the parishes which it is proposed to leave in the diocese of London), and of the whole county of Hertford; and that to the diocese of Salisbury, reduced according to the foregoing propositions, be added the county of Dorset, now in the diocese of Bristol; and that the diocese of Worcester consist of the whole counties of Worcester and Warwick; and that the sees of Saint Asaph and Bangor be united, and that the diocese consist of the whole of the two existing dioceses (except that part of the diocese of Saint Asaph which is in the county of Salop) and of those parts of the county of Montgomery which are now in the dioceses of Saint David's and Hereford; and that the diocese of Llandaff consist of the whole counties of Glamorgan and Monmouth; and that the diocese of Saint David's be altered by the transfer of those parts of the counties of Montgomery, Glamorgan, and Monmouth which it is proposed to include in the respective dioceses of Saint Asaph and Bangor and Llandaff; and that the diocese of York consist of the county of York, except such parts thereof as it is proposed to include in the new diocese of Ripon; and that the diocese of Durham be increased by that part of the county of Northumberland called Hexhamshire which is now in the diocese of York; and that the sees of Carlisle and Sodor and Man be united, and that the diocese consist of the present diocese of Carlisle, of those parts of Cumberland and Westmorland which are now in the diocese of Chester, of the deanery of Furnes and Cartmel in the county of Lancaster, of the parish of Alderton, now in the diocese of Durham, and of the Isle of Man; and that the diocese of Chester consist of the county of Chester, of so much of the county of Flint as is now in that diocese, and of so much of the county of Salop as is not in the diocese of Hereford; and that the whole diocese be included in the province of York, and that two new sees be erected in the province of York, one at Manchester and the other at Ripon; and that the diocese of Manchester consist of the whole county of Lancaster except the deanery of Furnes and Cartmel; and that the diocese of Ripon consist of that part of the county of York which is now in the diocese of Chester, of the deanery of Craven, and of such parts of the deaneries of the Ainstey and Pontefract in the county and diocese of York as lie to the westward of the following districts; viz. the liberty of the Ainstey and the wapentakes of Baislam Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as may appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that the bishops of the two newly erected sees be made bodies corporate, and be invested with all the same rights and privileges as are now possessed by the other bishops of England and Wales, and that they be made subject to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York, and that the collegiate churches of Manchester and Ripon be made the cathedrals, and that the chapters thereof be the chapters of the respective sees of Manchester and Ripon, and be invested with all the rights and powers of other cathedral chapters; and that the members of these and of all other cathedral churches in England be styled dean and canons; that the chapter of Carlisle be the chapter of the united see of Carlisle and Man; that the bishops of the see of Saint Asaph and Bangor be elected alternately by the Dean and Chapter of Saint Asaph and by the Dean and Chapter of Bangor; that the bishops of the see of Bristol and Gloucester be elected alternately by the Dean and Chapter of Bristol and by the Dean and Chapter of Gloucester; that power be given to determine the future mode of confirming such acts of the Bishop of either of the united sees as may require confirmation by a dean and chapter; and that upon the first avoidance of either of the sees of Saint Asaph or Bangor and of Gloucester or Bristol the Bishop of the other of the sees proposed to be united become ipso facto bishop of the two sees, and thereupon become seized and possessed of all the property, advowsons, and patronage belonging to the see so avoided; and that the jurisdiction of the bishop's court in each diocese be co-extensive with the limits of the diocese as newly arranged; and that such arrangements be made with regard to the apportionment of fees payable to the officers of the several diocesan courts as may be deemed just and equitable, for the purpose of making compensation to those officers who may be prejudiced by the proposed alterations; and that such alterations be made in the apportionment or exchange of ecclesiastical patronage among the several bishops as shall be consistent with the relative magnitude and importance of their dioceses when newly arranged, and as shall afford an adequate quantity of patronage to the bishops of the new sees; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as shall, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave an average annual income to the Archbishop of Canterbury 15,000*l.*, to the Archbishop of York 10,000*l.*, to the Bishop of London 10,000*l.*, to the Bishop of Durham 8,000*l.*, to the Bishop of Winchester 7,000*l.*, to the Bishop of Ely 5,500*l.*, to the Bishop of St. Asaph and Bangor 5,200*l.*, and to the Bishop of Worcester and Bath and Wells respectively 5,000*l.*; and that out of the fund thus accruing fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as shall be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively be not less than 4,000*l.* nor more than 5,000*l.*; and that at the expiration of every seven years, reckoning from the 1st of January 1837, a new return of the revenues of all the bishopricks be made to the Commissioners, and that thereupon the scale of episcopal payments and receipts be revised, so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, to each bishop, an amount of income equivalent to that which shall have been determined in the first instance to be suitable to the circumstances of his bishoprick, and that such revised scale take effect as to each see respectively upon the then next avoidance thereof; and that if, in determining the mode of regulating the episcopal incomes, either in the first instance or on any future revision of them, it shall be deemed expedient to make the alteration required, in any case, by the subtraction or addition of any real estates, such real estates be transferred accordingly; and that out of the property of the see of Durham provision be forthwith made for the completion of those augmentations of poor benefices which the late bishop (meaning thereby the late Right Reverend William Van Mildert,) had agreed to grant, but which he left uncompleted at the time of his death; and that the Bishop of Durham do in future hold the castle of Durham in trust for the University of Durham, and that all expenses of maintaining and repairing the same be defrayed by the University of Durham; and that so soon as the relative values of the several sees under the new arrangements shall have been ascertained apportionment be made of the sums to be thereafter paid by the respective bishops for first fruits, so as to leave the aggregate amount payable from all the sees to the bounty of Queen Anne the same as at present; and that the bishops who shall on the present vacancies succeed to the sees of Durham and Ely be relieved from the excess beyond their due proportion payable for first fruits, and that the residue of the sums due be paid by the Commissioners out of the surplus funds arising from those sees; and that the tenths to be hereafter payable by the respective bishops be regulated by the amount of the first fruits payable under the preceding propositions; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see the bishop of which was in possession on the 4th of March 1836 take effect until the avoidance of the see without the consent of such bishop; and that no ecclesiastical dignity, office, or benefice be in future granted to any bishop to be held in commendam, but that such of the endowments of certain prebends in the cathedrals of Lincoln, Lichfield, Exeter, and Salisbury as now belong to the bishops of the respective dioceses continue annexed to the respective sees; and that fit residences be provided for the Bishops of Lincoln, Landaff, Rochester, Manchester, and Ripon; and that, for the purpose of providing the bishop of any diocese with a more suitable and convenient residence than that which now belongs to his see, sanction be given for purchases or exchanges of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the respective sees, and also, where it may be necessary, for the borrowing by any bishop of a sum not exceeding two years income of his see, upon such terms as shall appear to be fit and proper; and that the governors of the bounty of Queen Anne be empowered to lend money upon mortgage to such bishops; and that so much of the sum of 6000*l.* recovered by the late Bishop of Bristol for damages done to the episcopal residence at Bristol, and of its accumulations, as may remain after deducting proper expenses, together with the money arising from the sale of the site of such residence, if sold, be applied to the purchase or erection of a residence for the Bishop of the see of Bristol and Gloucester; and that new archdeaconsries of Bristol, Midsstone, Monmouth, Westmorland, Manchester, Lancaster, and Craven be created, and that districts be assigned to them; and that archidiaconal power be given to the Dean of Rochester within that part of Kent which will remain in the diocese of Rochester; and that the limits of the other existing deaneries and archdeaconsries be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place be within a rural deanery, and every deanery within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry extend beyond the limits of one diocese; and that all the archdeaconsries of England and Wales be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate; and that all archdeacons have and exercise full and equal jurisdiction within their respective archdeaconsries: And that it is expedient that the said recommendations should be carried into effect as soon as conveniently may be:—

It is Enacted,

I. That the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the first Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual, (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or first Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland,) the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner Knight, shall for the purposes of this Act be one body politic and corporate by the name of "The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name shall and may sue and be sued, and shall have power and authority to take and purchase and hold lands, tenements, and hereditaments, to them, their successors and assigns, for the purposes of this Act, the statutes of Mortmain, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

II. That the two last-named Bishops and the three last-named lay Commissioners shall be at all times removeable by His Majesty in council by warrant under the sign manual; and that when any vacancy shall occur, by death, removal, resignation, or otherwise, among the two last-named Bishops and the three last-named lay Commissioners, or among such of the future Commissioners under this Act as shall not have become such Commissioners by virtue of any dignity or office, according to the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to fill up such vacancy by appointing under his royal sign manual, instead of any such Commissioner being a bishop some other bishop of England or Wales, and instead of any such Commissioner being a layman some other layman, being a member of the said church, to be a Commissioner under this Act; and every such bishop or person so to be appointed shall accordingly become to all intents and purposes one of the Commissioners for the purposes of this Act.

III. That every such Commissioner, whether herein named or hereafter to be appointed, not being an archbishop or bishop, shall, before acting under the said commission, and at the first meeting he shall attend, subscribe in the book of the minutes of the proceedings of the said Commissioners a declaration in the words following:

'I do hereby solemnly, and in the Presence of God, testify and declare, That I am a Member of the United Church of England and Ireland as by Law established. Witness my Hand this Day of'

IV. That all acts, matters, and things which the said Commissioners are by any of the provisions of this Act authorized or required to do and perform shall and may be done and performed by any five of such Commissioners: Provided always, that such five Commissioners be for such purpose assembled at a meeting whereof due notice shall have been given to all the said Commissioners.

V. Provided, That no proceeding which requires to be ratified and confirmed by the common seal of the corporation shall be finally concluded, nor the said seal affixed to any deed or instrument, save at a meeting whereof notice shall have been in like manner given, and whereas two at least of the said Episcopal Commissioners shall be personally present: Provided also, that in case any two Episcopal Commissioners, being the only Episcopal Commissioners present, shall object to the ratification and confirmation of any such proceeding as aforesaid, or to the affixing of such seal to any deed or instrument as aforesaid, such ratification or affixing of the seal shall not take place until a subsequent meeting of the Commissioners shall have been held, after due notice thereof shall have been given.

VI. That at each meeting of the said Commissioners the Commissioner first in rank and precedence there present shall preside as chairman, and in case of the equality in rank and precedence of all the Commissioners so present then the senior Commissioner in the order of appointment shall so preside; and the chairman at all such meetings shall not only vote as a Commissioner, but shall also in case of the equality of votes have the casting or decisive vote.

VII. That the said Commissioners may from time to time appoint a treasurer and secretary, and such clerks, messengers, and officers as they shall deem necessary, and from time to time, at the discretion of the said Commissioners, may remove such treasurer, secretary, clerks, messengers, and officers, or any of them, and appoint others in their stead: Provided always, that the amount of the salaries of such treasurer, secretary, clerks, messengers, and officers shall from time to time be regulated by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them.

VIII. That the secretary or other officer of the said Commissioners shall keep a book, in which he shall make minutes of the proceedings of the said Commissioners at their several meetings, and enter the names of the Commissioners present thereat; and such entry of the proceedings at each meeting shall be signed by the chairman thereof.

IX. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by summons under the hand of the chairman of any such meeting, to require the attendance of any person whom they shall think fit to examine touching any matter within their cognizance, also to make any inquiries, and call for any answers or returns, as to any such matter, and also to administer oaths, and examine every such person upon oath, and to cause to be produced before them, upon oath, all statutes, charters, grants, rules, regulations, bye-laws, books, deeds, contracts, agreements, accounts, and writings whatsoever, or copies thereof respectively, in anywise relating to any such matter; or, in lieu of requiring such oath as aforesaid, the said Commissioners may, if they think fit, require any such person to make and subscribe a declaration of the truth of his examination.

X. That the said Commissioners shall from time to time prepare, and lay before His Majesty in council, such schemes as shall appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the hereinbefore recited recommendations, and shall in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as may, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations as to matters of detail and regulation as shall not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations, and in particular that it shall be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate.

XI. That the said Commissioners shall prepare, and lay before His Majesty in council, such scheme as shall appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for preventing the appointment of any clergyman not fully conversant with the Welsh language to any benefice with cure of souls in Wales in any parish the majority of the inhabitants of which do not understand the English language.

XII. That when any scheme prepared under the authority of this Act shall be approved by His Majesty in council it shall be lawful for His Majesty in council to issue an order or orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme or the several parts thereof shall take effect, and to direct in every such order that the same be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof may or shall be in any respect affected thereby, and in any newly-created diocese by such person as shall be for that purpose named in such order, which person shall in such last-mentioned diocese become registrar there, and so continue as long as he shall demean himself well in his office.

XIII. That every such order shall, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

XIV. That so soon as any such order in council shall be so registered and gazetted it shall in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in this Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XV. That a copy of every order of His Majesty in council made under this Act shall be laid before each House of Parliament in the month of January in every year, if Parliament shall be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting within one week after the next meeting thereof.

XVI. That the registrar of every diocese to whom any order of His Majesty in council made by virtue of this Act shall be delivered shall forthwith register the same in the registry of his diocese; and the persons who shall be for that purpose appointed in the dioceses of Manchester and Ripon shall forthwith register every such order in books to be by them for that purpose provided, which shall thenceforth become the registry of those dioceses respectively; and if any such registrar or other person shall refuse or neglect to register any such order he shall for every day during which he shall so offend forfeit 20*s.*, and if his offence shall continue for the space of three months he shall forfeit his office, and it shall be lawful for the bishop of the diocese, or for His Majesty, as the case may be, to appoint a successor thereto.

XVII. That for such registration as aforesaid no registrar shall be entitled to receive any fee or reward, but that on every search for any such order he shall be entitled to receive a fee of 3*s.*, and for every copy or extract of any such order certified by him he shall be entitled to receive for every folio of ninety words 4*d.*; and the copy of every such entry, certified by the registrar, shall be admissible as evidence in all courts and places whatsoever.

XVIII. That after the passing of this Act no ecclesiastical dignity, office, or benefice shall be held in commendam by any bishop, unless he shall so hold the same at the time of passing thereof; and that every commendam thereafter granted, whether to retain or to receive, and whether temporary or perpetual, shall be absolutely void, to all intents and purposes.

XIX. That all archdeacons throughout England and Wales shall have and exercise full and equal jurisdiction within their respective archdeaconries, any usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

And after noticing that it may be expedient to consider the state and jurisdiction of all the Ecclesiastical Courts in England and Wales;—

It is Enacted,

XX. That nothing herein contained, or any order of His Majesty in council made under the authority of this Act, either altering the limits of either of the existing provinces or the boundaries of any existing diocese or archdeaconry, or for ~~altering~~ any existing sees, or for creating any new bishoprick or archdeaconry, or for appointing any registrar under the provisions of this Act, or for any other purpose whatever, shall for one year after the passing of this Act, or if Parliament shall be then sitting till the end of the session of Parliament, in any manner affect or be construed to affect the jurisdiction, power, or authority of any or either of the existing Ecclesiastical Courts in England or Wales, or the extent or limits thereof, but that during such period as last aforesaid every such Court shall continue in all matters whatsoever arising within its present limits to exercise the same jurisdiction as heretofore by law allowed.

XXI. That in all cases of monitions to reside, and monitions for the payment of the stipends of curates, and of proceedings consequent thereupon, except as hereinafter excepted, and in all cases of licences granted to spiritual persons, the same shall issue only under the authority and in the name of the bishop of the diocese, whether such diocese be according to the present territorial limits or as altered or newly created under the authority of this Act: Provided always, that if it be necessary to institute in any Ecclesiastical Court proceedings thereupon or in consequence thereof, such proceedings shall be commenced, carried on, and decided in and by the same Court which at the time of the passing of this Act would be entitled to exercise jurisdiction in such matters respectively, and in the case of proceedings at the instance of a bishop in the name of the Judge of such court: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect any peculiar belonging to either of the archbishops at the time of the passing of this Act, but that every such peculiar, except as may be otherwise provided by any order of His Majesty in council, made and issued in pursuance of this Act, shall to all intents and purposes and in all respects remain subject to the same authority and jurisdiction as if this Act had not been passed.

XXII. That nothing herein contained, nor any such order in council as aforesaid, shall, during such period as last aforesaid, be construed to alter in any respect whatsoever the law of bona notabilia as it exists at the time of the passing of this Act, notwithstanding any change of province, diocese, archdeaconry, or any other jurisdiction whatsoever.

XXIII. That all marriage licences shall during such period as last aforesaid continue to be granted in the same manner and by the same authorities respectively as before the passing of this Act.

XXIV. That during such period every Ecclesiastical Court in which any proceedings shall be had shall have power to send for and enforce the production of all original instruments and documents relating to such proceedings by whatever ecclesiastical authority the same may have been issued.

XXV. That in case the office of Judge, registrar, or other officer of any or either of the Ecclesiastical Courts in England or Wales (except the Prerogative Court of Canterbury) shall become vacant during such period as last aforesaid, the person who may be thereunto appointed shall accept and take such office subject to all regulations and alterations affecting the same which may be hereafter made and provided by or under the authority of Parliament, and shall not by his appointment thereto acquire any vested interest in such office, nor any claim or title to compensation in respect thereof, in case the same shall be hereafter abolished by Parliament.

And after noticing that by 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 76, intituled, 'An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales,' provision was made concerning the sale of certain ecclesiastical preferments in the patronage of the several municipal corporations therein mentioned, at such time and in such manner as the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the established church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, should direct;—

It is Enacted,

XXVI. That from and after the passing of this Act the provisions in the said recited Act contained which apply to the said Commissioners shall apply and be held to apply to the Commissioners appointed under this Act by the style and title of "The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England."

CAP. LXXVIII.

AN ACT to enable His Majesty to make Regulations for the better defining and establishing the Powers and Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Consuls in the Ottoman Dominions.

(13th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. His Majesty, by orders in council, may issue directions to his Ambassadors, Consuls, &c., touching their rights and duties in the protection of his subjects residing or resorting there.
2. And also directions for their guidance in the settlement of differences between his subjects and those of any other christian power in said dominions.
3. Regulating suits and actions brought under this Act.

By this Act,

After noticing that by the treaties and capitulations subsisting between His Majesty and the Sublime Ottoman Porte, full and entire jurisdiction and controul over British subjects within the Ottoman dominions in matters in which such British subjects are exclusively concerned is conferred upon the British Ambassadors and Consuls appointed to reside within the said dominions: And that it is expedient for the protection of British subjects within the dominions of the Sublime Porte in Europe, Asia, and Africa, and likewise in the states of Barbary, as well as for the protection of His Majesty's Ambassadors, Consuls, or other officers appointed or to be appointed by His Majesty for the protection of the trade of His Majesty's subjects in the said ports and places, that provision should be made for defining and establishing the authority of the said Ambassadors, Consuls, and other officers:—

It is Enacted,

I. That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by any order or orders of His Majesty in council, to make and issue any directions and regulations touching and concerning the rights and duties, jurisdiction and authority, criminal as well as civil, over His Majesty's subjects residing at or resorting to the ports or other places within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte in Europe, Asia, and Africa, and likewise in the states of Barbary, to be exercised and performed by His Majesty's Ambassadors, Consuls, or other officers, appointed or to be appointed by His Majesty for the protection of the trade of His Majesty's subjects in the ports and places before mentioned, and to establish forms of proceeding in all matters coming under the cognizance of the said Ambassadors, Consuls, or other officers in virtue of such order or orders in council, and to impose penalties, forfeitures, or imprisonments, for the breach of any such directions or regulations, to be enforced in such manner as in the said order or orders shall be specified; and the said Ambassadors, Consuls, and other officers are hereby authorized and required to obey and enforce the said regulations and directions; and the same shall be effectual and binding upon all subjects of His Majesty residing at or resorting to the said ports and places for the purposes of trade or otherwise.

And after noticing that cases occasionally arise within the dominions of the Ottoman Porte above specified, and in the states of Barbary, wherein the interposition of His Majesty's Ambassadors, Consuls, or other officers is required by the subjects of other Christian powers in the determination of differences or disputes between such persons and British subjects;—

It is Enacted,

II. That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any order or orders in council, to make and issue, in the same manner, directions and regulations for the guidance of his Ambassadors, Consuls, and other officers, and of all other subjects of His Majesty, in cases in which the interposition of His Majesty's Ambassadors, Consuls, or other officers may be so required for the settlement of any differences or disputes which may arise between British subjects and the subjects of any Christian power within the dominions of the Sublime Porte in Europe, Asia, and Africa, and in the states of Barbary: Provided always, that every order in council issued by the authority of this Act shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both houses of Parliament, and shall not be binding and effectual until six months after it shall have been so laid before both houses of Parliament.

III. That if any suit or action shall be brought against any person or persons for anything done in pursuance of this Act, or of any orders or regulations made by virtue thereof, then and in every such case such action or suit shall be commenced or prosecuted within six months after the fact committed, and not afterwards, except where the cause of action shall have arisen in any place not within the jurisdiction of any of His Majesty's courts having civil jurisdiction, and then within six months after the plaintiff or plaintiffs, defendant or defendants, shall have been within the jurisdiction of any such Court; and the same and every such action or suit shall be brought in the county or place where the cause of action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere, except where the cause of action shall have arisen in any place not within the jurisdiction of any of His Majesty's courts having civil jurisdiction; and the defendant or defendants shall be entitled to the like notice, and shall have the like privilege of tendering amends to the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or their agent or attorney, as is provided in actions brought against any Justice of the Peace for acts done in the execution of his office, by an Act, 24 Geo. 3. c. 4, intituled, 'An Act for the rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in obedience to the Warrants;' and if the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue any such action after the defendant or defendants shall have appeared, or if a verdict shall pass against the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or if upon demurrer judgment shall be taken against the plaintiff or plaintiffs, the defendant or defendants shall and may recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for the recovery thereof as any defendant or defendants hath or have in any cases of law.

CAP. LXXIX.

AN ACT for vesting Lighthouses, Lights, and Sea Marks on the Coasts of England in the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond; and for making Provisions respecting Lighthouses, Lights, Buoy, Beacons, and Sea Marks, and the Tolls and Duties payable in respect thereof.

(13th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Property of the Crown in lighthouses transferred to the Trinity House.
2. For making a compensation to the land revenues for such transfer.
3. The Trinity House empowered to purchase lighthouses, &c.
4. Misnomers not to prevent the execution of this Act.
5. Jury to settle differences as to value.
6. Manner of proceeding where the parties cannot agree, or by absence, &c. shall be prevented from treating.
7. For summoning a jury.
8. In default of jurors, the sheriff to adjourn the inquiry.
9. Persons interested not to be jurymen.
10. No person to be heard upon the inquiry without giving previous notice of his claim.
11. If no person appear pursuant to notice, how inquiry to be taken.

12. Jury to settle the proportions to be paid to the owners of particular estates.
13. Annuities, &c. after payment of purchase money to be deemed to be extinguished.
14. Allowance to sheriffs and jurors.
15. Fines on sheriff, jury, and witnesses for non-attendance.
16. Juries to be under the same regulations as in courts at Westminster.
17. Verdicts to be deemed records, and copies thereof evidence.
18. Expenses of inquiry, by whom to be paid.
19. Purchase money, &c. how to be paid.
20. Lighthouses, &c. to vest in the Trinity House immediately on payment or tender of the purchase-money or sums awarded for same.
21. Debts charged on lighthouses to be still charged thereon.
22. Such debts to be deducted out of the purchase money.
23. Directing application of money when amounting to 200l. and upwards.
24. Application when less than 200l. and not more than 20l.
25. Application when money under 20l.
26. In case of not making out titles, or if persons cannot be found, the Trinity House to order the purchase-money to be paid into the Bank subject to the order of the Court of Exchequer on motion or petition.
27. When any question shall arise touching the title to the money to be paid, the person in possession at the time shall be deemed entitled according to such possession.
28. Expenses of such purchases to be paid by Trinity House.
29. Compensation to officers, &c. that may be discharged.
30. Power to borrow money.
31. Indemnity for extra duties on foreign ships privileged under the Reciprocity Acts no longer to be paid out of the consolidated duties of Customs.
32. If reciprocity conventions cease, extra duties to be again payable, and the amount to be paid to the Consolidated Fund.
33. Duties for the North and South Foreland lights to vest in the Trinity House discharged of the rent to the Crown.
34. Powers of the Acts relating to the Skerries, Spurn Point, and Tinnmouth Castle lights to be extended to the Trinity House.
35. Vesting the lighthouse at Heligoland and the Bembridge light in the Trinity House.
36. Duties to be taken in respect of the Heligoland light.
37. Powers of 6 Geo. 3. c. 31, and 42 Geo. 3. c. 43, in favour of the Trinity Houses of Hull and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, repealed.
38. Future controul over pier and harbour lights.
39. Vessels of the Trinity House to be exempt from dues.
40. Duties hereafter to be paid in respect of lighthouses, &c. on the coasts of Scotland.
41. Certain payments in respect of extra tolls on foreign ships to cease.
42. Power to the Commissioners and the corporation for the port of Dublin to erect other lighthouses, &c. in Scotland and Ireland.
43. Commissioners to be at liberty to submit suggestions to the King in council.
44. Trinity House may enter lighthouses on the Scotch and Irish coasts.
45. Duties to be payable in respect of new lighthouses on the coasts of Scotland and Ireland.
46. Notice of new lights to be published in the Gazette, &c.
47. New lighthouses, &c. and the tolls thereof to vest in the Commissioners and corporation.
48. Lighthouses may be surrendered to the Trinity House, &c.
49. Restriction as to granting of pensions out of the tolls.
50. Corporation for improving the port of Dublin may appoint collectors of tolls in respect of lighthouses.
51. Duties, how to be collected.
52. If the Treasury are of opinion that the tolls can be collected by a collector of Customs, the wardens, &c. to appoint accordingly.
53. Duties when to be collected.
54. Power of distress for duties.
55. Duties may be recovered by action or suit.
56. Duties throughout the United Kingdom to be subject to be reduced, &c.
57. Regulations to be made for relief of ships and vessels with regard to duties.
58. Tables of tolls and regulations to be hung up in Custom Houses.
59. Power to alter the situation of lighthouses.
60. Trinity House empowered to purchase ground not exceeding one acre, adjoining any lighthouse.
61. Remedy in respect of fires, &c. on the coast, which may be mistaken for lights and sea marks.
62. Accounts to be laid before Parliament annually.
63. General plea for matters done in pursuance of this Act.
64. Interpretation clause.
65. Public Act.

By this Act,

After reciting that by far the greater number of the lighthouses upon the coasts of England, and the islands and other places adjoining thereto, belong to or are under the controul and management of the master, wardens, and assistants of the guild, fraternity, or brotherhood of the most glorious and undivided Trinity and of Saint Clement in the parish of Deptford Strand in the county of Kent, commonly called the corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strand, as well by virtue of 8 Eliz. c. 13, as by virtue of divers ancient grants and charters, and particularly of a certain ancient grant dated the 11th of June in the thirty-sixth year of Her said Majesty, whereby Her Majesty granted to the master, wardens, and assistants of the said corporation the beaconage and buoyage, and the office of beaconage and buoyage, upon the surrender thereof into the hands of Her Majesty by Charles Lord Howard Baron of Effingham then being Her said Majesty's Great Admiral of England; and the said master, wardens, and assistants are entitled to erect and maintain from time to time such and so many beacons, marks, and signs for the sea in such place or places of the sea shores and uplands near the sea coasts or forelands as to them shall seem most meet, whereby dangers may be avoided, and ships the better come to their ports without peril: And that the several lighthouses at Harwich in the county of Essex, Dungeness in the county of Kent, Wintertonness and Hunstanton Cliff in the county of Norfolk, and Orfordness in the county of Suffolk, still remain parcel of the possessions and land revenues of the Crown in England, and are under the separate controul and management of divers individuals [whose names are set forth], as leasees thereof under the Crown, for terms of years which are not yet expired : And that certain other lighthouses upon the coasts of England are under the separate controul and management of divers individuals, as the proprietors or leasees thereof; (that is to say) the lighthouse called " Skerries," in Saint George's Channel, under the controul and management of Morgan Jones, Esq.; the lighthouses near the Spurn Point at the mouth of the river Humber, under the controul and management of Benedict John Angell Angell, Esq. and George Lowther Thompson, Esq.; the lighthouse at Tinnmouth in the county of Northumberland, under the controul and management of William Fowke, Esq.; the lighthouse on the rock called " The Smalls," in Saint George's Channel, under the controul and management of Mrs. Elizabeth Buchanan and Thomas Pickering Clarke, Esq.; and the lighthouses on the rock called " The Longships," on the coast of Cornwall, held by Henry Pascoe Smith, Esq.: And that by 3 Geo. 4. c. 111, it was enacted, that the master, wardens, and assistants of the said corporation might with any surplus monies then or thereafter in their hands, arising from any tolls theretofore or thereafter payable to them, purchase any beacons, buoys, lighthouses, or other marks and signs for the sea, or any interest therein or in any tolls arising therefrom, belonging to any body corporate or politic or to any person; and that all such bodies or persons, and all other persons whosoever possessed thereof or interested therein, might contract for the sale thereof with the said master, wardens, and assistants, and might convey the same to them : And that by virtue of the last-mentioned Act the said master, wardens, and assistants have purchased certain estates and interests in lighthouses and tolls from parties possessed thereof : And that the several lighthouses upon the coasts of Scotland are under the controul and management of the Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses, acting by virtue of 26 Geo. 3. c. 101, and of several other Acts for rendering the last-mentioned Act more effectual : And that the several lighthouses upon the coasts of Ireland are under the controul and management of the Corporation for Preserving and Improving the Port of Dublin acting by virtue of 52 Geo. 3. c. 115 : And that there are also divers other lights exhibited in and near to certain ports, harbours, and places on the coasts of the United Kingdom for the guidance of vessels entering or resorting to the same, and sometimes called local or harbour lights, which lights are under the controul and management of commissioners, trustees, and other local officers and persons : And that, in order to the attainment of uniformity of system in the management of lighthouses, and the reduction and equalization of the tolls payable in respect thereof, it is necessary that all lighthouses upon the coasts of England and other places adjoining or near thereto, for the protection and guidance of vessels navigating the British seas, and the tolls payable in respect thereof, should be vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants, and that the several lighthouses upon the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively should be under their supervision : And that in order to prevent accidents which may arise from local or harbour lights in the United Kingdom being mistaken for coast lights it is necessary that they should be made subject to the controul of the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and Corporation for Preserving and Improving the Port of Dublin respectively :—

It is Enacted,

I. That on and after the 1st of January 1837 all the estate, right, and interest of His Majesty in the several lighthouses at Harwich, Dungeness, Wintertonness, Orfordness, and Hunstanton Cliff, and in the land whereon the same respectively stand, and the buildings, lands, and appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging, and occupied for the purposes of the same respectively, and the fixtures, apparatus, and furniture thereunto belonging, and the tolls and duties payable in respect thereof, shall be transferred to and shall be absolutely vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants, subject nevertheless to the several subsisting leases of the said several lighthouses and premises granted by His Majesty, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to the several persons under whose controul and management the said lighthouses respectively now are, as hereinbefore is mentioned.

And after reciting, that it is just that compensation should be made to the land revenues of the Crown for the surrender which will be made under this Act of the rights of the Crown in the said several lighthouses at Harwich, Dungeness, Wintertonness, Orfordness, and Hunstanton Cliff : And that the interests of the Crown in the said several lighthouses, as such interests would exist on the said 1st of January 1837, in case this Act had not been passed, have been calculated and ascertained to be worth in money, to be paid on the said 1st of January 1837, the sum of 300,000*l.* : And that, by virtue of the powers contained in several Acts, 53, 54, and 57 Geo. 3, and 1 and 5 Geo. 4, for the management and improvement of the land revenues of the Crown, or in some of them, advances have been made from time to time out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the purposes of the said Acts, to the amount in the whole of 600,000*l.* : And that by the said last-mentioned Acts, and by another Act of 10 Geo. 4. c. 50, the said sum of 600,000*l.* so advanced is made a charge upon and is payable out of the possessions and land revenues of the Crown, whenever the annual produce of those revenues shall cease to be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be retained by the Crown as part of its hereditary revenue : And that it is expedient that such compensation should be granted by reducing the amount chargeable upon the possessions and land revenues of the Crown in respect of the advances made under the several hereinbefore mentioned Acts :—

It is therefore Enacted,

II. That so soon as the estate, right, and interest of His Majesty in the several lighthouses hereinbefore mentioned shall vest in the said master, warden, and assistants under this Act, the amount chargeable upon the possessions and land revenues of the Crown in respect of the advances to the extent of 600,000*l.* so made out of the Consolidated Fund under the said recited Acts, shall be reduced to the sum of 300,000*l.*, and such last-mentioned sum only shall be then chargeable upon the possessions and land revenues of the Crown, under the authority of the recited Acts, instead of the said sum of 600,000*l.* at present charged thereon.

III. That the said master, wardens, and assistants may agree with the leasees or other persons interested in the said several lighthouses at Harwich, Dungeness, Wintertonness, Orfordness, and Hunstanton Cliff, by or under the several leases so granted thereof by His Majesty, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and with the owners of and persons interested in or hereinafter capacitated to agree for the sale of the lighthouses in the Schedule to this Act mentioned, and the land whereon the same several lighthouses respectively stand, and the buildings, lands, and appurtenances thereto belonging or occupied for the purposes of the same respectively, and the fixtures, apparatus, and furniture thereunto belonging, and the tolls or duties payable in respect thereof, and of all rents, rent-charges, annuities, or payments charged thereon or payable in respect thereof, for the absolute purchase thereof, and of all or any estates and interests therein, for such purchase-money as shall be agreed upon, and the said master, wardens, and assistants shall consider fair and just, having regard to the value of the property, and the rights, benefits, and advantages resulting to the proprietors from the enjoyment thereof; and that all other persons whosoever, who at or immediately before the making of this Act were or may become seized or possessed of or entitled to or interested in any such lighthouse, whether mentioned in the said Schedule or included in any such lease as aforesaid, may agree with the said master, wardens, and assistants for the absolute sale thereof, or of such estate or interest therein, for such purchase money as to the contracting parties shall seem reasonable; and all such agreements shall be effectual in the law, and for the purposes only of every such agreement and sale, and for preventing any question respecting the validity thereof by reason of any defectiveness of title in the party making the same, the persons who shall have been or shall be in possession of any such lighthouse at the time from which the purchase thereof respectively shall take effect, and all persons claiming under such person, or under or consistently with the possession of such person, shall be deemed to have a complete title; provided always, that no such contract shall be made by the said master, wardens, and assistants without previous consent in writing by the Lord High Treasurer for the time being; and the power hereby provided to agree for such sale as aforesaid shall extend to all corporations, and all tenants for life or in tail, or any other partial or qualified estate or interest, husbands, guardians, trustees, or feoffees in trust for charitable or other purposes, executors, administrators, committees, and all trustees and other persons whosoever, not only for and on behalf of themselves and their own respective heirs, executors, administrators, and successors, but also for and on behalf of every person entitled in reversion, remainder, or contingency after them, if incapacitated, and as to such husbands and guardians also for and on behalf of their respective wives and wards, and as to such committees for and on behalf of the lunatics and idiots of whom they shall be the committees respectively, and as to all such corporations, tenants, trustees, and feoffees in trust, executors, administrators, and other persons as aforesaid, also for and on behalf of their cestuique trusts, whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, femes covert, or other persons, and all femes covert, in the same manner as if they were sole and unmarried, seized, possessed of, or interested in their own right, whether in fee simple, fee tail, or for life or years, or otherwise, or entitled to dower or any other interest: Provided always, that previous to entering into any agreement under this clause the said master, wardens, and assistants shall cause public notice to be given, of such tenor and in such form as they shall think fit, for the purpose of having the estates, rights, and interests to be purchased in pursuance of this Act ascertained, and the amount of the purchase-money claimed for the same settled; such notice to be published in the London Gazette and in one of the provincial newspapers circulated within the county in which or near whereto such lighthouse shall be situated, and a copy of the same notice to be also affixed upon such lighthouse.

IV. That if the names or descriptions of any of the lighthouses referred to in this Act or in the Schedule hereto, or of any of the persons stated to be the owners or lessees thereof or interested therein, or in the tolls payable in respect thereof, shall happen to be mis-stated or omitted herein or in the said Schedule, such mis-statement or omission shall not prevent the execution of this Act; but such lighthouse and tolls shall notwithstanding be effectually vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants for the purposes of this Act.

And in order to facilitate the completion of the purchases of the said lighthouses with as little delay as possible, and to provide the means of obviating any difficulties and settling any differences which may arise in adjusting the terms of purchase, or from the refusal or incapacity of any party to treat:—

It is Enacted,

V. That in any of the cases hereinafter mentioned the said master, wardens, and assistants may refer the matter to the determination of a jury, and for that purpose the proceedings hereinafter mentioned shall be taken.

VI. That the cases in which the matter may be referred to the determination of a jury shall be the following; (that is to say), if any corporation, trustee, or other person interested, or entitled and capacitated to sell, contract, or agree as aforesaid, shall not agree with the said master, wardens, and assistants as to the amount of such purchase-money; or if any of the parties entitled to receive such purchase-money shall refuse to accept such purchase-money as shall be offered by the said master, wardens, and assistants, and shall give notice thereof in writing to the said master, wardens, and assistants, by leaving the same at the Trinity House in London within thirty days next after such offer shall have been made, and the party giving such notice shall therein request that the matter in dispute may be submitted to the determination of a jury; or if any of such parties shall for the space of thirty days next after such public notice as aforesaid shall have been affixed, published, and given by the said master, wardens, and assistants as hereinbefore mentioned, neglect or refuse to treat, or shall not agree, or by reason of absence or other cause shall be prevented from treating with the said master, wardens, and assistants for the sale of their respective estates and interests, or the respective estates and interests which they respectively are hereby capacitated to sell therein, or shall by reason of any impediment or disability not provided for by this Act be incapable of effectually making such agreement or sale thereof, or shall not disclose and prove the state of the title to the premises of which they respectively may be in possession, or which they respectively claim to be entitled unto or interested in; or in case the said master, wardens, and assistants shall not, within the period of three calendar months next after the expiration of such notice as aforesaid, have ascertained to their satisfaction in whom any such lighthouse is lawfully vested, or the persons entitled or by this Act capacitated to sell as aforesaid: Provided always, that no such reference to a jury shall be made after the expiration of five years from the passing of this Act, except with the consent of the person or persons for the time being in possession or entitled to the profits of the property proposed to be purchased.

VII. That in the event of any matter being referred to the determination of a jury, and in order thereto the following are the proceedings which shall be observed; that is to say, the said master, wardens, and assistants shall issue a precept under their common seal, or under the hand of their secretary for the time being, to the sheriff of the county wherein the lighthouse which shall be the subject of the proposed inquiry shall be situate, or if not situate in any county in the county next or nearest whereunto such lighthouse shall be situate, requiring him to summon, return, and impanel, and the said sheriff is hereby accordingly empowered and required to summon, return, and impanel, on a certain day therein to be appointed, a jury of not less than twenty-four sufficient and indifferent men, qualified according to the laws of this realm to serve on special juries for trials of issues in His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster; and the persons to be so summoned, returned, and impannelled shall appear before the said sheriff at such time and place within the said county as in such precept shall be appointed, and attend from day to day until discharged; and out of the persons so to be summoned, returned, and impannelled, or out of such of them as shall appear, a jury of twelve men shall be impannelled by the said sheriff, or by some person to be by him appointed, in such manner as special juries for trials of issues joined in His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster are by law directed to be impannelled; and all parties concerned may have their lawful challenges against any of the said jurymen, but shall not challenge the array; and the said sheriff shall summon before him all persons who shall be thought necessary to be examined as witnesses touching the matter in question, and may use all such other lawful ways and means, as well for his own as for the said jury's better information, as shall be requisite in the premises; and such jury shall upon their oaths, or, being Quakers, upon their solemn affirmations (which oaths and solemn affirmations, as well as the oaths and solemn affirmations of all persons who shall be called upon to give evidence, the said sheriff is hereby empowered and required to administer), inquire of and assess and give a verdict for the true, fair, and just value of such lighthouse as may be the subject of such inquiry, having regard to the rights, benefits, and advantages resulting to the proprietors from the enjoyment thereof, and to the liabilities to which they are at present subject; and the said sheriff shall accordingly give judgment for such purchase-moneys as shall be assessed by such jury; which said verdict and the judgment thereon to be pronounced as aforesaid shall be conclusive upon all persons whatsoever: Provided always, that not less than forty-two days notice in writing of the time and place at which such jury are so required to be returned shall be given by or on the part of the said master, wardens, and assistants to the party with whom any such controversy shall arise, by causing the same to be published in the London Gazette and in such provincial newspaper as aforesaid, and also to be affixed upon the lighthouses in respect of which such inquiry shall be had: Provided also, that in every proceeding before any such jury the party claiming such purchase-money shall be deemed to be the plaintiff, and the said master, wardens, and assistants the defendants: Provided always, that if any question shall arise respecting the tolls payable in respect of any such lighthouse, those which have been usually paid shall in assessing the value of such lighthouse be taken to be the tolls payable in respect thereof, provided they shall not be inconsistent with the patents, leases, or Acts of Parliament under which such tolls are payable.

VIII. That in case a sufficient jury to take the inquisition shall not appear upon the day so to be appointed by such precept, the sheriff shall from time to time, until a sufficient jury shall have been obtained by the means aforesaid, adjourn the inquiry to any future day, not exceeding fourteen days nor less than four days from the adjournment thereof; and when a sufficient number of jurors shall appear he shall proceed to swear and impanel twelve of them, who shall inquire as aforesaid.

IX. Provided, that no person shall be summoned or chosen to be of such jury who shall be an owner of or possess any estate or interest, directly or indirectly, in any such lighthouse.

X. That no person shall be heard before the said sheriff and the jury touching the matter of the inquiry, unless a previous notice in writing of fourteen days at the least before the taking of such inquisition shall be given to the said master, wardens, and assistants, by leaving the same at the Trinity House in London or at the office of the solicitor of the said master, wardens, and assistants for the time being, containing a full and particular statement of the nature and extent of the estate or interest in respect whereof such person shall claim to be heard.

XI. Provided always, That in case no person shall appear pursuant to such notice so to be given and affixed as aforesaid, then the said sheriff as aforesaid and also the said jury shall proceed upon the best information they can obtain to make such inquest or judgment, and such inquest and judgment shall be final and conclusive as if all parties concerned had appeared and been heard.

XII. That the jury at the time of assessing the value of any such lighthouse shall (if thereunto required) settle what shares and proportions of the purchase-money assessed shall be allowed to any person for any his particular estate, term, or interest in the premises that may be shewn to be existing therein respectively at the time of the taking the inquisition.

XIII. Provided always, That every payment, rent-charge, annuity, or incumbrance so purchased by the said master, wardens, and assistants, from the time when the purchase-money for the same so agreed upon or assessed shall have been paid by them, shall be thereupon deemed to be satisfied and extinguished, and that no action or suit or other proceeding shall thenceforth be had or taken in respect of the same, except to recover such arrears as may have grown due thereon before the same shall have been so purchased.

XIV. That each jurymen who shall be summoned, and who shall appear and be ready to be sworn or affirmed upon any such inquest, shall be allowed his reasonable travelling expenses to and from the place of meeting, and that each jurymen who shall be sworn or affirmed shall, in addition thereto, be allowed for his trouble and subsistence the sum of 1*l.* 1*s.* for each day's attendance and no more, and that the sheriff for summoning, returning, and impannelling the jury, and taking and recording their verdict and the judgment to be given thereon, shall be allowed the sum of 10*l.* and no more, and for his subsistence the further sum of 1*l.* 1*s.* for each day's attendance in addition to his reasonable travelling expenses to and from the place of meeting; which respective allowances, in case of dispute, shall be determined by two Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, and shall be paid by the said master, wardens, and assistants, or their order.

XV. That any Justice of the Peace for the county to the sheriff of which any such precept may be directed may impose any reasonable fine, not exceeding the sum of 10*l.*, on such sheriff or any person acting under him or in his behalf respectively making default in the premises, and on any of the persons who shall be summoned and returned on any such jury and shall not appear without sufficient excuse, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn (or, being one of the people called Quakers, to make affirmation) on the said jury, or being so sworn or having so made affirmation shall not give his or their verdict, and also on any person who shall be summoned to give evidence touching any of the matters referred to, and after payment or tender of his or her reasonable travelling expenses shall not attend, or attending shall refuse to be sworn or to affirm, or be examined or to give evidence, and on any person who shall in any other manner wilfully neglect his duty in the premises contrary to this Act.

XVI. That every such jury shall be subject to the same regulations, pains, and penalties as if such jury had been returned for the trial of any issue joined in any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster, and that all persons who, in any such inquiry to be made by virtue of this Act, shall wilfully give false evidence upon oath or solemn affirmation before the said sheriff or his deputy and such jury shall be prosecuted for the same, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to such punishments and disqualifications as persons are subject to for wilful and corrupt perjury.

XVII. That the said verdicts and judgments, and all other proceedings of such sheriff and the juries respectively, shall be fairly written on parchment and signed by such sheriff, and shall be transmitted to and kept by the clerk of the peace or the person having the custody of the records of the Quarter Sessions of the county in which or next whereunto such lighthouse shall be situate, and shall be deposited with and be records of such Quarter Sessions; and the same or copies thereof shall be allowed to be evidence in all courts whatsoever; and all persons shall have liberty to inspect the same upon paying for such inspection the sum of 5s.

XVIII. That in case a verdict shall upon any such inquiry be given for a greater sum of money than shall have been offered by the said master, wardens, and assistants previously to the summoning of such jury, or in case no such offer shall have been made, or in case by reason of absence or other impediment or disability there shall not be found any person legally capacitated to receive the purchase-money, then all the reasonable costs, charges, and expenses of causing and procuring such purchase-money to be assessed and awarded, and of so assessing and awarding the same, shall be settled by the sheriff, and shall be paid by the said master, wardens, and assistants; but in case any verdict shall be given for the same sum of money as shall have been previously offered by the said master, wardens, and assistants, or for a less sum than shall have been so previously offered, or in case of such refusal to treat by any person by this Act or otherwise legally empowered to treat for and receive such purchase-money, then all the reasonable costs, charges, and expenses of causing and procuring such purchase-money to be assessed and awarded, and of so assessing and awarding the same (being first so taxed), shall be paid in manner following, (that is to say,) one moiety thereof shall be paid by the said master, wardens, and assistants, and the other moiety shall be deducted out of the sum so to be assessed or awarded; and the payment or tender of the remainder shall be taken to be a payment or tender of the whole sum.

XIX. That all such purchase-money as shall be so agreed for or so assessed under this Act shall within three months next after such agreement shall have been concluded, or within three months next after the amount of such purchase-money shall have been so assessed, be paid by the said master, wardens, and assistants either to the person entitled to receive the same or into the Bank of England, in manner hereinafter mentioned in cases where the same is hereby directed to be paid into the Bank of England.

XX. That immediately upon payment or tender of the purchase-money thereof being made either to the party or parties respectively entitled to receive such monies or into the Bank of England in the manner in this Act directed respectively, as the case may require, every such lighthouse in respect whereof such monies shall have been so paid or tendered shall thereupon absolutely vest in the said master, wardens, and assistants and their successors, and they shall thenceforth be deemed to be in the actual possession thereof, discharged from all other estates, reversions, rights, titles, interests, claims, and demands of any other person therein or thereto, or in or to the tolls payable in respect thereof, and also from all rents or payments whatsoever issuing out of or reserved or charged upon or made payable in respect of the same, or the tolls payable in respect thereof, to or for the use of any person; and so soon as any such lighthouse shall in manner aforesaid become vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants, the tolls which shall then be by law payable in respect of any such lighthouse shall thenceforth become payable to and recoverable by the said master, wardens, and assistants, and be applied as are other the like tolls now payable to them.

XXI. Provided always, That where any payment shall be legally charged upon any lighthouse, or where any sum of money shall have been advanced by any person upon the security of any such lighthouse, then such lighthouse and the tolls to be from time to time payable in respect thereof shall remain subject to such payment or so much thereof as shall be unpaid at the time when such lighthouse shall vest in the said master, wardens, and assistants until they shall have purchased the same payment under this Act; and every person to whom any such payment shall be payable shall from the time when such lighthouse shall have so vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants, and until such payment shall have been so purchased by them, have such and the like means of enforcing his security against the said tolls to be from time to time collected by the said master, wardens, and assistants as he could have had if this Act had not been passed against the tolls now payable in respect of such lighthouse.

XXII. Provided, That where any ascertained sum of money, or any interest for the same, shall be remaining unpaid and charged upon any such lighthouse, or the tolls payable in respect of the same, at the time when the same shall be purchased by the said master, wardens, and assistants, and the said master, wardens, and assistants shall have due notice thereof, then they may retain the amount of such sum of money and interest respectively from the amount of the purchase-money, and they shall thereupon pay over the amount of such sum of money and interest respectively so remaining unpaid to the person to whom the same shall be payable; and if such person to whom such sum of money or interest shall be payable shall be a feme covert, infant, lunatic, or otherwise under a general disability or incapacity to give a discharge for such sum of money or interest respectively, then they shall cause the same to be paid into the Bank of England in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to his account there "ex parte the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond," in such manner and pursuant to such method and subject to such orders and to be dealt with, applied, and disposed of as is hereinafter pointed out in respect of the monies which shall belong to femes covert, infants, lunatics, or other persons under a general disability or inability to sell on account of the purchase of any lighthouse.

XXIII. That all such purchase-money which shall belong to any body politic or corporate, or any feme covert, infant, lunatic, or other person under a general disability or incapacity to sell, shall, in case the same shall amount to or exceed 200*l.*, with all convenient speed be paid into the Bank of England in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to his account there "ex parte the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond," pursuant to the method prescribed by 1 Geo. 4. c. 35, intituled, 'An Act for the better securing Monies and Effects paid into the Court of Exchequer at Westminster on account of the Suitors of the said Court, and for the Appointment of an Accountant General and Two Masters of the said Court, and for other Purposes,' and shall be subject to the general orders of the said Court and without fee or reward, to the intent that such money shall be applied, under the direction and with the approbation of the said Court, to be signified by an order made upon a petition to be preferred in a summary way by the person who would have been entitled to the annual profits or produce of any estate or interest in such lighthouse, in the purchase of houses, buildings, lands, tenements, or hereditaments which shall be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon such and the like uses, trusts, intents, and purposes, and in the same manner, as such lighthouse stood settled or limited, or such of them as at the time of making such conveyance and settlement shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect; and in the meantime, until such purchase shall be made, the said money shall, by order of the said Court of Exchequer, upon application thereto, be invested by the said Accountant General in his name in the purchase of 3l. per centum consolidated or 3l. per centum reduced bank annuities; and in the meantime, until the said bank annuities shall be ordered by the said Court to be sold for the purposes aforesaid, the dividends and annual produce thereof shall from time to time be paid by the order of the said Court to the person who would for the time being have been entitled to the annual profits and produce of such lighthouse in case the same had not been purchased or taken by the said master, wardens, and assistants under this Act.

XXIV. That if any purchase-money of any such lighthouse belonging to any person under disability or incapacity shall be less than 200l., and shall exceed 20l., then the same shall at the option of the person for the time being entitled to the annual profits or produce of such lighthouse, or of his guardian or committee or trustee, or person acting as such, to be signified in writing under their respective hands or common seal, be paid into the Bank of England in the name and with the privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, and be placed to his account aforesaid, in order to be applied in manner hereinbefore directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid, at the like option, to two trustees, to be nominated by the person making such option and approved of by the said master, wardens, and assistants, such nomination and approbation to be signified in writing under the hands or common seal of the nominating and approving parties, in order that such purchase-money and the dividends arising thereon may be applied in any manner hereinbefore directed, so far as the same shall be applicable, without its being necessary to obtain the direction or appointment of the said Court.

XXV. That where any such purchase-money shall not exceed 20l., then the same shall be applied to the use of the person who would for the time being have been entitled to the annual produce of such lighthouse, in such manner as the said master, wardens, and assistants shall think fit, or in case of infancy or lunacy, or other incapacity or disability to sell, then the same shall be paid to his guardian or committee or trustee, or other person acting as such, for the use of such person so entitled; and the receipt of the person so entitled, or of the person to whom the said master, wardens, and assistants shall make such payments as aforesaid, shall be a discharge to the said master, wardens, and assistants.

XXVI. That in case any person to whom any sum of money shall be awarded shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make a title to such lighthouse to the satisfaction of the said master, wardens, and assistants, or in case the person to whom any sum of money shall be awarded cannot be found, or if the person entitled to such lighthouse be not known or cannot be discovered, then the said master, wardens, and assistants may order the said sum assessed and awarded as and for any purchase-money to be paid into the Bank of England in the name and with the privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to his account to the credit of the said master, wardens, and assistants, and of the parties interested in such lighthouse, subject to the order of the said Court of Exchequer; which said Court, on the application of the said master, wardens, and assistants, or any party making claim to such sum of money or any part thereof, by motion or petition, may in a summary way of proceeding or otherwise, as to the same Court shall seem meet, order the same to be invested in the public funds, and may order distribution thereof, or payment of the dividends thereof, according to the respective estate or interest of the parties making claim thereto, and may make such other order in the premises as to the said Court shall seem just; and the cashier of the Bank of England who shall receive any such sum of money shall give a receipt for the same, specifying for what and for whose use the same is received.

XXVII. That where any question shall arise touching the title of any party to any money paid into the Bank of England in pursuance of this Act as purchase-money, or to any Bank annuities purchased therewith, or to the dividends of any such annuities, the party who shall have been in possession of such lighthouse or in the possession and enjoyment of the annual profits or produce of such toll, or in the actual perception of such rent, rent-charge, payment, annuity, or incumbrance at the time of such purchase-money being agreed upon or awarded, shall be taken to have the complete title thereto, according to such possession and enjoyment, until the contrary shall be shewn to the satisfaction of the said Court of Exchequer; and the dividends or interest of the said bank annuities shall be applied accordingly, and the said Court shall on the application of the said master, wardens, and assistants, or of any party claiming such purchase-money or bank annuities, order such proceedings to be taken for the purpose of deciding upon the validity or invalidity of the claim of such party as to the Court shall seem meet.

XXVIII. That where by reason of any disability or incapacity of the person entitled to any such lighthouse the purchase-money shall be required to be paid into the Bank of England, and be subject to the orders and directions of the Court of Exchequer, under the provisions herein contained, the said Court may order all the reasonable costs, charges, and expenses attending such purchase, or which may be incurred in consequence thereof, and also of the investment of the purchase-money, in real or government securities, and likewise the re-investment of such purchase-money, or the government and real securities purchased therewith, in the purchase of houses, buildings, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as hereinbefore mentioned, together with the costs, charges, and expenses of obtaining the proper orders and of the other proceedings for such purposes, and of the payment of the dividends and interest of the said government or real securities, and of the payment of the principal of the said purchase-money and of the government or real securities purchased therewith out of court, to be paid by the said master, wardens, and assistants, and the said master, wardens, and assistants shall from time to time pay such sums of money for such purposes as the said Court shall direct out of the monies applicable to the purposes of this Act.

XXIX. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, out of the tolls which shall be received by them under this Act, may, by and with the consent of the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, pay to any of the officers or servants now employed on account of any of the lighthouses now vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants, or to be vested in them under this Act, or in the collection of the tolls payable in respect thereof, and whom they may not have occasion to retain in their said office, such reasonable pension, by way of annual or quarterly payments, as to them shall seem proper: Provided always, that no such pension shall exceed the proportion with reference to the amount of his salary and the time of his service which may be granted as a superannuation allowance to officers and clerks in the public service, under an Act, 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 24, intituled, 'An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service.'

And the better to enable the said master, wardens, and assistants to carry into effect the purposes of this Act,—

It is Enacted,

XXX. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, may, by and with the consent of the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, by bond or writing under their common seal, borrow at such rate of interest as shall be agreed upon in that behalf any sums of money that shall appear to them to be necessary for enabling them to complete the purchase of the said several lighthouses referred to in this Act or in the Schedule hereto, and to carry the purposes of this Act into execution; and the Lord High Treasurer may from time to time, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, lend to the said master, wardens, and assistants upon the security of such bonds or writings, such sums of money, upon such terms and conditions and at such rate of interest as the said Lord High Treasurer shall think fit, upon application in writing to be made to him for such purpose by the said master, wardens, and assistants such loan to be applied by them for any of the aforesaid purposes; and from the time of any such bond or writing being so made and given for any of the aforesaid purposes, the said master, wardens, and assistants from time to time shall keep down the interest which shall have accrued due on any such bond or writing, or may pay off the whole or any part of the principal money secured thereby, together with the arrears of interest thereon, from the proceeds of any tolls which may at the time be payable to them.

And after reciting that certain tolls are by law payable in respect of certain of the lighthouses referred to in this Act as being under the controul or management of individuals, and also in respect of certain other lighthouses now under the controul and management of the said master, wardens, and assistants, on foreign ships and vessels, over and above the tolls payable in respect of such lighthouses on British ships and vessels; but the vessels of certain foreign powers have, by virtue of conventions and treaties heretofore entered into with such foreign powers, and by orders of His Majesty in council, been exempted from the payment of such extra tolls, and provision hath been made for indemnifying the several persons entitled thereto, by payment of the same out of the consolidated duties of Customs: And that it is expedient that the said consolidated duties should be relieved from such payments;—

It is Enacted,

XXXI. That from the passing of this Act no payment shall be made out of the said consolidated duties as indemnity for such extra tolls in respect of any lighthouse now under the controul and management of the said master, wardens, and assistants, nor shall any such payment be made in respect of any lighthouse to be purchased by them under the authority of this Act from the time when the purchase thereof shall be completed.

XXXII. Provided, that if at any times hereafter any of the said conventions and treaties shall determine, or any of the said orders of His Majesty in council shall be revoked, then the said extra tolls shall again be levied on the ships and vessels of foreign powers on which, prior to such conventions, treaties, and orders such extra tolls were payable: and the amount of all such extra tolls which shall be received by the said master, wardens, and assistants, shall be paid by them to the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And after reciting that the said master, wardens, and assistants are seised in fee of the lighthouses at the North and South Forelands in the county of Kent, and the land occupied therewith, and are entitled to receive certain tolls in respect thereof under a warrant for a lease from the Crown subject to the payment of a certain rent in respect thereof;—

It is Enacted,

XXXIII. That from the 1st of January 1837 all the tolls now payable in respect of the said lighthouses shall be vested in the said master, wardens, and assistants, and their successors freed from the said rent, and shall thenceforth continue to be payable to and receivable by them as are other the like tolls now payable to them.

XXXIV. That immediately from the completion by the said master, wardens, and assistants of the respective purchases of any of the several lighthouses called respectively the Skerries, Spurn Point, and Tinmouth Castle Light, all the powers which are by the recited Act, 3 Geo. 2. and the recited Acts 6, 12, and 42 Geo. 3, respectively granted to or in favour of the persons interested in such lighthouses, or for the better maintenance of the same lighthouses respectively or in regard to the payment and collection of tolls in respect thereof, shall be exercised by the said master, wardens, and assistants under this Act.

And after reciting that there hath for a long series of years been a lighthouse upon the island of Heligoland, and a light exhibited therefrom for the protection and guidance of ships and vessels navigating the German Ocean, or entering or departing from the rivers Elbe and Weser, and such lighthouse was rebuilt in or about the year 1810: And that a floating light was established in or about the year 1813 on Bembridge Ledge in the English Channel: And that the said lighthouse and light have since those times been respectively maintained by and at the cost of His Majesty;—

It is Enacted,

XXXV. That from the passing of this Act the lighthouse at Heligoland, with the land buildings, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or occupied for the purpose thereof, and all the fixtures, apparatus, and furniture respectively belonging thereto, and the floating light on Bembridge Ledge aforesaid, with the vessel from which the same is exhibited, and the tackle, furniture, and stores belonging to the said vessel, together with the furniture and apparatus of and belonging to the said floating light, shall become the property of and absolutely vest in the said master, wardens, and assistants and their successors, and they shall thenceforth be deemed to be in the actual occupation thereof, freed from all former and other estates, rights, titles, interests, claims, and demands, whether of His Majesty or of any other person, and the maintenance, controul, and management of the said lighthouse and floating light shall thenceforth be in the said master, wardens, and assistants as are the several lighthouses and floating lights now belonging to them.

And after reciting that the tolls received in respect of the lighthouse in the island of Heligoland are insufficient to defray the necessary expenses of maintaining the same, and the excess of expenses beyond the receipts has become a considerable charge on His Majesty's government; and that foreign ships and vessels, although they derive great benefit from the said lighthouse, do not at present pay any toll in respect thereof, and it is reasonable that such foreign vessels should contribute to the expenses of the same, as far as they are benefited thereby;—

It is Enacted,

XXXVI. That from the 31st of December 1836 the several tolls now levied and taken in respect of the said light so exhibited on the said island of Heligoland shall cease and be no longer received, and that in lieu thereof the said master, wardens, and assistants may from the said 31st of December 1836, from time to time, receive towards the maintenance of the said lighthouse and the exhibition of a proper light therefrom, the sum of 1d. per ton for every vessel (not belonging to His Majesty) for each time that such vessel shall depart from any port or place within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to any port or place at, within, or near to the entrance of the rivers Elbe and Weser or either of them, and the like toll upon every vessel (not belonging to His Majesty) for each time that such vessel shall arrive at any port or place within the said United Kingdom from any port or place at, within, or near to the entrance of the said rivers or either of them.

XXXVII. That so much of the recited Act, 6 Geo. 3. c. 31. as gives to the corporation of the Trinity House of Hull any authority, superintendence, or controul over the lighthouses therein referred to, and so much of the recited Act, 48 Geo. 3. c. 43. as gives to the master, wardens, and assistants of the corporation of the Trinity House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne authority to inspect the lighthouse in the last-mentioned Act referred to, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXXVIII. That from the passing of this Act no new light, beacon, or sea mark shall be exhibited or altered or caused or permitted to be exhibited or altered nor shall any now existing light, beacon, or sea mark be altered or caused or permitted to be altered, by any trustees, commissioners, corporation, company, local officer, or person whatsoever heretofore authorized so to do on any pier or in or near to any port or harbour on the coasts of the United Kingdom or on any of the islands, rocks, or other places adjoining or near to the same, for the guidance of ships and vessels navigating by and along the said coasts or entering or resorting to or departing from any port, harbour, canal, or other place, without the sanction in writing of the said master, wardens, and assistants, commissioners of northern lighthouses, or corporation for improving the port of Dublin, as the case may be, having been first obtained in that behalf; and all such persons shall in all things conform to such reasonable orders and alterations as the said master, wardens, and assistants, commissioners or corporation, shall from time to time make and direct as to the description and power of any such light and the character of any such beacon or sea mark, and the mode of exhibiting the same respectively, due notice of such orders and alterations being first given by the said master, wardens, and assistants, commissioners, or corporation, to them.

XXXIX. That all the vessels, yachts, barges and boats of or in the employ of the said master, wardens, and assistants, from time to time and at all times whilst they shall be in the actual bond fide service of the said master, wardens, and assistants, may pass and repass by and along the coasts of the United Kingdom and all lighthouses erected or exhibited upon or near the said coasts and pass and repass into or out of any harbour port, creek, river, canal or any other place in the said United Kingdom, and (if need be) be moored and abide within the same respectively, without being liable to any harbour or port dues, pier duties, or canal dues, light dues, pilotage dues, or other rates, tolls, dues, duties, taxes, demand, or payments whatsoever, for or in respect of their so doing, any law, statute, charter, grant, prescription, custom, usage, or bye law to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XL. That from the 1st of January 1837 the tolls now payable by or in respect of vessels for or towards the maintenance of the several lighthouses at present under the management of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses shall cease to be payable, and that in lieu thereof there shall thenceforth for ever be paid to the said Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses for every vessel belonging to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same not belonging to His Majesty, his heirs or successors, or being navigated wholly in ballast), and for every foreign vessel which by any Act of Parliament, order in council, convention, or treaty shall be privileged to enter the ports of the said United Kingdom upon paying the same duties of tonnage as are paid by British vessels (the same not being vessels navigated wholly in ballast), which shall pass any of the said lighthouses or derive benefit thereby, the toll of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing every such lighthouse or deriving benefit thereby, and of 1d. per ton for each time of passing the Bell Rock Lighthouse, and double the said tolls for every foreign vessel not so privileged.

XLI. That from the passing of this Act all payments heretofore made to the said Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses and to the Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin respectively, out of the consolidated duties of Customs, in lieu of any extra tolls payable on foreign vessels in respect of any lighthouse on the coasts of Scotland or Ireland respectively shall cease: Provided always, that in case any of the said extra tolls shall again be levied, the same shall be paid by the said Commissioners and corporation to the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland.

XLII. That the said Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses and the said corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin respectively may from time to time erect, set up, place, and maintain such new or other lighthouses in such places on the coasts and islands of Scotland and Ireland respectively as to them shall seem expedient, and also from time to time so alter or remove any lighthouses on the said coasts, and so vary the mode of exhibiting lights from any lighthouse as to them shall seem expedient: Provided always, that no such new lighthouse shall be erected on the said coasts and islands of Scotland or Ireland, nor shall any lighthouse be removed, or the character thereof or of the light exhibited therefrom be altered by the said Commissioners or the said corporation respectively, until they shall have given to the master, wardens, and assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond six months notice in writing of their intention so to alter, remove, or vary the same, by leaving such notice at the Trinity House in London, together with the grounds of such their intention; and if the said master, wardens, and assistants shall see ground to disapprove of the erection of any such intended new lighthouse or any such intended removal or alteration of the character of any existing lighthouse or light, or shall suggest any improvement therein respectively, and shall notify such their disapproval or suggestion (as the case may be) to the said Commissioners or corporation within the space of six months next after receiving such notice, then such disapproval or suggestion so to be notified as aforesaid shall be conclusive on the said Commissioners and corporation respectively, nor shall it in any such case be lawful to the said Commissioners or corporation to carry into effect any such proposed or intended erection, work, removal, or alteration, except in such manner and form as the said master, wardens, and assistants shall so as aforesaid have suggested or approved of; and the said master, wardens, and assistants may from time to time suggest to the said Commissioners and corporation respectively alterations in relation to the management of such lighthouses, or in relation to the form of the lights exhibited therefrom or the times or manner of so exhibiting the same, or the erection of any new lighthouse, and of such their suggestions may cause written notice to be from time to time given to the said Commissioners and corporation respectively, by leaving the same at the office of the said Commissioners in Edinburgh or at the office of the said corporation in Dublin (as the case may be); and thereupon the Commissioners or corporation (as the case may be) shall with all convenient speed consider the same, and report their opinion thereon to the said master, wardens, and assistants.

XLIII. Provided, That if the said Commissioners or corporation (as the case may be) shall be dissatisfied with any such disapproval or suggestions as aforesaid they shall without delay cause a copy of the notification of such disapproval or of such suggestions, as the case may be, to be laid before His Majesty in council, together with their remarks thereon, and His Majesty in council thereupon may make orders to the said Commissioners or corporation with respect to any such disapproval or suggestions as to His Majesty in council shall seem fitting, and the same Commissioners or corporation (as the case may be) shall thenceforth in all things conform to all such last-mentioned orders.

XLIV. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, and their successors, and their engineers, workmen, and servants, may from time to time and at all times enter the lighthouses on the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively, to view the condition thereof or otherwise for the purposes of this Act.

XLV. That from the time when any such new lighthouse shall under this Act have been so erected upon the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively, and so long as a light shall be exhibited from such lighthouse during the night season, there shall be paid to the said Commissioners or corporation who shall have erected the same, by the owner or other person having the command of any vessel not belonging to His Majesty which shall pass such lighthouse, or derive benefit thereby, such reasonable toll as shall have been first approved in that behalf by His Majesty in council.

XLVI. That as soon as any such new lighthouse shall have been so erected upon the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively under this Act, and the toll to be paid for the same shall have been approved, notice thereof shall be given by such of them the said Commissioners or corporation as shall have erected such lighthouse three several times in the London Gazette, and also in two or more of the principal papers in Edinburgh and Dublin respectively, (that is to say,) in two or more of the principal papers circulated in Edinburgh when such new lighthouse shall be erected on the coasts of Scotland, and in two or more of the principal papers circulated in Dublin when such new lighthouse shall be erected on the coasts of Ireland; and the toll to be paid in respect of such lighthouse shall not become payable until one month next after the date of the last of such notices.

XLVII. Provided, That every such new lighthouse erected on the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively under this Act, and the tolls payable in respect thereof, shall immediately on the erecting of such lighthouse and the establishment of such tolls be vested in such of them, the said Commissioners and corporation respectively as shall have erected such lighthouse, and in their respective successors, as the lighthouses now on the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively, and the tolls payable in respect thereof, are now vested in them respectively.

XLVIII. That from the passing of this Act all bodies corporate or collegiate, trustees or commissioners, and all persons whomsoever, having any lighthouse in Scotland and Ireland respectively, or on or near the respective coasts thereof, whether under the authority of Parliament or any charter or usage, may surrender the same to the said Commissioners or corporation, as the case may be, who are hereby empowered to accept the same, if they think fit; and such lighthouse, being so surrendered and accepted, shall thenceforth be under the management and control of the said Commissioners or corporation (as the case may be), and be subject to the same regulations, and the tolls payable in respect thereof shall be subject to be reduced, relinquished, or modified in like manner as other the lighthouses of the said Commissioners and corporation respectively, and the tolls payable in respect thereof.

XLIX. That it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners or corporation to grant any pension, compensation, or retired allowance to any person in their service out of the tolls to be received by them which shall exceed the proportion, with reference to the amount of the salary and time of the service of such person, which may be granted as a superannuation allowance to persons in the public service under the before-recited Act, 4 & 5 Will. 4.

L. That the said corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin may, after the passing of this Act, appoint fit persons at and for such ports, districts, and places in Ireland as they shall deem expedient to be collectors of the tolls payable or to be hereafter payable to the said corporation in respect of lighthouses upon the coasts of Ireland; and as soon as such appointment shall have been made the tolls which by the said recited Act, 52 Geo. 3, are directed to be paid to the collector or other chief officer of the Customs in the several ports of Ireland shall be paid to and collected by the collectors so to be appointed by the said corporation.

And for the more uniform and better collection of the tolls payable in respect of lighthouses throughout the United Kingdom, and for affording greater facility to parties paying the same,—

It is Enacted,

LI. That from the 31st of December, 1836 the collector from time to time appointed by the said master, wardens, and assistants for any port, district, or place in England, and the collector appointed by the said Commissioners for any port, district, or place in Scotland, and the collector appointed by the said corporation for any port, district, or place in Ireland, is hereby authorized and required to collect, demand, and receive all the tolls to which every vessel within such port, district, or place shall be liable in respect of any lighthouse, in whatsoever part of the said United Kingdom such lighthouse may be situate, and whether such tolls shall be payable to such of them, the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation, as such collector was appointed by, or to the other or others of them; and every such collector shall account for and pay over all the tolls received by him to such of them, the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation, as he shall have been appointed by; and the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation, shall in every year mutually account to each other for all such tolls as shall have been received by any of them for the others of them respectively under this Act, and pay over whatever balance may be due on such account to either of them.

LII. Provided, That if at any time the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be of opinion that in any case the collection of the said tolls can conveniently and properly be made, and that it is expedient that the same should be made by the collector or other chief officer of His Majesty's Customs at any port or place, the said Lords Commissioners shall and may from time to time communicate such their opinion to the said master, wardens, assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, who shall thereupon appoint such collector or other chief officer to make such collection accordingly and pay him such commission or allowance (if any) in respect thereof as to the said Lords Commissioners shall seem reasonable.

LIII. That no officer of the Customs of His Majesty at any of the ports, harbours, or places of the said United Kingdom, who shall be required in manner hereinafter mentioned to ascertain that such tolls have been paid, shall receive any entry or report or cocket or other discharge or clearance, inwards or outwards, for any vessel liable to any tolls payable in respect of any lighthouse, in whatever part of the United Kingdom the same may be, until the owner, master, or other person having the command of such vessel, or his agent, shall shew to such officer of the Customs a voucher for the payment of such tolls, signed by some collector appointed by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, in respect of such port, harbour, or place (if any such collector shall have been so appointed); and so often as it shall happen that there shall be no such collector appointed by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, in respect of any such port, harbour, or place, then until the amount of such tolls to which any such vessel entering or departing from any such port, harbour, or place shall be liable shall have been paid to the collector or other chief officer of His Majesty's Customs at such port, harbour, or place, who shall receive such tolls, and cause the amount thereof to be paid to the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation; (that is to say, where the port, harbour, or place shall be in England, to the said master, wardens, and assistants; where the said port, harbour, or place shall be in Scotland, to the said Commissioners; and where the said port, harbour or place shall be in Ireland, to the said corporation; the said officer of His Majesty receiving such tolls and paying the same being allowed such reasonable commission in respect thereof as to the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively shall seem meet, so that the same shall not exceed five per cent. on the sums collected by him; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall from time to time, if thereunto requested by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, require some officer of His Majesty's Customs at every such port, harbour, or place to ascertain that such tolls have been paid, and shall from time to time give such orders to such officer in relation thereto as shall seem necessary for securing the collection of the said tolls, according to any regulation then in force respecting such collection.

LIV. That in case any master or owner, or other person having the charge of any vessel liable to the payment of any tolls in respect of any lighthouse shall refuse or neglect to pay any such tolls to which such vessel shall be liable to the collector authorized to receive the same, the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, or the collector authorized to receive the same, or the collector or other chief officer of His Majesty's Customs, or other person entitled to receive the same, may seize and carry away any of the goods, merchandize, guns, tackle, furniture, or apparel of or belonging to or on board of any such vessel (leaving notice thereof on board such vessel), and detain the same for the space of three full days then next, unless the said tolls, and all arrears thereof due in respect of such vessel, shall in the meantime be satisfied; and in case all such tolls and arrears thereof shall not before the expiration of such three days have been satisfied, then the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, or the collector authorized to receive the same, or the collector or other chief officer of His Majesty's Customs or other person entitled to receive the same, or such person as they shall appoint in that behalf, may cause the same goods, merchandize, guns, tackle, furniture, or apparel so seized to be appraised by two or more sufficient persons or sworn appraisers, within a reasonable space of time then next following, and may thereupon sell the same, and out of the proceeds of such sale pay the amount of the tolls or arrears thereof to which such ship shall be liable, together with the reasonable charges of the seizure, detention, appraisement, and sale, rendering to the master or owner or other person having the command of such vessel, the overplus (if any) on demand.

LV. Provided, That notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the said master, wardens, and assistants, and the said Commissioners and the said corporation, may sue for and recover the amount of any tolls payable to them in respect of any lighthouse by action of debt or suit in equity in any of His Majesty's courts of record in Great Britain or Ireland, against the owner or master or other person having the command of any vessel liable thereto.

And after noticing that by the recited Act, 3 Geo. 4. c. 111, the said master, wardens, and assistants were empowered from time to time, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in council, to reduce, relinquish, or modify, in manner therein mentioned, the tolls therein mentioned; and in exercise of the said power they have, with such consent, reduced and modified sundry of the tolls in the recited Act mentioned, to the great relief of the owners of vessels liable thereto: And that in order to the further relief of the owners of vessels, it is expedient that the powers of the recited Act given to the said master, wardens, and assistants should be enlarged and extended to the several tolls now or hereafter to be payable to the said master, wardens, and assistants, and that the like powers should be given to the said Commissioners and corporation respectively, in relation to the tolls now or hereafter to be payable to them in respect of lighthouses on the coasts of Scotland and Ireland respectively;—

It is Enacted,

LVII. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, may from time to time, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in council, reduce, relinquish, or modify the tolls now or hereafter to be payable to them in respect of any lighthouse, and upon the like requisition or with the like consent may revive and re-establish or increase, or otherwise modify, any such tolls so relinquished or modified, and so from time to time as often as occasion shall require, in such manner and form, and subject to such conditions and limitations as the said master, wardens, and assistants are now by law empowered to do in respect of the tolls mentioned in the recited Act, 3 Geo. 4. c. 111.

LVIII. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, from time to time, upon the like requisition, or with the like consent of His Majesty in council, may make regulations for the purpose of relieving certain vessels from the tolls payable to the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, in respect of any lighthouses, upon such terms and to such extent as to them respectively shall seem proper, or for the purpose of substituting any other class of toll or other payment in respect of vessels, or any particular description of vessels, in lieu of the tolls to which such vessels may be subject at the time of the making of such regulations respectively, or for the purpose of altering the times and places or either of them at which any tolls in respect of any lighthouses shall be payable, and may revoke or alter any such regulation; and from and after the time when such regulation shall take effect the tolls thereby made payable shall be paid by the owners and masters of the vessels mentioned therein (unless otherwise declared by such regulation), and be recoverable by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, at such time and place and in such manner as were the tolls in lieu whereof the same shall have been so made payable: Provided always, that no such regulation, or revocation or alteration of any such regulation, shall take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His Majesty in council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing to the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, nor until one month after the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively shall have caused notice of such regulation, or of such revocation or alteration of any regulation, (as the case may be,) to be published in the London Gazette.

And to the intent that the amount of the tolls from time to time payable to the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, upon vessels, in respect of lighthouses, and also the regulations from time to time in force concerning them, may be publicly made known:—

It is Enacted,

LXIII. That as soon as conveniently may be after the said master, wardens, and assistants shall have completed the said purchases by this Act authorized to be made, and shall, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in council, have altered, modified, or reduced the tolls hereby vested in them, or made regulations concerning the same, they shall cause to be drawn up a table of all the tolls payable to them upon vessels in respect of any lighthouses, together with a summary of such regulations as shall have been made by them concerning the same upon such requisition or with such consent as aforesaid, and shall cause the same to be laid before His Majesty in council, and the same shall be signed by the clerk of the council, and enrolled or entered amongst the public records thereof; and the said master, wardens, and assistants shall cause a printed copy of such table together with such summary to be delivered to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs at His Majesty's Custom House in London, and a printed copy thereof to be also forwarded to His Majesty's principal officer of Customs at each port or place within the United Kingdom for which any such officer shall be appointed; and the said Commissioners and corporation respectively shall within four months next after the passing of this Act in like manner cause to be drawn up alike table of all the tolls payable to them respectively upon vessels in respect of any lighthouses, with a summary of such regulations as shall have been made by them concerning the same upon such requisition or with such consent as aforesaid, and shall cause the same to be laid before His Majesty in council, and the same shall be signed and enrolled or entered as aforesaid; and the said Commissioners and corporation respectively shall cause printed copies of such tables respectively, together with such summary, to be so delivered and forwarded as aforesaid, and so from time to time as often as any alteration in the amount of any such tolls, or any new regulation, or alteration of any existing regulation concerning the same shall be made, the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, shall, with all convenient speed, cause fresh tables of such tolls and a summary of every such new regulation or alteration to be laid before His Majesty in council, where the same shall be so signed and entered as aforesaid; and the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, shall cause printed copies thereof in like manner to be delivered at His Majesty's custom-houses in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin respectively, and forwarded to such several principal officers of Customs within the United Kingdom; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the port of London, Edinburgh, and Dublin respectively, and all other His Majesty's principal officers of Customs for any such port or place to whom any such copies shall be so delivered or forwarded, shall cause the same to be kept constantly hung up and preserved as long as the same shall remain in force in some conspicuous part of His Majesty's custom-houses in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin respectively, or other the custom-house for any such port or place, so that the said tables may be seen and read by all persons having any business in such custom-houses respectively; and the tolls specified in any such table, when so signed and entered, shall be the lawful tolls or duties payable to the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, and the same, and none other, shall be received by them respectively upon the vessels and in respect of the lighthouses therein referred to, and in such manner and form as shall be directed therein, or in such summary so therewith drawn up and entered as aforesaid; and a copy of any such table, examined with the original so entered and so purporting to be signed as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken in all courts of law and other places to be evidence of the right to recover such tolls according to the tenor thereof.

And after reciting, that the sands and shoals upon the coasts of the United Kingdom are in many places liable to vary their form so considerably as to occasion changes in the course of the navigation near the same, and it is therefore expedient, for the more effectual security of ships and vessels navigating the seas off and near to the coasts of the said United Kingdom, that power should be given to alter from time to time the position of the lighthouses erected or placed for the protection of vessels, as occasion may require :—

It is Enacted,

LIX. That when any lighthouse shall, by reason of any variation or change in the form of any such sand or shoal, become unnecessary in the situation in which the same shall then be, and shall become necessary or would from such or any other cause be more useful in some other situation, the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, may, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in council, remove and discontinue any such lighthouse, and erect another or other lighthouses instead thereof where they shall be found better adapted for the purpose of protecting ships and vessels from damage ; and from the time at which such new lighthouse shall have been so erected, and so long as the same shall be maintained, and a light shall be exhibited therefrom during the night season, the tolls theretofore payable in respect of such lighthouse so removed or discontinued shall be payable in respect of such new lighthouse, and the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, may thenceforth collect and have the same tolls for the maintenance of any such new lighthouse, from or in respect of such and the same vessels, and to be collected, recovered, and applied in such and the same manner, as were the tolls in respect of the lighthouse so removed or discontinued : Provided always, that where any such lighthouse shall be so removed and discontinued, and any new lighthouse shall be erected instead thereof, notice of such removal and discontinuance, and of the erection of such new lighthouse, shall be published by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, three, several times in the London Gazette, and also in two or more of the principal papers circulated in Edinburgh, in case such new lighthouse shall be erected on the coast of Scotland, and in two or more of the principal papers circulated in Dublin, in case such new lighthouse shall be erected on the coast of Ireland.

And after reciting, that it sometimes happens that the said master, wardens, and assistants find it desirable, in order to the more convenient maintenance of their lighthouses and lights, to possess a small additional quantity of ground adjoining their lighthouses, and it is usual for them in such cases to purchase the same, but difficulty has been occasionally experienced in effecting such purchases :—

It is Enacted,

LX. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the said master, wardens, and assistants from time to time whenever they shall see fit, to take so much and such quantity of ground adjoining or near to any of the lighthouses erected or to be erected by them as they shall deem necessary for the purposes of the said lighthouse or the occupation thereof, not exceeding in the whole one acre as to any one lighthouse ; and all and every the powers of purchase and sale in and by this Act conferred in reference to lighthouses authorized to be purchased by the said master, wardens, and assistants shall be deemed to extend to every such piece of ground so to be taken by them under the authority of this Act ; and all and every the provisions in this Act contained, in reference to the purchase of lighthouses, or to the adjustment or assessment and payment or investment of the purchase-money for the same, shall be deemed to extend also to the purchase of any such piece of ground as aforesaid, and to the adjustment or assessment and payment or investment of the purchase-money for the same : Provided always, that in case any such lighthouse in respect of which the said master, wardens, and assistants shall take any land or ground to be held therewith under the powers of this Act, shall at any time hereafter be abandoned or given up by the said master, wardens, and assistants, or for the space of three years shall cease to be used or employed as a lighthouse, or in case the said land shall be otherwise used than for the purposes of the said lighthouse or the occupation thereof, then and in every such case any land or ground which shall have been so taken by the said master, wardens, and assistants shall vest in the person or persons who was or were proprietor or proprietors thereof at the time of the purchase by the said master, wardens, and assistants, or his or their heirs, executors, or administrators, on the repayment of the purchase-money thereof, according to the nature of his or their estate or interest in such land or ground at the time of the purchase, or the person or persons who would have been or become entitled to the said land or ground in case such purchase had not been made.

And after reciting, that it sometimes happens that fires and lights are burnt at or caused by kilns, factories, or other works situate on the coasts of the United Kingdom, so as to be mistaken at sea for lighthouses, whereby vessels navigating along or near to the said coasts are exposed to much peril, and it is expedient that a sure and speedy remedy be provided for such inconvenience :—

It is Enacted,

LXI. That if any fire or light shall at any time hereafter be burnt at or caused by any kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, in such manner and form, or at such times, or in such place on or near to any part of the coasts of the United Kingdom, as to be subject and liable to be mistaken at sea for any lighthouse on or near to any part of such coasts for the protection and guidance of vessels, and the owner or other person having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work shall not, within a reasonable time after notice to that effect shall have been delivered to him or them, or left at such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, as the case may be (such reasonable time to be specified in such notice), take effectual means in order to prevent the fire or light burnt at or caused by the same from being so as aforesaid mistaken at sea for any such lighthouse, every such owner or other person so having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work so making default as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a common nuisance, and, over and besides all other pains and penalties by law inflicted upon persons guilty of a common nuisance, shall be subject to a penalty of 10*l.*, to be levied and recovered in a summary way before any one or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county wherein or next whereunto such kiln or factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, shall be situate, upon complaint to him or them in that behalf by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, or one of their agents ; and such penalty (unless forthwith paid) shall and may be levied by distress and sale, under the warrant of such Justice or Justices, of the goods and chattels of the person who shall be adjudged guilty of such nuisance, and shall go and be applied (after first defraying thereout the reasonable costs and charges of recovering the same) to or for the use of the parish or union where such offence shall have been committed or such default made, to be applied in aid of the poor rate of such parish or union; and if the owner or other person having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work shall still fail or neglect to abate such nuisance for and during the period of seven days next after such penalty shall have been adjudged by or before such Justice or Justices, then it shall be lawful for the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, as the case may be, their agents or workmen, thereupon forthwith to enter upon such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, or the land whereon or near whereto the same may be situated, and, at the expense of such owner or other person, to abate the said nuisance, or take such other convenient measures in regard thereto as to them shall seem meet, in order to prevent the fire or light from time to time burnt at or produced by such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work from being so mistaken for any lighthouse (the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, and their agents and workmen aforesaid, doing no unnecessary damage to the owner or occupier of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work); and the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, shall and may recover the expense of so abating such nuisance, or of such other measures so by them taken in regard thereto under the authority of this Act (with treble costs of suit), in any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, by action of debt or on the case, against any one or more of such owners, or against the person having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work; and no conviction, order, direction, or warrant made or purporting to be made by virtue of this Act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or into the Court of Session in Scotland.

LXII. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, commissioners and corporation respectively, shall within one month after the meeting of Parliament in every year lay before each house of Parliament a true account of the receipt and application of all monies which shall have been received and applied by them respectively for any such tolls in respect of any lighthouse, together with a report of the principal alterations and improvements (if any) that shall have been made by them respectively in any lighthouse in the course of the then last past year.

LXIII. That in case any suit or action shall be commenced against the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, or any other person, for anything done in pursuance of this Act, the defendant or defendants in such suit or action may plead generally that the matters complained of in and by such suit or action were done by the authority of this Act of Parliament, and may give the special matters in evidence.

LXIV. That in the provisions of this Act which relate to the purchase or vesting of lighthouses, and to the application of the purchase-money thereof, the word "lighthouse" shall be construed to include (as the case may be) lighthouse, light, or sea-mark, and all lands, buildings, fixtures, apparatus, and furniture belonging thereto and occupied therewith, and all tolls or duties or other profits or produce arising in respect of such lighthouse, light, or sea-mark, or its appurtenances and any estate or interest therein, and rent, rent-charge, annuity, payment, or incumbrance issuing thereout or charged thereon; and the words "purchase-money" shall include compensation as well as purchase-money, and whether ascertained by agreement between the master, wardens, and assistants and the party interested, or by assessment by a jury; and the word "payment" shall include all rents, rent-charges, annuities, or sums of money payable; and the word "sheriff" shall include under-sheriff or other legally competent deputy; and the word "precept" shall include "warrant"; and the word "person" shall include bodies politic or corporate; and in all other parts of this Act the word "lighthouse" shall include lighthouses, lights, sea-marks, floating lights, beacons, buoys, and other marks or signs for the sea; and the word "tolls" shall in every part of this Act include every species of duty or payment payable by the owners or masters of ships and vessels in respect of a lighthouse, floating light, sea-mark, buoy, or beacon; and the word "vessel" shall include "ship"; and the expression "officer of the Customs" shall include collector, comptroller, receiver of entries, surveyor or searcher, waiter, or any other officer of Customs of His Majesty, or his deputy or clerk; and the expression "His Majesty" shall include the heirs and successors of His Majesty; and the expression "His Majesty in council" shall mean His Majesty acting by and with the advice of his most honourable Privy Council; and the term "Lord High Treasurer" shall mean also the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, while that office is performed by commission; and the word "Commissioners" shall mean Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses; and the word "corporation" shall mean corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin; and the word "England" shall mean England and the principality of Wales; and the word "county" shall mean any riding or other like division of a county; and in describing any persons or things any word importing the plural number shall mean also one person or thing, and any word importing the singular number shall include several persons or things; and any word importing the masculine shall include also the feminine gender; unless in any of such cases there shall be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

LXV. That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act; and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Act refers.

SKERRIES.
SPURN POINT.
TINMOUTH CASTLE.
SMALLS.
LONGSHIPS.

more effectual security of ships and vessels navigating the seas off and near to the coasts of the said United Kingdom, that power should be given to alter from time to time the position of the lighthouses erected or placed for the protection of vessels, as occasion may require :—

It is Enacted,

LIX. That when any lighthouse shall, by reason of any variation or change in the form of any such sand or shoal, become unnecessary in the situation in which the same shall then be, and shall become necessary or would from such or any other cause be more useful in some other situation, the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, may, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in council, remove and discontinue any such lighthouse, and erect another or other lighthouses instead thereof where they shall be found better adapted for the purpose of protecting ships and vessels from damage ; and from the time at which such new lighthouse shall have been so erected, and so long as the same shall be maintained, and a light shall be exhibited therefrom during the night season, the tolls theretofore payable in respect of such lighthouse so removed or discontinued shall be payable in respect of such new lighthouse, and the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, may thenceforth collect and have the same tolls for the maintenance of any such new lighthouse, from or in respect of such and the same vessels, and to be collected, recovered, and applied in such and the same manner, as were the tolls in respect of the lighthouse so removed or discontinued : Provided always, that where any such lighthouse shall be so removed and discontinued, and any new lighthouse shall be erected instead thereof, notice of such removal and discontinuance, and of the erection of such new lighthouse, shall be published by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners and corporation respectively, three, several times in the London Gazette, and also in two or more of the principal papers circulated in Edinburgh, in case such new lighthouse shall be erected on the coast of Scotland, and in two or more of the principal papers circulated in Dublin, in case such new lighthouse shall be erected on the coast of Ireland.

And after reciting, that it sometimes happens that the said master, wardens, and assistants find it desirable, in order to the more convenient maintenance of their lighthouses and lights, to possess a small additional quantity of ground adjoining their lighthouses, and it is usual for them in such cases to purchase the same, but difficulty has been occasionally experienced in effecting such purchases :—

It is Enacted,

LX. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the said master, wardens, and assistants from time to time whenever they shall see fit, to take so much and such quantity of ground adjoining or near to any of the lighthouses erected or to be erected by them as they shall deem necessary for the purposes of the said lighthouse or the occupation thereof, not exceeding in the whole one acre as to any one lighthouse ; and all and every the powers of purchase and sale in and by this Act conferred in reference to lighthouses authorized to be purchased by the said master, wardens, and assistants shall be deemed to extend to every such piece of ground so to be taken by them under the authority of this Act ; and all and every the provisions in this Act contained, in reference to the purchase of lighthouses, or to the adjustment or assessment and payment or investment of the purchase-money for the same, shall be deemed to extend also to the purchase of any such piece of ground as aforesaid, and to the adjustment or assessment and payment or investment of the purchase-money for the same : Provided always, that in case any such lighthouse in respect of which the said master, wardens, and assistants shall take any land or ground to be held therewith under the powers of this Act, shall at any time hereafter be abandoned or given up by the said master, wardens, and assistants, or for the space of three years shall cease to be used or employed as a lighthouse, or in case the said land shall be otherwise used than for the purposes of the said lighthouse or the occupation thereof, then and in every such case any land or ground which shall have been so taken by the said master, wardens, and assistants shall vest in the person or persons who was or were proprietor or proprietors thereof at the time of the purchase by the said master, wardens, and assistants, or his or their heirs, executors, or administrators, on the repayment of the purchase-money thereof, according to the nature of his or their estate or interest in such land or ground at the time of the purchase, or the person or persons who would have been or become entitled to the said land or ground in case such purchase had not been made.

And after reciting, that it sometimes happens that fires and lights are burnt at or caused by kilns, factories, or other works situate on the coasts of the United Kingdom, so as to be mistaken at sea for lighthouses, whereby vessels navigating along or near to the said coasts are exposed to much peril, and it is expedient that a sure and speedy remedy be provided for such inconvenience :—

It is Enacted,

LXI. That if any fire or light shall at any time hereafter be burnt at or caused by any kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, in such manner and form, or at such times, or in such place on or near to any part of the coasts of the United Kingdom, as to be subject and liable to be mistaken at sea for any lighthouse on or near to any part of such coasts for the protection and guidance of vessels, and the owner or other person having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work shall not, within a reasonable time after notice to that effect shall have been delivered to him or them, or left at such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, as the case may be (such reasonable time to be specified in such notice), take effectual means in order to prevent the fire or light burnt at or caused by the same from being so as aforesaid mistaken at sea for any such lighthouse, every such owner or other person so having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work so making default as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a common nuisance, and, over and besides all other pains and penalties by law inflicted upon persons guilty of a common nuisance, shall be subject to a penalty of 10*l.*, to be levied and recovered in a summary way before any one or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county wherein or next whereunto such kiln or factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, shall be situate, upon complaint to him or them in that behalf by the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, or one of their agents ; and such penalty (unless forthwith paid) shall and may be levied by distress and sale, under the warrant of such Justice or Justices, of the goods and chattels of the person who shall be adjudged guilty of such nuisance, and shall go and be applied (after first defraying thereout the reasonable costs and charges of recovering the same) to or for the use of the parish or union where such offence shall have been committed or such default made, to be applied in aid of the poor rate of such parish or union; and if the owner or other person having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work shall still fail or neglect to abate such nuisance for and during the period of seven days next after such penalty shall have been adjudged by or before such Justice or Justices, then it shall be lawful for the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, as the case may be, their agents or workmen, thereupon forthwith to enter upon such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work, or the land whereon or near whereto the same may be situated, and, at the expense of such owner or other person, to abate the said nuisance, or take such other convenient measures in regard thereto as to them shall seem meet, in order to prevent the fire or light from time to time burnt at or produced by such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work from being so mistaken for any lighthouse (the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, and their agents and workmen aforesaid, doing no unnecessary damage to the owner or occupier of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work); and the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation respectively, shall and may recover the expense of so abating such nuisance, or of such other measures so by them taken in regard thereto under the authority of this Act (with treble costs of suit), in any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, by action of debt or on the case, against any one or more of such owners, or against the person having the care or management of such kiln, factory, furnace, forge, chimney, building, or other work; and no conviction, order, direction, or warrant made or purporting to be made by virtue of this Act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or into the Court of Session in Scotland.

LXII. That the said master, wardens, and assistants, commissioners and corporation respectively, shall within one month after the meeting of Parliament in every year lay before each house of Parliament a true account of the receipt and application of all monies which shall have been received and applied by them respectively for any such tolls in respect of any lighthouse, together with a report of the principal alterations and improvements (if any) that shall have been made by them respectively in any lighthouse in the course of the then last past year.

LXIII. That in case any suit or action shall be commenced against the said master, wardens, and assistants, Commissioners or corporation, or any other person, for anything done in pursuance of this Act, the defendant or defendants in such suit or action may plead generally that the matters complained of in and by such suit or action were done by the authority of this Act of Parliament, and may give the special matters in evidence.

LXIV. That in the provisions of this Act which relate to the purchase or vesting of lighthouses, and to the application of the purchase-money thereof, the word "lighthouse" shall be construed to include (as the case may be) lighthouse, light, or sea-mark, and all lands, buildings, fixtures, apparatus, and furniture belonging thereto and occupied therewith, and all tolls or duties or other profits or produce arising in respect of such lighthouse, light, or sea-mark, or its appurtenances and any estate or interest therein, and rent, rent-charge, annuity, payment, or incumbrance issuing thereout or charged thereon; and the words "purchase-money" shall include compensation as well as purchase-money, and whether ascertained by agreement between the master, wardens, and assistants and the party interested, or by assessment by a jury; and the word "payment" shall include all rents, rent-charges, annuities, or sums of money payable; and the word "sheriff" shall include under-sheriff or other legally competent deputy; and the word "precept" shall include "warrant;" and the word "person" shall include bodies politic or corporate; and in all other parts of this Act the word "lighthouse" shall include lighthouses, lights, sea-marks, floating lights, beacons, buoys, and other marks or signs for the sea; and the word "tolls" shall in every part of this Act include every species of duty or payment payable by the owners or masters of ships and vessels in respect of a lighthouse, floating light, sea-mark, buoy, or beacon; and the word "vessel" shall include "ship;" and the expression "officer of the Customs" shall include collector, comptroller, receiver of entries, surveyor or searcher, waiter, or any other officer of Customs of His Majesty, or his deputy or clerk; and the expression "His Majesty" shall include the heirs and successors of His Majesty; and the expression "His Majesty in council" shall mean His Majesty acting by and with the advice of his most honourable Privy Council; and the term "Lord High Treasurer" shall mean also the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, while that office is performed by commission; and the word "Commissioners" shall mean Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses; and the word "corporation" shall mean corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin; and the word "England" shall mean England and the principality of Wales; and the word "county" shall mean any riding or other like division of a county; and in describing any persons or things any word importing the plural number shall mean also one person or thing, and any word importing the singular number shall include several persons or things; and any word importing the masculine shall include also the feminine gender; unless in any of such cases there shall be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

LXV. That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act; and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Act refers.

SKERRIES.
SPURN POINT.
TINMOUTH CASTLE.
SMALLS.
LONGSHIPS.

CAP. LXXX.

AN ACT to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting an Aid by a Land Tax and for continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions.

(13th August 1836.)

By this Act,

Section 1., additional Land Tax Commissioners are named and appointed; and by Section 11., the powers and authorities given by 7 & 8 Geo. 4. c. 75, and several other recited Acts, are extended to such additional Commissioners.

CAP. LXXXI.

AN ACT to authorize His Majesty, until Six Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, to carry into immediate Execution, by Orders in Council, any Treaties, Conventions, or Stipulations made with any Foreign Power or State for the Suppression of the Slave Trade.

(17th August 1836.)

By this Act,

1. His Majesty is empowered by orders in council, to carry into immediate execution all treaties, conventions, and stipulations made with any foreign power or state for the suppression of the slave trade, and such orders shall have the effect of Acts of Parliament.

11. This Act, and all orders in council issued under the authority thereof, shall continue in force until the expiration of six months after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXII.

AN ACT to carry into further Execution an Act for compensating Owners of Slaves upon the Abolition of Slavery, and for completing the full Payment of such Compensation.

(17th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Surplus revenue may be issued out of growing produce for payment of slave compensation monies.
2. Rate of interest to be allowed to persons at the Cape of Good Hope and at the Mauritius.
3. Creation of stock towards providing for payment of slave compensation to persons at the Cape of Good Hope, the Mauritius, and the Virgin Islands.
4. Stock may be transferred or payment made to claimants at Cape of Good Hope, or Mauritius, or Virgin Islands.
5. Slave compensation monies in respect of litigated claims may be transferred to the Accountant General of Chancery.
6. Indemnification to Accountant General of Court of Chancery.
7. Accountant General may appoint a deputy, whose Acts shall be valid.
8. If any stock remaining after claims are satisfied, it may be cancelled.
9. Powers in recited Acts to apply to this Act.
10. Act may be altered this session.

By this Act,

After reciting the passing of an Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, and that the sum of Twenty Millions sterling was authorized to be raised by the said recited Act for the purposes of the said Act; and part thereof has been accordingly raised, and applied to the payment of the several persons entitled to slave compensation in certain of the colonies mentioned in the said recited Act; and other part of the said sum of Twenty Millions has been provided for by the creation of certain capital stock in satisfaction of the several claims to such compensation by the persons entitled thereto in the colony of Barbadoes, in lieu of paying the same in money; and it is expedient to make provision for paying and satisfying the balance remaining due upon the said sum of Twenty Millions:—

It is Enacted,

1. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any three or more of the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by warrant under their hands, to order and direct, from time to time, and at any time, until the whole of the said sum of Twenty Millions shall be paid and satisfied, the issuing out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the purposes of this Act, during the quarter immediately ensuing the day to which the annual account of the receipt and expenditure of the said United Kingdom shall be made up (commencing with the annual account made up to the 5th of July 1836), the whole or any part of the one-fourth part of the sum which by every such annual account shall appear to be the surplus revenue of the said United Kingdom beyond the annual expenditure thereout, which shall be required from time to time for the purposes of this Act and the said recited Act, anything in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and the sum stated in every such warrant shall be forthwith issued out of the growing produce of the said Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, upon the account standing in their names in the books of the Bank of England under the title of the "West India Compensation Account;" which said monies shall be applied by the said Commissioners, in common with the monies standing at any time on the said account, to the purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act.

And after reciting that it is enacted by the said recited Act that the said Act should come into operation in the colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and the Mauritius at periods more remote than in certain other colonies mentioned in the said Act by the following intervals of time; (videlicet,) by four calendar months in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and by six calendar months in the colony of the Mauritius;—

It is Enacted,

II. That the interest upon the several sums of money awarded to persons entitled to slave compensation in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope shall be after the rate of 2l. 12s. 8d. per centum per annum from the 1st of December 1834 exclusive to the 1st of December 1835 inclusive, and after the rate of 3l. 7s. 8d. per centum per annum from the 1st of December 1835 up to and including the day of the payment of the principal sum awarded, if the payment of the award shall be made in money, or up to and including the 5th of April 1836 if payment of the sum so awarded shall be made in 3l. 10s. per centum reduced annuities hereinafter mentioned from which last-mentioned day the interest or dividend upon the 3l. 10s. per centum reduced annuities hereinafter mentioned will commence; and in respect of the colony of the Mauritius the interest upon the several sums of money awarded to persons entitled to slave compensation in the said colony shall be after the rate of 2l. 12s. 8d. per centum per annum from the 1st of February 1835 exclusive to the 1st of February 1836 inclusive, and after the rate of 3l. 7s. 8d. per centum per annum from the 1st of February 1836 up to and including the day of the payment of the principal sum awarded, if the payment of the award shall be made in money, or up to and including the 5th of April 1836 if payment of the sum awarded shall be made in 3l. 10s. per centum reduced annuities, from which last-mentioned day the interest or dividend upon the said 3l. 10s. per centum reduced annuities will commence; and that all such interest as may have been paid and allowed on such claims by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under any directions given by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury previously to the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby confirmed.

And after noticing that it is enacted by the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, that no part of the said sum of Twenty Millions sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes aforesaid, for the benefit of any person now entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein mentioned, unless an order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of his Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act by such further and supplementary enactments as are therein referred to, nor unless a copy of such order in council, duly certified by one of the clerks in ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, for their or his guidance or information: And that no order of the King in council has been made declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the Virgin Islands for giving effect to the said recited Act by such further and supplementary enactments as are specified in the said recited Act, and no payment of compensation for slaves in the said islands hath yet been made, and it is further expedient that provision should be made for the payment of compensation awarded in the said islands, or in the said colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, or any portions thereof, either in money or 3l. 10s. per centum reduced annuities: And that the sums apportioned for slave compensation to the several persons entitled thereto in the said colonies of the Cape of Good Hope, the Mauritius, and the Virgin Islands, amount together to the sum of 3,432,974l. 1d.;—

It is Enacted,

III. That, towards providing for the payment and satisfaction of such compensation as aforesaid, there shall be, immediately after the passing of this Act, written in and placed to the credit of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in the books of the said Bank of England, by the Accountant General for the time being of the Governor and Company of the said Bank, in a new and separate account under the title of "The Slave Compensation Account," the sum of 3,437,270l. 11s. 10d. of capital of reduced annuities, bearing interest after the rate of 3l. 10s. per centum per annum, such capital in the said annuities being equivalent to the sum of 3,432,974l. 1d. sterling, estimating the price of such 3l. 10s. per centum per annum annuities after the rate of 99l. 17s. 6d. for every 100l. of such reduced 3l. 10s. per centum per annum annuities (such price being the average price of the existing reduced 3l. 10s. per centum per annum annuities on the 30th of July 1836, being the day on which the certificates of award did commence to be issued for the said colony of the Mauritius), which capital sum of 3,437,270l. 11s. 10d. shall be added to and consolidated with, and shall be deemed and taken as part of, and be subject to all the conditions attending the reduced 3l. 10s. per centum per annum annuities existing at the time of the passing of this Act, forming part of the public debt of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be assignable and transferrable and redeemable accordingly; and the dividends and charges of management arising upon the said capital sum of 3,437,270l. 11s. 10d. reduced 3l. 10s. per centum per annum annuities shall be chargeable and the same are hereby charged upon and made payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the first half-yearly payment whereof shall commence from the 5th of April 1836 exclusive; and so much money shall from time to time be set apart and issued at the receipt of the Exchequer in England, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, to the cashier or cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as shall be sufficient to satisfy and pay the said annuities to be created in respect of the said sum of 3,432,974l. 1d. sterling, together with the charges attending the same.

IV. That upon application to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the payment of any sum which shall hereafter be awarded to any person or persons, owners of slaves in the said colonies of the Cape of Good Hope or the Mauritius or the Virgin Islands, for slave compensation under the provisions of the said Act, the said Commissioners shall, at the option and under the directions of any three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pay the same in money out of the said "West India Compensation Account," or transfer or cause to be transferred from the said account intituled "The Slave Compensation Account," to the person or persons entitled to such slave compensation, such a proportionate amount of the said reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum per annum annuities}$, in satisfaction of the sum awarded to such person or persons, as the whole sum of 3,432,974*l.* 1*d.* shall bear to the whole capital of the said reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum per annum annuities}$ to be created under the provisions of this Act.

And after reciting that the claims for slave compensation of some of the persons in the said colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and the Mauritius, and also claims in other colonies mentioned in the said recited Act, may become the subject of counter claim or litigation before the said Commissioners of Arbitration, or in the courts of the said colonies, or in any court of appeal, and it is expedient that power should be given to transfer the amount of such litigated claims to the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to abide the final settlement of such claim;—

It is Enacted,

v. That it shall be lawful for any three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to direct the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt from time to time to transfer or cause to be transferred into the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery at the Bank of England such portion or portions of the said reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum per annum annuities}$ standing to the credit of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in the books of the said Bank of England under the title of "The Slave Compensation Account" as shall appertain to any claim which may from time to time be certified by the said Commissioners of Arbitration to be the subject of any counter claim before them, or of any suits in the courts of any of the said colonies mentioned in the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4, or in any court of appeal, and also to direct the payment to the account of the said Accountant General at the Bank of England, by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of the amount of any interest that may have accrued and become due upon any such claims up to the 5th of April 1836, from which time the interest on the said reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum per annum annuities}$ is to commence and be payable, and it shall be lawful for the said Accountant General to invest the amount of any such interest in the like $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum per annum annuities}$, and also to invest therein the future half-yearly dividends arising from such reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum annuities}$ as the same shall arise and become due; and all such reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum annuities}$ so transferred to or purchased by the said Accountant General may be held by him in the books of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England in trust for the purposes of the said recited Act or this Act, and shall be liable to such and the like provisions in respect to the sale and payment of the proceeds thereof, or to the transfer thereof, by the said Accountant General, so far as regards the claims to slave compensation arising in any of the said colonies, as the $3\text{L. per centum consolidated bank annuities}$ are subject and liable to in respect of litigated claims referred to in an Act, 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 45, intituled, 'An Act to carry into further Execution the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of His present Majesty, for compensating Owners of Slaves upon the Abolition of Slavery,' or in an Act, 6 Will. 4. c. 5, intituled, 'An Act for carrying into further Execution Two Acts of His present Majesty relating to the Compensation for Slaves upon the Abolition of Slavery, and for facilitating the Distribution and Payment of such Compensation.'

vi. That the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery shall be and he is hereby indemnified and saved harmless from all or any suit or action at law or in equity for any act to be done or performed by him in carrying into execution the provisions of this Act, or in acting under the same, and shall not be held or taken to be responsible for or liable to make good any payment of money or transfer of bank annuities erroneously made by him, unless the same shall have been occasioned by the wilful default or negligence of the said Accountant General.

vii. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery to nominate and appoint a fit and proper person to do and perform all or any of the acts and duties imposed upon the said Accountant General by this Act; and that the acts of the said deputy shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been done by the Accountant General himself.

And after reciting that there will be a portion of the reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum annuities}$, created for the purposes of the said recited Act and this Act, left standing in the names of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, after satisfying the several claims for slave compensation in the said colonies, and also by reason of the awards for slave compensation being in many instances paid in money, and not in reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum annuities}$;—

It is Enacted,

viii. That it shall and may be lawful for any three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to order and direct the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England to cancel all such portions of stock, and thereupon the dividends or interest which would have been payable on the reduced $3\text{L. } 10\text{s. per centum annuities}$ so cancelled shall thenceforward cease to be charged upon or issued out of the said Consolidated Fund; and the accrued dividends which may have been issued upon any such stock previously to the cancelling of such stock shall be paid by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt into the receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, to be carried to and form part of the income of the Consolidated Fund.

ix. That the powers and provisions contained in the said recited Acts, 3 & 4, 5 & 6, and 6 Will. 4, shall, so far as the same may be applicable, apply to this Act in the same manner as if they had been severally re-enacted herein.

x. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXIII.—IRELAND.

AN ACT for the regulation of the Offices of Vice Treasurer and Teller of the Exchequer in Ireland.

(17th August 1836.)

By this Act,

After reciting the passing of 54 Geo. 3. c. 83; 56 Geo. 3. c. 98; 57 Geo. 3. c. 84; and 3 Geo. 4. c. 56; and that with a view to the advantage of the public service, it is expedient that the receipt and issue of all the monies forming the public revenues of the United Kingdom should be placed under the controul and superintendence of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and further and more effectual regulations are therefore necessary in respect of the issue of the public monies in Ireland, and also in respect of the offices of Vice Treasurer and Teller of the Exchequer:—

It is Enacted,

I. That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, or for any three or more of them, to reduce or consolidate the offices of Vice Treasurer and Teller of the Exchequer in Ireland, and from time to time to make such orders, rules, and regulations in regard to the receipt and issue of the public monies into and from the receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, and also for the discharge of the duties of the said offices of Vice Treasurer and Teller of the Exchequer in Ireland, as to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall seem proper; and all such orders, rules, and regulations shall be of full force and validity in all respects, anything in any Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. That the several orders, rules, or regulations which may be issued by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury under the authority of this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within six weeks after the issue of such orders, rules, or regulations, if Parliament shall be sitting, or if not sitting, then within six weeks next immediately after the re-assembling of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXIV.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to consolidate and amend the several Acts for the uniform Valuation of Lands and Tenements in Ireland, and to incorporate certain detached Portions of Counties and Baronies with those Counties and Baronies respectively whereto the same may adjoin, or wherein the same are locally situate.

(17th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Acts and parts of Acts repealed; 7 Geo. 4. c. 62, 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 51, 2 & 3 Will. 4. c. 73, and part of 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 55, except as they repeal other Acts.—Proviso.
2. Persons acting under recited Acts to continue in discharge of their duties till otherwise directed.
3. Whenever the survey of any barony, &c. is completed, a map to be sent to Chief Secretary of Lord Lieutenant.
4. Lord Lieutenant may appoint a Commissioner to value the baronies, &c. so surveyed.—Appointment to be notified to Secretary of grand jury.
5. Grand juries at assizes shall appoint committees of appeal for each barony, and a general committee of revision for the county.
6. Lord Lieutenant may appoint assessors to such committees.—Decisions of questions by committees.
7. Commissioners shall appoint valuers.
8. Lord Lieutenant may give orders as to conduct of Commissioners and valuers.
9. Averages at which valuations shall be made of lands.
10. Valuation of houses.
11. Lord Lieutenant may direct all houses not exceeding 5l. in annual value to be erased from lists, &c.
12. Outbuildings and appurtenances to be valued with the house.
13. Effective water power of all mills to be valued.
14. Commissioner of valuation shall distinguish all houses, &c. which shall be exempted from applotment, &c.
15. What houses, &c. exempted from applotment.—Committees of appeal and of revision to determine exemptions.
16. High constables, &c. to make returns to Commissioner of Valuation respecting exemptions.
17. Commissioner and valuers may enter any land, houses, gardens, &c. in execution of this Act.
18. Valuers shall enter valuation of each parish in a separate field book, and transmit the same to the Commissioner of Valuation.
19. Commissioner shall make out from such field books a list of the parishes, townlands, &c. and their contents and valuation, and transmit it to the high constable, with notice of the day of appeal.
20. High constable shall send copies to churchwardens of each parish, who shall post them on church doors, &c.
21. Churchwardens shall call a vestry to consider the lists, and the necessity of appealing against them.
22. Select vestry shall consist of persons having paid 20s. per annum to county cess, or being Justices of the Peace, or freeholders of 20l. or upwards.
23. If vestry agree to appeal for the parish or for any townland, a memorandum thereof and of the grounds of appeal shall be sent to the Commissioner of Valuation.
24. Appeal may be made against exemption or non-exemption.
25. How to proceed where there shall be no churchwarden.

26. Notice by Commissioner to secretary of grand jury, and by secretary of grand jury to committee of appeal, of day and time appointed for hearing appeals.
27. Meeting of committee of appeal.
28. Field books shall be produced before committee of appeal;—who may summon witnesses;—and examine them on oath.—Penalty for perjury.
29. Committee of appeal may direct re-valuation, or amend or confirm the original valuation.
30. Costs by parishes on appeal may be ascertained by committee, and levied as other parish rates.
31. Where no appeal, valuation conclusive.—Decision of committee of appeal conclusive, if Commissioner or assessor assent, otherwise to be subject to review of committee of revision.
32. Committee of appeal may in certain cases direct a new valuation to be made, although no appeal shall have been lodged in respect thereof.
33. When the valuation of any barony has been made and decided on, a list of the several parishes and the divisions of land within them shall be prepared and published.—During the period herein described, all county cess, &c. shall be levied according to the proportions therein specified.
34. But not to affect the relative proportion borne by such barony.
35. When valuation of barony is completed, Commissioner to lodge a copy of field book and a field map, in office of Treasurer of county, for public inspection.
36. When valuations of all the baronies in any county are completed, Commissioner shall send list thereof to secretary of grand jury, who shall summon the committee of revision.
37. Committee of revision may examine valuations of baronies in field books, and amend the same so as to make them just and proportionate with each other.
38. Committee of revision may alter the valuation of any division of a barony, as well as of the whole barony.
39. Fractions of a pound may be rejected from the valuation of the whole barony, &c.
40. When committee of revision have come to a decision the list to be signed and a copy published.—After the end of the assizes next ensuing the publication of the valuation all charges and rates shall be levied according to the proportions of that valuation.
41. At some assizes within three years after publication of such list and valuation grand jury to fix a time for re-assembly of committee of revision to finally amend and settle valuations.—Notice of complaints intended to be preferred thereat to be given by two persons at least thirty-one days previously.
42. List and valuation of the baronies, when finally settled by committee of revision, shall be published in the Dublin Gazette.
43. After such publication all county cess shall be levied according to the sums and proportions in such valuation.
44. Treasurer to furnish copies of field books and maps to persons requiring same for applotment of grand jury cess.—Such field books and maps not to be conclusive in respect to such applotment.
45. Salary to Commissioners of Valuation.
46. Lord Lieutenant may order an allowance for travelling expenses to Commissioner of Valuation in addition to his salary.
47. Lord Lieutenant may advance money out of Consolidated Fund.—Sums paid to Commissioner and valuers to be repaid by presentment.
48. Construction of terms.
49. Commissioner of Valuation to transmit statements of progress.
50. Penalty on high constable, churchwarden, Commissioner, &c. neglecting their duty in execution of this Act.
51. When the boundary surveyors, &c. shall find any detached portion of any one county situate within or surrounded by other counties, &c. they shall report same to Lord Lieutenant in council.—Lord Lieutenant in council shall order the annexation of such detached portions.
52. What such order of the Lord Lieutenant, &c. in council shall contain.—Order to be published in Dublin Gazette, and copies thereof delivered to surveyors and lodged with clerks of the peace for the counties to which same shall relate.
53. Lord Lieutenant in council empowered to make a supplemental order.
54. Provision for counties or baronies of which the general or boundary survey shall have been completed before the passing of this Act.
55. Penalty on persons displacing marks, &c. or obstructing surveyors, &c.
56. No order to affect the boundaries of land with respect to any right or interest therein, or any proceeding in law or equity instituted previous thereto, nor any description in any deed.
57. Penalties may be recovered before two Justices of the Peace.—Application of penalties.
58. Form of conviction.
59. Persons aggrieved by conviction may appeal to Quarter Sessions, giving ten days notice and security.—Costs of appeal recoverable by distress.
60. Proceedings not to be quashed for want of form.
61. Limitation of actions.—Notice.—Tender of amends.—Venue.—General issue.—General avowry in replevin.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is expedient to repeal the several Acts for the uniform valuation of lands and tenements in Ireland, in order that the provisions thereof may be amended and consolidated:—

It is Enacted,

I. That, save as is hereinafter excepted, the following Acts and parts of Acts be repealed; (that is to say,) the 7 Geo. 4. c. 68; 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 51; 2 & 3 Will. 4. c. 73; and so much of 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 55. as relates to the uniform valuation of lands and tenements in Ireland; and the said several Acts and parts of Acts are hereby repealed, save so far as they repeal any other Act or part thereof: Provided nevertheless, that all acts, matters, and things heretofore done under the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, hereby repealed, shall be and remain valid and effectual to all purposes whatsoever; and that any valuation made or in progress under the provisions of the said Acts shall be deemed and taken to be a valuation made by authority of this Act; and that all proceedings had or taken in or towards making the valuation prescribed by the said Acts shall enure to the purposes of the valuation prescribed by this Act, and be taken to be good, valid, and effectual as if done for the purpose of the valuation prescribed by this Act and under the authority hereof, subject nevertheless to the provision hereinafter contained for the amendment of the valuation made or in progress under authority of the said repealed Acts.

II. That the Commissioner of Valuation and other persons heretofore appointed or acting under the said recited Acts, or any of them, in any county, shall be and they are hereby authorized and required, notwithstanding the passing of this Act, to continue to discharge and execute their several duties and offices, for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution, without any further or other appointment thereto, until the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall otherwise direct.

III. That whenever the survey of any county or of any barony of a county liable to be separately assessed to raise and pay any proportion of county cess charges and grand jury rates, now and heretofore in progress, shall have been made and completed under the direction of the officers appointed by the Master General and Board of Ordnance, a map or plan of such barony shall be transmitted by some such officer to the Chief Secretary of the said Lord Lieutenant, from time to time when and as any such survey shall have been or shall be made and completed, or when and as any such map or plan shall be required by such Chief Secretary to be transmitted as aforesaid.

IV. That at any time after the receipt of any such map or plan it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant to nominate and appoint one fit and proper person to be Commissioner for the several counties in Ireland, to be called the Commissioner of Valuation for such counties, who shall hold such office during the will and pleasure of the said Lord Lieutenant, and who shall repair to any county, and make a valuation of the houses and lands within every barony, parish, or other division in such county of which any such map or plan shall have been made and delivered as aforesaid, and shall proceed in such valuation at such times and in such manner and under such regulations as such Lord Lieutenant shall order, direct, and appoint; and the said chief secretary shall notify or cause to be notified in writing to the secretary of the grand jury of every such county the appointment of such Commissioner of Valuation, and such secretary shall lay such notification before the grand jury of such county at the next ensuing assizes.

V. That at the next ensuing assizes after the receipt of the notification of the appointment of such Commissioner of Valuation (or at any succeeding assizes, if need be), the grand jury of such county shall nominate and appoint committees for the several baronies within every such county respectively, each consisting of not less than three nor more than five of such grand jurors or persons who have served upon grand juries, together with any number of Magistrates, not more than five, resident within such county, each to be called a Committee of Appeal on Valuations for the barony or baronies to be named and appropriated to each committee; and every such committee shall sit and meet within the barony or baronies for which such committee shall be appointed, at such times as shall be required for the execution of the purposes of this Act; and such grand jury shall also in like manner nominate and appoint one general committee, to consist of not less than seven nor more than twelve persons who have served on grand juries or who are Magistrates resident within such counties, to be called a Committee of Revision of Valuations for the county; and such committees shall sit and act under the directions of this Act; and when it shall happen that any such committee of appeal or committee of revision respectively shall not have assembled, or shall not have received notice to assemble, at any time previous to the assizes next ensuing such their appointment respectively, the grand jury at such next ensuing assizes shall nominate and appoint a committee or committees of appeal and a committee of revision, as the case shall require, either by reappointment of the former members or any of them, or by the appointment of any other person or persons, to be members of such committees respectively; and the appointment of such committees shall be made, and lists thereof respectively shall be delivered by such grand jury to the Court, before any presentment for any road or bridge shall be filed by the Judge at any such assizes.

VI. That it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant, on the application of any such Commissioner, or when it shall seem expedient to him so to do, to appoint any practising barrister to be an assessor to any such committee, either to assist such Commissioner, or in the place and instead of such Commissioner; and such Commissioner, or in his absence such assessor, shall attend and act as chairman of such committee of appeal or revision; and such committee so constituted shall decide on all questions which shall come before them by a plurality of voices; and in case any such committee shall be equally divided, the Commissioner of Valuation, or in his absence the assessor, being such chairman, shall have the casting voice.

VII. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Valuation who shall be appointed under this Act to nominate and appoint any number of persons, conversant and professionally employed in surveying and valuing land and houses, or in cases of towns in valuing of houses only, to be valuers, and to remove all or any such valuers from time to time, and to nominate any other person or persons to be a valuator or valuers in the place and stead of the person so removed; and previously to the appointment of any person to be a valuator such Commissioner shall, in company with such person, perambulate the whole or any part of a barony, in order fully to ascertain his competence for acting as such valuator.

VIII. That it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant to give such orders, instructions, and directions for the conduct of the said Commissioner or Commissioners and valuers respectively, and for the employment of such clerks or other persons, in the discharge of their several duties under this Act, as to such Lord Lieutenant shall from time to time seem fitting and expedient for the due execution of this Act.

IX. That the valuation of all lands for the purposes of this Act shall be made with reference to the average prices as herein-after specified of the several articles following: (that is to say.)

Wheat at the general average price of ten shillings per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Oats at the general average price of six shillings per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Barley at the general average price of seven shillings per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Potatoes at the general average price of one shilling and sevenpence per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Butter at the general average price of sixty-nine shillings per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Beef at the general average price of thirty-three shillings per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Mutton at the general average price of thirty-four shillings and sixpence per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds:

Pork at the general average price of twenty-five shillings and sixpence per hundred weight of one hundred and twelve pounds.

X. That for the purposes of this Act all houses comprised in the valuation hereby directed to be made shall be valued at the sum or rent for which each such house could be let by the year, deducting therefrom one-third part of such sum or rent: Provided always, that no house for which a greater sum or rent by the year than 5*l*. could not be obtained shall be included in the said valuation.

And after noticing that in the valuation heretofore made under the authority of the several Acts hereby repealed houses of an annual value exceeding 5*l*. have been included, and it is expedient that such valuation should be amended in that respect:

It is Enacted,

XI. That the said Lord Lieutenant shall and may, when he shall so think fit, authorize and direct the Commissioner of Valuation by whom any such valuation may have been made to deduct and erase from the several maps, field books, and lists all houses which shall therein therein appear to be of an annual value not exceeding 5*l*.; and such maps, field books, and lists so amended shall be of the like validity and effect as the same now are, and as if such houses had never been included therein: Provided always, that no levy nor assessment made previous to such amendment shall be impeached by reason of houses of an annual value not exceeding 5*l*. having been included in the valuation with reference whereunto such levy or assessment may have been made.

XII. That all outbuildings, barns, stables, warehouses, yards, and offices belonging or contiguous to any house, and occupied therewith by one and the same person or by the same persons, or his or their servants, as one entire concern or undivided tenancy or holding, shall be valued together with such house, and be deemed and taken to be parcel thereof.

XIII. That all flour, corn, flax, or other mills, or buildings erected for manufacturing or other purposes, shall be included in such valuation; provided that the water power of any such mill or manufactory be only valued so far as it may be actually used, and that such valuation shall not extend to or include the value of any machinery contained within such mill or manufactory.

XIV. That in making out the lists or tables of valuation hereinafter mentioned of the several parishes within each barony, and of the townlands or other sub-denominations or divisions of land within every such parish, as hereinafter specified, the Commissioner of Valuation shall distinguish all houses, lands, or tenements of a public nature, or used for charitable purposes, and the value of the same shall be deducted from the gross amount of the valuation of the houses, lands, and tenements comprised in each such list or table; and all such houses, lands, or tenements so distinguished and deducted shall be exempt from apportionment or assessment for or towards all county cess charges and parish rates whatsoever so long as they shall continue to be of a public nature or used for charitable purposes; and the lists, tables, or valuations so reduced shall be and be deemed to be the lists, tables, or valuations whereby all grand jury and parish rates shall be assessed and levied as hereinafter provided.

XV. That no houses, lands, or tenements shall be deemed to be of a public nature or used for charitable purposes within the meaning of this Act unless such houses, lands, or tenements shall be altogether of a public nature or used exclusively for charitable purposes: Provided nevertheless, that the Committee of Appeal and Committee of Revision respectively in each county shall, as hereinafter provided, have power and authority to consider and determine the justice and propriety of all such exemptions, and to make order allowing or disallowing the same accordingly.

And in order to ascertain the houses, lands, and tenements exempt from assessment as aforesaid:

It is Enacted,

XVI. That the several high constables or other collectors of county cess in every county shall, with all convenient speed after the same shall have been demanded of them, make out and deliver to the Commissioner of Valuation for such county a return of the several houses, lands, and tenements which are altogether of a public nature or used exclusively for charitable purposes within their respective districts of collection; and such return shall specify the tenancy and occupation in which each of such houses, lands, or tenements may be or have been held, and the use or purpose to which applied, and shall describe the situation thereof as fully and accurately as may be possible; and in case any high constable or collector shall neglect to make such return as aforesaid, or make the same in an improper or insufficient manner, it shall not be lawful to or for the grand jury of the county for which he may act to present any fee or salary for such high constable or other collector at the assizes next ensuing such neglect or default.

XVII. That it shall and may be lawful for any Commissioner appointed or continued under this Act, and for any valuator or valutors appointed under this Act, from time to time to enter into and upon any land or house for the purpose of making and carrying on any valuation authorized by this Act: Provided always, that in every case in which it shall be necessary for any such Commissioner or valuator to enter any house, or any walled garden or orchard or pleasure ground, and when the owner or occupier thereof may oppose or refuse to allow such entry, such Commissioner or valuator shall give three days notice to the owner or occupier of such house, garden, orchard, or pleasure ground, requiring to be permitted to enter the same; and at any reasonable time after the delivery of such notice it shall be lawful to make such entry; such Commissioner and valutors doing as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers to them granted by this Act, and making reasonable satisfaction (if required) to the owners of and other persons interested in any such houses, lands, gardens, orchards, or pleasure grounds which shall or may be any way hurt or damaged in or by the execution of any of the powers of this Act; and this Act shall be sufficient to indemnify such Commissioner and valutors and all persons acting in aid or under the orders of any of them in the execution of this Act.

XVIII. That the said valuator shall enter the particulars of the valuation of each and every parish, and of each and every townland within the same, when and as each such valuation shall be completed, in a separate and distinct field book, to be appropriated to each and every such parish respectively, and to be distinguished and entitled as the survey and field book of each such particular parish respectively, distinguishing the barony in which such parish shall be situate, and also distinguishing the several townlands within such parish, and the value of each thereof respectively; and such valutors shall sign every such book with their several names, in their several and respective handwritings, with the date of completing such valuation; and such valuers shall transmit or deliver every such field book of every such parish, so signed, to the Commissioner of Valuation for the county in which every such parish shall be situate.

XIX. That when and so soon as the valuation of all the parishes within any barony shall be completed, the Commissioner of Valuation shall prepare and make out from such field books as aforesaid a list or table of the several parishes within such barony, and of the townlands within every such parish respectively, distinguishing the number of acres contained in every townland within such parish, and the total value of the land and houses in every such parish respectively, according to the survey thereof and of the valuation thereof made in pursuance of the directions of this Act; and such Commissioner of Valuation shall transmit printed copies of such list, in the form set forth in the Schedule No. 1. annexed to this Act, to the high constable or other collector of the county cess or grand jury rate in or for the barony, and shall at the foot of such list specify the day and place appointed by such Commissioner of Valuation for the meeting of the committee of appeal, and which day shall not be sooner than six weeks after the day of the transmission of such list to such high constable.

XX. That every high constable or collector to whom any such list shall be transmitted as aforesaid shall transmit copies of each such list to the churchwardens or churchwarden of every parish within such barony; and every such churchwarden within ten days after the receipt of such list shall post and affix a copy thereof on the principal outer door of the church and of any one Roman Catholic chapel, and of any one Presbyterian meeting house within such parish, there to remain affixed for two successive Sundays after the affixing thereof; and if any such copy of any such list shall be removed from the church or other place where the same shall have been posted or affixed as aforesaid, or shall be destroyed or defaced at any time within fourteen days after the affixing the same, the churchwardens or churchwarden shall post and affix, or cause to be posted and affixed, a new copy of every such list on the door of such church, chapel, or meeting house respectively, and so from time to time when any such copy shall be so destroyed or defaced.

XXI. That within ten days next after the receipt of the copy of any such list as aforesaid public notice shall be given by the churchwardens or churchwarden in the usual manner of notices given for holding vestries in such parish, that a select vestry will be holden in and for such parish on some day to be named in such notice, not being less than ten days nor more than fourteen days from the Sunday on which any such list shall have been first affixed on the door of the church and other place or places of public worship in such parish, for the purpose of taking such list into consideration, and to determine on the necessity or propriety of appealing against such list; and such vestry so assembled shall proceed to take such list into consideration, and may adjourn from time to time to any day not more than ten days distant from the first day of meeting.

XXII. That no person shall be admitted or entitled to attend or to vote at any such select vestry to be holden for the purposes last aforesaid, except such persons as are hereafter described, (that is to say) such persons as shall have actually paid and satisfied county cess charges or grand jury rates for lands or tenements in such parish to the amount of 20s. within twelve calendar months next preceding the day of holding any such vestry, and persons who shall be Justices of the Peace, qualified to act as such within such parish, and persons seised respectively of freehold estate, situate within such parish of the value of 20l. or upwards, (not arising from a rent charge,) and duly registered as such under any Act or Acts in force relating to the election of members of Parliament in Ireland, and of which registry such persons shall produce a certificate signed by the clerk of the peace; and if any person shall attend or vote, or shall claim or offer to attend or vote at any such select vestry, not being qualified in such manner as is hereinbefore stated, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 10l.

XXIII. That if on the first day of the meeting of such vestry, or at any adjourned meeting of such vestry which shall be held on any day not more than ten days distant from such first day of meeting, it shall be determined that an appeal shall be made against any valuation contained in such list in respect of the valuation of the whole of such parish as compared with any other parish within the barony, or if it shall appear to such vestry that the owners or occupiers of the greater portion in extent and value of lands situate in any townland within the parish in which such vestry shall be held shall be desirous of appealing against the valuation of any such townland as compared with that of any other townland or townlands within the said barony, it shall be lawful for such vestry to direct that such appeal shall be made by such vestry on behalf of such parish or by certain persons to be named at such vestry on behalf of the owners or occupiers of land within any such townland as aforesaid; and a memorandum of the agreement to make such appeal, or some minute or entry of the same, and of the grounds of such appeal, shall be stated in writing, and shall be entered in the books of such vestry, or in some book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be signed by the chairman of such vestry and four other persons present at such vestry; and a copy of the memorandum of such agreement and the grounds of such appeal shall be transmitted by the chairman of such vestry within two days after such meeting to the Commissioner of Valuation for the county in which such parish shall be situate, and shall be held to be sufficient notice on the part of such parish or townland of their intention to appeal.

XXIV. That it shall and may be lawful for any select vestry to appeal against any valuation contained in any table or list or against the formation of any table or list prepared under authority of this Act, on the ground of any houses, lands, or tenements having been improperly considered as of a public or charitable nature, and distinguished or deducted from any list or valuation accordingly, whether such houses, lands, or tenements be situate in the parish wherein such vestry may be holden, or in any other parish of the same barony; and that such appeal shall be determined upon, and a memorandum of the agreement so to appeal made, and like notice thereof given, as in case of appeal on any ground whereupon it may be lawful to appeal by virtue of the provisions of this Act.

XXV. That in any parish or place in which there may be no churchwarden or churchwardens, the high constable shall transmit copies of the valuation list to some two landholders resident within such parish or division, who shall post the same in like manner as the churchwardens of any parish have been hereinbefore required to do, and shall summon a special vestry to meet for the consideration of such list, at some convenient time and place within such parish or place, and notify the time and place appointed for the meeting of such vestry by notices to be posted in like manner as the said lists are hereinbefore directed to be posted; and the special vestry so summoned shall have all such power and authorities in respect of such lists, and appealing against the same or any part thereof, and shall be constituted in like manner and subject to the like rules and regulations, as any special vestry summoned by any churchwardens for the purposes of this Act.

xxvi. That the Commissioner of Valuation by whom such list of the valuations of the several parishes and townlands in any barony of any county shall be transmitted to the high constable or collector, as by this Act is required, containing such notice of the day and place appointed by such Commissioner for the hearing appeals against any valuation specified in such list shall within seven days next after the transmitting such list to such high constable or collector, give and transmit notice in writing to the secretary of the grand jury of such county of the day and place so appointed for the hearing of such appeals; and such secretary of the grand jury shall give notice of the day and place so appointed for the hearing of such appeals by letters addressed to each and every of the persons who shall have been nominated and appointed by the grand jury, in pursuance of this Act, to be the committee of appeal against valuations in and for such barony; and such secretary of the grand jury shall also give notice of such day and place of meeting, by an advertisement to be inserted in some public newspaper usually circulated in such county, in some publication of such newspaper fourteen days at least before the day appointed for such meeting.

xxvii. That it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal to assemble, at the day and place appointed, for the hearing of all appeals of which such notice shall have been given as aforesaid, and that such place shall be the usual place of holding sessions of the peace within the barony, unless some other place shall be specially appointed in the notice for the sitting of such committee of appeal and for the hearing such appeals; and it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal to adjourn from time to time as they shall see fitting and convenient.

xxviii. That the Commissioner of Valuation shall produce or cause to be produced before such committee of appeal all or any of the field books which shall have been transmitted to such Commissioner from the valutors of any parish, in case the same shall be required by such committee; and it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal to send their precept or precepts, under their hands and seals, or the hands and seals of any two of them or under the hand and seal of the Commissioner of Valuation, or, in his absence, of the assessor to be appointed as aforesaid, to any person or persons whomsoever, to attend and appear and be examined before such committee of appeal; and all and every person or persons who shall be called upon or summoned by any such precept, shall and they and he are and is hereby required and directed to attend such committee of appeal at such time and times and place and places as shall be appointed; and it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal, or any member thereof, and they and he is and are hereby authorized and empowered, to examine any such person or persons upon oath (or affirmation in the case of Quakers), and such committee, or any member thereof, (three or more of the members of such committee being present,) shall and may and are and is hereby authorized and empowered to administer such oath or affirmation to any person or persons respectively; and all and every such persons or person shall answer upon oath or affirmation as aforesaid to all questions which shall be put to them by such committee, or any member thereof; and if any person or persons shall, upon his, her, or their examination before such committee, wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, every such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such pains and penalties as by any law in force and effect in Ireland persons guilty of perjury are subject and liable to.

xxix. That if upon the hearing of such appeal it shall appear to such committee of appeal that there is any just cause of complaint against such valuation, or any part thereof, either by reason of the disproportion of the valuation of any parish or townland as compared with the valuation of any other parish or townland, or by reason of the valuation not having been made with reference to the standards fixed for such valuation by this Act, or on any other account whatsoever, it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal, if they shall think fit, to alter or amend such valuation, or if they shall consider a new valuation to be necessary, to direct that a new valuation shall be made of any parish or townland or parishes or townlands contained in such valuation, by some valuator or valutors, not being the same who were employed or engaged in making the valuation appealed against; and such committee shall order that such new valuation shall be made and produced before such committee on a day to be appointed for that purpose by the said committee, to which day it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal to adjourn accordingly; and at such adjourned meeting of such committee of appeal it shall be lawful for the said committee of appeal, and they are hereby authorized and required, to compare such new valuation with the former valuation of the same parish or townland or parishes or townlands appearing in the field books made on the first valuation thereof respectively, and to make such alterations or amendments in the amount of such first valuation, or otherwise to confirm the same, in such manner as to such committee of appeal shall appear to be consistent with the justice of the case.

xxx. That it shall be lawful for such committee of appeal to ascertain and allow the amount of any costs incurred by or on behalf of any parish in the bringing and hearing of any such appeal; and the amount of all such costs so ascertained and allowed shall be assessed and apportioned by the churchwardens or churchwarden of such parish, either on the inhabitants of the whole of such parish, or on the inhabitants of any townland or townlands within such parish in respect of which such appeal shall have been made, and shall be levied on such inhabitants in like manner and in such proportions as any assessment or apportionment on any such inhabitants in respect of any church rates or other parish charges may be assessed, apportioned, and levied.

xxxi. That where no appeal shall have been made to such committee of appeal against any such valuation within the time directed by this Act, such valuation, as stated in the list prepared by the Commissioner of Valuation under the directions of this Act, shall be conclusive; and that, in case of appeal, the decision of such committee of appeal shall be conclusive in all cases where such decision shall be concurred in and approved of by the Commissioner of Valuation, or, in his absence, by the assessor to be appointed as aforesaid, and sitting as chairman of such committee of appeal: Provided always, that in case it shall happen that such Commissioner of Valuation or assessor respectively, sitting as such chairman as aforesaid, shall disagree from the decision of such committee of appeal, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioner or assessor to submit such decision to the committee of revision for such county, at the time when the valuation of all the baronies within the county shall be submitted to the review of such committee of revision in manner hereinafter mentioned; but until the decision of such committee of revision shall have been obtained, the valuation determined on by the majority of the committee of appeal shall be acted on in the same manner as if such appeal to the committee of revision had not been made by the Commissioner of Valuation or his assessor.

xxxii. Provided, that where an appeal shall have been made to any committee of appeal, under the provisions of this Act, by or on behalf of any parish, or the owners or occupiers of land within any townland of any parish, against the valuation or any part of the valuation of the same or of any other parish or townland or townlands within the same barony, and it shall appear to such committee of appeal that just cause has been shewn to warrant such committee to direct that a new valuation shall be made of any such parish or parishes, townland or townlands in respect of or on behalf whereof such appeal may have been made, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said committee of appeal, with the consent of the Commissioner of Valuation for such county, or of his assessor, to direct that a new valuation shall in like manner be made of any other parish or parishes, townland or townlands, within the same barony, the valuation whereof shall appear to the said committee to have been defective or erroneous in the same respects or to which the same ground of appeal may appear justly applicable, although no such appeal shall have been made in respect of or on behalf of such other parish or parishes, townland or townlands.

XXXIII. That when and as the valuation of any barony within a county shall have been made by such valutors, and transmitted to the Commissioner of Valuation and decided on by the committee of appeal, the said Commissioner of Valuation shall prepare and make out, in the form of the Schedule (No. 1.) to this Act annexed, a list or table of the several parishes within such barony, and of the several townlands within each such parish, distinguishing the number of acres contained in every such parish and townland, and the value of the lands and houses in each such parish or townland respectively, according to the survey and valuation thereof so decided upon; and each such list or table shall be signed by the said Commissioner of Valuation or his assessor, and three members of the said committee of appeal, and shall be transmitted, so signed, to the chief secretary of the said Lord Lieutenant, and a copy thereof shall be published in some newspaper circulated in the county to which such valuation shall relate; and from and after the end of the assizes next ensuing the day of such publication, and until the end of the assizes next ensuing the day on which the list and valuation of all the baronies within the same county, as completed and agreed on by the first or preliminary committee of revision appointed under the provisions of this Act, shall have been published but no longer, all grand jury rates, and the usual and accustomed proportion of all county cess charges whatsoever, imposed or to be imposed on such barony by presentments of the grand jury, or to be raised off such barony or any parish and division thereof, and all parish rates imposed or to be imposed or levied off any parish or townland of such barony, under the authority of any law or statute, shall be assessed and levied off such barony, and off every parish and townland therein, according to the proportions specified in such list and valuation so signed and published as hereinbefore directed.

XXXIV. That the publication of the list and valuation of any barony, by order of the committee of appeal under the provisions of this Act, shall not alter or affect the relative proportion of county cess or charges which by any laws or usage may be or have been borne by such barony as compared with any other barony or baronies.

XXXV. That when and so soon as the valuation of all the parishes within any barony shall be completed, the Commissioner of Valuation shall make out a copy of the field book of each parish, and shall make out a field map shewing the several portions of land which may have been separately valued, and distinguishing and numbering the same so as to correspond with the said field book; and the said Commissioner shall deliver such copy of the field books and maps, attested by his signature, to the treasurer of the county, who shall keep the same in his office, there to remain open to public inspection; and any owner or occupier of land within such parish shall be at liberty to make copies or extracts therefrom without fee or reward.

XXXVI. That when and so soon as the valuation of all the baronies within any county shall have been made by such valutors as aforesaid, and transmitted to the Commissioner of Valuation, and decided on by such committee of appeal, the said Commissioner shall prepare and make out a list or table, in the form contained in Schedule (No. 2.) to this Act annexed, of all the several baronies within such county, specifying the number of acres within each such barony according to the survey made thereof by the officers of Ordnance, and the total value of the land and houses in such barony according to the valuation thereof by such valutors pursuant to the directions of this Act, and shall transmit a copy of such list or table, signed by such Commissioner, and dated on the day of the transmission thereof, to the secretary of the grand jury of such county, and shall at the foot of the copy of such list specify the day appointed by such Commissioner of Valuation for the meeting of the first or preliminary committee of revision of the said county at the county court-house of the said county, for the revision of the valuation of the said baronies, which day shall not be sooner than eight weeks next after the date of the copy of such list signed by such Commissioner; and such secretary of the grand jury shall give notice of the day and place appointed for the revision of such list, by letters addressed to each and every of the persons who shall have been nominated and appointed by the grand jury in pursuance of this Act to be the committee of revision for such county; and such secretary of the grand jury shall also give notice of such day and place of meeting of such committee of revision, by an advertisement to be inserted in some public newspaper usually circulated in such county, in some publication of such newspaper six weeks at least before the day appointed for such meeting.

XXXVII. That at the day appointed for the meeting of such committee of revision the members of such committee of revision together with the Commissioner of Valuation, or his assessor, shall meet together in the court-house of such county, and shall there proceed to inquire and consider and determine whether the several baronies of the said county have been equally and properly valued, pursuant to the directions of this Act, with reference to the standards fixed for such valuation by this Act, and also with reference to the respective valuations of the several baronies as compared with each other; and the said Commissioner of Valuation shall produce or cause to be produced before the said committee of revision, if they shall require the same, all the field books containing the valuation of the several parishes within the several baronies of the said county, and such field books shall and may be consulted, perused, and examined by the said committee of revision, or any member thereof; and if upon such examination or otherwise it shall appear to such committee of revision that any excessive or defective valuation has been made of any barony, or that the standard required by this Act has not been adhered to in such valuation, or on any other account whatsoever, it shall be lawful for such committee of revision to correct any errors which may appear to them upon examination and inquiry to have been made in such valuations, so as to make the valuation of the respective baronies just and equal and in due proportion with each other; and it shall be lawful for such committee of revision to adjourn from time to time as they shall see fitting and convenient.

XXXVIII. That when any such committee of revision shall think fit to alter the amount of the valuation of any barony, as compared with any other barony, it shall and may be lawful for them to alter the amount of the valuation of any parish or parishes, townland or townlands of such barony, in such manner and to such extent as the said committee shall think just with regard to the reason or principle on which the gross amount of the valuation of such barony may have been altered by them.

XXXIX. That all fractional parts of a pound sterling may be rejected from the total value of any barony, parish, manor, or other denomination, as stated in any list and valuation prepared under the authority of the said Acts or this Act, for the purpose of computing the proportions in which the same shall be respectively rated.

XL. That when the committee of revision shall have come to a decision the list of the several baronies and the valuation thereof, as confirmed or amended, shall be signed by the Commissioner of Valuation or by the assessor, and by three at least of the members of the said committee of revision appointed by the grand jury, and a copy thereof, according to the form (No. 3.) of the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in such other form as shall be approved of by the Judge and grand jury at any assizes to be holden for such county, shall be published in some public newspaper circulated in the county to which such list and valuation shall relate; and from and after the end of the assizes next ensuing the day on which such list and valuation so signed shall be published as aforesaid, all county cess and charges whatsoever, and all grand jury rates, imposed or to be imposed on any such county by presentments of the grand jury, or to be raised off such county, or any barony, parish, or townland thereof, and all parish rates imposed or to be imposed or levied or to be levied under the authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall be assessed and levied off such county, and off every barony, parish, or townlands therein, according to the proportions specified in such list and valuation so published, until and unless the same shall be revised or altered by a committee of revision re-assembled as hereinafter provided, and no longer.

XLI. That at some assizes within three years next after the publication of such list and valuation of all the baronies of each county the grand jury shall nominate and appoint a time for the re-assembly of the committee of revision of such county, and the secretary of the grand jury shall give notice of the time appointed for such re-assembly of the committee of revision in like manner as he is required to give notice of the first meeting of such committee; and at the time so appointed the members of such committee of revision, together with the Commissioner of Valuation or his assessor, shall meet in the court-house of such county, and shall there and then inquire into and determine all such complaints as shall be made against the said valuation or any part thereof; and it shall be lawful for the said committee to revise and amend such valuation as to them may seem just, or to direct a new valuation when the same shall appear necessary, and to adjourn from time to time; and the valuation, as confirmed or amended and finally agreed on by such committee, shall be in the place and stead of the former valuation so published, and of like force and effect: Provided always, that notice in writing of any complaint which it is intended to prefer to the said committee so re-assembled shall be given to the Commissioner of Valuation of such county or to the secretary of the grand jury, who shall forward the same to the said Commissioner, at least thirty-one days before the time appointed for the re-assembling of such committee; and that such notice shall be subscribed by at least two persons each paying grand jury cess to the amount of 40s. or by at least two persons having each a freehold or leasehold estate in lands or tenements of the annual value of 20l. or upwards and situate in such county.

XLII. That when the committee of revision so re-assembled shall have come to a final decision the list of the several baronies, and the valuation thereof as confirmed or amended and finally agreed on by such committee of revision so re-assembled, shall be signed by the Commissioner of Valuation or by the assessor and by three at least of the members of such committee of revision; and a copy thereof, according to the form contained in No. 3. of the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in such other form as shall be approved by the Judge and grand jury at any assizes to be holden for such county, shall be transmitted to the chief secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, and he shall cause the same to be published in the Dublin Gazette within thirty-one days next after he shall have received such list so signed by such Commissioner and committee or three members thereof; and the secretary to the grand jury shall also cause such list to be published in some public newspaper circulated in the county to which such list and valuation shall relate; and the several field books and other documents shall be transmitted by the Commissioner of Valuation to the office of the chief secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in Dublin Castle, to be there arranged and kept as may be most for convenience and security; and a copy of such field books shall be furnished by such Commissioner of Valuation to the treasurer of the county.

XLIII. That from and after the end of the assizes next ensuing the day on which such list and valuation so signed and settled by the said committee of revision so re-assembled as aforesaid shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, all county cess charges whatsoever and all grand jury rates imposed or to be imposed on such county by presentments of the grand jury, or to be raised off such county, or any barony, parish, or townland thereof, and all parish rates imposed or to be imposed or levied or to be levied under the authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall be assessed and levied off such county, and off every barony, parish, or townland therein, according to the proportions specified in such list and valuation so published, and not otherwise; any law, usage, or custom, or any former assessment or valuation, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XLIV. That the treasurer of each county shall furnish copies of such field books, as and when the valuation therein contained shall have been confirmed or amended and finally agreed on by the said committees of appeal and revision respectively of such county in manner by this Act provided, and of such field maps, marked and numbered to correspond with such field books, to any person or persons requiring the same for the applotment of grand jury cess, and such copies shall be prepared under such regulations as the grand jury of such county shall fix and determine; and they shall present, to be raised off the townland or other denomination of land to which such copies shall relate, the expense of making the same: Provided always, that such field books and field maps shall not be conclusive in respect to such applotment, but that such applotment shall be varied from time to time when and as to the applotters may seem just and necessary with regard to the value of the lands and premises subject to such applotment at the time of making the same.

XLV. That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to order and direct that a salary, at the rate of not more than 500l. by the year, shall and may be paid to any person who shall be appointed Commissioner of Valuation, and to each and every person who shall be continued as a Commissioner of Valuation under the authority of this Act, during the time he shall be so employed.

And after reciting that it is expedient, for the more complete uniformity of the said valuation, that the same should be carried on under the control and direction of a single Commissioner of Valuation, and the salary of 500l. per annum is an insufficient remuneration for a person appointed to act as such Commissioner in many counties:

It is Enacted,

XLVI. That in addition to the said salary of 500*l.* per annum it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant, at his discretion, to order and direct such allowance for travelling and other expenses, not exceeding 1*l.* 1*s.* per day for every day during which such Commissioner shall be engaged in the business of such valuation, as to the said Lord Lieutenant shall seem proper; and that every valuator or other person who shall be appointed under the authority of this Act shall receive and be entitled to receive for his trouble any sum of money or allowance not exceeding the rate of 20*s.* for every day during which any and every such person shall be employed by or engaged under the orders of such Commissioner of Valuation, upon a certificate, to be signed by such Commissioner, that such person was so employed for the number of days to be stated in such certificate, and that such person diligently conducted himself in the execution of this Act in a manner satisfactory to such Commissioner.

XLVII. That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to order and direct that any such sum or sums of money as he or they shall think proper shall from time to time be advanced out of the produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, arising in Ireland, for the defraying the salaries of the said several Commissioners of Valuation and the allowances which shall be from time to time payable to the persons employed in carrying this Act into execution; and all such advances shall be made to such persons, at such times, in such manner, and under such rules and regulations as shall from time to time be ordered and directed by such Lord Lieutenant, and as shall be signified in the usual manner by the chief secretary, or in his absence by the under secretary; and it shall be lawful for such chief secretary or under secretary to certify to the grand jury of any and every county within which any such persons shall be employed the amount of money which shall have been paid to the Commissioner of Valuation and to the several persons employed within such county in the execution of this Act out of the advance authorized by this Act; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any and every such county respectively, and they are hereby authorized and required, to make presentment of the amount of such expenses as stated in such certificate, to be raised off the county at large or the several baronies therein in such manner and in such proportions as the Lord Lieutenant shall direct; and when and so soon as the sum so to be presented as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the treasurer of any county, such treasurer shall pay over the same to such bank or person as the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury or any three or more of them shall think fit to direct.

XLVIII. That in the construction of this Act, the words "Lord Lieutenant" shall be understood to mean Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; the word "inhabitant" to include every one rated to the grand jury cess; and that all provisions and directions in this Act contained relating to counties shall extend to all counties, counties of cities, counties of towns, and towns corporate in Ireland, except such parts of the county of Dublin or the county of the city of Dublin as lie within the circular road of the said city, and which are comprised in the valuation made under authority of an Act, 5 Geo. 4. c. cxviii, intitled, 'An Act to provide for valuing the Houses situate in and near the City of Dublin, and for the more equal Payment of the local Taxes there;' and that all the acts and duties by this Act required to be performed by the several grand juries at the assizes for any county shall and may, in the county of Dublin or the county of the city of Dublin, be performed at the presenting terms by the grand juries duly met and impannelled; and that all provisions and directions relating to baronies shall extend to half baronies and to all other divisions of counties being greater than parishes; and that all provisions and directions relating to parishes shall extend to all chapelries or divisions of parishes or extra-parochial divisions, and to all unions of parishes, as if the same were one parish, in cases where any such union or division shall be rateable as one parish; and that that all provisions and directions relating to townlands shall extend to all divisions and sub-denominations of lands less than and being comprised within any parish; and that where any parish or union shall be situate in more than one county or barony, or partly in a county and partly in a county of a city, county of a town, or town corporate, the several parts of such parish shall be valued as a distinct parish in the several baronies or counties, or counties of cities or counties of towns, or towns corporate, to which they shall contribute to the payment of any county cess charges or grand jury rate.

XLIX. That ten days previously to the commencement of each assizes the Commissioner of Valuation shall transmit to the secretary of any grand jury of any county which shall be in the course of valuation a statement of the progress made in such valuation, together with the amount of the expenditure on the same, up to the period when such return shall be made.

L. That if any high constable or other collector of county cess or grand jury rates, or any churchwarden of any parish, or any landowner hereby required to act in lieu and stead of a churchwarden, or any Commissioner of Valuation or any valuator appointed by such Commissioner, or any secretary of the grand jury, shall omit or neglect or refuse to do any matter or thing which such high constable or collector, churchwarden, landholder, commissioner, valuator, or clerk of the peace are by this Act required and directed to do in the execution of this Act, in manner required by this Act, every person so offending shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 20*l.* and not less than 5*l.*, in the discretion of the Justices before whom such offender shall be convicted.

And after reciting that there are divers detached or isolated parcels of land belonging to or forming part of certain counties in Ireland, but locally situate within or surrounded by other counties; and in like manner there are divers detached or isolated parcels of land belonging to or forming part of certain baronies, but locally situate within or surrounded by other baronies: And that it is expedient, for the purpose of the general survey of Ireland now carrying on under the direction of the Master General and Board of Ordnance, and for the purpose of the valuation consequent upon such survey, that such detached or isolated portions of counties and baronies should be comprised and included in the counties and baronies within which they may be respectively locally situate or whereunto they may adjoin, so that each county and barony in Ireland may respectively consist of one continuous tract of land:

It is Enacted,

LI. That whenever the surveyors or persons appointed by the said Lord Lieutenant to ascertain and mark out the reputed boundaries of each or any county, barony, half barony, parish, or other division or denomination of land in Ireland, with a view to the more effectual execution of the general survey now in progress throughout Ireland under the direction of officers appointed by the Master General and Board of Ordnance, pursuant to the provisions of an Act, 6 Geo. 4. c. 99, intitled 'An Act to repeal an Act of the last Session of Parliament relative to the forming Tables of Manors, Parishes, and Townlands in Ireland, and to make Provision for ascertaining the Boundaries of the same,' shall find that there is any detached or isolated portion of any one county locally situated within any other county, or between any two other counties, or surrounded by any other counties, or that there is any detached or isolated portion or any one barony locally situated within any other barony, or between any two other baronies, or surrounded by any other baronies, the said surveyors or persons shall make a report to the said Lord Lieutenant in council, stating the situation of each such detached or isolated portion of a county or barony and of the adjoining counties or baronies, and describing the same in a plan or map to be annexed to such report; and thereupon such Lord Lieutenant in council shall make order directing such detached or isolated portion of a county or barony to be annexed to and incorporated with the county or barony wherein the same may be locally situate or by which it may be surrounded; or if such detached or isolated portion of a county or barony shall lie between two or more counties or baronies, then and in such case directing the same to be annexed to such of the said contiguous counties or baronies as he and they shall think proper.

LII. That the said Lord Lieutenant in council shall and may by such order as aforesaid limit and determine the purposes to which the union and annexation of such isolated or detached portion of a county or barony to such other county or barony shall extend, and fix and declare from what period the same shall take effect, and settle and adjust all such matters in respect of the right of voting at elections of members to serve in Parliament by persons holding or occupying houses, lands, or tenements in such county or barony, and for the alteration or amendment of the lists or registers of electors accordingly, and in respect of the assessment, applotment, and levy of grand jury and other rates and assessments, and in respect of all other matters and things proper or necessary to be settled and adjusted in consequence of the union or annexation directed to be made by such order; and the order of the said Lord Lieutenant in council shall be conclusive and binding in law in respect of the said several matters and things therein contained; and every such order shall be published in the Dublin Gazette; and a copy or copies of such order, certified under the hand of the clerk of the said council, shall be delivered to the said surveyors or other persons employed to ascertain and mark out the reputed boundaries of each or any county, barony, half barony, townland, parish, or other denomination or division of land in Ireland, who shall mark out the boundaries accordingly in pursuance to such order; and a like copy or copies shall be transmitted to the clerk of the peace for each county to which such order shall in any way relate, to be by him kept and preserved in his office, and exhibited at all reasonable hours to any person or persons who may desire to inspect the same, without fee or reward.

LIII. That it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant in council from time to time as occasion may require to make any supplemental order or orders for removing such doubts or settling such disputes as may arise in consequence of the changes effected by virtue of the provisions hereinbefore contained; and every such supplemental order shall be published and transmitted to the clerk of the peace, to be by him preserved and exhibited for inspection in like manner as hereinbefore provided in respect of any original order; and every such supplemental order shall have the same force and effect as if it had formed part of any original order made under the provisions of this Act.

And for the correction of any maps or surveys already made or in progress,—

It is Enacted,

LIV. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant to appoint the said boundary surveyor or person, or any surveyor or person whom he shall think fit, to ascertain if there be any detached or isolated portion of any one county locally situated within any other county, or between any two other counties, or surrounded by any other counties, of which county or counties the general survey under the direction of officers appointed by the Master General and Board of Ordnance, or the boundary survey under the provisions of the said recited Act, 6 Geo. 4, shall have been in progress or completed before the passing of this Act; and in like manner to ascertain if there be any detached or isolated portion of any one barony locally situate within any other barony, or between any two other baronies, or surrounded by any other baronies, of which barony or baronies the said general survey or boundary survey shall have been completed before the passing of this Act; and the said surveyor or person shall make a report to the said Lord Lieutenant in council, stating the situation of each such detached or isolated portion of a county or barony, if any, and of the adjoining counties or baronies, and describing the same in a map or plan to be annexed to such report; and thereupon such Lord Lieutenant in council shall have power and authority to make such and the like order or supplemental order in respect of any such detached or isolated portion of a county or barony so appearing in any survey or map completed before the passing of this Act as such Lord Lieutenant in council has been hereinbefore enabled to make in cases where such survey or map shall not have been begun or shall not have been completed previous to the passing of this Act; and such order or supplemental order in the case of any map or survey already completed shall be made and dealt with in the like manner and be of the like validity and effect as any order or supplemental order made in the case where any such map or survey has not yet been made or completed; and the said boundary surveyor or person shall amend any map or plan furnished by him to the officers appointed by the Master General and Board of Ordnance in conformity with such order directing the amendment of such map of survey; and the said officers shall in like manner amend the general survey map in conformity with such amended map or plan, and pursuant to the directions of the said Lord Lieutenant in council.

LV. That if any person or persons shall take away, or remove, or displace, or alter the situation of any boundary stone, post, or mark, which shall be set up and placed for the purposes of this Act, or shall wilfully deface, mutilate, break, or destroy any such boundary stone, post, or mark, or shall wilfully obstruct or hinder any surveyor in the execution of his duty in and about the ascertaining and marking out the boundaries of any detached or isolated portion of any county or barony as aforesaid, or shall assault any such surveyor, or shall in any way resist such surveyor in the performance of his duty under this Act, or shall obstruct, hinder, assault, or resist any workman or other person acting in aid of any such surveyor in the execution of this Act, every person or persons so offending and being duly convicted thereof shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 10*l.* and not less than 2*l.*, in the discretion of the Justices before whom he or they shall be so convicted.

LVI. That no order made in pursuance of this Act shall in any way affect the boundary or boundaries of any land with reference to any right, title, claim, possession, or interest therein; nor shall the description or denomination in any pleadings or proceedings, criminal or civil, in any court of law or equity, pending or instituted previous to the time limited for such order taking effect, be in any way vitiated or affected thereby; and that in the case of any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, pending or instituted previous to the time assigned in and by such order for the same taking effect, such suit or proceeding shall and may be continued as if no such order had been made, and without regard thereto; and the said order shall, in respect of such suit or proceeding, and any and every matter relating thereto, be void and of none effect; and that wherever, in any by such irregularity shall and may recover full satisfaction for the special damage (if any) in an action on the case; but no plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover in any action for such irregularity as aforesaid if tender of sufficient amends hath been made by or on behalf of the party distraining before such action commenced.

LXI. That no action, suit, or proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Justice of the Peace, or any Commissioner of Valuation, or against any valutors, or against any other person or persons, for anything done in pursuance of this Act, until thirty days notice thereof shall be given to such Justice or Commissioner or valuator, or other person or persons, nor after sufficient satisfaction or tender of amends hath been made to the party or parties aggrieved, nor after the expiration of three calendar months next after the fact committed; and every such action or suit or prosecution shall be laid or brought in the county, county of a city, or county of a town where the cause of action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the defendant or defendants in every such action, suit, or prosecution shall and may, at his or their election, plead specially or the general issue not guilty, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this Act; and if any replevin shall be brought for any cattle, goods, or chattels seized or taken by virtue or in pursuance of this present Act, it shall and may be lawful and sufficient to and for any person or persons who shall be defendant or defendants or avowant or avowants in any such replevin to avow, plead, or make cognizance generally, that he or they took the same cattle, goods, or chattels as a distress, by force of the statute in that case made and provided, without more particularly setting forth this Act, or the cause of making or detaining the said distress or distresses, or making any other more special plea, avowry, or cognizance, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and if it shall appear that the matter on which the cause of action arose was done, or that the distress replevied was made, in pursuance and by authority of this Act, or that such action or suit shall have been brought before thirty days notice thereof was given as aforesaid, or after a sufficient satisfaction made or tendered as aforesaid, or after the time limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other county, county of a city, or county of a town than as aforesaid, then the jury shall find for the defendant or defendants or avowant or avowants; and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or shall discontinue his, her, or their action, suit, or prosecution after the defendant shall have appeared, or if upon demurrer judgment shall be given against the plaintiff or plaintiffs, defendant or defendants or avowant or avowants shall recover double costs, and have such remedy for the same as any defendant or defendants hath or have in other cases of costs given by law.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

No. 1.

Barony of B. in the County of C.

VALUATION OF LANDS, &c. within the several Parishes and Townlands in the said Barony, made in pursuance of the Act, 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. ., for the uniform Valuation of Lands in Ireland.

	Acres.	Annual Value of Lands, &c.	Total in each Parish.
			Acres.	Value.
Parish of A.
Townland D.	250	£. 120	No.	£.
— E.	100	100
— F.	50	25
Total in the Parish of A.
Exemptions in the Parish of A.			400	245
Parish of G.
Townland H.	60	100	267	377
— I.	47	37
— K.	160	240
Total in the Parish of G.
Exemptions.
&c. &c. &c.
Total in Barony			667	622

The Meeting of the Committee of Appeal, named for the said Barony by the Grand Jury of the said County, is appointed for the Day of next, at the Court House at [or at any other Place fixed for the Meeting]. Dated this Day of 18 .

To the High Constable [or Collector of the } Cess] for the Barony of B.

C. V.
Commissioner of Valuation for the County of C.

A Copy of this List is to be transmitted by the High Constable [or Collector] to the Churchwardens of the several Parishes within the said Barony of B., and to be posted in manner directed by the said Act, 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. ., for the Valuation of Lands in Ireland.

Letters to be addressed to C. V. at

No. 2.

County of C.

VALUATION OF LANDS, &c. within the several Baronies in the said County, made in pursuance of the Act, 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. .. for the uniform Valuation of Lands in Ireland.

Baronies.	Parishes.	Acres.	Annual Value of Lands, &c.	Total in each Barony.
				Acres.	Value.
A.	B.	No.	£.	No.	£.
	Exemptions.	140	90
	F.	200	100
	Exemptions.
	Total of Barony A.	-		340	190
I.	K.	400	200
	Exemptions.
	N.	80	40
	Exemptions.
	Total of Barony I.	-		480	240
&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.
Total of all the Baronies in the County				-

The Meeting of the Committee of Revision named by the Grand Jury of the said County is appointed for the Day of next, at the County Court House at , for the Revision of the foregoing Valuation. Dated this Day of 18 .

C. V.
Commissioner of Valuation of the said County.

The Secretary of the Grand Jury is required by the said Act to give Notice of the Day and Place above appointed to each and every Member of the said Committee of Revision, and also to advertise the same in some public Newspaper circulated in the said County Fourteen Days at least before the said Day of Meeting.

No. 3.

County of C.

VALUATION of LANDS, &c. within the several Baronies in the said County, finally confirmed and agreed on by the Committee of revision appointed by the Grand Jury of the said County, in pursuance of the Act, 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. .., for the uniform Valuation of Lands in Ireland.

Baronies.	Parishes.	Acres.	Annual Value of Lands, &c.	Total in each Barony.
				Acres.	Value.
A.	B.	No.	£.	No.	£.
	Exemptions.	140	90
	F.	200	100
	Exemptions.
	Total of Barony A.	-		340	190
I.	K.	400	200
	Exemptions.
	N.	80	40
	Exemptions.
	Total of Barony I.	-		480	240
&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.
Total of all the Baronies in the County				-

C. D.
Commissioner of Valuation for the County of C.

E. F., } Members of the Committee
G. H., } of Revision for the said
I. K., }

County Court House,
Day of 18 .

CAP. LXXXV.

AN ACT for Marriages in England.

[This Act is printed in the Appendix, p. xvi.]

(17th August 1836.)

CAP. LXXXVI.

AN ACT for Registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England.

[This Act is printed in the Appendix, p. xxvi.]

(17th August 1836.)

CAP. LXXXVII.

AN ACT for distinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Ely in certain Liberties of the Counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge.

(17th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Secular jurisdiction of Archbishop of York in the places herein mentioned to cease.
2. Towns, &c. over which his jurisdiction extended to enjoy their privileges as heretofore.
3. Justices of Peace for Southwell.
4. Secular jurisdiction of Bishop of Ely to cease.
5. County rates of Ripon and Isle of Ely.
6. Custos rotulorum of West Riding and of Nottinghamshire.
7. Custos rotulorum of Ely.
8. Assizes, &c. for Ely to be held under 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 71.
9. Quarter Sessions of Isle of Ely.
10. Clerks of the peace.—Coroner for Ripon.
11. Who shall be qualified to serve on juries in Ripon.
12. Chief bailiff of the Isle of Ely.
13. Gaol at Ely abolished, and prisoners to be confined in Cambridge gaol.
14. Houses of correction and their keepers to remain.
15. Regulations respecting juries in Ely.
16. Present coroners of Ely continued and future vacancies provided for.
17. Compensation to persons affected by the provisions of the Act.
18. Restrictions as to compensations.
19. Reservation of patent fees to patentees for life.
20. Reservation of all profits to the ass.
21. The Bishop of Ely to take and hold subject to future provisions.
22. Chief Justice of Ely to act under commission of assize, &c. already issued.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is expedient to put an end to the secular jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York in the liberty of Ripon in the West and North Ridings of the county of York, and in the liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley in the said West Riding, and in the soke of Southwell in the county of Nottingham, and to the secular jurisdiction of the Bishop of Ely in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge:—

It is Enacted,

1. That all the secular authority of the Archbishop of York in the said liberty of Ripon, and in the said liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley, and in the said soke of Southwell, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease and determine, and shall become and be transferred to and vested in his Majesty, his heirs and successors.

II. That the several towns, parishes, and places within the said liberty of Ripon, and the said liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley respectively, shall severally be deemed and taken to be distinct liberties, in the same way as they have heretofore been, and shall enjoy all the same rights, privileges, and exemptions which they have heretofore enjoyed, save only that all secular powers and authorities heretofore exercised by the Archbishop of York within the said liberties, or either of them, shall henceforth be exercised by His Majesty, his heirs, and successors; and all persons now holding any office in the said liberties or either of them shall continue to hold the same in the same way as if this Act had not been passed.

III. That no new commission of the peace shall be henceforth issued for the said soke of Southwell, but the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Nottingham shall within the said soke of Southwell exercise the same jurisdiction, both in and out of sessions, as within every other part of such county; any charter or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. That all the secular authority of the Bishop of Ely in the Isle of Ely in the county of Cambridge, and all authority of the Chief Justice of Ely heretofore appointed by the Bishop of Ely, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease and determine; and all the secular authority of the said bishop shall become and be vested in His Majesty, his heirs, and successors: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Justice of the Peace now acting for the said liberties, soke, and isle respectively from continuing to act as such within the limits of their respective jurisdictions as if this Act had not been passed.

V. That the county rates for the said liberty of Ripon and for the said Isle of Ely shall remain, as heretofore, distinct from the rates for the rest of the counties of York and Cambridge respectively, and shall be assessed and levied and paid and applied by and under the order and direction of the Justices of the Peace for the said liberty and isle respectively as if the same were separate counties, but in all other respects under the same regulations as are applicable to the rates of other counties in England.

VI. That the custos rotulorum of the said West Riding of Yorkshire shall become the keeper of the records of the Court of Sessions of the Peace of the said liberty of Ripon, and of the said liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley, and that the custos rotulorum of the said county of Nottingham shall become the keeper of the records of the Court of Sessions of the Peace of the said soke of Southwell, and that the records of the said several courts shall be delivered to the said respective keepers accordingly.

VII. That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to appoint from time to time such person as he and they shall think fit to be custos rotulorum of the said isle of Ely.

VIII. That the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business in the said county of Cambridge, including the said Isle of Ely, shall be holden in such manner and at such place or places as shall be directed by His Majesty in council under the provisions of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 71, intituled, 'An Act for the Appointment of convenient Places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales.'

IX. That separate commissions of the peace shall continue to be issued for the said two liberties and isle respectively as heretofore; and the Sessions of the Peace for the said liberties and isle respectively shall be holden by and before the Justices of the Peace for the time being acting in and for the said liberties and isle respectively in like manner as the same have hitherto been holden.

X. That the present clerks of the peace for the said liberty of Ripon, and for the said liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley, and for the said Isle of Ely respectively, shall continue clerks of the peace for the said liberties and isle respectively during their lives, or until resignation or other determination of their offices, and that thenceforth the clerks of the peace for the said liberty of Ripon, and for the said liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley, shall be appointed by the custos rotulorum of the said West Riding for the time being, and the clerk of the peace for the said Isle of Ely shall be appointed by the custos rotulorum thereof for the time being, and shall be subject and liable to the same laws in all respects as the clerks of the peace in other counties of England; and that the present coroner of the liberty of Ripon shall continue coroner during his life, or so long as he shall well behave himself; and upon the death, removal, or resignation of such coroner, and upon every future vacancy of the office, a coroner shall be chosen by the freeholders of the said liberty of Ripon in like manner as coroners are chosen in the case of other counties or divisions of counties in England.

XI. That all persons residing within the said liberty of Ripon who by the laws now in force would be qualified and liable to serve on grand juries in Courts of Sessions of the Peace, and on petty juries for the trial of issues in Courts of Sessions of the Peace, holden for the county of York, if the said liberty were destroyed and the district comprised therein made for all purposes part of the said county, shall be qualified and liable to serve on such juries in Courts of Sessions of the Peace holden within the said liberty; and all persons who by the laws now in force would be exempted from serving on such juries, if the said district were for all purposes made part of the said county, shall in like manner be exempted from serving on such juries within said liberty.

XII. That the present chief bailiff for the said Isle of Ely shall continue chief bailiff of the said isle until resignation or other determination of his office, and that thenceforth it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to appoint from time to time such person as he or they shall think fit to be chief bailiff of the said isle.

XIII. That no person shall from and after the passing of this Act be committed to the gaol at Ely, but all persons who, if this Act had not been passed, might have been committed to or confined in such gaol may be committed to and confined in the gaol at Cambridge, and the Justices of the said Isle of Ely shall have full power to commit to the said gaol at Cambridge; and all persons who at the time of the passing of this Act shall be confined in the said gaol at Ely shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, be delivered up by the keeper of the said gaol at Ely to the keeper of the said gaol at Cambridge, together with the warrant or instrument under or by virtue whereof every such person shall be then detained in custody, and the keeper of the said gaol at Cambridge shall receive and detain such persons in custody in the same way as if such persons had originally been committed to his custody.

XIV. That the houses of correction at Ely and Wisbech in the said isle shall remain, and the present keepers thereof shall be continued in office during the pleasure of the Justices of the Peace for the said isle in Quarter Sessions assembled; and the keepers thereof shall be appointed by the said Justices so assembled as in other counties of England.

xv. That all the regulations respecting juries and jurors for counties in England shall after the passing of this Act be applied to the Isle of Ely as well as to the rest of the county of Cambridge, and the sheriff of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon shall have the same power of summoning jurors in the said Isle of Ely which he has in the rest of the said county of Cambridge, and all persons residing in the said Isle shall be liable to serve on juries for the said county in the same manner as persons residing in other parts of the same county.

xvi. That the present coroners of the said Isle of Ely shall continue coroners respectively during their respective lives, or so long that they shall respectively well behave themselves; and that upon the death, removal, or resignation of either of them, and upon every future vacancy of the office, a coroner shall be chosen by the freeholders of the said Isle in like manner as coroners are chosen in the case of other counties or divisions of counties of England; and the said coroners for the time being shall be entitled to demand and take the same fees, recompense, and benefit as are given to or provided for the coroners, by an Act, 25 Geo. 2. c. 29, intituled, 'An Act for giving a proper Reward to Coroners for the due Execution of their Office, and for the Removal of Coroners on lawful Conviction of certain Misdemeanors,' and shall as such coroners be subject to all the provisions of the said Act.

And after reciting that it is expedient that due provision shall be made for the compensation of any persons holding offices which have been usually held for life, for the loss they may sustain by the abolition of their offices by virtue or in consequence of this Act;—

It is Enacted,

xvii. That from and after the commencement of this Act there shall be issued, paid, and payable out of and charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to the said officers respectively, free and clear of all taxes and deductions whatsoever, such sum of money, at such times, by way of annuity or otherwise, as shall be adjudged and determined to be due to them by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or any three of them, who shall have full power to inquire into and ascertain the amount of such compensation, having regard to the nature and value of the office, the mode of appointment thereto, the tenure thereof, and all the circumstances of the case.

xviii. Provided always, That no such officer shall be entitled to receive any such compensation unless he shall previously make a full and true statement to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to be verified on oath before a Judge or Master or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, if they shall think fit so to direct, of the amount of his salary and fees, and of the disbursements and outgoings of the same, for the space of ten years before the passing of this Act; and that such compensation shall cease altogether or be reduced in amount, as the case may be, whenever he shall be placed in any other public office of which the salary and emoluments shall be equal to the whole or to part of such compensation; nor in the last-mentioned case shall he be entitled to receive more of such compensation than shall be equal to the difference between the full amount thereof and the amount of the salary and emoluments of the office in which he may be hereafter placed.

xix. That nothing in this Act contained shall affect the right of any person holding a patent for his life of any office, whether abolished by this Act or not, to receive during his life any fee or stipend granted by such patent out of the revenues of the said respective sees.

xx. That nothing hereinbefore contained shall have the effect of severing or separating from the said archbishoprick or bishoprick any lordships, manors, houses, lands, tenements, tithes, rents, collieries, mines, minerals, rectories, advowsons, profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever, whether held in right of the said sees, other than and except only any profits and emoluments hereinbefore expressly mentioned and directed to be severed therefrom.

xxi. That from and after the passing of this Act the Bishop of Ely for the time being shall take and hold the said bishoprick, and all the property, patronage, and rights belonging thereto, except as hereinbefore provided, subject to and under any provisions which shall be made by or under the authority of Parliament with respect to the said bishoprick within the space of three years next after the passing of this Act; any law, statute, or canon to the contrary notwithstanding.

xxii. Provided always, That, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the present Chief Justice of the said Isle of Ely shall have full power, under any commission of assize, or of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery, which has already issued, to exercise all such jurisdiction as he has heretofore exercised in the said Isle.

CAP. LXXXVIII.

AN ACT to suspend to the End of the next Session of Parliament the making of Lists and the Ballots and Enrolments for the Militia of the United Kingdom.

(17th August 1836.)

By this Act, it is Enacted.

I. That the general and subdivision meetings relating to the militia shall be suspended until the end of the next session of Parliament.

II. That proceedings may be had during such suspension by order in council.

III. That this Act shall extend to wardens of stannaries and to corps of miners.

CAP. LXXXIX.

AN ACT to provide for the Attendance and Remuneration of Medical Witnesses at Coroners' Inquests.

(17th August 1836.)

[This Act is printed in the Appendix, p. xxxiii.]

CAP. XC.

AN ACT to continue until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Fifty-fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Third, for rendering the Payment of Creditors more equal and expeditious in Scotland.

(17th August 1836.)

CAP. XCI.

AN ACT to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to make and maintain a Road from the Church in the Parish of Sunk Island to the Town of Ottringham in the East Riding of the County of York.

(17th August 1836.)

CAP. XCII.

AN ACT to render valid certain Marriages solemnized in the Church of Saint Clement, Oxford.

(17th August 1836.)

By this Act,

- I. All marriages solemnized in the new church of St. Clement, Oxford, are declared valid.
 - II. Ministers who have solemnized any such marriages shall not be liable to any ecclesiastical censures, or to any other proceedings or penalties.
 - III. The registers of such marriages shall be received in all courts of law and equity as evidence of such marriages.
-

CAP. XCIII.

AN ACT to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; and to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

(19th August 1836.)

[The provisions of this Act will be found in the Law J. Statutes, (N.S.) Vol. I. 1832, p. 201, except that in those cases where by former Acts an oath was required to be taken, a declaration is substituted.]

CAP. XCIV.

AN ACT to amend an Act for enabling His Majesty to carry into effect a Convention made between His Majesty the King of the French, the Emperor of all the Russias, and the King of Bavaria.

(19th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. His Majesty authorized to guarantee the payment of the amount of interest and sinking fund of portion of the third instalment of the Greek loan.
2. Commissioners of Treasury empowered to issue money out of Consolidated Fund for the purpose.
3. Amount of monies advanced under this Act to be laid before Parliament.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 121, intituled, 'An Act to enable His Majesty to carry into effect a Convention made between His Majesty the King of the French, the Emperor of all the Russias, and the King of Bavaria, provision is made for enabling His Majesty to carry into effect the stipulations of the twelfth article of the said convention, in virtue of which article the payment of the interest and sinking fund of one third part of each of the several three instalments of twenty millions of francs each, forming in the whole a loan of the amount of sixty millions of francs, to be contracted by the King of Greece, was to be guaranteed by His Majesty, by the King of the French, and by the Emperor of all the Russias respectively: And that doubts have arisen whether His Majesty is empowered by the Act aforesaid to grant his guarantee for the payment of the interest and sinking fund of any one of the instalments of the said loan, or of any portion of such instalment, unless the King of the French and the Emperor of all the Russias concur, each for himself, in granting their respective guarantees for the like portion of the said loan: And that it is expedient that His Majesty should be enabled to guarantee one third part of each portion of the third and last instalment of the said loan as yet remains to be raised, or of any such portion thereof as may appear to be necessary, notwithstanding that their Majesties the King of the French and the Emperor of all the Russias, or either of them, should refuse or delay to guarantee the like portion or portions of the said third instalment:—

It is Enacted,

I. That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and he and they is and are hereby authorized, to guarantee the payment of the amount of the interest and sinking fund of such portion or portions of the third and last instalment of the loan to be contracted by the King of Greece under the provisions of the twelfth article of the aforesaid convention as from time to time may appear advisable to His Majesty, notwithstanding that their Majesties the King of the French and the Emperor of all the Russias, or either of them, shall refuse or delay to guarantee the like portion or portions of the said third and last instalment of the loan aforesaid: Provided always, that the amount to be so guaranteed by His Majesty shall in no case extend in the whole to more than one third part of such portion of the said third and last instalment as still remains to be raised; and provided also, that the whole sum guaranteed by His Majesty under the powers given by this Act and by the said recited Act shall not exceed the sum of twenty millions of francs.

II. That for the purpose of giving effect to the said guarantee, the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any three or more of them, for the time being respectively, shall be and he and they is and are hereby empowered from time to time, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to cause to be issued such sums of money as shall be required for the payment of any interest or sinking fund agreed to be paid by His Majesty under the said convention as and when the same may from time to time respectively become payable, and so long as the same should be payable conformably to the tenor of His Majesty's engagements as specified in the said convention.

III. That the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being shall cause to be prepared and shall lay before both houses of Parliament, within twenty days after the commencement of every session of Parliament, an account, up to the 31st of December then next preceding of the total sums, if any, which shall from time to time have been issued and applied by virtue of this Act for paying and satisfying any interest on the said part of the said loan so agreed to be guaranteed by His said Majesty, or towards paying and satisfying any principal thereof.

CAP. XCV.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to suspend, until the 6th of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, Proceedings for recovering Payment of the Money advanced under the Acts for establishing Tithe Compositions in Ireland.

(19th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Powers vested in the Treasury by 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 79. revised.—Repayment of instalments postponed.—Proviso.
2. The Treasury not to stop proceedings for recovery of instalments in certain cases.
3. Act not to extend to instalments due from lay impropriators.
4. Proceedings not to be stopped where parties refuse information.
5. Account and statement to be laid before Parliament.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 100, it is amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for any person entitled to any tithes arising out of lands in Ireland, for the years 1831, 1832, or 1833, to make application to the Lord Lieutenant praying relief under the said Act in respect of such tithes; and it is further enacted, that such application should be made by a memorial, with a schedule thereto annexed, setting forth such particulars as in the said Act are in that behalf mentioned; and it is by the said Act further enacted, that the said memorial and schedule amended as therein is mentioned should be transmitted in manner therein mentioned to the Lord Lieutenant, who should thereupon authorize and direct such sum to be advanced to such memorialist as should appear by the said memorial and schedule to be due and owing to him on account of the tithes therein included; and it is thereby further enacted, that the said Lord Lieutenant should cause every such original memorial and schedule, together with a certificate under his hand of the amount of the advances so made to the memorialist, to be lodged in the office of the remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and that the amount stated in each such certificate to have been so advanced should be repaid by five equal instalments, the first thereof to be made on the 1st of November 1834, and one of the four remaining instalments on the 1st of November in each of the succeeding four years, in the manner and subject to the conditions recited in the said Act: And that, under the powers contained in the said Act, advances to a large amount have been made to parties entitled to tithes arising out of lands in Ireland for the said years 1831, 1832, and 1833; and that it may be expedient not to enforce immediate payment from the parties to whom such advances have been made of the several instalments which became due from them on the 1st of November 1834 and on the 1st of November 1835: And that by 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 79, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, if it should seem to them expedient so to do, to delay or suspend the institution or prosecution of any proceedings for recovery or enforcing payment of any such instalments as aforesaid until after the 6th of April 1836: And that it is expedient to make further and other provisions with respect to the recovery of the said instalments and of the instalments which will become due and payable on the 1st of November 1836:—

It is Enacted,

I. That the powers and authorities vested by the said last-recited Act in the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be and the same are hereby revived and continued; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or any three or more of them to delay or suspend the institution or prosecution of any proceedings for recovery or enforcing payment of any of the said instalments already become due or to become due on the 1st of November 1836 until and after the 6th of April 1837: Provided always, that the institution or prosecution of such proceedings shall not be delayed or suspended under the authority of this Act in any case in which the parties applying for such delay or suspension have received the whole or the greater part of the tithe due to them respectively for the years 1834 and 1835.

II. That it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to suspend or delay the institution or prosecution of any proceedings for the recovery of the said instalments in any case in which, either by act of law or the undertaking of the parties, the said instalments have become due and payable by the owner or landlord, and have ceased to be payable to the tithe owner by the tenant in possession.

III. That the provisions of this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to the case of any instalment due by any lay impropriator, to whom advances were made under the authority of the Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 100, in respect of tithes chargeable upon lands the estate and property of the said impropriator.

IV. That the institution or proceedings for the recovery of such instalments shall not be delayed or suspended in any case in which the parties shall neglect or refuse to furnish to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury such information as the said Commissioners shall require for the purpose of enabling them to decide how far it may be expedient to delay or suspend the institution of such proceedings.

V. That an account shall be laid before both houses of Parliament, within ten days after the 5th of April 1837, of all sums recovered in respect of any of the said instalments, accompanied by a statement of the several cases in which, under the power and authority vested in them by this Act, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have delayed or suspended the institution or prosecution of proceedings for the recovery of the said instalments, or any of them.

CAP. XCVI.

AN ACT to regulate Parochial Assessments.

(19th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. All rates to be made on the net annual value of the property.—Proviso.
2. Rates to be made in a given form.—Nothing herein to prevent owners from compounding for rates.
3. Power to order new survey and valuation.
4. Power for surveyors to enter and examine lands, &c. for purposes of survey and plans.
5. Power to take copies or extracts of rates gratis.—Penalty for refusal to permit.
6. Justices acting in petty sessions to hold four special sessions in the year to hear appeals.—Seven days notice to be given of objections.
—Proviso.
7. Justices may act with all the powers of Justices in Quarter Sessions.
8. Act confined to England and Wales.
9. Act may be repealed this session.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is desirable to establish one uniform mode of rating for the relief of the poor throughout England and Wales, and to lessen the cost of appeal against any unfair rate:—

It is Enacted,

I. That from and after such period, not being earlier than the 21st of March next after the passing of this Act, as the Poor Law Commissioners shall by any order under their seal of office direct, no rate for the relief of the poor in England and Wales shall be allowed by any Justices, or be of any force, which shall not be made upon an estimate of the net annual value of the several hereditaments rated thereunto; that is to say, of the rent at which the same might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, free of all usual tenants rates and taxes, and tithe commutation rent-charge, if any, and deducting therefrom the probable average annual cost of the repairs, insurance, and other expenses, if any, necessary to maintain them in a state to command such rent: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect the principles or different relative liabilities (if any) according to which different kinds of hereditaments are now by law rateable.

II. That every such rate made after the said period shall, in addition to any other particular which the form of making out such rate shall require to be set forth, contain an account of every particular set forth at the head of the respective columns in the form given in the Schedule to this Act annexed, so far as the same can be ascertained; and the churchwardens and overseers, or other officers whose duty it may be to make and levy the said rate, or such a number of the said churchwardens and overseers or other officers as are competent to the making and levying of the same, shall, before the rate is allowed by the Justices, sign the declaration given at the foot of the said form; and otherwise the said rate shall be of no force or validity: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the owners of tenements from compounding for the rates to be assessed on the same, in such manner as they were by any statute or statutes enabled to do before the passing of this Act, so that the gross estimated rental of the hereditaments compounded for be entered on the rate in the proper column.

III. That when it shall be made to appear to the Poor Law Commissioners by representation in writing from the board of guardians of any union or parish under their common seal, or from the majority of the churchwardens and overseers or other officers competent as aforesaid to the making and levying the rate, that a fair and correct estimate for the aforesaid purposes cannot be made without a new valuation, it shall be lawful for the Poor Law Commissioners, where they shall see fit, to order a survey, with or without a map or plan, on such scale as they shall think fit, to be made and taken of the messuages, lands, and other hereditaments liable to poor rates in such parish, or in all or any one or more parishes of such a union, and a valuation to be made of the said messuages, lands, and other hereditaments according to their annual value, and to direct such guardians to appoint a fit person or persons to make and take every such survey, map or plan, and valuation, and to make provision for paying the costs of every such survey, map or plan, and valuation, either by a separate rate or by a charge on the poor rates, as they may see fit; but in case of such charge being made, then provisions shall be made for paying off not less than one-fifth of the sum charged on the rates, and such interest as may from time to time be payable in respect of such charge or any part thereof, in each succeeding year, till the whole is repaid.

IV. That for the purpose of making every such survey, map or plan, and valuation, it shall be lawful for the person or persons so to be appointed for making the same respectively together with their and every of their assistants and servants, at all reasonable times, until the same respectively shall be completed, to enter, view, and examine, survey and admeasure, all and every part of the messuages, lands, and other hereditaments aforesaid, and to do or cause to be done any act or thing necessary for making such survey, map or plan, and valuation: Provided always, that any map, survey, plan, or valuation made previously to the appointment of such person or persons which shall be tendered to him or them, and which shall be in his or their judgment and to his or their satisfaction a just and true map or survey, proper for the purposes aforesaid, may be used for such purposes.

V. That it shall be lawful for any person or persons rated to the relief of the poor of the parish in respect of which any rate shall be made, at all seasonable times, to take copies thereof or extracts therefrom without paying anything for the same, any thing in any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and in case the person or persons having the custody of such rate shall refuse to permit or shall not permit such person or persons so rated as aforesaid to take copies thereof or extracts therefrom, the person or persons so refusing or not permitting such copy or extract to be made shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, to be recovered in a summary way before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the parish or place.

VI. That the Justices acting in and for every petty sessions division shall four times at least in every year hold a special sessions for hearing appeals against the rates of the several parishes within their respective divisions, and shall cause public notice of the time and place when and where such special sessions will be holden to be affixed to or near to the door of the parish church of the said parishes, twenty-eight days at the least before the holding of the same; and such special sessions shall and may be adjourned from time to time by the Justices there present, as they may think fit; and at such special or adjourned sessions the Justices there present shall hear and determine all objections to any such rate on the ground of inequality, unfairness, or incorrectness in the valuation of any hereditaments included therein, which decision shall be binding and conclusive on the parties, unless the person or persons impugning such decision shall within fourteen days after the same shall have been made cause notice to be given in writing of his, her, or their intention of appealing against such decision, and of the matter or cause of such appeal, to the person or persons in whose favour such decision shall have been made, and within five days after giving such notice shall enter into a recognizance before some Justice of the Peace, with sufficient securities, conditioned to try such appeal at the then next General Sessions or Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall first happen, and to abide the order of and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the Justices at such Quarter Sessions, or any adjournment thereof; and such Justices, upon hearing and finally determining such matter of appeal, shall and may, according to their discretion, award such costs to the party or parties appealing or appealed against as they shall think proper, and their determination in or concerning the premises shall be conclusive and binding on all parties, to all intents and purposes whatsoever; Provided always, that no such objection shall be inquired into by the said Justices in special session unless notice of such objection in writing under the hand of the complainant shall have been given, seven days at least before the day appointed for such special session, to the collector, overseers, or other persons by whom such rate was made: Provided also, that the said Justices in special session shall not be authorized to inquire into the liability of any hereditaments to be rated, but only into the true value thereof and into the fairness of the amount at which the same shall have been rated.

VII. That the Justices present at any such special or adjourned session shall for the aforesaid purpose have all the powers of amending or quashing any such rate so objected to of any parish or other district within their division, and likewise of awarding costs to be paid by or to any of the parties, and of recovering such costs, which any Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace has upon appeals from any such rate, except as herein excepted: Provided always, that no order of the said Justices shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to deprive any person or persons of the right to appeal against any rate to any Court of General or Quarter Sessions: Provided also, that no order of the said Justices in special session shall be of any force pending any appeal touching the same subject-matter to the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace having jurisdiction to try such appeal, or in opposition to the order of any such court upon such appeal.

VIII. That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

IX. That this Act may be repealed or amended by any Act which shall be passed in this session.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

Form of Rate.

An ASSESSMENT for the RELIEF of the POOR of the Parish of Merton in the County of Surrey, and for other Purposes chargeable thereon according to Law, made this Thirtieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, after the Rate of Sixpence in the Pound.

No.	Arrears due, or if excused.	Name of Occupier.	Name of Owner.	Description of Property rated.	Name or Situation of Property.	Estimated Extent.	Gross estimated Rental.	Rateable Value.	Rate at 6d. in the Pound.
1	£. s. d. - - -	James Smith	John Green	Land and Buildings.	Whiteacre Farm.	A. R. P. 40 0 0	£. s. d. 60 0 0	£. s. d. 55 0 0	£. s. d. 1 7 6
2	- - -	Ditto	Ditto	House and Garden.	In West Street.	0 1 0	30 0 0	25 0 0	0 12 6
3 {	- - 7½ } Excused	John Poor	Ditto	House	In Brick Lane.	- - -	1 10 0	1 5 0	0 0 7½
&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.

Declaration of Overseers and Churchwardens.

We,
do declare the several Particulars specified in the respective Columns of the above Rate to be true and correct, so far as we have been able to ascertain them, to which End we have used our best Endeavours.
Thomas Jones, Overseer.
John Thomas, [Churchwarden, &c. &c.]

CAP. XCVII.

AN ACT for continuing and making perpetual the Duty on certain Offices and Pensions.

(19th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. The duties on offices and pensions continued by 4 Will. 4. c. 11. from 25th March 1834, until 5th July 1835, further continued from that period, and made perpetual.—Duties assessed since 5th July 1835 deemed to have been lawfully assessed; and where not assessed or collected may be now done.
2. Provisions of 6 Geo. 4. c. 9. for ascertaining and regulating the duties extended to this Act.
3. No assessment shall be made in respect of the duties on pensions, &c. payable out of the public revenue, but such duties shall be charged as heretofore, and monies applicable to the payment of the pensions shall be paid less by the amount of such duties.—Proviso for salaries payable in part only out of the public revenue.
4. Appropriation of duties.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 4 Will. 4. c. 11. it was enacted, that the several and respective sums of money charged by virtue of 38 Geo. 3. c. 5. upon any person or persons in respect of any public office or employment of profit, or any salaries, gratuities, bounty monies, rewards, fees, profits, perquisites, advantages, pensions, annuities, stipends, or yearly payments in the said Act mentioned, and which were by the said Act, 38 Geo. 3. directed, after the 25th of March 1799, to be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, and paid according to the directions of any Act or Acts to be passed for that purpose, and which sums of money and duties last mentioned had been from time to time continued by divers Acts of Parliament, and were then in force, until the 25th of March 1834, should be continued, and raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty from the said 25th of March 1834 until the 5th of July 1835: And that doubts have arisen whether the said respective sums of money and duties were continued by the said Act, 4 Will. 4. c. 11, and might lawfully be assessed, collected, or deducted after the said 5th of July 1835: and that it is expedient that such doubts should be removed, and that such respective sums of money and duties should be continued and made perpetual:—

It is Enacted,

I. That the several and respective sums of money and duties which by the said recited Act, 4 Will. 4. c. 11, were directed to be continued, raised, levied, collected, and paid from the 25th of March 1834 until the 5th of July 1835, shall be continued, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, his heirs and successors, from the said 5th of July 1835 for ever; and all such sums of money and duties as have been assessed, collected upon, or deducted from any monies which have accrued due and been paid to any persons in respect of any public office or employment of profit, or any salaries, gratuities, bounty monies, rewards, fees, profits, perquisites, advantages, pensions, annuities, stipends, or yearly payments, since the said 5th of July 1835, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully assessed, collected, and deducted; and in case any such monies so paid to any persons, and hereby made liable to the said duties, shall not have been assessed to the same, or the said duties shall not have been collected, or any such monies shall have been paid in full without deducting the said duties therefrom, then it shall be lawful, where the said duties were assessable under the said recited Act, 4 Will. 4. c. 11, to assess, levy, and collect the same as and from the said 5th of July 1835, and where the said duties were directed by the said last-mentioned Act to be deducted, to deduct the same out of the first payment which shall become due after the passing of this Act, in addition to the duties accrued in respect of such payment.

II. That the several powers and provisions contained in the 6 Geo. 4. c. 9, intituled, 'An Act for continuing to His Majesty for One Year certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions in England, and also for granting certain Duties on Sugar imported, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five,' for the ascertaining, assessing, taxing, regulating, paying, and accounting for the duties on offices and pensions, shall extend and be construed to extend to the duties on offices and pensions hereby granted and continued, except where other provisions are made by this Act, and that the several powers and provisions in the said Act contained which relate or refer to any day or time within or during or before or after the year commencing the 25th of March 1825 shall extend and be construed to relate to the like days and times within or during or before or after the year commencing from the 25th of March 1835, and from the same day in every year hereafter, in like manner as by the said recited Act is directed with reference to the year 1825, and as if the several powers and provisions in the said recited Act contained were repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

III. Provided always, That no assessments shall be made by any Commissioner or Commissioners, assessor or assessors of the land tax, or otherwise, for or in respect of the several duties of 1s. and of 6d. in the pound, payable to His Majesty under the several Acts in force, on annuities, pensions, stipends, salaries, wages, allowances, or other yearly payments whatsoever granted and continued by this Act, when the same are payable out of the public revenue of the receipt of the Exchequer or elsewhere in Great Britain by any officer or officers, but that all and every such annuities, pensions, stipends, salaries, wages, allowances, or other yearly payments shall and are hereby declared to be charged and assessed to the said duties respectively to the same annual amount as heretofore rated, charged, or assessed under any Act or Acts; and all monies applicable to the payment of such annuities, pensions, stipends, salaries, wages, allowances, or other yearly payments shall be issued, paid, and discharged less by the amount of the said duties to all intents as if the same were continued to be charged by annual assessment, and hereby authorized to be stopped and deducted as duties payable to His Majesty, anything in this Act or any former Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that where any officer who shall be in receipt of any such annuity, pension, stipend, salary, wages, allowance, or other yearly payment payable at the Exchequer or elsewhere in Great Britain, out of the public revenue as aforesaid, shall also be in receipt of perquisites, fees, gratuities, wages, allowances, or other profits not so payable, but which are chargeable with the said duties, it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to authorize such last-mentioned duties, unless otherwise paid, to be stopped or detained from the amount of the salary or other yearly payment made to any such officer, and it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, by any warrant under their hands, whenever they shall deem the same advisable, to authorize and direct that the amount of any annuity, pension, stipend, salary, wages, allowances, or other yearly payments whatever, payable out of the public revenue, in any branch or department thereof, and chargeable with any of the said duties, shall be reduced and paid short by the amount of the assessment or assessments of any of such duties respectively, as if such assessments were actually made, and every such warrant shall be received in discharge of any such assessment and as a full authority for reducing the said annual payments and paying the same short as aforesaid.

IV. That all the monies which shall be collected under the authority of this Act shall be paid into the receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and carried to and made part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland.

CAP. XCVIII.

AN ACT to apply the Sum of Four Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

(20th August 1836.)

[This Act contains the usual provisions for the appropriation of the supplies, as set forth in 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 80, 4 Law J. Stat. (N.S.) 1835, p. 173. Where oaths have hitherto been required to be taken declarations are substituted.]

CAP. XCIX.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to amend Two Acts passed respectively in the Third and Fourth and in the Fourth and Fifth Years of His present Majesty, for altering and amending the Laws relating to the Temporalities of the Church of Ireland.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Inferior tenants may apply to their immediate landlord, having acquired a perpetuity, for a like conveyance;—such tenant having previously paid or tendered his contribution and arrears of rent and fine.
2. For ascertaining the yearly rent to be reserved on such conveyances.
3. In case of dispute, or refusal or disability on the part of the landlord to execute, the tenant may petition the Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer.—Court may determine in a summary manner, and appoint a person to convey.
4. Tenants for life and persons under legal incapacity (except infants and lunatics) may convey.
5. Rent reserved on such conveyance to be subject to variation in certain cases.
6. Ecclesiastical Commissioners or arbitrators to make abatement in the reserved rents and renewal fines of certain leases.
7. Reservation of remedies for recovery of rent.
8. Saving of provisions of recited Acts as to under-tenants who shall not apply for perpetuities.
9. Commissioners may give certificates of terms of purchase, and call on tenants by notice to complete their purchases.—Services of notice.—In case of failure to complete the purchase, the applicant shall be deemed to have renounced his right thereto.—Reserving to tenant the right to call for an arbitration.
10. Deeds shall be enrolled by depositing transcripts in the Rolls office.—Transcripts to be arranged in books for reference.—Transcripts and certificates not liable to stamp duty.—Fee on enrolment.
11. Searchers in enrolment books may be made on payment of a fee of 2s. 6d.
12. Provision as to archbishops, &c. causing enrolments to be made repealed.—Payment of expenses of transcript and enrolment.
13. If tenants purchase lands held by two or more leases, a mortgage may be accepted of the lands held by any one of them.
14. Forms of conveyances, mortgages, &c. to be prepared by the Commissioners.
15. Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall invest the monies arising in the perpetuity fund account.
16. In leases of see houses, &c. covenants not to sublet, except with consent of Commissioners, may be inserted, instead of absolute covenants against subletting.
17. Lessees of see houses, &c. under leases already made, may sublet with consent of Commissioners.
18. Ecclesiastical Commissioners may make leases and renewals of lands belonging to suspended dignities or benefices pending suspension.—Tenants of such lands may purchase perpetuities pending suspension.
19. In case of removal of suspension, all leases theretofore made to be valid, and the rents reserved thereon payable to the persons subsequently appointed and their successors.
20. The remedy granted by 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 37, against impropriators refusing to repair chancels or maintain officiating clergymen extended to cases of refusal by appropriators.
21. What is to be deemed evidence of liability to pay stipend or repair chancels.
22. Court may appoint receiver.
23. If impropriator or appropriator in any parish not having a vicar or curate endowed shall not contribute to the maintenance of an officiating minister, the Commissioners, on certificate of the Archbishop, &c., may fix a stipend to be paid.—Certificate of the amount of stipend to be lodged in the registry.
24. Stipend shall be a paramount charge on the impropriate tithes, and shall be payable from the lodging of the certificate.—Amount not to exceed 10l. per centum on the value of the tithes ascertained by certificate of composition.
25. Property of minor canons and vicars choral vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to existing interests, and for the maintenance of such members of such corporations as have duties to perform.
26. For removing doubts as to the provisions of the recited Act respecting the precentorship of Christ Church, Dublin.—Proviso.
27. Provisions of recited Acts explained in respect of tithes, &c. disappropriated from dignities, &c.
28. In case disappropriated lands, &c. cannot be conveniently united to a neighbouring vicarage or curacy, or that such vicarage or curacy is already sufficiently endowed, the lands, &c. disappropriated shall be transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and be by them carried to the general fund under their administration.

29. Commissioners shall have like power of making leases, &c. in disappropriated lands, &c. as in those belonging to suspended dignities.
30. Ecclesiastical Commissioners not to grant a perpetual estate to any tenant now holding by lease any tithes appropriated to certain ecclesiastical dignities.
31. After the next avoidance of any such dignity, the Commissioners may declare that the lease shall not be renewed; and, upon application of the tenant to accept the value in money, may estimate the value thereof.—Proviso.
32. After conveyance, the interest of such tenant to vest in the Commissioners.
33. An annual sum of 1,500*l.* to be paid to Dr. Kyle, Bishop of Cork and Ross and Cloyne, in order to make his present revenue equal to that he had before the union of the sees.
34. Provision of 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 90, relating to costs of solicitor explained.
35. Former Acts save as altered, to be construed together with this Act.—Act may be altered this session.
36. Providing for the repairs of cathedral churches.

By this Act,

After reciting the passing of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 37, and the amendment thereof by 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 90, and that it is expedient to extend, explain, and amend, in certain respects, the provisions of the said Acts:—

It is Enacted,

I. That it shall and may be lawful for any inferior tenant or lessee, holding any lands, tenements, or hereditaments by virtue of any lease or contract containing a toties quoties covenant for renewal, and whose next immediate landlord has or shall have acquired a perpetual estate or interest in such lands, tenements, or hereditaments under the provisions of the said recited Acts or of this Act, to apply to such next immediate landlord for a conveyance of a perpetual estate and interest in such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which conveyance such next immediate landlord is hereby required to make and execute to such inferior tenant, his heirs and assigns; provided that such tenant shall previously have paid or tendered to such landlord or his known agent such sum or sums of money as shall be payable by such tenant as or for contribution to the purchase money paid or secured by such landlord for the purchase of a perpetual estate or interest in such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, pursuant to the said recited Acts and this Act, together with all rent, and fines and fees for renewal, and all arrears thereof, then due and payable by such tenant by virtue of such lease or contract.

II. That the yearly rent to be reserved on every such last-mentioned conveyance shall be ascertained in manner following: that is to say, when the fine and fees payable by such inferior tenant upon each renewal of his interest in such lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall be a fixed and ascertained sum, then in the case of leases or interests renewable every year, the amount of such fine and fees, or, in the case of leases renewable at longer intervals than every year, the annual average amount of such fine and fees computed as by the said first-recited Act directed for the purposes of that Act, shall be added to the yearly rent reserved and made payable by the lease or contract under which such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, are held by such inferior tenant; and when the fine and fees payable by such inferior tenant upon every such renewal as aforesaid shall be a fixed proportion of or dependent upon the renewal fine payable by the immediate superior tenant of said lands, tenements, or hereditaments, then there shall be added to the yearly rent reserved upon such lease or contract a sum of money bearing a like proportion to the average annual amount of the renewal fine so payable by such immediate superior tenant, as the same shall have been ascertained by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland pursuant to the said recited Acts; and such yearly rent reserved upon such lease or contract, together with such sum of money so to be added thereto as aforesaid, shall be the future rent to be reserved on the conveyance of a perpetual estate or interest in such lands, tenements, or hereditaments to such inferior tenant.

III. That in case of any dispute or difference between such inferior tenant and his next immediate landlord or in case such landlord shall not execute to such tenant a conveyance of the fee simple and inheritance of and in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments within one calendar month next after the same shall have been duly tendered to him or to his known agent, or in case such next immediate landlord shall be an infant or lunatic, or shall not be resident in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for such inferior tenant to apply to the Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer in Ireland by petition setting forth the facts and circumstances of the case; and it shall and may be lawful for such Court to hear such petition in a summary manner, and to make such order thereon as such Court shall think fit, and to appoint a person to execute such conveyance to such tenant in the name of such landlord, in case such landlord shall reside out of the jurisdiction of such Court or shall labour under any legal disability, or in case such Court for any other reason shall think it expedient to appoint such person; and every such conveyance so executed shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes.

IV. That it shall and may be lawful for every such next immediate landlord, and he is hereby authorized and required, although he shall be tenant for life or for any other limited interest of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or although he shall labour under any legal incapacity or disability (except infancy or lunacy), to execute such conveyance to his next inferior tenant, subject to the provisions hereinbefore contained, and every such conveyance shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes.

V. That in case any portion of the yearly rent reserved on such conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall be a proportion of or dependent upon the average annual amount, as ascertained by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the renewal fine payable by the first and immediate tenant of such lands, tenements or hereditaments, then and in every such case such yearly rent shall be subject to variation in like manner and at such times as the rents reserved upon the immediate conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or by the archbishop, bishop, or other sole ecclesiastical corporation under whom the said lands, tenements, or hereditaments are held; and all the provisions in the said recited Acts contained relative to the variation of such last-mentioned rents shall be applicable to rents reserved on conveyances to be made under the provisions of this Act, so far as the nature and circumstances of each case will admit.

And after reciting that certain portions of the lands belonging to the sees of Armagh and Clogher have been or may be conveyed to the Ulster Canal Company under or by virtue of 6 Geo. 4. c. xciii., 9 Geo. 4. c. xevi., 10 Geo. 4. c. cix., 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. lvi., and 6 Will. 4. c. lxiii., for which compensation has been already awarded or is provided by said Acts to be awarded to the said sees of Armagh and Clogher:

It is Enacted,

VI. That the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or the arbitrators, as the case may be, are hereby authorized and required to make such abatement in the reserved rents hereafter to be charged in the perpetuity sought to be acquired, or in the rent and renewal fine of any lease sought to be renewed, as to them may appear reasonable and just in proportion to the value of the lands so conveyed or which may hereafter be so conveyed to said Ulster Canal Company as aforesaid.

VII. That every such next immediate landlord shall and may have all such and the like remedies for the recovery of the rent reserved upon any such conveyance to his inferior tenant or tenants as any landlord or lessor now has, or may, can, or shall have by virtue of any law now or hereafter to be in force in Ireland for the recovery of rent payable under a demise by which a reversion is reserved to or remains in such landlord or lessor; and every person who shall have acquired the fee simple or inheritance in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall and may have all such and the like remedies against his under-tenants as in and by the said recited Acts are provided in cases of persons who shall have acquired the fee simple and inheritance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments under the provisions of the said recited Acts.

VIII. That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to alter or affect the provisions of the said recited Acts with respect to renewals to be made to inferior tenants holding under leases or contracts containing toties quoties covenants for renewal in the case of any such inferior tenant who shall not apply to his next immediate landlord, pursuant to the provisions of this Act, for a conveyance of the fee simple and inheritance of and in the lands, tenements, or hereditaments held by him under such next immediate landlord.

IX. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, at any time after application shall have been made to them for the purchase of the fee simple and inheritance of and in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments pursuant to the said recited Acts or this Act, to cause such certificate of the terms of such purchase, and of the amount of purchase money to be paid on the completion of such purchase, and of the annual rent to be reserved and made payable in and by the deed or deeds of conveyance, as by the said recited Acts they are directed to grant to the applicant when so required, to be without any request on his part delivered to him, together with a notice in writing to be annexed to such certificate requiring such applicant to complete such purchase, pursuant to the said recited Acts, within such time as shall be specified in such notice, not being less than six calendar months from the service thereof; and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners may, if they shall so think fit, cause such certificate and notice to be transmitted to such applicant by post, addressed to him at his usual place of residence, or to his known agent or receiver at the usual place of residence of such agent or receiver, and for the purposes of this Act such transmission by the post to such applicant, or his known agent or receiver, shall be deemed good and sufficient service of such certificate and notice; and if such applicant shall neglect or refuse to complete such purchase within six calendar months after the service of such certificate and notice, or within such further period as shall be specified in such notice, then and in every such case such applicant shall be deemed to have renounced such purchase, and his right of preference thereto; and the said Commissioners shall deduct from the sum deposited or secured, pursuant to the said recited Acts, by such person so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid to complete such purchase, such sum or sums of money as the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall find necessary to defray the expenses which they may have incurred in ascertaining the terms of such purchase upon his said application: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall have the operation or effect of interfering with the right or depriving any tenant of the power of calling for and obtaining an arbitration as provided by the said recited Acts in case he shall be dissatisfied with the terms of purchase declared by the said Commissioners; and that in the event of such an arbitration being called for and proceeded with by the tenant the said notice in writing attached to the certificate hereinbefore mentioned shall be set aside, and a new notice of like form shall be served on the tenant by the said Commissioners at any time after the award of the arbitrators who may be chosen shall be declared.

X. That in every case in which any deed has been or shall hereafter be executed, which by the provisions of the said recited Acts is required to be enrolled, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall cause a transcript of such deed, certified under their seal, to be made upon parchment, and deposited in the hands of the deputy keeper of the rolls or other proper officer of the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, who upon receipt thereof shall, without any fiat or other order, cause the same to be preserved in the said Rolls Office, and such transcripts shall be conveniently arranged in books for the purpose of reference and examination: and every such transcript so deposited shall be and be deemed and taken to be an enrolment of such deed to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that neither such transcript for enrolment, nor any certificate required by the said recited Acts, or either of them, to be given or enrolled, shall be liable to any stamp duty whatsoever; and that no fee shall be demanded or paid for the enrolment of any certificate required by law to be annexed to the enrolment of any such deed as aforesaid, in addition to the fee of 2s. 6d. payable on enrolment of such deed, pursuant to the said first-recited Act.

XI. That it shall and may be lawful for any person whatever to make searches in such enrolment books for the enrolment or enrolments of any deed or deeds which he shall have occasion to examine, and every person making any such search shall pay for the same (including the liberty of taking notes or making extracts from any enrolment or enrolments) a fee of 2s. 6d., and no more, for such day on which he shall make any such search.

XII. That so much of the said first-recited Act as provides that any archbishop, bishop, or person, other than the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, shall cause any such deed or deeds to be enrolled, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall defray the costs and expenses of making such transcript for enrolment, and of enrolling the same in manner aforesaid, out of the purchase money paid for the purchase of the fee simple and inheritance of and in the lands, tenements, or premises comprised in such transcript.

XIII. That if any tenant or under-tenant shall be the purchaser of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments held under or by virtue of two or more leases, it shall be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, if in their discretion they shall so think proper, to accept of a mortgage on the lands comprised in any one or more of such leases for the purchase money of the whole, provided that the yearly value of the portion or portions of such lands so proposed to be mortgaged, clear of all rents, charges, and outgoings whatsoever, shall be at least three times the amount of the yearly interest payable in respect of such mortgage.

XIV. That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, with all convenient speed, cause proper forms of the conveyances, mortgages, leases, and other documents required for the purposes of the said Acts and this Act to be prepared, and such forms shall be authenticated by the corporate seal of the said Commissioners, and deposited in their office, there to be kept and preserved, and such forms may be used for the purposes aforesaid, subject to such exception or variation as from time to time or in any particular case the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners may find necessary or convenient; and such forms so authenticated, or such amended forms in like manner authenticated, as the said Commissioners shall from time to time cause to be prepared, shall be alike good and effectual as if the same were inserted in this Act; and copies of all such forms shall be printed under the directions of the said Commissioners, and given to any person demanding the same on payment of the reasonable expense of providing the same.

XV. That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall cause all such monies as may hereafter accrue to their credit in the perpetuity purchase fund account mentioned in the said last-recited Act to be invested from time to time in such public securities as the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall think fit; and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall have power to sell and dispose of the same as occasion shall arise, and apply the proceeds thereof, and the dividends and interest arising therefrom, to the purposes authorized and directed by the said last-recited Act.

XVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in any demise or lease to be made by them, pursuant to the said first-recited Act, of thesee house, offices, and mensal or demesne lands of or belonging to any archbishoprick or bishoprick, to cause to be inserted, instead of such clause or covenant against assigning or subletting, as by the said Act is required, a clause or covenant making void such demise or lease in case the premises thereby demised, or any part thereof, shall be sublet or assigned without the previous consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners testified in writing under their common seal; which consent the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered, if they shall so think fit, to give, upon such terms and subject to such restrictions or conditions as they shall deem expedient: Provided always, that such consent shall not be construed to authorize or empower any person deriving under the person to whom the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall have given such consent as aforesaid to assign or sublet the premises so demised or leased by the said Commissioners, or any part thereof.

XVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the lessee named in any lease or demise heretofore made by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of any such see house, offices, mensal or demesne lands, or for the heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns of such lessee, by and with the consent, testified in writing under their common seal, of the said Commissioners, and subject to such terms, conditions, and restrictions as shall be expressed therein, to assign or sublet such see house, offices, and lands, or such part or parts thereof as shall be specified in such consent; and that no such lease or demise shall be or become void or voidable by reason of such assigning or subletting with such consent as aforesaid, anything in such demise or in the said recited Act contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

XVIII. That whensoever, under the provisions of the said Acts or this Act, the appointment, presentation, or collation to any dignity, office, rectory, or benefice has been or shall be suspended, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, for and during such period as such dignity, office, rectory, or benefice shall remain vacant, have, and at their discretion exercise, by and in their own name and right, all such powers of leasing and demising any lands or premises whatsoever belonging or appertaining or appropriated to or usually enjoyed with such dignity, office, rectory, or benefice as, in case no suspension had taken place, any person filling the same might have had or exercised; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in the case of lands or premises demised by leases customarily renewed from time to time, to accept surrenders of such leases, and to make new leases or renewals of the same respectively, in like manner to all intents and purposes as the said Commissioners are authorized and required to do in respect of any lands or premises, at any time belonging to any bishoprick, and which may have been transferred to and vested in them by virtue of the said Acts; and that it shall be lawful for the respective tenants, lessees, or under-tenants of any such lands or premises, during the suspension of such appointment, presentation, or collation as aforesaid, to apply to the said Commissioners for the purchase of a perpetual estate and interest of and in any such lands or premises, in like manner as such tenants, lessees, or under-tenants respectively could or might have done, by virtue of the said recited Acts or this Act, in case the appointment, collation, or presentation to such dignity, office, rectory, or benefice had not been so suspended; and in case of any such application all such and the like proceedings shall be had as by the said Acts prescribed in the case of any application for the purchase of the fee simple and inheritance of and in any lands or premises at any time belonging to any bishoprick, and which may have been transferred to and vested in the said Commissioners by virtue of the said Acts.

XIX. That in case of the removal of any such suspension as aforesaid, all leases, demises, renewals, or conveyances theretofore made as aforesaid by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be and remain valid and binding to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Provided, that in the case of the removal of such suspension, all rent, covenants, and reservations, made payable by or contained in such lease, demise, renewal, or conveyance shall, from and after the time when such dignity, office, rectory, or benefice shall have been filled, become and be payable to and enure for the benefit of the person appointed, collated, or presented to such dignity, office, rectory, or benefice, and his successors, who shall have all such and the like remedies for enforcing payment or performance of such rent, covenants, and reservations, as if the same had been expressly made payable to or reserved or covenanted with or by the person filling such dignity, office, rectory, or benefice, and his successors.

And after reciting, that it is expedient to make more effectual provision for enforcing payment of stipends or salaries for the maintenance of officiating clergymen in parishes whereof the tithes are appropriate or impropriate, and the owners thereof are bound to maintain such clergymen: And that by the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4, it was provided, that in any case where the owners of impropriations or impropriate tithes are by law bound, but refuse or neglect, to repair the chancel of any church, or to maintain an officiating minister, it should be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or for the archbishop or bishop of the diocese, to present a petition to the Court of Chancery or Exchequer in Ireland, praying relief, and such Courts were authorized and required to hear such petition in a summary way, and to make such order therein as should appear just; and that it is expedient to extend the said recited provisions of the said Act :—

It is Enacted,

XX. That the same shall be deemed and taken to extend and shall extend to cases where the owners of appropriations or appropriate tithes are by law bound, but refuse or neglect, to repair the chancel of any church or to maintain an officiating minister, in like manner and as fully to all intents and purposes as to cases where the owners of impropriations or impropriate tithes are so bound and so refuse or neglect to repair the chancel of any church or to maintain an officiating minister.

XXI. That in any case in which any petition shall be presented pursuant to the said recited Act or this Act for the repair of any chancel, or for recovery of any stipend or salary of an officiating minister, or any arrears thereof, the certificate of the archbishop or bishop of the diocese in which the church or parish is situate, that such chancel has been repaired or such salary usually paid to the officiating minister of such parish, or that such chancel has at any time been agreed to be repaired or such salary to be paid by the owner or owners of the impropriation or appropriation or appropriate or impropriate tithes, as the case may be, of such parish, shall be prima facie evidence of the liability of such owner or owners to pay such stipend or salary, or repair such chancel, as the case may be; and every such stipend or salary shall be a charge upon such appropriate or impropriate tithes, paramount to all other charges whatsoever.

XXII. That it shall and may be lawful for the Court to which any such petition shall be presented to appoint a receiver over any such appropriate or impropriate tithes for payment of any such repairs, stipend, or salary, or arrears thereof, or to direct that any receiver already appointed over such tithes shall pay such repairs, stipend, or salary to the person entitled to receive the same, in preference and priority to all other charges whatsoever.

XXIII. That whosoever the impropriator or appropriator or owner of the appropriate or impropriate tithes of any parish, not having a vicar or curate endowed, shall not maintain an officiating minister in such parish, or shall not have agreed to pay a stipend or salary for or towards the maintenance of such officiating minister, being by law bound to maintain such minister, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the archbishop or bishop of the diocese in which such parish is situate to certify to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners that there is no vicar endowed, nor any stipend paid to any curate, or other provision made by such appropriator or impropriator for the discharge of the spiritual duties of such parish, and that it is fit and proper that an officiating minister should be maintained within the same; and thereupon the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, if they shall deem it expedient so to do, shall fix and ascertain a proper and reasonable stipend to be paid by the impropriator or appropriator or owner of the appropriate or impropriate tithes of such parish, having regard to the annual value of such impropriate tithes, and to the extent of the duty to be performed in such parish; and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall cause to be lodged in the registry of the diocese in which such parish shall be situate a certificate under their seal of the amount of the stipend so ascertained, and shall also transmit to the owner, or, if more than one, to each of the owners of the impropriate or appropriate tithes of such parish a copy of the said certificate.

XXIV. That the amount of the stipend so fixed and ascertained as aforesaid shall be a charge on the impropriate tithes of such parish paramount to all other charges whatsoever, and shall, from and immediately after the lodging of such certificate in the registry of the diocese, be paid and payable to the officiating clergyman of such parish for the time being by equal half-yearly payments; and such officiating clergyman shall be nominated and appointed from time to time in such manner and subject to such provisions and regulations as the curate of any curacy augmented by the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits pursuant to any statutes heretofore in force in Ireland: Provided always, that the amount of the salary so to be fixed and ascertained by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall not exceed 10*l.* for every 100*l.* of the annual value of the impropriate or appropriate tithes of such parish, as the same shall have been ascertained by the certificate of the Commissioners appointed to carry into effect the composition for tithes in the said parish.

And after reciting, that it appears by the report of certain Commissioners constituted and appointed by His Majesty for inquiring into ecclesiastical revenues and patronage in Ireland, bearing date the 15th of April 1834, that there are in certain cathedral churches divers subordinate corporations known by various names, and that some of such corporations have dwindled down to a single individual in each, who appears to be wholly discharged of any duty whatever, and that some such offices would long since have become wholly obsolete and extinct but for the emoluments which still attach and are enjoyed by the individuals who fill them :—

It is Enacted,

XXV. That the right, title, and interest in and to all lands, tithes, rents, profits, and other emoluments heretofore held and enjoyed by the vicars choral of the cathedral church of Saint Patrick's, Cashel, or by any corporation of or belonging to any cathedral church in Ireland, known by the names of minor or petty canons, vicars choral, vicars choral and organists, prebendaries and vicars, or vicars and choirmen, or by any other name, and whether sole or aggregate, who shall not discharge any duty, or shall not discharge duties commensurate with the extent of their emoluments, shall, in the case of the said vicars choral of the cathedral church of Saint Patrick's, Cashel, from and after the passing of this Act, and in the case of each and every such other corporation as aforesaid whosoever the Lord Lieutenant in council shall on the recommendation of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners think fit so to direct, vest in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject nevertheless to all valid leases, charges, and incumbrances now affecting the same, and that the rents, issues, and profits thereof shall be by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners applied during the lives of the present members of such corporations respectively to their use, in the same manner and proportions as the same may now be enjoyed by or divisible amongst each and every of them ; and the on the demise or cession of the respective members of such corporations, adequate provision be made out of such rents, issues, and profits for the due maintenance of such and so many of his or their successors as may in the judgment of the said Commissioners be required for the effectual discharge of the duties, if any, appertaining to the members of such corporations respectively, in cases where such provision is not made from other sources ; and that the surplus of such rents, issues, and profits from time to time accruing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be carried to the general fund under the administration of the said Commissioners, who shall have all and every the like powers of leasing and demising the lands and tithes so vesting in them as such corporations may now respectively have, and be in all respects subject to such and the like restrictions and conditions.

And after reciting, that by the hereinbefore recited Act, 4 & 5 Will. 4, the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland, and His Majesty's Privy Council there, are empowered, on the recommendation of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to order and direct that the appointment to any ecclesiastical dignity or office under the rank of an archbishopric or bishopric, the person holding which shall not have actual cure of souls within any parish appropriated thereto, shall be suspended upon the next avoidance until such Lord Lieutenant and Council shall think fit otherwise to direct, and that for and during such period as such dignity or office shall remain vacant all and every the tithes, glebes, lands, rents, profits, and emoluments whatsoever belonging or appertaining thereto, and all arrears of such tithes, rents, profits, and emoluments which may have accrued due since the same may have become void as aforesaid, shall be vested in and received by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to be by them applied towards the like purposes as the other monies and funds accruing to or vested in them under the provisions of the said Act : And that doubts have arisen whether the provisions of the said Act apply to the case of the precentorship of the church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, otherwise called Christ Church, in Dublin, now vacant, by reason of the cure of souls in certain parishes belonging in contemplation of law to the said precentor, although in fact such cure has not been served by the occupant of such dignity, nor by any resident curate employed at a sufficient stipend : And that it is expedient to remove such doubts, and also further to explain the said Act :—

It is Enacted,

XXVI. That the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said Act shall be taken to extend to the said precentorship, and also to all dignities or offices the occupants whereof, although having in contemplation of law cure of souls, habitual or actual, in any parish or parishes appropriated or in anywise belonging thereto, shall not for three years next preceeding the 1st of January last have continuously served the cure of souls in such parish or parishes either personally or by a curate licensed thereto, or in case the appointment, presentation, or collation of any clerk to such parish or parishes shall have been suspended or hereafter shall be suspended under and by virtue of the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4 ; and also that the said provisions of the said Act shall be taken to extend to all such offices of or belonging to cathedral churches as in the said Act mentioned, although the same may not be ecclesiastical offices nor held by ecclesiastical persons, and also to all cases where tithes may have been held or enjoyed by the occupants of such dignities or offices, though not in law appropriated to them, and also to cases where lands only, or land as well as tithes, may have been so held and enjoyed or appropriated, or where the same may be under lease : Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that there are any curates, perpetual or stipendiary, serving the cure of souls within any parish appropriated to any such dignity or office, and that the stipends allowed to such curates are insufficient, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, from and out of the profits or emoluments of the parish so appropriated, to allow such stipend to any such curate, not exceeding 100*l.* per annum, as they may think necessary with regard to the duties to be by him discharged.

And after reciting, that by the recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4, as amended by 4 & 5 Will. 4, authority is given to the said Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors and Council, on the next avoidance of any archbishopric, bishopric, deanery, archdeanery, dignity, prebend, or canonry, or with the consent of the incumbent thereof, to disappropriate, disunite, and divert from and out of the same any rectory, vicarage, tithes or portion of tithes, and glebes or part or parts thereof, and to unite any such rectory, vicarage, tithes or portion of tithes, or glebes or part thereof, to the vicarages or perpetual or other curacies of such parishes respectively, or to any adjoining or neighbouring rectory, vicarage, or curacy, or to erect the same into a distinct parish or benefice : And that difficulties have arisen in carrying the provisions of the said Acts into effect by reason of the existence of leases of tithes or portions of tithes and lands, sometimes included in one and the same demise, and sometimes situate in or arising out of several parishes, and doubts have arisen whether the said provisions extend to mensal or demesne lands ; for remedy whereof—

It is Enacted,

XXVII. That the said provisions shall be deemed and taken to extend to and comprise all and every tithes or portions of tithes, whether under lease or otherwise, and all lands, mensal, demesne, or otherwise, belonging or appertaining or anywise held or enjoyed in right of any archbishopric, bishopric, deanery, archdeanery, dignity, prebend, or canonry, whether such tithes or lands shall arise out of or be situate in one or more parishes.

XXVIII. That in any case where the said Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors and Council shall think fit in the exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said Acts and this Act, to disappropriate, disunite, and divert from and out of any archbishopric, bishopric, deanery, archdeanery, dignity, prebend, or canonry, any rectory, vicarage, tithes or portion of tithes, or lands or part or parts thereof, which by reason of the existence of any such leases as aforesaid, or for any other reason, cannot be conveniently appropriated or united to any adjoining or neighbouring rectory, vicarage, or curacy, or in case such rectories, vicarages, or curacies may be already sufficiently endowed, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors and Council to order that such rectory, vicarage, tithes or portion of tithes, or land or part or parts thereof, so disappropriated, disunited, and diverted as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners ; and the right and interest in and to the same, and all arrears thereof, shall thereupon vest in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and be by them carried to the general fund under their administration, but charged with and subject nevertheless to the payment of such annual or periodical sum or sums of money, if any, as the said Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors and Council shall think fit to direct to be paid to any rector, vicar, or curate, their or his successors, whose rectory, vicarage, or curacy he and they shall deem not to be sufficiently endowed, or which he and they may think fit to erect, and to which, under the provisions of the said Acts, any such disappropriated rectory, vicarage, tithes or portions of tithes, or lands, might have been appropriated and united.

XXIX. That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall have all such and the like powers of making or renewing leases, or of conveying a perpetual estate or interest of and in any lands or premises which may become vested in them by virtue of any such disappropriation order as aforesaid, as hereinbefore conferred upon them in respect of any lands or premises which may become vested in them by virtue of any such suspension order as hereinbefore mentioned; and all and every the provisions hereinbefore contained in respect of such lands or premises as may be vested in the said Commissioners by any such suspension order, and the making leases and renewals and conveyances thereof, shall apply and extend to lands or premises vested in them by any such disappropriation order, and the making leases, renewals, and conveyances thereof.

And after reciting that by reason of the insufficiency of the endowment of the vicarages in several parishes the rectorial tithes whereof are appropriated to archbishopricks, bishopricks, and other ecclesiastical dignities, prebends, and canonries in Ireland, by reason whereof it has become necessary from time to time to unite two or more of such vicarages into one benefice, to the disadvantage of the spiritual interests and concerns of such vicarages respectively;—

It is Enacted,

XXX. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners acting in pursuance of the provisions of said recited Acts, in the name and on the behalf of any archbishop, bishop, dignitary, prebendary, or canon, to grant a perpetual estate or interest to any tenant now holding or who may hereafter hold any tithes or compositions for tithes appropriated to such archbishopricks, bishopricks, dignities, prebends, or canonries, under or by virtue of any lease or contract.

XXXI. That at any time from and after the next avoidance of any archbishoprick, bishoprick, dignity, prebend, or canonry, as aforesaid, in which it may be deemed expedient so to do, it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in case any tithes or compositions for tithes shall be disappropriated therefrom, by instrument under their common seal to declare that the lease or contract by which such tithes or compositions for tithes are now or hereafter may be held shall not be renewed; and in order to prevent any loss or damage to the tenant or tenants now holding or who may hereafter hold such tithes or compositions for tithes by virtue of such lease or contract, by reason of the same not being capable of being renewed as heretofore, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon the application of any such tenant or tenants declaring his or their readiness to accept the value in money of his or their estate or interest in such lease or contract as if the same were still capable of renewal, to estimate and compute the value thereof accordingly; and in case such tenant or tenants shall think fit to accept the same, he or they shall thereupon convey his estate and interest in such lease or contract to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and such tithes or compositions for tithes shall thereupon be freed and discharged from all debts, liabilities, and incumbrances of such tenant or tenants, or of any person or persons deriving under him, her, or them, or of any person or persons under whom he, she, or they may derive: Provided nevertheless, that the purchase money for such estate and interest shall become subject and liable to all such and the like engagements, liabilities, uses, trusts, intents, and purposes as may affect the estate or interest of such tenant or tenants in the lease or contract of said tithes or compositions for tithes, and shall be paid to such tenant or tenants on his making out title thereunto; and if he, she, or they shall not make out a sufficient title thereto such purchase money shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland to the credit of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and to the credit of the matter, upon an order for that purpose to be obtained upon petition in a summary way, and shall be disposed of by such Court by order in like manner to be obtained, as may be just.

XXXII. That from and after the conveyance of the estate or interest of every such tenant or tenants in and to such tithes or compositions for tithes to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as aforesaid, the same shall be and remain for ever vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and be by them applied, as and when the same shall be received, in the first instance in liquidation and discharge of the purchase money and expenses incurred by them in the purchase thereof, with legal interest, until the same shall be fully and entirely paid off, and from thenceforward in the augmentation of small benefices under the provisions of the said recited Acts.

And after reciting that by and under the provisions of the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4, the bishoprick of Cork and Ross has become united to the bishoprick of Cloyne, and Doctor Samuel Kyle being at the time of the passing of the said Act, and at the time when the said bishopricks became united as aforesaid, Bishop of Cork and Ross, has become and now is Bishop of the said united bishopricks of Cork and Ross and Cloyne: And that upon such union as aforesaid all and singular the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with all and singular the tithes, rents, and emoluments appertaining or belonging to the said bishoprick of Cork and Ross, were by virtue of the said Act transferred to and vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, saving and excepting the see house and offices and mensal and demesne lands to the said bishoprick of Cork and Ross belonging, which became thereafter by the said Act the see house and offices and mensal or demesne lands of the said united bishopricks of Cork and Ross and Cloyne, and the said Doctor Samuel Kyle became possessed of and entitled to the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cloyne, saving and excepting to the see house and mensal or demesne lands thereunto belonging, which the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners were authorized to let or demise for such rent or fine as they should think fit: And that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners are authorized and required by the said Act, out of the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cork and Ross so vested in them as aforesaid, to make good to the said Doctor Samuel Kyle the sum or sums of money, if any, whereby the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cloyne shall fall short of the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cork and Ross; And that the revenues of the said respective bishopricks, being in great measure dependent on fines paid on the renewal of leases, are liable to uncertainty and variation, and an annual valuation of the said several bishopricks would be troublesome and inconvenient: And that it has been found, upon a comparison of the relative average value of the said several bishopricks, that the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cloyne fall short of the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cork and Ross by the annual sum of 1,500*l.* or thereabouts, and the said Doctor Samuel Kyle consents to receive such annual sum of 1,500*l.* in full acquittance and discharge of the payment which the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners ought to make to him under the provisions of the said Act;—

It is Enacted,

XXXIII. That the said annual sum of 1,500*l.* shall be deemed and taken to be the sum whereby the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cloyne fall short of the revenues of the said bishoprick of Cork and Ross, and that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall pay to the said Doctor Samuel Kyle, in each and every year during his incumbency of the said united bishopricks of Cork and Ross and Cloyne, the said annual sum of 1,500*l.*, commencing from the 14th of September 1835, and that the first payment thereof shall be made on the 14th of September 1836, by one entire payment, and that the future payments thereof shall be made by equal moieties, one moiety on the 14th of March, and the other moiety on the 14th of September, in each and every succeeding year during the incumbency of the said Doctor Samuel Kyle in the said united bishopricks: Provided always, that the said annual payment shall be apportioned so and in such manner that on the demise or translation of the Doctor Samuel Kyle, or other determination of his said incumbency, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall pay to him, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, a proportion of such annual sum according to the time which shall have elapsed from the commencement or last period of payment thereof respectively (as the case may be), including the day of the demise or translation of the said Doctor Samuel Kyle, or other determination of his said incumbency in the said united bishopricks: Provided also, that the income of the present Bishop of Cork and Ross and Cloyne during his incumbency be free from the tax chargeable under the provisions of the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 37.

And after reciting that it is provided by the said Act, 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 90, that no sum shall be paid by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to any attorney or solicitor as and for costs, charges, or expenses, unless the amount of such payment shall first have been approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and that no sum exceeding 1000*l.* shall be allowed in any one year by the Lords of the Treasury as and for the costs, charges, or expenses of any such attorney or solicitor, and that before any such sum shall be allowed by the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury on such account as aforesaid the particulars of all such costs and expenses shall be laid before them: And that it is necessary to explain the said hereinbefore recited provision;—

It is Enacted and Declared to be the intent and meaning of the said Act,

XXXIV. That no sum exceeding 1000*l.* shall be allowed in any one year for the personal services of any such attorney or solicitor, but that no disbursements nor expenses actually and properly made or incurred by such attorney or solicitor in and about the affairs and business of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and by their authority and direction, shall be deemed or taken to be included in the said sum of 1000*l.*, or form part thereof.

XXXV. That the said several recited Acts of Parliament shall continue in full force and effect, save and except so far as they or either of them are or is expressly repealed or altered by this Act, and that the said recited Acts and this Act shall be construed and taken together as one Act to all intents and purposes; and that this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present session of Parliament

And after reciting that it is enacted by the said first-recited Act, that in all cases where, under and by virtue of an Act, 21 Geo. 2, intituled, 'An Act for disappropriating Benefices belonging to Deans, Archdeacons, Dignitaries, and other Members of Cathedral Churches, and for appropriating others in their Stead, and also for the Removal of the Sites of ruined Cathedral Churches,' any parochial church shall have been or shall be made or shall become by usage or custom cathedral and parochial, and in all cases where, under and by virtue of an Act, 39 Geo. 3. (1), intituled, 'An Act for the repairing of Cathedral Churches in Cases where the Parish Churches have been long in Ruins,' any cathedral church shall have been or shall be made use of as a parish church, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required to contribute to the repairs of such cathedral and parochial churches in such proportion as has been agreed upon by and between the dean and chapter or chapters of such cathedral church and by the Protestant inhabitants of the parish or union in which such church is situate, that the inhabitants thereof should contribute to the rebuilding, enlarging, and putting into and keeping in repair of such cathedral and parochial churches; and if it shall happen that no such agreement as aforesaid shall have been made by and between the parties aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland and the Privy Council thereof, upon petition of the dean and chapter or of the said Commissioners, finally to adjust and ascertain the proportions in which such deans and chapters or chapters and said Commissioners shall so respectively contribute for the purposes aforesaid; and the sums necessary and sufficient for such purposes shall be from time to time apportioned and paid accordingly by the said deans and chapters and the said Commissioners respectively: And that it is just and reasonable that such deans and chapters should in certain cases be relieved in the whole or in part from the burthen of contributing to the repairs of such cathedral churches;—

It is Enacted,

XXXVI. That in case there shall be no economy fund or chapter or other property appropriated to the purpose of rebuilding, enlarging, and putting into and keeping in repair of any such cathedral church, or no such economy fund, chapter or other property adequate or sufficient for such purpose, it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, by writing under their seal to certify to the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland in council that there is no such economy fund, chapter or other property appropriated to the purpose of repairing such cathedral church, or no such fund or property adequate and sufficient for such purpose, and that it is just and reasonable that the said Commissioners should defray the whole of the sums necessary for such purpose, or that the said Commissioners and the dean and chapter or chapter should contribute for such purpose in such proportions as shall in such writing be specified; and in case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland and the Privy Council thereof shall signify his and their approval of the matters specified in such certificate, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required from time to time to pay the whole of the sums necessary for such purpose as aforesaid, or such proportion thereof as shall be specified in such certificate, subject to such regulations as in the said recited Acts and this Act or any or either of them are contained with respect to monies to be expended for such purposes: Provided always, that such dean and chapter or chapter shall from time to time contribute for such purpose as aforesaid such proportion as shall be specified in such certificate as just and reasonable to be contributed by such dean and chapter or chapter.

CAP. C.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to restrain the Alienation of Corporate Property in certain Towns in Ireland.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. No conveyance of lands, &c. of any of the bodies corporate mentioned in the Schedule to be made before 1st September 1837, or unless in pursuance of some covenant bond fide entered into before the 16th of February 1836.—No contracts made after the passing of this Act and before 1st September to be valid.—Proviso for sales made for legal and necessary purposes.
2. Officers appointed since 16th February 1836 not to be therefore entitled to compensation for loss of office.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is fitting that provision be made to the end that the estates and effects of the bodies corporate now constituted in sundry towns in Ireland may be preserved and maintained for the use and benefit of the inhabitants of the said towns, and upon and for the several trusts and purposes to which the same ought to be applied :—

It is Enacted,

1. That no conveyance, alienation, settlement, charge, or incumbrance whatsoever of, out of, or upon any lands, tenements, or hereditaments to which any body corporate or late or reputed body corporate named in the Schedule to this Act annexed or any one or more of the members of any of the said bodies corporate in his or their corporate capacity, or any person or persons in trust for them or any of them, now have or may hereafter acquire, or on or before the 16th of February in the present year had or have since then acquired, any right or title, unless in pursuance of some covenant or contract or agreement bond fide made or entered into on or before the said 16th of February by or on behalf of such body corporate, or of some resolution duly entered in the corporate books of such body corporate on or before the said 16th of February, shall (except as hereinafter provided) be made or executed by or on behalf of such body corporate before the 1st of September 1837; and that no contract, covenant, or agreement to convey or to charge such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, entered into after the passing of this Act and before the said 1st of September, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be valid; and no assignment, grant, or disposition of, or covenant or agreement to affect, any personal estate or estates of any such body corporate which may be hereafter made before the said 1st of September, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be valid or effectual: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to such dispositions as may be made, before the said 1st of September, of any part of the real or personal estate of any such body corporate for paying any just and lawful debt contracted by them before the said 16th of February, or for paying any debt which any such body corporate shall have been or may be directed to pay by any order, judgment, or decree of any court of law or equity, or for defraying the legal salaries of necessary officers, and other legal and necessary disbursements of such body corporate.

11. That no person who shall have been appointed to any office or place of profit in or by any of the said bodies corporate since the said 16th of February in the present year shall be entitled by reason of such appointment to have any compensation for the loss of such office or place of profit, or of the fees and emoluments thereof, in case provision shall be hereafter made by Parliament for removing him or authorizing his removal from such office or place of profit, or for amending or abolishing the same.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

Boroughs.	Style of Corporate Body.
Ardee	The Portreeve, Burgesses, and Commons of the corporation of Atherdee.
Armagh	The Sovereign, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Armagh.
Athlone	The Sovereign, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Freemen of the town of Athlone.
Athy	The Sovereign, Bailiffs, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Athy.
Bandon	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Bandon Bridge.
Bangor	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Bangor.
Belfast	The Sovereign, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Belfast.
Belturbet	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Belturbet.
Boyle	The Borough Master, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Boyle.
Callan	The Sovereign, Burgesses, and Freemen of Callan.
Carlow	The Sovereign, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Catherlagh.
Carrickfergus ..	The Mayor, Sheriff, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Carrickfergus.
Cashel	The Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Citizens, and Commons of the city of Cashel.
Charleville	The Sovereign, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the borough of Charleville.
Clonakilty	The Sovereign, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Clonakilty.
Clonmell	The Mayor, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Clonmell.
Coleraine	The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town of Coleraine.
Cork	The Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the city of Cork.
Dingle	The Sovereign, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Dingle-a-Couch.

Boroughs.Style of Corporate Body.

Drogheda	The Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the county of the town of Drogheda.
Dublin	The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the city of Dublin.
Dundalk	The Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Dundalk.
Dungannon	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commons of the borough of Dungannon.
Ennis	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Ennis.
Enniscorthy....	The Portreeve, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Enniscorthy.
Enniskillen	The Portreeve, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Enniskillen.
Fethard	The Sovereign, Chief Burgesses, Portreeve, and Freemen of the town of Fethard.
Galway	The Mayor, Sheriffs, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town and county of the town of Galway.
Gorey	The Sovereign, Burgesses, and Free Commons of the borough and town of Newborough.
Kells	The Sovereign, Provosts, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Kells.
Kilkenny {	The Mayor and Citizens of the city of Kilkenny.
Kinsale	The Portreeve, Burgesses, and Commons of the borough or town of Irishtown.
Limerick	The Sovereign, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Kinsale.
Limerick	The Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the city of Limerick.
Londonderry...	The Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of Londonderry.
Longford	The Sovereign, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the borough of Longford.
Maryborough ..	The Burgomaster, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of Maryborough.
Monaghan	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Monaghan.
Naas	The Sovereign, Provost, Burgesses, and Commonalty of Naas.
Navan	The Portreeve, Burgesses, and Freemen of the town or borough of Navan.
New Ross	The Sovereign and Burgesses of New Ross.
Portarlington...	The Sovereign, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the borough and town of Portarlington.
Sligo	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Sligo.
Strabane	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Strabane.
Tralee	The Provost, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Tralee.
Trim	The Portreeve, Burgesses, and Freemen of Trim.
Tuam	The Sovereign, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Tuam.
Waterford	The Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the county of the city of Waterford in the kingdom of Ireland.
Wexford	The Mayor, Bailiffs, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town or borough of Wexford.
Wicklow	The Portreeve, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Wicklow.
Youghal	The Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town of Youghal.

CAP. CI.

AN ACT to legalize certain Lists of Voters and of Claims and Objections for the present Year.

[This Act is printed in the Appendix, p. xxxiv.]

(20th August 1836.)

CAP. CII.

AN ACT for rendering more easy the taking the Poll at County Elections.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Additional polling places may be appointed upon petition from Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled.
2. Notices to be given previous to any petition being made.
3. As to the number of polling booths to be provided.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 2 & 3 Will. c. 64. it is among other things enacted, that the poll for the election of knights of the shire shall be taken at such places as in a certain Schedule to the said Act annexed marked (N.) are mentioned : and that it is expedient that provision should be made for increasing the number of such polling places :—

It is Enacted,

1. That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, from time to time hereafter, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in Quarter Sessions assembled, rep-sending that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in Quarter Sessions or some special Sessions assembled, as in the said Act mentioned, shall conformably to the said Act divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place; and every such direction or order for creating additional polling places shall be certified under the hand of one of the clerks in ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, and when so certified shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be of the same force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament.

II. That no such petition as aforesaid shall be made by such Justices so assembled unless a notice in writing shall have been delivered, one month at the least before the holding of such Quarter Sessions, to the clerk of the peace of the county, riding, part, or division wherein the same are held, signed by two Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, part or division, and residing therein, or by ten inhabitants being registered voters for such county, riding, part, or division, which notice shall state that the Court will, when such sessions are held, be moved to make such petition, nor unless the clerk of the peace shall, ten days at the least before the holding of such sessions, have caused a copy of such notice to be inserted twice at the least in two of the newspapers of such county, riding, part, or division, if two newspapers are published therein, or if not, in a newspaper published or commonly circulated therein, together with a notice of the day upon which such Quarter Sessions will be held: Provided always, that when such motion is made, any person objecting to the same shall be heard by such Court against the same or any part thereof, if he thinks fit.

III. Provided always, That at every contested election of a knight or knights to serve in any future Parliament for any county, or for any riding, parts, or division of a county, as many polling booths shall be provided at each polling place as will allow one for every 450 electors whose names appear upon the registry of the said county or division of a county, and who may lawfully vote at such polling place; and the high sheriff shall provide the same accordingly.

CAP. CIII.

AN ACT to make temporary Provision for the Boundaries of certain Boroughs.

(20th August 1836.)

CAP. CIV.

AN ACT for the better Administration of the Borough Fund in certain Boroughs.

(20th August 1836.)

CAP. CV.

AN ACT for the better Administration of Justice in certain Boroughs.

(20th August 1836.)

[The three preceding Acts are printed in the Appendix, p. xxxv—xxxviii.]

CAP. CVI.

AN ACT to make Provision for the better and more expeditious Administration of Justice in the Stannaries of Cornwall, and for the enlarging the Jurisdiction and improving the Practice and Proceedings in the Courts of the said Stannaries.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Appointment of future vice warden.
2. Vice warden to hold office during good behaviour.—Power of removal.
3. Present Lord Warden to have the appointment of vice warden in case of vacancy.
4. Original equitable jurisdiction of vice warden confirmed, and extended to matters connected with all metals and metallic minerals in the county in the same way as heretofore over tin.

5. Deceases, &c. of vice warden subject to re-hearing and appeal.—Judgments on appeal to be transmitted to vice warden's court.
6. The courts of the stannaries consolidated, and to be held before the vice warden, who is to have the same jurisdiction as the steward has had :—
7. And also similar jurisdiction in all cases connected with all metals and metallic minerals in Cornwall.—Appeal.—Judgment on appeal to be sent to the vice warden's court.—Judgment not to be reversed except on error of law.
8. Vice warden may grant a new trial.
9. Service of subpoena on witnesses good in any part of England or Wales :—and to be enforced by process from King's Bench :—
10. Provided expenses be tendered.
11. Where judgment obtained, and the person and effects cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the Court of the vice warden, any of the superior courts may issue execution.
12. Rule of the court which cannot be otherwise enforced may be enforced by making it a rule of a superior court at Westminster.
13. The vice warden to have no jurisdiction except as hereby provided, and any parties may demur to jurisdiction of the court, but if not, the jurisdiction not to be questioned.
14. Vice warden empowered to make rules and orders, touching the practice and proceedings of the court.—Old practice to continue until such rules and orders are made.
15. Vice warden authorised to regulate how evidence shall be taken.—Old practice to remain until otherwise ordered.
16. Vice warden may direct and try an issue of fact arising on the equity side.—Motion for new trial.
17. Power to vice warden to make orders though court adjourned or not sitting.
18. Vice warden ordering a person having a share in a mine to pay money may order a sale of his share.
19. The vice warden's seal to be the seal of his court.
20. All barristers and solicitors may practise in vice warden's court.—If others than solicitors or attorneys practise, to be deemed a contempt of court.
21. Court to have jurisdiction throughout the county of Cornwall, to be a court of record, and to be held at Truro.
22. Appointment of registrar.—Removal of registrar.
23. Present Lord Warden to have the appointment of registrar.
24. Vice warden may appoint secretary, prothonotary, and collector.
25. The salary of the vice warden and other officers.—Apportionment of salary on death, &c.
26. The revenues of the Duchy charged with half the salaries.
27. Secretary, &c. to account for all fees half-yearly.—Account to be audited by vice warden, and one-third of fees to be paid in aid of moiety of the salaries charged on the Duchy revenues.
28. Assessment of one farthing in the pound sterling on all metals, &c. except tin ; and head manager of every mine to make a return quarterly of the quantity and value.
29. Registrar, out of the assessment and the remaining fees, to pay the other moiety of the salaries.
30. The registrar to have his accounts of receipts from the assessment and the fees, and his payments thereout, audited by the vice warden half-yearly.—If at the end of any half year a balance appears sufficient for the next half year, no assessment to be made until the expiration of such half year ;—but nevertheless the head manager to make the returns.
31. Penalty on head manager omitting to make any return, or making a false return.
32. Jurors.
33. Summoning of jurors.
34. Ballot and challenge of jurors.—Jury to consist of twelve. Jury de Circumstantibus.
35. Penalty on jurors for non-attendance.
36. Appointment of crier and usher.
37. Vice warden and registrar not to practise.
38. Vice warden, registrar, and other officers to take no fees, &c. except as hereby provided, &c.—Penalty.
39. A list of fees to be hung up.
40. The county prison at Bodmin to be the prison of the vice warden's court.
41. The powers heretofore vested in the vice warden or steward or court of the stannaries to be exercised by the vice warden.
42. Removal of causes in certain cases to the Court of King's Bench.
43. All existing laws, customs, &c. not inconsistent with this Act or the law of the realm preserved.
44. Interpretation of this Act.
45. Commencement of Act.
46. Act may be altered this session.

By this Act,

After reciting that there has existed throughout the stannaries of Cornwall a court in which the vice warden has in certain cases, wherein tin or tinners or matters connected with tin are concerned, exercised original equitable jurisdiction : and that there has existed a court in each of the stannaries of Cornwall, called the steward's court, and in which the steward of the stannaries has exercised a common law jurisdiction in such like cases : and that the jurisdiction so exercised by the vice warden and the steward respectively has been confined to cases wherein tin or tinners are concerned : and that in late times lead, copper, and other metals and metallic minerals than tin have been discovered in the county of Cornwall, and over the matters connected with the working for and purifying and smelting of which lead, copper, and other metals and metallic minerals such jurisdiction has not been considered to extend : and that the various persons in the said county working and interested in such lead, copper, and other metals and metallic minerals are greatly inconvenienced in their disputes in cases where such metals and metallic minerals other than tin are concerned, and are put to great inconvenience in obtaining redress therein : and that it is expedient to unite the court of equity of the vice warden with the courts of common law of the steward of the said stannaries, and to extend the jurisdiction of the court to and over all metals and metallic minerals in the said stannaries, and to and over all transactions connected therewith in the said county of Cornwall, in manner hereinafter mentioned, and also to confirm, alter, and enlarge the powers of such court in various particulars, and to make other provision than heretofore for the hearing of appeals and writs of error therefrom :—

It is Enacted,

1. That from and after the death or resignation or other removal of the present vice warden it shall and may be lawful for the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, if of full age, or His Majesty and his successors, King or Queen regnant of England for the time being, if there be no Duke of Cornwall or if the Duke of Cornwall for the time being is under age, to nominate and appoint from time to time (by letters patent under the privy seal of the Duchy of Cornwall or under the great seal of England, as the case may be,) a fit person, being a barrister at law of five years standing at the least, to be and be called the vice warden of the stannaries.

II. That the present vice warden and every future vice warden shall be Judge of the court hereinafter mentioned, and which shall have both a common law and an equity side, and shall comprehend the court heretofore the court of the vice warden and the court heretofore the courts of the stannaries, and that the vice warden for the time being shall hold such office during his good behaviour: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, if of full age, or His Majesty and his successors, King or Queen regnant of England for the time being, if there is no Duke of Cornwall or if the Duke of Cornwall for the time being be under age, on a requisition to him for that purpose, stating therein at length sufficient grounds, and signed by the majority or five of the council or of the Commissioners or principal officers of the Duchy of Cornwall, but not otherwise, (the Lord Warden of the stannaries being always one of the persons signing such requisition,) to remove the person for the time being holding the said office of vice warden.

III. Provided, That notwithstanding anything herein contained, the appointment of vice warden (should any vacancy occur during the time the present Lord Warden of the stannaries holds that situation) shall be in such Lord Warden, subject nevertheless to all the provisions as to the qualification of the person to be appointed vice warden, and his removal, as hereinbefore contained.

IV. That the original equitable jurisdiction heretofore lawfully exercised by the vice warden for the time being shall and may be henceforth exercised by the present and every future vice warden for the time being, and that the present and every future vice warden for the time being shall have, exercise, and enjoy the same equitable jurisdiction, and the same power and authority in all matters and things brought before him, so far as relates to the working, managing, conducting, or carrying on any mine worked for any lead, copper, or other metal or metallic mineral within the said county of Cornwall, or to the searching for, working, smelting, or purifying any lead, copper, or other metal or metallic mineral within the said county, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had related to any tin or tin ore, or tin mine, or mine worked for tin, in the said county: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to affect any suit or matter now pending in any court of law or equity.

V. Provided, That all decrees, orders, and acts, as well already or hereafter to be made or done by the vice warden for the time being, shall in each and every case be subject to be re-heard and varied by the vice warden for the time being according to the practice of the court, and that the Lord Warden for the time being shall have full power and authority on any appeal or appeals presented to him for that purpose, within the time limited by the practice of the court, (such appeal or appeals being left with the secretary of the Lord Warden at the duchy office,) and, with the aid and assistance of three or more members of the Judicial Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council for the time being, to affirm, alter, or reverse any decrees, orders, or acts already or hereafter made or done by the vice warden for the time being, either in whole or in part, and to dismiss such appeal or appeals, with costs or otherwise, as may to the Lord Warden so aided and assisted seem just: Provided, that the judgment pronounced by the Lord Warden so aided and assisted on any appeal or appeals presented shall be transmitted to the court of the vice warden, to be by such court carried into effect, and shall be subject to appeal to the Lords spiritual and temporal in Parliament assembled.

VI. That the courts of law of the respective stannaries, heretofore held before the stewards or steward thereof shall be one court for all the stannaries, and shall be held by and before the vice warden for the time being, who as Judge thereof shall have, exercise, and enjoy the same common law jurisdiction, and the same powers, privileges, and authorities with reference thereto, and shall transact, do, and perform the same duties, matters and things in relation thereto, as have heretofore been lawfully transacted, done, performed, or to be exercised or enjoyed by the steward for the time being of any of the stannaries.

VII. That such vice warden for the time being shall also have, exercise, and enjoy the same common law jurisdiction and the same power and authority in all matters and things which shall be brought before him in any way connected with the working, managing, conducting, or carrying on any mine worked for lead, copper, or any other metal or metallic mineral within the said county of Cornwall, or in any way relating to lead, copper, or any other metal or metallic mineral, or the searching for, working, smelting, or purifying lead, copper, or any other metal or metallic mineral within the said county, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been connected with or related to any tin or tin ore, or tin mine, or mine worked for tin, in the said county: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for either or any of the parties, plaintiff or defendant, against whom any judgment or order or sentence shall be given, to appeal therefrom to the Lord Warden for the time being, and that the Lord Warden for the time being shall have power and authority to receive appeals (the same to be lodged with his secretary at the duchy office as aforesaid) from such judgments, orders, and sentences, and shall have power and authority, being aided and assisted by three or more members of the Judicial Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council for the time being, to hear such appeals, and to affirm, alter, and reverse such judgments, orders, or sentences, in whole or in part, or to dismiss the said appeals, with costs or otherwise, as may be just: Provided always, that a record of every judgment, order, or sentence pronounced by the Lord Warden so aided and assisted as aforesaid, and signed by such Lord Warden, be remitted to the court of the vice warden, to be by such court carried into effect, according to law: Provided also, that upon any appeal from any judgment upon the verdict of a jury, the Lord Warden, so aided and assisted as aforesaid, shall not reverse, alter, or inquire into the said judgment, except only for error of law apparent upon the record; and that every judgment of the Lord Warden shall be subject to an appeal to the Lords spiritual and temporal in Parliament assembled.

VIII. That any party to any action at law brought in the said court may apply for a new trial in any such action to the vice warden within eight days after the trial of such cause, if the said vice warden shall be then sitting, or within the first four days of the next term, and the said vice warden may grant a new trial upon any of the grounds on which new trials are now granted by the Courts at Westminster, and upon such terms and conditions as by the said vice warden shall be thought reasonable; and the said vice warden, if he shall think that an impartial trial cannot be had in Cornwall, may direct that the Nisi Prius record on any cause shall be sent to the Judges of assize for the county of Devon, who shall have authority to try such cause, and after the trial to cause such record to be transmitted to the court of the vice warden, who shall proceed on the said record as if the cause had been tried in his own court: Provided always, that the orders of the said vice warden upon such application for a new trial shall be subject to such appeal as hereinbefore provided as to other decrees, orders, and acts of the said vice warden.

ix. That the service of every writ of subpoena to attend and give evidence hereafter to be issued out of either side of the said court of the vice warden, and served upon any person in any part of England or Wales, shall be as valid and effectual in law, and shall entitle the party suing out the same to all and the like remedies by action or otherwise howsoever, as if the same had been served within the jurisdiction of the said court of the vice warden; and that in case the person so served shall not appear according to the exigency of such writ, it shall be lawful for the said court of the said vice warden, upon oath or affirmation to be taken in open court, or affidavit, of the personal service of such writ, to transmit a certificate of such default under the seal of the said court to the Court of King's Bench at Westminster; and the said last-mentioned Court may and shall thereupon proceed against and punish by attachment or otherwise, according to the course and practice of the same court, the person so having made default, in such and the like manner as the same Court might have done if such person had neglected or refused to appear in obedience to a writ of subpoena issued to compel the attendance of witnesses out of such last-mentioned court.

x. Provided, That the said Court of King's Bench shall not in any such case as aforesaid proceed against or punish any person, nor shall any such person be liable to any action, for having made default by not appearing to give evidence in obedience to any such writ of subpoena as aforesaid for that purpose, issued under the authority of this Act, unless it shall be made to appear to the said Court of King's Bench that a reasonable and sufficient sum of money to defray the expenses of coming and attending to give evidence, and of returning from giving such evidence, had been tendered to such person at the time when such writ of subpoena was served upon such person.

xi. That whenever a plaintiff or defendant in any action or suit in which judgment shall be recovered in the said court of the vice warden shall remove his person or goods or chattels from or out of the jurisdiction of the said court of the vice warden, it shall and may be lawful for any of the superior courts at Westminster, upon a certificate from the registrar, under the seal of the said court of the said vice warden, of the amount of final judgment obtained in any such action, to issue a writ of execution thereupon, for the amount of such judgment and the costs of such writ and certificate, to the sheriff of any county, city, liberty, or place, against the person or goods of the party against whom such final judgment shall have been obtained, in such manner as upon judgments obtained in any of the said superior courts at Westminster.

xii. That in case any rule of the said court of the vice warden cannot be enforced by reason of the non-residence of any party or parties within the jurisdiction thereof, it shall be lawful, upon a certificate of such rule by the registrar, under the seal of the said court of the said vice warden, and an affidavit that by reason of such non-residence such rule cannot be enforced, to make such rule a rule of any one of the said courts at Westminster, if such superior court shall think fit, and that thereupon such rule shall be enforced as a rule of such superior court.

xiii. That neither the vice warden for the time being, nor the court of such vice warden, shall have, use, or exercise any power or authority save as hereby provided, and that any person against whom proceedings shall be instituted in the court of the vice warden shall, after the appearance entered, be at liberty to demur or plead to the jurisdiction of the said court; but that no question as to the jurisdiction of the said court with respect to the matters embraced in such proceedings shall hereafter be raised unless such person shall within fourteen days after appearance entered by or on behalf of himself, or entered by the person instituting such proceedings in manner hereby provided, demur or plead to such proceedings by filing a statement of the grounds of such demurrer or plea at the registrar's office, and serving a copy thereof on the person instituting such proceedings, or his solicitor or attorney.

xiv. That the vice warden for the time being shall have power and authority from time to time, and as often as circumstances shall require, to make and prescribe such rules and orders touching and concerning the forms and manner of proceeding in the court of the vice warden, and the practice and pleadings in all matters to be brought therein, the appointing commissioners to examine witnesses, the taking of examinations de bene esse, and allowing the same as evidence, the process of the said court and the mode of executing the same, the fees reasonable to be demanded by attorneys, solicitors, and others, and by the officers of the said court, for business by them transacted in the said court, and such other rules, orders, and regulations as shall from time to time seem necessary and proper for expediting the business of the said court with most convenience and at most reasonable expense to the parties concerned therein, and that the vice warden for the time being shall have power to revoke, alter, and amend the rules, orders, and regulations so from time to time made; provided that the rules, orders, and regulations so at any time made by such vice warden for the time being are not inconsistent with this Act or any of the provisions herein contained, and that such of them as shall apply to the equity side of the said court be approved of by the Lord Chancellor of England, and that such of them as apply to the common law side of the said court be approved of by a Judge of one of the superior courts of common law at Westminster; provided always, that such rules and orders, when so approved, shall be transmitted to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and be laid before both houses of Parliament within one month from the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting, within one month from the commencement of the then next session of Parliament: Provided nevertheless, that all rules, regulations, and orders, and all forms of practice, heretofore in use, and all fees heretofore authorized or accustomed to be taken, in the court of the vice warden for the time being, or in any of the courts of the stannaries, shall (except so far as the same or any of them are hereby annulled or are inconsistent herewith) be and be considered binding and valid rules, regulations, and orders, and forms of practice, and authorized fees, until the same be altered, amended, or revoked by virtue of the powers hereby given.

xv. That the vice warden for the time being shall in all cases in equity brought before him, whether by bill, petition, or otherwise, have power and authority to take the whole or any part of the evidence therein, either viâ deorum oeth or otherwise before himself or before the registrar, or before persons duly authorized by him for administering oaths and taking affidavits, or on depositions taken before the registrar or commissioners appointed for that purpose, or otherwise as the vice warden may from time to time direct by any general rule to be made by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that the said vice warden for the time being may, on interlocutory matters, and in such other cases as to him shall seem desirable, receive evidence either in whole or in part on affidavits, and that either with or without further evidence visd voce or on depositions: Provided nevertheless, that the practice heretofore adopted as to taking evidence in the court of the vice warden and of the steward's courts shall nevertheless in the meanwhile continue in each and every case until the same shall be altered by virtue hereof or of the powers herein contained.

XVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the vice warden to direct an issue of any fact arising before him in any suit instituted by bill, petition, or otherwise on the equity side of the said court, to be tried by a jury, and to issue process to compel the attendance of jurors and witnesses for that purpose, and that the vice warden shall have all necessary powers for trying the same and carrying the verdict thereof into execution; and that after any such issue shall be tried a new trial may be moved before the vice warden for the time being, who shall have power to grant or refuse such new trial according to the rules of the common law and practice of the Courts of Westminster in granting or refusing new trials.

XVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the vice warden for the time being, whether he be at the time in the county of Cornwall or otherwise, in all cases which may be brought before him, whether in the said county of Cornwall or otherwise over which cases he has jurisdiction, to make such order by way of injunction or otherwise, as the nature of the case may require, notwithstanding he may have adjourned his court to some future time or some other place; and that for the entry of pleadings, orders, proclamations, and other matters touching the practice of the court in process and execution the said court shall be considered and be at all times open; provided that nothing be therein done on any Sunday, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving.

XVIII. That in case the vice warden shall in any proceedings instituted for that purpose make any decree or decretal order against any person for the payment of any money due or payable in respect of the working or management of or the providing goods for any mine worked for any metal or metallic mineral, and the person against whom such order or decretal order shall be made, or any person in trust for him, shall have any share or interest in such mine, and shall not pay the sum so decreed to be paid, it shall and may be lawful for the vice warden, under such regulations and in such way as to him shall seem fit, to cause a sale of such share or interest, or of so much thereof as shall be necessary to raise such sum and the costs attending such sale.

XIX. That the seal of the stannaries heretofore used by and considered as the seal of the vice warden for the time being shall be and be deemed and taken to be the seal of the court of the vice warden, and that every process issuing from either the equity or common law side of the said court shall issue under such seal; and that all orders, proceedings, documents, and copies by the laws of the stannaries as now existing, or by the act or by any rule or order of either side of the said court, or of the vice warden as Judge of the said court, as shall be required to be sealed, shall be sealed therewith.

XX. That all barristers at law and all attorneys and solicitors of any of the superior courts of law or equity at Westminster may appear and plead in any proceedings in the said court of the vice warden; and in case any person, not being an attorney or solicitor of such superior courts, shall practise in the said court of the vice warden as attorney or solicitor, he shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of the said court, and be liable to all the penalties incident thereto, on complaint thereof made to the said court; and that all the laws and statutes now in force concerning attorneys or solicitors shall so far as the same are applicable extend to attorneys or solicitors practising in the said court of the said vice warden.

XXI. That the court of the vice warden shall have jurisdiction throughout the county of Cornwall, and be held at Truro in the said county, and shall be a court of record, and shall have within the limits of its jurisdiction all the powers, rights, privileges, and incidents of a court of record as fully and amply to all intents and purposes as the same are used or exercised or enjoyed by any of His Majesty's courts of law at Westminster; and that the vice warden for the time being shall have, use, exercise, and enjoy all the powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions of a court of record; and that the sitting of the said court shall be held as often as shall be found necessary, and at least once in every three calendar months, on such days as the vice warden shall from time to time appoint.

XXII. That it shall and may be lawful for the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, or for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, King or Queen regnant of England for the time being in case there shall be no Duke of Cornwall or the Duke of Cornwall for the time being shall be under age, by letters patent under the privy seal of the Duchy of Cornwall or under the Great Seal of England, as the case may be, from time to time, to appoint a fit and proper person, being a barrister at law or a solicitor or attorney of one of the superior courts at Westminster, to be and act as the registrar of the said court of the vice warden, and to attend upon and assist the said vice warden in his said court, whether sitting as a court of law or equity, and to enter and draw up all orders, decrees, sentences, and judgments of all kinds made and pronounced by him, and to take such accounts and to execute such references as the said vice warden shall direct, and that the person so appointed as registrar shall hold his office during his good behaviour: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, if of full age, or His Majesty, his heirs and successors, King or Queen regnant of England for the time being, if there be no Duke of Cornwall or if the Duke of Cornwall for the time being be under age, on a requisition to him for that purpose, stating therein sufficient grounds, and signed by the vice warden for the time being and by five or more of the council or of the commissioners or of the principal officers of the duchy, but not otherwise, to remove the person for the time being holding the said office of registrar.

XXIII. Provided, That, notwithstanding anything herein contained, the appointment to the office of such registrar shall, during the time the present Lord Warden of the stannaries holds such situation of Lord Warden, be in such Lord Warden, subject nevertheless to all the provisions as to the qualification of the person appointed, and his removal, as hereinbefore contained.

XXIV. That it shall and may be lawful for the vice warden for the time being to appoint by writing under the seal of his court a fit and proper person to be and act as his secretary, and also in like manner to appoint one other fit and proper person to be and act as prothonotary or assistant registrar in the said court, and also in like manner to appoint one other fit and proper person (who shall enter into such security as the vice warden for the time being shall think fit) as collector for the said court.

And after reciting that it is expedient that the vice warden for the time being, and the registrar, and the other before-mentioned officers of his court, should be paid by fixed salaries, and that all fees received by such registrar and the other officers aforesaid for business done in the court should be accounted for in manner hereinafter mentioned: And that His Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct that one moiety or half part of the salaries of the vice warden and of the before-mentioned officers of his court should be paid out of and be a charge upon the revenues of the duchy, subject nevertheless to be in part indemnified by contribution of part of such fees so to be accounted for as aforesaid; and that it is expedient that for the purpose of raising money sufficient, with the remaining portion of such court fees, to pay the other moiety or half part of the aforesaid salaries of the said vice warden and the aforesaid officers of his court, a small assessment should be made on all metals and metallic minerals (except tin ore) over all matters connected with which the jurisdiction of such court is hereby extended as aforesaid, and which shall be from time to time brought to sale in or withdrawn from any mine in the said county of Cornwall;—

It is Enacted,

XXV. That there shall be paid and payable, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, the yearly sums following as and for the salaries to the vice warden and the before-mentioned officers of his said court for the time being; (videlicet,) to the vice warden the sum of 1,500*l.*, to the registrar the sum of 500*l.*, to the person who shall be so appointed the secretary to the vice warden the sum of 100*l.*, to the prothonotary or assistant registrar the sum of 200*l.*, and to the collector the sum of 30*l.*; which said several sums shall be paid from time to time half-yearly, in manner hereby provided, free and clear from all taxes and deductions whatsoever, on the 25th of March and on the 29th of September in each year, by equal portions, the first of such respective portions to be paid on the 25th of March next; and that if any person at any time holding any of the said offices shall die, resign, or be removed from the same, the executor or administrator of the person so dying, or the person so resigning or being removed, shall be entitled to have such proportionate part of his salary as shall have accrued during the time that such person shall have held his office since the last payment; and that the successor of any such person so dying, resigning, or being removed as aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive such portion of his salary as shall be accruing or shall accrue from the day of such death, resignation, or removal.

XXVI. That a moiety or half part of the aforesaid salaries to the vice warden for the time being and to the aforesaid officers of his said court shall be a charge on the revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall, and that the same shall be paid by the receiver general for the time being of the said duchy, under debentures for that purpose from the auditor for the time being of the said duchy, in which the said auditor is hereby authorized to issue; and that the said receiver general shall, on the 25th of March and the 29th of September in each year, under the debentures so issued, pay, free from all deductions, the sums following; (videlicet,) to the vice warden for the time being the sum of 375*l.*, to the registrar the sum of 125*l.*, to the person so appointed secretary to the vice warden the sum of 25*l.*, to the prothonotary or assistant registrar the sum of 50*l.*, and to the collector the sum of 7*l.* 10*s.*

XXVII. That the person so as aforesaid appointed secretary to the vice warden, and the said prothonotary or deputy registrar and the said collector, shall once in every half year account for and pay over to the registrar for the time being of such court all fees received by them by virtue of their respective appointments during the previous half year; and that the registrar for the time being shall forthwith make out a full and true account of all fees received by him during such preceding half year, and of all fees received by the aforesaid officers of the said court, and accounted for and paid to him as aforesaid, for the same period; and that such registrar shall have such account audited by the said vice warden for the time being, in which account and audit there may and shall be charged and allowed such small sums of money as to the vice warden shall seem reasonable for the keeping order in, and the lighting, airing, and cleansing the place in which such court shall be held, and shall transmit a copy of such account so audited to the auditor for the time being of the said duchy, and shall pay or cause to be paid to the said receiver or his deputy one third part of the total amount of fees so appearing to have come to the hands of such registrar; for which sum so paid the receiver shall on passing his accounts give credit to the duchy in part discharge of the moiety of the salaries so as aforesaid charged on the revenues of the said duchy.

XXVIII. That there shall be paid and payable the sum of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. in the pound sterling on the value of all metals and metallic minerals (except tin and tin ore) which shall be from time to time brought to sale in or withdrawn from any mine within the said county of Cornwall; and that the head manager of every mine within the said county of Cornwall shall, within ten days after each quarterly account of the mine over which he is head manager shall have been or ought to have been made up, transmit to the registrar for the time being of the vice warden's courts a full, true, and particular account and return of all metals and metallic minerals (except tin and tin ore) which shall have been brought to sale in or shall have been withdrawn from the mine of which he is such head manager during the preceding quarter, and shall in such return state the value in money of the respective quantities of the metals and metallic minerals specified therein at the time the same were respectively brought to sale or withdrawn, as the case may be; and that the head manager of every such mine shall on application from the collector of the vice warden's court pay or cause to be paid to such collector the sum of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. in the pound sterling on the aggregate value of all metals and metallic minerals (except tin and tin ore) which shall have been brought to sale or withdrawn from such mine during the preceding quarter; and that every such payment by such head manager shall be considered as costs, and shall on passing his accounts with respect to the mine of which he is such head manager be allowed to him accordingly.

XXIX. That the registrar for the time being shall out of the monies which shall from time to time be in his hands by means of such assessments as aforesaid, and by means of the remaining of the court fees as aforesaid, pay to the said vice warden and to himself and the other officers aforesaid of the said court the sums following, being other moiety of the said salaries, in manner following; (that is to say,) shall pay on the 25th of March and on the 29th of September in each year, free from all deductions, to the said vice warden the sum of 375*l.*, to himself the registrar the sum of 125*l.*, to the person filling the situation of secretary to the vice warden the sum of 25*l.*, to the prothonotary the sum of 50*l.*, and to the collector the sum of 7*l.* 10*s.*

XXX. That the said registrar for the time being shall at the end of every half year lay before the vice warden for the time being a full, true, and particular account of the balance remaining in his hands at the commencement of such preceding half year, and of all monies received by him during such last half year in respect of such assessment as aforesaid, and when and from whom and from what mine received, and also shall in such account give credit for the remaining portion of the said court fees so in his hands after such payment to the auditor of the duchy as aforesaid, and shall also in like manner lay before the vice warden a full, true, and particular account of all salaries and other expenses paid by such registrar during the same period; and that a balance shall be thereby struck, shewing the balance remaining in the hands of such registrar at the end of the then last half year; and that thereupon the vice warden for the time being shall and is hereby required to audit the said account, and also the said account for court fees hereinbefore mentioned, and if the same shall be found correct to allow the same respectively, by putting his signature thereto; and that such accounts when so allowed shall be filed amongst the records of the said court, and be open for the inspection of all persons in the usual way: Provided always, that if it shall at any time appear to the vice warden for the time being, on auditing such account of the registrar, that there remains a general balance in his hands sufficient to meet all payments hereby authorized to be made thereout for the next half year, then and in such case the vice warden shall have power and is hereby required to give notice thereof by advertisement in the county papers, or in such way as he shall think fit; and that thereupon no assessment shall be made or become payable in respect of the said one farthing in the pound sterling on the value of all metals and metallic minerals as aforesaid during such succeeding half year: Provided nevertheless, that, although no such assessment shall in such case be made during such period, the said manager of every mine is required to and shall make such return as aforesaid to the said registrar of all metals and metallic minerals (except tin and tin ore) brought to sale or withdrawn from the mine over which he is such head manager, precisely as if such assessments were or would be payable in respect of the ore specified in such return.

XXXI. That if the head manager of any mine shall omit to make such full, true, and particular return as hereby required of the quantities of metals and metallic minerals (except tin and tin ore) brought to sale or withdrawn as aforesaid in the mine of which he is such head manager, or of the value thereof, as is hereby required, or shall, on demand made, omit to pay or cause to be paid such assessment as aforesaid, or shall wilfully make any false or incorrect return, then and in every such case such head manager shall be subject for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding 50*l*.

XXXII. That the vice warden for the time being may and shall in the present and every succeeding year order the clerk of the peace of the county of Cornwall to make out a duplicate of the juror's book at the time in use, or about to be brought into use, or of such part of the said book as such vice warden may think fit to specify in such order; and the clerk of the peace, upon the receipt of such order, shall with all convenient speed make out such duplicate, and deliver the same to the registrar of the court of such vice warden; and that every such duplicate shall be the book of jurors qualified and liable to serve as jurymen in all cases before the vice warden for the time being, and that every such duplicate shall be kept by the registrar, and shall be by him used as the juror's book for the time being.

XXXIII. That the registrar of the said court shall cause to be summoned, one week before the first day of each sitting of such vice warden, forty-eight persons named in the juror's book by him kept as aforesaid to attend at the time and place appointed for holding such sitting; and every such summons shall be according to the form given in the Schedule hereto annexed, and shall be served either personally on each such person or by leaving it at his dwelling house; and that in summoning such persons regard shall always be had as far as may be to the convenience of the individuals so summoned; and no person shall be summoned oftener than once in a year.

XXXIV. That the registrar of the said court shall make a list of the jurors so summoned, together with the places of abode and additions, and shall cause their names to be written severally on slips of paper and put into a box, and the names of the jurors for the trial of causes shall be drawn out of the box by the registrar; and each party may, until no more than twelve remain, object to any person whose name is drawn out, without assigning any cause; and if any objection is made to the twelve so remaining, it must be stated to and decided on by the vice warden for the time being; and if any such objection be allowed, the names of the jurors rejected without cause assigned shall be returned to the box, and drawn again until a sufficient number be found to make a jury of twelve; and such jury of twelve shall be the jury sworn for the trial: Provided always, that if there shall not be twelve persons attending, or against whom no objection shall have been allowed, it shall be lawful for the said vice warden to order the requisite number of persons from among the by-standers to be summoned by the registrar, and sit on the jury, subject to any objections which may be made for causes assigned, except for want of qualification or want of summons: Provided also, that the said vice warden may, if he sees fit, direct the registrar to divide the list of forty-eight jurors into two lists, and to require the persons in the one list to attend and serve for so many days at the beginning of the sittings as the said vice warden shall order, and those in the other list to attend and serve for the residue of the sittings, according as the said vice warden shall think fittest for the convenience of the said persons; and then and in that case the registrar shall divide the said list of forty-eight jurors into two lists, and cause the persons named in each of such lists to be summoned to attend on different days accordingly.

XXXV. That if any person having been duly summoned to attend as a juror in the court of the vice warden shall not attend in pursuance of such summons, or being thrice called in court shall not answer to his name, or if any such person being present in court, or any such by-stander in court, after having been called shall not duly appear, or after his appearance shall wilfully withdraw himself from the presence of the said court, it shall be lawful for the said vice warden to impose such fine upon every such person or by-stander so making default (unless some reasonable excuse shall be given to the satisfaction of the said vice warden) as to the said vice warden shall seem meet; and if such fine shall not be paid at the time ordered by the said vice warden, the same shall and may be levied by writ of fieri facias to be issued out of the common law side of the said court of the vice warden.

XXXVI. That the vice warden for the time being shall and may appoint a fit and proper person to be crier and usher of his said court, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the vice warden for the time being, and may be removed in a summary manner, and may and shall receive such fees for acting as crier and usher of the said court as the said vice warden shall from time to time by virtue of the provisions herein contained authorize.

XXXVII. That the vice warden for the time being shall not during his continuance in such office practise as a barrister, and that the registrar for the time being of the said court shall not during his continuance in such office practise as a barrister or solicitor or attorney in such court, or in any other court of law or equity in the united kingdom of England and Ireland.

XXXVIII. That the vice warden for the time being shall not demand or take, upon any pretence, any fee, gratuity, or reward whatever; and that such registrar and other aforesaid officers of the said court appointed under this Act shall not demand or take, upon any pretence whatever, any fee, gratuity, or reward other than and except such as are hereby authorized, or as shall be from time to time settled and allowed by the vice warden for the time being by virtue hereof or of the provisions herein contained; and that if any such person shall offend in that behalf he shall be removed from the office he shall then hold, and be disabled from again holding the same or any other office under this Act.

XXXIX. That a table of all fees for the time being authorized by the vice warden to be taken by any solicitor or attorney practising in his said court, or by any officer of his said court, for business done therein, shall be hung up in some conspicuous place in such court.

And after reciting that the gaol belonging to the courts heretofore the courts of the vice warden and of the stannaries is situate at Lostwithiel in the said county of Cornwall: And that it would tend more to the public convenience that the court of the vice warden should use as its gaol or prison for all purposes the prison belonging to the county of Cornwall, and situate at Bodmin, in lieu or place of the said gaol at Lostwithiel;—

It is Enacted,

XL. That every person hereafter arrested or taken prisoner or detained by virtue of any writ, process, order, decree, or proceeding issuing out of or from or by either side of the said court of the vice warden of the stannaries, or committed for contempt of the said court, shall be taken to the county prison at Bodmin, in the said county of Cornwall, or to other the prison for the time being of the said county, in the same manner, and subject to the same provisions and regulations in every respect, as if such person were arrested and conveyed to the prison by virtue of any writ, process, order, decree, or proceeding issuing out of any of the superior courts of law or equity at Westminster, or committed for contempt by any of the said last-mentioned courts; and the gaoler or keeper for the time being of such county prison as aforesaid is hereby authorized and required to receive into such county prison every person so arrested and conveyed to prison by virtue of any writ, process, order, decree, or proceeding issuing out of or from or by either side of the said court of the vice warden, or so committed for contempt of the said court as aforesaid, and to maintain, support, and provide for every such person in the same manner as if he had been arrested and brought to the said county prison by virtue of any writ, process, order, decree, or proceeding issued out of any of the superior courts of law or equity at Westminster, or were committed for contempt of any of the said last-mentioned courts; and that all and singular the charges and expenses of maintaining, supporting, and providing for every person so arrested or committed to the said county prison as aforesaid shall be paid and defrayed out of such portion of county rate of the said county of Cornwall as for the time being shall be applicable to the support of the debtors confined in the said county prison.

XLI. That all jurisdictions, powers, and authorities heretofore lawfully exercised by the vice warden or steward or any Judge of any of the stannaries shall be hereafter exercised by the vice warden for the time being; and that all penalties heretofore authorized to be recovered, and all oaths heretofore required or authorized to be taken, and all acts, matters, and things heretofore required or authorized to be had or done in any of the courts of the stannaries, or before the vice warden or the steward of any of the stannaries, shall be and are hereby required and authorized to be recovered, taken, had, and done before the vice warden or in the court of the vice warden, as the case may be; and that all proclamations, returns, certificates, exhibits, matters, and things heretofore required to be made, transmitted, or given to or deposited with any of the courts of the stannaries, or the vice warden or steward of any of the stannaries, shall be and are hereby required to be made, transmitted, and given to and deposited with the court of the vice warden; and all bonds and recognizances heretofore required to be entered into before the steward or any of the courts of the stannaries shall be entered into before the registrar of the said court.

XLII. That it shall be lawful for the Court of King's Bench at Westminster, on the application of any party to any action or suit on the common law side of the said court of the vice warden, on special and sufficient cause shown by affidavit to the satisfaction of such Court of King's Bench, that an impartial or sufficient trial cannot be had in such court of the vice warden, to remove, by writ of certiorari, all proceedings which may have been had in such action or suit, and to deal therewith, and to make such orders respecting the same and the future trial of and proceedings in such action or suit as to the said court of King's Bench shall seem meet.

XLIII. That all Acts, statutes, laws, liberties, privileges, customs, rights, usages, and freedoms at the time of passing this Act in force in any of the stannaries of the said county of Cornwall shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, continue and be and have the same force and effect as if this Act had not passed, save and except so far as the same or any of them are contrary or repugnant to the laws of this realm or inconsistent with the provisions herein contained, or are annulled, repealed, or altered hereby or by means of any of the powers and authorities hereby given.

XLIV. That wherever this Act, in describing or referring to any person or matter or thing, uses the words importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, the same shall be understood to include and shall be applied to several persons as well as one person, and to females as well as males, and bodies corporate as well as individuals, and several matters or things respectively as well as one matter or thing respectively, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; and that wherever the word "plaintiff" or "defendant" is used, it shall mean the person instituting the proceedings, or the person against whom proceedings are instituted respectively, in whatever way such proceedings are commenced; and wherever the word "mine" is used, it shall mean any mine, work, or adventure wherein or connected with which any metals or metallic minerals are worked; and that wherever the words "head manager of any mine" is used, it shall mean the captain, purser, or other person who for the time being shall have the principal superintendence over such mine; and that the powers hereby given to the Lord Chancellor of England, shall and may be used by the Lords Commissioners for the custody of or the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal for the time being : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to or affect or extend or be considered as extending to the county of Devon, or the stannaries within the said county, except as to the service in the said county of Devon of any writ of subpoena issuing out of such vice warden's court as hereinbefore provided.

XLV. That this Act shall commence and take effect on the 29th of September 1836.

XLVI. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed during the present session of Parliament.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Act refers.

Form of Summons to Jurors.

You are hereby required to attend and serve as a Juror at the Sitting to be holden before	Vice Warden of the Stannaries, at his Court, on the	Day of next.
	Registrar of
	Day of
To A. B.	183 .

CAP. CVII.

AN ACT to extend the Period for the Repayment of Loans made under an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in England and Wales.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Period for repayment of loans already made may be extended to twenty years instead of ten years.—And in future advances the repayment may be extended to twenty years.
2. Extension of repayment of loans not to prejudice the securities.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 76. it is enacted, that when any sum of money shall have been borrowed for certain purposes therein mentioned, the principal sum shall be repaid by annual instalments of not less than one-tenth of the sum borrowed, with interest on the same, in any one year: And that several loans have been made by the Exchequer Loan Commissioners and by private persons to divers parishes and unions, the amount whereof or of a large part thereof is still due, and that it is expedient that authority should be given in certain cases to allow a longer period for the repayment of such money :

It is Enacted,

I. That when any money shall have been so borrowed by any parish or union under the direction or with the sanction of the Poor Law Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Exchequer Loan Commissioners, with the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or of any three or more of them, or for any private persons, if they shall see fit, to extend the repayment of the principal sum borrowed under the provisions of the said recited Act, and then remaining due, to such a period as calculating from the date of the charge on the poor rates of such parish or union would extend the repayment thereof to a period not exceeding twenty years instead of ten years, as provided for by the said recited Act; and in every future advance it shall be lawful for the Exchequer Loan Commissioners, with the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or of any three or more of them, and also for any private persons, if they shall see fit, to extend the repayment of any principal sum so to be borrowed to a period not exceeding twenty years as aforesaid: Provided always, that not less than one-twentieth part of such principal sum and the interest due in each year upon the whole sum remaining due shall be paid off in every year.

II. That any loans which have or shall in future be made by the said Exchequer Loan Commissioners or by any private persons under the said recited Act, and the period of repayment of which shall be extended under the provisions of this Act, such extension shall be without prejudice to any security or securities taken or which may in future be taken for such sums or advances respectively, and such loans shall by virtue of such extension be repayable at the extended periods in such and the like manner as if such extended periods of repayment had been inserted in such security or securities respectively instead of the periods provided by the said recited Act and set forth in such security or securities respectively.

CAP. CVIII.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to amend an Act passed in the First and Second Years of His present Majesty, for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. In addition to the sum of 500,000*l.* in Exchequer bills made applicable for the promotion of public works in Ireland by the first-recited Act, 100,000*l.* of the Exchequer bills made out under 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 100. may be so applied.
2. Provisions of 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33. extended to loans under this Act.
3. Advances may be made at such rate of interest as the Treasury shall appoint, not being less than 10*s.* per cent. above the interest on Exchequer bills.
4. The Commissioners may receive and consider applications without the production of estimates, &c. as required by the said Act;—and if they shall approve thereof, may appoint a surveyor to inspect, survey, and report thereon, provided applicants deposit expense of such survey, &c.
5. Commissioners may take deposits or transfers of the shares, stock, &c. of public companies as chief or collateral security.
6. Instead of obligations to the king, bonds may be made to the Secretary of Commissioners.—Bond to be made to the king when required by the Treasury.
7. Bond to be sued upon.
8. Upon performance of the condition the bond to be cancelled.
9. Grants may be made for harbours, &c. on navigable lakes and rivers, in like manner as on coast harbours, &c.
10. Power to levy tolls.—Amount of tolls.—Power to increase the tolls for improvements.
11. Power to let the tolls.—Covenants in leases.
12. Application of tolls.
13. Power of enforcing payment of tolls.
14. Commissioners may make such bye-laws for payment of tolls and use of such piers, &c. as said Commissioners are enabled to do under 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33. vesting the powers of directors general of inland navigation in such Commissioners.
15. Advances for repair of bridges may be made by Commissioners of Public Works.
16. Treasury authorized to enlarge the time for payment of the principal, and to reduce the interest on existing and new loans.
17. In existing loans Treasury to have power to dispense with or release from liability to contribute towards the completion of works beyond the estimate.
18. Securities to be taken in the form set forth in the Schedule.
19. Powers given to any Commissioners that may be appointed to report upon and survey the principal lines best adapted for the construction of railways to enter lands.
20. Penalty for preventing such Commissioners or their surveyors in making such survey, &c.
21. Construction of terms.
22. Act may be altered.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33. the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are authorized and empowered to cause or direct to be made out from time to time, as might be necessary for the purposes of the said Act, any number of Exchequer bills, the amount whereof at any time outstanding should not exceed in the whole the sum of 500,000*l.*: and that Exchequer bills to an amount little short of the said sum of 500,000*l.* have been issued and applied to the purposes of the said Act: And that by 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 100. the said Commissioners of the Treasury were authorized and empowered to cause or direct other Exchequer bills to be made out for any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of One Million, to be applied to the relief of the owners of tithes in Ireland in manner by the said last-recited Act directed: and that the sum of 635,712*l.* 14*s.* 11*d.*, part of the said sum of One Million, has been applied, pursuant to the said last-recited Act, to the purposes thereof: And that over and above the sum required for the purposes of the said last-recited Act, Exchequer bills to the amount hereinafter mentioned, or thereabouts, were made out pursuant to the provisions of the said last-recited Act, and delivered to the Teller of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, in whose custody the same now remain; and that it is expedient that such Exchequer bills, to an amount not exceeding 100,000*l.*, should, the same not being required for the purposes of the said last-recited Act, be applied to the purposes of the said first-recited Act:—

It is Enacted,

1. That over and above and in addition to the sum of 500,000*l.* to which the outstanding loans or advances to be made by the Commissioners for the execution of the said recited Act for the extension and promotion of Public Works in Ireland were by such Act limited, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to make further loans or advances to an amount not exceeding in the whole 100,000*l.*, and for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to authorize and direct the Teller of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland to issue and deliver, upon the warrant in writing of the Commissioners for the execution of the said Act, to the person or persons in such warrant named, such of the Exchequer bills made out in pursuance of the said recited Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 100, for the relief of the owners of tithes, as may now be in the possession of the said Teller of the Exchequer, to an amount not exceeding 100,000*l.*, and such Exchequer bills shall and may be applied accordingly to the purposes of the said Act for the extension and promotion of public works, and of this Act, as if made and issued for such purposes and under the provisions of that Act.

II. That all and every the clauses, provisoes, powers, privileges, advantages, penalties, forfeitures, and disabilities contained in the said recited Act, 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33, for the extension and promotion of public works, in respect of the loans or advances to be made under authority of that Act, and in respect of the Exchequer bills to be issued for the purposes of such Act, shall, so far as the same are applicable or shall not be varied by this Act, be applied and extend to the loans and advances to be made under this Act, and to the Exchequer bills to be issued and applied as hereinbefore directed to the purposes of the said Act and this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the said several clauses and provisions were herein repeated and re-enacted, and made specially applicable thereto.

III. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the execution of the said Act for the extension and promotion of public works in Ireland to make any loan or advance upon application duly made conformably to the provisions of the said Act and this Act, and which may be approved of by the said Commissioners and by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, at such rate of interest, payable half-yearly, not less than 10s. per centum per annum above the rate of interest on the Exchequer bills which may be issued for the purpose of providing for such loan or advance, as the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct, anything in the said recited Act requiring a different or higher rate of interest on any loan or advance to the contrary notwithstanding.

And after reciting that it is provided by the said recited Act that the rules and regulations to be established by the said Commissioners in respect of the applications to be made to them thereunder shall contain provisions requiring in all cases the production of such detailed estimates, maps, plans, or specifications as may be applicable to the nature of the work in respect whereof such applications may be made: And that it may be convenient that the previous preparation of such estimates, maps, plans, or specifications should be dispensed with in certain cases;—

It is Enacted,

IV. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to receive and take into their consideration applications made to them, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act or this Act, without the production of the estimates, maps, plans, and specifications, required by the said Act as aforesaid, in such cases as they in their discretion shall think fit to dispense with the production of the same, and the said Commissioners shall amend the regulations established by them as aforesaid accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if upon the consideration of any such application they shall so far approve of the same, to appoint and employ some competent surveyor or surveyors to inspect and survey and make the necessary estimates, maps, plans, or specifications of any work referred to in such application, and investigate the general object, utility, and nature thereof and report thereon to the said Commissioners, provided that the party making such application shall previously deposit, as the said Commissioners shall direct, a sum adequate to defray the expense attendant upon such survey and report, and the making such maps, plans, specifications, or estimates, and all attendant expenses.

V. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the execution of the said Act, in the place of such real or other security or securities as they are by the said Act empowered and directed to take and require, or as collateral thereto, to accept and take as security for any loan or advance to be made under the provisions of the said Act or this Act deposits or transfers of the shares, stock, bonds, or debentures of such public companies as shall be approved by the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, in like manner as by the said Act such Commissioners are empowered to accept and take deposits or transfers of bank or government stock, Exchequer bills, or India bonds, and all such deposits or transfers of the shares, stock, bonds, or debentures of such public companies so assigned, transferred, or deposited shall, in default of payment of such loan, with interest due thereon, in the manner directed and appointed by the said Commissioners for the execution of the said Act, become and be absolutely vested in the said Commissioners or their secretary, as the case may be, and shall and may be sold and disposed of, or the monies due or payable by virtue thereof shall and may be sued for in due course of law, in the name of their secretary for the time being, for the use of the said Commissioners.

VI. That, notwithstanding anything in the said recited Act to the contrary, it shall not be necessary in any case, except as hereinafter mentioned, for any party to whom any loan shall be made in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, or of either of them, to execute any writing obligatory to our Sovereign Lord the King, but in lieu thereof any party who would have been liable to execute any such writing obligatory to our Sovereign Lord the King shall and is hereby required, before any payment shall be made in respect of any loan to be made under the provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, or of either of them, to make and enter into, or cause some sufficient persons or person, to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, to make and enter into, a bond or obligation in writing to the secretary for the time being of the said Commissioners, together with a warrant of attorney for confessing judgment thereon (the entering of which judgment shall be in the discretion of the said Commissioners), whereby the obligors or obligor therein named shall bind themselves, himself, or herself, their, his, or her heirs, executors, or administrators, in such penalty as the said Commissioners shall direct; and such bond or obligation shall be conditioned to be void if the parties or party to whom any loan shall be made in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, or either of them, shall apply or cause to be applied all the money so to be advanced at such times and in such manner and for such purposes as shall be specified in any agreement which shall have been or shall hereafter be entered into between such parties or party and such Commissioners for that purpose, and shall so often as may be required by the said Commissioners, lay before them a statement of the application of the money advanced and of the progress and state of the work mentioned in such agreement, and of such further sums as may be necessary for the completion thereof, together with all contracts which may have been entered into with reference to the execution of such work, and all accounts and vouchers in any way relating thereto, and shall keep and perform all such other covenants and conditions as the said Commissioners shall prescribe and require to be inserted in such bond or obligation: Provided nevertheless, that if in any case the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit to require that a writing obligatory to our Sovereign Lord the King should be entered into by or by any sufficient sureties or surety on behalf of any party by or on whose behalf any loan shall be applied for as aforesaid, then and in such case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized to require from such party, or sufficient sureties or surety, such writing obligatory to our Sovereign Lord the King as is by the said recited Act directed to be taken; and all the provisions contained in the said recited Act as to any writing obligatory to our Sovereign Lord the King, and the remedies for putting the same in force, shall be in full force and effect as against such party, or sureties or surety, their, his, or her heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, and their, his, or her estate and effects, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. That so often as any breach or default shall be made in the performance of all or any part of the condition of any bond or obligation which shall be entered into to the said secretary under the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from time to time at their discretion to direct their solicitor for the time being to proceed against all or any of the obligors or obligor, his, her, or their heirs, executors, or administrators, and upon proof of any such breach or default the jury shall award such sum for damages and costs as they shall think fit, not exceeding the penalty of the said bond or obligation; and such sum so awarded, when levied, shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland to the credit of the said Commissioners, to be applied by them for the purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized at any time at their discretion to direct against which of the obligors in any such bond, if there are more than one, proceedings shall be from time to time taken on any such bond or obligation, and by writing under their hands and seals, to be exhibited to the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Dublin, to direct any such proceedings to be discontinued, quashed, or abated, and the same shall thereupon be discontinued, quashed, or abated.

VIII. That so soon as the work in respect of which any such bond or obligation shall have been made to the said secretary shall be completed, and the conditions thereof fully satisfied, to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby required, upon the application of any obligor therein named, to certify in writing that the said condition has been performed, and upon production of such certificate to the proper officer of any of His Majesty's courts in Ireland in which judgment may have been entered up on such bond or obligation, satisfaction shall be entered upon the record of such judgment; and in case judgment shall not have been entered up thereupon the said bond or obligation shall be delivered up by the party holding the same to such obligor to be cancelled, and shall be cancelled accordingly.

IX. That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the execution of the said Act to receive applications and make grants in aid of the construction and erection of small harbours, piers, and quays, on navigable rivers and lakes, on the same terms and subject to the like conditions and regulations as to the amount of such grants, and all other particulars, as by the said Act provided in respect of applications and grants in aid of the construction and erection of small harbours, piers, and quays on the sea coast of Ireland, and with the like powers and authorities in relation thereto save as such conditions and regulations, powers and authorities, may be altered by this Act.

X. That when and so often as any pier, harbour, or quay shall have been constructed, either wholly or in part, under the provisions of the said recited Act or of this Act, or of either of them, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby authorized to levy or cause to be levied and paid, for the use of such pier, harbour, or quay, such tolls as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time approve of: Provided always, that the amount of such tolls shall not exceed the probable average annual expense of maintaining and repairing such pier, harbour, or quay, and of the contingent expenses to be incurred by the said Commissioners in relation thereto, and of the amount of interest at the rate of not less than 5l. per centum per annum on the capital, whether public or private, expended on such work; and provided further, that in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners that it would promote the public advantage that a greater amount of tolls should be levied, under the provisions of this Act, for the use of any such pier, harbour, or quay, or that such tolls should be at any time increased with a view of thereby creating a fund for the improvement of such pier, harbour, or quay, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby authorized to increase or to lower such tolls to such extent and for such period as the said Commissioners shall from time to time direct, with the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

XI. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, by public bidding, from time to time to let and from time to time to relet all or any of the tolls payable under the provisions of this Act, for terms not exceeding ten nor less than five years, on such conditions and with such security for payment of the rent reserved on such lease as the said Commissioners shall think fit, and the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time approve: Provided always, that every such lease shall contain a covenant on the part of the lessee or lessees to keep such work in repair (so far as the ordinary wear and tear of such work may render necessary), and shall also contain a power of re-entry on the non-payment of such rent, or non-performance of such covenant for repairs, within three calendar months after the same shall become due, or after any breach of any such covenant, and a power to such Commissioners at any time to put an end thereto on giving three calendar months notice to the lessees or lessee thereof of an intention so to do: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to or affect any tolls already raiseable and payable or which shall hereafter be made raiseable or payable by virtue of the provisions of any Act of Parliament passed before the passing of this Act.

XII. That the tolls payable under the provisions of this Act, or the rent payable upon any lease thereof, shall be applied in manner following; (that is to say,) first, in repairing and maintaining the pier, harbour, or quay in respect of which such tolls or rent shall be payable; and, in the next place, in defraying all the contingent expenses of the said Commissioners in relation to such work; and, in the next place, in paying interest on the capital, whether private or public, expended in the execution of such work, to the parties entitled to receive the same, at a rate not exceeding 5l. per centum per annum, so far as the same will extend; and the surplus of such tolls or rent shall be in the meantime invested in public or government securities, and suffered to accumulate so as to form a fund for the future improvement of such work, and such fund shall be applied for such purpose, at such time, and in such manner as the said Commissioners shall from time to time direct, and the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time appoint.

XIII. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in cases in which such tolls shall not be leased or let, and for the lessees or lessee of such tolls if leased or let, from time to time to appoint sufficient collectors and officers or agents for the purpose of receiving the tolls payable under this Act; and in case any person liable to pay such tolls shall refuse or neglect to pay the same, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or for the lessees or lessee of the said tolls, or their officer or agent or other person to whom such toll ought to have been paid, to seize the vessel, goods, articles, and things in respect of which such tolls ought to have been paid wherever the same may be found, and to detain the same until such tolls, together with the reasonable cost and expenses of such seizure and detention, shall be paid; and if such vessels, goods, articles, and things shall not be redeemed within twenty-one days after the seizure thereof, the same shall be appraised and sold, and, after deducting the costs of such seizure, detention, and sale, all such sums as shall be due in respect of such toll shall be satisfied thereout, and the overplus paid to the owner, in like manner as the law directs in cases of distress for rent in arrear.

XIV. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to make such bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the payment of rates or tolls in, and for the use and occupation of any such pier, harbour, or quay, and the preservation and safe keeping of the same, such bye-laws, rules, and regulations not being contrary to the laws or statutes of this realm, as the Directors of general inland navigation in Ireland were enabled to make and establish under any Act or Acts for promoting inland navigation, or as the said Commissioners for the promotion and extension of Public Works in Ireland are now enabled to do under the provisions of the said recited Act, 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33, vesting the powers and authorities theretofore enjoyed by the said Directors General in the said Commissioners; and any person or persons guilty of any breach of or offending against any such bye-laws, rules, or regulations, shall and may be proceeded against, and shall incur a like penalty or forfeiture, to be levied and enforced in like manner as in the case of any person offending against the bye-laws, rules, or regulations at any time made by the said Directors General or by the said Commissioners in respect of any canal or navigation.

XV. That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the consent and approval of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, to make advances under this Act or the Acts hereinbefore recited for the building, rebuilding, or repairing of public bridges on lines of turnpike roads, provided the repayment of such advance be adequately secured upon the tolls of such turnpike roads, or other adequate security.

XVI. That, notwithstanding anything in the said recited Act or in this Act contained, in any case in which any loan or advance for any purpose has already been or shall be made, under the provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, or of either of them, to any body, company, or party on any security whatever, to be repaid on any terms whatever, either as to principal or interest, it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and they are hereby authorized at their discretion, notwithstanding the terms of any agreement which may have been made or shall hereafter be made as to such loan, to enlarge the time within or to increase the number of instalments in which such loan or any part thereof shall be required to be repaid, or to reduce the rate of interest which shall be payable on such loan or on any unpaid part thereof; and every such extension of time or reduction of the rate of interest, when made as aforesaid, shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been part of the terms of such loan or advance, and as if all the securities entered into in relation to such loan had been entered into after such extension of time or reduction of interest had been made: Provided always, that the interest shall in no case be reduced to a rate less than 10s. per centum per annum above the rate of interest on the Exchequer bills made out or issued for the purpose of such loan or advance.

XVII. That, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to release and discharge, if they shall so think fit, any party who under the provisions of the said recited Act shall be liable to be called upon to contribute any sum of money for the purpose of completing any work in respect of which any loan has been or shall be made, over and above or in addition to the amount for which such party subscribed or contracted to subscribe towards the execution of any such work; and that in any loans which shall hereafter be made under the provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, or either of them, no such liability shall be incurred unless the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall so direct: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, if they shall think fit, at any time by any writing under their hands to declare that any loan which shall hereafter be made shall be made subject to such liability to contribute being incurred, and at any times or time after such liability shall have been incurred, if they shall so think fit, to release and discharge all or any of the parties who shall be so liable to contribute from the payment of the whole or any part of the sums or sum of money which he, she, or they shall be so liable to contribute or pay; and in case the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit to make any such declaration requiring such liability to be undertaken, the said Commissioners for the execution of the said recited Act and of this Act shall make such loan upon such condition that such liability to contribute shall be incurred; and in case the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall subsequently release or discharge any party from such liability, every such party shall from thenceforth be so released and discharged therefrom accordingly.

XVIII. That every mortgage, assignment, or other security (except the writing obligatory hereinbefore mentioned) which is directed or required to be made in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, or of either of them, for securing the repayment of any loan and interest, may be made in such of the forms set forth in the Schedule to this Act as shall be applicable thereto, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit; and that every estate, right, title, interest, claim, and remedy created by or which shall arise by virtue of such mortgage, assignment, or other security, or by any bond or obligation in writing to be executed to the secretary of the said Commissioners under the provisions of this Act, shall be vested in the secretary for the time being of the said Commissioners, without any assignment or transfer being executed to him.

XIX. That in case His Majesty shall think fit to issue a commission deputing and appointing any person to consider and report upon the principal lines of communication in Ireland, with reference to the comparative advantages and facilities they afford for the construction of railways, with a view to ascertain the best lines between any of the principal places in Ireland which it may be desirable to connect by railways, and for which works joint stock companies may be willing hereafter to apply to Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for such persons and their surveyors or agents, for the purpose of making such survey as may be necessary to carry into effect such His Majesty's commands and instructions, to enter into and upon the lands of any person or corporation whatsoever, and to survey and take levels of the same or of any part thereof, and to do and execute all matters and things necessary or convenient for making such survey, such persons doing as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers to them by the said commission and hereby granted, and making reasonable satisfaction (if required) to the owners of and other persons interested in any such lands which shall or may be in any way injured or damaged in or by the execution of the powers by the said commission and hereby granted to such persons; and this Act shall be sufficient to indemnify such persons, and all surveyors, agents, or persons acting in and under the orders of any of them, for what they or any of them shall do by virtue of the powers by such commission and hereby granted.

xx. That if any person shall wilfully prevent, assault, or threaten to assault any such Commissioner, or any surveyor or agent acting in aid or under the orders of any such Commissioner, pursuant to the provisions hereinbefore contained, or shall wilfully destroy or injure any surveyor's instruments or implements used for the purpose of making such survey as aforesaid, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, upon conviction by the oath of one credible witness before any two Justices of the Peace for the county wherein such offence shall have been committed at petty sessions, such sum not exceeding 10*l.* as the said Justices shall think fit; and in case the same shall not be paid such Justices are hereby empowered and required to commit such offender to any gaol, bridewell, or house of correction for any time not exceeding three months, or until such forfeiture shall be paid.

xxi. That wherever the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall be named in this Act, the provision shall be deemed to import and apply to any three or more of them, or to the Lord High Treasurer when such officer there shall be.

xxii. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present session of Parliament.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Act refers.

No. 1.

Form of Security by way of Mortgage or Assignment of any Freehold or Leasehold or Personal Estate, or by way of Deposit of any Title Deeds or Documents relating to any Freehold, Leasehold, or other Personal Estate.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act passed in the first and second years of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland,' and of an Act passed in the _____ year of His present Majesty, intituled [here insert the title of this Act], the Commissioners for the execution of the said Acts have agreed to lend and advance to us, A.B. [here insert the names of the parties receiving the loan or advance, and the sum and the terms on which it is made]; it is therefore witnessed, that in pursuance of the said agreement, and in consideration of the sum of _____ so agreed to be advanced as aforesaid, we the said A.B. [here insert the names of the parties to the agreement interested in the work] do assign [here insert the description of the work], together with all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, and we the said A.B. of _____ [principals], and C.D. of _____ [sureties], do for the like consideration assign [or deposit, as the case may be], [here insert a description of the property intended to be assigned or deposited by way of security], together with all our respective estates, rights, title, and interest therein respectively, unto the secretary of the Commissioners for the extension and promotion of Public Works in Ireland, to hold the same respectively in trust for the said Commissioners and their successors until the said sum of _____ and all interest to become due thereon, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and until [here insert such other conditions as the Commissioners shall prescribe], in pursuance of the terms of the said agreement. Given under our hands this _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord _____.

No. 2.

Form of Security by way of Bond or Obligation in Writing.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act passed in the first and second years of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland,' and of an Act passed in the _____ year of His present Majesty, intituled [here insert the title of this Act], the Commissioners for the execution of the said Acts have agreed to lend and advance to us, A.B. [here insert the names of the parties receiving the loan or advance, and the sum, and the terms on which it is made]; it is therefore witnessed, that in pursuance of the said agreement, and in consideration of the said sum of _____ pounds so agreed to be advanced as aforesaid, we the said A.B. [here insert the names of the parties to the agreement interested in the work] do assign the said [here insert the short description of the work], together with all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, unto the secretary of the Commissioners for the extension and promotion of Public Works in Ireland, to hold in trust for the said Commissioners and their successors until the said sum of _____ pounds, and all interest to become due thereon, shall be fully paid and satisfied, in pursuance of the terms of the said agreement; and for the like consideration we A.B. of _____ and C.D. of _____ [here insert the names of all the obligors] are jointly and severally held and firmly bound to the said secretary of the said Commissioners in _____ pounds, to be paid to him in trust for the said Commissioners and their successors, for which payment we bind ourselves and each of us, and our and each of our heirs, executors, and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our respective seals, dated this _____ day of _____: Provided always, and the condition of these presents is, that if the said sum of _____ pounds mentioned in the said agreement of the _____ day of _____ and all interest to become due thereon, shall be fully paid and satisfied in pursuance of the terms of the said agreement, and if [here insert such other conditions as the Commissioners shall prescribe], then these presents shall be void, or else shall remain in full force.

CAP. CIX.

AN ACT to repeal certain Provisions respecting the Coal Trade.

(20th August 1836.)

By this Act,

After reciting the passing of 9 Ann. c. 28, made perpetual by the 1 Geo. 1, it was amongst other things enacted, that all and every contract or contracts, covenants or agreements, whether the same were in writing or not in writing, and whether theretofore made and entered into, or thereafter to be made or entered into, by or between any coal owners, lightermen, stews, masters or owners of ships or vessels, crimps, coal factors, or other person or persons whatsoever concerned in the said coal trade, for engrossing coals, or for restraining or hindering any person or persons whomsoever from freely selling, buying, loading, or unloading, navigating, or disposing of coals in such manner as they lawfully might, should be and were thereby declared to be illegal, null, and void to all intents and purposes; and further, that if any coal owners, lightermen, fitters, masters or owners of ships or vessels, crimps, coal factors, or any other person or persons whatsoever, should, at any time or times from and after the 1st of June 1711, keep up, continue, act in, make, enter into, sign, seal, or be knowingly interested or concerned in any contract or contracts, covenants or agreements, before by that Act declared to be illegal, null, and void, or should erect or keep up any office or offices, chamber or chambers, or other place or places for the management of such contract or contracts, covenants or agreements, as party or parties to or knowingly interested in the same, or should anyways act or officiate therein as officer, clerk, agent, or servant to or for the persons so contracting, agreeing, or acting contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, the person or persons so offending should for every such offence forfeit and pay as follows; (that is to say,) every coal owner or owners, or proprietor of or in any pit or mine, pits or mines of coal, the sum of 100*l.*; and every fitter, whether acting by himself, his agent or servant, the sum of 50*l.*; and every master or owner of any ship or vessel, the sum of 20*l.*; and every officer, clerk, agent, or servant as aforesaid the sum of 20*l.*: And that by 4 Geo. 2. c. 30. it was amongst other things enacted, that from and after the 15th of May 1731 it should not be lawful for any owner or owners of any ship or vessel employed in the coal trade, or any person authorized by them, or any other person or persons whatsoever, directly or indirectly, by writing or otherwise, to give any orders or directions to any master or person having the command or rule of any ship or vessel employed in the coal trade, or to any agent or servant employed in the selling of coals, which should anyways relate to the keeping of turn in selling or delivering of coals in the river of Thames, and that no master or masters or other person having the command or rule of any ship or vessel as aforesaid should obey any such orders or keep turn as aforesaid, upon pain that every person giving such directions, and the person or persons observing and following the same, or any otherwise, directly or indirectly, acting contrary to the true intent and meaning of that Act, should respectively forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.* for every such offence, one moiety thereof to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and the other moiety to him or them who should sue for the same within the space of six months next after such offence or offences should be committed, to be recovered, with treble costs of suit, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any of His Majesty's courts of record, wherein no essoign, protection, wager of law, nor more than one imparlance should be allowed: And by 28 Geo. 3. c. 53. it was amongst other things enacted, that from and after the 1st of June 1788 any number of persons united in covenants or partnerships, or in any way whatsoever, consisting of more than five persons, for the purchasing of coals for sale, or for making regulations with respect to the manner of carrying on the said trade in coals, shall be deemed and adjudged to be an unlawful combination to advance the price of coals, and every person concerned therein shall be liable to be punished by indictment or information for the same in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster: And that the hereinbefore recited provisions are injurious to the public, by obstructing the free and open trade in coals, and preventing the employment of large joint capital in the said trade:—

It is Enacted,

I. That the said Acts, so far as the same are hereinbefore recited and set forth, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.

CAP. CX.

AN ACT to repeal so much of an Act of the Fifty-fourth Year of King George the Third, respecting Copyrights, as requires the Delivery of a Copy of every published Book to the Libraries of Sion College, the Four Universities of Scotland, and of the King's Inns in Dublin.

(20th August 1836.)

By this Act,

After reciting that by 54 Geo. 3. c. 136. it is among other things enacted, that eleven copies of every published book shall be gratuitously delivered to eleven public libraries named in the said Act: And that the provisions of the said Act have in certain respects operated to the injury of authors and publishers, and have in some cases checked or prevented the publication of works of great utility and importance, and that it is expedient that the said Act should be amended:—

It is Enacted,

I. That so much of the said recited Act as requires that a copy of every book which shall be printed and published shall be delivered in manner therein mentioned to the warehouse keeper of the Company of Stationers for the use of the library of Sion College, the libraries of the four Universities of Scotland, and the King's Inns library at Dublin, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, from time to time to issue and pay out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the person or persons or body politic or corporate, proprietors or managers of each of the aforesaid libraries, such an annual sum as may be equal in value to and a compensation for the loss which any such library may sustain by reason of the said Act being repealed, so far as relates to such library; such annual compensation to be ascertained and determined according to the value of the books which may have been actually received by each such library, in such manner as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any three or more of them shall direct, upon an average of the three years ending the 30th of June 1836.

III. That the person or persons or body politic or corporate, proprietors or managers of the library for the use whereof any such book would have been delivered, shall and they are hereby required to apply the annual compensation hereby authorized to be made in the purchase of books of literature, science, and the arts, for the use of and to be kept and preserved in such library: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to direct the issue of any sum of money for such annual compensation until sufficient proof shall have been adduced before him or them of the application of the money last issued to the purpose aforesaid.

CAP. CXI.

AN ACT to prevent the Fact of a previous Conviction being given in Evidence to the Jury on the Case before them except when Evidence to Character is given.

(20th August 1836.)

[This Act is printed in the Appendix, p. xli.]

CAP. CXII.

AN ACT for further facilitating the hearing and determining of Suits in Equity in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster.

(20th August 1836.)

By this Act,

After reciting that by 57 Geo. 3. c. 18. it was enacted, that the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court for the time being should have power to hear and determine all causes, matters, and things which should be at any time depending in the said court as a court of equity, and that if the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer should by sickness or any other unavoidable cause be prevented from sitting on the equity side of the said court for the purposes in the said Act mentioned, then it should and might be lawful for His Majesty and his successors to nominate and appoint from time to time, under the royal sign manual, revocable at pleasure, any other of the Barons of the degree of the coif of the said court for the time being to hear and determine such causes, matters, and things: And that by 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 41. it was declared and enacted, that it should and might be lawful for His Majesty and his successors to nominate and appoint from time to time, by warrant under the royal sign manual, revocable at pleasure, any one of the Barons of the coif of the said court for the time being to hear and determine, on such days as the Lord Chief Baron should sit on the common law side of the said court during term, or should preside at the sittings at Nisi Prius in London or Middlesex after the term, or should attend at the Judicial Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council, all causes, matters, and things which should at any time be depending in the court of equity: And that great inconvenience has been sustained by the suitors and practitioners on the equity side of the said court by reason of the last-recited Act not having provided for the case of the Lord Chief Baron being prevented from sitting by his absence on the circuit, or for the case of a cause not being fully heard and decided by the Baron sitting in the absence of the Chief Baron:—

It is Enacted,

1. That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty and his successors to empower the Baron so appointed or to be appointed under the said recited Acts as well to hear and determine all causes, matters, and things upon the occasions in the said Acts mentioned, as also during the absence of the Lord Chief Baron upon the circuit, and to continue the sittings of such Baron upon one or more successive days until he shall have fully heard and determined any cause which shall have been but partly heard before him on any day when he shall be sitting by virtue of His Majesty's warrant.

11. That all the powers and authorities given to the Baron appointed or to be appointed under the first-recited Act shall apply and be extended to the Baron to be nominated and appointed under the authority of this Act.

CAP. CXIII.

AN ACT for raising the Sum of Fourteen millions seven thousand nine hundred and fifty Pounds by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

(20th August 1836.)

This Act contains the following enactments:—

1. The Treasury may raise 14,007,950*l.* by Exchequer bills, in like manner as is prescribed by 48 Geo. 3. c. 1.

11. The clauses, &c. in recited Act extended to this Act.

III. Treasury to apply the money raised.

iv. Bills to be payable out of supplies of the next session.

v. Interest on Exchequer bills.

vi. Bills to be current at the Exchequer after 5th April 1837.

vii. Bank of England may advance 14,007,950*l.* on the credit of this Act, notwithstanding the 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 20.

CAP. CXIV.

AN ACT for enabling Persons indicted of Felony to make their Defence by Counsel or Attorney.

(20th August 1836.)

[This Act is printed in the Appendix, p. xli.]

CAP. CXV.

AN ACT for facilitating the Inclosure of Open and Arable Fields in England and Wales.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Open and common lands may be inclosed with the consent of two third parts in number and value of the parties interested therein.
2. The consent of the tenant in remainder necessary in certain cases.
3. Commissioners to be nominated by the parties consenting to the inclosure.
4. Commissioners to appoint a clerk.
5. Umpire to be appointed.—In case of difference of opinion between the Commissioners, the matter to be determined by the umpire.
6. Commissioners and umpire to take an oath.—Form of oath.
7. Commissioners to give notices of meetings, &c.—Adjournment of meeting in case of failure of attendance of Commissioners.—Place of meeting.
8. Made in which other notices are to be given.
9. Allowance to Commissioners, umpire, and surveyors.
10. Major part of proprietors may agree for payment of a gross sum to Commissioners, &c.
11. Four-fifths of proprietors, &c. may agree to adopt any previous plan, &c.
12. Four-fifths in number may agree upon rules for guidance of Commissioners or umpire.
13. Such several agreements may be appealed against to the Quarter Sessions.—Notice of appeal.—Proviso.
14. A copy of the objections to be left with the party objected to, or given to his agent.
15. For settling disputes between parties interested.
16. Commissioners may award costs.
17. Appeal allowed when parties are dissatisfied with decision of the Commissioners.
18. Death of parties not to abate actions.
19. Commissioners not to determine rights between parties except in cases of encroachments within twenty years.
20. Encroachments made within twenty years to be deemed part of the land to be allotted.
21. Land used for charitable purposes not to be deemed an encroachment.
22. Land inclosed more than twenty years deemed to be ancient inclosures.
23. Cultivated ground to be allotted to proprietors only.
24. Compensation to be made for standing crops.
25. Commissioners to direct the course of husbandry to be followed.
26. Commissioners to allot the lands to be inclosed.
27. At the desire of the parties several allotments may be set out together, distinguished by marks and bounds, but not fenced from each other.
28. For ascertaining boundaries.
29. Right of herbage in private roads to be set out.
30. Empowering rectors to erect buildings on lands allotted in right of glebe, and charge expenses thereon.
31. Rectors, with consent of bishop, may demise the allotments.
32. Commissioners in certain cases to apportion expenses of erecting boundary fences.
33. Act not to affect settlements.
34. Leases at rack rent may be voided.
35. Exchanges may be made.
36. Allotments to be under the same tenure as the lands in respect of which they are allotted.
37. For defraying expense of exchanges.
38. Ditches, &c. may be cleaned, altered, or widened.
39. Power to Commissioners to make drains through land not proposed to be inclosed, due compensation being made for damage done.
40. Upon the consent of seven-eighths in number and value, an inclosure may take place without the intervention of Commissioners.

41. Schedule of land proposed to be inclosed to be deposited with the clerk of the parish and the clerk of the peace; and a notice thereof affixed on the church door, and published in some newspaper circulating in the county.
42. Incapacitated persons enabled to enter into an agreement for compensation.
43. Persons having objections to such inclosure to deposit them with the clerk of the peace, within six months;—to be open to inspection.
44. Clerk of the peace to lay the schedule, &c. before the Justices at Quarter Sessions, who shall hear and determine upon such objections.
45. Persons interested in allotments may sell the same before the award; and Commissioners may allot them to the purchasers.
46. Tenants for life empowered to sell part of allotments to defray expenses.
47. When allotments to a tenant for life are in different parishes, Commissioners may sell the land in one parish to defray expenses attending the other portion of the allotment.—Proviso.
48. *Not to charge lands with expenses unless the sum to arise by the sale shall be less than 5*l.* per acre.*
49. For payment of expenses of measuring, dividing, allotting, and inclosing open and common lands.
50. Commissioners to account.
51. Awards.
52. Provisions of recited Acts, where not altered or repealed, extended to this Act.
53. Appeal to Quarter Sessions where parties think themselves aggrieved.
54. Act not to affect rights of lords of manors.
55. Act not to authorize the inclosure of any open or common fields within certain distances of large towns.
56. Meaning of certain words in this Act.
57. Saving the rights of His Majesty in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall, or of the Duke of Cornwall for the time being.
58. Saving as to the Duchy of Lancaster.
59. General saving.

By this Act,

After reciting that there are in many parishes, townships, and places in England and Wales divers open and common arable, meadow, and pasture lands and fields, and the lands of the several proprietors of the same are frequently very much intermixed and dispersed, and it would tend to the improved cultivation and occupation of all the aforesaid lands within such parishes, townships, and places, and be otherwise advantageous to the proprietors thereof and persons interested therein, if they were enabled by a general law to divide and inclose the same; and the passing of 41 Geo. 3. c. 109, and 1 Geo. 4. c. 23:

It is Enacted,

1. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for two third parts in number and value (such value to be ascertained as hereinafter mentioned) of the several persons who shall be seised or possessed of or entitled in possession to or interested in possession in any rights of common or other rights in any open and common arable fields, (including any untitled slips or balks therein), or any open and common meadow or pasture lands or fields, in any parish, township, or place in England or Wales, known by metes and bounds, or occupied according to known and legal rights (except as hereinafter provided), as tenant in fee simple or in fee tail, general or special, or for life or lives, or by the courtesy of England, or for any other estate of or as of freehold, or for years determinable on any life or lives, or for any term of years whereof one hundred years shall be unexpired, or as a holder of lands or rights of copyhold, customary, tenant right, or other tenure, of an estate or interest equal in quantity to the estates hereinbefore mentioned or any of them, and for the guardian, trustee, feoffee for charitable or other uses, husband or committee of such person who at the time of any agreement for or on the making of any inclosure authorized by this Act shall be an infant, idiot, lunatic, or feme covert, or under any other disability, in such manner and with such consent as is hereinafter mentioned, to inclose such open and common arable, meadow, and pasture lands and fields, or any of them, and to extinguish the right of inter-commonage which shall exist as well over as in respect of such land; provided that no such inclosure shall take place without the consent in writing under the hands of two third parts in number and value of the persons so seised, possessed, entitled, or interested as aforesaid, or for the guardians, trustees, feoffees, husbands, or committees aforesaid of such of the said persons who may be under disability as aforesaid, such value to be ascertained by the assessments of the poor rates of the respective parishes or townships for the then current year, which assessments of the poor rates, in case they shall not be made according to the full annual amount or value of the tenements and property thereby assessed, shall be increased or diminished so as to represent the full or true annual value of the several lands, fields, and rights liable to be affected by the intended inclosure, and where the lands are extra-parochial, or no poor rates shall exist in respect of any such lands, then by the full or true annual value thereof: Provided also, that no such inclosure shall take place, nor shall any agreement for that purpose be binding, until a public meeting of the proprietors and persons interested in the lands intended to be inclosed shall have been previously called for the purpose of taking the expediency of such inclosure into consideration by notice under the hands of three or more of such proprietors or persons interested, such notice to be affixed on the principal outer door of the church or chapel of the parishes, townships, or places wherein the lands intended to be inclosed shall lie, or in case there be no such church or chapel, then on the door of the church or chapel of some adjoining parish, township, or place, and also advertised in some newspaper circulating in the county wherein such lands shall lie, at least fourteen days before the said intended meeting; provided that such inclosure may after such meeting be proceeded with by and with the consent in writing of two third parts in number and value of the proprietors and persons interested in the lands intended to be inclosed, notwithstanding some of the parties who may approve of and consent to such inclosure may not be present at such meeting, and may signify their consent thereto after the same shall have been holden.

11. That whenever any inclosure shall be proposed to be made or consented to under the authority of this Act, or any agreement for compensation in pursuance of the provisions in that respect hereinafter contained shall be entered into, by any person or persons who being necessary to make up, and without whom there shall not be consenting parties sufficient to make up, the proportion of two third parts in number and value hereinbefore required, or other the proportion hereinafter required, in the case of an inclosure without the assistance of Commissioners, and who shall have a less estate or interest in the land to be inclosed, or the said rights therein, than a fee simple or an estate in tail, or be an holder of a copyhold or customaryhold tenant right or other tenure in such lands or rights for any less estate than an estate or interest in fee or in tail, or shall be under any disability, such consent shall not be available for the purposes of this Act unless the person to whom the next immediate vested estate of freehold or of copyhold or customaryhold tenant right or other tenure of inheritance, in remainder or reversion, shall have been limited, (provided such person shall be of the full age of twenty-one years, and being a female shall be unmarried,) shall consent thereto in writing; and such consent shall be sufficient for the purposes of this Act, notwithstanding the person giving the same may have an equitable estate only in the land intended to be inclosed, or may have previously charged or incumbered his reversionary estate therein: Provided always, that if the person to whom such next immediate vested estate in remainder or reversion may have been limited shall at the time such inclosure is proposed to be made happen to be an infant, feme covert, idiot, or lunatic, it shall be lawful for the guardian or husband or committee of such infant, feme covert, idiot, or lunatic to consent to such inclosure in his or her stead: Provided always, that in respect to any land held in right of any benefice no consent of the incumbent thereof shall alone be available for the purposes of this Act, where such consent shall be necessary to make up the proportion of two-third parts in number and value hereinbefore required, or other the proportion hereinafter required in the case of an inclosure without the assistance of Commissioners, without the concurrence of the patron of such benefice, and of the archbishop or bishop to whose ordinary or peculiar jurisdiction the said benefice shall be subject; and if the patron of such benefice shall happen to be a minor, idiot, lunatic, or feme covert, it shall be lawful for the guardian, committee, or husband of such patron to consent to such inclosure in the stead of such patron, and on his or her behalf: Provided always, that if the patronage of such benefice shall happen to be in the crown, and the benefice shall exceed the yearly value of 20*l.* in the King's books, no consent of the incumbent thereof shall be available for the purposes of this Act, where such consent shall be necessary to make up either of the proportions aforesaid, without the concurrence of the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being, who are respectively hereby authorized so to concur; but if such benefice shall not exceed the yearly value of 20*l.* in the King's books, then no consent of the incumbent thereof shall be available for the purposes of this Act, where such consent shall be necessary to make up either of the proportions aforesaid, without the concurrence of the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, who is and are hereby authorized to give such consent on behalf of the crown.

III. That whenever the persons whose consents are hereby rendered necessary to any such inclosure shall have consented thereto in manner in that behalf herein authorized and required, it shall be lawful for the major part in number and value of the proprietors of and persons interested in the lands intended to be divided and inclosed, or their known agents, who may be present at a meeting to be called for that purpose, to nominate and appoint in writing under their hands one or more person or persons (not interested in the premises) to be a Commissioner or Commissioners for dividing, allotting, and inclosing, and he or they is and are hereby empowered to divide, allot, and inclose, all or any of the open and common arable meadow or pasture lands or fields in any such parish, township, or place, or in any parishes, townships, or places adjoining or lying within two miles of the aforesaid parish, township, or place which may have been agreed to be divided, allotted, and inclosed as aforesaid; and when and as often as any such Commissioner or any Commissioner to be from time to time appointed in his place, shall die, neglect or refuse or become incapable to act, it shall be lawful for the major part in number and value of the proprietors of such open common arable fields or other lands or fields as aforesaid so agreed to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, or of their agents, assembled at a public meeting to be held in manner hereinbefore mentioned in respect to the meeting for taking such inclosure into consideration, to nominate and appoint any other person not interested in the premises to be a Commissioner in the stead or place of the Commissioners so dying, neglecting, refusing, or becoming incapable to act as aforesaid; and in case the said proprietors or persons interested as aforesaid shall make default in appointing any new Commissioner within two calendar months after any such death, neglect, refusal, or disability shall happen, and shall be known and signified to them or any two of them respectively as aforesaid, then the surviving or remaining Commissioner (if any) shall and he is hereby required from time to time, by writing under his hand, within one calendar month next after the expiration of the said period allowed to the proprietors or persons interested for naming such new Commissioner to be appointed as aforesaid, to appoint one other Commissioner, not interested in the said inclosure, in the place of such Commissioners so dying, neglecting, refusing, or becoming disabled to act as aforesaid; and every such new Commissioner so to be appointed shall have the like powers and authorities for carrying this Act into execution in all respects whatsoever as the Commissioner in whose place he shall have been so appointed and chosen as aforesaid was invested with under and by virtue of this and the said hereinbefore recited Act.

IV. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a clerk to assist him or them in the execution of the said recited Act and this Act, and shall and may remove such clerk and appoint another in his room as to him or them shall seem meet; and in case of the death, incapacity, neglect, or declining to act of any such clerk, then and in any such case the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall and may appoint any other person to be clerk.

V. That in all cases where two Commissioners shall have been appointed for any such inclosure they shall, before they proceed upon the business of such inclosure, by writing under their hands appoint a fit and proper person (not interested in the said division and inclosure) to act as umpire between them, and from time to time afterwards renew such appointment in the event of the death, refusal, neglect, or incapacity to act of the person so appointed; and if any difference of opinion shall arise between them touching or concerning any matter or thing to be done by them by virtue or in the execution of the said recited Act or of this Act, the matter upon which such difference shall arise shall be settled and determined by such person so to be appointed umpire, whose determination therein shall be deemed and taken to be the determination of the said Commissioners, and shall be reduced into writing, and shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties whomsoever (so far as the acts and determinations of the Commissioners are by the said recited Act or this Act declared to be final and conclusive); and for the purposes aforesaid such umpire shall have and he is hereby invested with the same powers and authorities as by the said recited Act and this Act are given or vested in the said Commissioners.

VI. Provided, that no person shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner or an umpire or a surveyor in the execution of this Act or the said recited Act until he shall have taken and subscribed an oath or made an affirmation in the form or to the effect following before one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county, riding, division, or place in which the lands intended to be inclosed, or some part thereof, are situate; which oath or affirmation the said Justice is hereby empowered to administer; (that is to say,)

'I A. B. do swear, [or, being One of the People called Quakers, do solemnly affirm,] That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute and perform the several Powers and Authorities vested and reposed in me as a Commissioner [or an Umpire] or Surveyor [as the case may be], by virtue of an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act, &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act], according to Equity and good Conscience, without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Partiality, to any Person or Persons whomsoever.

'So help me God.'

[Or, being a Quaker, omit the Words 'So help me God.']

VII. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire shall and he or they is or hereby required to cause notice in writing to be affixed to the respective church or chapel doors of the parish, township, or place wherein the lands intended to be inclosed are situate, or if there be no church or chapel, then in some conspicuous public place there, and also a like notice to be published in some newspaper circulating in the county wherein such lands lie, of the time and place of his or their attendance or meeting, and of all other subsequent attendances or meetings for executing the powers hereby or in and by the said recited Act vested in him or them, ten days before any such meeting (meetings by adjournment only excepted); and if there be two Commissioners, and not more than one of them shall attend at the time and place appointed for any such meeting, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner who shall attend such meeting, or the clerk of the said Commissioners, or if notice shall have been given of such meeting by any umpire, and both the Commissioners shall not attend the same, it shall be lawful for such umpire to adjourn such meeting to any future day not exceeding fourteen days from the day of adjournment; and such clerk shall cause notice of such adjournment to be given to the said Commissioners: Provided always, that all the meetings of the said Commissioners, or umpire and Commissioners, shall be holden in one of the parishes or townships wherein the lands to be inclosed are situate, or within seven miles of the boundaries of one of them.

VIII. Provided, That all other notices necessary or requisite to be given by the said Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire shall be so given by affixing the same on the respective church or chapel doors of the several parishes, townships, or places wherein the lands to be inclosed are situate, or if there be no church or chapel, in some conspicuous public place in such parishes, townships, or places, and by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the county wherein such lands are situate.

IX. That out of the money that shall arise for defraying the expenses of executing this Act there shall be paid to each of the Commissioners (if more than one) and to the umpire who shall act in the execution thereof, as a recompense for his pains and trouble, the sum of 3*l.* 3*s.* for each and every day they shall respectively be employed in travelling to, returning from, and attending in the execution of this Act, and no more; and at all meetings to be held in pursuance of this Act the said Commissioners and umpire shall, out of such allowance, defray their own expenses; and there shall be paid to the surveyor or surveyors to be appointed for the purposes of this Act such allowances in respect of his or their services as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall adjudge to be a full recompense and satisfaction for all his or their expenses and charges whatsoever in attending the said Commissioners, and in surveying and admeasuring the lands and grounds to be inclosed, and in planning and staking out the several allotments intended to be made, and in making such maps and plans as may be required respectively by virtue of this Act.

X. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the major part in number and value of the proprietors and persons interested as aforesaid to make any agreement with any Commissioner or Commissioners or surveyor or surveyors to be appointed under this Act for the payment to them respectively of one sum for the whole duty or any part thereof to be performed by them or either of them.

XI. Provided, That it shall be lawful for four-fifths in number and value of such proprietors and persons interested as aforesaid to agree upon the adoption for the purposes of this Act of any plan, map, admeasurement, or valuation previously made, and such agreement shall be binding upon any Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire who may be appointed in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

XII. Provided, That it shall be lawful for four-fifths in number and value of such proprietors and persons interested as aforesaid to agree upon the rules, conditions, and principles according to which any such Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire shall act in allotting the lands to be inclosed to the several persons interested therein, and such agreement shall be binding upon such Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire as aforesaid.

XIII. Provided, That it shall be lawful for any proprietor or person interested as aforesaid, who may deem himself aggrieved by any such agreement as hereinbefore mentioned for the payment of a Commissioner or Commissioners, surveyor or surveyors, or for the adoption of any plan, map, admeasurement, or valuation, or for establishing any rules, conditions, and principles for the guidance of the Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire in making allotments, to appeal against the same to the first General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the county, riding, or division wherein the lands, or the greater part thereof, in respect of which the matter of complaint may arise, shall be situate, or some adjournment thereof, or if such General Quarter Sessions shall be holden within one month from the making of such agreement, then to the General Quarter Sessions next following such first General Quarter Sessions, or some adjournment thereof; and notice of such appeal shall in each case be given in writing to the Commissioner or Commissioners seven days at the least before the day on which such sessions respectively shall be holden: Provided always, that in the event of the decision upon any such appeal being in favour of the appellant it shall be lawful for any party who shall have consented to such agreement for inclosure as aforesaid to withdraw his consent from such agreement, by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Commissioner or Commissioners at any time within twenty-one days after the day on which the decision upon such appeal as aforesaid shall have been given; and if by reason of such withdrawal of consent the proportion of two-thirds in number and value of consenting parties shall not remain, the said agreement for inclosure shall thenceforth cease and determine.

XIV. That if any of the parties interested in the premises shall have any objection or objections to any of the appraisals or claims which shall be delivered to the said Commissioner or Commissioners by virtue of the said recited Act or of this Act.

such objection or objections shall be reduced into writing, and two parts thereof shall be signed by the party or parties making the same, or by some person or persons on his, her, or their behalf, and one part thereof shall be delivered to the party or parties whose claim or account shall be objected to, or to his, her, or their agent, or left at his, her, or their last and most usual place or places of abode, at such time or times as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall appoint for that purpose.

xv. That if any dispute or difference shall arise between any of the parties interested or claiming to be interested in the said intended division, allotment, and inclosure, touching or concerning the respective rights or interests which they or any of them shall claim to have in, to, or out of the lands and fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, or touching or concerning any other matter or thing relating to the said division, allotment, and inclosure, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, to examine into, hear, and determine the same respectively; provided that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the said Commissioner or Commissioners to determine the title to any manors, messuages, cottages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments whatsoever.

xvi. That in case the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall, upon the hearing and determination of any claim or claims, objection or objections, to be delivered to them in pursuance of the said recited Act or this Act, see cause to award any costs, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are respectively hereby empowered, upon application being made to them for that purpose, to settle, assess, and award such costs and charges as they shall think reasonable to be paid, either for the public account for or towards the expenses occasioned in or relating to the investigation, settling, and determining of such claim or claims, if finally disallowed, or to the party or parties in whose favour any determination of the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall be made, by the person or persons whose claim or objection shall be thereby disallowed or overruled, or against whom the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall have determined as aforesaid; and in case the person or persons who shall be liable to pay such costs shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, upon demand, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, and he and they are hereby authorized and required, by warrant under their hands and seals, directed to any person or persons whomsoever, to cause such costs to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons so neglecting or refusing to pay the same, rendering the overplus (if any), upon demand, to such person or persons whose goods and chattels shall have been so distrained and sold, after deducting the costs and charges attending such distress and sale.

xvii. Provided, That in case any person or persons interested or claiming to be interested in the said intended division and inclosure shall be dissatisfied with any determination of the said Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire touching or concerning any claim or objection which shall be delivered to the said Commissioners in pursuance of the said recited Act or this Act, or touching or concerning any property, right, or interest intended to be affected by such determination, and shall cause notice in writing of such dissatisfaction to be delivered to or left at the usual places of abode of the Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire making such determination, and of the party or parties in whose favour such determination shall have been made, if there be any party or parties specially interested in the same, or his, her, or their agent, within thirty days next after such determination shall have been notified in writing to the several parties or persons specially interested, if any such there be, it shall be lawful for such person or persons so dissatisfied, and giving such notice as aforesaid, to bring or cause to be brought an action or actions upon a feigned issue against the person or persons in whose favour such determination shall have been made, and to proceed to a trial at law of the matter so determined by the said Commissioners or umpire at the then first or second assizes to be holden for the county wherein the lands relating to which such dispute shall arise are situate; and the defendant or defendants in such action or actions shall, and he, she, and they is and are hereby required to name an attorney or attorneys, who shall appear thereto, and file common bail, and accept one or more issue or issues, whereby such claim or claims, rights in question, and the property, right, and interest thereby insisted upon, may be tried and determined; such issue or issues to be settled by the proper officer of the Court in which the said action shall be commenced, in case the said parties shall differ about the same; and the verdict or verdicts which shall be given upon the trial of such action shall be binding, final, and conclusive, unless the Court wherein such action shall be brought shall set aside such verdict or verdicts, and order a new trial to be had thereon, which it shall be lawful for the said Court to do in case the said Court shall think proper; and after such verdict or verdicts shall be obtained, and not set aside, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to act in conformity thereto, and to allow or disallow the claim, property, right, or interest thereby determined according to the event of such trial or trials; and the costs and charges payable by the said Commissioner or Commissioners in or relating to such action or actions shall be paid and discharged out of the monies to be raised by him or them for the purposes of this Act: Provided always, that if no such notice shall be given, and such action or actions at law shall not be commenced as aforesaid, or if any such action shall be commenced, and the plaintiff or plaintiffs therein shall not proceed to trial within the time hereinbefore limited for that purpose, then the determination of the said Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire shall be final, binding, and conclusive to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that if any of the parties in any such action to be commenced as aforesaid shall die before the determination thereof such action shall not abate by reason thereof, but shall be proceeded in as if no such event had happened; and that no difference, suit, or proceeding as aforesaid, nor any difference or dispute touching the title to any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shall impede or delay the said Commissioner or Commissioners in the execution of the powers of this Act, but the division, allotment, and inclosure hereby authorized to be made shall be proceeded in notwithstanding any such difference or proceeding.

xviii. Provided, That if any person or persons in whose favour such determination as aforesaid shall have been made, and against whom any such action or actions might have been brought if living, shall die before any such action or actions shall have been brought, and before the expiration of the time hereinbefore limited for bringing such action or actions, it shall be lawful for the person or persons who might have brought such action or actions against the person or persons so dying to bring the same within the time so limited as aforesaid against such person or persons as aforesaid as if actually living, and to serve the clerk of the said Commissioner or Commissioners with process for commencing such action or actions in the same manner as the party or parties so dying might have been served therewith if living; and it shall thereupon be incumbent upon the heir or heirs or other person or persons who shall claim the benefit of such determination as aforesaid to appear and defend such action or actions in the name or names of the person or persons so dead; and proceedings shall be had therein in the same manner as if such person had been actually living, and the rights of all parties shall be equally bound and concluded by the event of such action or actions.

XIX. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to enable the said Commissioner or Commissioners to determine any right between any parties contrary to the possession of any such parties, except in cases of encroachments made within the period of twenty years next preceding the passing of this Act; but in case the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall be of opinion against the right of the person or persons so in possession they shall forbear to make any determination thereupon until the possession shall have been given up by or taken from such person or persons by ejectment or other due course of law.

XX. That all encroachments or intakes which at any time within twenty years next preceding the date of the agreement for any such inclosure have been made upon the said lands and fields hereby authorized to be divided and inclosed shall be deemed and considered part and parcel of the lands and fields to be allotted and inclosed by virtue of this Act as if the same were actually lying open and uninclosed, and shall be divided and allotted accordingly; and in case any dispute or difference shall arise touching any such encroachments or intakes, or as to the extent thereof, such dispute or difference shall be determined by the said Commissioner or Commissioners.

XXI. Provided, That in case any such lands shall have been taken or used at any time before the passing of this Act for the erection of a school-house or school-houses, or the appurtenances thereto, or for other charitable purposes, such lands as taken, or the erections made thereon, shall not be taken or deemed to be of the nature of an encroachment within the meaning of this Act.

XXII. Provided, That all lands which shall have been inclosed from the open fields, or any of them, for more than twenty years next preceding the date of the agreement for such inclosure, shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed and taken to be ancient inclosures.

XXIII. Provided, That it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire to allot to any other person than the proprietor thereof any land which may be cultivated as orchard or garden, or on which any building may have been erected, or which may have been inclosed by virtue of any voluntary agreement between the proprietor thereof and the persons having right of common over the same, without the consent in writing of such actual proprietor.

XXIV. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall, by some writing or writings under their hands, ascertain, order, and appoint what recompense and satisfaction in money shall be made to the owner or owners of any crops growing at the time of the said intended division and allotment, for the said crops, by the person or persons to whom the lands on which such crops are growing shall be allotted, and also what recompense and satisfaction in money shall be paid, and by whom, to any tenant or tenants, occupier or occupiers of lands to be inclosed as aforesaid, as well for the ploughing, tilling, and manuring of any lands or fields which shall be allotted to some other person or persons, and for the profit or advantage which any such person or persons to whom the said lands and fields shall be allotted will obtain thereby, as for any loss or disadvantage which any such tenant or tenants, occupier or occupiers, shall or may sustain by the loss of any following or way-going crop in any of the open and common lands or fields by this Act authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, or by means of the said division, allotment, and inclosure; and if in any or either of the said cases last mentioned such recompense and satisfaction shall not be made at the time and in the manner to be appointed by the said Commissioner or Commissioners, then the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall and may, by any warrant or warrants under his or their hands and seals, directed to any person or persons whomsoever, (which warrant or warrants he or they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant accordingly,) cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons required to make such recompense and satisfaction as aforesaid, together with the costs and charges of such distress and sale, rendering the overplus, if any, to the owner or owners of such goods and chattels.

XXV. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall, as soon after his or their appointment as conveniently may be, by some writing or writings under his or their hands to be affixed on the principal outer doors of the several and respective churches or chapels of the parishes or townships in which the lands to be inclosed are situate, or if there be no church or chapel, then in some conspicuous place in the parish, township, or place where such lands shall be, order and direct the course of husbandry that shall be used in, over, and upon the open arable, meadow, or pasture lands or fields to be divided, allotted, and inclosed by virtue of this Act, until the time when he or they shall have made and completed the intended division and allotment thereof, as well with respect to breaking up and laying down, as the ploughing, sowing, fallowing and tilling the same lands and fields; and by the same or any other writing or writings under his or their hands, to be affixed as aforesaid, shall and may make such orders and regulations touching the conduct of the owners and occupiers of the same lands and fields, for the preventing the committing of waste or destruction by any person or persons whomsoever upon any of the lands and fields to be divided and allotted by virtue of this Act, in the meantime and until the allotments and divisions thereof shall be effected, as to the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall seem expedient; all which orders and regulations of the said Commissioners shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties interested therein, their farmers and tenants; and that the said Commissioners shall set and impose such pecuniary penalties and forfeitures upon every person not conforming to such orders and regulations as they shall think necessary, not exceeding 5*l.* per acre; all which penalties and forfeitures shall be paid to such person or persons and for such uses and purposes as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall by any such writing or writings as aforesaid, or any other writing or writings, direct or appoint; and the said Commissioner or Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to raise and levy the same, for the use of the person or persons he or they may consider entitled thereto, by such ways and means as the costs, charges, and expenses of carrying this Act and the said recited Act, 41 Geo. 3. c. 109, into execution may be raised and levied.

XXVI. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall apportion, divide, set out, and allot the said open or common arable, meadow, and pasture lands or fields authorized by this Act to be divided, allotted, and inclosed unto and amongst the several proprietors thereof and persons interested therein, in proportion to their respective shares, rights of common, and all other rights, property, and interest, and in proportion to the true and real value of their several shares, rights of common, and all other rights, property, and interest, and the same, when so apportioned, divided, set out, and allotted, shall be taken to be in lieu and full satisfaction of and for such their said several shares, rights of common, and all other rights, property, and interests, to be ascertained and adjusted by such ways and means and in such manner as to the said Commissioners shall seem just and expedient, but subject to the rules, orders, and regulations herein contained or referred to and authorized to be established concerning the same.

XXVII. That in case any number of the proprietors or persons interested in the lands and fields agreed to be inclosed under the authority of this Act shall deem it expedient and desire to have their allotments thrown together and distinguished by metes and bounds, but not fenced from each other, and of such their desire shall give notice in writing to the said Commissioner or Commissioners, such Commissioner or Commissioners shall and he and they is and are required to set out the several allotments of the said persons so giving notice as aforesaid in one plot or parcel of land, distinguishing the portion of such plot or parcel of land allotted to each of such proprietors by metes and bounds, but not requiring them to make any subdivision fences or other fences, save such ring or outer fences as may be necessary and may be ordered by the said Commissioner or Commissioners to be made for dividing the said plot or parcel of land from the residue of the lands so to be inclosed.

XXVIII. That for the purposes of shortening or rendering straight or otherwise improving any boundary fence or fences between the lands and fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, and the old or other lands thereunto adjoining, or between such allotments and inclosed or other lands, or any of them, and any adjoining lands and grounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners (with the consent of the lord of any manor in which the lands are respectively situate, and of the owners of any such adjoining lands, testified by writing under their respective hands, or under the common seal of any of them being a corporation aggregate,) to set out, ascertain, and determine the boundaries between the lands hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, and any adjoining lands or grounds lying in the same or in any adjoining manor, parish, or place, as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall judge proper for the purposes aforesaid; and after such boundaries shall be so set out, ascertained, and determined as aforesaid, the same shall be made, fenced, ditched, or mounded by such person, in such manner and at such times as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall direct, and shall for ever thereafter be deemed the boundaries between the said allotted and inclosed lands respectively, or (as the case may be) between the said allotments or inclosed or other lands and such adjoining manor, parish, or place; any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIX. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall in and by his award order and appoint the grass and herbage growing and renewing upon all and every the private roads to be set out by him or them within the said lands and fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, to be and for ever hereafter remain to and for the use and benefit of such persons as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall in his or their judgment think best entitled to the same.

And after noticing that the allotments made to any rector or vicar who may be entitled to any glebe lands in such open and common arable, meadow, or pasture lands or fields, or some of such allotments, may probably require some additional buildings, by reason whereof, and in order to render the same of greater value to the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors, it may be necessary that some buildings should be erected thereon, and some necessary division as well as interior or subdivision fences may be necessary to be made, planted and raised in and upon the said allotments or some of them: And that the erecting of such further buildings, and the making, planting, and raising such fences, will be attended with considerable expense, and as the same will probably be more beneficial to the successors of such rectors and vicars respectively than to the rector and vicar in whose incumbency such allotment and inclosure may take place;—

It is Enacted,

XXX. That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors, by and with the consent in writing of the respective patrons of the said rectories and vicarages, and of the ordinary of the diocese for the time being, to erect or cause to be erected for agricultural purposes such further buildings upon the allotment or allotments (which buildings the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors, are hereby required to cause to be insured equal to the value thereof annually in some of the offices in London established for insurance against fire,) so as aforesaid to be set out unto the said rectors and vicars and their respective successors as aforesaid, and also to make, plant, and raise such outer division as well as interior or subdivision fences in and upon the said allotment or allotments as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall judge necessary and proper for the occupation of the lands so to be allotted to the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors, and by any deed or deeds, writing or writings, under the respective hand and seal of such rectors or vicars respectively, and their respective successors, and attested by two or more credible witnesses, by and with the consent in writing of the bishop of the diocese for the time being, to charge such allotment or allotments as aforesaid to be set out for the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors as aforesaid, and the buildings so to be erected thereon, with such sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole two years annual value of the respective allotments so to be set out to the said rectors and vicars respectively, as the said Commissioners shall think necessary for the purposes of and in order to be applied to paying and defraying the charges and expenses of erecting the said further buildings, and of making, planting, or raising such division or subdivision fences, or for either of the said purposes, and in applying for and obtaining the consent of the said bishop, and in exercise of the powers given to and vested in the said rectors and vicars respectively by virtue of this Act and the said recited Act; which sum or sums of money shall be paid to such person or persons as the said Commissioners shall nominate and appoint, in order to be applied or disposed of accordingly; and for securing the repayment of such sum or sums of money, with interest for the same, to grant, mortgage, lease, or demise the allotments as aforesaid to be set out unto and for the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors, as aforesaid, and the buildings so to be erected thereon, unto such person or persons who shall advance and lend the same, his, her, and their executors, administrators, or assigns, for any term or number of years, so that every such grant, mortgage, lease, or demise be made with a proviso to cease and be void, or with an express trust to be surrendered, when the sum or sums of money thereby to be secured, with the interest thereof, shall be respectively fully paid and satisfied; and such mortgagee or mortgagees advancing and lending the money so to be borrowed shall not be obliged to see to the application or be in anywise answerable for the misapplication of such monies or any part thereof and the said rectors and vicars respectively, and their respective successors for the time being shall be and are hereby required and made liable, at the end of every year after the date of such mortgage, to pay to the person or persons to whom such grant, mortgage, lease, or demise shall be made, his, her, or their executors, administrators, or assigns, one thirtieth part of the respective principal monies so to be borrowed, until the whole thereof shall by such annual payments be paid off and discharged, and also to pay and keep down the interest of the said respective monies so to be borrowed, so that the future rectors and vicars of the said respective parishes or townships becoming possessed of such respective lands and fields shall not be subject or liable (and they are hereby respectively discharged from being subject or liable) to pay any further or larger share of such monies than his or their proportion thereof according to such last-mentioned condition, or any interest for the same save only from the day of the death, resignation, or cession of the preceding incumbent of the said rectories or vicarages respectively; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the person or persons who shall advance and lend such monies, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for the more easily recovering the said one thirtieth part of the said principal and the whole of the interest which is enacted annually to be paid, to have, use, exercise, and take such and the same powers and remedies, by entry and distress upon the premises so to be charged, mortgaged, and demised, and sale of such distress, as by the laws now in force are provided for and given to landlords or as they can use and take for the recovery of rack rents in arrear.

xxxii. That it shall and may be lawful for the rectors of the said rectories and the vicars of the said vicarages respectively for the time being, by indentures under their respective hands and seals, with the consent and approbation of the bishop of the diocese for the time being, and of the patron of the said rectories and vicarages, from time to time to lease and demise all or any part of the allotments to be set out and allotted to them respectively by virtue of this Act, to any person or persons whomsoever, for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, so that the rent or rents for the same shall be thereby reserved to such rectors and vicars for the time being by four equal quarterly payments in every year, and so that there be thereby reserved to such rectors and vicars the best and most improved rent or rents that can be reasonably gotten for the same, without taking any fine, foregift, premium, sum of money, or other consideration for granting any such lease, and so that no such leases by any such lease or demise be made dispendible for waste by any express words to be therein contained, and so that there be inserted in every such lease power of re-entry on non-payment of rent or rents to be thereby reserved within a reasonable time, to be therein limited, after the same shall become due, and so that a counterpart of such lease be duly executed by the lessee or lessees to whom such lease shall be made as aforesaid; and every such lease shall be valid and effectual, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

xxxiii. Provided, that in case, through the necessity of situation or any other accident or circumstance, it shall happen that one or more of the said proprietors shall not have an equal or proportionable quantity of boundary mounds or fences allotted to him, her, or them on the said intended inclosure, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, when he or they shall judge it necessary and reasonable, to award, order, ascertain and appoint what sum or sums of money such proprietor or proprietors shall respectively pay and contribute towards making the mounds and fences of the allotments of such other proprietor or proprietors who shall or may have too great a proportion of mounding or fencing allotted to him, her, or them by virtue of this Act, the same to be settled by the said Commissioner or Commissioners in such manner as he or they shall order, direct, or appoint; and the money so ordered, directed, or appointed to be paid shall be raised, levied, and recovered in such and the same manner as the other expenses of this Act are herein or by the said recited Act ordered and directed to be levied and recovered.

xxxiiii. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed or adjudged to extend to revoke, make void, alter, or annul any settlement, deed, will, or lease, or to prejudice any person having any right or claim of dower, jointure, annuity, rent-charge, debt, or incumbrance whatsoever in, out of, upon, or affecting any of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments hereby authorized to be divided and allotted, or which shall be exchanged or assigned in compensation for any other estate or right in pursuance of this Act; but as well the lands allotted as the tenements or other hereditaments which shall be assigned in exchange or as a compensation for any other estate or right shall, immediately after such allotment, exchange, or assignment shall be made, be vested, remain, and enure, and the several persons to whom the same shall be allotted, assigned, or given in exchange as aforesaid shall thenceforth stand and be seized and possessed thereof respectively, to, for, and upon such and the same uses, estates, intents, trusts, and purposes respectively, and subject and liable to such and the same deeds, wills, settlements, limitations, and remainders, conditions, charges, tenures, rents, services, and incumbrances, as the several lands, tenements, and hereditaments in respect whereof such allotments, assignments, and exchanges shall have been made should or would have stood severally limited, settled, or subject or liable to, or been held by, in case the same had not been allotted, assigned, or exchanged, and this Act had not been made or acted upon; save and except such rents and services as shall have been compensated for and extinguished, and such leases and tenancies at rack rents as shall become void, by virtue of this Act, and subject nevertheless to all such mortgages and sales as shall be made by authority of this Act, or of the said Act, 41 Geo. 3.

xxxv. Provided, That all leases, agreements, and tenancies at rack rent subsisting of any part or parts of the lands and grounds hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed at the time of the first appointment of any Commissioner or Commissioners for the inclosure thereof, or which shall be exchanged in pursuance of this Act, shall, so far only as respects the lands hereby authorized to be divided and allotted or exchanged, cease and be void at such time or times as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall by writing under his or their hands direct or appoint, so as the respective lessors or landlords of such lands or tenements do, before or at the respective times at which such leases or tenancies shall be directed to cease, make and pay such satisfaction to the respective lessees or tenants for the loss which shall be sustained by the determination of such leases respectively, so far as regards the said lands the tenancy and leases whereof are hereby authorized to be determined, as shall be mutually settled and agreed between them, or as the said Commissioner or Commissioners, being required by either of the parties, shall ascertain and direct; and the said Commissioner or Commissioners, being so required, are hereby empowered and directed to apportion a reasonable and proportionable part, according to the season of the year, of the rent reserved on any such lease or agreement, for or in respect of the time which shall have elapsed between the last day on which any payment of the rent shall have become due and the determination of any such lease or agreement; and such part of the rent shall be recoverable by such ways and means as may by law be used for the recovery of rent in arrear; and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and directed in every case where such lands or other hereditaments shall be held by virtue of such lease or agreement, together with other lands or hereditaments, by one entire rent, to apportion and determine what part of such rent shall be deducted in respect of such of the lands or other hereditaments in such lease or agreement comprised as to which the same shall be determined as aforesaid, and from what time such deduction shall take place; and the rest of the rent reserved on any such lease or agreement shall, during the remainder of the term thereof, be the rent of and for the residue of such lands and hereditaments, and shall be payable and recoverable in like manner as the entire rent reserved by such lease or agreement shall immediately before such apportionment be payable and recoverable.

xxxv. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners to set out, allot, and award any lands, tenements, or hereditaments whatsoever, whether situate within the boundary of such open and common lands or fields as aforesaid, or adjoining thereto, within the parishes, townships, or places in which the lands to be allotted and inclosed are situated, or any of them, in lieu of and in exchange for any other lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the same parishes, townships, or places respectively, or any of them, or within any parish, township, or place adjoining to the said parishes, townships, or places respectively, or any of them; provided that all such exchanges shall be ascertained, specified, and declared in the award of the said Commissioner or Commissioners, and be made with the consent in writing of the proprietor or proprietors of the hereditaments and premises which shall be so exchanged, whether such proprietor or proprietors shall be a body or bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporation aggregate or sole, rector, parson, vicar, or other ecclesiastical person or persons, or a tenant or tenants in fee simple, or for life, or in fee tail, special or general, or by the courtesy of England, or for years determinable on any life or lives, by and with the consent of the lessor or lessors, but not otherwise, or with the consent of the guardians, husbands, committees, or attorneys of or acting for any such proprietor or proprietors who at the time of making such exchange or exchanges shall be respectively infants, femes covert, idiots, lunatics, or under any other legal disability, or who shall be beyond the seas, or otherwise disabled to act for themselves, himself, or herself, or of the trustees or feoffees for charitable, parochial, or other uses, or of the person or persons having power to sell and dispose of the hereditaments and premises which shall be so exchanged (such consent to be testified in writing under the common seal of the body politic, corporate, or collegiate, and under the hands of the other consenting parties respectively); and all and every such exchange and exchanges so to be made respectively shall be good, valid, and effectual in the law to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Provided nevertheless, that no exchange shall be made of any lands, tenements, and hereditaments held in right of any church, chapel, or other ecclesiastical benefice, without the consent, testified as aforesaid, of the patron thereof, and of the bishop of the diocese in which such benefice shall be situate.

xxxvi. Provided, That the lands, grounds, and hereditaments which shall be allotted or exchanged by virtue of this Act shall be held in like manner, under and by virtue of the same terms and rents, and shall be thereafter deemed to be of the same quality and tenure, as the lands, tenements, or hereditaments in respect of which such allotment or allotments or exchanges shall be made were held or deemed to be of immediately before the making of every such allotment or exchange respectively: Provided always, that when the tithes of any common lands or fields agreed to be allotted or inclosed under the provisions of this Act belong to different persons or do not extend over the whole of such common lands or fields it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or Commissioner to allot the tithes as well as the land, in order that all persons may have tithe-free allotments in lieu of lands which were before exempted from tithes.

xxxvii. Provided, That all costs, charges, and expenses attending the making any exchanges and partitions shall be paid and borne by the several persons making such exchanges and partitions in such manner and in such proportions as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall, by any writing under his or their hands, order and direct.

xxxviii. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall and may scour out, widen, and alter all such ancient ditches, drains, watercourses, tunnels, gates, and bridges in the respective open common arable, meadow, or pasture lands or fields (or any one of them) hereby authorized to be allotted and inclosed, and also shall and may set out, widen, and make any new ditches, drains, watercourses, tunnels, gates, and bridges in, through, and over the lands and grounds hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, (the expenses thereof to be raised and defrayed as the other expenses of executing the powers of this Act are herein directed to be raised and defrayed,) and of such breadth, depth, and dimensions, and in such directions, as the said Commissioners shall think proper; and the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall and may and they are hereby directed and required in and by their awards to order and determine by whom, and at whose expense, and at what time and in what manner, the said ditches, drains, watercourses, tunnels, gates, and bridges shall be afterwards cleaned, scooped, and maintained, and also shall and may direct, order, and award all or any of the streams, springs, and watercourses within the said lands and fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed to be carried, diverted, and turned into such courses, and through, over, and across such parts of the lands and fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, as they the said Commissioners shall in their discretion judge proper for the draining or watering the several allotments so to be made as aforesaid.

xxxix. Provided, That if it shall be necessary, for the purpose of carrying off the water from such drains as may be made under the authority of this Act, to make drains through any land not to be inclosed, divided, or allotted under the same, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and their servants to enter upon such lands, and make such drains accordingly, due compensation being made for any damage done to such lands thereby; and it shall be lawful for such Commissioners in their award to direct by which of the persons to whom any allotment shall be made in any field so divided and inclosed such drains shall be maintained, and the persons so directed to maintain such drains shall maintain the same accordingly, and have the same authority to enter upon such lands as hereinbefore described, for the purpose of maintaining the same, as is hereinbefore given to the said Commissioners and their servants for the making of the same, making due compensation for any damage which may be done to such lands.

xl. That in case seven-eighths in number and value of the persons being seized, possessed of, entitled to, or interested in any open and common arable fields, or open and common meadow or pasture lands or fields, in England or Wales, and any rights of common or any other rights therein, being persons having such estates or interests in the said lands, fields, or rights as are hereinbefore required for the purpose of consenting to any such proposed inclosure as aforesaid, shall by themselves or their known agents, or if covert, infants, idiots, or lunatic, then by their husbands, guardians, or committees, at a public meeting to be called for that purpose in the manner and after the notice hereinbefore provided for, or at some adjournment thereof, enter into an agreement for such inclosure under the provisions of this Act, but without the intervention of Commissioners, and for the discharge of the lands to be inclosed from all rights of common, and for the granting of compensation to such persons as may be possessed of such rights, whether consenting parties to any such agreement or not, and shall sign or seal (as the case may require) the schedule hereinafter mentioned, every such inclosure shall, from and immediately after the expiration of the notices of such schedule having been deposited as hereinafter mentioned, be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes (subject only to the right of appeal hereinafter given) as if the same had been effected by means of Commissioners to be appointed under this Act.

XLI. That before any land shall be inclosed under the provisions herein contained for inclosure without the assistance of Commissioners, a schedule of such land, containing a correct description thereof, and signed by the persons proposing to make such inclosure, and also by the persons whose consent to such inclosure is hereinbefore required to be given, and whenever the inclosure shall be proposed to be made by any person having a less estate than a fee simple or under disability, then accompanied by a copy of the several limitations contained in the deed or will under which such person may be entitled, shall be deposited with the clerk of the parish, township, or chapelry, and also with the clerk of the peace of the county in which the land proposed to be inclosed may be situated; and a notice of such schedule having been so deposited (such notice containing a description of the land intended to be inclosed) shall be published in some newspaper usually circulating in the county wherein such land is situated, at three several times in three successive months after such schedule shall have been so deposited, and a copy thereof shall be affixed on the principal outer door of the church or chapel of the parish or township in which the land may be situated, before the commencement of divine service, or if there be no church or chapel then in some conspicuous place there, for three successive Sundays after such schedule shall have been so deposited: Provided always, that whenever such inclosure shall be proposed to be made by a corporation aggregate, or the consent of a corporation aggregate shall be necessary thereto, the affixing of the common seal of such corporation to such schedule shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this Act.

XLII. That it shall be lawful for any person who shall be seized or possessed of or entitled in possession to any land or tenement in respect of which compensation may be proposed or ought to be given, or to which any right of common may attach, or who, having no land in the common field in which an inclosure is proposed to be made, may nevertheless have a right of common therein, whether such person shall be tenant in fee simple, or fee tail, general or special, or for life or lives, or by the courtesy of England, or for any other estate of freehold, or for years determinable on any life or lives, and also for any person whose right of common may be merely personal, and for the guardian, trustee, feoffee for charitable or other uses, husband, or committee of such person who shall be an infant, idiot, lunatic, or feme covert, or under any other disability, to consent and agree to the compensation which may be offered or which ought to be given by the persons making such inclosure, not only as to the nature and amount of such compensation, but as to the manner in which the same shall be secured, and to sign the agreement for that purpose; but no such agreement shall be valid if entered into by any person having a limited interest only, or by any incumbent of a benefice, without the consent of the same persons and to be testified in the same manner as is hereinbefore required in the case of such persons being respectively parties to any agreement for inclosure: Provided always, that in case such compensation or any part thereof shall be agreed to be paid in money, and such money shall belong to any persons who in the said first-recited Act are mentioned or described as persons incapacitated to receive the same, then such money shall be paid and applied in such and the same manner as money belonging to such persons is directed to be applied under the provisions of the said first-recited Act.

XLIII. That whenever any agreement for compensation may or may not have been entered into, and notwithstanding any such agreement, if any person interested in any such inclosure, other than a person who may have signed such agreement or otherwise consented thereto, shall object to such inclosure, or to the nature or amount of any compensation which may be offered, or to the manner in which such compensation may be proposed to be secured, or on account of there not having been any compensation offered, it shall be lawful for him to state such objection in writing, and to deposit the same with the clerk of the peace at any time within six calendar months from the expiration of the aforesaid notices of the deposit of such schedule; and such schedule and copy of limitations, and every statement and document annexed to such schedule, and every statement of objection which may be so deposited, shall be open to the inspection of any person interested, and the deposit of such statement of objections in manner aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to be a sufficient notice to all persons interested in such inclosure.

XLIV. That the clerk of the peace shall cause the schedule and statement of objections, and all other papers relating thereto, and which shall have been so deposited with him, to be laid before the Justices at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at some adjourned meeting thereof, which shall be held not earlier than twenty-eight days next after the deposit of such objections, in and for the county, riding, or division wherein the lands proposed to be inclosed, or the greater part thereof, shall be situate; and all such objections shall be heard and determined by the said Justices in manner hereinafter provided.

XLV. That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons interested in the said allotments at any time to mortgage, sell, demise, or dispose of all such estate, right, title, interest, and property which he, she, or they shall then have in or to the said open and common arable, meadow, or pasture lands or fields (or any one of them), and of the allotments set out in lieu thereof, before the execution of the award of the said Commissioner or Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, and he or they are hereby authorized and required, upon the conveyance or other instrument by which such sale or disposition is confirmed being produced to them, and the execution thereof proved to their satisfaction, to allot the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof respectively; and if not so allotted such conveyance or other instrument shall be valid and effectual in law, notwithstanding it may have been so made before the execution of the said award.

XLVI. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, in case he or they shall be requested by writing under the hand or hands of any person or persons being tenant for life, or other person being in possession of, but not having the absolute estate or interest in, any lands hereby authorized to be allotted and inclosed, to sell and dispose of any part or parts of the allotment or allotments belonging to such person or persons, for the purpose of defraying his, her, or their shares of the costs, charges, and expenses of putting into execution this Act and the said recited Act, 41 Geo. 3. c. 109, and the expenses of fencing, ditching, subdividing, and inclosing such allotment or allotments; and the said Commissioners shall accordingly sell such part or parts of such allotment or allotments, either by private contract or public auction, as they shall think proper, to such persons or persons as shall be willing to purchase the same, and shall convey the same to such purchaser or purchasers by any deed under their hands and seals; and the receipt of the said Commissioners for such money shall be a full and complete discharge to such purchaser or purchasers for such purchase-money; and the said Commissioners shall apply the purchase-money in or towards the payment of such expenses, and in fencing, ditching, subdividing, and inclosing the said allotment or allotments respectively, and not otherwise; but such purchaser or purchasers shall not be liable to see to the necessity or expediency of such sale, nor be answerable nor accountable for the misapplication of such purchase-money; and upon the payment of such purchase-money or purchase-moneys into the hands of the said Commissioner or Commissioners, the lands so to be sold as last aforesaid shall immediately thereupon be vested in fee simple in possession (if such allotment or allotments is or are made in right of freehold) in the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and the same shall be thenceforth held in severalty by such purchaser or purchasers thereof respectively, as his, her, or their private property, and shall be allotted accordingly by the said Commissioner or Commissioners.

XLVII. Provided, That where any allotment or allotments so to be made to any person or persons being tenant for life or in tail or other person being in possession but not having the absolute estate or interest in any lands hereby authorized to be allotted and inclosed, which stand limited to the same uses, shall be situated partly in one and partly in another parish or township or place, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, in case they shall be requested as last hereinbefore mentioned, to sell and dispose of, and to convey and assure to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, any part or parts of the said allotments belonging to such person or persons in any one or more of the said parishes, townships, or places, in manner in that behalf hereinbefore mentioned, as well for the purpose of defraying his, her, or their share or shares of the costs, charges, and expenses of putting into execution this Act and the said recited Act, and the expenses of fencing, ditching, subdividing, and draining such allotment or allotments in respect of such of the said lands as are situated within the same parish wherein the said allotment or allotments so sold may be situated, as for and in respect of such of the said lands or other hereditaments or allotments as may be situated in any other township or place: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to raise by such sale any further or greater sum of money than the person or persons part of whose allotment or allotments may be sold or disposed of would have been empowered and authorized to borrow or charge upon his, her, or their allotment or allotments under or by virtue of the said recited Act or this Act, reckoning 5*l.* for each and every acre of such allotment or allotments.

XLVIII. Provided, That it shall not be lawful for the proprietor or person from whose allotments lands shall be as aforesaid deducted to charge his, her, or their lands or hereditaments, by virtue of the said recited Act or this Act, with any money towards payment of such expenses, unless the money to arise by such sale shall be less than the sum of 5*l.* per acre; and then and in such case it shall be lawful for such person or persons to charge his, her, or their estate or estates with, or to raise by mortgage thereof, or other means or ways, as mentioned in the said recited Act or this Act, such further sum of money as may be necessary for the payment of the expenses of executing this Act, and subdividing the said allotments, as, together with the value of the lands so deducted, shall not exceed the amount that might be borrowed and charged on the lands to be divided and allotted at the rate of 5*l.* for each and every acre.

XLIX. That the charges and expenses of surveying, valuing, planting, measuring, dividing, and allotting the said open and common arable, meadow, or pasture lands or fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, and of fencing the lands of the persons from whom a deduction of land shall be made as hereinbefore directed, and also the expenses of preparing and enrolling the awards of and the allowances and payments to be made to the said Commissioner or Commissioners, umpire, and surveyors respectively, as hereinbefore directed, and all other charges and expenses incident to or attending the carrying this Act into execution, shall be paid, borne, and defrayed by all the proprietors of the lands and hereditaments so authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, or exchanged, in such proportions as the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall settle, adjust, and determine, to be paid at such time or times and to such person or persons as they the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall order and direct; notice thereof in writing under their hands being given thirty days before the time such payment shall be required: Provided always, that in case any number of persons whose allotments shall not exceed two acres respectively shall have required their allotments to be thrown together as aforesaid, such persons shall not be liable to pay, bear, or defray any part of the charges and expenses as aforesaid: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for four-fifths in number and value of the proprietors and persons interested as aforesaid, at any meeting to be held as hereinbefore is mentioned, to agree that any persons whose allotments shall not exceed five acres respectively shall not be liable to pay, bear, or defray any part of the charges and expenses aforesaid, and such persons shall by virtue of such agreement be exempt from all liability thereto.

L. That once at least in every year, to be computed from the first appointment of such respective Commissioner or Commissioners, the accounts of the said Commissioners, Commissioner, or umpire, containing a true statement of all and every sum and sums of money by them received and expended, or due to them for their trouble and expense in the execution of this Act and the said recited Act, 41 Geo. 3. c. 109, until such account shall be finally settled, shall, together with the vouchers relating to the same, be by them laid before three of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county in which the lands to be inclosed, or the greater part of them, shall be situated, to be by them examined and balanced; and such balance shall be stated in the books of account to be kept in the office of the clerk of the said Commissioners; and no charge or item in such account shall be binding on the parties concerned, or valid in law, unless the same shall be so allowed: Provided also, that it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to be appointed in pursuance of this Act, or any of them, to retain or pay to themselves or clerk, out of any monies to be received by them or over which they may have any controul in the execution of any inclosure to be effected under this Act, any sum or sums of money on account of any allowance hereinbefore directed to be made to such Commissioners and clerk respectively beyond one-third of such allowance as they shall respectively be entitled to as aforesaid, until after the expiration of six calendar months from the day of the delivery of the award hereby directed to be made in the church of the parish in which the lands inclosed may be situate.

LI. That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall make and execute awards, with maps or plans thereto annexed, and shall cause the same to be enrolled in manner as directed by the said recited Act; and such awards shall be deposited in the respective parish churches of the parishes wherein the lands so to be allotted and inclosed, or the greater part thereof are situated.

LII. That all and every the clauses, provisions, and enactments contained in the said Act, 41 Geo. 3. c. 23, and 1 Geo. 4. c. 109, or such of them as are applicable to and consistent with the purposes and object of this Act, shall and may be in full force and effect for carrying into effect the allotments, division, inclosures, and exchanges hereby authorized to be made, as fully and effectually as if such clauses, provisions, and enactments had been herein repeated and re-enacted, and had been made part of this Act, with such alterations and variations as would adapt them and render them applicable to the object and purposes of this Act.

LIII. That it shall be lawful for all persons who shall think themselves aggrieved by anything done by virtue of this Act or the said recited Act (except in cases where the things so done are herein or by the said Act, 41 Geo. 3. c. 109, declared to be final, binding, and conclusive,) to appeal to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held in and for the county, riding, or division wherein the lands or the greater part thereof, in respect of which the matter of complaint may arise, shall be situated, or any adjournment thereof, within six calendar months next after the cause of complaint shall have arisen, first giving or causing to be given twenty-eight days notice thereof in writing to the said Commissioner or Commissioners, or one of them, or to the parties intended to be appealed against; and the Justices at their said Quarter Sessions, or any adjournment thereof, are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the matter of every such appeal, and shall also hear and determine any appeal against the sum agreed to be paid to any Commissioner or surveyor, or against the adoption of any plan, map, admeasurement, or valuation, or against any rules, conditions, and principles which may have been agreed upon in manner aforesaid for the guidance of the Commissioner or Commissioners or umpire in making allotments, and shall also hear and determine all objections (if any) which may have been made in manner aforesaid to any inclosure without the assistance of Commissioners, or to the nature or amount of the compensation which may have been offered, or to the manner in which the same may have been proposed to be secured, or on account of there not having been any compensation offered, and to make such order in every such case respectively, and to award such costs, as to them in their discretion shall seem meet, and by their warrant to levy the costs awarded by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the parties respectively adjudged to pay the same, rendering the overplus (if any) to the respective owners of such goods and chattels, after deducting the reasonable charges of such distress and sale; and every determination of the said Justices shall be final and conclusive on all parties concerned; and no such complaint, appeal, or proceeding shall be removed or removable by certiorari or any other writ or proceeding whatsoever into any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or elsewhere; but in case such appeal shall appear to the said Justices to be frivolous, vexatious, or without foundation, then the said Justices shall award such costs to be paid by the appellant or appellants as to them in their discretion shall seem reasonable, and to be levied in manner aforesaid.

LIV. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any case authorize the inclosure of any waste whatsoever, whether the soil thereof shall or shall not be vested in the lord of any manor, and whether with or without the assent of the lord of such manor; nor shall anything in this Act contained prejudice, lessen, or defeat the right, title, or interest of the respective lords for the time being of any such manors in or to any of the royalties or seignories, fisheries, manorial and other rights, customs, and services incident or belonging to the said respective manors or any of them: but that such respective lords and all and every person and persons claiming in trust for him or them, as such respective lords for the time being of the said several and respective manors, shall and may at all times for ever hereafter have, hold, receive, take, and enjoy all rents, services, courts, perquisites and profits of courts, fines, goods and chattels of felons and fugitives, felons of themselves and put in exigent, deadlands, waifs, estrays, and forfeitures, privileges and jurisdictions of their several and respective manors, to the respective lords thereof, or any person or persons claiming under him or them, incident, belonging, or appertaining, except in respect of any land or estate for which compensation is hereinbefore authorized to be made, in as full, ample, and beneficial manner, to all intents and purposes as the same might or ought to have been held and enjoyed in case this Act had not been passed.

LV. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the inclosure of any open or common arable fields, or of any open or common meadow or pasture lands or fields, situate and being within ten miles of the city of London, or of any open or common meadow or pasture lands or fields situate and being within one mile of any city or town of five thousand inhabitants, or within one mile and a half of any city or town of fifteen thousand inhabitants, or within two miles of any city or town of thirty thousand inhabitants, or within two miles and a half of any city or town of seventy thousand inhabitants, or within three miles of any city or town of one hundred thousand inhabitants; provided that in all cases the number of such inhabitants, shall be ascertained by the then last Parliamentary census thereof, and that such distance shall be measured in a direct line from the town hall if there shall be any town hall, or if there shall be no such town hall then from the cathedral or church, if there shall be only one church, or if there shall be more churches than one then from the principal market place of any such city or town.

LVI. That the words and expressions hereinafter mentioned, which in their ordinary signification have a more confined or a different meaning, shall in the construction of this Act, except when the nature of the provision or the context of the Act exclude such construction, be interpreted as follows; (that is to say,) the words "proprietor," "owner," and "person" shall respectively extend as well to an individual as to a body politic, corporate, or collegiate, and to a corporation as well aggregate as sole, whether such corporation be eleemosynary or civil, ecclesiastical or lay; the word "benefice" shall extend to and be taken to comprehend rectories, vicarages, donatives, perpetual curacies, parochial and consolidated chapels and churches, and chapels having a district assigned thereto; the word "tithes" shall extend to any rent-charge or payment in lieu of tithe; the word "land" shall extend to every species of land, whether arable, meadow, or pasture, and whether freehold, copyhold, or customary, or held by any other tenure, and as well to one piece or parcel as to any number of pieces or parcels of land; the word "parish" shall be construed to include any parish, township, liberty, precinct, vill, village, hamlet, tithing, chapelry, or any other place or division or district of a place, whether parochial or extra-parochial; and every word importing the singular number only shall extend and be applied to several persons or things as well as one person or thing.

LXVII. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect, prejudice, or derogate from the estate, right, title, interests, privileges, or authority of the King's most excellent Majesty, His heirs and successors, in right or in respect of his Duchy of Cornwall, or of the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, or to authorize, sanction, or permit the inclosure of any lands, grounds, tenements, or hereditaments, whatsoever, or give any right or title whatsoever to any encroachment or intake heretofore made thereupon, or otherwise affect any lands, grounds, tenements, or hereditaments whatsoever belonging to or held of or being within and forming part and parcel of any manor, messuage, or tenement, open field, pasture, common, or other land or ground whatsoever, or any advowson, rectory, or vicarage, parcel of the possessions of the Duchy of Cornwall, or wherein or whereunto, or over, upon, or with reference whereto, His Majesty, in respect of his said Duchy of Cornwall, or the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, may have or claim to have any estate, right, title, or interest whatsoever, nor at any time or times be admitted in any court of law or equity or otherwise considered as evidence upon any occasion to affect in any manner, His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in right or in respect of his said duchy of Cornwall, or the Duke of Cornwall for the time being.

LXVIII. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the inclosure of any open lands in, to, or over which His Majesty, in right of his crown or of his duchy of Lancaster has or may have or claim to be entitled to any estate, right, title, or interest whatsoever.

LIX. Saving always to the King's most excellent Majesty, his heirs and successors, and to all and every other person and persons, bodies politic and corporate, ecclesiastical and civil, his, her, or their respective heirs, successors, executors, and administrators, (other than and except the persons to whom any allotment or compensation shall be made by virtue of this Act, in respect of the interest or property for which such allotment or compensation shall be made to them in respect of such right, and except such other rights and interests as the intents and purposes hereby authorized shall absolutely require to be barred, destroyed, or extinguished by this Act, and all persons respectively claiming under them or in remainder after them,) all such estate, right, title, interest, claim, and demand as they, every or any of them, had or enjoyed of, in, to, or out of the said open and common arable, meadow, or pasture lands or fields hereby authorized to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, before the passing of this Act, or the carrying the powers thereof into execution, or could or might have held or enjoyed in case this Act had not been made, or the powers thereof had not been carried into execution.

CAP. CXVI.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. All presentments to be made under this Act.
2. The Act 36 Geo. 3. (I.) repealed after 1st Feb. 1837, and all appointments of inspectors of commons, &c. made under that Act to cease.
3. Explanation of terms.
4. Justices to hold presentment sessions for the purposes of this Act at the times and places appointed by the grand jury.
5. Grand juries at assizes to fix times and places for presentment sessions; and may direct what number of copies of applications shall be printed and distributed.
6. Only one such sessions in cities and towns.
7. Collectors to make returns of cess payers for grand jury.
8. Grand jury to fix the number of cess payers to be associated with the Justices for the purposes of this Act.—Proviso.
6. Justices to choose a chairman, and select by lot the number of cess payers to be associated with them.—As to the powers of the cess payers so associated.—In case cess payers do not attend the Justices may act alone.
10. Declarations of Justices and cess payers.
11. Promulgating notices.
12. Application for works where to be made.
13. Applications for works to be charged upon two or more baronies.
14. Applications to be lodged with high constable or secretary of grand jury.—Secretary to arrange and number them.
15. County surveyor may make application respecting public works if none already made.
16. Manner in which applications are to be made.
17. Applications to be decided upon at sessions.—Justices may direct the surveyor to prepare specifications and forms of tender.—Chairman to endorse applications adopted.—Adjourned sessions for opening tenders and proposals.
18. Proceedings in case the Sessions refuse to approve any applications for public works.
19. If it is probable that the expense of any work will exceed 100l. the opening of the tenders may be referred to the grand jury.

20. Works of maintenance.
21. Provision in case of death or illness of applicant.
22. Advertisement for tenders and proposals.—Contents of tenders, &c.
23. At adjourned sessions tenders to be opened and contract entered into with person making lowest proposal.—If no proposal made application to be void.—If no presentment made contract to be void.
24. Security to be by recognisance to the King.
25. Schedules of applications to be prepared by secretary of grand jury, and printed.
26. Treasurer to applot the sum required, and return the applotment to the grand jury.
27. *Approved applications for new works where the sum exceeds 50*l.* to be certified by grand jury.*
28. Sessions holden next after the assizes at which such application shall have been certified to proceed with the same like other applications.
29. The sheriff to impanel grand jury not more than five nor less than one day before each assizes.—Sheriff, &c. to attend and impanel the jury.—Jurors to be sworn.
30. The oath not to bind grand jurors to secrecy.
31. One freeholder or leaseholder from each barony to be placed upon the grand jury panel.
32. Certain county officers not to serve on grand juries at presentment sessions.
33. Grand jury so impanelled to be the grand inquest of the county.
34. Grand juries not to enter on criminal business until commission is opened; and the fiscal business to be concluded before the opening of the commission.
35. Except in case of special application made to Judge of assize upon cause shewn; and in presenting for expenses of witnesses.
36. Grand jury to be called over at stated times by foreman.—Penalty for default of attendance.—Penalty for neglect of foreman.
37. Grand jury, as soon as impanelled, to proceed with fiscal business, and to make or refuse presentments on all applications supported by presentment sessions.
38. Grand jury not to make any presentment unless application approved at presentment sessions.
39. Appointment of county surveyors.
40. Surveyors liable to be dismissed.—Surveyors may appoint deputies in case of illness.
41. Salaries of county surveyors.
42. Duties of county surveyors.
43. Surveyors shall keep an office open, and appoint a clerk.
44. Surveyor or clerk not to fill any other county office, &c.
45. Appointment of secretary of the grand jury.
46. Such secretary not to be a clerk of the peace, &c.—Penalty on such secretary for neglect of duty.
47. Grand juries not to name persons in presentments by whom works are to be executed.—All works, printing, &c. to be executed by contract.—All contracts to be by sealed tenders and proposals.—No county officer, &c. eligible to contract.
48. Secretary to keep a book containing abstracts of contracts.
49. *Any two Justices may order sums not exceeding 20*l.* for repairing sudden damages to bridges, and 10*l.* to roads, &c.*
50. Presentment for widening or repairing public roads.—Proviso in case of post roads.
51. Presentment for making and repairing footpaths.
52. Presentment of roads, &c. to be repaired by contract for any time not exceeding seven years.—Levy for payment.
53. For removing doubts as to contracts made under 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 78.
54. County surveyor to cause roads to be repaired in case of neglect on the part of contractor.
55. Presentment for new lines of road to be levied on the barony; in case of post roads on the county and barony.—Map of the line to be lodged with secretary along with application.—Service of notices upon occupiers of land.
56. Presentment for lowering hills, filling up hollows, building and repairing bridges, &c. upon public roads.
57. Where a river or road is the boundary of two counties, only one-half the sum shall be raised off either.
58. Line of new road may be surveyed upon certificate of surveyor allowed by two Justices.
59. Penalty for using new road for certain time after making.
60. Presentment of old roads to be stopped up.
61. Commissioners of Public Works, on application of Postmaster General, and with consent of Lord Lieutenant, to cause post roads to be repaired.
62. Amount of money expended in such repairs to be certified to the grand jury of the county, who shall present the same.
63. Expenses of repairing bridges between counties to be borne equally.
64. Proceeding in case of grand jury refusing or neglecting to make presentment.
65. If road repaired is turnpike, expenses of repair to be charged on the tolls.—Receiver of tolls to be appointed.
66. Presentment for obtaining correct maps of alterations of county roads.
67. Presentment for constructing, repairing, &c. piers and quays on navigable lakes or rivers, and making approaches, &c.
68. Such piers or quays to become public property.
69. Presentments for building, repairing, &c. court houses and sessions houses.—Expenses may be raised by half-yearly instalments.
70. If sessions are directed to be held in any place where there may not be a sessions house, the surveyor to prepare specifications, plans, &c.—Grand jury to examine them, and if they think proper present that a sessions house shall be built, and a sum levied off the county for that purpose.—If no presentment made Lord Lieutenant to direct Commissioners of Public Works to build sessions house.
71. Grand juries may advertise for specifications, &c.
72. Presentment for purchase of sites for court houses and sessions houses.—Lands purchased to be conveyed to Commissioners.—When purchases are directed to be made under valuation of a jury, Commissioners may issue their warrant to the sheriff, and the same proceedings shall take place as directed by recited Act.
73. Presentment for rents of court and sessions houses.
74. Court house for county at large built within a county of a city, &c. to be deemed part of the county at large.

75. Commissioners may sell old court houses.—Proceeds to be applied to county purposes.
76. Presentment for fuel for court house.
77. Presentment for rent of petty sessions room.
78. Grand juries may present for sums not exceeding 1,000*l.* to be paid as consideration for surrenders of leases.
79. Presentment for session house keepers and interpreters.
80. Presentment for gallows, milestones, &c.
81. Presentment for support of fever hospitals and dispensaries established by subscription.—Accounts of hospital and dispensary to be separate.
82. Presentment for erection of fever hospitals not to exceed double the amount of private subscriptions.
83. Presentment for support of county fever hospitals.—Account of receipt and expenditure to be laid before Sessions.
84. Presentment for building or repairing county fever hospital;—to be raised by instalments in six years.—Presentment being certified to Lord Lieutenant he may direct advance of money.—Treasurer to repay money so advanced.
85. Presentment for the maintenance of a county infirmary.
86. Presentment for salary of surgeon to a county infirmary.
87. Penalty for giving or promising any money, &c. to obtain the appointment to any office or employment under this Act.—Persons appointed to office to subscribe a declaration at the next Assizes, which shall be preserved.
88. Presentment for the support of houses of industry.
89. Presentment for support of lunatic wards in houses of industry.
90. Presentment to repay advances by order of Lord Lieutenant to defray expenses of a board of health.
91. Presentment for erecting, &c. district lunatic asylum.
92. Presentment for support of district lunatic asylum.
93. Presentment for repaying advances from Consolidated Fund for erecting and supporting any district lunatic asylum.
94. Presentment for purchase-money and rents of sites of lunatic asylums.
95. So much of 7 Geo. 3. as relates to the erection of an infirmary at Donegal repealed.—Lord Lieutenant may direct it to be removed.
96. Presentment for building, &c. diocesan schools and school-houses.
97. Presentment for coroners.—No coroner to receive more than at the rate of 2*l.* for each inquest.
98. Certificate of coroner to be laid before Sessions.—Coroner may be examined upon oath.
99. Presentment for medical witnesses examined on inquests.
100. No presentment for coroner guilty of neglect of duty.
101. Presentment of money for Constabulary Force.
102. Presentment for constables superannuated for wounds, &c.
103. Presentment for constables superannuated for age or infirmity.
104. Presentment for expenses of special constables.
105. Presentment for expenses of prosecutors and witnesses in cases of felony.
106. Presentment for compensation of persons maimed, and to representatives of persons murdered in certain cases.
107. Presentment for rewards to prosecutors of felons.
108. Presentment for expense of removing offenders.
109. Presentment for maintenance of deserted children.—If application is disallowed, the Judge may order a sum in certain cases.
110. Presentments for salaries of county officers, &c.—Proviso.
111. No presentment to be stated without certain certificates.
112. Affidavit of emoluments to be made by clerk of the crown and clerk of the peace.
113. Further presentment for clerk of the crown and other officers in certain cases.
114. Presentments for secretaries to include stationery.
115. Presentment for expense of registry books and lists of voters.
116. Presentment for copies of weights and measures, and for stamps and remuneration of inspectors.
117. Presentment for expenses of suing treasurers and contractors, &c.—Taxed bill of costs to be laid before sessions.
118. Presentment for salary and expenses of Commissioners of Valuation and allowances of valuers.
119. Presentment for trackways on banks of navigable rivers.
120. Owners of ferries may erect bridges and take tolls, on certain conditions.—Grand Jury may present for the purchase of the property in such bridges to open them toll-free.
121. Power for grand juries to redeem tolls payable on certain bridges.—Presentment of sums necessary to redeem.
122. Not to affect the power to make presentments for erecting of certain bridges.
123. Nor the authority to make presentments for clearing rivers if previously applied for and approved at baronial presentment sessions.
124. Powers reserved to grand juries to make presentments under Prison Act.
125. Grand jury may superannuate keepers, turnkeys, or matrons, on certain recommendations and certificates.—Presentment for such superannuation.—Not to exceed two-thirds former salary.
126. Powers reserved to grand juries to present for advances, &c. from Commissioners of Public Works.—Application to be made at sessions.
127. All presentments shall contain a reference to the chapter and section of the Act under which they are made, &c.
128. Advances may be made to contractors in certain cases not exceeding three-fourths of the cost of the work.
129. Contractors liable to be summoned before Justices at petty sessions for wages.
130. Contractors to procure certificate from county surveyor of the completion of their work, and lodge notice with secretary of grand jury of application for payment.—Secretary to lay notices, &c. before presentment Sessions.—Such applications to be dealt with in like manner as applications for presentments;—and allowed or disallowed by grand jury at their discretion.—Proviso.
131. Contractors for printing to obtain certificate from clerk of the peace, &c.
132. Treasurer not to pay if application traversed.
133. All presentments and applications by contractors for payment liable to traverse.—Notice of traverse to be given.
134. Traverses of presentments for damages.—Presentment of sums found by jury.
135. Compensation for malicious injury.—Notice of injury to be given within six days to churchwardens, &c.—Application to Sessions;—to be laid before grand jury with opinion of Sessions indorsed, and presentment made or refused, &c.
136. Applications when and where to be made.
137. Persons injured to give in examinations upon oath before a Justice within three days after offence committed.
138. When presentment is opposed or application disallowed, a jury may be sworn to try the matter.—Their verdict to be final.—Costs.

139. No presentment for compensation to be recovered by certiorari;—nor traverse allowed.—No action or suit in cases provided for by this Act.
140. Mode of obtaining compensation for injury committed near boundaries of counties.
141. No fees to be taken.
142. Clerk of the crown to deliver copies of presentments, &c. to county treasurer;—to be printed and distributed;—presentment for printing Schedules, &c.
143. Imperative presentments to be printed separately.
144. Copies of all presentments made to be laid before Parliament.
145. Power to re-present arrears to be levied as sums originally presented.—Surplus monies applicable to general purposes of county.—Affidavit of arrears before re-presentment.
146. Application of sums presented for works not executed.
147. Appointment of high constable and collector for each barony in counties.—Collectors in cities and towns.—In case of vacancy Justices to appoint pro tempore.
148. High constable and collectors to give security.—Affidavit by them of fair levy.—May appoint deputies.
149. Treasurer to issue his warrants to collectors after receiving the copies of presentments.—Money to be collected and paid in two days before next Assizes.—Treasurer's warrant to be in force for two years.
150. Nothing herein to repeal 7 Geo. 4. c. 62, &c.—Assessments shall be levied according to valuations made, so soon as they shall be completed.
151. Collector of grand jury cess upon receipt of warrant to send to the seneschal an account of the money required and desire it to be apportioned.—Notice of meeting of inhabitants.—Apportioners to be chosen, who shall apportion the sum to be levied.—Affidavit of justness of apportionment.—Collector to levy accordingly.
152. Grand jury cess may be levied by distress and sale.—If not expedient to proceed by distress, notice to be left requiring payment within six days, and if not paid in that time complaint to be made to a Justice, who shall summon the party.—In default of appearance, goods of party may be distrained in any part of county;—or in any other county, upon oath before Justice of such county.
153. Grand jury cess shall be paid by person in the occupation of the lands and premises at the time of the levy.
154. For removing doubts as to the power of the grand jury of the county of Kilkenny making certain presentments.
155. Treasurer to cause any public building to be insured that may be so directed by a grand jury.
156. Drivers to keep the left side of the road.—Penalty.
157. No house to be built within thirty feet of the centre of any road.—No lime-kiln or windmill shall be built within one hundred feet of the centre of any public road.
158. Swine wandering on roads may be seized and impounded, and owner fined, &c.—Notice of seizure to be posted.
159. Persons scouring or filling any ditches without consent of surveyor; or owners who do not scour ditches or drains within ten days after notice; or persons who ride or drive unnecessarily on footpath or leave obstructions or nuisances on any road; or without consent of surveyor or contractor shall scrape any public road; to forfeit not exceeding 20s.—Surveyors may fill drains, &c.;—and any person by order of Justices may remove nuisances;—and levy the expenses thereof.
160. Surveyors, &c. not liable to penalties for acts done in the discharge of their office;—but fineable in certain cases.
161. Surveyor or contractor may require owners of land to prune hedges or trees injuring roads.—Owners not complying to be summoned before Justices at petty sessions.—Justices may order hedges or trees to be pruned by owner;—on refusal of owner, surveyor or contractor may do it.—Owner to pay expenses, which may be levied by distress and sale.—Proviso.
162. Power of surveyors and contractors to dig for materials;—and to make drains.—Satisfaction for damage to be assessed by three householders.
163. Materials not to be taken to the injury of any road or building.—Penalty.
164. Penalty for assaulting surveyors or contractors, or for injuring public works.
165. Proceedings in case any public work erected by presentment shall be wantonly injured.
166. Applications relating to salaries and contingencies to be lodged with the secretary.
167. Dublin grand juries to transact fiscal business in open court.
168. No stamp duty upon contracts and recognizances under this Act.—Proceedings for breach of contract before assistant barrister under certain amount.
169. Forfeitures to be levied by distress and sale, and if not otherwise directed, divided between informers and some hospital.
170. The party distraining not to be a trespasser in consequence of irregularity.
171. General issue may be pleaded.
172. Justices not to take money for affidavits.—False swearing punishable as perjury.
173. Weights and measures.
174. Money to be the present currency.—Schedules part of the Act.—Notices, &c. not to be impeached on technical grounds.
175. Baronies, &c. may be divided, or may be united.
176. Certain counties may be divided into two ridings or districts.
177. Lord Lieutenant to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases to be tried within the said divisions, and all other matters consequent upon such division.—Not to abridge the rights of sheriffs, &c.
178. Repayment of money advanced out of the Consolidated Fund.
179. If grand jury refuse or neglect to present money which ought to be presented to repay monies advanced out of the Consolidated Fund, the Court shall make an order which shall have the form of a presentment.
180. No presentment for such repayment unless demanded within five years, &c.
181. Saving for repayment of advances under 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 48.
182. Treasury may direct 8,000*l.* recovered from late treasurer of Tyrone to be paid to the new treasurer, for payment of contractors, &c.
183. Grand jury empowered to present the said sum of 8,000*l.* to be levied off the county by half-yearly instalments.
184. Commencement of Act. Presentments made before commencement of this Act to be accounted for under former Acts.
185. Act to extend only to Ireland.
186. Act may be altered.

By this Act,

After reciting that the laws heretofore made and in force in Ireland for the purpose of regulating the fiscal powers of grand juries have become obscure and complicated from their multiplicity, and their provisions have been found in many respects insufficient, and that it is expedient, with a view to secure the better execution of public works, and facilitate the transaction of local business, that the said laws should be consolidated and amended, and that a uniform system of raising money by presentment of grand juries should be established in all counties in Ireland, whether counties at large, counties of cities, or counties of towns :—

It is Enacted,

I. That from and after the commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any grand jury of any county, county of a city, or county of a town, except the county and city of Dublin, at any Assizes to make any presentment (save and except in the cases hereinafter specially reserved and excepted) for the execution of any public work whatsoever, or for raising any money, unless under the authority and by virtue of the provisions of this Act.

And after reciting that by 36 Geo. 3. (I.), whereby the grand jury of any county in Ireland in which there is a common consisting of not less than 2,000 acres of land is empowered to appoint an inspector of such common, and such inspector is empowered to appoint sub-inspectors as therein mentioned, and the grand jury is also empowered to appoint yearly salaries to such inspector and sub-inspectors, and in order to raise a sum sufficient for that purpose yearly at the Assizes for the county to present such sum to be raised off the occupiers of the land surrounding such common and meadow therewith or fronting to the same as shall be necessary for the purpose aforesaid and not exceeding the rate in the said Act mentioned : and that it is expedient that the said last-mentioned Act should be repealed ;—

It is Enacted,

II. That from and after the 1st of February 1837 the said Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed ; and that from and after the said 1st of February 1837 all appointments of inspectors, sub-inspectors, and other officers already made or in the meantime to be made by or under the authority of such last-mentioned Act, and the offices, powers, and authorities of all such inspectors, sub-inspectors, and other officers respectively, and all salaries or other allowances to such inspectors, sub-inspectors, and other officers respectively, shall cease and determine.

III. That in the construction of this Act the words “ Lord Lieutenant of Ireland ” shall extend to and include any Lords Justices or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being ; and every half barony shall be considered and deemed a barony ; and wherever the word “ county ” shall occur the same shall be deemed and taken to include and import any county at large, or county of a city, or county of a town and city, or city or town and county ; and wherever the word “ Assizes ” shall occur in this Act it shall be deemed and taken to include and import “ presenting term ” ; and whenever in this Act any authority is given to, or any duty is directed to be performed by, any Judge of Assize, such authority shall be understood as given to, and such duty as directed to be performed by, the Justices of the King’s Bench in Dublin in any presenting term ; and every word importing the singular number shall extend and be applied to several persons, animals, or things as well as to one person, animal, or thing ; and every word importing the masculine gender shall extend and be applied to a female as well as to a male, unless the contrary thereof shall be expressed, or that any such construction as aforesaid shall be inconsistent with or repugnant to the context.

IV. That from and after the commencement of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for every Justice of the Peace in and for any county, county of a city, county of a town, or city and county in Ireland, not being a stipendiary Magistrate, to attend, and all such Justices are hereby required to assemble, from time to time, and with the cess payers associated with them as hereinafter appointed, to hold a special or presentment sessions for the purposes of this Act, and in such place or places and at such time and times, within any and every such county, as the grand jury of the same shall have appointed pursuant to the provisions hereinafter following.

V. That it shall be lawful for the several grand juries in every county in Ireland, and they are hereby required, at each Assizes to appoint, by presentment, certain places within their respective counties (videlicet, one in each barony or half barony,) where, and certain times when, presentment Sessions shall be successively holden previous to the next Assizes for such counties respectively for the purposes of this Act, as hereinafter set forth ; and such presentment shall appoint the hours of the day between which such Sessions shall be respectively holden ; and such presentment shall appoint the last meeting of such Sessions to be holden at the county court house ; and it shall also be lawful for the grand jury at every such Assizes to direct, by presentment, what number of copies of the schedules of applications to be made at each such Session shall be printed and distributed by the secretary of the grand jury.

VI. That the grand jury for each county of a city or county of a town shall appoint one such presentment Sessions to be holden in the same for the purposes aforesaid ; and all applications for works, the expenses whereof are to be levied off such county of a city or town, shall be made thereat.

And, for the purpose of enabling the grand jury to prepare such list of cess payers as hereinafter mentioned,—

It is Enacted,

VII. That every high constable or other collector of money levied by grand jury presentment shall, on the day when the grand jury shall be first impanelled at each Assizes, deliver to the secretary of the grand jury a return of the names and places of residence of the 100 persons, being males of full age, if so many there be, and if not, then of the whole number of persons resident or in actual occupation of lands and tenements in each county of a town, county of a city, or barony, who, not being in holy orders nor any minister of religion, and not being Justices of the Peace, shall have been charged with and shall have paid for land actually occupied by them the highest sum or sums for grand jury rates or cess for and in respect of any lands in such county of a town, county of a city, or barony, under the last previous applotment, and that in such list he shall set forth the sum so paid by each such cess payer respectively, and shall classify them according to the amount paid by each, and that the secretary shall immediately lay such return before the grand jury.

VIII. That every such grand jury as aforesaid shall at each Assizes fix and determine the number of persons, not being more than twelve nor less than five, proper, with reference to the extent and circumstances of each county of a city, county of a town, or barony, to be associated with the Justices at the presentment Sessions to be holden therein for the purposes of this Act, and shall from the return aforesaid make out a list of double the number so determined upon of persons, with their additions and abode, who being males of full age resident and in actual occupation of lands or tenements within such county of a city, county of a town, or barony respectively, shall according to the return aforesaid have paid the highest sum or sums for grand jury rates, under the last previous applotment in each such county of a city, county of a town, or barony respectively; and the secretary of the grand jury shall deliver or cause to be delivered to each of the persons included in such list a copy thereof, and shall also deliver a copy thereof to the Justices assembled at each presentment Sessions, to be held under the provisions of this Act: Provided always, that at every Assizes after the passing of this Act, except the first Assizes, the grand jury shall before they shall make out such list strike out of the return aforesaid the names of one half of the persons whose names appeared on the list made at the then preceding Assizes, selecting in the first instance the names of the cess payers who were associated and acted with the Justices at the presenting Sessions.

IX. That at every meeting of such presentment Sessions the majority of the Justices then present shall choose one of their number to preside thereat, and that when only two Justices shall be present the senior of them preside, and that when only one Justice shall be present such Justice shall preside; and such chairman shall have in addition to his vote a casting voice in case of an equality of voices; and immediately after the appointment of such chairman, and before entering upon any other business, the name of every person included in the list of cess payers made out by the grand jury in manner before appointed for each county of a city, county of a town, or barony in which such Sessions shall be held, written upon separate pieces of parchment or card as nearly as may be of equal size, with his respective additions and abode, shall be put into a box, to be, as well as the said pieces of card or parchment, for that purpose provided by the secretary of the grand jury, and the chairman appointed to preside at each such Sessions shall in open court draw out, one after another, such number of the said cards or pieces of parchment as the said grand jury may have fixed and determined to be the proper number of cess payers to be associated with the said Justice or Justices at each such Sessions respectively; and if any of the men whose names shall be so drawn shall not appear, then such and so many more of such cards or pieces shall be drawn as may be necessary until the number of cess payers appointed as aforesaid to be associated with the said Justice or Justices shall be completed, or until the whole of such names shall be drawn; and such number of the said cess payers so first drawn and appearing, or such lesser number of them as shall appear when drawn, shall be associated with the said Justice or Justices, and have and exercise jointly with such Justice or Justices all power and authority in the business of such Sessions: Provided always, that in the case of any county at large the cess payers associated in manner aforesaid with the Justice or Justices at the presentment Sessions holden in the county court house shall, save and excepting the cess payer selected as hereinafter mentioned, have no voice, power, or authority in respect of any applications the expense whereof it may be proposed to levy off the county at large, but only in respect of those applications the expense whereof it may be proposed to levy off the barony or half barony or portion thereof wherein such court house may be situate; and provided also, that in the case of any county at large, such one of the associated cess payers as shall be for that purpose selected by the Justices and associated cess payers at the presentment Sessions holden in the county court house, and such one of the associated cess payers as shall be for that purpose selected by the Justices and associated cess payers at each of the baronial presentment Sessions to be holden in and for each barony or half barony in such county, shall be associated with the Justices at the presentment Sessions holden in the county court house, and have and exercise jointly with such Justices all such power and authority as by this Act conferred upon the Justices and cess payers at such Sessions in respect of so much of the business of such Session as shall relate to the county at large: Provided always, that if none of the cess payers named in the list hereinbefore directed to be made out by the grand jury shall attend any presentment Sessions to be held under this Act it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices alone to do all matters and things authorized by this Act to be done thereat by the Justices and cess payers associated in the business thereof.

X. That every Justice shall previously to acting at any presentment Sessions make and subscribe in open court the declaration marked (A.) in the Schedule (Z.) to this Act annexed; and that every cess payer associated with such Justice or Justices in manner aforesaid shall previously to acting at any such Sessions make and subscribe in open court the declaration marked (B.) in the Schedule (Z.) to this Act annexed; which said declarations any one of such Justices or the secretary of the grand jury is hereby authorized and required to administer; and the chairman at each such Session shall and he is hereby required to make out and deliver to the secretary of the grand jury of the same county a list of the names of all the Justices and cess payers who shall have made and subscribed such declarations respectively at the Sessions where he had presided; and every such secretary shall from time to time, without unreasonable delay, deliver the said list and all the declarations so made and subscribed to the acting clerk of the peace, to be by him preserved among the records of the same county.

XI. That all notices required by this Act shall be promulgated by advertisements affixed on or immediately adjacent to the doors of every police station or barrack, and at the places (if any) appointed by the grand jury for posting notices within each parish, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the clerk of the petty sessions of the district off which it is proposed that the larger portion of the expense of such work is to be raised, and to the county surveyor and secretary of the grand jury; and such notices shall be affixed and delivered ten days previous to the first day appointed for holding the presentment Sessions at which the application for the work is to be made: Provided always, that when any application shall be made by any county surveyor for any public work in the manner hereinafter mentioned it shall not be necessary for such county surveyor to post any notice of such application.

XII. That all applications for works, the expense whereof it may be by such applications proposed to levy off the county at large or off the barony in which the county court house may be situate, shall be made at the presentment sessions to be holden thereat, and all applications for works the expense whereof it may be proposed as aforesaid to levy off any other barony shall be made at such presentment Sessions as shall be holden in and for such barony: Provided always, that all applications for the works hereinafter mentioned shall, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding, be made at the presentment Sessions holden for the barony in which the works included in such applications may be locally situate; (that is to say,) all applications for lowering any hill or filling up any hollow, or both, on any public road, and for making the road thereof with stones and gravel, or for building, rebuilding, repairing, altering, or enlarging any bridge, pipe, arch, or gullet, built of stone or bricks or wood, under or on any such road, or filling or gravelling over any such bridge, arch, pipe, or gullet, or for building or repairing any wall or part of a wall necessary to the support of or to prevent any steep banks of earth from falling upon any such road, or in erecting any fence, railing, or wall for the protection of travellers from dangerous precipices or holes lying on the side of any public road, or for maintaining any dispensary.

XIII. That the applications for any new works which it is proposed to charge upon two or more baronies of any county, but not upon the county at large, shall and may be made at the presentment Sessions holden for the barony off which it is proposed that the larger portion of the expense of such work is to be raised, without making the same at the presentment Sessions for each of such baronies.

XIV. That every application to be made at presentment Sessions shall be lodged with some high constable of the county in which such application is to be made fifteen days, or with the secretary of the grand jury ten days, at least before the day appointed for holding of the first presentment Sessions in such county after any assizes; and every high constable with whom any such applications shall be lodged shall transmit such applications to the secretary of the grand jury ten days before the day appointed for holding such first sessions; and such secretary shall keep an office open, for the purpose of receiving such applications, during ten days immediately preceding the last day upon which such applications are required to be lodged with the secretary, and the said applications shall be open to public inspection without fee or reward; and such secretary shall, on the receipt of each application, indorse or cause to be indorsed thereupon the time when the same is lodged, and number and arrange all such applications as the works therein comprised may be proposed to be defrayed by the county at large or by any barony thereof, and shall make an abstract thereof and an index thereto referring to the numbers which he shall mark on each application; and such secretary shall produce and deliver all the applications which shall have been lodged with him or delivered at his office as aforesaid at the sessions proper as hereinbefore provided for the consideration of the same, together with the abstract thereof and the index thereto.

XV. That the county surveyor shall examine all the applications so lodged with the secretary of the grand jury as aforesaid; and in case no application shall have been made for the necessary surface repairs of any public road or footpath, or the keeping open of any drain adjoining any public road, or any other public work which to the said county surveyor shall appear necessary, it shall be lawful and he is hereby required to make application for the same in the manner hereinafter appointed at the next presentment Sessions to be holden for the county or barony by which the expense of such work ought to be defrayed, and it shall not be necessary for the said surveyor to lodge any application made by him with the secretary of the grand jury, but such application being delivered to the chairman at such sessions shall be dealt with thereat in all respects in the same manner as the other applications which shall have been lodged with the secretary of the grand jury.

XVI. That every application to presentment Sessions for any presentment other than for a public work shall be made by or on behalf of the person or persons requiring such presentment, and every application to any such Sessions for any public work shall be made by two persons paying grand jury cess, or by the county surveyor; and every application to presentment Sessions, whether for a public work or any other purpose whatsoever, shall set out the title of the Act authorizing such presentment, with the year of the King's reign, chapter, and section, as printed by His Majesty's printer, and shall specify the probable expense of the proposed work, and whether the money proposed to be raised thereunder is to be levied off the county at large, or some or what barony or other denomination of land thereof, and shall be made in some one of the forms marked (A.), (B.), (C.), (D.), and so forth, in the Schedule (X.) to this Act annexed, when any of such forms shall be found fitting and suitable; and every such application shall be signed by the person or persons by whom the same shall respectively be made with his or their own proper hands; and it shall not be lawful, save as hereinafter provided, for the secretary of the grand jury to receive any application which shall not have been made in manner and form herein appointed.

XVII. That at each presentment Sessions to be holden as hereinbefore provided the Justices and cess payers associated in the business of such sessions shall take into consideration all such applications as may be laid before them in manner aforesaid, and examine into the posting or serving of the notices of all such applications, when a notice shall be necessary, and into the merits of such applications, and the conformity thereof with the provisions of this Act; and the said Justices and cess payers shall after such examination decide by majority of voices upon every such application, and whether the same ought to be adopted or rejected, and whether wholly or in part, or conditionally in the event of the expense thereof not exceeding a certain specified sum, and what modification thereof, if any, may be proper; and if such Justices and cess payers shall approve of any proposed work either wholly or in part, or conditionally, or of any modification thereof, they shall, save in the case of applications hereinafter otherwise provided for, direct the county surveyor to prepare a proper form of tender for the execution of the same, together with such specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations as may be necessary, expressing the nature and extent of such works, and, if the Sessions shall so direct, the quantity per perch and the description of the materials proper to be employed in performing and executing the same, and the term within which such work ought to be completed, and such other particulars as the said Justices and cess payers shall think fit; and such chairman shall indorse all applications accordingly which shall be adopted and approved, and sign his name thereto, and deliver all such applications, so indorsed, to the secretary of the grand jury; and such county surveyor shall deliver such form of tender, specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations in respect of the work to which each application shall relate, as soon thereafter as the same can be conveniently prepared, to the secretary of the grand jury; and the said Justices and cess payers shall appoint the manner in which notice for the receipt of tenders and proposals for the execution of such works shall be given, and the period during which they shall be received, and shall adjourn such sessions until some day previous to the next assizes, to be then holden for the opening of such sealed tenders and proposals, such day not being later than thirty days from the day of such adjournment.

XVIII. That in case the Magistrates and cess payers at two successive presenting Sessions shall refuse to approve of any applications made for any public work, it shall be lawful for any of the persons who made application at such Sessions for such work to present a memorial to the Judges of Assize at the assizes holden for the county in which such Sessions may have been holden, stating such application and the disapproval thereof at the presenting Sessions, and praying that the Judges may direct the grand jury to make a presentment for such work; and such memorial shall be lodged with the secretary of the grand jury at least one month before the first day of such assizes, and a copy thereof shall be served on each of the chairmen at such presenting Sessions at least one month before the first day of such Assizes, and the person presenting such memorial shall also cause to be inserted in some newspaper published or circulated in the county notice of his intention to apply at the assizes for such order, and such notice shall be published at least three times before the first day of such assizes; and upon proof that such memorial and notices were served and published it shall be lawful for the Judges of Assize, or any of them, to cause a jury to be impanelled of persons returned to serve on juries at said assizes, to try and inquire whether such work is a proper one to be executed, and if so to ascertain and state the expense thereof; and if the jury shall find that such work is a proper work to be executed it shall be lawful for the Judge, if he shall think fit, to direct the grand jury to consider such presentment; and it shall be lawful for the grand jury at such assizes to present that such work shall be done either for the sum stated by the jury to be sufficient for the execution thereof, or such lesser sum as they shall think proper, or to refuse to make such presentment: Provided always, however, that no such memorial shall be proceeded upon unless the memorialist shall, at the time of lodging such memorial with the secretary, deposit with him the sum of £20l., as a security for such costs and expenses as the Judge shall direct to be paid thereout to any person or persons who may appear to oppose such application, or any witness summoned to attend on the hearing of the application.

XXIX. That when the county surveyor considers it probable that the expense of any work will exceed the sum of 100l. it shall be lawful for the Justices and cess payers at the presentment Sessions, if they so think fit, to order a notice for the receipt of such tenders to be inserted in some newspaper circulated in the district, and to direct that the opening of the tenders for such work shall not take place at the adjourned sessions, but that such tenders shall be opened by the grand jury at the commencement of the following assizes, and such grand jury shall open such tenders accordingly, and proceed in all matters relating thereto in the same manner as the Justices and cess payers at the adjourned sessions are hereinafter directed to proceed in respect of tenders and contracts, and shall afterwards, in due order, take the application for such work into their consideration, in the same manner as if the tenders had been opened at the adjourned sessions, anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

And in order to lessen the expense of keeping public roads in repair, and to obviate the necessity of making frequent application to presentment Sessions therefor,—

It is Enacted,

XX. That whenever any application shall be made in the manner hereinbefore provided for gravelling or repairing with small stones any public road, or for keeping open the drains on the side of any public road, or for gravelling or repairing any footpath on the sides of any such road, or for repairing the battlements of any bridges upon any such road, the Justices and cess payers associated in the business of such sessions shall consider whether it may not be proper to contract for keeping such road or footpath in repair, and if they shall be of that opinion they shall fix and determine the period, being not more than seven years, for which it is expedient that a contract should be made for that purpose, and the county surveyor shall insert such period in his specification and form of tender for such works.

XXI. That in case any person who shall have signed any application in pursuance of this Act shall die, or be prevented by sickness or any unavoidable necessity from appearing at such sessions, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices and cess payers thereto to examine any other persons or persons who shall have knowledge of the matter, and to decide upon such application; anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. That the secretary of the grand jury shall, upon being furnished by the county surveyor with the specification or form of tender for the execution of any such work as aforesaid, and the maps, plans, sections, and elevations belonging thereto, notify, by public advertisement or otherwise in such manner as the Justices and cess payers at such presentment Sessions shall have directed, his readiness to receive sealed tenders and proposals for the execution of such work during such period as shall have been appointed by the same authority for the reception of the same, and the time to which such Sessions has adjourned for the opening of such tenders and proposals, and that forms thereof may be obtained at his office; and such secretary shall accordingly prepare a sufficient number of forms of such tenders and proposals, and furnish to any person who shall demand the same a copy thereof, receiving therefor the reasonable cost of preparing the same, not exceeding the sum of 6d.; and each of such sealed tenders and proposals shall contain a statement of the lowest sum for which the party making such proposal is willing to contract for the performance of the work or works specified and described in such notification, and shall be subscribed with the name, description, and residence of the party so desirous to enter into such contract, and also the names, descriptions, and residences of not less than two sufficient persons willing to be bound, jointly and severally, with him for the due and faithful performance of the said contract, within the time and in the manner thereby prescribed, in a penal sum double the amount of the said sum mentioned in such tenders and proposals, if the said sum shall not exceed 1000l., but if such sum shall exceed 1000l., then in a penal sum exceeding the sum mentioned in such tenders and proposals by 1000l. in addition thereto; and all maps, plans, sections, and specifications relating to any such work prepared by the county surveyor shall be open to public inspection in the office of such secretary without fee or reward.

XXIII. That at the meeting of each such adjourned presentment Sessions as aforesaid the secretary of the grand jury shall in open court produce, duly numbered and arranged and with the seals unbroken, all the tenders and proposals which may have been delivered to him, and shall open consecutively all those relating to the same public work, and so soon as the lowest proposal made for the performance of each such work shall be ascertained the party making such proposal and his sureties shall be called; and if the said party and his sureties shall appear, and shall satisfy the Justices and cess payers at such Sessions upon oath or otherwise, of the sufficiency and ability of each and every of them to answer and make good the penalty hereinbefore specified for the non-performance of such contract, and that such proposal has not been made for any unfair or fraudulent purpose and shall thereupon enter into security for the due performance of such contract, conditioned in such penalty as aforesaid, such proposal shall be accepted, and the party making the same shall be declared entitled to execute the work to which such proposal may refer, if the same shall be presented by the grand jury; but if the party making such proposal and his sureties shall not appear when called, or shall fail to satisfy the Justices and cess payers at such sessions in any of the penalties lars aforesaid or shall decline to enter into such security as aforesaid, then and in such case the proposal of the party making default as aforesaid shall be null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and the next lowest proposal shall be ascertained and dealt with in the same manner, and so on until the said security shall be entered into and the contract duly completed; Provided always, that if no proposal shall be made in respect of any work within the time limited for receiving the same, the application for such work shall be void and of no effect whatsoever; and provided further, that if the grand jury of the county at and for the assizes then next holden shall not make any presentment on the application in respect of which any contract shall have been made according to the provisions hereinafter mentioned, then and in such case such contract shall be null and void to all intents and purposes, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIV. That such security so to be entered into by contractors under this Act and their sureties shall be a recognizance to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and of like force, validity, and effect as other recognizances made to the King's Majesty; and at such adjourned presentment Sessions any Justices present or the chairman is hereby authorized to take such recognizance, and the secretary of the grand jury shall prepare the same, and come provided therewith, so as to prevent delay; and the expense of preparing the same, not exceeding 1s., shall be defrayed by the party or parties entering thereinto; and such recognizance shall be preserved in custody of such secretary until the condition of such recognizance shall have been fulfilled, and shall then be delivered up to the connusee or connuses therein named, or to any person by him or them duly authorized, to be cancelled.

XXV. That so soon as may be possible after the presentment Sessions shall have been holden at all the places and times appointed therefor in each county, the secretary of the grand jury shall prepare and make schedules of the contents of all applications (save and except the applications to be certified as hereinafter provided), approved of wholly or in part, and which may have been delivered to him for such purpose by the chairman at each sessions, including in one schedule all such applications for works proposed to be charged and raised on the county at large, county of a city, or county of a town, and in other separate schedules (videlicet, one for each barony,) all such applications for works proposed to be levied upon each barony, arranging all such applications in alphabetical order, and noting on the face of each schedule the particulars of the decision of the presentment Sessions on each application; and such secretary shall forthwith cause copies of such schedules to be printed and distributed in such manner as shall have been authorized and directed by grand jury presentment at the assizes immediately preceding; and the said secretary shall deliver a copy of such schedules to each high sheriff of the county for the time being, and to each county surveyor, and shall, on the day when the grand jury shall be next impanelled, as hereinafter directed, deliver one copy of the said printed schedules, together with the several applications, and annexed thereto any specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations of the works to which such application shall relate, which shall have been prepared by the county surveyor, and any contract which shall have been made for the performance of such works, to the foreman of such grand jury, and shall also deliver another copy of the said schedules to the Judge of Assize upon his arrival; and the said secretary shall keep another copy of the said schedule in his office, for the inspection of the public, during three complete days at least immediately before the day when such grand jury shall be first impanelled as hereinafter provided.

XXVI. That so soon as the secretary of the grand jury of each county shall have made such schedules, and totted up the amount of the sums required by the several applications, with reference to the contracts relating thereto, to be raised at such assizes on the county at large, the treasurer of such county shall apportion the same according to the usual mode of assessment on the respective baronies or half baronies; which apportionment together with a copy of the presentments made at the preceding assizes, he shall return to the foreman of the grand jury at the time when they shall be first impanelled as hereinafter provided.

XXVII. That if any such application made at presentment Sessions as aforesaid shall be for making any new road, or building any new bridge, or erecting, enlarging, repairing, rebuilding, or finishing any house or other building, the probable expense whereof shall exceed the sum of 50*l*., and if the Justices and cess payers at such sessions as aforesaid shall approve of such application, either wholly or in part, or of any modification thereof, they shall direct the county surveyor to prepare such specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations as may be necessary, expressing the nature and extent of such works, and the materials proper to be employed in performing and executing the same; and the chairman of such sessions shall indorse such application accordingly, and sign his name thereto, and deliver such application so indorsed to the secretary of the grand jury; and such secretary shall lay each and every such application before the grand jury to be impanelled at the assizes held next after such application shall have been approved at such sessions, to be certified by the foreman thereof, who shall certify the same accordingly; but it shall not be lawful for the grand jury at such first assizes held after the presentment Sessions whereat such applications hereinbefore described shall have been approved to make any presentment thereupon.

XXVIII. That at the first meeting of the presentment Sessions to be holden next after the assizes at which such application for any of the purposes last mentioned shall have been so certified as aforesaid for the same barony or for the county at large at which such application shall have been made, the county surveyor shall lay the specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations prepared as aforesaid in respect of the same before the Justices and cess payers at such sessions for their consideration, who shall examine such specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations, and such other specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations as may be submitted to them, and shall decide by a majority of voices whether the same ought to be adopted or rejected or what modification of such specifications, maps, plans, sections or elevations may be proper in respect of each such application, and shall, if need be, direct the county surveyor to alter or modify the same accordingly, and to prepare a proper form of tender for the execution of such works, expressing the nature and extent of such works, and the materials proper to be employed in performing and executing the same and the term within which such work shall be completed, and such other particulars as the said Justices and cess payers shall think fit to prescribe, and shall deliver the specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations which shall be so approved to the secretary of the grand jury, and shall appoint the manner in which notice for the receipt of sealed tenders and proposals for the execution of such work shall be given, and the period during which they shall be received; and such sealed tenders and proposals shall be opened at the first adjournment of such sessions to be made for opening sealed tenders and proposals; and thereupon such applications, and such tenders and proposals relating thereto, shall be included in the schedule of applications to be prepared and laid before the grand jury at the then next succeeding assizes, and shall be subject to such and the like regulations in all respects as other applications and other tenders and proposals are subject to under the provisions of this Act.

XXIX. That every sheriff, immediately on receiving the precept appointing the day for opening the commission at the next assizes in his bailiwick, shall inspect the schedules to be delivered to him as aforesaid, and confer thereon with the county surveyor or surveyors, and thereupon, having regard to the quantity of business which it shall appear likely that the grand jury may be called upon to transact, shall fix and appoint, for impannelling the grand jury under the provisions of this Act hereinafter set forth, such day previous to the day for opening the commission of assize as in his discretion may seem fit, such previous day not being more than five clear days and not less than one clear day before the day appointed for opening the said commission; and such sheriff is hereby authorized and required, in manner heretofore practised according to law for summoning persons to serve on grand juries in Ireland, to summon and return a sufficient number of persons, qualified according to law to serve as grand juries in Ireland, to attend at the usual place of holding assizes upon the day by such sheriff so fixed; and the persons so to be summoned are hereby required to come and appear agreeably to the exigency of said summons, under like penalties and subject to like forfeiture of issues as persons heretofore summoned to appear and serve on grand juries at any assizes throughout Ireland, and to serve, under and subject to the like penalties and liabilities, until discharged from such attendance in due course of law; and on the day appointed for such attendance such sheriff shall attend with his sub-sheriff and assistants, and shall, or in the necessary absence of the sheriff the under-sheriff shall, proceed to impanel the said grand jury in all respects, so far as may be possible, and with like solemnities, as heretofore practised according to the law for the impannelling of grand juries at the several assizes, in Ireland; and the clerk of the crown shall attend at the time and place aforesaid, and shall in such manner and form as hath heretofore been used in the swearing of grand jurors administer to each of the grand jurors to be impanelled as aforesaid the oath marked (C.) in the Schedule (Z.) to this Act annexed.

XXX. That it shall and may be lawful for any grand juror impanelled in Ireland to disclose any matter or thing relative to the making or refusing any presentment for or concerning public works or monies, or the expenditure of any money raised thereby; and that the oath taken by grand jurors in Ireland, so far as it regards any obligation of secrecy, shall not be construed or held to extend or relate to any of the functions of grand jurors in or concerning such presentments of public works or monies, or any fiscal concerns whatsoever, nor any office or function of a grand juror other than the functions of such grand juror in matters of a criminal nature.

XXXI. That from and after the commencement of this Act the sheriff of each county shall in framing the panel of persons summoned to serve on the grand jury of such county at each assize to observe the rule hereinafter following; (that is to say,) he shall place first on such panel for each barony or half barony in such county (if there shall be ten or more baronies or half baronies therein) the name of some person having in such barony or half barony freehold lands of the yearly value of 50*l.* and upwards, or leasehold lands of the yearly value of 100*l.* over and above the amount of rent payable out of or for such leasehold lands: so that as far as can be one fit and competent person having lands of the value aforesaid, and resident in each barony, if the same can be found therein respectively, shall be placed upon such panel; and having in such manner selected such one fit and proper person for each barony and half barony, or so many as he can so select, the sheriff shall complete the said panel in such manner as now by law authorized and directed; and the persons taken from the panel so framed shall be and constitute the grand jury or inquest of such county, anything in any writ, precept, or venire facias expressed or directed, or any law, statute, usage, or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding, and as if such grand jury were altogether composed of freeholders: Provided always, however, that any presentment or indictment formed or made by any grand jury in Ireland shall not be liable to be traversed, quashed, or in any manner impeached by reason of the grand jury not being selected as aforesaid, but any sheriff who shall wilfully omit or neglect to follow the rules hereby made for the selection of the grand jury shall be liable, on a complaint made to the Judge of Assize, to be fined for breach of the provisions of this Act such sum as such Judge shall think proper, in addition to any other penalty or punishment to which he may by law be liable.

XXXII. That it shall not be lawful for any stipendiary Magistrate, or the treasurer of the county, or the secretary of the grand jury, surveyor or high constable or collector of any barony or half barony, or clerk of the crown, or clerk of the peace, or coroner of any county, to serve upon the grand jury at any assizes, or to act as Justice or associated cess payer at any presentment sessions to be holden under the provisions of this Act for the county wherein he shall hold such office.

XXXIII. That the said grand jury so impanelled as aforesaid shall be and be deemed to all intents and purposes to be, and shall constitute, the grand inquest of the same county at and for the assizes then to be holden, and shall, save as hereinafter otherwise provided, perform and discharge, and be bound to perform and discharge, all the duties, offices, and functions which any such grand jury might have performed and discharged or would have been bound to perform and discharge if the same were impanelled before the Judge of Assize in manner heretofore practised according to law, and subject to the like forfeitures, penalties, and liabilities, and shall possess and exercise all and every the powers, privileges, and authorities which grand juries impanelled before the Judge of Assize in manner hitherto accustomed have possessed and exercised or ought to possess or exercise under and by virtue of the laws in force in Ireland, save as may be by this Act otherwise provided; and such grand jury shall not depart, save in case of adjournment as hereinafter mentioned, until discharged by the Judge of Assize; and the Assizes of each county shall, for the purposes of this Act, but only as respects matters connected with presentments for raising or accounting for or paying money or relating to public works, be deemed to commence from the impannelling of such grand jury as aforesaid.

XXXIV. That the grand jury impanelled as aforesaid shall not be competent to receive any bill of indictment, or to present any nuisance or offence, or to enter upon any criminal business whatsoever, or to perform any functions appertaining to grand jurors, other than those relating to presentments for raising money or accounting therefor, or public works, or the general fiscal concerns of the county, until the Judge of Assize shall open the commission; and the whole of such fiscal business shall be concluded by such grand jury at or before the opening of such commission; and all the presentments for raising money, or anyhow respecting public works, shall be delivered to the clerk of the crown at or before such time, save as hereinafter provided; and after opening such commission with the accustomed formalities the Judge of Assize shall at the usual time direct the grand jury to attend in court, and cause to be administered, in manner and form heretofore practised according to law, to each of the persons composing the same, such oath as has been or ought to have been heretofore administered to such persons.

by such Judge or Justices; and the said grand jury shall then and thereupon be and become to all intents and purposes fully competent to the exercise of all functions of grand jurors whatsoever, save the making any presentment for raising money, or respecting public works, or such other business of a fiscal nature as has been hereinbefore directed to be concluded before opening the commission, or the first day of such term as aforesaid.

xxxv. That it shall and may be lawful for such Judge, upon a special application to be to him or them for that purpose made by the grand jury or otherwise, and upon cause shewn for granting the same, to order and direct that the grand jury shall and may transact, after and notwithstanding the commission shall have been opened, any such matter relating to presentments for raising or accounting for money or public works, or the fiscal concerns of the county, as may be stated in such application; and by force of such order such grand jury shall be and become competent to transact the same, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and provided further, that it shall and may be lawful for any grand jury, at each and every assizes, to present at any time before they are discharged such sum or sums of money as shall be ordered by the Court to be paid to witnesses for their expenses as by this Act hereinafter directed.

xxxvi. That each grand jury shall, for the whole period during which they shall sit, be called over each morning at sitting by the foreman of such jury, and at all other times when the number of grand jurors present shall be less than by law required for the performance of the functions of a grand jury; and any grand juror who shall make default in his attendance at any of such times shall for every such default incur a penalty of 40s., and such default shall be reported by the foreman to the Judge of Assize; and unless the same shall be excused on the ground of illness, or other good and substantial reason to the satisfaction of such Judge, such fine and penalty shall be by the said Judge confirmed and declared absolute, and recovered and applied in the same manner as fines and penalties imposed on jurors for any defaults or misbehaviour may now by law be recovered and applied; and if the foreman shall fail to call over the jury at the times hereinbefore appointed, or to report the absence of any juror upon such call, he shall incur a penalty of 10*l.* for each such default, to be in like manner recovered and applied; provided that nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the authority of any Judge to enforce the attendance of any grand juror as such Judge may now enforce such attendance.

xxxvii. That the grand jury shall, upon being impanelled and sworn before the sheriff as aforesaid, forthwith proceed to transact in open court all such business relating to presentments for raising money, public works, contracts, and the fiscal concerns of the county as may be appointed for them, and to consider and decide upon all applications which shall be made for presentments as hereinbefore provided, in the order in which the same shall be entered in the Schedules thereof to be prepared as aforesaid, beginning with the applications for works to be defrayed by the county at large, and examining all maps, plans, estimates, and specifications relating to each application; and the said grand jury shall be attended by their secretary, and by the county surveyor or surveyors, and shall hear and receive and direct to be read aloud in open court the several reports and certificates of such surveyor or surveyors, and shall have power and authority, at their discretion, to receive and obtain all legal and pertinent evidence which shall be tendered to them for or against the making any presentment or in anywise relating thereto, or concerning any public work or the execution of the same, if made wholly or in part at the expense of the county or any portion of the county, or any contract of or in respect of any of the matters aforesaid; and the said grand jury shall sit de die in diem until all the business which may come before them of the nature hereby directed to be despatched before the opening the commission shall be concluded, or until the day appointed for opening the commission, or the first day of such term, shall arrive; and if the whole of such business shall be concluded before such day, then the said grand jury may adjourn to such day; and every such grand juror who shall not attend pursuant to such adjournment shall be fined by the Judge of Assize for such non-attendance in any sum not exceeding the sum of 50*l.*, at the discretion of the said Judge.

xxxviii. That from and after the commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any grand jury, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding, to make a presentment for any public work whatsoever, or for raising any money, for which an application shall not have been made and approved at sessions, either wholly or in part, as hereinbefore provided, save and except such presentments as may be herein specially excepted, and also save and except such presentments as may be necessary for the immediate repairs of sudden breaches or damages in roads, bridges, gulleys, walls, or buildings which have happened so recently as not to admit of the proper application having been made in manner before provided, which fact, together with the necessity for the immediate execution of such repairs, shall be proved before the grand jury upon oath; and in such case, although such application as aforesaid shall not have been lodged or approved as aforesaid, such grand jury shall nevertheless have power and authority to present for such repairs any sum of money in such case necessary, to be paid to the county surveyor, or to be by him expended, or so much thereof as may be necessary, upon such repairs, and accounted for at the next assizes by such surveyor upon oath; and the treasurer of the county shall, out of any monies in his hands available to the general purposes of the county, advance to such surveyor from time to time the monies, not exceeding the sum presented for such repairs, which may be required therefor; and such monies so advanced shall be replaced by the monies raised and levied under the presentment which the grand jury have been hereinbefore authorized to make for such purpose.

xxxix. That the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall from time to time appoint a board of three civil or military engineers to act, without salary or emolument, in Dublin, who shall from time to time examine into and certify the qualifications of all persons desirous to act as surveyors or assistant surveyors under this Act; and such Lord Lieutenant shall appoint from time to time, out of the persons so certified, one or more surveyor or surveyors to act, at the salary or salaries hereinafter provided, for each county; and it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant from time to time, at his pleasure, to remove such surveyors from county to county.

xl. That all surveyors already appointed under the law now in force, or who may hereafter be appointed under this Act, for any county, may be at any time suspended or dismissed at the pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland or by the respective grand juries of such counties; and in such case, and on every other vacancy, however occasioned, the said Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall forthwith appoint a successor from and out of the persons who shall be from time to time certified to be qualified as aforesaid; provided that in case of indisposition, or other unavoidable cause, proved on oath to the satisfaction of the grand jury or any three Justices of the Peace, such surveyor may depute another person, duly certified as hereinbefore mentioned, to act for him, and such deputy shall be removable in like manner as his principal.

XLII. That the salary of each surveyor now appointed or hereafter to be appointed as aforesaid shall not exceed 300*l.* per annum, and such salary shall, except as hereinafter provided, be inclusive of all charges and expenses which each such surveyor shall incur, or to which he shall be liable in performance of the several duties to him prescribed under the provisions of this Act; and each grand jury is hereby authorized and required to fix the amount of such salary for its own proper county, not exceeding the sum hereinbefore mentioned, and at each assizes to present a moiety of the salary or salaries of each surveyor or surveyors for such county for the half year last past, and payment of the same shall be made accordingly: Provided nevertheless, that in case the grand jury at any assizes shall be of opinion that any surveyor has been guilty of neglect of his duty, or other misconduct, such grand jury shall have authority to direct the salary of the surveyor so neglecting his duty or misconducting himself to be withheld, and shall report such neglect or misconduct to the said Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and if the said surveyor shall be, upon such report, or at any time in any other manner or for any other reason, dismissed from his office, he shall forfeit, at the discretion of the Lord Lieutenant, the whole or any part of the arrears of salary due to him, and the same shall be applicable to the general purposes of the county, in like manner as other monies from time to time levied of such county and arising in the hands of the treasurer.

XLIII. That the surveyor or surveyors to be appointed as aforesaid shall attend at each presentment Sessions to be held for the reception of applications for presentments, and shall afford such professional advice and assistance in the consideration thereof as may be required of him, and shall prepare forms of tenders and proposals, specifications, maps, plans, sections, or elevations of any work approved thereat, and shall himself make such application when necessary as hereinbefore directed, and shall also attend upon the grand jury, and make to them a full and particular report on all applications for presentments lodged with the secretary as aforesaid, and the necessity or utility of the same, and on the correctness of the maps, plans, specifications, and estimates prepared as aforesaid, and how far it may be expedient to alter, vary, or modify the objects stated in such applications; and the said surveyor or surveyors, or one of them, shall also report on all applications on part of contractors, and on the progress and execution of all public works formerly presented, and on the performance of all contracts, and on the state, repairs, progress, and condition of all buildings, roads, bridges, gulleys, walls, or other work; and the said surveyor or surveyors, or one of them, as the grand jury shall direct, shall audit all accounts of such works, and ascertain and certify the correctness thereof, and whether each contractor is entitled to payment, and how far, and whether such contractor has conformed to the provisions of this Act and the laws in force in Ireland, and shall also report the name and description of all persons by him prosecuted for any nuisance or injury to any road, or any other offence of like nature, and the result of such prosecution, and the proceedings therein, and generally on all matters and things relating to the office of surveyor, or which may be given to him in charge by the grand jury.

XLIII. That each such surveyor shall keep an office open for his regular attendance on business in such place as the grand jury shall appoint, and which they are hereby required and empowered to appoint; and each such surveyor shall employ one fit and competent person to be a clerk in his said office, who shall give regular attendance in the said office, and for whose conduct such surveyor shall be at all times responsible; and such grand jury is hereby authorized and required to present, over and above the salary payable to such surveyor, a sum not exceeding 50*l.* in each year, to defray the expense of such office, and to pay the salary of such clerk, a moiety whereof the said grand jury is authorized and required to present at each assizes for the half-year last past, and to pay the same to such surveyor accordingly, subject always to the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to the payment of the salary of the said surveyor; and it shall be lawful for every surveyor to appoint so many persons as the grand jury shall, with reference to the extent of the county and of the duties to be performed, think necessary, to be assistants to such surveyor; and each of such assistants shall be paid such salary, not exceeding 50*l.* per annum, as the grand jury shall direct, which shall be presented by the grand jury by half-yearly instalments at each assizes: Provided always, however, that no person shall be appointed such assistant who shall not be certified by the said board to be a fit and competent person to discharge the duties of such office; and every such assistant shall obey the orders of such surveyor, and be removable in the same manner as the surveyor himself is.

XLIV. That no such surveyor, or his clerk or assistant, shall be eligible or liable to serve or act on any jury, nor to fill any other county office whatsoever in any county, nor take or receive any fee or gratuity whatsoever from any contractor or other person engaged in any public work in any county, nor for any matter or thing in anywise appertaining to the duty of such surveyor, clerk or assistant, nor be or become in any manner directly or indirectly interested in any contract for the performance of any work presented or to be presented by any grand jury, on pain of forfeiting his office, with all arrears of salary then due to him; and every such contract in which such surveyor, clerk or assistant, shall be or become in any manner directly or indirectly interested shall be absolutely void, and the surveyor, clerk or assistant, so interested, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, by any person who shall sue for the same.

XLV. That it shall be lawful for every grand jury to appoint a proper person, duly qualified according to the laws now in force, to act as their secretary; and every secretary of the grand jury now appointed, or who shall be appointed hereafter under the provisions of this Act, shall continue to act as such until he shall be removed by the grand jury, or until another person duly qualified shall be in like manner appointed; and if any person appointed secretary shall happen to die, or be unable from illness to do the duty, the clerk of the peace or his known deputy is hereby required to act as such until the last day of the ensuing assizes, or (in case of the illness of the secretary) until such secretary shall be able to resume his duty; and for the performing all and singular the duties of such secretary such clerk of the peace or his said deputy shall be entitled to receive a rateable proportion of the salary of such secretary for the time during which he shall have performed such duties: Provided always, however, that it shall not be lawful to appoint or continue joint secretaries, or more than one person as secretary in any county.

XLVI. That it shall not be lawful for the same person to be appointed after the passing of this Act secretary of any grand jury and clerk of the peace, or clerk of the crown, or treasurer of any county, or collector of grand jury cess, or inspector of gaols; and in case the secretary of any grand jury shall at any time refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of this Act, such secretary, being convicted thereof before the Judge of Assizes, shall for such refusal or neglect forfeit any sum not exceeding 50*l.*, at the discretion of such Judge, and no presentment shall be made of any such to him.

XLVII. That it shall not, from and after the commencement of this Act, be lawful for any grand jury, in making a presentment for any public work, to name or appoint therein any person or persons to execute the same, save and except in case of sudden damage or injury under the provision hereinbefore made in that behalf; but all works, save as aforesaid, and save and except in the case of such repairs as may be executed pursuant to the order of two Justices, as hereinafter specially provided for, which shall be presented by any grand jury, shall be executed and performed by contract; and all printing for which any grand jury shall be authorized to make presentment shall also be executed by contract; and every contract, whether for any work, printing, or other purpose whatsoever, shall be made by sealed tenders and proposals, to be delivered, opened, and dealt with, and security to be taken, in manner hereinbefore provided; and no contract shall be entered into save upon and after application made and approved at presentment Sessions; and the functions of every grand jury shall in respect of all applications to be made at any presentment Sessions be limited to the approval or rejection of the same as approved or modified by such Sessions, and to the presentment or annulling thereof accordingly: Provided nevertheless, that no Magistrate of the county or cess payer shall undertake or be interested in any contract under this Act for any work approved of or applied for at any sessions at which he shall act or be capable of acting as a Justice or associated cess payer, nor shall any county officer, or any person in his employment, undertake or be interested in any contract under this Act; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall extend to restrain or affect any contract made or to be made with any Commissioners acting under authority of Parliament in the loan, advance, or grant of Exchequer bills or money.

XLVIII. That the secretary of each grand jury shall provide and keep a book in which he shall insert an abstract of all contracts which now are or hereafter may be entered into by such grand jury, setting out the names of the several contractors, and the particulars of each contract, and in the case of roads, for the keeping in repair of which contracts may be or shall have been made, setting out the places whence and to which each road contracted for leads, and at what milestones, measuring, or noted place each road or part of a road under the charge of such contractor commences and ends, and the names of the occupiers of the lands where his contract commences and ends, and the number of perches of road included in each contract, and the rate per perch at which each contract has been entered into, and the whole annual sum which each contractor is to be paid, and the period for which each contract is made; and all contracts so entered in such book shall be numbered, and every such book shall have an alphabetical index referring to the number of each contract.

XLIX. That any two Justices of the Peace at petty sessions in any county may, under their hands and seals, order any sum not exceeding 10*l*. to be expended in repairing any bridge, or any sum not exceeding 10*l*. to be expended in repairing any public road, or any pier or quay on the bank of any navigable lake or river, now or hereafter to be built by grand jury presentment, which may be suddenly damaged, provided it shall appear, upon the view of both of them, that the repairs of such bridge or road or such pier or quay cannot be delayed until the next assizes without prejudice to the public, and that the necessity of the same shall be notified to them by the county surveyor; and it shall be lawful for such Justices to appoint a proper person or persons to repair the same; and the grand jury of any such county is hereby empowered to present at the next assizes the sum so expended in repairing any such bridge or road which is liable to be repaired by the county at large to be levied on such county at large, and any sum so expended in repairing any other road to be levied on the barony or on the county of the city or town wherein the same is situate, and any sum so expended in repairing any such pier or quay to be levied on the county at large; and the sum so presented in the said several cases shall be paid to the person or persons so appointed by such Justices to make such repairs upon his or their producing such order under the hands and seals of the said Justices, and also a certificate under the hand of the county surveyor that the sum specified in such order appears to have been faithfully and honestly expended pursuant thereto: Provided always, that the same Justices of the Peace shall not make or sign more than one order for the expenditure of any sum as aforesaid for the reparation of the like sudden damage between the termination of one assize and the commencement of another.

L. That it shall and may be lawful for any grand jury to present any part of any public road to be widened to any breadth not more than fifty feet in the clear, or to narrow such roads as the surveyor may report to be unnecessarily wide, and to present all such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary for widening and fencing the same, or for gravelling, macadamizing, paving, fencing, repairing, or otherwise improving any part of any public road, or for filling up grips or trenches on the sides of any public road, and making sufficient fences instead thereof, or for filling dikes or holes on the sides of any public road, or for making, widening, or deepening drains on the side of any such road, and carrying off the water therefrom, to be levied off the barony, county of a city, or county of a town where the same shall be situate: Provided always, that when such public road shall be any road upon which His Majesty's mails are or shall be carried in mail carriages, one-half of such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid shall be presented to be levied off the county, and the other half off any barony or baronies in which such road or any part thereof is or shall be situate.

LI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county at any assizes to present any footpath to be made or repaired along the side of any road for which they may have authority to make presentment, and to present such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for making or repairing the same to be levied either off the county or off the barony or baronies in which such footpath shall be locally situate, according as the expense of making or repairing such road shall be presented to be levied off the county or any barony or baronies thereof.

LII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present any public road within such county, or any part of such public road, or any footpath upon the side of such road, to be gravelled or repaired with broken stone, or the battlements of any bridge upon such road to be kept in sufficient order and repair, by contract for any space of time not exceeding seven years, and also from time to time to present such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary for the execution of any of the above-mentioned works, and the payment of the person or persons with whom such contract for the execution of the same shall have been made, to be levied or raised off any barony, county of a city, or county of a town in which such road may be locally situate, and when it passes through more than one barony then proportionately on each barony: Provided always, that in the case of any road upon which His Majesty's mails are or shall be carried in mail carriages one-half of the expenses of such repairs shall be levied off the county, and the other half off any barony or baronies in which such road or any part thereof may be locally situate.

And after reciting that certain contracts for keeping roads in repair have been entered into under the provisions of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 78, and doubts have been entertained whether such contracts, being made for a term longer than one year, are valid; and that it is expedient to remove such doubts;—

It is Enacted,

LIII. That every contract to keep a road in repair entered into under the said Act for any term still unexpired which did not exceed seven years shall be deemed to be a valid contract for the residue of such term, and every security entered into for the due performance of such contract shall be binding and valid in law as fully as if such contract might have been legally made under the provisions of the said Act.

LIV. That in case it shall appear to the county surveyor at any time during the continuance of any contract now made or hereafter to be made for keeping any road in repair that such road is not in proper repair, he shall require the contractor to put the same in repair, and if such contractor shall neglect to do so within ten days after he shall have been so required, such surveyor shall cause the same to be repaired, and the expense thereof shall be deducted and repaid out of the sums which would be payable to such contractor if the road had been kept in proper repair.

LV. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury at any assizes to present any new road to be laid out and made of any width not less than sixteen feet nor more than fifty feet in the clear, and to present all such sum and sums of money as shall be necessary for laying out, or for forming, levelling, and draining, or for gravelling, paving, and making the same, and also for making fences thereto, to be levied on the barony or county of a city or county of a town in which the same shall be situate, and when it passes through more than one barony then proportionately on each barony; unless such new line of road shall be one upon which it is intended that His Majesty's mails shall be carried in mail carriages, in which case it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury to present one half of all such sums of money as shall be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid to be levied off the county, and the other half off any barony or baronies through which such new road shall pass: Provided always, that no presentment shall be made for laying out any such new road unless together with the application therefor a map of such intended new road has been lodged with the secretary of the grand jury ten days at least before the day for holding the first presentment Sessions after each assizes in such county, and that a notice setting forth that an application is intended to be made for a presentment to lay out such new road (distinguishing the several townlands and baronies through which it is intended to be carried, with the number of perches in length through each townland,) has been personally served upon or left at the house of each occupier of the land through which such new road is intended to be made fifteen days at least before the day of holding such sessions, nor unless it shall appear that no part of a such new road is to be made through any deer park inclosed with a wall built of lime and stone or bricks, five feet high or more, without the consent of the owner thereof, and that no part thereof is to be made through any house entirely built with lime and stone or bricks, or through any office belonging to any person inhabiting a house so built, without the consent of such person.

LVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for lowering any hill or filling up any hollow, or both, on any public road, and for making the road thereon with stones and gravel, or for building, rebuilding, repairing, altering, or enlarging any bridge, pipe, arch, or gullet built of stones or bricks or wood, under or on any such road, or filling or gravelling over any such bridge, arch, pipe, or gullet, or for building or repairing any wall or part of a wall necessary to the support of or to prevent any steep banks of earth from falling upon any such road, or for erecting any fence, railing, or wall for the protection of travellers from dangerous precipices or holes on the side of any public road, to be raised either off the county or off the barony or baronies in which the same may be locally situate.

LVII. That where a river or stream or where any road is the boundary between two counties, so as that one side of such road shall be in one county and the other side in another county, it shall not be lawful for the grand jury of either county to present to be raised on either county, or upon any barony of either county, more than one half of the sum required for building, rebuilding, repairing, enlarging, or altering any bridge, pipe, arch, or gullet over such stream or river, or for repairing, making, or widening any such road; and no application for payment on account of any such presentment shall be allowed unless an equal sum shall have been presented to be raised for the said work on the adjoining county or some barony thereof.

LVIII. That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to survey and measure any line intended for a new road for which a presentment is to be applied for, and for that purpose to enter in and upon any lands or premises through which such intended line may pass, provided that such person or persons shall be thereunto authorized by a certificate in writing under the hand of the county surveyor, stating that such survey, and entry to make the same, is proper, and that such certificate shall be allowed by two Justices of the Peace for the county wherein such lands or premises may be situate, such allowance being signified under their hands by indorsement upon such certificate.

LIX. That it shall and may be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace, upon the application of any county surveyor, to forbid any person or persons from riding or driving any kind of beast or carriage on any new road for such space of time as shall to them appear necessary, not exceeding six months, after such new road shall have been made; and any person who shall wilfully disobey such order, the same being duly notified by a notice affixed to a board or boards erected upon such road, shall be liable to be fined any sum not exceeding 20s. for each offence, to be imposed by any Justice of the Peace, on his own view, or on the evidence of any one competent witness, and levied off the goods and chattels of such offender by warrant under the hand and seal of such Justice.

LX. That it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county, after application made and approved of at the preceding presentment Sessions, to present any old road in such county which may appear to them to be useless to be stopped up, to every which presentment it shall be lawful for any person to enter a traverse at the then or the next assizes; and if such traverse shall not be tried within a year after such presentment shall be made the presentment shall stand good and valid to all intents and purposes.

And after reciting that it is expedient that provision should be made for the more speedy and effectual repair of roads in Ireland upon which His Majesty's mails are carried;—

It is Enacted,

LXI. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting under and in execution of an Act, 1 & 2 Will. 4, intituled, 'An Act for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland,' upon the application of His Majesty's Postmaster General for the time being, setting forth and describing the line of any such road or the portion of any such road which may stand in need of repair, by and with the consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to cause such road or such portion thereof as shall be described in such application, and any or every bridge, arch, or pipe, gullet or wall thereon, to be put forthwith into good and sufficient repair accordingly, under the superintendence of the county surveyor in every county except the county of Dublin and county of the city of Dublin, and in each of those counties under the superintendence of a surveyor appointed by them; and that upon the application of the said Commissioners, setting forth what sum will be requisite and necessary from time to time for the purposes aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to direct by his warrant that the sum or sums of money so required by the said Commissioners shall be advanced and paid to the said Commissioners out of the produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be applied under the directions of the said Commissioners in manner aforesaid.

LXII. That whenever any such road or bridge, or any portion thereof, not being a turnpike road or bridge, shall be so put in good and sufficient repair, under the direction of the said Commissioners, the secretary to the said Commissioners shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the secretary of the grand jury of any and every county within which any such road or bridge, or any portion thereof, shall be situate respectively, a certificate of the amount of money which shall have been so expended upon the repair of any such road or bridge or any portion thereof, and the other expenses aforesaid, within any and every such county respectively, together with an account of the items of such expenditure, certified by the said county surveyor or other person employed, and every such certificate and account shall at the next or some succeeding assizes be laid before the grand jury of any and every such county respectively, and thereupon the grand jury of any and every such county respectively shall make presentment of the amount of such expenses as stated in such certificate, to be raised off such county at large, barony or half barony, previously chargeable with the maintenance of such road or bridge; and when and so soon as the sum so to be presented as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the treasurer of any and every such county respectively, he shall pay over the same to such bank or person as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, shall direct, or to such person or persons and in such manner as may be directed by the Vice Treasurer of Ireland.

LXIII. Provided always, That whenever any bridge which shall be repaired by the said Commissioners as aforesaid shall be situate partly in one county and partly in another, the expense of repairing such bridge shall be borne and defrayed equally by such counties, and the certificates and presentments by this Act required shall be framed and made accordingly.

LXIV. That if at any time hereafter it shall appear from a memorial signed by twenty cess payers in any barony that the grand jury of any county has twice refused to present for the making or repairing of any road in such barony, and that by reason thereof the inhabitants of such barony are aggrieved, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to refer such memorial to the Commissioners of Public Works to examine into the truth of the allegations therein contained, and to report thereon, and particularly to report whether it is necessary for the public convenience that such road should be repaired or made, and what would be the expense thereof; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, if he shall think fit, to refer such report to the grand jury of the county at the next assizes; and such grand jury may thereupon, if they shall think fit, present that such road shall be made or repaired in such manner as shall be recommended by the report of the said Commissioners, and that the sum necessary for that purpose shall be raised off the county or any barony or baronies thereof in such proportions as they may think proper; and in case they shall refuse or neglect to make any such presentment, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to direct the said Commissioners to cause such road to be made or repaired, and the expense thereof shall be certified by them to the Lord Lieutenant, who shall cause such certificate to be laid before the grand jury of the county, and such grand jury shall and they are hereby required to present the amount thereby certified to be levied off the county at large in which such road may be situated, and to be repaid to such Commissioners by such instalments as the Lord Lieutenant shall think fit to direct.

LXV. That in case any road so repaired, or any part thereof, shall be a turnpike road, the sum certified to have been expended on the repair thereof as aforesaid shall become and be a charge on the tolls payable on such road, in preference to and prior to any other charge thereon, and shall be repaid to the said Commissioners or any person appointed by them out of such tolls; and every collector of such tolls shall, until the sum so advanced shall be repaid, pay to the said Commissioners all sums collected by or paid to him for such tolls; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to apply in a summary way, by petition, to any court of equity in Ireland to appoint a receiver of such tolls, and such Court shall accordingly appoint such receiver, on its appearing, by such certificate or otherwise, that any part of the sum advanced for the repair of such road is due, and shall continue such receiver until by receipt of such tolls or otherwise the sum so due and the full costs of such proceedings shall be repaid, after allowing for the necessary expenditure by the said Commissioners in the meantime in keeping such road in repair.

LXVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, on the publication of the Ordnance Trigonometrical Survey, to present, for the maps thereof to be mounted, in baronies or otherwise, as may by them be deemed best, a sum not exceeding the rate of 10*l.* for every 35,000 acres, to be levied off the county at large; and it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county at the end of every ten years from the date of the publication of the Ordnance Survey of such county to present a sum not exceeding the rate of 20*l.* for every 50,000 acres, to be levied off the county at large, for obtaining a correct survey and map containing all the alterations made in the roads of such county since the then last preceding survey.

LXVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present, to be levied off such county, for the erection of any pier or quay, or for the repairing or enlarging of any existing pier or quay, on the banks of any navigable river or lake or on the sea coast, or for the making or repairing of any road or approach to any such pier or quay, or for deepening or embanking any such river or lake, in such county, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of 300*l.*, nor exceeding two-thirds of the whole sum at which said work has been contracted for: Provided always, that no sum or sums of money shall be presented for the erection of any pier or quay, or the making any roads or approaches thereto, until the person or persons making application therefor at the county presentment Sessions shall have paid into the hands of the county treasurer a sum equal to the one-third part of the whole sum at which said work has been contracted for, and such payment shall have been certified to the grand jury by the said treasurer's receipt, nor unless the consent in writing, under the hand and seal of the owner or owners in fee, or of the person or persons having a lease of lives renewable for ever, or a term of years of not less than ninety-nine to come and unexpired at the time of making such presentment, or of in the lands on which the said work is to be constructed, shall have been lodged in the office of the said treasurer six clear days before the assizes at which the application for such presentment is to be considered.

LXVIII. That every pier or quay which has been or may hereafter be built or enlarged by presentment of any grand jury upon any navigable lake or river or on the sea coast, pursuant to the provisions of this or any other Act of Parliament, shall be deemed and become public property.

LXIX. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present such sum or sums of money, to be raised off such county, as shall be necessary for building, rebuilding, enlarging, repairing, altering, or fitting up any court house or sessions house therein; and whenever any presentment shall be made for any of such purposes, or any other public works, and the sum necessary to be raised for the same shall be greater than it may be proper to levy off such county at one time, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for such grand jury to present in the first instance the whole sum required for such purpose, and to direct in and by such presentment that the same shall be raised on such county by such half-yearly sums or instalments, and in such proportions, as to such grand jury may seem expedient, and the same shall be so raised accordingly: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any subsequent grand jury to present that any of the said instalments shall be increased to any sum that shall be found necessary or proper.

LXX. That in case at any time hereafter the Lord Lieutenant shall direct that a Quarter Sessions of the Peace or any adjournment thereof shall be holden for the despatch of civil or criminal business in any town or place in which there may not be a sessions house, the surveyor of the county shall, on being required by the Lord Lieutenant so to do, prepare such specifications, maps, plans, sections, and elevations as may be necessary for the erection of a sessions house therein, expressing the nature and probable expense of the works and the materials proper to be employed, and the same shall be delivered to the secretary of the grand jury, who shall lay the same, together with a copy of the warrant of the Lord Lieutenant, before the grand jury at the assizes next after the time at which he shall receive the same, and the grand jury shall examine such specifications, maps, plans, sections, and elevations, and such others as may be laid before them, and either adopt the same or make such alterations therein as they may think proper, or reject the same, and shall present that a proper and sufficient sessions house shall be provided or built in such town or place within the period of one year from such assizes, and that a sum not exceeding 1,000*l.* shall be levied off the county for that purpose at one time or by instalments to be completed within the period of five years, and the surveyor shall thereupon prepare a proper form of tender for the execution of such work, and shall deliver the same to the secretary of the grand jury, who shall lay the same, together with the presentment, and the specifications, maps, plans, sections, and elevations, as approved of by the grand jury, before the next presentment Sessions holden for the county at large, who shall direct within what period before the day to which such Sessions may be adjourned tenders for the execution of the works shall be received; and any tenders that shall be made for the execution of such works shall be opened at the first adjournment of such Sessions, and dealt with in all respects in like manner as any other tender for a work approved of and presented is: Provided always, that if such presentment shall not be made, and a valid contract for executing such work shall not be entered into, within the period of two months from the assizes at which such warrant shall have been laid before the grand jury, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to direct the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland to build or provide such sessions house, and on the production to the grand jury at any assizes of the certificate of the secretary of such Commissioners that a sum not exceeding the sum of 1,000*l.* has been expended in building such sessions house and purchasing a site for the same, or for either of such purposes, the grand jury shall and they are hereby required to present the sum so certified to be levied off such county in one payment, and to be paid to the secretary of the said Commissioners in satisfaction of the sum so expended: Provided further, that in case the said Commissioners of Public Works shall find it convenient to take a lease of any premises for the purpose of building such sessions house thereon, they shall be at liberty to do so, and to engage to pay an annual or other rent for the same, not exceeding the sum of 50*l.* per annum, and the grand jury shall and they are hereby required from time to time to present a sum equal to the amount of such rent to be levied off the county and paid in discharge of the same.

LXXI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to advertise in the public newspapers for specifications, maps, plans, sections, and elevations from professional architects for the erection, alteration, and repair of such buildings as may be required for the public use of the county, and to present a sum not exceeding 50*l.* as remuneration to the architect whose plans shall be approved of, and to employ such architect, should they judge it necessary, in superintending the work to be executed pursuant to his plan, on such terms as may be determined by the grand jury.

LXXII. That whenever any presentment shall be or has been made for the purpose of building a new or enlarging any court house or sessions house in and for any county, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of such county to authorize such Commissioners as such grand jury shall appoint to contract and agree with any person or persons, or body or bodies corporate or politic, for the purchase or renting of any houses, buildings, lands, tenements, or hereditaments convenient for the site of any new court house or sessions house, or adjoining to any old court or sessions house, and convenient for the purpose of enlarging the same or the courts or outlets thereunto belonging; and the lands, tenements, or hereditaments so contracted or agreed for shall be demised or conveyed to such Commissioners, and to their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, in trust for the uses and purposes aforesaid; and such Commissioners shall be appointed, and such demise or conveyance made, in such manner and under such and the like rules and regulations as are prescribed in 7 Geo. 4. c. 74, intituled, 'An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland,' with respect to the appointment of Commissioners and the demising and conveying of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments to such Commissioners under that Act: Provided always, that in case such Commissioners shall be unable to agree with the owners of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments proper or necessary to be purchased for the purposes of any such presentment, and if the grand jury by which such presentment shall have been made or any subsequent grand jury shall direct that the same be purchased or rented by and under the valuation of a jury, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners appointed as aforesaid, or any three or more of them, to issue their warrant to the sheriff in the manner directed by the said Act, 7 Geo. 4. c. 74, and thereupon such and the like proceedings shall and may be had and taken for summoning, impannelling, and swearing juries, and valuing the premises so directed to be purchased or rented, and each and every part thereof respectively, and for obtaining the full possession and seisin thereof and a good title thereto in the said Commissioners, and with and subject to all the same rules, regulations, conditions, and jurisdictions, as in the said Act provided concerning any premises to be purchased by such valuation under the aforesaid Act, 7 Geo. 4. c. 74, and the said Commissioners shall in that behalf have, possess, and exercise all and every the like powers and authorities, as by the said Act are granted to and vested in the Commissioners therein mentioned; and it shall be lawful for any such or any subsequent grand jury to present the sum so agreed upon or fixed as the purchase-money of such premises, and the costs attending such purchase, to be levied off such county, either at one time or by half-yearly instalments, in such manner as they may think proper, and such presentment may be made without any previous application to any presentment Sessions.

XXIII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, and they are hereby required, to present at each Assizes, without previous application at presentment Sessions, to be raised upon such county, all such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary for paying such rent or rents of any court house or sessions house, or their appurtenances respectively, as now are or shall at any time hereafter be payable for the same.

XXIV. That whenever any court house of or for any county at large shall have been built or enlarged pursuant to the provisions of this or any other Act of Parliament, then if such court house or the additions so then made thereto shall be within a county of a city or county of a town wherein the assizes or commissions of oyer and terminer and general gaol delivery for such county have usually sat or been held, every such court house which shall have been so built or enlarged, and all additions so thereto made and appurtenances therewith occupied, shall be deemed and taken to be part and parcel of the county at large for which the same shall have been so built or enlarged as aforesaid: Provided always, that whenever such tenement shall cease to be a court house, whether by reason of the building a new court house or otherwise, then and from thenceforward such house and the site and appurtenances thereof shall be and be deemed and taken to be part and parcel of the county of the city or county of the town within which the same shall be so locally situate.

XXV. That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners appointed as aforesaid by any grand jury of any county to sell and dispose or to authorize the sale and disposal of any old court house or sessions house belonging to such county in which the assizes or sessions for such county have been discontinued or ceased to be held, together with the ground or site on which the same is built, according to the title or interest which such county may have in the same, and also to sell and dispose of or to authorize the sale and disposal of all or any part of the materials of which such old court house or sessions house may be composed, and the money arising therefrom shall be paid into the hands of the treasurer of such county to the credit of such county, and applied to defray the purchase-money of any premises required for the erection of any new court house, or to the erection of such new court house, or such other purposes as any other public money raised off such county and coming to the hands of such treasurer may be applied.

XXVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county at any assizes, without any previous application to presentment Sessions, to present, to be levied off such county, such reasonable sum or sums as they shall think proper for providing fuel or light for each and every or any court house or sessions house in or belonging to such county; provided that no sum so presented shall be paid by the treasurer of such county until the person to whom any such sum so to be presented for fuel shall be payable under such presentment shall produce to such treasurer an affidavit, sworn by him before the foreman of the grand jury at the last assizes for such county, stating that the sum required to be paid hath been duly expended in the purchase of fuel for the use of such court house or sessions house pursuant to such presentment, and that the whole of such fuel hath been consumed in the said court house or sessions house and for the use and benefit thereof, or if any part of such fuel shall not have been consumed, stating how much thereof has been consumed, and that the residue then remains in safe keeping, to be applied to the use of the said court house or sessions house in like manner.

XXVII. That it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present, for each of the places wherein petty sessions shall be appointed to be held, an annual sum not exceeding 10*l.*, to be raised off such county, for the rent of a room or rooms for the holding of petty or special sessions thereat, and of a lock-up room or house, provided that such room or rooms shall not be in a house where spirituous or fermented liquors are sold, nor in any police barrack, nor in any other building maintained either wholly or in part at the public expense; and provided that whenever a public court house shall have been built and provided at any place so appointed no such presentment shall be made, but the petty and special sessions shall be holden in such public court house, and not elsewhere: Provided also, that it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the county presentment Sessions, where application shall be made for such rent, that six meetings of Justices during the six months immediately preceding such application shall have been held in such room or rooms.

And after reciting that leases have been made from time to time of premises for the purpose of erecting court houses thereon, and for other public purposes, and that it may be expedient to surrender such leases and thereby relieve the county from the payment of an annual rent;—

It is Enacted,

XXVIII. That it shall be lawful for any grand jury, without any previous application to a presenting Session, to present that any sum not exceeding 1,000*l.* shall be raised off any county, and paid to the lessor in any lease of premises held for any public purposes, or the representatives of such lessor, as a consideration for accepting a surrender of such lease.

XXIX. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present, without any previous application at Sessions, to be levied off such county, any sum not exceeding 4*l.* at each assizes as a salary or payment for the keeper of any sessions house belonging to such county where the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace are held, and any sum not exceeding 5*l.* at each assizes for an interpreter at such assizes, if such payment shall be recommended by the Court.

LXXX. That it shall be lawful for any grand jury as aforesaid to present, to be raised off the county at large, any sum or sums of money for making or repairing a gallows, or for bolts and shackles, not exceeding in the whole in any one year the sum of 20*l.*, and also for erecting or repairing direction posts, milestones, mile-posts, or depôts for materials, not exceeding 1*l.* for each direction post, milestone, mile-post, or depôt.

LXXXI. That where any fever hospital or dispensary for the purpose of furnishing medicine and affording medical and surgical aid to the poor of any city, town, or place in any county is now or shall be hereafter established in such county by private subscriptions or donations, and a certificate of the sum or sums of money actually received by the treasurer of such fever hospital or dispensary from private subscription or donation since the last application to presentment Sessions, or since the establishment of such fever hospital or dispensary, and a statement of the number of persons admitted or relieved, together with an account of the receipt and disbursement of all monies raised by virtue of any presentment for such fever hospital or dispensary, as well as of all monies actually received from private subscription or donation for the use of such fever hospital or dispensary since the date of such last application or establishment, shall have been laid before the presentment Sessions ensuing the disbursement thereof, and such certificate and account, verified upon the oath of such treasurer, shall, together with the application for a presentment for such fever hospital or dispensary, have been allowed and approved of at such Sessions, it shall be lawful for the grand jury of such county at any assizes, and they are hereby required, to present, to be raised off such county, in case of a fever hospital, a sum not exceeding double the amount, and, in the case of a dispensary, a sum equal to the amount of such private subscriptions or donations so received, to be paid to the treasurer of such fever hospital or dispensary, and applied (under the direction of the subscribers of any annual sum of not less than 1*l.* 1*s.*, or such committee of them, not fewer in number than five, as they shall appoint for that purpose at any general meeting of such subscribers), together with the monies received by private subscription and donation, in fitting up and supporting such fever hospital or dispensary, and in providing medicine and medical and surgical aid for the poor of such place and its neighbourhood: Provided always, that when any fever hospital shall be attached to any dispensary, the treasurer of the same shall separate the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of each such fever hospital and dispensary, and the application for presentments for each shall be separate and distinct; and provided also, that no such presentment shall be made unless it shall appear by the certificate of such treasurer, verified as aforesaid, that the medical attendant, if appointed after the passing of this Act, resided since the creation of such dispensary or hospital, or since the last assizes (as the case may be), at or within five statute miles of such dispensary or hospital; and provided also, that no such presentment shall be made in case it shall appear that the salary of the medical attendant during the last year amounted to one-half of the sum to which the subscriptions, donations, and the sum presented would amount.

LXXXII. That whenever it shall be made appear, by statement on oath to the grand jury of any county, that there has been actually received from private subscriptions or donations any sum or sums of money for the purpose of erecting any house to be applied to the reception of fever patients, and either connected with any local dispensary or not, as the case may happen, and upon a certificate by one or more physicians that there is a necessity for providing accommodation for such patients, it shall and may be lawful for such grand jury, and they are hereby required, to present, to be raised off such county, any sum not exceeding double the amount of the sum or sums so raised by donation or subscription, and actually received by the treasurer, to be applied, together with the monies so received by private donation or subscription, in erecting such house for fever patients, in such manner as the subscribers of any sum not less than 1*l.* 1*s.*, or such committee of them not fewer than five, as they shall appoint for that purpose at any general meeting of such subscribers, shall in their discretion deem most advisable: Provided always, that the affidavit and certificate herein mentioned shall, together with the application for such presentment, have also been laid before the presentment Sessions and approved thereof: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the grand juries of the county of Cork and county of the city of Cork respectively, if they shall think proper, to present for the support and maintenance of the fever hospital or house of industry or lunatic asylum in the city or county of Cork at any assizes any sum not exceeding the sum presented for the support or maintenance of such establishments respectively at any assizes during the last five years.

LXXXIII. That where any fever hospital has been or shall be established in and for any county it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of such county to present such sum or sums of money, not exceeding the sum of 250*l.* at each assizes, as shall appear to be necessary for the support of any such county fever hospital, and such sum shall be raised off the county at large, and levied and applied accordingly: Provided always, that an account of the receipt and expenditure of such fever hospital, from the time of its establishment to the time of the first presentment required, and afterwards from the time of each presentment required till the time when any further presentment is required, shall, together with an application for the sum so proposed to be presented, be laid before the presentment Sessions to be holden under this Act for the purpose of considering applications for presentments, and that such account and application shall be approved at such sessions.

LXXXIV. That it shall be lawful to and for the grand jury of any county in which a fever hospital shall not have been erected before the passing of this Act, or in which it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of the grand jury that any fever hospital requires to be enlarged, repaired, or rebuilt, to present at any assizes for such county any sum or sums of money for the purpose of erecting, establishing, hiring, repairing, and fitting up any fever hospital in any such county in which no such hospital shall have been previously established, or for the purpose of enlarging, repairing, or rebuilding any fever hospital which shall have been previously established, and to set forth in such presentment that the sum therein mentioned shall be raised and levied within the period of six years by half-yearly or yearly instalments; and also to set forth in such presentment what part thereof shall be raised upon any barony or baronies in any such county, or on the county at large; and that the treasurer of any such county shall from time to time, without further authority or presentment in that behalf, insert in his warrant at each assizes the portion or portions so set forth of the sum so presented, and the same shall be raised and levied in like manner from time to time, and with the like remedy in case of non-payment, as all other money directed by such warrant to be lawfully levied; and when and so soon as such presentment shall have been duly certified by the acting clerk of the crown to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland it shall and may be lawful to and for such Lord Lieutenant to direct the amount of such sum of money so presented, or any part thereof, to be advanced out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund in Ireland to the treasurer of such county, to be applied for the purposes for which such presentment shall have been made under such rules and regulations as to such Lord Lieutenant shall seem fitting and expedient; and such money so advanced and paid by such treasurer shall be accounted for by him in like manner as any other monies received by him for the use of such county, and all securities given by him or in his behalf shall extend to such money; and such treasurer shall from time to time pay to such bank or person as the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct all such sums as shall from time to time be received by him from the baronial or other collectors by virtue of the presentment, on account of which such money shall have been advanced, until the whole sum advanced shall be repaid.

LXXXV. That it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county at each assizes to present to be raised off such county (whether there be or be not any special provision in any Act of Parliament relative thereto) a sum not exceeding 700*l.*, to be paid to the treasurer of the infirmary of such county, and applied to the support and maintenance of such infirmary: Provided always, that, together with an application for such presentment, a certificate under the hand of the physician or surgeon of such infirmary, stating the number and names of patients, as well exten as intern, received and relieved since the preceding application, and also a true debtor and creditor account of the funds and expenses thereof commencing from the time of the preceding application, attested by the signature of the treasurer of such infirmary, shall have been laid before the presentment Sessions, and that such application and account shall have been approved of thereat.

LXXXVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present at each assizes any sum not exceeding 47*l.*, to be raised off such county, and paid to the surgeon or surgeons of the infirmary thereof: Provided always, that no such presentment shall be made unless, together with an application therefor, a certificate signed by the governors of such infirmary or hospital, or by five of them at the least, shall be laid before the presentment Sessions, which certificate shall state that the surgeon or surgeons for whom such sum is requested to be presented hath or have resided at or within one mile of such infirmary, and duly and faithfully executed his or their duty as surgeon of such infirmary or hospital, and diligently complied with the rules and regulations of the governors of such infirmary, since the date of the last application, nor unless a true copy (certified under the hand of the treasurer of such infirmary or hospital) of the letters testimonial from the College of Surgeons in Ireland, by law required to be obtained by every such surgeon, shall be laid before the special Sessions next after his appointment to his office, nor unless such surgeon shall have given his attendance and professional assistance, without any other or further fee or reward, to the prisoners and others in the gaol of the county to the infirmary of which he has been appointed surgeon, if such gaol is situate within five miles of such infirmary; and provided also, that no surgeon or medical attendant hereafter appointed shall be qualified to act as surgeon of any infirmary or dispensary until he shall have signed and deposited with the secretary of the grand jury a declaration in the form in the schedule (R.) to this Act annexed.

LXXXVII. That if any person shall at any time after the passing of this Act, by himself, his friends or agents, directly or indirectly give or promise to give any money, or any security for money, or other consideration, to any person or persons in order to procure the appointment to the office of treasurer, clerk of the peace, secretary of the grand jury, surveyor, or any other office or employment in this Act mentioned, or in order to procure the resignation of any person or persons holding such office, or in order to influence the votes of the persons who may have the appointment to such office, he shall be incapable of holding any such office or employment, and shall forfeit for every such offence a sum of 100*l.* to any person who will sue for the same, and such sum may be recovered by civil bill before the assistant barrister, or by action in any of the superior courts; and every person appointed to any of such offices at any time after the passing of this Act shall, at the assizes next after his appointment, subscribe in open court before the foreman of the grand jury and deliver to him a declaration in the form in the schedule (T.) to this Act annexed, and the same shall be preserved by the clerk of the crown among the records of the county, and no presentment shall be made for any salary to any such officer until he shall have so subscribed and delivered such declaration.

LXXXVIII. That it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county at any assizes to present, to be raised off such county, any sum not less than 400*l.* and not exceeding 1000*l.* in the year for the support of any house of industry in such county established under the provisions of an Act, 11 & 12 Geo. 3. (I.) 'An Act for badging such Poor as shall be found unable to support themselves by Labour, and otherwise providing for them, and for restraining such as shall be found able to support themselves by Labour or Industry from begging'; which sum when so raised shall be paid to the corporation of such house of industry, and applied by the said corporation towards the support and maintenance of the same accordingly: Provided always, that, together with an application for such presentment, a debtor and creditor account of the funds and expenses of such house of industry from the time of the last application shall have been laid before the county presentment Sessions and approved thereat.

LXXXIX. That where a lunatic asylum or any ward or wards for the reception and support of idiots and insane persons is connected with or under the direction of any house of industry in any county, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury at any summer assizes to present such sum or sums not exceeding the sum of 100*l.* as shall appear to be necessary for the support of such asylum or ward connected with such house of industry, and such sum shall be raised off the county at large, and levied and applied accordingly.

XC. That whenever the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall at any time have ordered any sum or sums of money to be advanced out of the Consolidated Fund for the payment of the expenses incurred by any Commissioners appointed by such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors to form a board of health in any city, town, or district, it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county in which such expense shall be or have been incurred, and they are hereby required, to present, without previous application to presentment Sessions, all sums so advanced to be raised off such county: Provided always, however, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, if they shall think fit, to direct that such sum shall be repaid by such instalments as they may think proper.

XCII. That at any time after any order in council shall be made by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, under and by virtue of the provisions of an Act, 1 & 2 Geo. 4. c. 33, intituled, 'An Act to make more effectual Provision for the Establishment of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor, and for the Custody of Insane Persons charged with Offences, in Ireland,' or any Act or Acts amending the same, and after such order shall have been published in the Dublin Gazette, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county within any district appointed under the said recited Act to present at any assizes such sum or sums of money to be raised off such county as shall be requisite for defraying the expenses of erecting and establishing an asylum for the lunatic poor for such district, or any proportion thereof, ascertained by any order made by the said Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council.

XCIII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, within any district for which a lunatic asylum is now or shall at any time hereafter be built and established under the provisions of the said last-recited Act, to present at each assizes to be levied off such county, such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary for the expenses of supporting, supplying, and maintaining any such asylum, or the officers thereof, or the patients therein, or any proportion of such expenses, ascertained by order of the said Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council.

XCIV. That whenever the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, shall, under the provisions of the said last-recited Act or any Act amending the same, have ordered and directed any sum or sums of money to be advanced, issued, and paid out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund arising in Ireland for the purpose of erecting and establishing, opening, carrying on, maintaining, or supporting any such asylum, the grand jury of every county within the district in and for which such asylum shall be erected and established shall and they are hereby required (after any such asylum shall be fit for the reception of such lunatic poor) to present at each assizes, without any previous application at presentment Sessions, such sum or sums of money to be levied off such county as shall be necessary for the repayment of any such sum or sums so advanced, or any part thereof at such times and in such proportions as shall be directed and ascertained by any order or orders to be made by such Lord Lieutenant in council as aforesaid.

XCIV. That in each and every case when the Commissioners appointed for general controul and correspondence, and for the superintending and directing the erection, establishment, and regulation of district lunatic asylums, shall have rented or purchased any houses, buildings, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, on the site or sites of which it shall be proposed to erect or maintain any such asylum, it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county in or for which wholly or in part any such asylum hath been or shall be established, and such grand jury are hereby required, at the assizes next ensuing the day or time when such purchase shall be made or such rent shall become due, or as soon after as shall be requisite, and so from time to time whenever the case shall happen, to present, without previous application to presentment Sessions, to be levied off such county, such sum or sums of money as they shall be directed to present by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in council as aforesaid for the purpose of completing such purchase or paying such rent or rents.

And after reciting that by an Act 7 Geo. 3. it was enacted, that the infirmary for the county of Donegal should be erected at Lifford, which is now found to be an inconvenient situation ;—

It is Enacted,

xcv. That so much of the said Act as relates to the erection of said infirmary shall be and the same is hereby repealed ; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, upon a memorial being presented from two-thirds of the grand jury of the county of Donegal, praying for the removal of the infirmary of said county to some other convenient place, to order and direct that said infirmary be removed accordingly, and that the grand jury of the county of Donegal shall and may thereupon present such sums as shall be necessary for the aforesaid purpose.

xcvi. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county in which any diocesan school or district school, or the site appointed for the same shall be situate to present, to be levied off such county, any sum or sums which they shall think proper for purchasing, providing, building, or repairing any such school-house or a dwelling-house for the master thereof, or any of the offices or appurtenances properly belonging to such school-house or dwelling-house, or for purchasing or procuring a site for the same, not exceeding the quantity of two plantation acres : Provided always, that whenever any grand jury shall make such presentment for any school-house or dwelling-house as and for the school-house of the diocese only within which such county shall be situate, or as and for the dwelling-house of the schoolmaster of such diocesan school only, such diocese shall not be or remain united to or with any other diocese under any of the provisions of an Act, 53 Geo. 3. c. 107, intituled, 'An Act for the Appointment of Commissioners for the Regulation of the several endowed Schools of public and private Foundations in Ireland,' but such diocesan school shall be supported within its proper diocese only, and the money raised in such diocese shall be applied solely and entirely to the use of such diocesan school, and not to any district school or other school out of such diocese.

xcvii. That it shall be lawful for the grand jury of any county at each assizes to present any sum not exceeding in the whole a sum after the rate of 30*l.* for each and every coroner in such county, according to the Schedule (B.) hereto annexed, to be levied off such county or any barony therein as such grand jury shall think advisable, and such grand jury shall apportion the whole of such sum so presented among the several coroners of such county according to the number of inquests which may appear to have been respectively held upon the body of any person by each of such coroners since the date of the last application for a presentment ; and such sums shall be paid by the treasurer to the coroners respectively who shall have held such inquests and for whom such sums shall have been presented : Provided always, that no coroner shall receive more than at the rate of 2*l.* for each inquest so held by him.

xcviii. That it shall not be lawful for any grand jury to make any presentment for any such remuneration to any such coroner unless, together with the application for the same at the county presentment Sessions, there be laid before such Sessions a certificate of each inquest respectively taken by such coroner, made and signed by such coroner in the form following :

' I A. B., a Coroner in the County [County of a City or County of a Town] of Day of I held an Inquest on the Body of C. D. at of a City or County of a Town], and that the Names of the Jurors impanelled on such inquest were as follows :

' And that the Names of the Witnesses examined before such Jurors were as follows :

' And that the Verdict of such Jury was All which I certify. Dated this Day of

' A. B.,
 ' Coroner of this County [County of a City or County of a Town] of

And it shall be lawful for such sessions or the grand jury, in case they shall so think fit, to examine any such coroner upon oath as to the truth of any such certificate.

XCIX. That it shall and may be lawful for any coroner before whom any physician, surgeon, apothecary, chemist, or other person practising medicine or surgery, shall, in obedience to a summons from such coroner, attend and be examined as a witness at any inquest relative to the death of any person, to grant such witness an order signed by such coroner, upon the treasurer of the county wherein such inquest shall be held, for such sum not exceeding 3*l*. as to such coroner shall seem fit, and the amount of all such payments shall be presented by the grand jury to be raised off the county at large, or any barony thereof, in like manner as the sum presented for the inquest whereat such party may have attended, provided always, that the coroner shall certify to the presentment Sessions of the barony in which the inquest was held the amount and particulars of all such sums as by him ordered to be paid, and that such payment shall have been approved thereat, but not otherwise.

c. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful for any grand jury to present any money to be paid to any coroner who shall appear to them to have been guilty of neglect of duty in not attending to take any inquest or otherwise, nor in any case to present any money for the remuneration of any coroner for or in respect of any inquest other than such as shall have been held since the date of the application for the last presentment.

ci. That it shall be lawful for the grand jury of each county at each assizes, and they are hereby required, to present, to be levied off such county, or off any barony or half barony (as the case may be), all and every such sum and sums of money as may be chargeable upon and directed to be presented and levied off such county, barony, or half barony, by and under the provisions of an Act, 34 Geo. 3. c. 151, intituled, ' An Act to provide for the better Execution of the Laws in Ireland, by appointing Superintending Magistrates and additional Constables in certain Cases,' or any Act amending the same, or an Act, 3 Geo. 4. c. 103, intituled, ' An Act for the Appointment of Constables, and to secure the effectual Performance of the Duties of their Office, and for the Appointment of Magistrates, in certain Cases,' or any Act amending the same, or any Act passed or to be passed in this present session of Parliament to consolidate the laws relating to the Constabulary Force in Ireland; and every such presentment shall be made without any previous application to presentment Sessions, and in all respects pursuant to the regulations of the said Acts, or such of them as may be applicable to the case; and the money levied under every such presentment shall be paid over in such manner and to such bank or persons as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, shall direct, save and except in the case of the superannuations hereinafter and by the said Acts or any of them directed to be paid to the parties entitled to the same.

cii. That whenever the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall, under and by virtue of the provisions of an Act, 5 Geo. 4. c. 28, intituled, ' An Act to amend an Act of the Third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for the Appointment of Constables in Ireland,' or under the provisions of any other Act, have ordered any sum or sums of money to be paid and advanced out of the produce of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, arising in Ireland, as an annual remuneration or superannuation to any chief constable, constable, or sub-constable disabled by any maim, wound, or hurt, or other grievous injury, received by him in the execution or performance of the duty of his office, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county for which or for any barony whereof such constable shall have been appointed, or the grand jury of the county in which such chief or other constable may have been maimed, wounded, or hurt, in case the Lord Lieutenant shall direct that such county shall bear the charge, and such grand jury is hereby required, upon the production of the certificate of the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant for the time being, or of the Under Secretary, of the amount of the sum or sums so paid and advanced out of the Consolidated Fund for the superannuation of such constables, to present (without previous application to presentment Sessions) one moiety of such sum or sums so paid, advanced, and certified as aforesaid, to be levied off such county or barony; and the same when levied shall be paid over in such manner and to such bank or person as the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury or any three or more of them shall direct.

ciii. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of each county, and they are hereby required, to present (without previous application to presentment Sessions) such yearly allowance, superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or remuneration, as the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland for the time being shall order, or at any time have ordered, to be paid by such county, or such proportion thereof as he or they shall direct or have directed to be paid to any Magistrate, inspector, deputy inspector, co-inspector, sub-inspector, chief constable, constable, or sub-constable, who has been or shall hereafter be superannuated, by virtue of the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, or which may be passed in this present session of Parliament, authorizing such Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors to grant such superannuation, and such allowance, superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or remuneration shall be presented in equal moieties, one at each assizes during the life of each person so entitled thereto, on proof to the grand jury from time to time that such person is living, and, when raised, such money shall be paid to each such person by the county treasurer.

civ. That when in any county any special constables shall have been appointed by virtue of an Act, 2 & 3 Will. 4. c. 108, intituled, ' An Act for amending the Laws in Ireland relative to the Appointment of Special Constables, and for the better Preservation of the Peace,' and the Justices of the Peace of such county, acting at a special sessions held for that purpose, or the major part of them, shall, in pursuance of the powers given to them by the said Act, have made any order or orders upon the county treasurer for the payment to such special constables of a reasonable allowance for their trouble and loss of time, or to defray expenses incurred in providing staves or other necessary articles for such special constables, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of such county, and such grand jury is hereby required, to present, (without previous application to presentment Sessions,) to be raised off such county or any barony thereof within which such special constables may have served, the amount of all sums paid by the county treasurer pursuant to such order or orders.

CV. That where any person shall have been tried for any felony whatsoever, it shall be lawful for the Court before whom such person shall have been tried, in case it shall appear that there was a reasonable ground of prosecution, to order the treasurer of the county in which the offence shall have been or shall have been alleged to have been committed to pay to the prosecutor, upon his application, such sum of money as to such Court shall seem reasonable, not exceeding the expenses which it shall appear to the Court that such prosecutor may have bond fide incurred in carrying on such prosecution; and in case such prosecutor shall appear to the Court to be in poor circumstances, such Court may make a further reasonable allowance to such prosecutor for trouble and loss of time, which order the clerk of the crown or clerk of the peace respectively is hereby directed and required forthwith to make out and deliver to such prosecutor without fee or reward; and when any person shall appear on recognizance or subpoena to give evidence as to any felony whatsoever, whether the prosecution of such felony be commenced or carried on by or under the direction of any law officer of the crown or any other person, it shall be lawful for the Court before which such person shall appear, whether any bill of indictment be preferred or not to any grand jury, in case such person shall bond fide have attended in obedience to such recognizance or subpoena, to order the treasurer of the county in which the offence shall have been or shall have been supposed to have been committed to pay unto such person such sum of money as shall seem reasonable, not exceeding the expenses which it shall appear that such person has bond fide incurred by reason of the said recognizance or subpoena; and in case such person shall appear to be in poor circumstances such Court may make a further reasonable allowance to such person for trouble and loss of time; which order the clerk of the crown or the clerk of the peace respectively is hereby directed and required forthwith to make out and deliver to such person; and such treasurer is hereby authorized and required, out of any public money in his hands, forthwith to pay to any such prosecutor or witness respectively, or to any person by him or her authorized, any such sum of money so ordered, and such treasurer shall be allowed the same in his accounts; and the grand jury of such county shall at each assizes present all sums so paid to such prosecutors and witnesses respectively, to be raised either off the county at large or upon any barony thereof, as to such grand jury shall seem fit; and such presentment may be made without any previous application to presentment Sessions.

CVI. That if it shall appear that any person having given information or evidence against any person or persons charged with any offence against the public peace shall have been murdered or maimed previous to the trial of the person or persons accused by such information or evidence, or of any of them, or on account of any such evidence given, or that any Magistrate or other peace officer shall be murdered or maimed on account of his exertions, as such Magistrate or peace officer, to bring disturbance of the public peace to justice, it shall and may be lawful to and for the grand jury of the county within which such murder or maiming shall have been committed respectively to present such sum or sums of money as they shall think just and reasonable to be paid to the personal representative of such witness, Magistrate, or peace officer so murdered, or to such witness, Magistrate, or peace officer so maimed, having regard to the rank, degree, situation, and circumstances of such witness, Magistrate, or peace officer, such money to be raised off the county at large or the barony in which such murder or maiming shall respectively have been perpetrated, at the discretion of such grand jury.

CVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county at any assizes, if they shall think fit, to present, without any previous application at sessions, any sum of money not exceeding the sum of 20*l.* for each and every person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person guilty of any murder, and any sum not exceeding 10*l.* for each and every person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person guilty of any other capital felony or misdemeanor for which any person on conviction may be liable to be transported; such sum or sums to be raised off such county or any barony thereof as such grand jury shall think proper, and to be paid to any prosecutor or prosecutors of such offenders as aforesaid; and such presentment may be made during the time appointed for transacting the criminal business of such county.

CVIII. That the grand jury of any county where any offence shall have been committed shall present, to be levied off such county, the expenses attending the removal thereto of any prisoner apprehended according to law in any other part of the United Kingdom: Provided that, with an application by the treasurer of the county to the next county presentment Sessions after such expenses shall have been repaid by him, there shall be laid by such treasurer before such Sessions the account or accounts of such expenses, verified as by law required, upon which he shall have repaid the same, and that such application and account shall be approved at such Sessions.

CIX. That where, after the passing of this Act, any child under the age of two years shall be left exposed and deserted in any parish in Ireland, and an application shall have been made by any two cess payers, with the approval of two or more Justices at petty sessions assembled, and such application shall likewise have been approved at the presentment Sessions for the barony in which such parish shall be situate, it shall be lawful for the grand jury of such county to present, to be levied off such parish, or any portion thereof, any sum not exceeding 5*l.* in the year for the maintenance of such child, and such sum so levied shall be paid to the cess payers making such application or such other person or persons as the grand jury shall direct, to be by them applied for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that if the baronial presentment Sessions shall not approve of any such application, or the grand jury of such county shall refuse or neglect to make such presentment, it shall be lawful for the Judge of Assize, upon the complaint of such cess payers, to order such sum as he shall think fit, not exceeding 5*l.* to be raised upon such parish or portion thereof (in the same manner as any money presented by grand juries) for the support of such child; and provided further, that in no case shall any sum be presented for the support of any such child after it shall have attained the age of twelve years.

CX. That all county treasurers, clerks of the crown, clerks of the peace, secretaries to grand juries, sheriffs, medical officers of prisons, and all other officers and persons mentioned and specified in the Schedule marked (S.) to this Act, appointed, shall from and after the passing of this Act be paid and remunerated for their respective duties, services, and expenses by annual salaries only, payable half-yearly at each assizes by equal moieties, and not exceeding the amount mentioned in the said Schedule; and the grand jury at any assizes shall and may present (without previous application to presentment Sessions) for each such officer, to be raised off the county at large, the moiety of such annual salary: Provided always, that in case of any negligent or insufficient discharge of duty by any such officer or officers, it shall and may be lawful to and for any grand jury, with the express sanction of the Court, but not otherwise, to present any sum or sums less in the whole than the moiety of the annual salary by this Act specified to be paid to any such officer or officers, or to withhold and refuse to make any presentment whatever for any such officer or officers; and that such officer shall not be entitled to receive any payment for any service or duty performed at an adjourned assizes.

CXI. That no presentment for any salary to any treasurer of any county shall be filed by any Court or Judge unless there shall be previously produced to such Court or Judge by the acting clerk of the crown either a certificate signed by the proper officer of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland stating that such treasurer has duly given and entered into the recognizances now required of him by law, and that such recognizances have been duly deposited and entered or recorded in such court, and the dates thereof and the names of the respective sureties therein, and the sums for which such sureties were severally bound, or else a certificate signed by the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery that such sum of money as shall be equal to the amount of security required to be given by such treasurer has been duly invested as by law required, and a certificate or receipt that he has duly paid all instalments to the public boards which have been presented at the previous assizes, and that his accounts have been duly audited by the grand jury.

CXII. That before any clerk of the crown or clerk of the peace shall be entitled to receive such salary as is hereby provided he shall at each assizes lay before the grand jury an account, verified on oath and sworn and read in open court, setting forth the total amount of his fees and other emoluments, and distinguishing the several sums paid and received under each separate head of service, and the rates of fees or remunerations received on each; and it shall not be lawful for any grand jury to present to be paid to any clerk of the peace, unless it shall appear to them that he has given security by recognizance in the sum of 1,000*l.* for the due and faithful execution of his office of clerk of the peace, and that such recognizances have been duly deposited or recorded.

CXIII. That in any county wherein a special commission shall be held for the trial of offenders the grand jury at the assizes next immediately ensuing shall and may (without previous application to presentment Sessions) make a further presentment for the clerks of the crown, sheriffs and Judge's crier, not exceeding one-fourth of their annual salary, subject nevertheless to the like direction as hereinbefore given to any grand jury in case of neglect or insufficient discharge of duty by any officer.

CXIV. That the presentments to be made under this Act for the secretaries to the several grand juries shall be in full acquittance of all demands to be made by such secretaries for stationery, which such secretaries shall be bound to furnish to the several grand juries without further charge, not however including the expense of printing herein specially provided for.

CXV. That it shall and may be lawful for every grand jury at each assizes, and they are hereby required, to present all such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to defray the expense of providing and printing all such registry books and lists of registered voters as are or shall be required to be provided and printed by the several Acts now in force for regulating the election of members to serve in Parliament in Ireland, to be paid to the person or persons who shall have contracted for supplying and printing such books or lists.

CXVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, and they are hereby required, to present, to be raised off such county, the expense of providing and transmitting such copies of the imperial standard weights and measures, and the stamps to be used by the inspectors of weights and measures, and such remunerations to inspectors, as they are respectively directed to provide and transmit under and by virtue of 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 63, intituled, 'An Act to repeal an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of His present Majesty, relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other Provisions instead thereof.'

CXVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present, to be levied off such county, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary or shall have been expended for or in suing any treasurer, high constable, or collector of any public money, or any of their sureties, executors, or administrators, for any misconduct, breach of duty, or non-payment, or for recovering any public money from any treasurer, high constable, or collector, or their sureties, executors, or administrators, or for suing any contractor under this Act, or under any Act in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act, his sureties, executors, or administrators, for any breach of contract; provided that no such presentment shall be made, unless, together with the application therefor at presentment Sessions, there shall have been laid before such Sessions a bill duly taxed and certified by the proper taxing officer of the costs incurred for any of the purposes aforesaid for which such presentment shall be required, nor unless it shall be proved that such costs could not be recovered from the person sued, or any other person liable to pay the same, and that the proceeding was instituted by the direction of a grand jury.

CXVIII. That whenever the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by virtue of the powers and authorities given to him by 7 Geo. 4. c. 62, and any Act amending the same, or any Act passed or to be passed in this present session of Parliament consolidating or amending such Acts, shall have ordered and directed any sum or sums of money to be advanced out of the produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom arising in Ireland, for the defraying of the salary or the travelling or other expenses of any Commissioner of Valuation, or for defraying the allowances of any valuers appointed under the provisions of the said recited Acts or any of them, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any and every county in which such Commissioner and such valuers shall be employed, and they are hereby authorized and required, on the production of the certificate of the Chief Secretary of such Lord Lieutenant, or of the under secretary, of the amount of money advanced and paid as aforesaid, to present (without previous application to presentment Sessions), to be levied off their respective counties or any barony or baronies therein, the amount of the sum or sums stated in such certificate, in such manner and in such proportions as the said Lord Lieutenant shall direct; and when and so soon as the sum or sums so to be presented as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the treasurer of any county, such treasurer shall pay over the same in such manner and to such bank or person as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

cxix. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county to present at any assizes such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to repair or widen to any width not exceeding fifteen feet any towing path and trackway on the bank of any navigable river on which boats have been accustomed to be towed by horses; to be levied off the barony or baronies in which such towing path and trackway are locally situate: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to the repairing or widening of the towing paths or trackways of canals or rivers whereon tolls are paid or payable.

cxx. That it shall be lawful for any person or persons who now have or hereafter shall have any ferry over a river (except in cities and towns corporate) to erect and support a bridge at his or their own expense over such river in the place of such ferry, and to take and receive for passing such bridge such toll, and no more, as they are entitled to receive for passing such ferry, so as that such bridge shall not obstruct the navigation of such river; and that such tolls shall be recoverable in the like manner, and under such penalties for refusing or evading to pay the same, by any Justice of the Peace, as is prescribed by the 30 Geo. 3. (I.), intituled, 'An Act for the building a Bridge over the River Loughfoyle in the City of Londonderry and the Suburbs thereof,' and that it shall be lawful for any grand jury, upon an application made and approved of in manner by this Act directed, to make presentment for the purchase of the properties in any such bridges or ferries, in order to open the same, free of tolls, for the benefit of the public.

cxxi. That at any time after the completing and opening of any bridge built in pursuance of 19 & 20 Geo. 3. (I.), intituled, 'An Act for empowering Grand Juries to present Bridges, and Tolls to be paid for passing the same, in certain Cases,' and of the 53 Geo. 3, amending the same, it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of the county in which such bridge shall be situate, or if situate in two counties, then for the grand juries of such counties, to redeem the tolls payable under the said Acts to the owner or owners of the said tolls, by paying in one sum to such owner or owners the original sum expended in building such bridge, with any deficiency of interest which may arise, in case by the perception of the said tolls the said owner or owners shall not have received, above all necessary costs and charges of repair and collection of the said tolls, the legal interest at the least for the money originally expended in building and erecting such bridge; and on such payment of the original sum so expended, and of such deficiency, if any there shall be, then the said tolls shall cease, and the passage of such bridge shall be open and free to all cattle, carriages, and persons whatsoever; and such grand jury is hereby empowered, upon an application made and approved of in manner by this Act directed, to raise by presentment, to be levied off the county at large, such sum or sums of money as may be sufficient to defray the expenses of redeeming such tolls in manner aforesaid, such sum or sums to be paid to the owner or owners of such tolls.

cxvii. That nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or affect the power or duties of any grand jury to make any presentment which they are authorized or required to make, under and by virtue of 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 61; provided that no previous application or approval at presentment Sessions under the provisions of this Act shall be necessary to authorize any such presentment.

cxviii. That nothing in this Act contained shall limit or affect the authority of grand juries to make presentment for clearing, sinking, embanking, or altering the course of any river or stream pursuant to the provisions of 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 57, intituled, 'An Act to empower Landed Proprietors in Ireland to sink, embank, and remove Obstructions in Rivers;' provided that an application for such presentment, in the form prescribed by the said recited Act, shall have been previously made and approved, in the manner hereinbefore appointed, at the presentment Sessions holden for the barony where the work to which such application may refer shall be locally situate.

cxv. That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to limit or affect the powers, duties, or authorities of grand juries to make any presentments which they are authorized or required to make under and by virtue of 7 Geo. 4. c. 74, intituled, 'An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland': Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any grand jury to make any presentment under the provisions of the said recited Act for any salary or compensation to any keeper, turnkey, or matron of any gaol, penitentiary, bridewell, or house of correction, or for building, rebuilding, altering, enlarging, or repairing any gaol, bridewell, house of correction, or other prison, (except in the case of repairs made under the provisions of the said recited Act, in consequence of any fire or other sudden accident which may happen to any such gaol, bridewell, house of correction, or other prison,) unless application for such presentment shall have been made and approved at presentment Sessions in the manner hereinbefore directed and provided: Provided also, that all contracts which any grand jury is authorized to make or enter into under the provisions of the said recited Act shall be made by sealed tenders and proposals, to be delivered, opened, and dealt with, and security to be taken in like manner as hereinbefore provided with respect to other contracts for public works, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that no such contract shall be entered into, nor any presentment made thereupon, save upon and after an application made and approved at presentment Sessions as hereinbefore directed.

cxvi. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, upon the recommendation of the inspectors general of prisons, or one of them, supported by a presentment of the presentment Sessions of the county at large, and by the certificates of the board of superintendence of any gaol, bridewell, house of correction, or other prison, and by such other certificates as such Lord Lieutenant shall require or direct, that any keeper, turnkey, or matron of such gaol, bridewell, house of correction, or other prison, is incapable, from age or infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his or her office, to order that such keeper, turnkey, or matron shall and may be superannuated, and shall and may receive such yearly allowance or superannuation as to such grand jury shall seem fitting and proper; and thereupon such keeper, turnkey, or matron shall cease to hold his or her office; and the yearly sum to which he or she shall become entitled shall be presented by the grand jury of the county in which such gaol or other prison shall be situate, in equal moieties, one at each Assizes, during the life of the person so superannuated, on its being proved to the satisfaction of such grand jury that such person is living: Provided always, that no such superannuation allowance for any such keeper, turnkey, or matron shall in any case exceed two-thirds of the annual salary to which such persons shall be entitled at the time of his or her superannuation, nor the proportions with reference to the amount of the salary of any such keeper, turnkey, or matron, and the periods of their services respectively, which by 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 24, are directed to be observed.

CCXVI. That nothing in this Act contained shall limit or affect the powers, duties, or authorities of grand juries to make presentments for any public work or for the raising of any public money for which they are now or hereafter may be authorized or required to make presentment by virtue and pursuant to the provisions of 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33, intituled, 'An Act for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland,' or any other Act amending or altering the same; and wherever in and by the said recited or other Act grand juries are empowered to make presentments in order to obtain advances, loans, or grants from the Commissioners for the execution of the said recited or other Act for the purpose of any public work which under the laws in force at the time of the passing of such Act it was competent for grand juries to present, they are hereby authorized and empowered to make similar presentments in all respects and for like purposes for any public work which they are under the provisions of this Act authorized to present, and such presentments when made shall be dealt with by the said Commissioners in all respects as the presentments which grand juries were empowered to make in order to obtain advances, loans, or grants under the provisions of the said recited Act: Provided always, that no presentation shall be made for the purpose of obtaining any grant, loan, or advance of money from the Commissioners for the execution of the said recited or other Act, unless an application shall have been duly made and approved at the proper presentment Sessions in the manner hereinbefore appointed; and all works so applied for (except in the case of works to be constructed or executed under the direction of or by persons in the employment of the said Commissioners) shall be executed by contract made upon sealed tenders and proposals in the manner hereinbefore prescribed with respect to other public works to be executed by grand jury presentments; and in all other respects the said recited Act or Acts, and all powers, authorities, conditions, clauses, and regulations therein contained, shall be and remain in full force and effect, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCXVII. That on the face of every presentment for the levying of any public money whatsoever, the year of the king's reign, and the chapter and section of the Act of Parliament (as printed by the King's printer) under which such presentment is authorized to be made and stated, shall be inserted; and every such presentment shall be entered in the county book and in all the schedules of presentment, with a marginal note of such Acts in manner aforesaid; and the title of the Act so referred to shall be inserted at the end of all such schedules, in default of which it shall not be lawful to present for printing the same; and all presentments not made according to the directions foregoing shall be null and void.

CCXVIII. That in cases where the cost of executing any public work shall exceed 20*l*. it shall be lawful for the grand jury, at the time of presenting for the work, to authorize the treasurer of the county, from and out of any funds in his hands applicable to the purpose, to advance from time to time during the execution of the work to the contractor, upon his application, any sum not exceeding in the whole three-fourths of the cost of such work; provided, that no such advances shall be made by such treasurer unless such application shall be accompanied by a certificate attached thereto, and signed by the county surveyor, that more than the sum applied for by such contractor, in addition to any previous advances made by him for such work, has been fairly and honestly expended upon it conformably to the contract.

CCXIX. That all contractors under this Act shall be liable to be summoned before the Justices assembled at any petty sessions on complaint of the party aggrieved for recovery of any wages or money payable to any person employed by them in the execution of such works, so as the sum demanded do not exceed 6*l*.; and such Justices assembled as aforesaid are hereby authorized and required to hear such complaint and adjudicate thereon; and it shall be no defence to such complaint that such contractor has not himself received any payment upon foot of his contract; and the decision of such Justices shall be final; and the sum adjudged to be due shall be levied by warrant of distress, under hand and seal of any two such Justices, off the goods and chattels of such contractor.

CCXX. That every person who may contract for the execution of any work under this Act shall, on the completion of the work for which he may have contracted, or whensoever by the terms of such contract he may be entitled to payment, give notice to the surveyor of the county, ten days at the least before the day appointed for the holding of the first presentment Sessions in the county after every assizes or presenting term, of his intention to make application as hereinafter provided, and require of such surveyor a certificate of the due execution of such work or performance of such contract; and such contractor shall lodge with the secretary of the grand jury, within the period hereinbefore limited for the lodgment of notices of applications for presentments for public works, a notice of his intention to apply for payment of the sum contracted for by him, together with such certificates to be obtained from the said surveyor; and the secretary to the grand jury shall arrange in like manner as he has been hereinbefore directed to arrange applications for presentments all such notices and certificates, and annex to each the number by which the contract in respect whereof such notice or certificate may be given is distinguished in the book of abstracts which such secretary has been hereinbefore directed to keep and indorse on such notice and certificate the date of the lodgment of the same; and such secretary shall lay all such notices and certificates, with an abstract thereof and index thereto, before the presentment Sessions to be holden for the barony or one of the baronies, or the county of a city or county of a town, in which such work shall have been executed; and the Justices and cess payers at such sessions shall examine into all such applications for payment on the part of such contractors, and inspect the notices thereof and the certificates aforesaid, and examine the surveyor or surveyors, and all other persons whom they may think it necessary to examine for the purpose of ascertaining the due execution of the work or matter contracted for, and shall therein have and exercise all such powers and authorities as in the case of applications for presentments, and in like manner determine and decide upon all such applications for payment by majority of votes; and the chairman at such sessions shall on every application which may be approved indorse the word "Allowed," and on every application which shall not be approved he shall indorse the word "Disallowed," and the reason of such disallowance, and a note of or reference to the particulars of the execution of the work which may have caused such disallowance; and all such applications, with the notices and certificates thereto belonging, shall be delivered to the secretary of the grand jury, to be laid before them at the next ensuing assizes, and such grand jury shall take such applications as have been approved into consideration, and allow or disallow the same according to their discretion; but it shall not be lawful for such grand jury or for the Court to allow any application which shall not have been approved of at such sessions; and no such contractor shall be entitled to payment who shall not have given such notice and made such application, nor unless such application shall have been approved and allowed as aforesaid; anything in any contract contained, or any law or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCXXXI. That every person who may contract with any grand jury for any county, printing shall, instead of the certificate of the county surveyor, obtain a certificate from the clerk of the peace, the secretary of the grand jury, and the county treasurer, of the proper execution of such printing for their respective offices, and the performance of such contract; and such person shall lodge such certificate, and apply for payment of the sum contracted for by him, in all respects as hereinbefore provided as to contracts for public works, provided that such application may be made by himself alone.

CCXXXII. That it shall not be lawful for the treasurer of any county to pay any money which may be applied for by any contractor or other person, the application whereof has been traversed, unless such traverse shall be withdrawn, or judgment given for the defendant on the trial thereof.

CCXXXIII. That it shall be lawful for any person paying grand jury cess for any county to traverse any presentment made under this Act by the grand jury of any such county, and also to traverse the application of such contractor under this Act for payment, on the ground of such contractor not having complied with the terms of his agreement or with the provisions of this Act; and the Court at each assizes is hereby authorized and required to try the truth of the fact by a jury in the same manner as any traverse within the jurisdiction of the court ought to be tried; and it shall not be lawful for the clerk of the crown or clerk of the peace to take any fee for or in respect of such traverse, and costs shall be paid by the party against whom such traverse shall be found; provided that although there shall be a verdict against such traverse, yet if the Court shall be of opinion that there was reasonable and probable ground for traversing such presentment or the application of such contractor, the costs shall be paid by the treasurer of the county from and out of the county monies in his hands, and the grand jury shall present the same without previous application to presentment Sessions: Provided always, that every person intending to traverse any presentment or payment for which it is by this Act required that application shall be made at the presentment Sessions, shall give notice in writing of such intention to the secretary of the grand jury within two days after the first day of such sessions, and the same or any other presentment shall be traversed only at the assizes at which the presentment shall be made or payment required.

CCXXXIV. That it shall be lawful for any occupier or owner of the ground through which any new road is to be made or into which any old road is to be widened to traverse the presentment for the same for damages at such assizes as aforesaid, having given like notice to the chairman of the presenting Sessions and to the secretary of the grand jury, previous to the commencement of such assizes, of the amount of damage intended to be claimed, which traverse or traverses shall be tried then or at the ensuing assizes, upon the entry in the crown book of the presentment and traverse, without making up any record; and the jury which shall try such traverse shall be sworn true verdict to give whether any and what damages will occur thereby to the traverser, taking into consideration any collateral advantages which may result or accrue to such traverser by reason thereof, and making abatement accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the grand jury to present, without previous application at presentment Sessions, such sum or sums of money so found for damages, to be raised off the county or off the barony respectively in which the traverser shall have made it appear that he or she sustained the damages, and to such latter presentment no traverse shall be allowed or received; and upon the damages so found being presented for the use of such traverser, or deposited for his or their use with the treasurer of the county, it shall be lawful for the contractor to proceed in the execution of the presentment without the interruption of any person.

CCXXXV. That from and after the commencement this Act, in all cases of maliciously or wantonly setting fire to, burning, or destroying any house, outhouse, or other building, or any haggard, corn, hay, straw, or turf, or of maliciously setting fire to, burning, or sinking any boat or barge laden with corn or other provisions, or of maliciously killing, maiming, boughing, or injuring any horse, mule, ass, or swine, or any horned cattle or sheep, or of maliciously damaging, injuring, or destroying any bank, gate, lock, weir, sluice, bridge, dam, or other work belonging to any person, public canal or navigation, any person or persons injured by any such offence, and intending to apply for compensation for any loss or damage sustained thereby, shall serve notice in writing of such injury and of such his or their intention upon the high constable of the barony and the churchwardens of the parish, and at the nearest police station, or, if there be no churchwarden, upon two of the principal inhabitants of the parish wherein such offence shall have been committed, within six days at least after the commission of the same, and shall lodge with the high constable or secretary of the grand jury, in like manner and time as applications for presentments for public works are hereinbefore directed to be lodged, an application setting forth the loss or damage occasioned by such offence, and stating the time and place when and where such injury was done, the particular property consumed, injured, or destroyed, and the amount of damage thereby sustained, and by what number of persons, and whom, by name and description, such injury was done, if such offender or offenders shall be known, and if not, stating such particulars respecting such offender or offenders as may be known; and like notices shall be posted of such application as hereinbefore prescribed in cases of other applications to presentment Sessions; and such application shall be scheduled by the secretary of the grand jury, and by him dealt with in all respects as other applications under this Act; and the presentment Sessions shall examine into the serving and posting the notices of such application, and into the merits of the same, and the chairman shall indorse their opinion thereupon, and such secretary shall deliver such application so indorsed to the grand jury at the next assizes; and the said grand jury shall during the time appointed for transacting the fiscal business of the county examine into the matter of such application upon the oath of the party injured, or such other evidence as can be produced touching the said offence; and the said grand jury shall on the consideration of the said matter either disallow such application altogether, or present such sum or sums of money as the person or persons so injured ought to receive for such injury or damage, to be levied off the county at large, or such barony, parish, district, townland, or sub-denomination thereof as the grand jury shall direct.

CCXXXVI. That every application under this Act for compensation for loss or damage occasioned by any malicious injury as aforesaid shall be made at the next presentment Sessions which shall be holden after the commission of such offence in the barony, county of a city, or county of a town where the same shall have been committed, unless any such malicious injury shall have been done after the day appointed for holding the first presentment Sessions after the assizes for the county in which such injury shall have been done, or so near the day of holding the same that such application for compensation cannot be duly lodged as hereinbefore directed, in either of which cases the person or persons so injured shall make such application at the presentment Sessions which shall be holden next but one after the time of the commission of such offence for the barony, county of a city, or county of a town where the same shall have been committed, and the notices of such application shall be posted accordingly; and it shall not be lawful for any grand jury to make any presentment for compensation for malicious injury under the provisions of this Act, except at the assizes next ensuing to the sessions where application shall have been made therefor.

CXXXVII. That every person or persons who shall, under the provisions of this Act, apply for compensation for any loss or damage occasioned by malicious injury as aforesaid, shall within three days after the commission of the said injury, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause, give in his, her, or their examination upon oath, or that examination upon oath shall be given by his, her, or their servant or servants who had the care of his, her, or their property so injured, before some Justice of the Peace, of the county where such injury shall have been committed, thereby specifying whether he, she, or they do know the person or persons who committed the said injury, or any of them, and in such case such examiner or examiners shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute such offender or offenders by indictment or otherwise according to the laws of this kingdom.

CXXXVIII. That all such applications whatsoever for compensation for loss or damage sustained by malicious injury shall be laid by the acting clerk of the crown before the Judge of Assize upon his arrival; and in case any person paying grand jury cess for the county or barony chargeable with the sum presented by the grand jury upon any such applications shall be desirous of opposing any such presentment, or in case any person whose application for compensation shall have been disallowed by the grand jury shall wish to have his or their application reconsidered, such cess payer or person or persons applying for compensation shall be heard; and in either of such cases the Judge, if he shall so think fit, shall direct a jury to be forthwith impanelled to try the matter of such presentment or application respectively, and according as the issue shall be found for or against such cess payer, the Judge shall discharge, alter, or stay such presentment; and in case of application disallowed, if the issue shall be found for the person or persons applying for compensation, the Judge shall direct the grand jury to make presentment thereupon accordingly, otherwise such application shall be discharged; and all verdicts of juries impanelled as aforesaid to try any such issues shall be final and conclusive to all persons whatsoever; and it shall be lawful for the said Judge to award by rule for that purpose costs to the parties for whom the issue shall be found against the other party or parties respectively in any sum not exceeding 10*l.* sterling; and the said Judge is hereby empowered to direct and issue forthwith an order or orders in the nature of execution against such last-mentioned party or parties respectively, which said order or orders the sheriff of such county is hereby required to execute in the same manner as in cases of executions against the chattels and effects of defendants.

CXXXIX. That no presentment for compensation for loss or damage as aforesaid shall at any time be removed by certiorari; nor shall any such presentment be at any time quashed for any informality, imperfection, or defect in form whatsoever; and no traverse save as aforesaid shall be allowed or received to any such presentment; nor shall any action or suit for the recovery of any satisfaction or damages sustained by reason of any injury, for which the person or persons injured thereby may be entitled to apply for compensation under the provisions of this Act, be brought or prosecuted against any chief or other Magistrate, or any inhabitant or inhabitants of any parish, or other person or persons whatsoever, any Act or Acts now or heretofore in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXL. That in case such burning or other malicious injury as aforesaid shall be committed on the verge or within the dioceses of one mile of the boundary of any two or more counties, the person or persons who shall sustain such injury may apply for compensation, in the manner hereinbefore directed, in either or any one of such neighbouring counties; and all proceedings shall be taken thereupon as hereinbefore provided with respect to other applications for damages for malicious injury; and in case any sum or sums of money shall be presented by the grand jury of the county where such application shall be made, or shall be finally awarded by the verdict of any jury, as and for compensation to the person or persons applying as aforesaid, the Judge at the assizes of such county shall have power and authority to apportion the amount of such compensation amongst such neighbouring counties, and shall direct the proportion of the same which shall be paid by them respectively, and shall certify the same accordingly; and such presentment shall thereupon be diminished, or presentment made, according to the proportion which the said Judge shall direct to be paid by such county; and the grand jury or grand juries of the said other neighbouring county or counties respectively shall and they are hereby required, on the production of the certificate of such Judge declaring the proportion to be paid by such county or counties, to present such proportion when the same shall exceed 100*l.* to be raised off the county at large, and if such proportion shall be under 100*l.* to be raised off the barony or baronies in or near to which such injury shall be alleged to be committed, and paid to the person or persons so applying, as the case may require.

CXLI. That no fee shall be demanded from or paid by any such cess payer or person applying to the clerk of the crown, Judge's clerk, or jury, for any matter or thing relating to any such application, presentment, or trial.

CXLII. That the clerk of the crown of every county in Ireland shall, within seven days after every assizes, deliver to the treasurer of such county, without a fee or reward, a copy, attested upon oath and signed by himself, of all presentments which shall have been made and filed at the preceding assizes, and likewise copies of all queries discharged and remaining undischarged, distinguishing the same; and such treasurer shall, within thirty days after the receipt thereof, cause a number of copies of such presentments and queries, and also a detailed abstract of his accounts, to be printed and distributed as the grand jury shall direct; and it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury at each assizes to present, to be levied off the county, such sum as shall be necessary for defraying the expense of printing and distributing such copies, and also to present all such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary to defray the expense of printing the treasurer's account, and all copies of schedules of applications, and other printing required under the provisions of this Act, or which may be ordered by the Judge of Assize, or grand jury, or presentment Sessions, for any county purpose.

such sessions; and no such contractor shall be entitled to payment who shall not have given such notice and made such application, nor unless such application shall have been approved and allowed as aforesaid; anything in any contract contained, or any law or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCXXI. That every person who may contract with any grand jury for any county, printing shall, instead of the certificate of the county surveyor, obtain a certificate from the clerk of the peace, the secretary of the grand jury, and the county treasurer, of the proper execution of such printing for their respective offices, and the performance of such contract; and such person shall lodge such certificate, and apply for payment of the sum contracted for by him, in all respects as hereinbefore provided as to contracts for public works, provided that such application may be made by himself alone.

CCXXII. That it shall not be lawful for the treasurer of any county to pay any money which may be applied for by any contractor or other person, the application whereof has been traversed, unless such traverse shall be withdrawn, or judgment given for the defendant on the trial thereof.

CCXXIII. That it shall be lawful for any person paying grand jury cess for any county to traverse any presentment made under this Act by the grand jury of any such county, and also to traverse the application of such contractor under this Act for payment, on the ground of such contractor not having complied with the terms of his agreement or with the provisions of this Act; and the Court at each assizes is hereby authorized and required to try the truth of the fact by a jury in the same manner as any traverse within the jurisdiction of the court ought to be tried; and it shall not be lawful for the clerk of the crown or clerk of the peace to take any fee for or in respect of such traverse, and costs shall be paid by the party against whom such traverse shall be found; provided that although there shall be a verdict against such traverse, yet if the Court shall be of opinion that there was reasonable and probable ground for traversing such presentment or the application of such contractor, the costs shall be paid by the treasurer of the county from and out of the county monies in his hands, and the grand jury shall present the same without previous application to presentment Sessions: Provided always, that every person intending to traverse any presentment or payment for which it is by this Act required that application shall be made at the presentment Sessions, shall give notice in writing of such intention to the secretary of the grand jury within two days after the first day of such sessions, and the same or any other presentment shall be traversed only at the assizes at which the presentment shall be made or payment required.

CCXXIV. That it shall be lawful for any occupier or owner of the ground through which any new road is to be made or into which any old road is to be widened to traverse the presentment for the same for damages at such assizes as aforesaid, having given like notice to the chairman of the presenting Sessions and to the secretary of the grand jury, previous to the commencement of such assizes, of the amount of damage intended to be claimed, which traverse or traverses shall be tried then or at the ensuing assizes, upon the entry in the crown book of the presentment and traverse, without making up any record; and the jury which shall try such traverse shall be sworn true verdict to give whether any and what damages will occur thereby to the traverser, taking into consideration any collateral advantages which may result or accrue to such traverser by reason thereof, and making abatement accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the grand jury to present, without previous application at presentment Sessions, such sum or sums of money so found for damages, to be raised off the county or off the barony respectively in which the traverser shall have made it appear that he or she sustained the damages, and to such latter presentment no traverse shall be allowed or received; and upon the damages so found being presented for the use of such traverser, or deposited for his or their use with the treasurer of the county, it shall be lawful for the contractor to proceed in the execution of the presentment without the interruption of any person.

CCXXV. That from and after the commencement this Act, in all cases of maliciously or wantonly setting fire to, burning, or destroying any house, outhouse, or other building, or any haggard, corn, hay, straw, or turf, or of maliciously setting fire to, burning, or sinking any boat or barge laden with corn or other provisions, or of maliciously killing, maiming, boughing, or injuring any horse, mule, ass, or swine, or any horned cattle or sheep, or of maliciously damaging, injuring, or destroying any bank, gate, lock, weir, sluice, bridge, dam, or other work belonging to any person, public canal or navigation, any person or persons injured by any such offence, and intending to apply for compensation for any loss or damage sustained thereby, shall serve notice in writing of such injury and of such his or their intention upon the high constable of the barony and the churchwardens of the parish, and at the nearest police station, or, if there be no churchwarden, upon two of the principal inhabitants of the parish wherein such offence shall have been committed, within six days at least after the commission of the same, and shall lodge with the high constable or secretary of the grand jury, in like manner and time as applications for presentments for public works are hereinbefore directed to be lodged, an application setting forth the loss or damage occasioned by such offence, and stating the time and place when and where such injury was done, the particular property consumed, injured, or destroyed, and the amount of damage thereby sustained, and by what number of persons, and whom, by name and description, such injury was done, if such offender or offenders shall be known, and if not, stating such particulars respecting such offender or offenders as may be known; and like notices shall be posted of such application as hereinbefore prescribed in cases of other applications to presentment Sessions; and such application shall be scheduled by the secretary of the grand jury, and by him dealt with in all respects as other applications under this Act; and the presentment Sessions shall examine into the serving and posting the notices of such application, and into the merits of the same, and the chairman shall indorse their opinion thereupon, and such secretary shall deliver such application so indorsed to the grand jury at the next assizes; and the said grand jury shall during the time appointed for transacting the fiscal business of the county examine into the matter of such application upon the oath of the party injured, or such other evidence as can be produced touching the said offence; and the said grand jury shall on the consideration of the said matter either disallow such application altogether, or present such sum or sums of money as the person or persons so injured ought to receive for such injury or damage, to be levied off the county at large, or such barony, parish, district, townland, or sub-denomination thereof as the grand jury shall direct.

CCXXVI. That every application under this Act for compensation for loss or damage occasioned by any malicious injury as aforesaid shall be made at the next presentment Sessions which shall be holden after the commission of such offence in the barony, county of a city, or county of a town where the same shall have been committed, unless any such malicious injury shall have been done after the day appointed for holding the first presentment Sessions after the assizes for the county in which such injury shall have been done, or so near the day of holding the same that such application for compensation cannot be duly lodged as hereinbefore directed, in either of which cases the person or persons so injured shall make such application at the presentment Sessions which shall be holden next but one after the time of the commission of such offence for the barony, county of a city, or county of a town where the same shall have been committed, and the notices of such application shall be posted accordingly; and it shall not be lawful for any grand jury to make any presentment for compensation for malicious injury under the provisions of this Act, except at the assizes next ensuing to the sessions where application shall have been made therefor.

CXXXVII. That every person or persons who shall, under the provisions of this Act, apply for compensation for any loss or damage occasioned by malicious injury as aforesaid, shall within three days after the commission of the said injury, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause, give in his, her, or their examination upon oath, or that examination upon oath shall be given by his, her, or their servant or servants who had the care of his, her, or their property so injured, before some Justice of the Peace, of the county where such injury shall have been committed, thereby specifying whether he, she, or they do know the person or persons who committed the said injury, or any of them, and in such case such examiner or examiners shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute such offender or offenders by indictment or otherwise according to the laws of this kingdom.

CXXXVIII. That all such applications whatsoever for compensation for loss or damage sustained by malicious injury shall be laid by the acting clerk of the crown before the Judge of Assize upon his arrival; and in case any person paying grand jury cess for the county or barony chargeable with the sum presented by the grand jury upon any such applications shall be desirous of opposing any such presentment, or in case any person whose application for compensation shall have been disallowed by the grand jury shall wish to have his or their application reconsidered, such cess payer or person or persons applying for compensation shall be heard; and in either of such cases the Judge, if he shall so think fit, shall direct a jury to be forthwith impanelled to try the matter of such presentment or application respectively, and according as the issue shall be found for or against such cess payer, the Judge shall discharge, alter, or fiat such presentment; and in case of application disallowed, if the issue shall be found for the person or persons applying for compensation, the Judge shall direct the grand jury to make presentment thereupon accordingly, otherwise such application shall be discharged; and all verdicts of juries impanelled as aforesaid to try any such issues shall be final and conclusive to all persons whatsoever; and it shall be lawful for the said Judge to award by rule for that purpose costs to the parties for whom the issue shall be found against the other party or parties respectively in any sum not exceeding 10*l.* sterling; and the said Judge is hereby empowered to direct and issue forthwith an order or orders in the nature of execution against such last-mentioned party or parties respectively, which said order or orders the sheriff of such county is hereby required to execute in the same manner as in cases of executions against the chattels and effects of defendants.

CXXXIX. That no presentment for compensation for loss or damage as aforesaid shall at any time be removed by certiorari; nor shall any such presentment be at any time quashed for any informality, imperfection, or defect in form whatsoever; and no traverse save as aforesaid shall be allowed or received to any such presentment; nor shall any action or suit for the recovery of any satisfaction or damages sustained by reason of any injury, for which the person or persons injured thereby may be entitled to apply for compensation under the provisions of this Act, be brought or prosecuted against any chief or other Magistrate, or any inhabitant or inhabitants of any parish, or other person or persons whatsoever, any Act or Acts now or heretofore in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXL. That in case such burning or other malicious injury as aforesaid shall be committed on the verge or within the distances of one mile of the boundary of any two or more counties, the person or persons who shall sustain such injury may apply for compensation, in the manner hereinbefore directed, in either or any one of such neighbouring counties; and all proceedings shall be taken thereupon as hereinbefore provided with respect to other applications for damages for malicious injury; and in case any sum or sums of money shall be presented by the grand jury of the county where such application shall be made, or shall be finally awarded by the verdict of any jury, as and for compensation to the person or persons applying as aforesaid, the Judge at the assizes of such county shall have power and authority to apportion the amount of such compensation amongst such neighbouring counties, and shall direct the proportion of the same which shall be paid by them respectively, and shall certify the same accordingly; and such presentment shall thereupon be diminished, or presentment made, according to the proportion which the said Judge shall direct to be paid by such county; and the grand jury or grand juries of the said other neighbouring county or counties respectively shall and they are hereby required, on the production of the certificate of such Judge declaring the proportion to be paid by such county or counties, to present such proportion when the same shall exceed 100*l.* to be raised off the county at large, and if such proportion shall be under 100*l.* to be raised off the barony or baronies in or near to which such injury shall be alleged to be committed, and paid to the person or persons so applying, as the case may require.

CXLI. That no fee shall be demanded from or paid by any such cess payer or person applying to the clerk of the crown, Judge's clerk, or jury, for any matter or thing relating to any such application, presentment, or trial.

CXLII. That the clerk of the crown of every county in Ireland shall, within seven days after every assizes, deliver to the treasurer of such county, without a fee or reward, a copy, attested upon oath and signed by himself, of all presentments which shall have been made and stated at the preceding assizes, and likewise copies of all queries discharged and remaining undischarged, distinguishing the same; and such treasurer shall, within thirty days after the receipt thereof, cause a number of copies of such presentments and queries, and also a detailed abstract of his accounts, to be printed and distributed as the grand jury shall direct; and it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury at each assizes to present, to be levied off the county, such sum as shall be necessary for defraying the expense of printing and distributing such copies, and also to present all such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary to defray the expense of printing the treasurer's account, and all copies of schedules of applications, and other printing required under the provisions of this Act, or which may be ordered by the Judge of Assize, or grand jury, or presentment Sessions, for any county purpose.

CXLIII. That the treasurer of each grand jury, in the preparation of all printed lists of presentments granted by each grand jury, shall place in a separate page of such lists the several sums of money which shall have been presented by such grand jury under the laws now in force, under which it is imperative on such grand jury to make presentments for various public services; and the amount of all sums in such lists shall be totted up at the foot of each column.

CXLIV. That the treasurer of every county in Ireland shall, on or before the twenty-fifth day of December in each and every year, cause a true copy, signed by himself, of all presentments which shall have been made by the grand jury and filed by the Court at any assizes or presenting term in such year for the county whereof he is treasurer to be forwarded to the secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, to be by him laid before Parliament; and in case any treasurer of any county shall neglect to make such return as aforesaid he shall forfeit his office.

CXLV. That it shall be lawful for any grand jury to re-present any such sums of money as now are or at any time hereafter shall be unpaid or in arrear out of any denomination, barony, or county of a city or town, to be raised and levied on such denomination, barony, county of a city or town, upon which the same was originally required by the treasurer's warrant to be levied; and to present all such sums of money which shall have hitherto been or which shall at any time hereafter remain unpaid on account of the absconding or insolvency of any county treasurer, collector, or other person empowered to receive or collect public money, who is or shall be insolvent, to be raised and levied either upon the county or upon the barony in which the same was before levied, as they shall think fit, which sums shall be levied in the same manner, and subject to the same rules, regulations, provisions, and powers, as any money to be levied by virtue of this Act is to be subject; and in case any money so detained or secreted by any collector, treasurer, or other person empowered to collect or receive public money shall be thereafter recovered, it shall be paid to the then treasurer; and such money so paid, and any balance, arrears of, or surplus on the salary of any county officer, and all other such like surplus and balances of money raised by authority of this Act, or which may anyhow arise in the hands of any county treasurer, shall be applicable to defray the expenses of any public work or any county charge whatsoever which the grand jury are authorized to present under the provisions of this Act, and shall be presented by the grand jury for such of the said purposes as to them shall seem expedient; provided always, that such sum shall be applied to the credit of any county or barony off which it was originally levied; and provided further, that before it shall be lawful for any grand jury to re-present any sum of money as unpaid or in arrear out of any county or barony or denomination, to be raised and levied on such county or barony or denomination, it shall be made to appear, by affidavit of the collector, to such grand jury that such sum is actually in arrear and unpaid by such county or barony or denomination respectively, and that it could not have been levied from the persons or out of the lands charged with or liable to pay the same.

CXLVI. That whenever any sum shall have been presented for any work which shall not be executed within the time or according to the terms prescribed by the contract for executing the same, it shall be applied in such manner and under such direction as the grand jury shall appoint, for the purpose of executing or completing such works, and shall be accounted for by such person so appointed to apply the same.

CXLVII. That the grand jury of each county shall at each assizes appoint a proper person, resident in the barony or half barony or baronies, not being a Magistrate or attorney, to be high constable and collector for each barony in such county, to collect all money which shall be presented to be raised on such barony or any parish or townland therein, and also such barony's proportion of the money to be presented to be raised on the county at large; and every such high constable shall have all power and authority and shall exercise and perform all duties now or hereafter to be by law required of any high constable; and the grand jury of each county of a city or county of a town shall at each assizes appoint a proper person or persons to be collector or collectors for such county of a city or county of a town, to collect all money which shall be presented to be raised on such county of a city or county of a town, or on any parish or district thereof: Provided always, that if any such high constable or collector shall happen to die before he shall have collected the whole of the money presented to be raised as aforesaid on such barony, county of a city, or county of a town for which he shall be high constable or collector, or if any case of vacancy should occur, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said county, at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace or adjournment thereof, to appoint another fit and proper person to be high constable or collector pro tempore, until a high constable or collector shall be appointed by the grand jury of such county, county of a city, or county of a town as aforesaid.

CXLVIII. That no person shall act as high constable or collector unless he shall have given security at the assizes before the grand jury by whom he shall have been appointed, or before the Justices of the Peace at the sessions if such high constable or collector shall have been appointed at sessions, by two sufficient sureties joining with him in executing a bond and warrant of attorney, without stamp, to confess judgment to the treasurer of the county, conditioned for his duly collecting and paying to such treasurer on or before the first day of the next assizes all such public money as he is or shall be required by him to collect; and on his producing to the grand jury the treasurer's certificate of his having paid the same to the treasurer, pursuant to such recognizance, it shall be lawful for the grand jury to present without previous application to presentment any sum exceeding 9d. in the pound on the amount of the collection to be paid to such high constable or collector. Provided always, that no presentment for such poundage shall be made by any grand jury or by the treasurer's warrant under which such high constable or collector has levied such public money, nor unless such high constable or collector and their deputies respectively shall have sworn before the grand jury that such public money has been fairly and impartially levied, and that no more money shall be levied by him or them, or by any deputy or assistants, than is contained in the said warrant, with the customary collector's fee, has been collected, to the best of his ability; and that such high constable and collector as aforesaid may, by writing under his hand and seal, certify to the Justices of the Peace, for whom he shall be answerable, to assist him in collecting the public money, that he has duly collected the same, and entered thereon shall vest in and may be used for by the treasurer for the discharge of his duties, and that he has not received any proceedings of any former treasurer on filing a suggestion stating his appointment to the Court in which such proceeding may be pending that he is the act.

CXLIX. That the treasurer of each county shall within one month after the assizes, issue his warrants for the recovery of the presentments of the preceding assizes, issue his warrants Act, use to be the collectors for levying and collecting the sums to be raised off each barony or county of a city or town; which same every collector to whom such warrant is directed is hereby empowered and required to raise and levy, and to pay the amount to the treasurer two days before the first day of the next assizes; and in every such treasurer's warrant shall be inserted the names of the several manors, parishes, or denominations contained in that portion of the county which such person is to collect from as the same is contained in the county books, barony books, and applotment tables, and also the whole sum to be collected by such person, and the portion thereof which each manor, parish, or denomination is to pay, according to its contents in the said books and tables, or as it has been usually rated at; and every such warrant of every such treasurer shall be and remain in full force and effect for the term of two years next after the date thereof, notwithstanding the resignation or removal of the person to whom it was originally addressed, unless the sums required by such warrant to be levied shall have been received, or unless the grand jury of the county shall have re-presented the same.

CL. That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal 7 Geo. 4. c. 62, or any Act or Acts altering or amending the same, or any Act passed or to be passed in this present session of Parliament consolidating and amending such Acts, but that so soon as the list and valuation by the said Acts or any of them directed to be made shall be completed and published in form and manner therein prescribed, all county cess charges whatsoever and all grand jury rate imposed or to be imposed on any county by presentments of the grand jury, or to be raised off any county, or any barony, parish or division thereof, and all parish rates imposed or to be imposed or levied or to be levied under the authority of this or any other Act or Acts, shall be assessed and levied according to the proportions specified in such list and valuation so published, anything in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLII. That every person authorized to collect and receive grand jury cess shall, within ten days after he shall have received the treasurer's warrant empowering him to collect and receive the same, deliver or send to the seneschal or churchwardens of each manor, parish, or denomination of land contained in such warrant, or in case there be no seneschal or churchwarden of the same, then to any principal residing inhabitant, if he shall be required so to do by any two landholders of any such manor, parish, or denomination of land, or if he shall deem it necessary so to do, an account in writing, signed by himself, of the sum he is required by the said warrant to levy upon the said manor, parish, or denomination, and to desire that the said sum may be applotted thereon; and every person who shall receive such account is hereby required, under the penalty of 10*l.*, to be recovered by civil bill by any person who shall sue for the same, to post up, within six days after the receipt thereof, on the door of the church, or the usual place for posting notices in said manor, parish, or denomination, a notice, signed by himself, setting forth that the landholders and inhabitants of [here insert name of manor, &c.] are hereby required to meet at [place of meeting] on the [here insert a day not less than ten days or more than twenty from the date of such notice], to choose two or more persons to applot the sum of [here insert the sum] required to be levied upon such manor, parish, or denomination, by the warrant of the treasurer of the county; and at such meeting the landholders and inhabitants then present shall choose two or more persons to be applotters; and the persons so chosen shall, within thirty days from the time they shall be so chosen, applot the sum so to be levied upon such manor, parish, or denomination, fairly and justly, according to the relative annual value of the several subdivisions of the lands and tenements therein contained, stating as accurately as they can the name of the occupier of each portion of such lands, and shall make oath before any Justice of the Peace for such county that they have made the said applotment justly, according to the best of their skill, without favour, affection, or malice, the jurat of which oath shall be indorsed on the applotment; and such applotters shall deliver such applotment so verified upon oath to the person empowered to collect such grand jury cess, under the penalty of forfeiting for every day they shall omit to deliver the same after the said thirty days the sum of 10*s.*, to be recovered by civil bill by any person who shall sue for the same; and the collector, on receiving such full and sufficient applotment, is hereby required and authorized to levy the said money according thereto; and in case no full and sufficient applotment shall be returned within thirty-six days after the time fixed for the appointment of the applotters, then in such case it shall be lawful for such collector to levy the full sum required by the treasurer's warrant off such manor, parish, or denomination, according to or in the like proportions as the sum levied under the last previous applotment of such manor, parish, or denomination, or according to the rate or applotment pursuant to which it was paid or levied.

CLIII. That every person duly authorized to collect and levy any grand jury cess off any barony, county of a city, or county of a town, as soon as he shall have received the applotment of such cess, shall collect and levy the same according to such applotment, and such money may be levied by distress and sale of any goods and chattels of every person refusing to pay the proportion therein applotted for him or her to pay, which may be found on the premises chargeable, rendering to the owner the overplus, if any, after deducting the expenses of distraining, not exceeding 12*d.* in the pound on the sum for which such distress may have been made; or in case the collector shall not think it expedient to proceed by distress, then and in such case such collector shall leave at the dwelling house of the party chargeable for or in respect of such premises a notice bearing date the day and year of serving the same, subscribed with the name and abode of such collector, requiring payment of the sum applotted within six days from the date of such notice, and expressing that within six days the money demanded may be paid to the collector at his house or office; and if such money be not so paid within such time, then it shall be lawful for such collector to prefer a complaint to any Justice of the Peace for the county in which the party may reside, and such Justice shall summon the party so complained against to appear before him and answer the said complaint, and shall at the time specified in such summons examine into the matter of such complaint on oath (which oath the Justice is hereby empowered to administer), and shall direct the payment to such collector of such money as he shall find due and payable under such applotment by the party complained against, together with a sum certain as and for such reasonable costs and charges as to such Justice shall seem meet; and in default of the appearance of such party, or upon his or her refusal or neglect forthwith to pay the sum or sums so by such Justice directed to be paid, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice, or for any Justice of the Peace for such county, to issue his warrant authorizing and empowering the said collector to levy the money thereby ordered to be paid by distress and sale of any goods or chattels of the party so complained against which may be found within any part of such county, rendering the overplus, if any, to him or her, the necessary charges and expenses of distraining being thereout first deducted, as directed by such Justice; and if sufficient distress cannot be found within the same county, then on oath thereof made before any Justice of the Peace of any other county in which any of the goods and chattels of such party shall be found, (which oath such Justice shall administer and certify by indorsing in his handwriting his name on th-warrant granted to make such distress,) the goods or chattels of such party so refusing or neglecting to pay as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to such distress and sale in such other county where the same may be found, and may by virtue of such warrant and certificate be distrained and sold in the same manner as if the same had been found within such first-mentioned county.

CLIII. That the sum or proportion of grand jury cess to be raised off each barony or county of a city or town under the treasurer's warrant, duly apportioned for any person to pay, shall be a charge upon the lands and premises mentioned in such warrant and apportionment, and shall be paid and payable by the person or persons occupying the premises respectively at the time such cess is levied thereout, although such person or persons did not occupy the same at the time such cess was imposed, and, when the sum payable by any person or persons does not exceed 50l., may be sued for by civil bill in the name of the collector before the assistant barrister having jurisdiction to hear and determine causes by civil bill in the county, place, or district in which the person liable to pay the sum resides.

And after noticing that doubts have been entertained as to the power of the grand jury of the county of Kilkenny to present any public work to be executed either wholly or in part within the town or liberties of Callan, or any money to be raised for such public work or any public work or other purposes for which a grand jury may lawfully present, out of the premises situated within such town or liberties, and also as to the powers of the treasurer of the said county to include said town or liberties in his warrant;—

It is Enacted,

CLIV. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of the county of Kilkenny to present that any public works which it shall be deemed necessary to execute within such town or liberties shall be executed, and such town and liberties shall for every purpose connected with the execution of any public work, or a presentment for raising money, or for any other matter or thing which any grand jury under this or any other Act hereafter to be passed shall have power to present, be deemed and taken to be a barony in and of the said county of Kilkenny; and such town and liberties shall, until a valuation thereof shall be made under some Act for the valuation of lands and premises in Ireland, be deemed to contain 3,600 acres, and shall according to such acreable contents be liable to and bear its proportion of any public rate or charge on the said county.

CLV. That it shall be lawful for the treasurer of any county for the time being to effect a policy or policies of insurance against fire on any public building or other public property which he shall be directed by the grand jury to insure, and for such sum as he shall be so directed; and such policy shall vest in the treasurer for the time being, and the sum thereby secured shall be payable to him as part of the public fund of such county, and shall be applied to public purposes from time to time as the grand jury shall direct by any presentment sanctioned and approved of by the Judges of Assize at the assizes at which such presentment may be made; and the grand jury shall have the power, without any previous application at the Sessions, and are hereby required, to present, to be levied off the county at large, the premium and other charges payable on such policy, and for continuing the same, and the treasurer shall from time to time pay such premium.

CLVI. That the drivers of every kind and species of vehicle, and all persons riding or driving any animal or animals, laden or unladen, on any road, or in any street of any city or town in Ireland, shall keep their left-hand side of the road or street in going and coming thereon, leaving the other side free to all other passengers; and when they may have occasion to pass any other persons going in the same direction with themselves shall in all cases where it is practicable take and go on the right-hand of such persons; and on every cart, car, or other carriage without springs, on any road upon which His Majesty's mails are conveyed in coaches, or any other road being a county road, the name and surname and residence of the owner of such vehicle shall be painted in white roman letters, one inch long at the least; and every car or cart drawn by one horse shall have a double rein extending back to such car or cart; and if any person shall wilfully refuse or neglect to drive or pass in manner aforesaid, or if any person shall drive any vehicle on any such road whereon the name of the owner is not painted, or without a double rein as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for any magistrate, constable, or turnpike keeper to stop and detain such offender and the vehicle and animal or animals on which or with which such offender shall be, and forthwith to carry or convey such offender before any Justice of the Peace for the county where such offence shall be committed, or for any person whatsoever to lodge information against such offender before any such Justice; and upon being convicted thereof upon the oath of one credible witness, every such person so offending shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5s., to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such offender, or by distress and sale of the carriage and horse or horses or other beasts, and the goods therein or thereon, wherewith such offender shall have been travelling at the time of such offence, such distress to be made under the hand and seal of such Justice, rendering the overplus (if any), after deducting the said fine and expenses of such distress and sale, to the owner or owners, on demand; one-half of the amount of the penalties as levied to be paid to the informer, and the remaining half to the minister or curate of the parish in which such offence shall be committed, for the use of the poor of such parish; and if distress sufficient for such penalty or penalties shall not have been seized or found, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice, and he is hereby empowered and required, to commit such offender so convicted to the common gaol for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such offender shall sooner pay and satisfy the said penalty or penalties; and every person offending as aforesaid shall likewise be liable to pay and satisfy the damages which shall happen in consequence of any such neglect or default as aforesaid.

CLVII. That no house or part of a house shall be built within thirty feet of the centre of any road, or within fifteen feet of the side thereof (except in the streets of corporate or market towns): and that if any person shall offend herein, every such person shall upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace forfeit and pay the sum of 10l., and the further sum of 20s. for every week after such conviction until the same shall be pulled down or removed; and no limekiln or windmill shall be built within one hundred feet of the centre of any public road; and it shall be lawful for any Justices at a General Sessions of the Peace to direct any house, limekiln, or windmill built or building contrary to this Act to be pulled down, and to issue their orders to any constable or constables for that purpose, which order every chief and other constable shall aid and assist in executing; and the centre of the road for the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be the centre of the part thereof made with gravel or small stones.

CLVIII. That it shall be lawful for any person whatsoever to seize and impound, or cause to be seized or impounded, any swine or beast which shall be found wandering upon any public road, or about the streets or passages of any town, in case the owner thereof shall not be known; and it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to fine the owner of such swine or beast any sum not exceeding 2s., and in case such penalty, and the expenses of impounding and detaining the same when it shall be so impounded, shall not be paid within four days after imposing such fine or after impounding the same, to cause such swine or beast to be sold, and out of the money arising from the sale thereof to pay such penalty, and expenses of impounding, keeping, and selling the same, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, due notice having been previously given of such sale, in which shall be inserted the name of the parish and townland where such swine or beast was seized, which notice shall be posted up in some conspicuous place in the parish where such beast was seized, and at the place where impounded, forty-eight hours at the least before the time of sale.

CLIX. That if any person shall scour, deepen, widen, or fill up any ditch or drain on the side of any road without the consent or direction of the county surveyor; or if the owner or occupier of any lands contiguous to any public road shall omit to scour any ditch or drain leading from such road, so as to allow the water to pass away, within ten days after notice shall be given to him or her so to do by such surveyor or by the contractor for the repairs of such road, or shall suffer the passage of the water to be obstructed by making or leaving any way or passage from any road into the lands adjoining to his or her house without a sufficient pipe, sewer, or gullet underneath it; or if any person shall ride or drive any horse, beast, or cattle of any description willingly and unnecessarily on any footpath; or shall steep or dry any flax, or burn any bricks or lime, or any weeds or vegetables for ashes, upon any public road, or within thirty feet of the centre of any such public road; or shall make any kind of fire upon any public road; or shall cut any turf or make any turf stack on any public road, or within thirty feet of the centre thereof; or build any wall, or make any ditch, or dig any pit or drain, on any public road, or within thirty feet of the centre thereof, unless by authority of a presentment; or shall lay any dirt, dung, turf, straw, rubbish, or scourings of any ditches or drains, or any stones, bricks, timber, sand, clay, or lime, on any public road, or within thirty feet of the centre thereof; or shall leave on any public road any plough or harrow, or any cart, car, dray or other carriage, without the horse or horses or other beast or beasts being harnessed thereto, unless such carriage shall have been accidentally broken down there; or shall spread any linen, blanket, or cloth for winnowing corn within thirty feet of the centre of any public road; or shall leave any dead beast on any road, or within thirty feet of the centre thereof, unless in a house or yard inclosed with walls; or shall beat any flax, or thrash or winnow any corn, or erect any may-pole or may-bush or sign-post, on any road; or shall keep any cur, dog, mastiff, or bull dog, without having a block of wood of the weight of five pounds at the least fastened to the neck of such dog, within fifty yards of any public road; or shall, without the consent of such surveyor or contractor, scrape any public road, or cut any sods or turf on the side of any such road, or take any earth, clay, stone, or gravel therefrom; or shall lead or drive any car or carriage with timber, boards, or iron laid across, so as that either end shall project two feet beyond the wheels or sides thereof; or shall draw any timber or stones along any part of a public road, without being supported by wheels from touching the same; every person so offending shall, upon conviction by oath of one credible witness, before any Justice of the Peace within his jurisdiction, or upon the view of any Justice, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 20s. for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for any such surveyor or contractor to fill up any ditch or drain which shall be scoured, deepened, or widened, or to scour any drains which have been filled on the side of any road, without such direction or consent, and to scour or deepen any drain or ditch leading from any road which shall be omitted to be scoured or deepened after such notice as aforesaid, and to remove any way or passage from any road into any adjoining land or to any house which may obstruct the free passage of the water, and to remake the same by building a gutter, sewer, or arch therein; and it shall be lawful for any such surveyor, or for any other person by the order of any Justice of the Peace or any such surveyor, to remove any bricks, or weeds or vegetables for making ashes, or other materials, which shall be burning, or any flax which shall be steeped or drying, contrary to the provisions of this Act, and to pull down any sign-post, may-pole, or may-bush, and to pull down or fill up and level any wall, drain, or ditch which shall be built or made or begun to be built or made contrary to this Act, and to remove the carcase of any dead beast which shall remain in or near any public road contrary to this Act, and to levy the expense of so doing by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, or of the occupier of the lands adjoining the place where such nuisance shall be committed, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, after deducting the sum of 1s. in the pound for the expense and trouble of taking such distress.

CLX. That nothing hereinbefore contained shall render any county surveyor, or any contractor for any public work under this Act, liable to any penalty for any act done or performed by the said surveyor or in the discharge of the duties of his office, or by any such contractor in the due and necessary execution or performance of his contract; but if any such surveyor or contractor shall lay or cause to be laid any heap of stones, gravel, rubbish, or other matter whatever upon any public road, and allow the same to remain there at night, to the danger or personal damage of any person passing thereon, all due and reasonable precaution not having been taken by the said surveyor or contractor to prevent any such danger or damage, such surveyor or contractor shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding 40s.

CLXI. That if any county surveyor or contractor for the repairing of any public road in any county shall think that such road is prejudiced by the shade of any hedges or trees (except those planted for ornament or shelter of any dwelling house, court yard, or garden), or if any obstruction is caused in any public road by any hedge or tree, it shall be lawful for such surveyor or contractor, and they are hereby each or either of them authorized, to require the owner of the land on which such hedges or trees are growing to cause such hedges to be cut or plashed, or such trees to be pruned or lopped, so as that such road may not be prejudiced or kept obstructed by the same; and if such owner shall not comply with such request within ten days, it shall and may be lawful for such surveyor or contractor, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, to summon such owner before the Justices assembled at any petty sessions for such county, to shew cause why he has not complied with such request; and if such Justices shall order and direct that such hedges shall be cut or plashed, or such trees pruned or lopped, and if the said owner shall not obey such order within ten days after the making of the same, it shall and may be lawful for such surveyor or contractor to cut or plash such hedges, or to prune or lop such trees, for the benefit and improvement of such road, and to remove such obstruction as aforesaid, to the best of their skill and judgment; and the said surveyor or contractor shall be reimbursed by the said owner what charges and expenses he shall be at in cutting or plashing such hedges, or pruning or topping such trees; and it shall be lawful for such Justices at petty sessions as aforesaid to direct such charges and expenses to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such owner in such manner as other distresses and sales for forfeitures are authorized and directed to be levied by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that no person shall be compelled, nor any such surveyor or contractor permitted, to cut or prune any hedge at any other time than between the last day of September and the last day of March.

CLXII. That every county surveyor and every contractor for any work to be executed by grand jury presentment shall have power and authority to dig for, raise, and carry away in or out of any lands, not being a deer park, bleach green, orchard, walled garden, haggard, or yard, or planted walk, lawn, or avenue to a mansion house, any gravel, stones, sand, or other materials, whether the same be found in the same or any adjoining county, which may be wanted for the building, rebuilding, enlarging, or repairing any bridge, arch, gullet, pipe, or wall, or for the making, repairing, or preserving any road or footpath; and such surveyor or contractor is hereby further empowered to make drains in order to carry off water which might injure any bridge, gullet, arch, pipe, wall, or road, in or through any lands, not being a deer park, bleach green, orchard, walled garden, haggard, or yard, or planted walk, lawn, or avenue to a mansion house, and shall make such satisfaction for the damage done thereby, or by taking any such materials as aforesaid, as shall be assessed by three substantial householders, which householders shall view the ground immediately previous to and immediately after such damages shall be committed, one of such householders to be named by the owner or occupier of the land, and another by the surveyor or contractor, and the third by any neighbouring Justice of the Peace; and in case any surveyor or contractor shall refuse, or after four days notice in writing from such landholder, neglect, to name a householder on his part, then one shall be named for him by such Justice; and such three householders shall be sworn by such Justice of the Peace (previous to the damage being committed), to be appraisers of such damages as may occur, and to make a true estimate thereof, in which estimate the value of any stones, gravel, or other materials shall not be included, but only the waste committed by breaking the surface and making a passage through the land, unless where such stones, gravel, or materials shall be taken from any quarries and gravel pits bond fide demised with liberty to work the same: Provided nevertheless, that it shall not be lawful for any such contractor or surveyor to enter any lands for any such purpose against the will of the occupiers thereof without the previous order of a Justice of the Peace, which order any such Justice is hereby authorized and required to grant on its being proved to his satisfaction that the gravel, stones, or other materials sought cannot be conveniently procured elsewhere, nor such drain otherwise sufficiently made or cleansed.

CLXIII. That it shall not be lawful for any such surveyor or contractor to dig, raise, and carry away any gravel, stones, sand, or other materials from the side of any public road, or from any beach or sea shore, whereby a public road, or bulwark or defence to any building or any land adjoining any road, may be injured; and that any person who shall be convicted thereof, on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, before any Justice of the Peace, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 5s. for every cart load of such gravel, stones, sand, or other materials so dug, raised, or carried away, to be levied, by warrant of distress under the hand and seal of such Justice, off the goods and chattels of such offender.

CLXIV. That if any person shall wilfully prevent, assault, or threaten to assault any surveyor or contractor in the execution of his duty, or any person or persons employed by proper authority in surveying or measuring or laying out any line intended for a new road, or if any person shall wilfully destroy, pull up, deface, or injure any surveyor's instruments or implements used in public works, or any milestone, mile-post, or direction-post, or any bridge, battlement, wall, railing, mound, or fence erected or repaired by presentment, or shall wilfully break, deface, pull down, or take away stones out of any such battlement, wall, mound, or fence, or out of any court house, gaol, house of correction, pier, or other buildings, or out of any bridge, pipe, arch, or gullet, built or repaired by presentment, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, upon conviction by the oath of one credible witness before any two Justices of the Peace at petty sessions, such sum not exceeding 10s. as the said Justices shall think fit; and in case the same shall not be paid, such Justices are hereby empowered and required to commit such offender to any gaol, bridewell, or house of correction for any time not exceeding three months, or until the said forfeiture shall be paid; and it shall be lawful for the treasurer of the county in which any such injury may have been done, if directed by the grand jury so to do, to commence and prosecute an action on the case against any person or persons by whom such injury may have been committed, and for recovering of damages to the amount thereof from such person or persons for the use of the county, and when the damages sought to be recovered do not exceed 30l. to sue for the same by civil bill before the assistant barrister; and in every such proceeding the property so injured or destroyed shall for the purposes of such proceeding be deemed to be the property of such treasurer.

CLXV. That in case at any time hereafter any public work erected or repaired by presentment of a grand jury shall be wantonly or maliciously damaged or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the county surveyor and he is hereby required to apply at the presentment Sessions of the district in which such work is or was situate, holden next after the discovery by him of such damage or destruction, for the repair or reconstruction of such work, and such proceedings shall be had on such application as on any other application by such surveyor, save only that in case any presentment shall be made by the grand jury in consequence thereof, the amount of such presentment shall be levied either off of the parish in which such work is or was situate, or such portion thereof as the grand jury shall think proper.

CLXVI. That every person who shall require any presentment for fees, poundages, salary, or other contingency, or payment whatsoever, for which grand juries are authorized by the provisions of this Act to make presentments without previous application to presentment Sessions, shall lodge an application for the same, with a full detail of the particulars and amount thereof, with the secretary of each grand jury six clear days at the least previous to the day appointed for impannelling such grand jury; and such secretary shall insert an abstract of such applications at the foot of the proper schedule which he is required to deliver to the foreman of the grand jury, and also at the foot of the copy which he is required to keep in his office for the inspection of the public: Provided always, that such presentments for fees, poundage, or other contingencies, or payments, the particulars and amount whereof cannot be ascertained so as to allow of their being specified when the application therefor shall be lodged with the said secretary at the time aforesaid, may be made by the grand jury although such particulars and amount shall not have been so specified.

CLXVII. That from and after the commencement of this Act the grand juries of the county and of the county of the city of Dublin respectively shall transact the fiscal business of their several counties in open court, any Act or Acts now in that behalf made, or any usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXVIII. That no contract for any public work under the provisions of this Act, or any recognisance to be entered into for the execution of the same by virtue of this Act, shall be liable or subject to any stamp duty imposed by any Act or Acts passed or to be passed, unless specially mentioned therein; and whenever the amount of any such contract, or the sum for which any such recognisance shall be conditioned, or the sum sought to be recovered by virtue of such recognisance or contract, shall not exceed the sum of 100*l.*, it shall be lawful to proceed against any such contractor or his sureties for such sum, or for damages for the breach of any such contract, by civil bill before the assistant barrister at the Quarter Sessions for the county where such work shall be situate, or in the county or city of Dublin before the chairman of Kilmainham or the recorder of the city of Dublin respectively; and the said assistant barrister, chairman, and recorder shall have full power to hold plea thereof, and the same shall and may be proceeded on in like manner in all respects, and the like decree or judgment and execution shall and may be had thereon, and also the like benefit of appeal, and of proceedings, judgment, and execution thereon, as in case of any other sum or demand which may now by law be had or used before such Judge.

CLXIX. That all fines and forfeitures inflicted by virtue of this Act, if not immediately paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of a Justice of the Peace, together with all expenses attending the levying the same; and all such fines, unless otherwise specially directed by this Act, shall, when levied and paid, be given, one-half to the informer, and the other half to such dispensary, hospital, or infirmary as the Justice shall direct; and in case any fine be not immediately paid upon conviction, or within such time as the Justice shall appoint, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom such conviction shall have been made to commit the offender to gaol for any time not exceeding two months, or until the fine be paid.

CLXX. That when any distress shall be made for any sum or sums of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party or parties making the same be deemed a trespasser or trespassers, on account of any default or want of form in any proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the party or parties distraining be deemed a trespasser or trespassers ab initio on account of any subsequent irregularity on the part of the party or parties distraining, but the person or persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damages in any action on the case.

CLXXI. That if any person shall be sued, molested, or troubled for putting into execution any of the powers contained in this Act, or for doing any act, matter, or thing pursuant thereto, such person shall and may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and may avow the taking any distress on the acting treasurer and Justices' warrant merely, without going into other title or authority; and if the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, and judgment given against him, her, or them, upon demurrer or otherwise, or a verdict pass for the defendant or defendants, or a dismissal upon a civil bill, such defendant or defendants shall have his, her, or their treble costs, to be recovered by such method and manner whereby law costs are given to defendants; and no inhabitant, magistrate, or cess payer of any county shall be deemed to be an incompetent witness in any court of law or equity by reason of his being liable to be rated or being rated or assessed towards the payment of any money presented or to be presented by a grand jury.

CLXXII. That it shall not be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or any other person to demand or take any sum of money or any reward for swearing any affidavit to be made by virtue of this Act; and if any person shall wilfully swear or affirm or declare falsely in any oath or affirmation or declaration made or taken by authority or under any of the provisions of this Act, every such person, being thereof convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and incur the pains and penalties in such case by law provided; and it shall and may be lawful for any grand jury, without any previous application to presentment Sessions, to make such presentments for defraying the prosecution of such delinquent as to them may seem fitting and expedient.

CLXXIII. That all weights and measures mentioned in this Act, or used under any of the provisions thereof, or referred to in any presentment, shall be the weights and measures fixed and ordained by an Act, 5 Geo. 4. c. 74, intitled, 'An Act for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of Weights and Measures,' and by an Act, 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 63, intitled, 'An Act to repeal an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Year of His present Majesty, relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other Provisions instead thereof;' any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXXIV. That the several sums of money in this Act mentioned shall be deemed to be the present lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Schedules annexed to this Act shall be deemed and taken to be part thereof, and the forms therein contained shall be made use of in all cases to which such forms shall be applicable; provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to erase or alter any words in such forms so as to make them applicable to any particular case, without materially altering the substance, but no further; and that no notice, recognizance, warrant, traverse, presentment, or other proceeding or matter whatsoever served, made, taken, or had under this Act shall be impeached on any technical or formal grounds, or for any informality, provided it shall be in substance conformable to the provisions of this Act.

CLXXV. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, by presentment, to divide any barony or half barony thereof into one or more subdivisions, each whereof shall, for the purposes of this Act, and for all purposes relating to the presenting, raising, and levying of money for any matter or thing for which presentment may be lawfully made by grand juries, be deemed and taken to be a barony or half barony, as such grand jury shall present the same; provided such barony shall contain forty-five thousand acres, but not otherwise; and it shall be lawful for any grand jury to unite any two baronies, or any barony or any portion of any barony or baronies, into one, for the purposes of this Act, provided the baronies or portions so united shall not contain more than forty thousand acres.

And after reciting that from the great extent of certain counties in Ireland, and the inconvenient situations of the towns where the assizes are now held in respect to other parts of said counties, it may be expedient that a second assize town should be appointed at which assizes shall be holden for part of said counties, and for that purpose that the said counties should be divided into two districts or ridings;—

to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such owner in such manner as other distresses and sales for forfeitures are authorized and directed to be levied by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that no person shall be compelled, nor any such surveyor or contractor permitted, to cut or prune any hedge at any other time than between the last day of September and the last day of March.

CLXII. That every county surveyor and every contractor for any work to be executed by grand jury presentment shall have power and authority to dig for, raise, and carry away in or out of any lands, not being a deer park, bleach green, orchard, walled garden, haggard, or yard, or planted walk, lawn, or avenue to a mansion house, any gravel, stones, sand, or other materials, whether the same be found in the same or any adjoining county, which may be wanted for the building, rebuilding, enlarging, or repairing any bridge, arch, gullet, pipe, or wall, or for the making, repairing, or preserving any road or footpath; and such surveyor or contractor is hereby further empowered to make drains in order to carry off water which might injure any bridge, gullet, arch, pipe, wall, or road, in or through any lands, not being a deer park, bleach green, orchard, walled garden, haggard, or yard, or planted walk, lawn, or avenue to a mansion house, and shall make such satisfaction for the damage done thereby, or by taking any such materials as aforesaid, as shall be assessed by three substantial householders, which householders shall view the ground immediately previous to and immediately after such damages shall be committed, one of such householders to be named by the owner or occupier of the land, and another by the surveyor or contractor, and the third by any neighbouring Justice of the Peace; and in case any surveyor or contractor shall refuse, or after four days notice in writing from such landholder, neglect, to name a householder on his part, then one shall be named for him by such Justice; and such three householders shall be sworn by such Justice of the Peace (previous to the damage being committed), to be appraisers of such damages as may occur, and to make a true estimate thereof, in which estimate the value of any stones, gravel, or other materials shall not be included, but only the waste committed by breaking the surface and making a passage through the land, unless where such stones, gravel, or materials shall be taken from any quarries and gravel pits bono fide demised with liberty to work the same: Provided nevertheless, that it shall not be lawful for any such contractor or surveyor to enter any lands for any such purpose against the will of the occupiers thereof without the previous order of a Justice of the Peace, which order any such Justice is hereby authorized and required to grant on its being proved to his satisfaction that the gravel, stones, or other materials sought cannot be conveniently procured elsewhere, nor such drain otherwise sufficiently made or cleansed.

CLXIII. That it shall not be lawful for any such surveyor or contractor to dig, raise, and carry away any gravel, stones, sand, or other materials from the side of any public road, or from any beach or sea shore, whereby a public road, or bulwark or defence to any building or any land adjoining any road, may be injured; and that any person who shall be convicted thereof, on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, before any Justice of the Peace, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 5s. for every cart load of such gravel, stones, sand, or other materials so dug, raised, or carried away, to be levied, by warrant of distress under the hand and seal of such Justice, off the goods and chattels of such offender.

CLXIV. That if any person shall wilfully prevent, assault, or threaten to assault any surveyor or contractor in the execution of his duty, or any person or persons employed by proper authority in surveying or measuring or laying out any line intended for a new road, or if any person shall wilfully destroy, pull up, deface, or injure any surveyor's instruments or implements used in public works, or any milestone, mile-post, or direction-post, or any bridge, battlement, wall, railing, mound, or fence erected or repaired by presentment, or shall wilfully break, deface, pull down, or take away stones out of any such battlement, wall, mound, or fence, or out of any court house, gaol, house of correction, pier, or other buildings, or out of any bridge, pipe, arch, or gullet, built or repaired by presentment, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, upon conviction by the oath of one credible witness before any two Justices of the Peace at petty sessions, such sum not exceeding 10*l.* as the said Justices shall think fit; and in case the same shall not be paid, such Justices are hereby empowered and required to commit such offender to any gaol, bridewell, or house of correction for any time not exceeding three months, or until the said forfeiture shall be paid; and it shall be lawful for the treasurer of the county in which any such injury may have been done, if directed by the grand jury so to do, to commence and prosecute an action on the case against any person or persons by whom such injury may have been committed, and for recovering of damages to the amount thereof from such person or persons for the use of the county, and when the damages sought to be recovered do not exceed 30*l.* to sue for the same by civil bill before the assistant barrister; and in every such proceeding the property so injured or destroyed shall for the purposes of such proceeding be deemed to be the property of such treasurer.

CLXV. That in case at any time hereafter any public work erected or repaired by presentment of a grand jury shall be wantonly or maliciously damaged or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the county surveyor and he is hereby required to apply at the presenting Sessions of the district in which such work is or was situate, holden next after the discovery by him of such damage or destruction, for the repair or reconstruction of such work, and such proceedings shall be had on such application as on any other application by such surveyor, save only that in case any presentment shall be made by the grand jury in consequence thereof, the amount of such presentment shall be levied either off of the parish in which such work is or was situate, or such portion thereof as the grand jury shall think proper.

CLXVI. That every person who shall require any presentment for fees, poundages, salary, or other contingency, or payment whatsoever, for which grand juries are authorized by the provisions of this Act to make presentments without previous application to presentment Sessions, shall lodge an application for the same, with a full detail of the particulars and amount thereof, with the secretary of each grand jury six clear days at the least previous to the day appointed for impannelling such grand jury; and such secretary shall insert an abstract of such applications at the foot of the proper schedule which he is required to deliver to the foreman of the grand jury, and also at the foot of the copy which he is required to keep in his office for the inspection of the public: Provided always, that such presentments for fees, poundage, or other contingencies, or payments, the particulars and amount whereof cannot be ascertained so as to allow of their being specified when the application therefor shall be lodged with the said secretary at the time aforesaid, may be made by the grand jury although such particulars and amount shall not have been so specified.

CLXVII. That from and after the commencement of this Act the grand juries of the county and of the county of the city of Dublin respectively shall transact the fiscal business of their several counties in open court, any Act or Acts now in force in Ireland, or any usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXVIII. That no contract for any public work under the provisions of this Act, or any recognizance to be entered into for the execution of the same by virtue of this Act, shall be liable or subject to any stamp duty imposed by any Act or Acts passed or to be passed, unless specially mentioned therein; and whenever the amount of any such contract, or the sum for which any such recognizance shall be conditioned, or the sum sought to be recovered by virtue of such recognizance or contract, shall not exceed the sum of 100*l.*, it shall be lawful to proceed against any such contractor or his sureties for such sum, or for damages for the breach of any such contract, by civil bill before the assistant barrister at the Quarter Sessions for the county where such work shall be situate, or in the county or city of Dublin before the chairman of Kilmainham or the recorder of the city of Dublin respectively; and the said assistant barrister, chairman, and recorder shall have full power to hold plea thereof, and the same shall and may be proceeded on in like manner in all respects, and the like decree or judgment and execution shall and may be had thereon, and also the like benefit of appeal, and of proceedings, judgment, and execution thereon, as in case of any other sum or demand which may now by law be had or used before such Judge.

CLXIX. That all fines and forfeitures inflicted by virtue of this Act, if not immediately paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of a Justice of the Peace, together with all expenses attending the levying the same; and all such fines, unless otherwise specially directed by this Act, shall, when levied and paid, be given, one-half to the informer, and the other half to such dispensary, hospital, or infirmary as the Justice shall direct; and in case any fine be not immediately paid upon conviction, or within such time as the Justice shall appoint, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom such conviction shall have been made to commit the offender to gaol for any time not exceeding two months, or until the fine be paid.

CLXX. That when any distress shall be made for any sum or sums of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party or parties making the same be deemed a trespasser or trespassers, on account of any default or want of form in any proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the party or parties distraining be deemed a trespasser or trespassers ab initio on account of any subsequent irregularity on the part of the party or parties distraining, but the person or persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damages in any action on the case.

CLXXI. That if any person shall be sued, molested, or troubled for putting into execution any of the powers contained in this Act, or for doing any act, matter, or thing pursuant thereto, such person shall and may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and may avow the taking any distress on the acting treasurer and Justices' warrant merely, without going into other title or authority; and if the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, and judgment given against him, her, or them, upon demurrer or otherwise, or a verdict pass for the defendant or defendants, or a dismissal upon a civil bill, such defendant or defendants shall have his, her, or their treble costs, to be recovered by such method and manner whereby law costs are given to defendants; and no inhabitant, magistrate, or cess payer of any county shall be deemed to be an incompetent witness in any court of law or equity by reason of his being liable to be rated or being rated or assessed towards the payment of any money presented or to be presented by a grand jury.

CLXXII. That it shall not be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or any other person to demand or take any sum of money or any reward for swearing any affidavit to be made by virtue of this Act; and if any person shall wilfully swear or affirm or declare falsely in any oath or affirmation or declaration made or taken by authority or under any of the provisions of this Act, every such person, being thereof convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and incur the pains and penalties in such case by law provided; and it shall and may be lawful for any grand jury, without any previous application to presentment Sessions, to make such presentments for defraying the prosecution of such delinquent as to them may seem fitting and expedient.

CLXXIII. That all weights and measures mentioned in this Act, or used under any of the provisions thereof, or referred to in any presentment, shall be the weights and measures fixed and ordained by an Act, 5 Geo. 4. c. 74, intituled, 'An Act for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of Weights and Measures,' and by an Act, 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 63, intituled, 'An Act to repeal an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Year of His present Majesty, relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other Provisions instead thereof;' any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXXIV. That the several sums of money in this Act mentioned shall be deemed to be the present lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Schedules annexed to this Act shall be deemed and taken to be part thereof, and the forms therein contained shall be made use of in all cases to which such forms shall be applicable; provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to erase or alter any words in such forms so as to make them applicable to any particular case, without materially altering the substance, but no further; and that no notice, recognizance, warrant, traverse, presentment, or other proceeding or matter whatsoever served, made, taken, or had under this Act shall be impeached on any technical or formal grounds, or for any informality, provided it shall be in substance conformable to the provisions of this Act.

CLXXV. That it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of any county, by presentment, to divide any barony or half barony thereof into one or more subdivisions, each whereof shall, for the purposes of this Act, and for all purposes relating to the presenting, raising, and levying of money for any matter or thing for which presentment may be lawfully made by grand juries, be deemed and taken to be a barony or half barony, as such grand jury shall present the same; provided such barony shall contain forty-five thousand acres, but not otherwise; and it shall be lawful for any grand jury to unite any two baronies, or any barony or any portion of any barony or baronies, into one, for the purposes of this Act, provided the baronies or portions so united shall not contain more than forty thousand acres.

And after reciting that from the great extent of certain counties in Ireland, and the inconvenient situations of the towns where the assizes are now held in respect to other parts of said counties, it may be expedient that a second assize town should be appointed at which assizes shall be holden for part of said counties, and for that purpose that the said counties should be divided into two districts or ridings;—

It is Enacted,

CLXXVI. That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council, to order and direct that any county in Ireland shall be divided into two ridings or districts, and to direct and appoint what baronies or half baronies or other portions of land shall be contained in each of said ridings, and to order and direct that assizes and sessions under the Commissioners of assize and general gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, or that any special commission or commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, should be holden in and for any county which now is or hereafter may be so divided at such town within the same as shall be deemed most expedient for the purpose, in addition to and in like manner as the same are now holden at the usual assize town.

CLXXVII. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, with such advice as aforesaid, to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases, civil and criminal, then depending or thereafter to be depending and to be tried within said divisions or ridings of any such county, and touching the alterations of any commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings thereby made necessary, and touching the attendance and liability of jurors, whether grand jurors, special jurors, or common jurors, at such assizes, or at any sessions to be holden for such ridings or divisions, and to make such orders, rules, and regulations for the building or fitting up of any gaol or court house in such town so to be appointed as the assize town of any such riding, and for ascertaining the proportions to be borne by each division or riding of all presentments or other fiscal charges affecting the county at large, and to make all such rules, orders, and regulations touching all other presentments as may be rendered necessary from time to time in consequence of the division of said county, and all other rules, orders, and regulations as may be necessary for carrying into full and complete effect the object of having two half-yearly assizes holden in and for said county in manner aforesaid; and all such rules, orders, and regulations shall be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and notified in such other manner as orders of the Lord Lieutenant in council are usually notified: Provided always, that such division of said county for the purposes aforesaid shall not be deemed, construed, or taken to damage, alter, limit, or abridge any power, authority, jurisdiction, right, duty, or privilege of any high sheriff, sub-sheriff, or Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate of the said county, or to affect the holding of an election of a member or members to serve in Parliament for such county, which shall continue to be holden at the town at which it is now by law required to be holden until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

CLXXVIII. That in all cases where by this or any Act or Acts now in force in Ireland repayment is to be made by grand jury presentment of any money advanced out of the Consolidated Fund or from any other public fund, the same shall from and after the passing of this Act be paid and payable unto such bank or person and in such manner as the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, shall from time to time think fit to direct and appoint.

CLXXIX. That in case the grand jury at any assizes shall neglect or refuse duly to present any money which, under the provisions of this Act, or of any Act now in force in Ireland, or of any Act passed or to be passed in this present session of Parliament, such grand jury may be required to present at such assizes upon the certificate of the Chief or Under Secretary of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or otherwise, for the purpose of reimbursing or replacing any monies issued out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Court shall have power to make an order directing the sum or sums which ought to have been so presented to be raised and levied as if the same had been so presented, and such order shall have the force and effect of a presentment, and the treasurer of the county shall insert the sum mentioned in such order in his warrant, and the same shall be apportioned, raised, and levied and applied in like manner to all intents and purposes as if the same had been duly presented by such grand jury.

CLXXX. That in case at any time after the passing of this Act any sum of money shall be advanced out of the produce of the Consolidated Fund, which is to be repaid wholly or in part by a presentment of any grand jury in Ireland, it shall not be lawful to make any presentment for repaying the same or any part thereof unless the same has been demanded within five years next before the making of such presentment, except only where the same is to be repaid by instalments.

CLXXXI. That nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect or limit the powers of any grand jury in Ireland to present for the repayment of advances made under and by virtue of 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 48, intituled, 'An Act for the better Preservation and more speedy Punishment of Offences endangering the Public Peace in Ireland'; and the Presentments authorized to be made by the said last-recited Act may be made without previous application to presentment Sessions.

And after reciting that divers sums of money have been from time to time advanced by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, under the provisions of certain Acts of Parliament, for the execution of public works in the county of Tyrone, and for other public purposes in the said county; and that proceedings have been taken against the late treasurer of the said county and his sureties for the recovery of a considerable balance on account of such advances which ought to have been repaid by him, and the sum of 8,000*l.* has been recovered thereunder; and that, by reason of the default and insolvency of the said treasurer, great public inconvenience will arise if the contractors and others who have demands against the said county shall remain unpaid;—

It is Enacted,

CLXXXII. That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to authorize and direct the said sum of 8,000*l.*, so recovered as aforesaid, to be paid to the new treasurer of the said county of Tyrone, to be by him applied, in like manner as any money levied off such county by grand jury presentment in his hands, to the payment of such contractors and others, and to such other like purposes as any money arising in his hands as such treasurer may be by law applicable.

CLXXXIII. That in consideration of the advance of the said sum of 8,000*l.* it shall and may be lawful for the grand jury of the said county at the next assizes after the passing of this Act, and they are hereby required, to present the said sum of 8,000*l.* to be levied off the said county by sixteen half-yearly instalments of 500*l.* each; and the treasurer of the said county shall and he is hereby required to insert the said sum of 500*l.* in his warrant for raising or levying the sums presented at the said next assizes, and in like manner, without further presentment or authority in that behalf, to insert a like sum of 500*l.* in his warrant for raising or levying the sums presented at each succeeding assize, until the whole sum of 8,000*l.* shall be so raised and levied off such county, and the same shall be raised and levied accordingly; and the said treasurer shall pay over the said several instalments when and as each of them shall be raised and levied to such bank or person, and in such manner, as the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct.

CLXXXIV. That this shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st of November next: Provided always, that all presentments and contracts made, or money to be levied, accounted for, or paid, under or in consequence of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland before the commencement of this Act, shall be levied, accounted for, and paid in manner provided by the said former Act or Acts, and subject to the rules, regulations, and provisions therein contained; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect, alter, or abridge the powers, duties, and liabilities of any overseer, contractor, or other person, vested in or exercised by him or them under the provisions of the said former Act or Acts, as far as respects the completion of any work or works so presented and begun and entered upon at any time before the commencement of this Act.

CLXXXV. That this Act shall extend only to that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

CLXXXVI. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present session of Parliament.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

SCHEDULE (Z.)—FORM (A.)

I A. B. of [here insert the Name and Place of Abode of the Justice taking this Declaration] do declare, That I am a Justice of the Peace of the County [here insert the Name of the County for which the Presentment Sessions is holden], and that I will truly, faithfully, and impartially do and perform all such Acts, Matters, and Things as I am authorized to do and perform by and under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled [here set out the Title of this Act], and that I will, without Favour, Affection, Hatred, or Malice or Ill-will, diligently inquire into and impartially and honestly judge and determine according to the Evidence and to the best of my Judgment and Ability, upon the several Applications and other Matters which may be brought before me under the Authority of the said Act.

Witness my Hand

SCHEDULE (Z.)—FORM (B.)

I A. B. of [here insert the Name and Place of Abode of the Cess Payer taking this Declaration] do declare, That I will truly, faithfully, and impartially do and perform all such Acts, Matters, and Things as I am authorized to do and perform by and under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled [here set out the Title of this Act], and that I will, without Favour, Affection, Hatred, or Malice or Ill-will, diligently inquire into and impartially and honestly judge and determine according to the Evidence, and to the best of my Judgment and Ability, upon the several Applications and other Matters which may be brought before me under the Authority of the said Act.

Witness my Hand

SCHEDULE (Z.)—FORM (C.)

You shall diligently inquire, on behalf of the County [or County of City, County of Town, or City and County] of and true Presentment make, of all such Matters and Things as shall be lawfully given to you in charge, or as shall come before you in anywise relating to the raising of any Money upon the said County [or County of City, County of Town, or City and County] of or upon any Barony, Half Barony, or Parish therein, or relating to the Expenditure of any such Money; you shall not present nor allow nor disallow any Matter or Thing through Hatred, Malice, or Ill-will, nor through Fear, Favour, or Affection.

So help you GOD.

SCHEDULE (X).—FORM (A.)

Form of Application for making a New Line of Road.

County of } We, of and of do } certify, That in our Opinion it would be useful to make a new Line of Road from to between and and that such new Line of Road is Perches in Length, and that said Perches are in the Townland [or Townlands] of in the Barony [or Baronies] of in this County, and we propose that Presentment for such Purpose be made under and by virtue of Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act], and that the Expense of the same shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large [or Barony or Half Barony or Baronies of].

(Signed)

A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X).—FORM (B.)

Form of Application for the Repairs of Roads.

County of } We, of and of do } certify, That we have lately viewed and measured Perches of the Road from to between and and that the said Perches are in the Townland [or Townlands] of between the Houses and Lands of A. and B. all in the Barony of in this County; and that the same are in need of Repair; and we propose that the Expense of the aforesaid Repairs shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large [or Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act].

(Signed)

A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X).—FORM (C.)

Form of Application for widening Roads and making Fences instead of those to be taken away.

County of } We, of and of do certify, That we have } lately viewed and measured Perches of the Road from to between and in the Townland [or Townlands] of all in the Barony [or Half Barony] of in this County, and that every of the same is Feet wide, and no more, in the clear within the Fences; and we are of Opinion that it would be useful to the Public using such Road to widen the same, so as to make that Part of the Road Feet wide in the clear, and safe and level throughout the whole of the said Width, and to make new Fences instead of those which shall be taken down or destroyed in order to widen the same; and we propose that the Expense of widening and repairing the same shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large [or Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such Purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act].

(Signed)

A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X).—FORM (D.)

Form of Application for making or repairing Footpaths.

County of } We, of and of do certify,
 } That in our Opinion it is necessary to make [or repair] Perches of Footpath on the Road from to between and all in the Barony of in this County; and we propose that the Expense of the aforesaid Work shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large [or Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such Purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act].

(Signed)

A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X.)—Form (E.)

Form of Application for Presentments to fill Grips or Trenches on the Sides of the Road, and make sufficient Fences instead thereof.

County of } We, of and of do certify,
That we have measured Perches of the Road from to between and all in the Barony of in this County, where there are Perches of immediately adjoining the said Road, of the Average Breadth of and Depth of which are open and dangerous for Passengers and Travellers, and that it is necessary for the Safety and Security of the Public frequenting such Road to fill up the same, and to make a sufficient Fence instead thereof; and we propose that the Expence of the aforesaid Work shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large, [or Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such Purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act.] (Signed) A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X.)—Form (F.)

Form of Application for filling Dikes or Holes on the Sides of Roads.

County of } W^e, of and of do hereby certify, That it is necessary for the Security of Travellers to fill up the Dikes [or Holes] immediately adjoining Perches of the Road from to between all in the Barony of in this County; and we propose that the Expense of the said Work shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large [or the Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such Purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign, being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act.]

(Signed) A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X.)—FORM (G.)

Form of Application for lowering a Hill or filling a Hollow, or both, &c. &c.

County of } We, of and of do certify, Barony of That we have lately viewed Perches of a Road in the Townland of propose that the Expense of the aforesaid Work shall not exceed [here insert the Work proposed]; and we at large [or Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such Purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act.]

(Signed) A. B.
 C. D.

SCHEDULE (X).—Form (H.)

Form of Application for erecting, enlarging, or repairing any Building whatsoever.

County of } We, of and of do certify,

That we have lately viewed and examined and that it will be useful to [here set out the Work], at in this County; and we propose that the Expense of the aforesaid Work shall not exceed Pounds, and shall be defrayed by the County at large [or Barony or Half Barony of], and that Presentment for such Purpose may be made under and by virtue of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act].

(Signed) A. B.
C. D.

SCHEDULE (X.)—FORM (I.)

Form of Application for Payment by a Contractor for a Public Work.

County of } WHEREAS the son of _____ was by virtue of the _____ Section of the _____ Chapter of } [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act], presented at Assizes in the Year _____ for [here set out the Work contracted for], in the Barony of _____ In this County:
 And whereas I contracted for the Work aforesaid: Now this is to certify, That I have faithfully and honestly executed the said Work, in conformity to the Presentment for the same and to the Terms of the Specification of the County Surveyor, and that every part of the said Work was finished on the _____ Day of _____ and I hereby apply for the Payment of the said Sum of _____ (Signed) _____ A. B. Contractor.

SCHEDULE (X.)—FORM (K.)

Form of Application for Payment by a Contractor for Works of Maintenance.

County of } WHEREAS at the Assizes in the Year by virtue of the Section of the Chapter of [here set out the Reign], being an Act for [here set out the Title of this Act], Perches of the Road from to between and in the Barony of in this County, were presented to be kept in repair for Years by Contract at the yearly Sum of : And whereas I contracted for the same: Now this is to certify, That the said Perches and every Part thereof have been kept in good and sufficient Repair and Condition since the Commencement of my Contract, in conformity with the Presentment and the Specification of the County Surveyor; and that the said Perches and every part thereof are now in good and complete Repair and Condition, and that the said Perches are free from Nuisances; and I hereby apply for Payment of the Sum of for keeping the said Perches in repair for Months. (Signed) A. B.
Contractor.

SCHEDULE (R.)

I do declare, That I have not directly or indirectly paid any Sum of Money as or for the Subscription of any Person, in order to entitle him to become a Governor of the Infirmary of the County of _____ or to qualify him as a Subscriber to the Dispensary of _____ ^[as the case may be], and that I have not promised or in any Manner engaged to repay, and have not directly or indirectly repaid or secured, and will not directly or indirectly repay or secure, nor has any Person to my Knowledge or Belief, or on my Behalf, given or promised to give to any Person or Persons, or for his or their Use, or at all, any Sums of Money paid or secured or agreed to be paid or secured as a Subscription to the said Infirmary or Dispensary, or any part thereof; and that no person whose subscription to said Infirmary or Dispensary, or any portion thereof, has been paid or secured by me, or any Person acting for me or on my Behalf, in order to qualify him to become a Governor of the said Infirmary, has voted for me: And I do declare, that my Appointment to the Office of _____ is totally unconnected with any Arrangement between me and my Predecessor in such Office, and that no Arrangement has been made with him, to my Knowledge or Belief, by any Person on my Behalf.

SCHEDULE (Y.)

Be it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year _____ A. B. of _____ in the County of _____ of _____ C. D. of _____ in the County of _____ and E. F. of _____ in the County of _____ came before me _____ [one of the Justices, or Chairman, as the case may be], at a Presenting Sessions held at _____ in the County of _____ and acknowledged themselves to be held and firmly bound to our Sovereign Lord the King, His Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of _____ Pounds, to which Payment they bind themselves, their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and their Estates jointly and severally:

WHEREAS the above-bounden A. B. has become Contractor for the Execution of a certain Public Work, that is to say [mention it], and the said C. D. and E. F. have become his Sureties for the due Execution of such Work; Now the Condition of the foregoing Recognizance is, That if the said A. B. shall within the Time mentioned in such Contract well and truly execute such Work in the Manner required and agreed on by such Contract, then the foregoing Recognizance to be void, otherwise to remain in full Force and Effect.

SCHEDULE (8.)

Table of Classification of Counties, Treasurers Securities, and Salaries of County Officers.

	Counties, Cities, and Towns.						County of Cork.	City of Cork.	City of Dublin.
	Class I.	Class II.	Class III.	Class IV.	Class V.	Class VI.
Treasurers Securities	8,000	7,000	5,000	4,000	2,000	1,000	20,000	4,000
SALARIES:
Treasurers	370	324	230	185	554	185
Clerks of the Crown	370	324	230	185	74	47	463	185
Clerks of the Peace	370	324	300	277	93	42	554	230
Secretaries to Grand Jury	203	185	140	120	37	28	324	111
Sheriffs	93	74	56	47	24	10	111	93
Judge's Criers	14	12	10	10	5	3	20	10
Criers at Sessions	19	14	12	10	10	6	28	20
Court House Keeper in } County Towns	14	14	10	10	10	10	30	20
Medical Officers of Prisons, viz. Physician, or Surgeon, or Apothecary: In the whole, exclusive of Bill for Medicines. ... }	74	74	65	65	56	37	74	65
Number of Coroners, not exceeding :	4	3	2	2	4

CLASS I. comprehends the counties of Tipperary, Down, Mayo, Galway, Antrim, Tyrone, Donegal, Derry, Limerick.

CLASS II. comprehends the counties of Clare, Roscommon, Kerry, Armagh, Cavan, Monaghan, Meath, Dublin.

CLASS III. comprehends the counties of Wexford, Kilkenny, Sligo, King's County, Fermanagh, Westmeath, Queen's County.

CLASS IV. comprehends the counties of Waterford, Wicklow, Louth, Longford, Leitrim, Kildare, Carlow.

CLASS V. comprehends the cities and towns of Waterford, Limerick, Kilkenny, Galway.

CLASS VI. comprehends the town of Drogheda.

SCHEDULE (T.)

Salaries for Officers in the County of the Town of Carrickfergus.

	£.	s.	d.
Treasurer	45	0	0
Clerk of the Crown	23	1	6
Clerk of the Peace	24	0	0
Secretary	13	17	0
Sheriff	7	7	8
Judge's Crier	2	0	0
Sessions Crier	2	0	0

£ 117 6 2

For the Clerks of the Crown in the towns of Youghal and Kinsale, to be presented by the Grand Jury of the County of Cork, 24*l*.

For the Clerks of the Peace for the towns of Youghal and Kinsale, to be presented by the Grand Jury of the County of Cork, 24*l*.

Note.—Whenever any Clerk of the Crown for the Counties in the First Class shall execute the Duty of his Office for more than one County of such Class, in every such Case the Salary for such Clerk of the Crown shall, for such Counties of the First Class be presented at 32*l*. only.

I do declare, That I have not, directly or indirectly, given, paid, or secured, or promised to pay, give, or secure, nor has any person on my Behalf to my Knowledge or Belief so given or promised to give, any Sum of Money or other Consideration whatsoever in order to procure myself to be appointed to the Office of Secretary of the Grand Jury, Treasurer, et cetera [as the Case may be], of the County of and that I will not hereafter pay, secure, or give to any Person or Persons any Money or any security for Money in consideration of or in consequence of my having been appointed to such Office: And I do declare, that my appointment to such office is totally unconnected with any Arrangement between me and my Predecessor in such office, nor has any such Arrangement been made by any Person or Persons on my Behalf to my Knowledge or Belief.

CAP. CXVII.—IRELAND.

AN ACT to amend several Acts relating to the Harbour of Kingstown.

(20th August 1836.)

By this Act, it is Enacted,

- I. That such part of 1 Geo. 4. c. 69. as enacts, that when the new harbour now in course of erection, pursuant to 55 Geo. 4. c. 191, 56 Geo. 3. c. 62, and 1 Geo. 4. c. 69, should be completed it should from thenceforth be vested in the said corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin, and supported in the manner therein provided, is repealed.
- II. That all ground or other property in or about the old harbour of Dunleary belonging to the corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin, shall be transferred to the Commissioners of Kingstown Harbour.
- III. That all rights, powers and privileges of the corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin in respect to old Dunleary Harbour or Kingstown Harbour, shall cease, and become vested in the Commissioners of Kingstown Harbour.
- IV. Except those relative to lighthouses and pilots.
- V. That the recited Acts shall remain in force, unless where expressly repealed, and to apply to old Dunleary Harbour.
- VI. That the old harbour of Dunleary and the new harbour shall constitute but one harbour under the title of "Kingstown Harbour."
- VII. That the Commissioners may supply all ships in Kingstown Harbour with ballast and assist in the discharge of ballast from all ships, but that nothing herein contained shall affect right of corporation to supply with ballast vessels discharging their cargoes at Dublin.
- VIII. That the tonnage to be charged for taking in or putting out ballast shall be fixed by the Commissioners.
- IX. That persons taking in or putting out ballast, except in manner directed by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 10*l*.
- X. A like penalty payable on obtaining ballast except from Commissioners.
- XI. If ballast officer neglect to supply ballast, master of ship may employ carts for that purpose, and obtain ballast elsewhere.
- XII. Commissioners may quarry for ballast.
- XIII. Rates and duties to be levied on all ships coming into the harbour.
- XIV. Not to extend to those belonging to or in the service of His Majesty, &c.
- XV. Penalty on masters or commanders of ships evading or attempting to evade payment of rates and duties.
- XVI. Penalty on master leaving the harbour without paying rates and penalties.
- XVII. Application of monies received by the Commissioners under this Act.
- XVIII. Commissioners may sell surplus materials out of the quarries.
- XIX. Commissioners may permit their tramroads to be used by persons paying for the same.—Commissioners may grant leases of the tramroads.—The Commissioners to have at all times free use of the tramroads.
- XX. So much of 1 Geo. 4. c. 69. as relates to the salary of the harbour master repealed.—Commissioners, with consent of the Lord Lieutenant, to give a reasonable salary.
- XXI. Harbour master to have power to direct the mooring, unmooring, &c. of all ships, &c.
- XXII. Penalty on master or commander of a ship refusing to follow the directions of the harbour master.—Harbour master may, in case of refusal, moor or unmoor vessels, and may employ assistants for that purpose.
- XXIII. Expenses thereof to be borne by the master or commander.
- XXIV. Harbour master may in case of necessity cut cables.
- XXV. Harbour master may remove timber floating in the harbour, and wrecks.—Expense to be paid by owners.—In case of non-payment, Commissioners may sell the timber, &c. by public auction; paying the overplus, if any, to the owners, after deducting expenses.
- XXVI. Penalty on persons obstructing the mooring or unmooring of vessels.
- XXVII. Penalty on persons obstructing the harbour master in any of his duties.
- XXVIII. Harbour master and his assistants indemnified.
- XXIX. Commissioners may, with the approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, appoint collectors, &c.
- XXX. Commissioners may appoint and remove servants and workmen.
- XXXI. Commissioners may take security from collectors, &c.
- XXXII. Penalty on collectors, &c. taking fees.
- XXXIII. Collector to levy and receive dues.

XXXIV. Collector may distrain for dues.—In case of non-payment of dues Commissioners may sell the vessel, &c., and pay over the surplus to the owner.

XXXV. Collectors and officers to keep accounts.

XXXVI. Remedy against officers making default.

XXXVII. Commissioners may place buoys, &c. in the harbour, and mark out space along or in harbour to be kept open and free.

XXXVIII. Masters or commanders of ships to pay for use of cables, &c.

XXXIX. If ships hook or get foul of moorings the masters of them not to unhook them without the assistance of the harbour master, under penalty of 10*l*.

XL. Penalty on masters or commanders of ships not fastening a buoy to anchor.

XLI. Commissioners may have sunken vessels raised and sold.

XLII. Penalty on persons casting rubbish, &c. into harbour.

XLIII. Commissioners to have the power given to the corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin by 26 Geo. 3. (I.) and 32 Geo. 3. (I.) and the power over cars, &c. given by 37 Geo. 3. (I.) and 48 Geo. 3. c. 87.

XLIV. Commissioners may license boats and wherries to ply in the harbour.

XLV. Commissioners may license packet porters.

XLVI. Commissioners may withdraw licences.

XLVII. Commissioners may make bye-laws, rules, and regulations.

XLVIII. Commissioners may fix penalties for breach of the bye-laws.

XLIX. Bye-laws, rules and regulations may be varied.

L. Bye-laws and rules to be published by printing them or painting them on boards in and about the harbour.

LI. Penalty on persons defacing such boards.

LII. Ships or other vessels may be seized and detained for penalties.

LIII. Penalty on persons unmooring boats without leave of the owners.

LIV. Penalty on persons bathing except at the places appropriated.

LV. Penalty on persons discharging fire-arms in the harbour.

LVI. No public house to be permitted within one hundred feet of road on south-west side of harbour without consent, except as herein mentioned.

LVII. Commissioners indemnified.

LVIII. Commissioners to have the power of Magistrates.

LIX. Commissioners may appoint constables, &c.

LX. Any two of the Commissioners qualified to act.

LXI. Offences against harbour Acts to be heard by any two of the Commissioners, or a Justice of the Peace.

LXII. Penalty on witness refusing to attend and give evidence.

LXIII. Informer to be a witness.

LXIV. That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act.

APPENDIX TO THE FOREGOING ABRIDGMENT OF STATUTES,

6 & 7 WILLIAM IV.—1836.

Containing Cap. LXXI., LXXXV., LXXXIX., CI., CIII., CV., CXI., CXIV.

CAP. LXXI.

AN ACT for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales.

(13th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Appointment of Commissioners.
2. Style of Commissioners.—To have a common seal.—Awards, &c. purporting to be sealed with such seal to be received as evidence.
3. Commissioners to report to Secretary of State.—Annual Report to be laid before Parliament.
4. Power to appoint Assistant Commissioners, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, &c.—Limiting the number of appointments.
5. Commissioners not to sit in the House of Commons.
6. Operation of Act as to appointment of Commissioners, &c. limited to five years.
7. Salaries of and allowances to Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, Secretary, and other officers.
8. Such salaries, allowances, and other expenses, how to be paid.
9. Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners to take an oath.—Form of oath.—Notification of appointment to be published in the Gazette.
10. Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner may summon and examine witnesses.
11. Commissioners may delegate powers to Assistant Commissioners, except the powers to be exercised under their seal.
12. Meaning of the words "person," "lands," "tithes," "parish," "parochial," "land owner," "tithe owner," as used in this Act.—Where parties to be deemed joint owners.
13. When the ownership of lands or tithes or patronage is vested in the Crown, who shall be deemed the owner or patron.
14. When the same person is owner of lands and owner of tithes, he may be dealt with in both characters.
15. In case the patron or owner is under legal disability, who to act.
16. Acts may be done by agents duly authorized.—Power of attorney.
17. Parochial meetings may be called, at which owners of two-thirds in value may agree on the sum to be paid to the tithe owners, which agreement shall bind the whole parish.
18. Provisional agreements may be made at the parochial meetings.
19. Proportional interest in lands and tithes how to be estimated for the purposes of this Act.
20. Meeting may be adjourned.
21. Form of parochial agreement.
22. Commissioners to frame and circulate forms of agreements, &c.
23. Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner may attend to advise terms of agreement.
24. Suits and differences may be referred to arbitration.
25. Agreements pending at the time of the passing of this Act, if completed and confirmed by the Commissioners, to be as valid as parochial agreements.
26. Consent of patron to be given to every agreement for commutation of ecclesiastical tithes.
27. Agreement to be confirmed by the Commissioners.
28. Agreement to be communicated to bishop of the diocese previous to its being confirmed.
29. Land not exceeding twenty acres may be given as commutation for tithes, &c.
30. Commissioners to satisfy themselves of the title of such land, &c.
31. Agreements for giving land to operate as conveyances.
32. Appointment of valuers.
33. Valuers to apportion the rent-charges.
34. Valuers may enter on lands for the purpose of valuing tithes.
35. Old plans and surveys may be used if the valuers think proper.
36. After 1st of October, 1838, Commissioners may ascertain total value of tithes in any parish in which no previous agreement has been made.
37. Value of tithes to be calculated upon an average of seven years.—Tithes to be valued without deduction on account of parochial and county rates, &c.
38. Commissioners in certain cases may increase or diminish the sum to be paid for commutation.
39. Special adjudications how to be made.
40. How the tithe of hops, fruit, and garden produce is to be valued.
41. How the tithe of coppice wood is to be valued.
42. Provision for the change of culture of hop grounds and market gardens.
43. Provision for valuing tithes of lands to which the average of seven years cannot apply.
44. Moduses, &c. how to be allowed for in the award.
45. Commissioners may hear and determine disputes;
46. Subject to appeal by an issue at law;—or by taking the opinion of a court of law thereon.
47. Proceedings not to abate by death of parties.
48. In case of deaths of parties before actions brought, &c. the same to be carried on and defended in their names.
49. Statutes of Limitation not to be affected.
50. Commissioners to award total sum to be paid for the tithes of the parish.
51. Commissioners may hear and determine objections to the award.
52. Award to be confirmed by the Commissioners.
53. Commissioners to summon a parochial meeting to appoint valuers.
54. If valuation not completed in six months, Commissioners to apportion.

55. Form of apportionment.
56. Comptroller of Corn Returns to publish average price of corn.
57. Rent-charges to be valued according to the average price of corn.
58. Rent-charge may be specially apportioned.
59. Commissioners may employ surveyors.—Commissioners to have the power of valuers as to entry in lands, &c.
60. Apportionment to be signed by the person making it, and sent with the plan to the Commissioners.
61. Commissioners may hear and determine objections to apportionment.
62. Owners of lands chargeable with rent-charge may give land instead thereof.
63. Confirmation by the Commissioners.
64. Transcripts of the award to be sent to the registrar of the diocese and to the incumbent and churchwardens.
65. Commissioners may require notice of agreements or awards to be given to reversioner.
66. Agreements &c. not to be questioned after confirmation.
67. Lands to be discharged from tithes, and rent-charge paid in lieu thereof.—Payment of rent-charge on reclaimed lands to be postponed until tithes would have been due.
68. Lands to be free from tithes when lands are given in lieu thereof.
69. Rent-charge to be liable to parochial and county rates.
70. How rates and charges are to be recovered.
71. Rent-charge to be subject to the same incumbrances and incidents as tithe before this Act.—Proviso.
72. Apportionment may be altered by Commissioners of Land Tax, if desired.
73. Expenses of witnesses to be paid under the direction of the Commissioners.
74. Expenses of making any award to be paid by the land owners and tithe owners as the Commissioners may direct.
75. Expenses of apportionment to be borne rateably by the land owners.
76. Expenses may be recovered by warrant of distress.
77. Owners of particular estates may charge the costs on the estate for twenty years.
78. Costs of ecclesiastical tithe owners may be charged on the benefice for twenty years.
79. If tenant of lands at rack rent dissent from paying the rent-charge, the landlord may take the tithes during the tenancy.
80. Tenant paying rent-charge to be allowed the same in account with his landlord.
81. When rent-charge is in arrear for twenty-one days after half-yearly days of payment, the person entitled thereto may distrain.
82. When rent-charges are in arrear for forty days after half-yearly days of payment, and no sufficient distress on the premises, writ to be issued directing sheriff to summon jury to assess arrears.
83. Account how to be rendered.
84. For recovery of rent-charges from Quakers.
85. Powers of distress and entry to extend to all lands within the parish occupied by the owner or under the same landlord or holding.
86. Powers of 4 & 5 Will. 4. to extend to rent-charges under this Act.
87. Provision for the sale of buildings and the sites thereof rendered useless or unnecessary by the commutation of tithes.
88. Leases of tithes may be surrendered.
89. Tithes due before commutation not to be affected.
90. Act not to extend to Easter offerings, &c. or to payments instead of tithes in London, or to permanent rent-charges by custom or Act of Parliament.
91. Advertisements, contracts, and awards not to be liable to stamp duty.
92. Correspondence of Commissioners relating to this Act to be free of postage.
93. False evidence to be deemed perjury; withholding evidence a misdemeanor.
94. Limitation of actions against Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners, Justices, &c.
95. Proceedings under this Act not to be quashed for want of form, nor to be removed by certiorari.
96. Limits of Act.
97. Act may be altered this session.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is expedient to amend the laws relating to tithes in England and Wales, and to provide the means for an adequate compensation for tithes, and for the commutation thereof:—

It is Enacted,

I. That it shall be lawful for one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State to appoint two fit persons to be Commissioners to carry this Act into execution, and for the Archbishop of Canterbury, under his hand and archiepiscopal seal, to appoint one fit person to be a Commissioner to carry this Act into execution, and for the said Archbishop and Secretary of State, at their joint pleasure, to remove any one or more of the Commissioners so appointed; and upon every vacancy in the office of Commissioner some other fit person shall be appointed to the said office in the same manner and by the same authority as the Commissioner whose vacancy is thereby supplied; and until such appointment it shall be lawful for the continuing Commissioners or Commissioner to act as if no such vacancy had occurred.

II. That the said Commissioners shall be styled "The Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales," and shall have their office in London or Westminster, and they, or any two of them, may sit from time to time, as they deem expedient, as a Board of Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution; and the said Commissioners shall cause to be made a seal of the said Board, and shall cause to be sealed or stamped therewith all agreements and awards confirmed by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act; and all such agreements and awards and other instruments proceeding from the said Board, or copies thereof, purporting to be sealed or stamped with the seal of the said Board, shall be received in evidence without any further proof thereof; and no agreement or award shall be of any force unless the same shall be sealed or stamped as aforesaid.

III. That the said Commissioners shall from time to time give to any one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State such information respecting their proceedings or any part thereof as the said principal Secretary of State shall require, and shall once in every year send to one of the principal Secretaries of State a general Report of their proceedings; and every year such general Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within six weeks after the receipt of the same by such principal Secretary of State if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting then within six weeks after the next meeting thereof.

iv. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from time to time to appoint a sufficient number of persons to be Assistant Commissioners, and also a secretary and assistant secretary, and all such clerks, messengers, and officers as they shall deem necessary, and to remove such Assistant Commissioners, secretary, or assistant secretary, clerks, messengers, or officers, or any of them, and on any vacancy in any of the said offices to appoint some other person to the vacant office; and the persons so appointed shall assist in carrying this Act into execution at such places and in such manner as the said Commissioners may direct: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall not appoint more than twelve such Assistant Commissioners to act at any one time, unless the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, shall, in the case of each such appointment, consent thereto; provided further, that the number of such clerks, messengers, and officers shall be subject to the like consent.

v. That no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner appointed as aforesaid shall during his continuance in such office be capable of being elected or of sitting as a member of the House of Commons.

vi. That no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, secretary, assistant secretary, or other officer or person so to be appointed, shall hold his office for a longer period than five years next after the day of the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the end of the then next session of Parliament; and after the expiration of the said period of five years and of the then next session of Parliament so much of this Act as authorizes any such appointment shall cease.

vii. That the salaries of the Commissioners, the allowance to the Assistant Commissioners, and the salaries of the secretary, assistant secretary, clerks, messengers, and other officers to be appointed under this Act, shall be from time to time regulated by the Lord Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them: Provided always, that the salary of a Commissioner shall not exceed the sum of 1500*l.* a year, nor the allowance to an Assistant Commissioner the sum of 3*l.* for every day that he shall be actually employed or travelling in the performance of the duties of his office, nor the salaries of the secretary or assistant secretary the sum of 800*l.* a year; and that the salaries of the clerks, messengers, and other officers shall be in fit proportion: Provided also, that the said Lord Treasurer or Lords Commissioners may allow to any Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, secretary, assistant secretary, clerk, messenger, or other officer, any such reasonable travelling and other expenses as may have been incurred by him in the performance of his duties under this Act, in addition to his salary or allowance respectively.

viii. That the salaries, allowances, and travelling and other expenses of the Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners, secretary, assistant secretary, clerks, messengers, and officers, as aforesaid, and all other incidental expenses of carrying this Act into execution, not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by the Lord Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury out of the Consolidated Fund.

ix. That every such Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner shall, before he shall enter upon the execution of his office, take the following oath before one of the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench or Common Pleas, or one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer; (that is to say,)

'I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, fulfil all the Powers and Duties of a Commissioner [or Assistant Commissioner, as the Case may be,] under an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled [here set forth the title of this Act].'

And the appointment of every such Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner, with the time when and the name of the Judge or Baron before whom he shall have taken the oath aforesaid, shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette.

x. That the said Commissioners, or any Assistant Commissioner, may, by summons under their or his hand, require the attendance of all such persons as they or he may think fit to examine upon any matter brought before them or him as herein-after mentioned relating to the commutation of tithes, and also make any inquiries and call for any answer or return as to any such matter, and also administer oaths and examine all such persons upon oath and cause to be produced before them or him upon oath all books, deeds, contracts, agreements, accounts, and writings, terriers, maps, plans, and surveys, or copies thereof respectively, in anywise relating to any such matter: Provided always, that no such person shall be required, in obedience to any such summons, to travel more than ten miles from the place of his abode, or to produce any deeds, papers, or writings relating to the title of any lands or tithes.

xi. That the said Commissioners may delegate to their Assistant Commissioners, or to any one or more of them, such of the powers hereby given to the said Commissioners as the said Commissioners shall think fit, (except the power to confirm agreements and awards, or to frame forms of agreements and other instruments, as hereinafter provided, or to do any act herein required to be done under the seal of the said Commissioners,) and the powers so delegated shall be exercised under such regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct; and the said Commissioners may at any time recall or alter all or any of the powers delegated as aforesaid, and, notwithstanding the delegation thereof, may act as if no such delegation had been made; and all acts done by any such Assistant Commissioner in pursuance of such delegated powers shall be obeyed by all persons as if they had proceeded from the said Commissioners, and the non-observance thereof shall be punishable in like manner.

xii. That in the construction and for the purposes of this Act, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "person" shall mean and include the King's Majesty, and any body corporate, aggregate, or sole, as well as an individual; and any word importing the singular number only shall mean and include several persons or parties as well as one person or party, and several things as well as one thing respectively, and the converse; and any word importing the masculine gender only shall mean and include a female as well as a male; and the word "lands" shall mean and include all messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and the word "tithes" shall mean and include all uncommuted tithes, portions and parcels of tithes, and all moduses, compositions real, and prescriptive and customary payments; and the word "parish" and "parochial" shall mean and include and extend to every parish and every extra-parochial place, and every township or village, within which overseers of the poor are separately appointed under the provisions of an Act, 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12, intituled, 'An Act for the better relief of the Poor of this Kingdom,' and every district of which the tithes are payable under a separate impropriation or appropriation, or in a separate portion or parcel, or which the Commissioners shall by any order direct to be considered as a separate district for the commutation of tithes; and the words, "land owner" or "tithe owner," or "owner of lands" or "owner of tithes," shall mean and include every person who shall be in the actual possession or receipt of the rents or profits of any lands or tithes (except any tenant for life or lives, or for years, holding under a lease or agreement for a lease on which a rent of not less than two-thirds of the clear yearly value of the premises comprised therein shall have been reserved, and except any tenant for years whatsoever holding under a lease or agreement for a lease for a term which shall not have exceeded fourteen years from the commencement thereof,) and that without regard to the real amount of interest of such person; and in every case in which any tithes or lands shall have been leased or agreed to be leased to any person for life or lives, or for years, by any lease or agreement for a lease on which a rent less than two-thirds of the clear yearly value of the premises comprised therein shall have been reserved, and of which the term shall have exceeded fourteen years from the commencement thereof, the person who shall for the time being be in the actual receipt of the rent reserved upon such lease or agreement for a lease shall, jointly with the person who shall be liable to the payment of such rent of such tithes or lands, be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the owner of such tithes or lands; and in every case in which any person shall be in possession or receipt of the rents or profits of any tithes or lands under any sequestration, extent, elegit, or other writ of execution, or as a receiver under any order of a court of equity, the person against whom such writ shall have issued, or who but for such order would have been in possession, shall, jointly with the person in possession by virtue of such writ or order, be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the owner of such tithes or lands.

XIII. That whenever the ownership of any lands or tithes to which the provisions of this Act are intended to apply shall be vested in His Majesty, the First Commissioner of his Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the time being, or in case such lands or tithes shall be vested in His Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster or of the Duchy of Cornwall, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, or the officers of the Duchy of Cornwall entitled to grant leases of lands parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, shall for the purposes of this Act be substituted instead of the owner of such lands or tithes respectively; and whenever the patronage of any benefice to which the provisions of this Act are intended to apply shall be vested in His Majesty, the Lord High Treasurer or First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being where the value of such benefice is above the yearly value of 20*l*. in the king's books, and where such value is of or below the yearly value of 20*l*. in the king's books the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper or First Lord Commissioner of the Great Seal for the time being, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be substituted instead of the patron: Provided nevertheless, that if such patronage is vested in His Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, the Chancellor for the time being of such duchy shall for the purposes of this Act be substituted instead of the patron.

XIV. That whenever any person shall be at the same time owner of any lands and owner of any tithes comprised within any agreement to be executed pursuant to the provisions of this Act, or besides being owner of any lands or of any tithes shall also be patron of the benefice to which the tithes in question may belong, such person, in relation to such agreement, may act and be dealt with in each of the several characters so borne by him as aforesaid.

XV. That whenever the patron of any benefice or the owner of any lands or tithes to which the provisions of this Act are intended to apply, or any person interested in any question as to any tithes, shall be a minor, idiot, lunatic, feme covert, beyond the seas, or under any other legal disability, the guardian, trustee, committee of the estate, husband, or attorney respectively, or in default thereof such person as may be nominated for that purpose by the Commissioners after due inquiry shall have been made by them as to the fitness of such person, and whom they are hereby empowered to nominate under their hands and seal, shall for the purposes of this Act be substituted in the place of such patron, owner, or person so interested.

XVI. That it shall be lawful for any land owner or tithe owner, by a power of attorney given in writing under his hand, to appoint an agent to act for him in carrying into execution the provisions of this Act; and all things which by this Act are directed to be done by or with relation to any person may be lawfully done by or with relation to the agent so duly authorized of such person; and every such agent shall have full power, in the name and on behalf of his principal, to concur in and execute any agreement, and to vote on any question arising out of the execution of this Act; and every person shall be bound by the acts of any such agent, according to the authority committed to him, as fully as if the principal of such agent had so acted; and the power of attorney under which the agent shall have acted, or a copy thereof authenticated by the signature of two credible witnesses, shall be appended to every agreement executed by any such agent, and shall be sent with it to the office of the Commissioners as hereinafter provided; and any such power of attorney may be in the form following:

'I A.B. of [&c.] do hereby appoint C.D. of [&c.] to be my lawful Attorney to act for me in all respects as if I myself were present and acting in the Execution of an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His present Majesty, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act].

(Signed) 'A. B.'

XVII. That any one or more of the land owners or tithe owners, whose interest respectively shall not be less than one fourth part of the whole value of the lands subject to tithes, or one fourth part of the whole value of the tithes of any parish in England or Wales, may call a parochial meeting of land owners and tithe owners within the limits of the parish, by notice thereof in writing under his or their hand, to be affixed at least twenty-one days before such meeting on the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place within the limits of the parish, and to be twice at least during such twenty-one days inserted in some newspaper generally circulated within the county in which such parish is situated, for the purpose of making an agreement for the general commutation of tithes within the limits of such parish; and every land owner and tithe owner attending such meeting shall bear his own expenses of attendance; and the land owners and tithe owners who shall be present at any such meeting called as aforesaid, and whose interest in the lands and tithes of the parish respectively shall not be less than two-thirds of the lands subject to tithes, two-thirds of the great tithes and two-thirds of the small tithes of the parish, may proceed to make and execute a parochial agreement for the payment of an annual sum by way of rent-charge, variable as hereinafter provided, instead of the great and small tithes of the parish collectively, or instead of the great tithes and small tithes severally, to the respective owners thereof in the said parish; and every agreement so made and executed, and confirmed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be binding on all persons interested in the tithes or lands subject to tithes of the said parish.

XVIII. That the majority of such land owners and tithe owners present at every such meeting shall elect a chairman, who shall forthwith proceed to ascertain the interest of the land owners and tithe owners then present in person or by their agents; and in case it shall thereupon appear that the persons present at such meeting have not a sufficient interest in the premises as aforesaid to make and execute such an agreement which shall be binding on all persons interested therein, it shall be lawful notwithstanding for any number of the persons then present to make and execute a provisional agreement for the commutation of tithes of the like form and tenor; and every such provisional agreement which shall be executed within six calendar months from the day of the first making thereof by the land owners and tithe owners whose interest in the lands and tithes of the parish shall not be less than two-thirds of the lands subject to tithes, two-thirds of the great tithes and two-thirds of the small tithes of the parish respectively, shall be as binding as if executed by all the parties thereto at the meeting at which the agreement was first made.

XIX. Provided, That the proportional interest of the owners of such lands or tithes, so far as relates to their power to make any such agreement or provisional agreement, or to give any notice to the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners as hereinafter provided, shall be estimated according to the proportional sum at which such lands or tithes shall be rated to the relief of the poor, or, if there shall be no such rate, according to the rules by which property of the same kind is by law rateable to the relief of the poor.

XX. That in case an adjournment of the said meeting for any cause shall be desired by a majority of the persons attending such meeting, the chairman shall adjourn the meeting to any time and place then by him to be declared, and so from time to time in case the same shall be in like manner desired by a majority of the persons attending such meeting; and notice of every adjourned meeting shall be given under the hand of the chairman, and shall be affixed in a conspicuous place on the outside of the building in which such meeting or the last adjournment thereof shall have been holden; and the like order of proceeding shall be observed at any such adjourned meeting, and every thing done at any such adjourned meeting shall be as valid as if done at the original meeting.

XXI. That every such agreement shall bear date on the day on which the first signature is attached thereto, and every such agreement or some schedule thereunto annexed shall set forth all the lands of the said parish which are subject to the payment of any kind of tithes, and also the true or estimated quantity in statute measure of land subject to tithes within the parish which shall be then cultivated as arable, meadow, or pasture land, or as wood land, common land, or howsoever otherwise, and shall also set forth whether any modus or composition real, or prescriptive or customary payment, shall be payable instead of all or any of the tithes of the said parish, and which lands or tithes respectively are covered thereby, and shall also set forth which of the said tithes, moduses, compositions, or payments are payable to the tithe owner, or if there is more than one tithe owner to each of the several tithe owners in the said parish, distinguishing in what right every such tithe owner is entitled to such tithes, and shall also set forth whether any and which of the lands of the said parish are or have been under any and what circumstances exempt from the payment of any and what tithes; and such agreement shall also state in words at length the amount of the sum or sums agreed to be paid (subject to variation as hereinafter provided) instead of the tithes of the lands comprised in the said agreement, and instead of all moduses and compositions real, prescriptive and customary payments (if any), payable in respect of such lands, or the produce of such lands or any of them, distinguishing, if there is more than one tithe owner, the sum payable to every such tithe owner, and where the tithes of different lands in the same parish are payable to different tithe owners, or to the same tithe owner in different rights, distinguishing the sum payable in respect of such different lands; and every such agreement shall also state all such other particulars as the Commissioners shall by any order from time to time require to be inserted in such agreements.

XXII. That the Commissioners shall frame and cause to be printed, as soon as conveniently may be after their appointment, forms of notices and agreements and such other instruments as in their judgment will further the purposes of this Act, and supply all or any of such forms to the churchwardens and overseers of any parish who may require the same, or to whom the Commissioners may think fit to send the same, for the use of any land owner or tithe owner desirous of putting this Act in execution.

XXIII. That any Commissioner, or Assistant Commissioner, if the Commissioners shall think fit, may attend any such meeting for the purpose of taking part in the discussion and advising on the terms of agreement; but no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, during the time that he is actually attending such meeting for that purpose, shall have any of the powers herein given to the Commissioners in case of an award or apportionment by the Commissioners as hereinafter provided.

XXIV. That if any suit shall be pending touching the right to any tithes, or if there shall be any question as to the existence of any modus or composition real, or prescriptive or customary payment, or any claim of exemption from or non-liability to tithes, under any circumstances in respect of any lands or any kind of produce, or touching the situation or boundary of any lands, or if any difference shall arise whereby the making and executing of any such agreement shall be hindered, it shall be lawful for the owners, or if there shall be no owner actually in possession, for the persons claiming to be the owners of the lands and tithes respectively, being parties to such suit or difference, to submit the same to reference by any writing under their respective hands, containing an agreement that such submission shall be made a rule of any of His Majesty's courts of record, upon such terms of reference as the parties may agree upon; and the decision of the arbitrator or arbitrators named in the said reference shall for the purposes of this Act be final and conclusive on all persons: Provided nevertheless, that no person being owner of an estate in land or tithes, less in the whole than an immediate estate of fee simple or fee tail, shall be empowered to submit to any such reference so as to bind any person in remainder, reversion or expectancy, without the consent of the Commissioners; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit so to do, but not otherwise necessary, to direct that any person in remainder, reversion, or expectancy of an estate of inheritance in the said lands or tithes, or any other person whom they shall deem to be interested therein, shall be made a party to such reference.

xxv. That every agreement for the commutation for a rent-charge of the tithes of any lands which shall be pending at the time of the passing of this Act, and which shall be executed before or within six calendar months after the passing of this Act by the land owners and tithe owners, or persons claiming to be such owners, whose interest in the said lands and tithes shall not be less than two-thirds of the said lands, two-thirds of the great tithes and two-thirds of the small tithes of the said lands, and which shall be confirmed by the Commissioners, under their hands and seal, in the manner hereinafter provided for the confirmation of any parochial agreement, shall be as valid, and the rent-charge agreed to be paid by any such agreement shall be apportioned and charged, as hereinafter provided, among and upon the said lands, as if the agreement had been made and executed at a parochial meeting.

xxvi. Provided, That in every case in which any tithes shall belong to any ecclesiastical person in right of any spiritual dignity or benefice, no agreement for the commutation of such tithes made and executed under this Act shall be deemed to be executed by the owner of such tithes unless such consent thereto be given as hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) in the case of an Archbishop or Bishop, the consent of the Crown signified by the Lord High Treasurer or First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury; and in case of the incumbent of any other benefice or ecclesiastical dignity, the consent of the patron or person entitled to present to such benefice or dignity in case the same were then vacant; and every such consent shall be given under the hand of the person giving the same, and shall be annexed to the agreement, and taken to be part of the execution thereof.

xxvii. That every such agreement, as soon as may be after it shall have been executed by a sufficient number of land owners and tithe owners whose interests in the lands and tithes of the parish respectively shall not be less than two-thirds of the lands subject to tithes, two-thirds of the great tithes and two-thirds of the small tithes, shall be sent by the chairman of the meeting, or by the person in whose custody it shall then be, to the office of the Commissioners, and the Commissioners, by themselves or by some Assistant Commissioner, shall cause inquiry to be made and shall require such proof as will be satisfactory to them, whether or not the agreement has been made without fraud or collusion, and whether or not it ought to be confirmed; and if they shall be satisfied that it ought to be confirmed, the Commissioners shall confirm the agreement under their hands and seal, and shall add to such agreement the date of the confirmation, and shall publish the fact of such confirmation and the date thereof within the parish in such manner as to them shall seem fit; and every such confirmed agreement shall be binding on all persons interested in the said lands or tithes.

xxviii. Provided, That before the Commissioners shall confirm any such agreement relating to tithes belonging to any ecclesiastical person in right of any spiritual dignity or benefice, they shall communicate the same to the Bishop of the diocese for his observations and opinion; and no such agreement shall be confirmed by such Commissioners until four weeks shall have elapsed from the date of the transmission of such agreement to such Bishop, unless the said Bishop shall sooner signify his approbation of such agreement to the said Commissioners.

xxix. That any such parochial agreement may be made in manner and form aforesaid for giving to any ecclesiastical owner, in right of any spiritual benefice or dignity, of any tithes or of any rent-charge for which such tithes shall have been commuted, any quantity not exceeding in the whole twenty imperial acres of land by way of commutation for the whole or an equivalent part of the great or small tithes of the parish, or in discharge of or exchange for the whole or an equivalent part of any rent-charge agreed to be paid instead of such tithes, but subject in every case to the provisions hereinafter contained; and every such agreement shall be made in such form and contain such particulars as the Commissioners shall in that behalf direct, specifying the land whereof the tithes or rent-charge for which such tithes shall have been commuted shall be the subject of such agreement, and giving full and sufficient descriptions of the quantity, state of culture, and annual value of the land proposed to be given in exchange for such tithes or rent-charge: Provided always, that the same consent and confirmation shall be necessary to any such agreement as in the case of an agreement for a rent-charge; and that in case the said agreement shall not extend to the whole of the tithes of the parish, an agreement or award as hereinafter provided may and shall be made for the payment of a rent-charge in satisfaction of the residue of the said tithes; and such rent-charge when agreed upon or awarded, or the residue thereof, shall be apportioned in manner hereinafter provided upon all the lands of the parish subject to the payment of tithes, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the said parochial agreement, except the land so given by way of commutation, in like manner as if no agreement for giving land had been made: Provided also, that the land so given shall be free from incumbrances, except leases at improved rent, land tax, or other usual outgoings, and shall not be of leasehold tenure, nor of copyhold or customary tenure, subject to arbitrary fine or the render of heriots.

xxx. That in every case in which any such agreement for giving land shall be so entered into, the Commissioners shall satisfy themselves, in such way and by such evidence as they shall see fit, of the title to the land proposed thereby to be given in exchange for such tithes or rent-charge, and that the same are of the description and value set forth in such agreement, and that such agreement is conformable in every respect to the provisions hereinbefore contained respecting the same; and the expenses attending every such agreement for giving land, and the confirmation thereof, and of investigating the title to the land, shall be borne by the owners of land liable to the payment of tithes within the parish, in such proportions as they may agree, or, in default of agreement, as the Commissioners may direct.

xxxi. That such agreement for giving land, confirmed by the said Commissioners, shall operate as a conveyance of such land to the owner of such tithes or rent-charge, and the land so conveyed shall thereupon vest in and be and be deemed to be held by such person or persons, and upon the like uses and trusts in every respect as the tithes or rent-charge in commutation or exchange for which the same shall have been given shall be vested and holden; and for the purpose of making and completing any such agreement the provisions of this Act respecting persons under legal disability shall apply to every person party to such agreement or in whom any such land shall be vested, and whose concurrence or consent may be necessary to the perfecting thereof, or of the title to such land, as fully as if the same had been here repeated and re-enacted.

xxxii. That at the said meeting or at some adjournment thereof, or at some other parochial meeting to be called in like manner, either before or after the confirmation of the agreement, the owners of lands subject to tithes in the said parish, or their agents, present at the meeting, may appoint a valuer or valuers; and in case the majority in respect of number and the majority in respect of interest shall not agree upon the appointment, then they shall appoint two or such other even number of valuers as shall be then agreed on by such land owners, half of such number to be chosen by a majority in respect of number, and the other half by a majority in respect of interest, of such land owners then present.

XXXIII. That as soon as may be after the choosing of such valuer or valuers, and after the confirmation of the said agreement, the valuer or valuers so chosen shall apportion the total sum agreed to be paid by way of rent-charge instead of tithes, and the expenses of the apportionment, amongst the several lands in the said parish, according to such principles of apportionment as shall be agreed upon at the meeting at which the valuer or valuers shall be chosen, or if no principles shall be then agreed upon for the guidance of the valuer or valuers, then, having regard to the average titheable produce and productive quality of the lands, according to his or their discretion and judgment, but subject in each case to the provisions hereinafter contained, and so that in each case the several lands shall have the full benefit of every modus and composition real, prescriptive and customary payment, and of every exemption from or non-liability to tithes relating to the said lands respectively, and having regard to the several tithes to which the said lands are severally liable; provided that it shall be lawful for the said valuers, when an even number is chosen, by any writing under their hands, to appoint an umpire before they proceed upon the business of such apportionment, and the decision of the umpire on the questions in difference between the valuers shall be binding on them, and shall be adopted by them in the apportionment.

XXXIV. That the said valuers and umpire (if it shall become necessary for him to act), and their agents or servants, at all reasonable times, may enter upon any of the lands to be included in the apportionment, and make an admeasurement, plan, and valuation of the same, without being subject to any action or molestation for so doing: Provided always, that no valuer or umpire shall be capable of acting until he shall have made and subscribed before the said Commissioners, or some Assistant Commissioner, or Justice of the Peace, a solemn declaration to the same purport and effect as the oath hereinbefore directed to be made by the said Commissioners, substituting only the proper description of such person instead of the word Commissioner, and adding to his signature the usual place of his residence, which declaration it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Assistant Commissioner or Justice, to administer; and every such declaration so made and subscribed shall be countersigned by the person before whom the same shall have been made, and shall be sent by him to the office of the Commissioners.

XXV. That the valuer or valuers or umpire may, if they think fit, use for the purposes of this Act any admeasurement, plan, or valuation previously made of the lands or tithes in question of the accuracy of which they shall be satisfied; and that it shall be lawful for the meeting at which such valuer or valuers shall be chosen to agree upon the adoption for the purposes aforesaid of any such admeasurement, plan, or valuation, and such agreement shall be binding upon the valuer or valuers; provided always, that three-fourths of the land owners in number and value shall concur therein.

XXVI. That after the 1st of October 1838 the Commissioners shall proceed in manner hereinafter mentioned, at such time and in such order as to them shall seem fit, either by themselves or by some Assistant Commissioner, to ascertain and award the total sum to be paid by way of rent-charge instead of the tithes of every parish in England and Wales in which no such agreement binding upon the whole parish as aforesaid shall have been made and confirmed as aforesaid; provided nevertheless, that if any proceeding shall be had towards making and executing any such agreement after the Commissioners shall have given or caused to be given notice of their intention to act as aforesaid in such parish, the Commissioners may refrain from acting upon such notice, if they shall think fit, until the result of such proceeding shall appear.

XXVII. That in every case in which the Commissioners shall intend making such award, notice thereof shall be given in such manner as to them shall seem fit; and after the expiration of twenty-one days after such notice shall have been given the Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner shall, except in the cases for which provision is hereinafter made, proceed to ascertain the clear average value (after making all just deductions on account of the expenses of collecting, preparing for sale, and marketing, where such tithes have been taken in kind,) of the tithes of the said parish, according to the average of seven years preceding Christmas in the year 1835: Provided, that if during the said period of seven years, or any part thereof, the said tithes or any part thereof shall have been compounded for or demised to the owner or occupier of any of the said lands in consideration of any rent or payment instead of tithes, the amount of such composition or rent or sum agreed to be paid instead of tithes shall be taken as the clear value of the tithes included in such composition, demise, or agreement during the time for which the same shall have been made; and the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall award the average annual value of the said seven years so ascertained as the sum to be taken for calculating the rent-charge to be paid as a permanent commutation of the said tithes: Provided also, that whenever it shall appear to the Commissioners that the party entitled to any such rent or composition shall in any one or more of the said seven years have allowed and made any abatement from the amount of such rent or composition on the ground of the same having in any such year or years been higher than the sum fairly payable by way of composition for the tithe, but not otherwise, then and in every such case such diminished amount, after making such abatement as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to have been the sum agreed to be paid for any such year or years: Provided also, that in estimating the value of the said tithes the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall estimate the same without making any deduction therefrom on account of any parliamentary, parochial, county, and other rates, charges, and assessments to which the said tithes are liable; and whenever the said tithes shall have been demised or compounded for on the principle of the rent or composition being paid free from all such rates, charges, and assessments, or any part thereof, the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have regard to that circumstance, and shall make such an addition on account thereof as shall be an equivalent.

XXVIII. Provided, That in case notice in writing under the hand of any patron, or the hands of any land owners or tithe owners whose interest in the lands or tithes of the parish shall not be less than one half of the lands subject to tithes, one half of the great tithes or one half of the small tithes of the parish, shall be given to the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner acting in that behalf, within one calendar month next after the notice of the intention to make an award shall have been given as aforesaid, that the average value to be ascertained as aforesaid will not fairly represent the sum which ought to be taken for calculating a permanent commutation of the great or small tithes of the said parish, the Commissioners shall have power to diminish or increase the sum to be so taken by a sum amounting to not more than one fifth part of the average value ascertained as aforesaid: Provided always, that every case which shall appear to the Commissioners to be fraudulent or collusive, or which, by reason of the length of time which shall have elapsed since the making of any composition then in force, or which by reason of the peculiar interest in the lands or tithes of either of the parties to any composition, or by reason of any other special circumstances, ought in the judgment of the Commissioners to be separately adjudicated upon, shall be reserved for separate adjudication as hereinafter provided; and the Commissioners shall certify and report to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, under their hands and seals, before the 1st of May 1838, in what manner the discretion hereby vested in them ought in their judgment to be exercised, and shall in the said report lay down such rules for the guidance of the Assistant Commissioners as may to them seem expedient; and such report shall be laid before Parliament within six weeks after the same shall have been received or after the meeting of Parliament, and, unless Parliament shall otherwise provide, such rules shall be observed by the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners in the exercise of the discretion hereby vested in the Commissioners.

xxxix. That the Commissioners shall from time to time report to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, under their hands and seals, all the cases which under the power hereinbefore reserved to them in that behalf shall have been reserved for separate adjudication, and shall state in every such Report the reasons for so reserving every case mentioned therein, and the Commissioners shall in every such case award the rent-charge to be paid as a permanent commutation for tithes, having regard to the average rate which shall be awarded in respect of lands of the like description and similarly situated in the neighbouring parishes; provided always, that a draught of such intended award, with a copy of so much of the said Reports as is applicable to such award, shall be deposited in the parish; and the Commissioners, or an Assistant Commissioner to be specially appointed by the Commissioners for that purpose, shall hear and determine all objections to the award in the like manner as is herein provided in an ordinary case of award, and the Commissioners shall have power thereupon to amend the draught of the said award accordingly.

xl. That in case any of the lands in the parish shall be hop grounds, orchards, or gardens, and notice shall be given by the owner thereof to the Commissioners, or Assistant Commissioner acting in that behalf that the tithes thereof should be separately valued, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall estimate the value of the tithes thereof according to the average rate of composition for the tithes of hops, fruit, and garden produce respectively during seven years preceding Christmas in the year 1835, within a district to be assigned in each case by the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, and estimating the same as chargeable to all parliamentary, parochial, county, and other rates, charges, and assessments to which the said tithes are liable, and shall add the value so estimated to the value of the other tithes of the parish ascertained as aforesaid.

xli. That in case any of the lands in the parish shall be coppices, and notice shall be given by the owner thereof, or by the owner of the tithes thereof, to the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner acting in that behalf that the tithes thereof should be separately valued, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall estimate the value of the tithes thereof with a due regard to the average value, estimated according to the best of their judgment, of coppice wood of the same kind cut during the said period of seven years in that parish and the neighbouring parishes, estimating the same as chargeable to all parliamentary, parochial, county, and other rates, charges, and assessments to which the said tithes are liable, and shall add the clear value of the tithes so estimated to the value of the other tithes of the parish ascertained as aforesaid; and the Commissioners shall, in the Report which they are hereinbefore required to make to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State before the 1st of May 1838, lay down rules for the guidance of the Assistant Commissioners in estimating the value of the tithes of coppice wood, and, unless Parliament shall otherwise provide, such rules shall be observed by the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners.

xl.ii. That the amount which shall be charged by any such apportionment as hereinafter provided upon any hop grounds or market gardens in any district so to be assigned shall be distinguished into two parts, which shall be called the ordinary charge and the extraordinary charge, and the extraordinary charge shall be a rate per imperial acre, and so in proportion for less quantities of ground, according to the discretion of the valuers or Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner by whom the apportionment shall be made as aforesaid; and all lands whereof the tithes shall have been commuted under this Act, and which shall cease to be cultivated as hop grounds or market gardens at any time after such commutation, shall be charged after the 31st of December next following such change of cultivation only with the ordinary charge upon such lands; and all lands in any such district the tithes whereof shall have been commuted under this Act, and which shall be newly cultivated as hop grounds or market gardens at any time after such commutation, shall be charged with an additional amount of rent-charge per imperial acre, equal to the extraordinary charge per acre upon hop grounds or market gardens respectively in that district; provided always, that no such additional amount shall be charged or payable during the first year, and half only of such additional amount during the second year, of such new cultivation; and an additional rent-charge by way of extraordinary charge upon hop grounds and market gardens, newly cultivated as such beyond the limits of every district in which any extraordinary charge for hop grounds or market gardens respectively shall have been distinguished as aforesaid at the time of the commutation, shall be charged by the Commissioners at the time of such new cultivation, upon the request of any person interested therein, if such new cultivation shall have taken place during the continuance of the commission of the said Commissioners, and after the expiration of the commission shall be charged in such manner and by such authority as Parliament shall direct, and shall be payable and recoverable in like manner and subject to the same incidents in all respects as an extraordinary charge charged upon any hop grounds or market gardens at the time of commutation.

xl.iii. That in case any of the lands in the parish shall, during any part of the said period of seven years preceding Christmas in the year 1835 have been exempted from payment of tithes by reason of having been inclosed under any Act of Parliament or converted from barren heath or waste ground, or by reason of being glebe lands or of having been heretofore parcel of the possessions of any privileged order, and notice shall have been given as last aforesaid to the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner acting in that behalf that the tithes thereof should be separately valued, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall estimate the value of the tithes thereof according to the average value which shall be ascertained as aforesaid in respect of lands of the like description and quality in that parish and the neighbouring parishes, or as near thereto as the circumstances of each case may in their judgment require, and estimating the same as chargeable to all parliamentary parchial, county, and other rates, charges, and assessments to which the said tithes are liable, and shall add the value so estimated to the value of the other tithes of the parish ascertained as aforesaid.

XLIV. That if any modus or composition real, or prescriptive or customary payment, shall be payable instead of the tithes of any of the lands or produce thereof in the said parish, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall in such case estimate the amount of such modus, composition, or payment as the value of the tithes payable in respect of such lands or produce respectively, and shall add the amount thereof to the value of the other tithes of the parish ascertained as aforesaid, and shall also make due allowance for all exemptions from or non-liability to tithes of any lands or any part of the produce of such lands: Provided also, that if it shall appear to the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner that any question concerning any modus or composition real, prescriptive or customary payment, or claim of exemption from or non-liability to the payment of tithes relating to the lands in question, shall have been decided by competent authority before the making of the said award, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners shall act on the principle established by such decision, and shall make their award as if such decision had been made at the beginning of the said period of seven years.

XLV. That if any suit shall be pending touching the right to any tithes, or if there shall be any question as to the existence of any modus or composition real, or prescriptive or customary payment, or any claim of exemption from or non-liability under any circumstances to the payment of any tithes in respect of any lands or any kind of produce, or touching the situation or boundary of any lands, or if any difference shall arise whereby the making of any such award by the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall be hindered, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner to appoint a time and place in or near the parish for hearing and determining the same; and the decision of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall be final and conclusive on all persons, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained.

XLVI. Provided, That any person claiming to be interested in any lands or in the tithes thereof who shall be dissatisfied with any such decision of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner may, if the yearly value of the payment to be made or withheld according to such decision shall exceed the sum of £201., cause an action to be brought in any of His Majesty's courts of law at Westminster against the person in whose favour such decision shall have been made, within three calendar months next after such decision shall have been notified in writing, in such manner as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall direct, to the parties interested therein or to their known agents, in which action the plaintiff shall deliver a feigned issue, whereby such disputed right may be tried, and shall proceed to a trial at law of such issue at the sittings after the term or at the assizes then next or next but one after such action shall have been commenced to be holden for the county within which such lands or the greater part thereof are situated, with liberty nevertheless for the Court in which the same shall have been commenced or any Judge of His Majesty's courts of law at Westminster to extend the time for going to trial therein, or to direct the trial to be in another county if it shall seem fit to such Court or Judge so to do; and every defendant in any such action shall enter an appearance thereto, and accept such issue; but in case the parties shall differ as to the form of such issue, or in case the defendant shall fail to enter such appearance or accept such issue, then the same shall be settled under the direction of the Court in which the action shall be brought, or by any Judge of His Majesty's courts of law at Westminster, and the plaintiff may proceed thereon in like manner as if the defendant had appeared and accepted such issue; and the parties in such action shall produce to each other and their respective attorneys or counsel, at such time and place as any Judge may order before trial, and also to the Court and jury upon the trial of any such issue, all books, deeds, papers, and writings, terriers, maps, plans, and surveys relating to the matters in issue in their respective custody or power; and it shall be lawful for the Judge by whom any such action shall be tried, if he shall think fit, to direct the jury to find a verdict, subject to the opinion of the Court upon a special case; and the verdict which shall be given in any such action, or the judgment of the Court upon the case subject to which the same may be given, shall be final and binding upon all parties thereto, unless the Court wherein such action shall be brought shall set aside such verdict and order a new trial to be had therein, which it shall be lawful for the said Court to do, if it shall see fit: Provided also, that in case any such decision shall involve a question of law only, and the parties in difference shall be agreed upon the facts relating thereto, and whereon such decision shall have been founded, the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, at the request of the person dissatisfied, (such request to be made in writing within three calendar months after such decision, and at least fourteen days previous notice in writing of such request to be given in like manner to the other parties in difference or to their known agents,) shall direct a case to be stated for the opinion of such one of His Majesty's courts of law at Westminster as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall think fit, which case shall be settled by them or him or under their or his direction in case the parties differ about the same, and may be set down for argument and be brought before the Court in like manner as other cases are brought before the Court; and the decision of such Court upon every case so brought before it shall be binding upon all parties concerned therein: Provided always, that after such verdict given and not set aside by the Court, or after such decision of the Court, the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall be bound by such verdict or decision; and the costs of every such action, or of stating such case and obtaining a decision thereon, shall be in the discretion of the Court in or by which the same shall be decided, which may order the same to be taxed by the proper officer of the Court, and the like execution may be had for the same as if such costs had been recovered upon a judgment of record of the said Court.

XLVII. That no proceeding of or before the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, or in any action or in any case stated, or reference in pursuance of this Act, shall abate or cease by reason of the death of any person interested therein.

XLVIII. That if any person in whose favour any such decision of the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner shall have been made shall die before any such action shall have been brought or case stated, and before the expiration of the time hereinbefore limited for that purpose, it shall be lawful for every person who might have brought such action, or have had such case stated, against the person so dying, to bring or have the same, within the time so limited as aforesaid, nominally against such person as if living, and to serve the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner with process and notices relating thereto in the same manner as the person deceased might have been served therewith if living; and it shall be lawful for every person entitled to the benefit of such decision as aforesaid, or, in case of any such person being a minor, idiot, lunatic, feme covert, beyond the seas, or under any other legal disability, the guardian, trustee, committee of the estate, husband, or attorney respectively, or in default thereof such person as may be nominated for that purpose by the Commissioners, and whom they are hereby empowered to nominate under their hands and seal, to appear and defend such action or argue such case; and proceedings shall be had therein in the same manner, and the rights of all persons shall be equally bound and concluded by the event of such action or the decision upon such case, as if such person had been living; and the costs of every such action or case shall be in the discretion of the Court as aforesaid.

XLIX. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall revive any right to tithes which now is or hereafter shall be barred by any law in force for shortening the time required in claims of modus decimandi or exemption from or discharge from tithes, or for the limitation of actions and suits relating to real property.

L. That as soon as all such suits and differences shall have been decided, or if there shall have been no suits or differences then as soon as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have ascertained and estimated as aforesaid the total value of all the tithes of the said pariah, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall frame the draft of an award, declaring that the sum ascertained as aforesaid shall be the amount of the rent-charge to be paid in respect of the tithes of the said pariah, and every such draft shall contain all the particulars hereinbefore required to be inserted in any parochial agreement or any schedule thereto; provided always, that no such award shall be made for giving land instead of the tithes of the pariah.

LI. That as soon as the said draft shall have been made by the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner they or he shall deposit a copy of the same and of any special report thereunto annexed at some convenient place within the said pariah for the inspection of all persons interested in the said lands or tithes, and shall forthwith give notice in such manner as to the Commissioners shall seem fit where the said copy may be inspected, and shall also in such notice appoint some convenient place and time (the first not earlier than twenty-one days from the first giving of such notice) for holding a meeting to hear objections to such intended award by any person interested therein; and the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner at such meeting as aforesaid shall hear and determine any objections which may be then and there made to the said intended award, or adjourn the further hearing thereof, if they or he shall think proper, to a future meeting, and may, if they or he shall see occasion, direct any further valuation of the lands or tithes, or any of them, and from time to time fix further meetings for the hearing and determining of objections, of which further meetings, when not holden by adjournment, notice shall be given in manner hereinbefore directed with regard to the original meeting; and when the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have heard and determined all such objections they or he shall amend the draft of such award accordingly, if they or he shall see occasion.

LII. That as soon as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have made such amendments in the draft of the award as to them or him shall seem necessary, they or he shall cause the same to be fairly written, and shall sign and send it to the office of the Commissioners, and the Commissioners shall satisfy themselves that all the proceedings incident to the making of such award have been duly performed, and if they shall think that the award ought to be confirmed shall confirm the same under their hands and seal, and shall add to the award the date of such confirmation, and shall publish the fact of such confirmation and the date thereof in the pariah, in such manner as to them shall seem fit; and every such confirmed award shall be binding on all persons interested in the said lands or tithes.

LIII. That as soon as the Commissioners shall have confirmed any such award, the Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner shall call a parochial meeting of the owners of land subject to tithes in the said pariah, for the purpose of choosing valuers to apportion the amount so awarded among the lands of the pariah, and shall give notice thereof in writing under their or his hand, to be fixed at least twenty-one days before such meeting on the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place within the pariah; and valuers or a single valuer may be chosen at such meeting by the land owners then present in like manner, and the valuers so chosen shall act with the same powers and be subject to the same provisions, as if the rent-charge so awarded had been agreed to at a parochial meeting of the land owners and tithe owners of the pariah, and the valuers had been thereupon chosen as aforesaid.

LIV. That if upon the expiration of six calendar months after the day of the date of the confirmation of any agreement or award no valuer or valuers shall have been appointed, or the apportionment by such valuers or valuer shall not have been made and sent to the office of the Commissioners as hereinafter provided, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner to apportion the rent-charge previously agreed or awarded to be paid among the lands of the said pariah, having regard to the average titheable produce and productive quality of the said lands, according to the discretion and judgment of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, but subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and so that the several lands may have the full benefit in each case of every modus, composition real, prescriptive and customary payment, and of every exemption from or non-liability to tithes relating to the said lands respectively, and having regard to the several tithes to which the said lands are severally liable.

LV. That a draught of every apportionment shall be made, and shall set forth the agreement or award, as the case may be, upon which such apportionment is founded, and every schedule thereunto annexed; and the said draught, or some schedule thereunto annexed, whether made by or under the direction of the valuers or Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners, shall state the name or description and the true or estimated quantity in statute measure of the several lands to be comprised in the apportionment, and shall set forth the names and description of the several proprietors and occupiers thereof, and whether the said several lands are then cultivated as arable, meadow, or pasture land, or as wood land, common land, or howsoever otherwise, and shall refer, by a number set against the description of such lands, to a map or plan to be drawn on paper or parchment, and the same number shall be marked on the representation of such lands in the said map or plan; and the draught of the apportionment shall also state the amount charged upon the said several lands, and to whom and in what right the same shall be respectively payable.

LVI. That immediately after the passing of this Act, and also in the month of January in every year, the Comptroller of Corn Returns for the time being, or such other person as may from time to time be in that behalf authorized by the Privy Council, shall cause an advertisement to be inserted in the London Gazette, stating what has been, during seven years ending on the Thursday next before Christmas Day then next preceding, the average price of an imperial bushel of British wheat, barley, and oats, computed from the weekly averages of the corn returns.

LVII. That every rent-charge charged upon any lands by any such intended apportionment shall be deemed at the time of the confirmation of such apportionment, as hereinafter provided, to be of the value of such number of imperial bushels and decimal parts of an imperial bushel of wheat, barley, and oats as the same would have purchased at the prices so ascertained by the advertisement to be published immediately after the passing of this Act, in case one third part of such rent-charge had been invested in the purchase of wheat, one third part thereof in the purchase of barley, and the remaining third part thereof in the purchase of oats, and the respective quantities of wheat, barley, and oats so ascertained shall be stated in the draft of every apportionment.

LVIII. That it shall be lawful for the valuers or Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, upon the request of any land owner, at any time before the confirmation of the apportionment, to apportion the whole rent-charge intended to be charged upon any lands of such land owner held under the same title and for the same estate, in the same parish, specially upon the several closes or portions of such lands or according to an acreable rate or acreable rates, upon lands of different quality, in such manner and in such proportion, and to the exclusion of such of them, as the land owner, with the consent of the person entitled to such rent-charge, may direct, and the particulars of every such special apportionment shall be included in the draught of the apportionment and taken to be a part thereof: Provided always, that the extra expenses of every such special apportionment shall be borne by the party at whose instance the same shall have been made, and shall be recoverable as other costs of the apportionment are recoverable, and that no close of land shall be charged with any rent-charge or share of rent-charge on account of the tithes of any other lands, unless the value of such lands shall be at least three times the value of the whole rent-charge upon such lands.

LIX. That for the purpose of making any such apportionment, as well as for the purpose of making any award as hereinbefore provided, the Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners may employ such land surveyors and tithe valuers as to them shall seem fit, and may order them to be paid for valuing, surveying, mapping, and planning after any rate not exceeding two guineas to every such person for every day that he shall have been so employed, and may assess the same as part of the expenses of making their award or apportionment respectively; and the said Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, and the land surveyors and tithe valuers employed by them respectively, shall have all the powers and be subject to all the provisions hereinbefore enacted concerning the valuers appointed at a parochial meeting, except that they shall not be bound to adopt any principles of apportionment agreed to at any parochial meeting: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners to make any agreement with any such land surveyors or tithe valuers for the payment to the same of one sum for the whole duty or any part thereof to be performed by them respectively.

LX. That the draught of every apportionment, whether made by or under the direction of the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner or by any valuer or valuers appointed as hereinbefore is provided, shall be signed by the person by or under whose direction it shall have been made, and shall be sent, together with the map or plan therein referred to, by the person by whom it is signed to the office of the Commissioners, or otherwise to some Assistant Commissioner, as the Commissioners may direct, with such proof as the Commissioners may require that every proceeding incident to the making of such draught of apportionment has been duly performed.

LXI. That as soon as the draught of any such apportionment, verified as aforesaid, shall have been sent to the Commissioners they shall cause a copy of the same to be deposited at some convenient place within the said parish for the inspection of all persons interested in the said lands or tithes, and shall forthwith cause notice to be given, in such manner as to them shall seem fit, where the said copy may be inspected, and shall also in such notice appoint some convenient place and such times as they shall think necessary (the first not earlier than twenty-one days from the first giving of such notice), for holding a meeting to hear objections to the intended apportionment by any person interested therein, and the said Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner at such meeting as aforesaid shall hear and determine any objections which may be then and there made to the said intended apportionment, or adjourn the further hearing thereof, if they or he shall think proper, to a future meeting, and may, if they or he shall see occasion, direct any further valuation of the lands or any of them, and from time to time fix further meetings for the hearing and determining of objections, of which further meetings, when not holden by adjournment, notice shall be given in manner hereinbefore directed with regard to the original meeting; and when the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have heard and determined all such objections, they and he are and is hereby required to cause such apportionment to be amended accordingly if they or he shall see occasion.

LXII. That it shall be lawful for the owner of any lands chargeable with any such rent-charge to agree, at any time before the confirmation of any such instrument of apportionment, with any ecclesiastical person being the owner of the tithes thereof in right of any spiritual benefice or dignity, for giving land instead of the rent-charge charged or about to be charged upon his lands; and every such agreement shall be made under the hands and seals of the land owner and tithe owner, and shall contain all the particulars hereinbefore required to be inserted in a parochial agreement for giving land instead of tithes or rent-charge: Provided always, that no such tithe owner shall be enabled to take or hold more than twenty imperial acres of land in the whole by virtue of any such agreement or agreements made in the same parish; and the same consent and confirmation relatively to the lands and tithes comprised in the said agreement shall be necessary to any such agreement as in the case of a parochial agreement for giving land instead of tithes; and all the provisions hereinbefore contained concerning a parochial agreement for giving land shall be applicable to every such agreement as hereinbefore last mentioned, so far as concerns the lands and tithes comprised in the said agreement: Provided also, that any amendment which shall be made in the draft of apportionment before confirmation thereof, and subsequent to any such agreement for giving land instead of rent-charge, whereby the charge upon the lands referred to in such agreement shall be altered, shall be taken to annul the execution of such agreement for giving land, and any consent which may have been necessary thereunto.

LXIII. That after such proceedings as aforesaid shall have been had, and all such objections, if any, shall have been finally disposed of, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall cause the instrument of apportionment to be ingrossed on parchment, and shall annex the map or plan thereunto belonging to the ingrossed instrument of apportionment, and shall sign the instrument of apportionment and the map or plan, and shall send both to the office of the Commissioners, and if the Commissioners shall approve the apportionment they shall confirm the instrument of apportionment under their hands and seal, and shall add thereunto the date of such confirmation.

LXIV. That two copies of every confirmed instrument of apportionment, and of every confirmed agreement for giving land instead of any tithes or rent-charge, shall be made and sealed with the seal of the said Commissioners, and one such copy shall be deposited in the registry of the diocese within which the parish is situated, to be there kept among the records of the said registry, and the other copy shall be deposited with the incumbent and church or chapel wardens of the parish for the time being, or such other fit persons as the Commissioners shall approve, to be kept by them and their successors in office with the public books, writings, and papers of the parish, and all persons interested therein may have access to and be furnished with copies of or extracts from any such copy on giving reasonable notice to the person having custody of the same, and on payment of 2s. 6d. for such inspection, and after the rate of 3d. for every seventy-two words contained in such copy or extract; and every recital or statement in or map or plan annexed to such confirmed apportionment or agreement for giving land, or any sealed copy thereof, shall be deemed satisfactory evidence of the matters therein recited or stated, or of the accuracy of such plan.

LXV. That the Commissioners, if they shall see fit, before confirming any agreement, award, or apportionment, may require notice thereof to be given in such manner as they shall direct to the person next in remainder, reversion, or expectancy of an estate of inheritance in any lands or tithes, or any other person to whom they may think notice ought to be given, and may by themselves or by some Assistant Commissioner hear and determine any objection made to such confirmation by any person interested therein, and may direct any award or apportionment to be amended accordingly.

LXVI. That no confirmed agreement, award, or apportionment shall be impeached after the confirmation thereof by reason of any mistake or informality therein or in any proceeding relating thereunto.

LXVII. That from the first day of January next following the confirmation of every such apportionment the lands of the said parish shall be absolutely discharged from the payment of all tithes, except so far as relates to the liability of any tenant at rack rent dissenting as hereinafter provided, and instead thereof there shall be payable thenceforth to the person in that behalf mentioned in the said apportionment a sum of money equal in value, according to the prices ascertained by the then next preceding advertisement, to the quantity of wheat, barley, and oats respectively mentioned therein to be payable instead of the said tithes, in the nature of a rent-charge issuing out of the lands charged therewith; and such yearly sum shall be payable by two equal half-yearly payments on the first day of July and the first day of January in every year, the first payment, except in the case of barren reclaimed lands, as hereinafter provided, being on the first day of July next after the lands shall have been discharged from tithes as aforesaid, and such rent-charge may be recovered at the suit of the person entitled thereto, his executors or administrators, by distress and entry as hereinafter mentioned; and after every first day of January the sum of money thenceforth payable in respect of such rent-charge shall vary so as always to consist of the price of the same number of bushels and decimal parts of a bushel of wheat, barley, and oats respectively, according to the prices ascertained by the then next preceding advertisement, and any person entitled from time to time to any such varied rent-charge shall have the same powers for enforcing payment thereof as are herein contained concerning the original rent-charge: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken to render any person whomsoever personally liable to the payment of any such rent-charge: Provided always, that the rent-charge which shall be apportioned upon any lands in the said parish which during any part of the said period of seven years preceding Christmas 1835 were exempted from tithes by reason of having been inclosed under any Act of Parliament, or converted from barren heath or waste ground, shall be payable for the first time on the first day of July or first day of January next following the confirmation of the apportionment which shall be nearest to the time at which tithes were or would have become payable for the first time in respect of the said lands if no commutation thereof had taken place.

LXVIII. That from the first day of January next following the confirmation of every parochial or other agreement for giving land instead of any tithes or rent-charge, the lands of the parish in which any such agreement shall be made shall be absolutely discharged from the payment of the tithes or rent-charge for which it shall have been agreed that such land shall be given.

LXIX. That every rent-charge payable as aforesaid instead of tithes shall be subject to all parliamentary, parochial, and county and other rates, charges, and assessments, in like manner as the tithes commuted for such rent-charge have heretofore been subject.

LXX. That all rates and charges to which any such rent-charge is liable shall be assessed upon the occupier of the lands out of which such rent-charge shall issue, and in case the same shall not be sooner paid by the owner of the rent-charge for the time being may be recovered from such occupier in like manner as any poor rate assessed on him in respect of such lands; and any occupier holding such lands under any landlord and who shall have paid any such rate or charge in respect of any such rent-charge shall be entitled to deduct the amount thereof from the rent next payable by him to his landlord for the time being, and shall be allowed the same in account with his landlord; and any landlord or owner in possession who shall have paid any such rate or charge, or from whose rent the amount of any such rate or charge in respect of any such rent-charge shall have been so deducted, or who shall have allowed the same in account with any tenant paying the same, shall be entitled to deduct the amount thereof from the rent-charge, or by all other lawful ways and means to recover the same from the owner of the rent-charge, his executors and administrators; provided, that the owner of every such rent-charge shall have and be entitled to the like right of demanding, inspecting, and taking copies of every assessment containing such rate or charge, and of appeal against the same, and the like power of prosecuting such appeal, and the like remedies in respect thereof, as any occupier or rate-payer has or may have in the case of poor rates, although such rate or charge is herein made assessable upon the occupier, and the owner of the rent-charge is not mentioned by name in such assessment.

LXXI. That any person having any interest in or claim to any tithes, or to any charge or incumbrance upon any tithes, before the passing of this Act, shall have the same right to or claim upon the rent-charge for which the same shall be commuted as he had to or upon the tithes, and shall be entitled to have the like remedies for recovering the same as if his right or claim to or upon the rent-charge had accrued after the commutation; provided that nothing herein contained shall give validity to any mortgage or other incumbrance which before the passing of this Act was invalid or could not be enforced; and every estate for life, or other greater estate, in any such rent-charge, shall be taken to be an estate of freehold; and every estate in any such rent-charge shall be subject to the same liabilities and incidents as the like estate in the tithes commuted for such rent-charge; and where any lands were exempted from tithe whilst in the occupation of the owner thereof by reason of being glebe or of having been heretofore parcel of the possessions of any privileged order, the same lands shall be in like manner exempted from the payment of the rent-charge apportioned on them whilst in the occupation of the owner thereof; and where by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament heretofore passed any tithes are authorized to be sold, exchanged, appropriated, or applied in any way, the rent-charges for which such tithes may be commuted under the provisions of this Act, or any part thereof, shall or may be saleable or exchangeable, appropriated and applied, to all intents and purposes, in like manner as such tithes, and the same powers of sale, exchange, and appropriation shall in all such cases extend to and may be exercised in respect of the said commutation rent-charges; and the money to arise by the sale of such rent-charges shall or may be invested, appropriated, and applied to the same purposes and in like manner as the money to arise by the sale of any such tithes might have been invested, appropriated, and applied under such particular Act or Acts in case this Act had not been passed: and no such rent-charge shall merge or be extinguished in any estate of which the person for the time being entitled to such rent-charge may be seised or possessed in the lands on which the same shall be charged: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any person seised in possession of an estate in fee simple or fee tail of any tithes or rent-charge in lieu of tithes, by any deed or declaration under his hand and seal, to be made in such form as the said Commissioners shall approve, and to be confirmed under their seal, to release, assign, or otherwise dispose of the same, so that the same may be absolutely merged and extinguished in the freehold and inheritance of the lands on which the same shall have been charged.

LXXII. That if at any time subsequent to the confirmation of any such instrument of apportionment the owner of any lands charged with any such rent-charge shall be desirous that the apportionment thereof shall be altered, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Land Tax for the county or place where the said lands are situate, or any three of them, to alter the apportionment in such manner and in such proportion and to the exclusion of such of the lands as the land owner, with the consent of two Justices of the Peace acting for the county, riding, division or other jurisdiction in which the lands are situated, may direct; and such altered apportionment shall be made by an instrument in writing under the hands and seals of the said Commissioners of Land Tax and of the said land owner and Justices, of the like form and tenor as to the said lands as the original apportionment, and bearing date the day of its execution by the said Commissioners of Land Tax, subject to the provision hereinbefore contained with respect to the value of lands on which any rent-charge may be charged on account of the tithes of any other lands; and every such altered apportionment shall be as valid as if made and confirmed by the tithe Commissioners as aforesaid, and shall be taken to be an amendment of the original apportionment; and in every such case two counterparts of the instrument of altered apportionment, under the hands and seals of the said Commissioners of Land Tax and Justices and land owner, shall be sent, one to the registrar of the diocese, and one to the incumbent and church or chapel wardens, or other person having the custody of the other copy of the original instrument of apportionment; and one counterpart shall be annexed to the copy of the instrument of apportionment in the custody of the registrar and such other person respectively, and taken to be an amendment thereof; and thenceforward such lands shall be charged only according to such altered apportionment; and all expenses of such alteration shall be borne by the land owner desiring the same.

LXXIII. That the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, in any case where they or he may see fit, may order such expenses of witnesses, and of the production of any books, deeds, contracts, agreements, accounts, or writings, terriers, maps, plans, and surveys, or copies thereof, and all other expenses (except the salary or allowance to any Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner) incurred in the settlement of any suit or difference, or in the hearing and determining any objection to any award or apportionment before the said Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, to be paid by such parties interested in the production thereof respectively or in the event of such suit, difference, or objection, and in such proportions, as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall think fit and reasonable.

LXXIV. The allowances to and expenses of land surveyors and tithe valuers necessary for making any award, and all other expenses of or incident to making the said award, except the salary or allowance to any Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, and except any expenses which the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, or any court or arbitrator, may be authorized to order and may have ordered to be otherwise paid, shall be borne and paid by the land owners and tithe owners interested in the said award, in such proportion, time, and manner as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall direct.

LXXV. That all the expenses of or incident to making any apportionment (except the salary or allowance to any Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, and except any expense which the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner may be authorized and may have ordered to be otherwise paid,) shall be borne and paid by the owners of lands included in the apportionment in rateable proportion to the sum charged on the said lands in lieu of tithes by such apportionment.

LXXVI. That if any difference shall arise touching the said expenses, or the share thereof to be paid by any person, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner to certify under their or his hand the amount to be paid by such person; and in case any person shall neglect or refuse to pay his share so certified to be payable by him and upon the production of such certificate before any two Justices of the Peace for the county or other jurisdiction wherein the lands mentioned in the agreement or award or apportionment are situate, such Justices, upon the non-payment thereof, are hereby required by warrant under their hands and seals, to cause the same and the costs of the distress to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the person liable to pay the same, and to render the surplus (if any), after deducting the charges of the distress and sale, to the person distrained upon.

LXXVII. That every owner of an estate in land of tithes less in the whole than an immediate estate of fee simple or fee tail, or which shall be settled upon any uses or trusts, may, with the consent of the Commissioners, and in such manner as they may direct, charge so much of the expenses of commutation as is to be defrayed by him or any part thereof, and the interest thereon after the rate of 4*l.* by the hundred upon the lands whereof the tithes are commuted or upon the rent-charge to be received by him instead of such tithes respectively, but so nevertheless that the charge upon such lands or rent-charge respectively shall be lessened in every year following such commutation by one twentieth part at least of the whole original charge thereon.

LXXVIII. That every ecclesiastical beneficed person who shall commute the tithes of his benefice under this Act may advance or borrow the sum necessary to defray so much of the expenses of commutation as is to be defrayed by him, or any part thereof, and as a security for repayment may charge or assign the rent-charge to be received instead of such tithes for twenty years, or until the principal sum advanced or borrowed, and the interest thereon after the rate of 4*l.* by the hundred, and the expenses of such charge or assignment, shall be sooner paid; and every incumbent successively shall pay the interest of the sum advanced or borrowed, or of so much thereof as shall then remain unpaid, as the same shall become due, or within one calendar month next following, and also an instalment at the rate of 5*l.* for every 100*l.* of the principal sum advanced or borrowed, and in default of such payment the ordinary may sequester the profits of the benefice until such payments shall be made, provided that the sum to be so advanced or borrowed shall be ascertained and certified under the hand of any Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, and shall be by him stated to have been the amount of such expenses properly incurred by such ecclesiastical beneficed person in relation to such commutation.

LXXIX. That any tenant or occupier who at the time of such commutation shall occupy at rack rent any lands of which the tithes shall be so commuted may, within one calendar month next after the confirmation of the apportionment by the Commissioners, signify, by writing under his hand given to or left at the usual residence of his landlord or his agent, his dissent from being bound to pay any rent-charge apportioned and charged on the said lands as aforesaid, and in that case such landlord shall be entitled, from the time when the said apportionment shall take effect, and during the tenancy or occupation of such tenant or occupier, to stand, as to the perception and collection of tithes, or receipt of any composition instead thereof, in the place of the owner of the tithes so commuted, and to have all the powers and remedies for enforcing render and payment of such tithes or composition which the tithe owner would have had if the commutation had not taken place.

LXXX. That any tenant or occupier at the time of such commutation who shall have signified his dissent from being bound to pay any such rent-charge as aforesaid, or who shall hold his lands under a lease or agreement providing that the same shall be holden and enjoyed by him free of tithes, and every tenant or occupier who shall occupy any lands by any lease or agreement made subsequently to such commutation, and who shall pay any such rent-charge, shall be entitled to deduct the amount thereof from the rent payable by him to his landlord, and shall be allowed the same in account with the said landlord.

LXXXI. That in case the said rent-charge shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid for the space of twenty-one days next after any half-yearly day of payment, it shall be lawful for the person entitled to the same, after having given or left ten days notice in writing at the usual or last known residence of the tenant in possession, to distrain upon the lands liable to the payment thereof, or on any part thereof, for all arrears of the said rent-charge, and to dispose of the distress when taken, and otherwise to act and demean himself in relation thereto as any landlord may for arrears of rent reserved on a common lease for years; provided that not more than two years arrears shall at any time be recoverable by distress.

LXXXII. That in case the said rent-charge shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days next after any half-yearly day of payment, and there shall be no sufficient distress on the premises liable to the payment thereof, it shall be lawful for any Judge of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster, upon affidavit of the facts, to order a writ to be issued, directed to the sheriff of the county in which the lands chargeable with the rent-charge are situated requiring the said sheriff to summon a jury to assess the arrears of rent-charge remaining unpaid, and to return the inquisition thereupon taken to some one of His Majesty's courts of law at Westminster, on a day therein to be named, either in term time or vacation; a copy of which writ, and notice of the time and place of executing the same, shall be given to the owner of the land, or left at his last known place of abode, or with his known agent, ten days previous to the execution thereof; and the sheriff is hereby required to execute such writ according to the exigency thereof; and the costs of such inquisition shall be taxed by the proper officer of the court; and thereupon the owner of the rent-charge may sue out a writ of habere facias possessionem, directed to the sheriff, commanding him to cause the owner of the rent-charge to have possession of the lands chargeable therewith until the arrears of rent-charge found to be due, and the said costs, and also the costs of such writ and of executing the same, and of cultivating and keeping possession of the lands, shall be fully satisfied: Provided always, that not more than two years arrears over and above the time of such possession shall be at any time recoverable.

LXXXIII. That it shall be lawful for the Court out of which such writ shall have been issued, or any Judge at chambers, to order the owner of the rent-charge who shall be in possession by virtue of such writ from time to time to render an account of the rents and produce of the lands and of the receipts and payments in respect of the same, and to pay over the surplus (if any) to the person for the time being entitled thereto, after satisfaction of such arrears of rent-charge and all costs and expenses as aforesaid, and thereupon to order a writ of supersedeas to issue to the said writ of habere facias possessionem, and also by rule or order of such Court or Judge from time to time to give such summary relief to the parties as to the said Court or Judge shall seem fit.

LXXXIV. That in all cases in which it shall be necessary to make any distress under this Act in respect of any lands in the possession of any person of the persuasion of the people called Quakers, the same may be made upon the goods, chattels, or effects of such person, whether on the premises or elsewhere, but nevertheless to the same amount only and with the same consequences in all respects as if made on the premises; and that in all cases of distress under this Act upon persons of that persuasion the goods, chattels, or effects which may be distrained shall be sold without its being necessary to impound or keep the same: Provided always, that no writ under the provision hereinbefore contained shall be issued for assessing or recovering any rent-charge payable under this Act in respect of any lands in the possession of any person of the persuasion aforesaid, unless the same shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days next after any half-yearly day of payment, without the person entitled thereto being able to find goods, chattels, or effects either on the premises or elsewhere liable to be distrained as aforesaid sufficient to satisfy the arrears to which such lands are liable, together with the reasonable costs of such distress.

LXXXV. That whenever any rent-charge payable under the provisions of this Act shall be in arrear, notwithstanding any apportionment which may have been made of any such rent-charge, every part of the land situate in the parish in which such rent-charge shall so be in arrear, and which shall be occupied by the same person who shall be the occupier of the lands on which such rent-charge so in arrear shall have been charged, whether such land shall be occupied by the person occupying the same as the owner thereof, or as tenant thereof, holding under the same landlord under whom he occupies the land on which such rent-charge so in arrear shall have been charged, shall be liable to be distrained upon or entered upon as aforesaid for the purpose of satisfying any arrears of such rent-charge, whether chargeable on the lands on which such distress is taken or such entry made, or upon any other part of the lands so occupied or holden: Provided always, that no land shall be liable to be distrained or entered upon for the purpose of satisfying any such rent-charge charged upon lands which shall have been washed away by the sea, or otherwise destroyed by any natural casualty.

LXXXVI. That the several provisions of an Act, 4 & 5 Will. 4, intituled, 'An Act to amend an Act of the Eleventh Year of King George the Second, respecting the Apportionment of Rents, Annuities, and other periodical Payments,' shall extend to all rent-charges payable under this Act.

LXXXVII. That if any barns or buildings belonging to any tithe owner having a limited estate or interest therein, which shall have been generally used for the housing of tithes paid in kind, shall be rendered in the whole or in part useless by reason of any commutation of tithes under this Act, it shall be lawful for every such tithe owner (with the consent, nevertheless, of the Commissioners, and subject to such directions as they may give, to be signified under their hands and seal,) to pull down any such barns or buildings or any part thereof, and to sell and dispose of the materials, or to sell and dispose of all or any of such barns or buildings, and the site thereof, and either with or without any farm buildings or homesteads thereunto belonging, in such manner as the Commissioners may direct; and upon payment of the consideration money it shall be lawful for every such tithe owner (with such consent as aforesaid) to convey and deliver the premises sold as aforesaid to the purchaser thereof, or to such uses and in such manner as such purchaser shall direct; and the consideration money in each case shall be paid to such tithe owner, and his receipt shall be a good discharge to the purchaser; and such tithe owner shall lay out and invest the consideration money in such manner and for such trusts as the Commissioners shall direct for the benefit of the persons entitled to the said rent-charge.

LXXXVIII. That it shall be lawful for the lessee being in occupation of any tithes commuted under this Act, by an instrument in writing under his hand and seal, to be made in such form as the Commissioners shall direct, and confirmed under their seal, to surrender and make void the lease by which the said tithes are held or enjoyed by such lessee at the time of the commutation, so far as the same may relate to the said tithes; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by the same instrument, to direct what compensation (if any) shall be given by the immediate lessor of any lessee at rack rent so surrendering any lease of any such tithes to such lessee, and what allowance (if any) shall be made by any lessee to his immediate lessor of any such surrendered lease, in consideration of the non-fulfilment of any conditions contained in such lease, and what deduction (if any) shall be made from the rent thenceforth payable by any lessee to his immediate lessor in respect of other hereditaments which may have been included with the said tithes in any such lease: Provided always, that any intermediate lessor to whom any such lease shall have been surrendered shall as regards his immediate lessor be taken to be the lessee in occupation of the tithes included in the said lease.

LXXXIX. That nothing in this Act contained shall affect any right to any tithes which shall have become due before the commutation.

XC. That nothing in this Act contained, unless by special provision to be inserted in some parochial agreement and specially approved by the Commissioners, in which case the same shall be valid, shall extend to any Easter offerings, mortuaries, or surplice fees, or to the tithes of fish or of fishing, or to any personal tithes other than the tithes of mills, or any mineral tithes, or to any payment instead of tithes arising or growing due within the city of London, or to any permanent rent-charge or other rent or payment in lieu of tithes, calculated according to any rate or proportion in the pound on the rent or value of any houses or lands in any city or town under any custom or private Act of Parliament, or to any lands or tenements the tithes whereof shall have been already perpetually commuted or extinguished under any Act of Parliament heretofore made.

XCI. That no advertisement inserted by direction of the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, or by any tithe owner or land owner, in the London Gazette, or in any newspaper, for the purpose of carrying into effect any provision of this Act, and no agreement, award, or power of attorney made or confirmed or used under this Act, shall be chargeable with any stamp duty.

XCII. That the said Commissioners may receive and send by the General Post from and to places in England and Wales all letters and packets relating exclusively to the execution of this Act free from the duty of postage, provided that such letters and packets as shall be sent to the said Commissioners be directed to the "Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales," at their office in London, and that all such letters and packets as shall be sent by the said Commissioners shall be in covers, with the words "Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales" printed on the same, and be signed on the outside thereof under such words with the name of such person in his own handwriting as the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury or any three or more of them, shall appoint, (such name to be from time to time sent to the Secretary of the General Post Office in London,) and be sealed with the seal of the said Commissioners, and under such other regulations as the said Lords Commissioners or any three or more of them shall think fit; and if the person so to be appointed shall subscribe or seal any letter or packet whatever, except such only concerning which he shall receive the special direction of his superior officer, or which he shall himself know to relate exclusively to the execution of this Act, or if the person so to be appointed, or any other person, shall send or cause to be sent under any such cover any letter, paper, or writing, or any inclosure, other than shall relate exclusively to the execution of this Act, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.* and be dismissed from his office, one moiety of such penalty shall be paid to the use of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall inform or sue for the same; and every such penalty may be sued for and recovered in any of His Majesty's courts of record in Westminster.

XCIII. That if any person under the provisions of this Act shall wilfully give false evidence he shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and if any person shall make or subscribe a false affidavit or declaration for the purposes of this Act he shall suffer the penalties of perjury; and if any person shall wilfully refuse to attend in obedience to any lawful summons of any Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, or to give evidence, or shall wilfully alter, withhold, destroy, or refuse to produce any book, deed, contract, agreement, account, or writing, terrier, map, plan, or survey, or any copy of the same, which may be lawfully required to be produced before the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

XCIV. That no action or suit shall be commenced against any Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Justice of the Peace, valuer, umpire, or surveyor, for anything done under the authority of this Act, until twenty-one days notice thereof shall have been given in writing to the party against whom such action or suit is intended to be brought, or after sufficient satisfaction or tender of amends shall have been made to any party aggrieved, or after three calendar months shall have expired from the commission of the act for which such action or suit shall be so brought; and every such action shall be brought, laid, and tried in the county or place where the cause of action shall have arisen, and not in any other county or place; and if it shall appear that such notice of action or suit was brought before twenty-one days notice thereof given as aforesaid, or that sufficient amends were made or tendered as aforesaid, or if any such action or suit shall not be commenced within the time before limited in that behalf, or such action shall be laid in any county or place other than as aforesaid, then the jury shall find a verdict for the defendant therein, or the Court, upon summary application by motion in any such suit, may dismiss the same against such defendant; and if a verdict shall be found for such defendant, or such suit shall be dismissed upon application as aforesaid, or if the plaintiff in such action or suit shall become nonsuit, or suffer a discontinuance of such action, or if upon any demurrer in such action or suit judgment shall be given for the defendant therein, then such defendant shall have costs, charges, and expenses as between attorney and client.

XCV. That no order, adjudication, or proceeding made or had by or before the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner under the authority of this Act, or any proceeding to be had touching any offender against this Act, shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed or removeable by certiorari, or any other writ or process, into any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or elsewhere.

XCVI. That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

XCVII. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXV.

AN ACT for Marriages in England.

(17th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. After 1st of March 1837 all rules prescribed by the rubrick to continue to be observed.—Marriages may be solemnized on production of Registrar's certificate.
2. Marriages of Quakers and Jews.
3. Superintendent Registrar of Births to be Superintendent Registrar of Marriages.
4. Notice of every intended marriage to be given to the Superintendent Registrar of the district.
5. Superintendent Registrar to keep notices in a book.
6. Notices to be read at meetings of guardians.
7. After seven days, or twenty-one days, certificate of notice to be given upon demand.
8. Forms of certificates to be furnished.—Certificates for marriage by licence to be distinguishable from other certificates.
9. Issue of Superintendent Registrar's certificate may be forbidden.
10. Consent.
11. Superintendent Registrar may grant licences for marriage.—Superintendent Registrar to give security.—Proviso.
12. Certificate to be given before the licence is granted.
13. Caveat may be lodged with Superintendent Registrar against grant of licence or certificate.
14. Marriages not to be solemnized until after twenty-one days after entry of notice, unless by licence.
15. New notice required after three months.
16. Superintendent Registrar's certificate or licence to be delivered to the person by or before whom the marriage is solemnized.
17. Superintendent Registrar may appoint Registrars of Marriages.
18. Places of worship may be registered for solemnizing marriages therein.
19. On removal of the same congregation the new place of worship may be immediately registered, instead of the one dissolved.
20. Marriages may be solemnized in such registered places, in the presence of some Registrar and of two witnesses.
21. Marriages may be celebrated before the Superintendent Registrar.

22. Marriage fees to the Registrar.
23. Registrar to register all marriages solemnized before him in books to be sent by the Registrar General.
24. Copies of the Marriage Register Book to be given quarterly to the Superintendent Registrar.
25. Proof of residence of parties, or consent, not necessary to establish the marriage.
26. Bishops, with consent of patrons, may license chapels for the solemnization of marriages in populous places.
27. Appropriation of fees on marriages performed in such chapels.
28. Patron or incumbent may appeal to the Archbishop against such licences.
29. Notice of such licences to be affixed in chapels.
30. Marriages performed in such chapels to be under the same regulations as those performed in parish churches.
31. Option to parties to be married at parish church.
32. Bishop, with consent of Archbishop, may revoke such licences ;
33. In which case registers to be sent to the incumbent of the parish church.
34. Registrars of dioceses to send to the Register Office, yearly, lists of licensed chapels within their districts.—List of all chapels and buildings registered to be printed.
35. Marriages under this Act cognizable.
36. Registrar may ask certain particulars of parties.
37. Persons vexatiously entering caveat liable to costs and damages.
38. Persons making false declarations, &c. guilty of perjury.
39. Persons unduly solemnizing marriages guilty of felony.
40. Superintendent Registrars unduly issuing certificates guilty of felony.
41. Limitation of prosecution.
42. Marriages void if unduly solemnized with the knowledge of both parties.
43. In cases of fraudulent marriages, the guilty party to forfeit all property accruing from the marriage as in 4 Geo. 4. c. 76.
44. Provisions of Registry Act extended to this Act.
45. Extent of Act.

By this ACT,

After reciting that it is expedient to amend the law of marriages in England,—

It is Enacted,

That after the 1st of March 1837, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, all the rules prescribed by the rubrick concerning the solemnizing of marriages shall continue to be duly observed by every person in holy orders of the Church of England who shall solemnize any marriage in England : Provided always, that where by any law or canon in force before the passing of this Act it is provided that any marriage may be solemnized after publication of banns, such marriage may be solemnized in like manner on production of the Registrar's certificate as hereinafter provided ; provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect the right of the Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors, and his and their proper officers, to grant special licences to marry at any convenient time and place, or the right of any surrogate or other person now having authority to grant licences for marriages.

II. That the Society of Friends commonly called Quakers, and also persons professing the Jewish religion, may continue to contract and solemnize marriage according to the usages of the said society and of the said persons respectively ; and every such marriage is hereby declared and confirmed good in law, provided that the parties to such marriage be both of the said society, or both persons professing the Jewish religion respectively, provided also, that notice to the Registrar shall have been given, and the Registrar's certificate shall have issued in manner hereinafter provided.

III. That the Superintendent Registrar of births and deaths of every union, parish, or place shall be, in right of his office, Superintendent Registrar of marriages within such union, parish, or place, and that such union, parish, or place shall be deemed the district of such Superintendent Registrar of marriages.

IV. That in every case of marriage intended to be solemnized in England after the said 1st of March according to the rites of the Church of England, (unless by licence or by special licence, or after publication of banns,) and in every case of marriage intended to be solemnized in England after the said 1st of March according to the usages of the Quakers or Jews, or according to any form authorized by this Act, one of the parties shall give notice under his or her hand, in the form of Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, to the Superintendent Registrar of the district within which the parties shall have dwelt for not less than seven days then next preceding, or if the parties dwell in the districts of different Superintendent Registrars shall give the like notice to the Superintendent Registrar of each district, and shall state therein the name and surname and the profession or condition of each of the parties intending marriage, the dwelling place of each of them, and the time not being less than seven days during which each has dwelt therein, and the church or other building in which the marriage is to be solemnized ; provided that if either party shall have dwelt in the place stated in the notice during more than one calendar month, it may be stated therein that he or she hath dwelt there one month and upwards.

V. That the Superintendent Registrar shall file all such notices, and keep them with the records of his office, and shall also forthwith enter a true copy of all such notices fairly into a book, to be for that purpose furnished to him by the Registrar General, to be called "The Marriage Notice Book," the cost of providing which shall be defrayed in like manner as the cost of providing register books of births and deaths ; and the Marriage Notice Book shall be open at all reasonable times without fee to all persons desirous of inspecting the same ; and for every such entry the Superintendent Registrar shall be entitled to have a fee of 1s.

VI. That if such Superintendent Registrar shall be clerk to the guardians of any poor law union, or of any parish or place comprising the district for which such Superintendent Registrar shall act, he shall read such notices as hereinafter directed ; and if he shall not be such clerk, then he shall transmit to such clerk on the day previous to each weekly meeting of such guardians all such notices of intended marriage as he shall have received on or since the day previous to the weekly meeting immediately preceding the same; and such clerk shall read such notices immediately after the minutes of the proceedings of such guardians at their last meeting shall have been read; and such notices shall be so read three several times in three successive weeks at the weekly meetings of such guardians, unless in any case licence for marriage shall be sooner granted, and notice of such licence being granted shall have been given to such clerk: Provided also, that if it shall happen that the board of guardians of any such union, parish, or place shall not so meet, it shall be sufficient for the purposes of this Act, that such notices shall be read at any meeting of such guardians which shall be held within twenty-one days from the day of such notice being entered.

VII. That after the expiration of seven days if the marriage is to be solemnized by licence, or of twenty-one days if the marriage is to be solemnized without licence, after the entry of such notice, the Superintendent Registrar, upon being requested so to do, by or on behalf of the party by whom the notice was given, shall issue under his hand a certificate in the form of Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, provided that no lawful impediment be shewn to the satisfaction of the Superintendent Registrar why such certificate should not issue, and provided that the issue of such certificate shall not have been sooner forbidden in manner hereinafter mentioned by any person or persons authorized in that behalf as hereinafter is provided; and every such certificate shall state the particulars set forth in the notice, the day on which the notice was entered, and that the full period of seven days or of twenty-one days (as the case may be) has elapsed since the entry of such notice, and that the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden by any person or persons authorized in that behalf; and for every such certificate the Superintendent Registrar shall be entitled to have a fee of 1s.

VIII. That the Registrar General shall furnish to every Superintendent Registrar a sufficient number of forms of certificates, the cost of which shall be accounted for by the Superintendent Registrar to the Registrar General; and in order to distinguish the certificates to be issued for marriages by licence from the certificates to be issued for marriages without licence, a watermark in the form of the word "Licence," in roman letters, shall be laid and manufactured in the substance of the paper on which the certificates to be issued for marriage by licence shall be written or printed; and every certificate to be issued for marriage by licence shall be printed with red ink, and every certificate to be issued for marriage without licence shall be printed with black ink, and such other distinctive marks between the two kinds of certificate shall be used from time to time as shall seem fit to the Registrar General.

IX. That any person authorized in that behalf may forbid the issue of the Superintendent Registrar's certificate by writing at any time before the issue of such certificate the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the Marriage Notice Book, and by subscribing thereto his or her name and place of abode, and his or her character, in respect of either of the parties, by reason of which he or she is so authorized; and in case the issue of any such certificate shall have been so forbidden the notice and all proceedings thereupon shall be utterly void.

X. That after the said 1st of March the like consent shall be required to any marriage in England solemnized by licence as would have been required by law to marriages solemnized by licence immediately before the passing of this Act; and every person whose consent to a marriage by licence is required by law is hereby authorized to forbid the issue of the Superintendent Registrar's certificate, whether the marriage is intended to be by licence or without licence.

XI. That after the said 1st of March every Superintendent Registrar shall have authority to grant licences for marriage in any building registered as hereinafter provided within any district under his superintendence, or in his office, in the form of Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, and for every such licence shall be entitled to have of the party requiring the same the sum of 3s. above the value of the stamps necessary on granting such licence; and every Superintendent Registrar shall four times in every year, on such days as shall be appointed by the Registrar General, make a return to the Registrar General of every licence granted by him since his last return and of the particulars stated concerning the parties: Provided always, that no Superintendent Registrar shall grant any such licence until he shall have given security by his bond in the sum of 100l. to the Registrar General for the due and faithful execution of his office: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall authorize any Superintendent Registrar to grant any licence for marriage in any church or chapel in which marriages may be solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, or in any church or chapel belonging to the Church of England or licensed for the celebration of divine worship according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, or any licence for marriage in any registered building which shall not be within his district.

XII. That before any licence for marriage shall be granted by any such Superintendent Registrar one of the parties intending marriage shall appear personally before such Superintendent Registrar, and in case the notice of such intended marriage shall not have been given to such Superintendent Registrar, shall deliver to him the certificate of the Superintendent Registrar or Superintendent Registrars to whom such notice shall have been given, and such party shall make oath, or shall make his or her solemn affirmation or declaration instead of taking an oath, that he or she believeth that there is not any impediment of kindred or alliance or other lawful hindrance to the said marriage, and that one of the said parties hath for the space of fifteen days immediately before the day of the grant of such licence had his or her usual place of abode within the district within which such marriage is to be solemnized, and where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, shall be under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the person or persons whose consent to such marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or that there is no person having authority to give such consent, as the case may be; and all such licences and declarations shall be respectively liable to the same stamp duties as licences for marriage granted by the Ordinary of any diocese, and affidavits made in order to procure the same.

XIII. That any person, on payment of 5s., may enter a caveat with the Superintendent Registrar against the grant of a certificate or a licence for the marriage of any person named therein; and if any caveat be entered with the Superintendent Registrar, such caveat being duly signed by or on behalf of the person who enters the same, together with his or her place of residence, and the ground of objection on which his or her caveat is founded, no certificate or licence shall issue or be granted until the Superintendent Registrar shall have examined into the matter of the caveat, and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the grant of the certificate or licence for the said marriage, or until the caveat be withdrawn by the party who entered the same; provided that in cases of doubt it shall be lawful for the Superintendent Registrar to refer the matter of any such caveat to the Registrar General, who shall decide upon the same : Provided likewise, that in case of the Superintendent Registrar refusing the grant of the certificate or licence, the person applying for the same shall have a right to appeal to the Registrar General, who shall thereupon either confirm the refusal or direct the grant of the certificate or licence.

XIV. That after the said 1st of March no marriage after such notice as aforesaid, unless by virtue of a licence to be granted by the Superintendent Registrar, shall be solemnized or registered in England until after the expiration of twenty-one days after the day of the entry of such notice as aforesaid ; and no marriage shall be solemnized by the licence of any Superintendent Registrar or registered until after the expiration of seven days after the day of the entry of such notice as aforesaid.

XV. That whenever a marriage shall not be had within three calendar months after the notice shall have been so entered by the Superintendent Registrar, the notice and certificate, and any licence which may have been granted thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be utterly void ; and no person shall proceed to solemnize the marriage, nor shall any Registrar register the same, until new notice shall have been given, and entry made, and certificate thereof given, at the time and in the manner aforesaid.

XVI. That the Superintendent's certificate, or in case the parties shall have given notice to the Superintendent of different districts, the certificate of each Superintendent shall be delivered to the officiating minister, if the marriage shall be solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England ; and the said certificate or licence shall be delivered to the registering officer of the people called Quakers for the place where the marriage is solemnized, if the same shall be solemnized according to the usages of the said people ; or to the officer of a synagogue by whom the marriage is registered, if the same shall be solemnized according to the usages of persons professing the Jewish religion ; and in all other cases shall be delivered to the Registrar present at the marriage, as hereinafter provided.

XVII. That it shall be lawful for the Superintendent Registrar of any union, parish, or place, subject to the approval of the board of guardians thereof, to appoint by writing under his hand such person or persons as he may think fit, with such qualifications as the Registrar General, by any general rule, may declare to be necessary, to be a Registrar or Registrars for the purpose of being present at marriages to be solemnized by virtue of this Act at which the presence of a Registrar is made necessary, and every such Registrar of marriages shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Superintendent Registrar by whom he was appointed, or of the Registrar General.

XVIII. That any proprietor or trustee of a separate building, certified according to law as a place of religious worship, may apply to the Superintendent Registrar of the district, in order that such building may be registered for solemnizing marriages therein, and in such case shall deliver to the Superintendent Registrar a certificate, signed in duplicate by twenty householders at the least, that such building has been used by them during one year at the least as their usual place of public religious worship, and that they are desirous that such place should be registered as aforesaid, each of which certificates shall be countersigned by the proprietor or trustee by whom the same shall be delivered ; and the Superintendent Registrar shall send both certificates to the Registrar General, who shall register such building accordingly in a book to be kept for that purpose at the General Register Office ; and the Registrar General shall indorse on both certificates the date of the registry, and shall keep one certificate with the other records of the General Register Office, and shall return the other certificate to the Superintendent Registrar, who shall keep the same with the other records of his office ; and the Superintendent Registrar shall enter the date of the registry of such building in a book to be furnished to him for that purpose by the Registrar General, and shall give a certificate of such registry under his hand, on parchment or vellum, to the proprietor or trustee by whom the certificates are countersigned, and shall give public notice of the registry thereof by advertisement in some newspaper circulating within the county, and in the London Gazette ; and for every such entry, certificate, and publication the Superintendent Registrar shall receive at the time of the delivery to him of the certificates the sum of 3*l*.

XIX. That if at any time subsequent to the registry of any building for solemnizing marriages therein it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Registrar General that such building has been disused for the public religious worship of the congregation on whose behalf it was registered as aforesaid, the Registrar General shall cause the registry thereof to be cancelled ; provided that if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Registrar General that the same congregation use instead thereof some other such building for the purpose of public religious worship, the Registrar General may substitute and register such new place of worship instead of the disused building, although such new place of worship may not have been used for that purpose during one year then next preceding ; and every application for cancelling the registry of any such building, or for such substitution and registry of a substituted building, shall be made to the Registrar General by or through the Superintendent Registrar of the district ; and such cancel or substitution, when made, shall be made known by the Registrar General to the Superintendent Registrar, who shall enter the fact and the date thereof in the book provided for the registry of such buildings, and shall certify and publish such cancel or substitution and registry, in manner hereinbefore provided in the case of the original registry of the disused building ; and for every such substitution the Superintendent Registrar shall receive, at the time of the delivery of the certificate from the party requiring the substitution, the sum of 3*l*. ; and after such cancel or substitution shall have been made by the Registrar General it shall not be lawful to solemnize any marriage in such disused building, unless the same shall be again registered in the manner hereinbefore provided.

XX. That after the expiration of the said period of twenty-one days, or of seven days if the marriage is by licence, marriages may be solemnized in the registered building stated as aforesaid in the notice of such marriage, between and by the parties described in the notice and certificate, according to such form and ceremony as they may see fit to adopt : Provided nevertheless, that every such marriage shall be solemnized with open doors, between the hours of eight and twelve in the forenoon, in the presence of some Registrar of the district in which such registered building is situate, and of two or more credible witnesses ; provided also, that in some part of the ceremony, and in the presence of such Registrar and witnesses, each of the parties shall declare,

' I do solemnly declare, that I know not of any lawful impediment why I A. B. may not be joined in matrimony to C. D. ' And each of the parties shall say to the other,

' I call upon these persons here present to witness that I A. B. do take thee C. D. to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband.] ' Provided also, that there be no lawful impediment to the marriage of such parties.

XXI. That any persons who shall object to marry under the provisions of this Act in any such registered building may, after due notice and certificate issued as aforesaid, contract and solemnize marriage at the office and in the presence of the Superintendent Registrar and some Registrar of the district, and in the presence of two witnesses, with open doors, and between the hours aforesaid, making the declaration and using the form of words hereinbefore provided in the case of marriage in any such registered building.

XXII. That the Registrar shall be entitled for every marriage which shall be solemnized under this Act in his presence to have from the parties married the sum of 10s. if the marriage shall be by licence, and otherwise the sum of 5s.

XXIII. That the Registrar shall forthwith register every marriage solemnized in his presence in a Marriage Register Book to be furnished to him for that purpose from time to time by the Registrar General, according to the form provided for the registration of marriages by an Act made in this present session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England,' the cost of which shall be defrayed in like manner as the cost of providing register books of births and deaths; and every entry of such marriage shall be signed by the person by or before whom the marriage shall have been solemnized, if there shall be any such person, and by the Registrar, and also by the parties married, and attested by two witnesses; and every such entry shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of the book.

XXIV. That in every year, on such days as shall from time to time be appointed by the Registrar General, within one calendar month next after the first day of April, the first day of July, the first day of October, and the first day of January respectively, every Registrar shall make and deliver to the Superintendent Registrar of his district a true copy, certified by him under his hand, according to the form of Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed, of all the entries of marriage in the register book kept by him since the last delivery, and the Superintendent Registrar shall verify the same, and if found to be correct shall certify the same under his hand to be a true copy; and if there shall have been no marriage registered since the delivery of the last certified copy, the Registrar shall certify the fact, and such certificate shall be delivered to the Superintendent Registrar as aforesaid, and countersigned by him; and the Registrar shall keep safely the said register book until it shall be filled, and shall then deliver it to the Superintendent Registrar to be kept by him with the records of his office.

XXV. That after any marriage shall have been solemnized it shall not be necessary in support of such marriage to give any proof of the actual dwelling of either of the parties previous to the marriage within the district wherein such marriage was solemnized for the time required by this Act, or of the consent of any person whose consent thereunto is required by law; nor shall any evidence be given to prove the contrary in any suit touching the validity of such marriage.

And after reciting that it is expedient that provision should be made, under proper restrictions, for relieving the inhabitants of populous districts remote from the parish church, or from any chapel wherein marriages may be lawfully celebrated according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, from the inconvenience to which they may be thereby subjected in the solemnization of their marriages;—

It is Enacted,

XXVI. That, with the consent under the hand and seal of the patron and incumbent respectively of the church of the parish or district in which may be situated any public chapel with or without a chapelry thereunto annexed, or any chapel duly licensed for the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, or any chapel the minister whereof is duly licensed to officiate therein according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, or without such consent after two calendar months notice in writing given by the Registrar of the diocese to such patron and incumbent respectively, the bishop of the diocese may, if he shall think it necessary for the due accommodation and convenience of the inhabitants, authorize by a licence under his hand and seal the solemnization of marriages in any such chapel for persons residing within a district the limits whereof shall be specified in the bishop's licence, and under such provisions as to the amount, appropriation, or apportionment of the dues, and as to other particulars, as to the said bishop may seem fit, and as may be specified in the said licence; provided that it shall be lawful for any patron or incumbent who shall refuse or withhold consent to the grant of any such licence to deliver to the bishop, under his or her hand and seal, a statement of the reasons for which such consent shall have been so refused or withheld; and no such licence shall be granted by any bishop until he shall have inquired into the matter of such reasons; and every instrument of consent of the patron and incumbent, or, if such consent be refused or withheld, a copy of the notice under the hand of the Registrar, and every statement of reasons alleged as aforesaid by the patron or incumbent, with the bishop's adjudication thereupon under his hand and seal, shall be registered in the registry of the diocese; and thenceforth and until the said licence be revoked marriages solemnized in such chapel shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if the same had been solemnized in the parish church, or in any chapel where marriages might heretofore have been legally solemnized.

XXVII. That all fees, dues, and other emoluments on account of the solemnization of marriages which belong to the incumbent or clerk respectively of any church or chapel in any parish or district within which the solemnization of marriages shall be authorized as aforesaid shall respectively be received, until the avoidance of such church or chapel next after the passing of this Act, for and on account of such incumbent, and, until the vacancy in the office of clerk next after the passing of this Act, for and on account of such clerk, and be paid over to them, except such portion of the fees, dues, or other emoluments as the said bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the said incumbent and clerk respectively, shall in such aforesaid licence assign to the minister and clerk respectively of the chapel in which the solemnization of marriages shall be authorized as aforesaid; and that it shall be lawful for the said bishop in and by such licence, without any such consent, to declare that from and after such next avoidance or vacancy respectively the whole or such part of the fees, dues, and other emoluments on account of the solemnization of marriages in such last-mentioned chapel as shall be specified in such licence, shall be receivable, and the same shall thenceforth be received by or for the minister and clerk of such chapel respectively.

XXVIII. That when the said bishop shall authorize the solemnization of marriages in any such chapel as aforesaid, without the consent under the hand and seal of the patron and incumbent respectively, it shall be lawful for them or either of them to appeal within one calendar month to the archbishop of the province, who shall hear the same in a summary manner, and shall make such order confirming, revoking, or varying the licence so given, as to him shall seem meet and expedient, which order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese, and shall be conclusive and binding on all parties whatsoever.

XXIX. That there shall be placed in some conspicuous part in the interior of every chapel in respect of which such licence shall be given as aforesaid a notice in the words following: "Marriages may be solemnized in this chapel."

XXX. That all provisions which shall from time to time be in force, relative to marriages, and to providing, keeping, and transmitting register books and copies of registers of marriages solemnized in any parish church, shall extend to any chapel in which the solemnization of marriages shall be authorized as aforesaid, in the same manner as if the same were a parish church, and everything required by law to be done relating thereto by the rector, vicar, curate, or churchwardens respectively of any parish church shall be done by the officiating minister, chapelwarden, or other person exercising analogous duties in such chapel respectively.

XXXI. Provided, That notwithstanding any such licence as aforesaid to solemnize marriages in any such chapel, the parties may, if they think fit, have their marriage solemnized in the parish church, or in any chapel in which heretofore the marriage of such parties or either of them might have been legally solemnized.

XXXII. That any such licence or order may at any time be revoked by writing under the hand and seal of the bishop of the diocese, with the consent in writing of the archbishop of the province; and such revocation and consent shall be registered in the registry of the diocese, the Registrar whereof shall notify the same in writing to the minister officiating in the chapel, and shall also give public notice thereof by advertisement in some newspaper circulating within the county and in the London Gazette, and thenceforth the authority to solemnize marriages in such chapel shall cease and determine.

XXXIII. That in case of the revocation of the licence to solemnize marriages in any such chapel all registers of marriages solemnized therein under such licence which shall be in the custody or possession of the minister of such chapel at the time of such revocation shall forthwith be transmitted to the incumbent or officiating minister of the parish church, and shall thenceforth be preserved, and in all other respects dealt with in the same manner, and be of the same force and validity, to all intents and purposes, as if they had been originally made and deposited with such incumbent or officiating minister; and that such incumbent or minister shall, when he next transmits to the Superintendent Registrar copies of the registers of marriages solemnized in such parish church, also therewith transmit copies of all such entries as shall have been made in such first-mentioned registers subsequent to the date of the last entry a copy whereof was transmitted to the Superintendent Registrar, and shall also transmit to him one copy of every register book so transmitted to him of which no copy shall have been already transmitted to the Superintendent Registrar, having first signed his name at the foot of the last entry therein.

XXXIV. That the Registrar of every diocese shall within fifteen days after the said 1st of March, and also within fifteen days after the 1st of January in every succeeding year, make out and send through the Post Office, directed to the Registrar General of births, deaths, and marriages, at his office, a list of all chapels belonging to the Church of England within that diocese wherein marriages may lawfully be solemnized according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, and shall distinguish in such list which have a parish, chapelry, or other recognized ecclesiastical division annexed to them, and which are chapels licensed by the bishop under this Act, and shall state therein the district for which each of such chapels is licensed according to the description thereof in the licence; and the Registrar General shall in every year make out and cause to be printed a list of all such chapels, and also of all places of public worship registered under the provisions of this Act, and shall state in such list the county and Registrar's district within which each chapel or registered building is situated, and shall add also the names and places of abode of the Registrars and Deputy Registrars of each district, and of the Superintendent Registrars; and a copy of such list shall be sent to every Registrar and Superintendent Registrar.

XXXV. That every marriage solemnized under this Act shall be good and cognizable in like manner as marriages before the passing of this Act according to the rites of the Church of England.

XXXVI. That it shall be lawful for the Registrar before whom any marriage is solemnized according to the provisions of this Act to ask of the parties to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching such marriage.

XXXVII. That every person who shall enter a caveat with the Superintendent Registrar against the grant of any licence or issue of any certificate on grounds which the Registrar General shall declare to be frivolous, and that they ought not to obstruct the grant of the licences, shall be liable for the costs of the proceedings, and for damages to be recovered in a special action upon the case by the party against whose marriage such caveat shall have been entered.

XXXVIII. That every person who shall knowingly and wilfully make any false declaration or sign any false notice or certificate required by this Act, for the purpose of procuring any marriage, and every person who shall forbid the issue of any Superintendent Registrar's certificate, by falsely representing himself or herself to be a person whose consent to such marriage is required by law, knowing such representation to be false, shall suffer the penalties of perjury.

XXXIX. That every person who after the said 1st of March shall knowingly and wilfully solemnize any marriage in England, except by special licence, in any other place than a church or chapel in which marriages may be solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, or than the registered building or office specified in the notice and certificate as aforesaid, shall be guilty of felony (except, in the case of a marriage between two of the Society of Friends commonly called Quakers, according to the usages of the said society, or between two persons professing the Jewish religion, according to the usages of the Jews); and every person who in any such registered building or office shall knowingly and wilfully solemnize any marriage in the absence of a Registrar of the district in which such registered building or office is situated shall be guilty of felony; and every person who shall knowingly and wilfully solemnize any marriage in England after the said 1st of March (except by licence) within twenty-one days after the entry of the notice to the Superintendent Registrar as aforesaid, or if the marriage is by licence within seven days after such entry, or after three calendar months after such entry, shall be guilty of felony.

XL. That every Superintendent Registrar who shall knowingly and wilfully issue any certificate for marriage after the expiration of three calendar months after the notice shall have been entered by him as aforesaid, or any certificate for marriage by licence before the expiration of twenty-one days after the entry of the notice, or any certificate the issue of which shall have been forbidden as aforesaid by any person authorized to forbid the issue of the Registrar's certificate, or who shall knowingly and wilfully register any marriage herein declared to be null and void, and every Registrar who shall knowingly and wilfully issue any licence for marriage after the expiration of three calendar months after the notice shall have been entered by the Registrar as aforesaid, or who shall knowingly and wilfully solemnize in his office any marriage herein declared to be null and void, shall be guilty of felony.

XLII. That every prosecution under this Act shall be commenced within the space of three years after the offence committed.

XLIII. That if any person shall knowingly and wilfully intermarry after the said 1st of March under the provisions of this Act in any place other than the church, chapel, registered building, or office or other place specified in the notice and certificate as aforesaid, or without due notice to the Superintendent Registrar, or without certificate of notice duly issued, or without licence, in case a licence is necessary under this Act, or in the absence of a Registrar or Superintendent Registrar where the presence of a Registrar or Superintendent Registrar is necessary under this Act, the marriage of such persons, except in any case hereinafter excepted, shall be null and void: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to annul any marriage legally solemnized according to the provisions of an Act, 4 Geo. 4. c. 76, intituled, 'An Act for amending the Laws respecting the Solemnization of Marriages in England.'

XLIII. That if any valid marriage shall be had under the provisions of this Act by means of any wilfully false notice, certificate, or declaration made by either party to such marriage, as to any matter to which a notice, certificate, or declaration is herein required, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General or Solicitor General to sue for a forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property accruing to the offending party by such marriage; and the proceedings thereupon and consequences thereof shall be the same as are provided in the like case with regard to marriages solemnized by licence before the passing of this Act according to the rites of the Church of England.

XLIV. That this Act shall be taken to be part of the said Act for registering births, deaths, and marriages, as fully and effectually as if incorporated therewith, and that all the provisions and penalties of the said Act relating to any Registrar or register of marriages, or certified copies thereof, shall be taken to extend to the Registrars and registers of marriages to be solemnized under this Act, and to the certified copies thereof, so far as the same are applicable thereunto.

XLV. That this Act shall extend only to England, and shall not extend to the marriage of any of the royal family.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

SCHEDULE (A.)

NOTICE OF MARRIAGE.

To the Registrar of the District of Hendon in the County of Middlesex.

I HEREBY give you Notice, That a Marriage is intended to be had, within Three Calendar Months from the Date hereof, between me and the other Party herein named and described; (that is to say,)

Name.	Condition.	Rank or Profession.	Age.	Dwelling Place.	Length of Residence.	Church or Building in which Marriage is to be solemnized.	District and County in which the other Party resides when the Parties dwell in different Districts.
James Smith	Widower	Carpenter	Of full Age	16, High Street.	23 Days	Sion Chapel, West Street, Hendon, Middlesex.	Tonbridge, Kent.
Martha Green	Spinster	.....	Minor ..	Grove Farm.	More than a Month.

Witness my Hand this Sixth Day of May 1837.

(Signed) James Smith

[The Italics in this Schedule to be filled up as the Case may be.]

SCHEDULE (B.)

No. 14.

REGISTRAR'S CERTIFICATE.

I John Cox, Registrar of the District of Stepney in the County of Middlesex, do hereby certify, That on the Sixth Day of May Notice was duly entered in the Marriage Notice Book of the said District of the Marriage intended between the parties therein named and described, delivered under the Hand of James Smith, One of the Parties; (that is to say,)

Name.	Condition.	Rank or Condition.	Age.	Dwelling Place.	Length of Residence.	Church or Building in which Marriage is to be solemnized.	District and County in which the other Party dwells where the Parties dwell in different Districts.
James Smith	Widower	Carpenter	Of full Age	16, High Street.	23 Days	Sion Chapel, West Street, Stepney, Middlesex.	Tonbridge, Kent.
Martha Green	Spinster	.....	Minor ..	Grove Farm.	More than a Month.

Date of Notice entered
6th May 1837.
Date of Certificate given
27th May 1837.

The Issue of this Certificate has not been forbidden by any Person authorized to forbid the Issue thereof.

Witness my Hand this Twenty-seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

(Signed) John Cox,
Registrar.

This Certificate will be void unless the Marriage is solemnized on or before the Sixth Day of August 1837.

[The Italics in this Schedule to be filled up as the Case may be.]

SCHEDULE (C.)

LICENCE OF MARRIAGE.

A.B., Superintendent Registrar of greeting.

to C.D. of

and E.F. of

sendeth

WHEREAS ye are minded, as it is said, to enter into a Contract of Marriage under the Provisions of an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act], and are desirous that the same may be speedily and publicly solemnized: And whereas you C.D. [or you E.F.] have made and subscribed a Declaration under your Hand that you believe there is no Impediment of Kindred or Alliance or other lawful Hindrance to the said Marriage, and that you C.D. [or E.F.] have [or has] had your [or his or her] usual Place of Abode for the space of Fifteen Days last past within the District of [], and that you C.D. [or E.F.], not being a Widower [or Widow], are [or is] under the Age of Twenty-one Years, and that the Consent of G.H., whose Consent to your [or his or her] Marriage is required by Law, has been obtained thereto [or that there is no Person having Authority to give such consent]: I do hereby grant unto you full Licence, according to the Authority in that Behalf given to me by the said Act, to proceed to solemnize such Marriage, and to the Registrar of the District of [here insert the Name of the District in which the Marriage is to be solemnized] to register such Marriage according to Law; provided that the said Marriage be publicly solemnized in the Presence of the said Registrar and of Two Witnesses within Three Calendar Months from the [here insert the Date of the Entry in the Notice Book of the Superintendent Registrar.] in the [here describe the Building in which the Marriage is to be solemnized], between the Hours of Eight and Twelve in the Forenoon. Given under my hand this _____ Day of _____

One thousand eight hundred and

(Signed) A.B.
Superintendent Registrar.

SCHEDULE (D.)

I John Cox, Registrar of the District of Stepney, in the county of Middlesex, do hereby certify, That this is a true Copy of the Entries of Marriage registered in the said District from the Entry of the Marriage of John Wood and Ann Simpson, Number One, to the Entry of the Marriage of James Smith and Martha Green, Number Fourteen. Witness my Hand this First Day of July 1837.

(Signed) John Cox,
Registrar.

[The Italics in this Schedule to be filled up as the Case may be.]

CAP. LXXXVI.

AN ACT for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England.

(17th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. So much of recited Acts as relates to registration of marriages repealed.
2. General Registry Office to be provided in London or Westminster.
3. Lord Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to appoint officers and fix salary.
4. Salaries to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
5. Regulations for conduct of officers to be framed under direction of Secretary of State.
6. Annual abstract of registers to be laid before Parliament.
7. Districts to be formed, and Registrars and Superintendent Registrars to be appointed.
8. Officers of unions, &c. being dismissed by guardians, &c. to cease to act under this Act.
9. Register Offices to be provided in each union.
10. Temporary Registrars and Superintendent Registrars to be appointed for parishes not under the Poor Law Act.
11. In case of subsequent unions previous appointments to be vacated.
12. Deputy Registrars to be appointed.
13. Appointments to be exempt from stamp duties.
14. Register boxes to be provided.
15. All books, &c. to be transferred on removal of Registrar.
16. Registrar and deputy to dwell in the district and their names and additions to be put on their dwelling houses.
17. Register books to be provided.
18. Registrars to register births and deaths.
19. Parents or occupiers of houses in which births or deaths happen, and overseers and coroners in cases of foundlings or exposed dead bodies, to give notice to the Registrar.
20. Parent or occupier of house required to give particulars of birth so far as known.
21. Registry of children born at sea.
22. As to registry after the expiration of forty-two days from the birth of the child.
23. Births not to be registered after six months.
24. Name given in baptism may be registered within six months after registration of births.
25. Some person present at death, or occupier of house, required to give particulars of death, so far as known.—Registrar to make entry of finding of jury upon coroners' inquests.
26. Registry of persons dying at sea.
27. Registrar to give certificate of registry of death to undertaker, who shall deliver the same to the minister or officiating person.—Coroner may order body to be buried, and give certificate thereof.—No dead body to be buried without certificate of registry of inquest, penalty 10*l*.
28. Register to be signed by the informant.
29. Registrars to make out accounts quarterly.—Guardians or overseers to pay Registrars.
30. Marriage register books to be provided.
31. Marriage registers to be kept in duplicate.
32. Certified copies of registers of births and deaths to be sent quarterly, and the register books, when filled, to the Superintendent Registrar.
33. Duplicates and certified copies of registers of marriages to be sent to Superintendent Registrar.
34. Superintendent Registrars to send certified copies of registers to the General Register Office.
35. Searches may be made, and certificates given by the persons keeping the registers.
36. Indexes to be made at the Superintendent Registrar's Office, and persons allowed to search them.
37. Indexes to be kept at General Register Office, searches allowed, and certified copies given.
38. Certified copies given at General Registry Office to be sealed.
39. Fees for searches in the General Register Office to be accounted for to the Exchequer.
40. Clergymen, &c. may ask parties married the particulars required.
41. Penalty for wilfully giving false information.
42. Penalty for not duly registering births, deaths, and marriages, or for losing or injuring the registers.
43. Penalty for destroying or falsifying register books.
44. Accidental errors may be corrected.
45. Recovery of penalties.

46. Appeal.

47. No certiorari.

48. Correspondence of Registrar General relating to this Act to be free of postage.

49. Registers of baptisms and burials may be kept as heretofore.

50. Registrar General to furnish notices to guardians of unions, &c. specifying acts required to be done by parties registering.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is expedient to provide the means for a complete register of the births, deaths, and marriages of His Majesty's subjects in England: And that the Act, 52 Geo. 3. c. 146, intituled, 'An Act for the better regulating Parish and other Registers of Births, Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials in England,' and also the Act, 4 Geo. 4. c. 76, intituled, 'An Act for amending the Laws respecting the Solemnization of Marriages in England,' are insufficient for the purpose aforesaid:—

It is Enacted,

I. That after the 1st of March 1837 so much of the said Acts as relates to the registration of marriages shall be repealed.

II. That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to provide a proper office in London or Westminster, to be called "The General Register Office," for keeping a register of all births, deaths, and marriages of His Majesty's subjects in England, and to appoint for the said office under the great seal of the United Kingdom a Registrar General of births, deaths, and marriages in England, and from time to time at pleasure to remove the said Registrar General, and appoint some other person in his room.

III. That the Lord Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, or the Registrar General, subject to the approval of the said Lords Commissioners, shall appoint from time to time such officers, clerks, and servants as they shall deem necessary to carry on the business of the General Registry Office, and at pleasure remove them or any of them; and the said Lord Treasurer or Lords Commissioners shall fix the salary of the Registrar General, so that the same shall not at any time exceed the sum of 1000*l.* yearly, and shall fix the salaries of the officers, clerks, and servants in fit proportion according to the duties they may have to perform.

IV. That the salaries of the Registrar General, and of the said officers, clerks, and servants, and the amount of the sums hereinafter provided to be paid to the Superintendent Registrars for every entry in the certified copies of the registers, and all expenses of carrying on the business of the General Registry Office not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by the said Lord Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

V. That one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, or the Registrar General with the approbation of such principal Secretary, from time to time may make the said regulations for the management of the said Register Office, and for the duties of the Registrar General, clerks, officers, and servants of the said office, and of the Registrars, Deputy Registrars, and Superintendent Registrars hereinafter mentioned, in the execution of this Act, so that they be not contrary to the provisions herein contained; and the regulations so made and approved shall be binding on the said Registrar General, clerks, officers, and servants, and on the Registrars, Deputy Registrars, and Superintendent Registrars.

VI. That the Registrar General shall send once in every year to one of the principal Secretaries of State a general abstract of the numbers of births, deaths, and marriages registered during the foregoing year, in such form as the said Secretary from time to time shall require; and every such annual general abstract shall be laid before Parliament within one month after receipt thereof, or after the meeting of Parliament.

VII. That the guardians of every union declared under the provisions of 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 76, intituled, 'An Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in England and Wales,' and also of every parish or place in which a board of guardians shall have been established under the provisions of the last-named Act, shall, on or before the 1st of October in this year, if the said board of guardians shall have been established before the passing of this Act, or within three calendar months next after the establishment of the board, if the said board shall not have been established before the passing of this Act, divide the union or the parish or place of which they are the guardians into such and so many districts as they, subject to the approval of the Registrar General, shall think fit; and every such division when made shall be published by the guardians within the union, parish, or place of which they are guardians, in such manner as the said Registrar General shall direct; and every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's district; and the guardians shall appoint a person, with such qualifications as the Registrar General may by any general rule declare to be necessary, to be Registrar of births and deaths within each district, and in every case of vacancy in the office of Registrar shall forthwith fill up the vacancy; and the clerk to the guardians of every such union, parish, or place shall, if he shall think fit to accept such office, and have such qualifications as the Registrar General may by any general rule declare to be necessary, be the Superintendent Registrar thereof; and in the event of his refusal or disqualification to act in that capacity, the guardians shall appoint a person, with such qualifications as the Registrar General may by any general rule declare to be necessary, to be the Superintendent Registrar of each union, or of such parish or place, and in every case of vacancy of the office of Superintendent Registrar shall forthwith fill up the vacancy; and every Registrar and Superintendent Registrar shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Registrar General.

VIII. Provided, That in every case in which the clerk to the guardians of any union, parish, or place, or any other officer of any such union, parish, or place, shall hold any office under this Act, and shall be removed by the Poor Law Commissioners from his office in such union, parish, or place, and in every case in which any Registrar or Superintendent Registrar shall be removed by the Registrar General from his office under this Act, notice of such removal shall be forthwith given by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in the county wherein the district for which such officer may act shall be; and every such person shall thenceforth cease to hold his office under this Act, and shall be incapable of being re-appointed thereto: Provided also, that the appointment of any officer of any such union, parish, or place to any office under this Act shall be subject to the approval of the Poor Law Commissioners, except as hereinbefore directed with respect to the clerk to guardians of any such union, parish or place.

IX. That the guardians shall provide and uphold, out of the monies coming to their hands or controul as such guardians, a Register Office, according to a plan to be approved by the Registrar General, for preserving the registers to be deposited therein, as hereinafter provided; and the care of the said office, and the custody of the registers deposited therein shall be given to the Superintendent Registrar of the union or parish or place having a board of guardians as aforesaid.

X. That the Poor Law Commissioners for England and Wales shall, as soon as may be after the said 1st of October, form all the parishes, townships, and places in England, in or for which a board of guardians shall not have been then established under the provisions of the said Act for the amendment of the laws relating to the poor, into temporary districts, having regard to the formation thereof to the boundaries of parishes and townships, and shall appoint a Registrar to each of such temporary districts, subject to being displaced as hereinafter provided; and the Registrar General shall appoint a sufficient number of fit persons to be Superintendent Registrars for such temporary districts, subject to being displaced as hereinafter provided, and shall appoint the districts which each shall superintend.

XI. That in every case in which a board of guardians shall be established, under the provisions of the said Act for the amendment of the laws relating to the poor, in or for any parish, township, or place forming part of any temporary district in or for which a Registrar or Superintendent Registrar shall have been previously appointed as last aforesaid, and as soon as a Registrar or Registrars shall have been appointed for the districts into which the guardians shall have divided the union or parish or place of which they are guardians as aforesaid, and the clerk of the guardians of such union, parish, or place shall have accepted the office of Superintendent Registrar, or the said guardians shall have appointed a Superintendent Registrar for such districts, in like manner as in the unions formed before the passing of this Act, every such parish or place shall cease to be a part of the temporary district to which it was so annexed by the Poor Law Commissioners, and every Registrar, Deputy Registrar, and Superintendent Registrar appointed before the election of such Board of Guardians as aforesaid in or for such parish, township, or place shall cease to hold their respective offices, so far as relates to such parish, township, or place, unless re-appointed.

XII. That for every district for which a Registrar of births and deaths shall be appointed by the guardians as aforesaid the Registrar shall have power, subject to the approval of such guardians, and for every district for which a Registrar shall be appointed by the said Poor Law Commissioners, such Registrar shall have power, subject to the approval of such Commissioners, to appoint by writing under his hand a fit person to act as his deputy in case of the illness or unavoidable absence of such Registrar; and every such Deputy Registrar whilst so acting shall have all the powers and duties and be subject to all the provisions and penalties herein declared concerning Registrars, and in case of the death of the Registrar shall act as Registrar until another Registrar is appointed; and every Registrar shall be civilly responsible for the acts or omissions of his deputy.

XIII. That the appointments of Registrars, Deputy Registrars, and Superintendent Registrars, and the duplicates and certified copies of registers hereinafter mentioned, shall be exempt from all stamp duties.

XIV. That the Registrar General shall furnish to every Superintendent Registrar, for the use of the Registrars under his superintendence, a sufficient number of strong iron boxes to hold the register books to be kept by such Registrar; and every such box shall be furnished with a lock and two keys, and no more; and one of such keys shall be kept by the Registrar, and the other key shall be kept by the Superintendent Registrar; and the register books of each district, while in the custody of the Registrar and not in use, shall be always kept in the register box, and the register box shall always be left locked.

XV. That in every case in which any Registrar or Superintendent Registrar shall be removed from or cease to hold the said office, all register boxes, keys, books, documents, and papers in his possession as such Registrar or Superintendent Registrar shall be given as soon as conveniently may be to his successor in office; and if any person shall refuse to give up any such box, key, books, documents, or papers in such case as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for the county or other jurisdiction where such person shall be or reside, upon application made for that purpose, to issue a warrant under his hand and seal for bringing such person before any two Justices of the Peace for the said county or other jurisdiction, and upon such person appearing, or not being found, it shall be lawful for such Justices to hear and determine the matter in a summary way; and if it shall appear to the Justices that any such box, key, books, documents, or papers are in the custody or power of any such person, and that he has refused or wilfully neglected to deliver the same, the said Justices are hereby required to commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the said county or jurisdiction, there to remain without bail until he shall have delivered up the same, or until satisfaction shall have been given in respect thereof to the person in whose custody the same ought to be; and the said Justices may grant a warrant to search for such box, key, books, documents, or papers, as in the case of stolen goods, in any dwelling house or other premises in which any credible witness shall prove upon oath before them that there is reasonable cause to suspect the same to be; and the same when found shall be delivered to the person in whose custody they ought to be.

XVI. That every Registrar and Deputy Registrar shall dwell within the district of which he is Registrar or Deputy Registrar, and shall cause his name, with the addition of Registrar or Deputy Registrar (as the case may be) for the district for which he shall be so appointed to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of his own dwelling house; and the Superintendent Registrar shall cause to be printed and published in the districts which he shall superintend a list of the name and place of abode of every Registrar and Deputy Registrar under his superintendence.

XVII. That the Registrar General shall cause to be printed on account of the said register office a sufficient number of register books for making entries of all births, deaths, and marriages of His Majesty's subjects in England, according to the forms of Schedules (A.) (B.) (C.) to this Act annexed; and the said register books shall be of durable materials, and in them shall be printed upon each side of every leaf the heads of information herein required to be known and registered of births, deaths, and marriages respectively; and every page of each of such books shall be numbered progressively from the beginning to the end, beginning with number one; and every place of entry shall be also numbered progressively from the beginning to the end of the book, beginning with number one; and every entry shall be divided from the following entry by a printed line.

xviii. That the Registrar General shall furnish to every Superintendent Registrar, for the use of the Registrars under his superintendence, a sufficient number of register books of births and of register books of deaths, and of forms for certified copies thereof, as hereinafter provided, at a reasonable price, to be fixed from time to time by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the cost whereof shall be borne by the union, parish, or place in or for which the Superintendent Registrar is appointed, and shall be paid by the guardians or by the churchwardens and overseers (as the case may be), out of the monies coming to their hands or control as such guardians or churchwardens and overseers, to the Registrar, and shall be accounted for by him to the Registrar General; and every Registrar shall be authorized and is hereby required to inform himself carefully of every birth and every death which shall happen within his district after the said first day of March, and to learn and register as soon after the event as conveniently may be done, without fee or reward save as hereinafter mentioned, in one of the said books, the particulars required to be registered according to the forms in the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) respectively touching every such birth or every such death, as the case may be, which shall not have been already registered, every such entry being made in order from the beginning to the end of the book.

xix. That the father or mother of any child born, or the occupier of every house or tenement in England in which any birth or death shall happen, after the said first day of March, may, within forty-two days next after the day of such birth or within five days after the day of such death respectively, give notice of such birth or death to the Registrar of the district; and in case any new-born child or any dead body shall be found exposed, the overseers of the poor in the case of the new-born child, and the coroner in the case of the dead body, shall forthwith give notice and information thereof, and of the place where such child or dead body was found, to the Registrar; and for the purposes of this Act the master or keeper of every gaol, prison, or house of correction, or workhouse, hospital, or lunatic asylum, or public or charitable institution, shall be deemed the occupier thereof.

xx. That the father or mother of every child born in England after the said first day of March, or in case of the death, illness, absence, or inability of the father and mother, the occupier of the house or tenement in which such child shall have been born, shall, within forty-two days next after the day of every such birth, give information, upon being requested so to do, to the said Registrar, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, of the several particulars hereby required to be known and registered touching the birth of such child.

xxi. That if any child of an English parent shall be born at sea on board of a British vessel, the captain or commanding officer of the vessel on board of which the said child shall have been born shall forthwith make a minute of the several particulars hereinbefore required to be inserted in the register touching the birth of such child, so far as the same may be known, and the name of the vessel wherein the birth took place, and shall, on the arrival of such vessel in any port of the United Kingdom, or by any other sooner opportunity, send a certificate of the said minute through the Post Office to the Registrar General, who shall file the same, and enter a copy thereof under his hand in a book to be kept for that purpose in "The General Register Office," to be called the "Marine Register Book," and shall keep the said book with the other registers, according to the provisions of this Act.

xxii. That after the expiration of forty-two days following the day of the birth of any child it shall not be lawful for any Registrar to register such birth, save as hereinafter is next mentioned; provided that, in case the birth of any child shall not have been registered according to the provisions hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for any person present at the birth of such child, or for the father or guardian thereof, at any time within six calendar months next after the birth, to make a solemn declaration of the particulars required to be known touching the birth of such child, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said Registrar then and there, in the presence of the Superintendent Registrar, to register the birth of the said child according to the information of the person making the said declaration; and in every such case the Superintendent Registrar before whom the said declaration is made shall sign the entry of the birth as well as the Registrar, and for every such registry as last aforesaid the Superintendent Registrar shall be entitled to have a fee of 2s. 6d. from the person requiring the same to be registered; and the Registrar, over and above the fee hereinafter enacted in respect of every birth registered by him, shall be entitled, unless the delay shall have been occasioned by his default, to have a fee of 5s. from the person requiring the same to be registered; and no register of births shall be given in evidence to prove the birth of any child wherein it shall appear that forty-two days have intervened between the day of the birth and the day of the registration of the birth of such child, unless the entry shall be signed by the Superintendent Registrar; and every person who shall knowingly register or cause to be registered the birth of any child, otherwise than hereinbefore is last mentioned, after the expiration of forty-two days following the day of the birth of such child, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding 50l.

xxiii. That after the expiration of six calendar months following the birth of any child it shall not be lawful for any Registrar to register the birth of such child, and no register of births, except in the case of children born at sea, shall be given in evidence to prove the birth of any child wherein it shall appear that six calendar months have intervened between the day of the birth and the day of the registration of the birth of such child; and every person who shall knowingly register or cause to be registered the birth of any child after the expiration of six calendar months following the day of the birth of such child shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding 50l.

xxiv. That if any child born in England whose birth shall have been registered as aforesaid shall, within six calendar months next after it shall have been so registered, have any name given to it in baptism, the parent or guardian of such child, or other person procuring such name to be given, may, within seven days next after such baptism, procure and deliver to the Registrar or Superintendent Registrar, in whose custody the register of the birth of the child may then happen to be, a certificate, according to the form of Schedule (G.) to this Act annexed, signed by the minister who shall have performed the rite of baptism, which certificate such minister is hereby required to deliver immediately after the baptism, whenever the same shall be then demanded, on payment of the fee of 1s., which he shall be therefore entitled to receive; and the said Registrar or Superintendent Registrar, upon receipt of such certificate and on payment of the fee of 1s., which he shall be therefore entitled to receive, shall, without any erasure of the original entry, forthwith register therein that the child was baptized by such name, and the Registrar shall thereupon certify upon the said certificate the additional entry so made, and shall forthwith send the said certificate through the Post Office to the Registrar General.

XXV. That some person present at the death or in attendance during the last illness of every person dying in England after the said first day of March, or in case of the death, illness, inability, or default of all such persons, the occupier of the house or tenement, or if the occupier be the person who shall have died, some inmate of the house or tenement in which such death shall have happened, shall, within eight days next after the day of such death, give information, upon being requested so to do, to the said Registrar, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, of the several particulars hereby required to be known and registered touching the death of such person: Provided always, that in every case in which an inquest shall be held on any dead body the jury shall inquire of the particulars herein required to be registered concerning the death, and the coroner shall inform the Registrar of the finding of the jury, and the Registrar shall make the entry accordingly.

XXVI. That if any of His Majesty's English subjects shall die at sea on board of a British vessel, the captain or commanding officer of the vessel on board of which such death shall have happened shall forthwith make a minute of the several particulars hereinbefore required to be inserted in the register touching such death, so far as the same may be known, and the name of the vessel wherein the death took place, and shall, on the arrival of such vessel in any port of the United Kingdom, or by any other sooner opportunity, send a certificate of the said minute through the Post Office to the Registrar General, who shall file the same, and enter a copy thereof under his hand in the Marine Register Book, and keep the same with the other registers, according to the provisions of this Act.

XXVII. That every Registrar, immediately upon registering any death, or as soon thereafter as he shall be required so to do, shall, without fee or reward, deliver to the undertaker or other person having charge of the funeral a certificate under his hand, according to the form of Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed, that such death has been duly registered, and such certificate shall be delivered by such undertaker or other person to the minister or officiating person who shall be required to bury or to perform any religious service for the burial of the dead body, and if any dead body shall be buried for which no such certificate shall have been so delivered, the person who shall bury or perform any funeral or any religious service for the burial shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Registrar: Provided always, that the coroner, upon holding any inquest, may order the body to be buried, if he shall think fit, before registry of the death, and shall in such case give a certificate of his order in writing under his hand, according to the form of Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed, to such undertaker or other person having charge of the funeral, which shall be delivered as aforesaid; and every person who shall bury or perform any funeral or any religious service for the burial of any dead body for which no certificate shall have been duly made and delivered as aforesaid, either by the Registrar or Coroner, and who shall not within seven days give notice thereof to the Registrar, shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 10*l.* for every such offence.

XXVIII. That every person by whom the information contained in any register of birth or death under this Act shall have been given shall sign his name, description, and place of abode in the register; and no register of birth or death according to this Act shall be given in evidence which shall not be signed by some person professing to be the informant, and to be such party as is herein required to give such information to the Registrar.

XXIX. That every Registrar shall make out an account four times in every year of the number of births and deaths which he shall have registered since the last quarterly account, and the Superintendent Registrar shall verify and sign the same; and the guardians or overseers of the parish, township, or place in or for which he shall be Registrar, on production of the said account so verified and signed, shall pay to the said Registrar, out of the monies in their hands or power as such guardians or overseers, such sums as he shall be entitled to receive on the said account according to the following scale; (that is to say,) for the first twenty entries of births and deaths in every year which he shall have registered, whether the same be of births or of deaths indiscriminately, 2*s.* 6*d.* each, and 1*s.* for every subsequent entry of births or deaths in each year; and in the case of an union the said several sums shall be charged to the account of the parishes in which such births or deaths respectively shall have occurred.

XXX. That the Registrar General shall furnish or cause to be furnished to the rector, vicar, or curate of every church and chapel in England wherein marriages may lawfully be solemnized, and also to every person whom the recording clerk of the Society of Friends commonly called Quakers at their central office in London, shall from time to time certify in writing under his hand to the Registrar General to be a registering officer in England of the said society, and also to every person whom the president for the time being of the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews shall from time to time certify in writing under his hand to the Registrar General to be the secretary of a synagogue in England of persons professing the Jewish religion, a sufficient number in duplicate of marriage register books, and forms for certified copies thereof, as hereinafter provided: and the cost of all such books and forms shall be paid by the churchwardens and overseers of the parish or chapel out of the monies in their hands as such churchwardens and overseers, or by the registering officer or secretary respectively to whom the same shall be furnished.

XXXI. That every clergyman of the church of England, immediately after every office of matrimony solemnized by him, shall register in duplicate in two of the marriage register books the several particulars relating to that marriage according to the form of the said Schedule (C.); and every such registering officer of the Quakers, as soon as conveniently may be after the solemnization of any marriage between two Quakers in the district for which he is registering officer, and every such secretary of a synagogue, immediately after every marriage solemnized between any two persons professing the Jewish religion, of whom the husband shall belong to the synagogue whereof he is secretary, shall register or cause to be registered in duplicate in two of the said marriage register books the several particulars relating to that marriage according to the form of the said Schedule (C.); and every such registering officer or secretary, whether he shall or shall not be present at such marriage, shall satisfy himself that the proceedings in relation thereto have been conformable to the usages of the said society, or of the persons professing the Jewish religion, as the case may be; and every such entry as hereinbefore is mentioned (whether made by such clergyman or by such registering officer or secretary respectively as aforesaid) shall be signed by the clergyman or by the said registering officer or secretary, as the case may be, and by the parties married, and by two witnesses, and shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of each book, and the number of the place of entry in each duplicate marriage register book shall be the same.

XXXII. That in the months of April, July, October and January, on such days as shall from time to time be appointed by the Registrar General, every Registrar shall make, and deliver to the Superintendent Registrar of his district, on durable materials, a true copy, certified by him under his hand according to the form of Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed, of all the entries of births and deaths in the register book kept by him since the last certificate, the first of such certificates to be given in the month of July in the year 1837, and to contain all the entries made up to that time; and the Superintendent Registrar shall verify the same, and if found to be correct shall certify the same under his hand to be a true copy; and if there shall have been no birth or death registered since the delivery of the last certificate the Registrar shall certify the fact, and such certificate shall be delivered to the Superintendent Registrar as aforesaid, and countersigned by him; and the Registrar shall keep safely each of the said register books until it shall be filled, and shall then deliver it to the Superintendent Registrar, to be kept by him with the records of his office.

XXXIII. That the rector, vicar, or curate of every such church and chapel, and every such registering officer and secretary, shall, in the months of April, July, October, and January respectively, make and deliver to the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which such church or chapel may be situated, or which may be assigned by the Registrar General to such registering officer or secretary, on durable materials, a true copy certified by him under his hand of all the entries of marriages in the register book kept by him since the last certificate, the first of such certificates to be given in the month of July 1837, and to contain all the entries made up to that time, and if there shall have been no marriage entered therein since the last certificate, shall certify the fact under his hand, and shall keep the said marriage register books safely until the same shall be filled; and one copy of every such register book, when filled, shall be delivered to the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which such church or chapel may be situated, or which shall have been assigned as aforesaid to such registering officer or secretary, and the other copy of every such register book kept by any such rector, vicar, or curate shall remain in the keeping of such rector, vicar, or curate, and shall be kept by him with the registers of baptisms and burials of the parish or chapelry within which the marriages registered therein shall have been solemnized; and the other copy of every such register book of marriages among the people called Quakers, and among persons professing the Jewish religion respectively, shall remain under the care of the said people or persons respectively, to be kept with their other registers and records, and shall, for the purposes of this Act, be still deemed to be in the keeping of the registering officer or secretary for the time being respectively.

XXXIV. That every Superintendent Registrar shall, four times in every year, on such days as shall be therefore named by the Registrar General, send to the Registrar General all the certified copies of the registers of births, deaths, and marriages which he shall have so received during the three calendar months next preceding such quarterly days of transmission respectively; and if it shall appear, by interruption of the regular progression of numbers or otherwise, that the copy of any part of any book has not been duly delivered to him, he shall procure, as far as possible, consistently with the provisions of this Act, that the same may be remedied and supplied; and every such Superintendent Registrar shall be entitled to receive the sum of 2*d.* for every entry in such certified copies; and every Superintendent Registrar shall make out an account four times in every year of the number of entries in the certified copies sent to him during the last quarter, and the certified copies so sent to the General Registry Office shall be thereafter kept in the said office in such order and manner as the Registrar General, under the direction of the Secretary of State, shall think fit, so that the same may be most readily seen and examined.

XXXV. That every rector, vicar, or curate, and every registrar, registering officer, and secretary, who shall have the keeping for the time being of any register book of births, deaths, or marriages, shall at all reasonable times allow searches to be made of any register book in his keeping, and shall give a copy certified under his hand of any entry or entries in the same, on payment of the fee hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) for every search extending over a period not more than one year the sum of 1*s.* and 6*d.* additional for every additional year, and the sum of 2*s.* 6*d.* for every single certificate.

XXXVI. That every Superintendent Registrar shall cause indexes of the register books in his office to be made, and kept with the other records of his office; and that every person shall be entitled at all reasonable hours to search the said indexes, and to have a certified copy of any entry or entries in the said register books under the hand of the Superintendent Registrar, on payment of the fees hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say) for every general search the sum of 5*s.*, and for every particular search the sum of 1*s.*, and for every such certified copy the sum of 2*s.* 6*d.*

XXXVII. That the Registrar General shall cause indexes of all the said certified copies of the registers to be made and kept in the General Register Office; and that every person shall be entitled, on payment of the fees hereinafter mentioned, to search the said indexes between the hours of ten in the morning and four in the afternoon of every day, except Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday, and to have a certified copy of any entry in the said certified copies of the registers; and for every general search of the said indexes shall be paid the sum of 20*s.*, and for every particular search the sum of 1*s.*, and for every such certified copy the sum of 2*s.* 6*d.*, and no more, shall be paid to the Registrar General or such other officer as shall be appointed for that purpose on his account.

XXXVIII. That the Registrar General shall cause to be made a seal of the said register office, and the Registrar General shall cause to be sealed or stamped therewith all certified copies of entries given in the said office; and all certified copies of entries purporting to be sealed or stamped with the seal of the said register office shall be received as evidence of the birth, death, or marriage to which the same relates, without any further or other proof of such entry; and no certified copy purporting to be given in the said office shall be of any force or effect which is not sealed or stamped as aforesaid.

XXXIX. That every sum received under the provisions of this Act by or on account of the Registrar General shall be accounted for and paid by the Registrar General, at such times as the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury from time to time shall direct, into the Bank of England, to the credit of His Majesty's Exchequer, according to the provisions of an Act, 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 15, intituled, 'An Act to regulate the Office of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster.'

XL. That it shall be lawful for every clergyman of the Church of England who shall solemnize any marriage in England, and for every registering officer of the Quakers, and every secretary of the synagogue, after the said 1st of March, to ask of the parties married the several particulars herein required to be registered touching such marriage.

XLI. That every person who shall wilfully make or cause to be made, for the purpose of being inserted in any register of birth, death, or marriage, any false statement touching any of the particulars herein required to be known and registered, shall be subject to the same pains and penalties as if he were guilty of perjury.

XLII. That every person who shall refuse or without reasonable cause omit to register any marriage solemnized by him, or which he ought to register, and every Registrar who shall refuse or without reasonable cause omit to register any birth or death of which he shall have had due notice as aforesaid, and every person having the custody of any register book, or certified copy thereof or of any part thereof, who shall carelessly lose or injure the same, or carelessly allow the same to be injured whilst in his keeping, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 50*l.* for every such offence.

XLIII. That every person who shall wilfully destroy or injure, or cause to be destroyed or injured, any such register book, or any part or certified copy of any part thereof, or shall falsely make or counterfeit, or cause to be falsely made or counterfeited, any part of any such register book or certified copy thereof, or shall wilfully insert or cause to be inserted in any register book or certified copy thereof any false entry of any birth, death, or marriage, or shall wilfully give any false certificate, or shall certify any writing to be a copy or extract of any register book, knowing the same register to be false in any part thereof, or shall forge or counterfeit the seal of the register office, shall be guilty of felony.

XLIV. Provided, That no person charged with the duty of registering any birth, death, or marriage, who shall discover any error to have been committed in the form or substance of any such entry, shall be therefore liable to any of the penalties aforesaid if within one calendar month next after the discovery of such error, in the presence of the parents of the child whose birth may have been so registered, or of the parties married, or of two persons attending upon any person in his or her last illness whose death may have been so registered, or in case of the death or absence of the respective parties aforesaid, then in the presence of the Superintendent Registrar and of two other credible witnesses who shall respectively attest the same, he shall correct the erroneous entry, according to the truth of the case, by entry in the margin, without any alteration of the original entry, and shall sign the marginal entry, and add thereunto the day of the month and year when such correction shall be made: Provided also, that in the case of a marriage register he shall make the like marginal entry, attested in like manner in the Duplicate Marriage Register Book to be made by him as aforesaid, and in every case shall make the like alteration in the certified copy of the register book to be made by him as aforesaid, or in case such certified copy shall have been already made, provided he shall make and deliver in like manner a separate certified copy of the original erroneous entry, and of the marginal correction therein made.

XLV. That all fines and forfeitures by this Act imposed, unless otherwise directed, shall be recovered before any two Justices of the peace for the county, city, or place where the offence shall have happened, upon the information or complaint of any person; and if on the conviction of the offender, either on his or her confession, or by the oath of any one or more credible witness or witnesses, (which oath such Justices are hereby empowered to administer,) such fines or forfeitures, with the costs of the conviction, shall not be forthwith paid, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of such Justices; and for want of distress such Justices may commit every such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, city, or place where the offender shall be committed, without bail or mainprize, for any term not exceeding one calendar month, unless such fine and forfeiture, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid; and one moiety of all such fines and forfeitures shall go to the person who shall inform and sue or prosecute for the same, and the other moiety shall go to the Registrar General, or to such other person as the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall appoint, for the use of His Majesty; and no distress made by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall the party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, or warrant of distress, or on account of any irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by the party distraining, but the person or persons aggrieved by such irregularity shall recover full satisfaction for the special damages sustained in an action on the case.

XLVI. That in all cases where the sum adjudged to be paid on any such summary conviction shall exceed 5*l.*, any person convicted may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions which shall be holden not sooner than twelve days after the day of such conviction for the county or other district wherein the cause of complaint shall have arisen; provided that such person shall give to the complainant a notice in writing of such appeal, and of the cause and matter thereof, within three days after such conviction, and seven clear days at the least before such sessions, and shall also either remain in custody until the sessions, or enter into a recognizance with two sufficient sureties, before a Justice of the Peace, conditioned personally to appear at the said sessions, and to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and upon such notice being given, and such recognizances being entered into, the Court at such sessions shall hear and determine the matter of the appeal, and shall make such order therein, with or without costs, to either party, as to the Court shall seem meet, and in case of the dismissal of the appeal, or the affirmation of the conviction, shall order and adjudge the offender to be punished according to the conviction, and to pay such costs as shall be awarded, and shall, if necessary, issue process for enforcing such judgment.

XLVII. That no such conviction or adjudication made on appeal therefrom shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's superior courts of record, and no warrant of commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the party has been convicted, and there be a valid conviction to sustain the same.

XLVIII. That the Registrar General may receive and send by the General Post from and to places in England all letters and packets relating exclusively to the execution of this Act free from the duty of postage, provided that such letters and packets as shall be sent to the Registrar General be directed to the "Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages," at his office, and that all such letters and packets as shall be sent by the Registrar General shall be in covers, with the words "Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages" printed on the same, and be sealed with the seal of the said Register Office, and be signed on the outside thereof under such words with the name of such person as the said Registrar General, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, shall appoint, in his own handwriting, (such name to be from time to time sent to the Secretary of the General Post Office in London,) and under such other regulations as the said Lords Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall think fit; and if the person so to be appointed shall subscribe or seal any letter or packet whatever, except such only concerning which he shall receive the special direction of his superior officer, or which he shall himself know to relate exclusively to the execution of this Act, or if the person so to be appointed, or any other person, shall send or cause to be sent under any such cover any letter, paper, or writing, or any inclosure, other than shall relate exclusively to the execution of this Act, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.*, and be dismissed from his office; one moiety of such penalty to be paid to the use of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall inform or sue for the same; to be sued for and recovered in any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster.

XLIX. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall affect the registration of baptisms or burials as now by law established, or the right of any officiating minister to receive the fees now usually paid for the performance or registration of any baptism, burial, or marriage.

L. That the said Registrar General shall, within three calendar months after his appointment to such office, furnish to the respective guardians of every union, parish, or place printed notices, which the said guardians shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt thereof, cause to be fixed or placed on the outside of the several church and chapel doors, or other public and conspicuous buildings or places, within their respective unions, parishes, or places, and which said notices shall specify the several acts required to be done by persons who may be desirous of solemnizing marriage, or of registering the birth of any child or the death of any person, under the provisions of this Act.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

SCHEDULE (A.)

1836.—BIRTHS in the District of Mary-le-bone, North, in the County of Middlesex.

No.	When Born.	Name if any.	Sex.	Name and Surname of Father.	Name and Maiden Surname of Mother.	Rank or Profession of Father.	Signature, Description, and Residence of Informant.	When Registered.	Signature of Registrar.	Baptismal Name, if added after Registration of Birth.
1	7th Jan.	James.	Boy.	Will. Green.	Rebecca Green, formerly Jennings.	Carpenter.	William Green, Father, Carpenter, 17, North Street, Marylebone.	9th Jan.	John Cox, Registrar.

[The Figures and Italics in this Schedule to be filled in as the Case may be.]

SCHEDULE (B.)

1836.—DEATHS in the District of Mary-le-bone, North, in the County of Middlesex.

No.	When Died.	Name and Surname.	Sex.	Age.	Rank or Profession.	Cause of Death.	Signature, Description, and Residence of Informant.	When Registered.	Signature of Registrar.
17	4th Feb.	William Green.	Male.	43	Carpenter.		Rebecca Green, Widow, 17, North Street, Mary-le-bone.	5th February.	John Cox, Registrar.

[The Figures and Italics in this Schedule to be filled in as the Case may be.]

CAP. LXXXIX.

AN ACT to provide for the Attendance and Remuneration of Medical Witnesses at Coroners Inquests.

(17th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Coroner empowered to summon medical witnesses, and to direct the performance of a post-mortem examination.
2. A majority of the jury may require the coroner to summon additional medical evidence if the first be not satisfactory.
3. Fees to medical witnesses; to be paid out of funds collected for relief of the poor.
4. No fee for a post-mortem examination instituted without order from the coroner.
5. Inquests on bodies of persons dying in public institutions.
6. Penalty on medical practitioner for neglecting to attend.
7. Act not to extend to Scotland.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is expedient to provide for the attendance of medical witnesses at coroners' inquests, also remuneration for such attendance, and for the performance of post-mortem examinations at such inquests;—

It is Enacted,

I. That from and after the passing of this Act, whenever upon the summoning or holding of any coroner's inquest it shall appear to the coroner that the deceased person was attended at his death or during his last illness by any legally qualified medical practitioner, it shall be lawful for the coroner to issue his order, in the form marked (A.) in the Schedule hereunto annexed, for the attendance of such practitioner as a witness at such inquest; and if it shall appear to the coroner that the deceased person was not attended at or immediately before his death by any legally qualified medical practitioner, it shall be lawful for the coroner to issue such order for the attendance of any legally qualified medical practitioner, being at the time in actual practice in or near the place where the death has happened; and it shall be lawful for the coroner, either in his order for the attendance of the medical witness, or at any time between the issuing of such order and the termination of the inquest, to direct the performance of a post-mortem examination, with or without an analysis of the contents of the stomach or intestines, by the medical witness or witnesses who may be summoned to attend at any inquest; provided that if any person shall state upon oath before the coroner that in his or her belief the death of the deceased individual was caused partly or entirely by the improper or negligent treatment of any medical practitioner or other person, such medical practitioner or other person shall not be allowed to perform or assist at the post-mortem examination of the deceased.

II. That whenever it shall appear to the greater number of the jurymen sitting at any coroner's inquest, that the cause of death has not been satisfactorily explained by the evidence of the medical practitioner or other witness or witnesses who may be examined in the first instance, such greater number of the jurymen are hereby authorized and empowered to name to the coroner in writing any other legally qualified medical practitioner or practitioners, and to require the coroner to issue his order, in the form hereinbefore mentioned, for the attendance of such last-mentioned medical practitioner or practitioners as a witness or witnesses, and for the performance of a post-mortem examination, with or without an analysis of the contents of the stomach or intestines, whether such an examination has been performed before or not; and if the coroner, having been thereunto required, shall refuse to issue such order, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable in like manner as if the same were a misdemeanor at common law.

III. That when any legally qualified medical practitioner has attended upon any coroner's inquest in obedience to any such order as aforesaid of the coroner, the said practitioner shall for such attendance at any inquest in Great Britain be entitled to receive such remuneration or fee as is mentioned in the Table marked (B.) in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and for any inquest held in Ireland, the said practitioner shall be paid in the manner provided by the laws in force in that part of the United Kingdom; and the coroner is hereby required and commanded to make, according to the form marked (C.) in the Schedule hereunto annexed, his order for the payment of such remuneration or fee, when the inquest shall be held in Great Britain, and such order may be addressed and directed to the churchwardens and overseers of the parish or place in which the death has happened; and such churchwardens and overseers, or any one of them, is and are hereby required and commanded to pay the sum of money mentioned in such order of the coroner to the medical witness therein mentioned, out of the funds collected for the relief of the poor of the said place.

IV. Provided, That no order of payment shall be given, or fee or remuneration paid, to any medical practitioner for the performance of any post-mortem examination which may be instituted without the previous direction of the coroner.

V. Provided, That when any inquest shall be holden on the body of any person who has died in any public hospital or infirmary, or in any building or place belonging thereto, or used for the reception of the patients thereof, or who has died in any county or other lunatic asylum, or in any public infirmary or other public medical institution, whether the same be supported by endowments or by voluntary subscriptions, then and in such case nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle the medical officer whose duty it may have been to attend the deceased person as a medical officer of such institution as aforesaid to the fees or remuneration herein provided.

VI. That where any order for the attendance of any medical practitioner as aforesaid shall have been personally served upon such practitioner, or where any such order not personally served shall have been received by any medical practitioner in sufficient time for him to have obeyed such order, or where any such order has been served at the residence of any medical practitioner, and in every case where any medical practitioner has not obeyed such order, he shall for such neglect or disobedience forfeit the sum of 5*l.* sterling, upon complaint thereof made by the coroner or any two of the jury before any two Justices having jurisdiction in the parish or place where the inquest under which the order issued was held, or in the parish where such medical practitioner resides; and such two Justices are hereby required, upon such complaint, to proceed to the hearing and adjudication of such complaint, and, if such medical practitioner shall not shew to the said Justices a good and sufficient cause for not having obeyed such order, to enforce the said penalty by distress and sale of the offender's goods, as they are empowered to proceed by any Act of Parliament for any other penalty or forfeiture.

VII. That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to Scotland.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

(A.)

Form of Summons.

CORONER'S INQUEST at upon the Body of
By virtue of this my Order as Coroner for you are required to appear before me and the Jury at on the Day of One thousand eight hundred and , at of the Clock, to give Evidence touching the Cause of Death of [and then add, when the Witness is required to make or assist at a post-mortem Examination, and make or assist in making a post-mortem Examination of the Body [with or without] an Analysis, as the Case may be,] and report thereon at the said Inquest.

(Signed)

Coroner.

To Surgeon [or M.D., as the Case may be.]

(B.)

Table of Fees.

1. To every legally qualified Medical Practitioner for attending to give Evidence under the Provisions of this Act at any Coroner's Inquest whereat no post-mortem Examination has been made by such Practitioner, the Fee or Remuneration shall be One Guinea.
2. For the making of a post-mortem Examination of the Body of the Deceased, either with or without an Analysis of the Contents of the Stomach or Intestines, and for attending to give Evidence thereon, the Fee or Remuneration shall be Two Guineas.

(C.)

Coroner's Order for the Payment of Medical Witnesses.

BY virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in Session of holden in the intituled,
I, the Coroner of and for do order you, the Overseers of the Parish [or Township, as the Case may be,] to pay to the Sum of [One Guinea, or Two Guineas, as the Case may be,] being the Fee [or Fees] due to him for having attended as a Medical Witness at an Inquest holden before me this Day of upon the Body of about the Age of who was found dead at [or other Particulars or Description], and at which said Inquest the Jury returned a Verdict of

(Signed)

Coroner.

Witnessed by me of
To the Overseers, et cetera.

CAP. CI.

AN ACT to legalize certian Lists of Voters and of Claims and Objections for the present Year.

(30th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. All notices, claims, &c. under recited Act valid, this year, if done within the time prescribed by order in council of 11th July 1832.
2. Revising Barristers Courts for this year to be held between 15th October and 25th November.—Register.
3. Sheriff to appoint a person to act as returning officer in case of vacancy.

By this Act,

After reciting that doubts have been occasioned with respect to the days and times upon or within which notices, claims, objections, and other matters by 2 Will. 4. c. 45, intituled, 'An Act to amend the Representation of the People in England and Wales,' required to be given, delivered, transmitted, done, or performed in relation to such lists, should be respectively given, delivered, transmitted, done, and performed in this year :—

It is Enacted,

I. That in all cases in which the overseers of the poor of any parish or township shall have given notice requiring all persons who may be entitled to vote in the election of a knight or knights of the shire to serve in Parliament, in respect of any property situate wholly or in part in such parish or township, to deliver or transmit to the said overseers on or before the 20th of August in the present year, instead of the 20th of July, as fixed by the said Act, a notice of their claim as such voters according to the form by the said Act prescribed, or to the like effect, and shall, on or before the last day of August in the present year, have made out or caused to be made out, according to the form numbered 3. in the Schedule H. to the said Act annexed, an alphabetical list of the names of all persons who shall have so claimed as aforesaid, in respect of any lands or tenements situate wholly or in part within such parish or township, as having been entitled on the last day of July in the present year to have their names inserted in such list, and also of the names of all persons who shall be upon the register for the time being as such voters, and in all cases in which the overseers of the poor of any parish or township wholly or in part situate within any city or borough, or place sharing in the election for any city or borough, shall have made out, in the manner and according to the form prescribed by the said Act, on or before the last day of August, and not on or before the last day of July, in this year, an alphabetical list of all persons entitled on the said last day of July, if duly registered according to the provisions of the said Act, to vote in the election of a member or members to serve in Parliament for such city or borough in respect of the occupation of premises of the clear yearly value of not less than 10*l*., all notices, claims, objections, and other matters by the said Act required to be given, delivered, transmitted, done, or performed in relation to such lists shall, in this year but not afterwards, if given, delivered, transmitted, done, or performed upon or within the same days of the several calendar months of this year which were respectively appointed for the like purpose in the corresponding months of the year 1832 by an order made by His Majesty, with the advice of his most honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 11th of July 1832, be as good and of the same force and effect as if they had been given, delivered, done, transmitted, or performed respectively upon or within the days and times in the said Act specified in that behalf.

II. That in lieu of the period by the said Act limited for the revision of the respective lists of voters by the barristers, the Courts for that purpose shall be held at some time between the 15th of October inclusive and the 25th of November inclusive in the present year, but not afterwards; and such respective lists shall be copied out into books by the persons and in the manner respectively prescribed by the said Act on or before the last day of November in the present year; and every such book shall be the register of electors to vote at any election which shall take place between the first day of December next inclusive and the first day of November 1837.

III. That if at any time during which any precept ought to be issued, or other act done by or with regard to the returning officer for any city, borough, or town, the office of returning officer for such city, borough, or town shall happen to be vacant, it shall be lawful for the sheriff for the time being of the county in which such city, borough, or town shall be situate, or which shall be next adjoining to such city, borough, or town, and he is hereby required, by writing under his hand, to appoint some fit person as his deputy to perform during such vacancy the duties of returning officer of such city, borough, or town; and that if at any time, on the receipt of any sheriff or sheriffs of a writ or precept for the return of a member or members to serve in Parliament for any city, borough, or town, the office of returning officer for such city, borough, or town, shall happen to be vacant, in such case it shall be lawful for such sheriff or sheriffs, and he or they are hereby required, by himself or themselves, or by his or their deputy, to act on that occasion as returning officer for such city, borough, or town.

CAP. CIII.

AN ACT to make temporary Provision for the Boundaries of certain Boroughs.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. Part of recited Act repealed.—New provision as to boundaries of boroughs, &c.—Proviso as to the liability of rate-payers.—Proviso as the election of mayor, &c.
2. Boundaries of the borough of Sunderland.
3. The division of boroughs into wards by the barristers not to be affected by the exclusion of any ward or part of a ward.—If a borough has been so divided that the whole of a ward shall consist of a district excluded by this Act, a new assignment of councillors to be made by the barrister until Parliament shall otherwise direct.
4. Local Acts for the relief of the poor not to be affected.
5. Nothing herein to affect the assessments of the land or assessed taxes, or the jurisdiction of the Commissioners.
6. Berwick-upon-Tweed declared a county to all intents but for parliamentary elections.

By this Act,

After reciting that by the provisions of an Act, 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 76, the boundaries of certain boroughs named in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to the said Act annexed were made to include all the liberties of such boroughs and large tracts of land beyond the limits of the towns, and which ought not to be included therein :—

It is Enacted,

I. That so much of the said Act for regulating corporations as provides that the metes and bounds of every borough and county named in the said Act shall include the whole of the liberties of such borough and county by land and by water is hereby repealed; and that, notwithstanding anything in the said Act contained, no part of any county, or of the liberties of any borough, town, or city, named in the first sections of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) annexed to the said Act for regulating corporations, which before the passing of the said Act was not part of such borough, town, or city, or within the parliamentary boundary of such borough, town, or city, shall be taken to be within the metes and bounds of any such borough, town, or city, or within the county of such borough, town, or city, or to be within the jurisdiction of the Justices of such borough, town, or city, or county of a borough, town, or city; and that no part of any county, or of the liberties of any borough, town, or city, named in the second section of the said Schedules (A.) and (B.), which was not part of such borough, town, or city before the passing of an Act, 2 & 3 Will. 4. c. 64, intituled, 'An Act to settle and describe the Divisions of Counties, and the Limits of Cities and Boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the Election of Members to serve in Parliament,' shall, for the purposes of the said Act passed in the last session of Parliament be taken to be within the metes and bounds of any such borough, town, or city, or within the county of such borough, town, or city, or to be within the jurisdiction of the Justices of such borough, town, or city, or county of a borough, town, or city, but every such part, until Parliament shall otherwise direct, shall be taken to be within and to be subject to the same jurisdiction as the county, riding, parts or divisions of a county, other than a county of a borough, town, or city, wherein such part is situated or with which it has the longest common boundary: Provided also, that all the provisions of the said Act for regulating corporations concerning the liability of the rate-payers of any place or precinct which under the provisions of this Act shall not be included within any such borough, town, or city, or county of a borough, town, or city, to any debt to which the rate-payers of such borough, town, or city, or county of a borough, town, or city, were liable to contribute before the passing of the said Act for regulating corporations, shall be applicable to such place or precinct as if the same had not been included within the metes and bounds of such borough, town, or city under the provisions of the said Act for regulating corporations: Provided also, that no election of any mayor, alderman, councillor, auditor, or assessor heretofore made, or any other proceeding whatsoever, in any such borough, town, or city, since the 25th of December last, shall be liable to be questioned after the passing of this Act by reason that any such part of any county, or liberties of any borough, town, or city, may or may not have been taken to be part of such borough, town, or city under the provisions of the said Act.

II. Provided, That, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the borough of Sunderland, for the purposes of the said Act passed in the last session of Parliament, and until Parliament shall otherwise direct, shall consist of the parish of Sunderland, the townships of Monkwearmouth and Monkwearmouth Shore, and so much of the townships of Bishop Wearmouth and Bishop Wearmouth Panns as is included within a circle of one mile from the centre of Wearmouth Bridge.

III. That the division of every borough, town, and city into wards by the barrister or barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act for regulating corporations shall not be annulled or vitiated by the exclusion of any ward or wards, or any part of any of the said wards which shall be excluded from such borough, town, or city by this Act, but the said division shall remain in all other respects in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct, as if the ward or wards, or part of a ward or wards, so excluded from the borough, town, or city, had not been at any time included therein: Provided nevertheless, that if any borough, town, or city shall have been so divided into wards that the whole of any one or more wards shall consist wholly of a district excluded from such borough, town, or city by this Act, the barrister or barristers who originally divided the borough, town, or city into wards shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, assign the councillors who were chosen in such ward or wards to the remaining wards of the borough, town, or city, or such of them as he or they shall select, upon the same principles, or as nearly as may be, in his or their judgment, as were provided by the said Act for the guidance of the barristers in their assignment of councillors to each ward, and thenceforth, and until Parliament shall otherwise direct, the number of councillors in each of the remaining wards shall be the number originally assigned to such ward by the barrister or barristers, with the addition of the number so assigned to it by the barrister or barristers under this Act, and the councillors so assigned under this Act to each ward shall thenceforth be deemed to have been elected in the ward to which they shall have been respectively so assigned, and shall go out of office, and vacancies among them shall be filled at the same time and in the same manner, as if the burgesses of the ward by whom they were originally elected had been burgesses of the ward to which they shall have been so assigned.

IV. That nothing contained in the said Act for regulating corporations shall be construed to affect any local Act heretofore passed for the relief and management of the poor, or to alter the district comprised within the provisions of any such local Act.

V. That nothing contained in the said Act for regulating corporations shall be construed to affect or alter the assessments of the land tax or assessed taxes, or to extend or diminish the jurisdiction of any Commissioners of Land and Assessed Taxes; but that all manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and all parishes and parts of parishes, and places, shall continue to be charged as heretofore towards the land tax charged upon the county or other district of which they were a part before the passing of the said recited Act, and to be subject in that behalf to the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of the same county or other district as they would have been if the said recited Act had not been passed.

V. That the borough and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, within the limits assigned to it by the said Act, or hereafter to be assigned to it by authority of Parliament, shall be a county of itself to all intents and purposes, except only so far as relates to the return of a member or members to serve in Parliament; and that the provisions of the Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 74, intituled, 'An Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries, and for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assurance,' and the modes of assurance therein provided, shall extend and apply to lands locally situated in the said borough, town, and county, any law, statute, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. CIV.

AN ACT for the better Administration of the Borough Fund in certain Boroughs.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. New securities may be given for old debts.
2. Extending the power of disposition given to the council as to certain demises;—and the power allowed to be exercised over the lands, &c. with the approbation of the Treasury.
3. Treasurer of a borough may apply proceeds of sales as herein mentioned.
4. Persons assigned to keep the peace in any borough may act as Justices in levying county rates made before May 1836.
5. Mayor may issue his warrant for levying borough rate, &c.
6. Burgesses competent witnesses.
7. Mayor, &c. if enrolled on burgess roll not liable to penalty for so acting.
8. Corporate offices may be resigned on payment of the fine.—Proviso for persons refusing on conscientious grounds.
9. Reservation of exemption from tolls enjoyed by persons in virtue of other than corporate rights.
10. Accounts of corporations to be transmitted to Secretary of State, and abstracts laid before Parliament.

By this Act,

After reciting that by 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 76, provision was made for the payment of the rents and profits of the real and personal estate of the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of certain boroughs named in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to the said Act annexed, and also for the payment of certain penalties to a fund to be called in each case "The Borough Fund" of that borough: And that certain difficulties have occurred in putting the said Act into execution, and certain penalties have been imposed, which ought not to be imposed, for the benefit of the said borough fund:—

It is Enacted,

I. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the council of any borough named in the said Schedules to execute from time to time any deed or obligation in the name of the body corporate whose council they are, for securing repayment and satisfaction of any debt or obligation contracted by or on behalf of the said body corporate before the passing of the said Act for regulating corporations.

II. That the power of disposition given to the council of any body corporate in the instances of demises for seventy-five years authorized by the said Act, shall extend to the demise or lease thereof, either at a reserved rent or a fine, or both, as the council shall think fit; and the power of disposition allowed by the said Act over the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of such body corporate, to be exercised with the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any three of them shall extend to the disposition of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with such approbation as aforesaid, whether by way of absolute sale, or by way of exchange, mortgage, or charge, demise or lease, and to every other disposition of the same whatsoever which shall be so approved of as aforesaid.

III. That nothing in the said Act contained shall be construed to restrain the treasurer of any borough, under the direction of the council, from applying the proceeds of the sale of any advowson, or right of nomination or presentation to any benefice or ecclesiastical preferment, directed by the said Act, which shall have been paid to him, or any part thereof, towards the liquidation of any debt contracted before the passing of the said Act by the body corporate named in the said Schedules in conjunction with such borough.

And after reciting that by the said Act it is provided, that no person assigned to keep the peace within any borough, town, or city under the provisions of the said Act shall by virtue of such assignment act as a Justice of the Peace in making or levying any county rate, or rate in the nature of a county rate:—

It is Enacted,

IV. That, notwithstanding anything in the said Act contained, it shall be lawful for any such person to act as a Justice of Peace in levying any county rate, or rate in the nature of a county rate, which shall have been legally made previously to the 1st of May 1836.

V. That in any case in which, for the purpose of levying any county rate, a warrant might be lawfully issued by one or more Justices of the Peace, a warrant may be lawfully issued in the like case by the mayor of any borough named in the said Schedules, under his hand and the corporate seal of the said borough, whether the matter of such warrant relates to the borough rate or to the watch rate; and that in every case in which in a matter relating to the county rate a warrant is required to be directed to or issued by a high constable, such warrant may in a like matter relating to the borough rate or watch rate be directed to or issued by the high constable of the borough, or any borough officer of the like description, or by any person or persons who may have been or may hereafter be appointed by the council of the borough for the purpose of collecting the said borough rate or watch rate, or either of them.

VII. That no burgess of any borough named in the said Schedules shall be deemed an incompetent witness in any suit or proceeding at law or in equity by reason of his being a member of such body corporate, or interested in the borough fund of any borough.

VIII. That, notwithstanding anything in the said Act contained, no person enrolled on the burgess roll for the time being of any borough named in the Schedules to the said Act, and who shall act as mayor, alderman, or councillor, auditor or assessor, of such borough, shall be liable to any penalty for so acting on the ground that he was not entitled to be on the burgess list of such borough.

And after noticing that no provision is made in the said Act for resigning any corporate office on payment of a fine or otherwise;—

It is Enacted,

VIII. That every person elected into any corporate office in any of the said boroughs may at any time resign such office on payment of the fine which he would have been liable to pay for non-acceptance of the same office; provided that no person enabled by law to make an affirmation instead of taking an oath shall be liable to any fine for non-acceptance of office in any borough by reason of his refusal on conscientious grounds to take any oath or make any declaration required by the said Act, or to take upon himself the duties of such office.

IX. That nothing contained in the said Act for regulating corporations shall be construed to alter or affect the right of any person claiming discharge or exemption from tolls levied in whole or in part by or to the use of any body corporate by virtue of any title to such discharge or exemption other than as an inhabitant of any borough, or as a citizen, freeman, or burgess, or as a member by any name whatsoever of any body corporate named in the said Schedules, or as the widow or kindred of any such inhabitant, citizen, freeman, burgess, or member of such body corporate.

X. That the council of each borough, town, or city named in the said Schedules, or in which a body corporate of mayor, aldermen, and burgesses may be created under the provisions of the said Act, shall, before the 1st of March in each year, transmit to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State a statement of all monies received and expended on account of the mayor, alderman, and burgesses of that borough, town, or city within the year preceding, which statement shall be prepared in such form and manner as the Secretary of State shall direct, and such accounts shall refer to the year ended upon the 1st of January of the year in which such account is hereby required to be so transmitted; and an abstract of such statements and accounts, under general heads, shall be laid before both houses of Parliament during their sitting in the same year, in which they are hereby required to be transmitted as aforesaid.

CAP. CV.

AN ACT for the better Administration of Justice in certain Boroughs.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. County Justices may contract with council of a borough in which there is a sufficient gaol for the committal of county prisoners thereto.—If there is a separate Court of Quarter Sessions in the borough such offenders may be tried there.
2. Power to try prisoners at borough sessions, although committed for trial under contract to a county prison more than two miles from the borough.
3. Oaths required to be taken by recorder, &c. may be taken before the mayor or two aldermen or councillors.
4. Mayor to hold over until acceptance of office by his successor.
5. Sheriff to be elected on 9th November instead of 1st November.
6. Coroner may appoint a deputy in case of illness or unavoidable absence.—Proviso.
7. Extension of jurisdiction of courts of requests.
8. Powers of local Acts heretofore exercised by Justices in Quarter Sessions, and not within the powers of the recorder, vested in the Council.
9. Provision for holding courts of record.
10. Repeal of part of 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 76. as to Courts of Quarter Sessions for the Cinque Ports, and new provision made.
11. Justices acting under commissions granted by virtue of 51 Geo. 3. c. 36. may exercise all the powers of Justices in counties relating to the granting of licences to victuallers.
12. His Majesty may appoint the Vice Chancellor of Cambridge University to be a Justice of the borough.—Proviso as to Vice Chancellor's power of licensing alehouses.

By this Act,

After reciting that by reason of certain defects in 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 76, the administration of civil and criminal justice is injuriously hindered and delayed in certain boroughs named in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to the said Act annexed :—

It is Enacted,

I. That the Justices of the Peace of any county, riding, parts, or division of a county shall have the same powers of contracting with the council of any borough, town, or city named in the said Schedules in which it shall have been made to appear to the satisfaction of one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State that there is a gaol or house of correction fit for the confinement of prisoners, for the conveyance to and support and maintenance in such gaol or house of correction of prisoners committed thereto by any Justice or Justices of such county, ridings, parts, or division of a county, which the council of any other borough have with respect to prisoners committed to such gaol or house of correction from such last-mentioned borough; and all the provisions of 5 Geo. 4. c. 85, intituled, 'An Act for amending an Act of the last Session of Parliament relating to the building, repairing, and enlarging of certain Gaols and Houses of Correction, and for procuring Information as to the State of all other Gaols and Houses of Correction in England and Wales,' shall extend, or as nearly as may be, to all such contracts; and in case His Majesty shall have granted to the borough, town, or city in which such gaol or house of correction shall be situated a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, such offenders may be tried and sentenced by such Court for all offences of which the Court has cognizance, and punished accordingly, and all the provisions of the last-recited Act, 5 Geo. 4. c. 85, shall extend as nearly as may be to the trial and punishment of such offenders, and to all acts necessary for such trial or consequent thereon.

And after observing that it is expedient to enlarge the powers given to the councils of the boroughs named in the said Act for the regulation of municipal corporations, in which a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall be holden, of contracting with the Justices of the Peace having authority or jurisdiction in and over any gaol or house of correction of the county, riding, or division wherein such borough is situated or wherunto it is adjacent, for the conveyance, support, and maintenance in such last-mentioned gaol or house of correction of prisoners committed thereto from such borough;—

It is Enacted,

II. That it shall be lawful to try any such prisoner at the borough court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and for the proper officer of such borough to direct the removal of such prisoner for trial, and to do all other acts necessary for such trial or consequent thereon, notwithstanding that the gaol or house of correction so receiving under contract a prisoner committed for trial may be situate more than two miles from the usual place of trial of such borough.

And after reciting that it is by the said recited Act enacted, that no recorder or person assigned to keep the peace within any such borough shall be capable of acting as recorder or Justice of the Peace within such borough until he shall have taken the oaths provided to be taken by Justices of the Peace, except the oath as to qualification by estate;—

It is Enacted,

III. That all oaths so required to be taken by any such recorder or person assigned to keep the peace may be taken before the mayor or any two aldermen or councillors of the said borough, without suing out or obtaining any special dedimus or other commission or authority for administering such oaths.

And after reciting that by the said Act it is provided, that the mayor of every borough named in the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) shall continue in his office for one whole year;—

It is Enacted,

IV. That the mayor of every such borough shall continue in office for one whole year, and until his successor shall have accepted the office of mayor, and shall have made and subscribed the declaration required in that behalf.

V. That so much of the said Act as provides for the appointment of any sheriff on the 1st of November in this or any following year is hereby repealed; and that every such appointment of sheriff shall be on the 9th of November, at the quarterly meeting of the council, and immediately after the election of mayor, and in all other respects according to the provisions of the said Act; and every sheriff appointed under the provisions of the said Act or of this Act shall hold his office until the appointment of his successor.

VI. That in case of illness or unavoidable absence the coroner for the time being of any borough, town, or city named in the said Act shall be empowered and he is hereby required, by writing under his hand and seal, to appoint a fit person, being a barrister at law or an attorney of one of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and not being an alderman or councillor of such borough, town, or city, to act for him as deputy coroner during the illness or unavoidable absence of such coroner, but no longer or otherwise: Provided always, that the mayor or two Justices of such borough, town, or city shall on each occasion certify under their hands and seals the necessity for the appointment of such deputy coroner; and such certificate shall state the cause of absence of the coroner, and shall be openly read to every inquest jury summoned by such deputy coroner; and the particulars of every inquest holden before any deputy coroner shall be included in the return to be made by the coroner to the Secretary of State, as provided by the said Act.

VII. That in every case in which before the passing of the said Act a court of requests or of conscience for the recovery of small debts was established in any borough, town, city, or county of a town or city, the boundary whereof shall have been enlarged by the said Act, the jurisdiction of such court shall be extended to such enlarged boundary: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to give such court cognizance of any suit which before the passing of this Act could not be brought therein, and could be brought in some other court of conscience or requests.

VIII. That every thing provided under any local Act of Parliament to be done exclusively by any particular or limited number, class, or description of the members of any body corporate named in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) annexed to the said Act for regulating corporations, the continuance of which is not inconsistent with the provisions of the said Act, and also every thing provided in any such local Acts to be done by the Justices, or by some particular class or description of members of such body corporate, being Justices, at some Court of General or Quarter Sessions assembled, and which does not relate to the business of a court of criminal or civil judicature, shall and may be done by the council at some quarterly meeting of the council, or by some committee of the council, or any three or more of such committee to be appointed at a quarterly meeting of the council: Provided also, that everything herein authorized to be done at a quarterly meeting of the council may be done at a meeting of the council to be specially summoned for that purpose as soon as may be after the passing of this Act: Provided also, that no Recorder by virtue of his office shall have power to allow, apportion, make or levy, or do any act whatsoever with relation to the allowance, apportionment, making, or levying of any rate whatsoever.

And after noticing that doubts have arisen as to the provisions of the said Act for regulating corporations respecting Judges in borough courts of record for the trial of civil actions not regulated by the provisions of any local Act of Parliament, or in which at the time of passing the said Act a barrister of five years standing did not act as Judge or assessor:—

It is Enacted and Declared,

ix. That from and after the passing of this Act the recorder, and in the absence of the recorder such person, being a barrister of not less than five years standing, as shall be appointed by the Recorder under his hand and seal to hold the said court, shall be the Judge of such court and shall hold the said court at such times as the said recorder in his discretion may think fit, or as His Majesty shall think fit to direct; and every recorder or person so appointed to hold such court shall be entitled to have such salary paid to him out of the borough fund as the council shall fix by some bye law to be made in that behalf: Provided also, that all rules hereafter to be made for regulating the practice of such courts shall be approved and signed by the recorder of such borough, if there shall be a recorder, before the same shall be submitted to the Judges of the superior courts for allowance and confirmation by them according to the provisions of said recited Act.

x. That so much of the said Act as provides that the Courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the towns and ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and of the ancient town of Rye, or of such of the said towns and ports and ancient town to which His Majesty shall grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, shall have jurisdiction over offences and matters committed, arising, and happening within the towns named in the Schedule to the said Act which are ancient corporate members and liberties of the said towns and ports and ancient town respectively, and to which His Majesty shall not grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and also provides that any or either of the said towns and ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and ancient town of Rye, to which His Majesty shall not grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and their or its members and liberties, shall, for all purposes relating to the jurisdiction of Courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, be respectively within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the nearest other of the said towns and ports or ancient town to which His Majesty shall grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, is hereby repealed; and it is hereby enacted, that, until other provision shall be made by Parliament in that behalf, Courts of General Sessions of the Peace and gaol delivery shall and may be holden in and for the said towns and ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and ancient town of Rye, or such of the said towns and ports and ancient town to which His Majesty shall not grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and for the ancient members and liberties thereof, not being corporate, and also in and for the towns of Deal, Faversham, Folkestone, and Tenterden, or such of the said towns to which His Majesty shall not grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, before the person who at the time of the passing of the said Act was or acted as recorder or steward or assessor, or by whatsoever other name he was called, of the said towns and ports, ancient town and towns respectively, or in case of his death or resignation or absence, or in case there was no such recorder, or steward, or assessor, then before any barrister at law, of not less than five years standing, whom His Majesty shall appoint to hold the same, in the same manner in other respects, and with the same powers and authorities, as before the passing of the said Act, except as regards the trial of capital felonies; and so long as such Courts of General Sessions of the Peace and gaol delivery shall be holden the offices of Clerk of the Peace and Coroner shall be holden and exercised by the same persons, or by the same officers of such of the said towns and ports, ancient town and towns respectively, to which His Majesty shall not grant a separate Court of Quarter Sessions, by whom or by which the same were holden at the time of the passing of the said Act, or in case of their death or resignation, or there being no longer such officers, then by such persons as the councils of such towns and ports, ancient town and towns respectively, shall appoint to hold the same, with the same powers and authorities as before the passing of the said Act; and the non-corporate members and liberties of the said towns and ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and the said ancient town of Rye, shall and may be chargeable and charged by the Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden for the same respectively with a due proportion of the expenses of such towns and ports and ancient town respectively, and the non-corporate members and liberties thereof, to the payment of which expenses rates in the nature of county rates are applicable, and the same shall and may be assessed and levied in the manner in which rates of that description were assessed and levied before the passing of the said Act; and a due proportion of inhabitant householders to serve as grand jurors and jurors at the Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said towns and ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and of the said ancient town of Rye, shall be summoned by the clerks of the peace of the said towns and ports and ancient town from the non-corporate members and liberties thereof respectively, and the attendance of such jurors shall be enforced and their defaults punished in the manner by the said Act directed with respect to jurors in boroughs.

xi. That His Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting under the authority of a commission or commissions issued by virtue of an Act, 51 Geo. 3. c. 36, intituled, 'An Act to facilitate the Execution of Justice within the Cinque Ports,' shall and may have and exercise all the jurisdictions, powers, and authorities belonging to Justices of the Peace in counties relating to the granting of licences or authorities to persons to keep inns, alehouses, or victualling houses, or to sell excisable liquors by retail, within any of the said towns and ports of Hastings, Sandwich, Dover, and Hythe, and of the ancient town of Rye respectively, which shall not have Justices of the Peace assigned to them by virtue of the said Act passed in the last session of Parliament, and the non-corporate members and liberties thereof, and also within any of the said towns of Deal, Faversham, Folkestone, and Tenterden respectively, which shall not have Justices of the Peace assigned to them by virtue of the same Act.

And after noticing that doubts have been entertained whether, under the provisions of the said recited Act, it may be lawful for His Majesty from time to time to constitute and appoint the Vice Chancellor of the university of Cambridge for the time being a Justice of the Peace in and for the town and borough of Cambridge:—

It is Enacted,

XII. That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, from time to time, if His Majesty shall so think fit, in and by his commission of the peace for the said town and borough to constitute and appoint the Vice Chancellor of the university for the time being a Justice of the Peace for the said town and borough, anything in the said recited Act or in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Vice Chancellor of the said university, by reason of his being named in any commission of the peace for the said town and borough, shall thereby have, as touching the grant of licences to alehouses, any greater authority as Justice of the Peace than any other Justice of the Peace named in any such commission, but that nothing in this Act shall be construed to alter or in any way to affect the rights and privileges which the Vice Chancellor by virtue of his office now lawfully has or enjoys, or might have lawfully had and enjoyed if the Vice Chancellor had not been appointed under the provisions of this Act a Justice of the Peace for the said town and borough.

CAP. CXI.

AN ACT to prevent the Fact of a previous Conviction being given in Evidence to the Jury on the Case before them, except when Evidence to Character is given.

(20th August 1836.)

By this Act,

After reciting, that by 7 & 8 Geo. 4. c. 28, provision is made for the more exemplary punishment of offenders who shall commit any felony not punishable with death after a previous conviction for felony: And that since the passing of the said Act the practice has been on the trial of any person for any such subsequent felony to charge the jury to inquire at the same time concerning such previous conviction: And that doubts may be reasonably entertained whether such practice is consistent with a fair and impartial inquiry as regards the matter of such subsequent felony, and it is expedient that such practice should from henceforth be discontinued:—

It is Enacted,

That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful on the trial of any person for any such subsequent felony to charge the jury to inquire concerning such previous conviction until after they shall have inquired concerning such subsequent felony, and shall have found such person guilty of the same; and whenever in any indictment such previous conviction shall be stated, the reading of such statement to the jury as part of the indictment shall be deferred until after such finding as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that if upon the trial of any person for any such subsequent felony as aforesaid such person shall give evidence of his or her good character, it shall be lawful for the prosecutor, in answer thereto, to give evidence of the indictment and conviction of such person for the previous felony before such verdict of guilty shall have been returned, and the jury shall inquire concerning such previous conviction for felony at the same time that they inquire concerning the subsequent felony.

CAP. CXIV.

AN ACT for enabling Persons indicted of Felony to make their Defence by Counsel or Attorney.

(20th August 1836.)

ABSTRACT OF THE ENACTMENTS.

1. All persons tried for felony after 1st October next may make their defence by counsel or attorney.
2. In cases of summary conviction.
3. Copies of depositions to be allowed to prisoners.—Proviso.
4. Prisoners entitled to inspect depositions on trial.
5. Act may be altered this session.

By this Act,

After reciting that it is just and reasonable that persons accused of offences against the law should be enabled to make their full answer and defence to all that is alleged against them:—

It is Enacted,

I. That from and after the 1st of October next all persons tried for felonies shall be admitted, after the close of the case for the prosecution, to make full answer and defence thereto, by counsel learned in the law, or by attorney in courts where attorneys practise as counsel.

II. That in all cases of summary conviction persons accused shall be admitted to make their full answer and defence, and to have all witnesses examined and cross-examined by counsel or attorney.

III. That all persons who after the passing of this Act shall be held to bail or committed to prison for any offence against the law shall be entitled to require and have, on demand, (from the person who shall have the lawful custody thereof, and who is hereby required to deliver the same,) copies of the examinations of the witnesses respectively upon whose depositions they have been so held to bail or committed to prison, on payment of a reasonable sum for the same, not exceeding 1*l*.d. for each folio of ninety words: Provided always, that if such demand shall not be made before the day appointed for the commencement of the assize or sessions at which the trial of the person on whose behalf such demand shall be made is to take place, such person shall not be entitled to have any copy of such examination of witnesses, unless the Judge or other person to preside at such trial shall be of opinion that such copy may be made and delivered without delay or inconvenience to such trial; but it shall nevertheless be competent for such Judge or other person so to preside at such trial, if he shall think fit, to postpone such trial on account of such copy of the examination of witnesses not having been previously had by the party charged.

IV. That all persons under trial shall be entitled, at the time of their trial, to inspect, without fee or reward, all depositions (or copies thereof) which have been taken against them, and returned into the court before which such trial shall be had.

V. That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present session of Parliament; and that nothing herein contained shall extend to Scotland.

SLAVE COMPENSATION RULES.

[The following General Rules framed by the Commissioners of Compensation, under 4 Will. 4. c. 73, (Law J. Statutes, 1833, p. 123.) altered and confirmed by His Majesty in Council, and inrolled in the Court of Chancery, being now of the same validity as if enacted by Parliament, it is thought proper to publish them as a part of the Statutes, together with the orders of the Committee of the Privy Council.]

AT THE COUNCIL-CHAMBER, WHITEHALL, the 17th day of April, 1834.

By a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

Whereas the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty under the authority of an Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4, intituled, 'An Act for the Abolition of Slavery throughout the British Colonies; for promoting the Industry of manumitted Slaves; and for compensating the Persons hitherto entitled to the Services of such Slaves;' have transmitted to the Lord President of the Council certain general rules framed by the said Commissioners, under the 47th and 55th clauses of the said Act; and whereas the said rules have been laid by the Lord President of the Council before His Majesty in Council, who has been pleased to refer the same to this Committee:

It is, thereupon, ordered by their Lordships, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, that the said rules (which are hereunto annexed) be published three times in the London Gazette.

And their Lordships are pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all persons interested in or affected by such general rules may, within six months from this date, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council.

WM. L. BATHURST.

GENERAL RULES under the 47th and 55th Clauses of the Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73.

Whereas by an Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, intituled, 'An Act for the Abolition of Slavery throughout the British Colonies; for promoting the Industry of the manumitted Slaves; and for compensating the Persons hitherto entitled to the Services of such Slaves;' the Commissioners to be appointed thereby for apportioning and distributing the compensation provided by the said Act, are authorized and required by the 47th clause to institute certain inquiries for the purpose of regulating the apportionment within the several colonies of that part of the general compensation fund which shall be assigned to each of the said colonies; and the said Commissioners are especially directed to have regard to the relative value of prædial slaves and of unattached slaves in every such colony, and to distinguish such slaves, whether prædial or unattached, into distinct classes; and, with all practicable precision, to ascertain and fix the average value of a slave in each of the said classes:

And whereas we, the undersigned Commissioners appointed by His Majesty under the authority of the said Act for inquiring into and deciding upon the claims to compensation which may be preferred under the said Act, after making the inquiries thereby directed, have ordered a return of the number of slaves and estimated value thereof in each of the said colonies to be made, according to the classes and in the form hereunto annexed, marked (A):

And whereas the said Commissioners are further required by the said 47th clause, to draw up and frame all such general rules, regard being had to the laws and usages in force in each colony respectively, as to them may seem best adapted for securing the just and equitable distribution of the said funds amongst or for the benefit of the several persons entitled thereto, and for the protection of such funds, and for the appointment and indemnification of trustees; now, therefore, we, the undersigned Commissioners, have, in obedience to such directions, drawn up and framed the following

RULES:

1. That the party or parties who shall be in possession as owner or owners of any slave or slaves, and shall appear as such by the latest returns made in the office of the Registrar of Slaves under the Registry Acts in the respective colonies, shall be deemed primâ facie the rightful owner or owners thereof respectively, and primâ facie entitled to the compensation money to be awarded in respect thereof.

SLAVE COMPENSATION RULES.

xliii

2. That in respect to all persons who, as owners or creditors, legatees or annuitants, may have any joint or common interest in any slave or slaves, or may be entitled to or interested in any slave or slaves, either in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall be deemed to be of the same nature, and impressed with the same character for all purposes whatsoever, so far as the same can be so taken and applied, as the slave or slaves in respect of whom such monies shall be allotted, and shall be subject to the same rules of distribution, and to the same charges and liabilities, as the same slave or slaves respectively would have been subject to according to the several estates and interests of the parties entitled thereto, and agreeably to the law and usages of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled.

3. That the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of any slave or slaves, subject to any trusts or powers whatsoever, shall be subject to the same trusts or powers in all respects as the same slave or slaves were subject to.

4. That in cases in which any such compensation monies, or any interest therein, shall belong to or be vested in any married woman, infant, lunatic, or person of insane or unsound mind, or person beyond the seas, or labouring under any other legal or natural disability or incapacity, for the protection of whose rights and interests it may be necessary to make provision, and in all other cases in which it may appear to be necessary for protecting any estates or interests, and securing the due application of the compensation monies to be awarded in respect thereof, the Commissioners shall appoint Trustees having regard to the wishes of the parties interested, and shall by their award declare the rights and interests of the parties and the trusts and limitations in pursuance thereof, together with all necessary provisions for the indemnity of the Trustees; and shall direct the compensation monies to be invested in the public funds in the names of such Trustees, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, in pursuance of such trusts and according to such respective rights and interests.

5. That in case of the death of any person entitled to such compensation monies who may die intestate before the award of such compensation, the succession to such monies shall be the same as the succession to the interest in the slave or slaves in respect of whom the compensation shall be allotted, according to the law of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves were registered or settled.

6. That the apportionment of the compensation monies amongst the persons seized of or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act, at the time of such their manumission, shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien, claim, right, or interest, may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled, but shall be subject to all the equities to which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien, claim, right or interest in such slave or slaves may respectively be liable.

7. That in all cases in which any slave or slaves, or the compensation in respect thereof, shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in the United Kingdom, and to the Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation awarded to be paid in respect of such slave or slaves, shall, under the direction of the said court, be paid into the said court, to be subject to the orders, directions, and decrees of the court in which such suit may be depending; and in cases in which such slave or slaves shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in the colony of Jamaica, and to the Commissioners it shall meet, the compensation in respect of such slave or slaves shall be paid, under the direction of the said court, to the Receiver-General of the said island, to be subject to the decrees, orders, and directions of the said court in which the suit may be depending.

And in all cases in which such slave or slaves or the compensation in respect thereof, shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in any other colony than Jamaica, and to the said Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation monies awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall, under the direction of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster to be made upon petition to be preferred in a summary way, be paid into the Bank of England, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed there, ex parte "the persons named in the award and therein specified as the plaintiffs and defendants in the said suit," pursuant to the method prescribed by an Act, 1 Geo. 4, intituled, 'An Act for the better securing the Monies and Effects paid into the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on account of the Suitors of the said Court, and for other Purposes,' and the general orders of the said Court, and without fee or reward; and the said monies when so paid in shall, under such direction as aforesaid, be invested by the said Accountant-General in his name, ex parte the said account, in the purchase of 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. consolidated bank annuities, and the dividends thereon, and also the dividends on all future investments, as they arise and become due, shall be invested by the said Accountant-General in his name, in like manner, so that the same may accumulate for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto; and the said compensation monies so invested as aforesaid, and the said accumulations shall be paid and transferred under such direction as aforesaid to the person or persons to whom the same shall be directed to be paid or transferred by the decree, order, or judgment of the court in the colony made in the said suit there depending or any court of appeal, and a copy of such decree, order, or judgment of the court in the colony or court of appeal, signed by the proper officer of such court, shall be sufficient evidence of such decree, order, or judgment in the said Court of Exchequer.

And whereas by the 55th clause of the said Act, the said Commissioners are required to frame and publish general rules, to be confirmed, allowed, and inrolled, as thereby directed, prescribing the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring their claims under the said Act, upon the prosecution of such claims, and in making any opposition to the same, and for the conduct of the proceedings under the said commission: We, therefore, the undersigned Commissioners, in obedience to the directions of the said 55th clause, have drawn up and framed, in so far as relates to all the colonies or possessions mentioned and enumerated in the said Act, except the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, the following

RULES:

1. That all persons in possession of and claiming compensation for any slave or slaves to be manumitted under the same Act, shall prefer their claims before the Assistant Commissioners in the respective colonies in which the said slave or slaves may be registered or settled, on or about the 1st of March 1835, in the form herewith annexed, marked (B.)

SLAVE COMPENSATION RULES.

2. That every such claim shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Registrar of Slaves of the colony in which such claim shall be made, that the number of such slaves mentioned in such claim (except any increase by birth since the last registry, as mentioned at the foot of such claim) are duly registered, together with the name or names of the person or persons by whom such slave or slaves have been registered.

And in case the property in any slave or slaves shall have been changed, between the last registration and the 1st of August 1834, the claimant must briefly state his title from the person in whose name the slaves were last registered.

3. That the said Assistant Commissioners shall from time to time, with all convenient speed after receipt thereof, make out complete lists of all such claims according to the form following, that is to say:

Name and Description of Claimant, or Person in Possession of the Slaves.	Plantation or other Domicile of Slaves.	Number of Slaves.

and shall cause the same to be published in the different newspapers of the said colony, or shall make the same known in such manner as to them shall seem most effectual for giving notice of the subject of such claim to all parties interested therein, in all parts of the said colony.

4. That such claims for compensation be made to the Assistant Commissioners, in the respective colonies, in duplicate, and that one part be transmitted by them to the Commissioners in London, and filed in their office, and the other kept and filed in the office of the Assistant Commissioners.

5. That any person having, or claiming to have, any right, title, or interest, in or to, or any mortgage, judgment, charge, incumbrance, or lien upon any slave or slaves included in such claims, or any right, title, or interest thereto, under or by virtue of any deed, will, testamentary instrument, or conveyance whatsoever, or in any other manner whatsoever, and claiming to receive the compensation for such slave or slaves, or any of them, in opposition to the original claimant, shall prefer a counter claim before the Assistant Commissioners in the respective colonies on or before the 1st of May 1835, or in London, before the Commissioners on or before the 1st of September 1835: Provided always, that in case no original claim shall have been filed within the time limited by the first rule for that purpose, any person claiming a right to receive the compensation as above mentioned, or any part thereof, may prefer his claim thereto instead of a counter claim, and such claim shall be deemed and taken and be made in the same form, and be subject to the same rules of proceeding in all respects as a counter claim, and with the same liberty of replying thereto as hereinafter directed, as if an original claim had been preferred.

6. That in cases in which no counter claim shall have been preferred in the colonies on or before the 1st of May 1835, the Assistant Commissioners within their respective colonies, shall report the amount of compensation which may appear to them to be due upon each of the several claims, on application of the parties, or their agents, and transmit forthwith copies or lists of such several reports to the Commissioners in London; and in cases in which no counter claim shall have been preferred before the Commissioners in London, on or before the 1st of September 1835, the Commissioners may proceed to award the compensation according to the several claims upon the application of the parties or their agents.

7. That in all cases in which a counter claim for the whole or any part of the compensation shall be preferred, such counter claim shall set forth the estate or interest, right or title, intended to be insisted on, and the dates, parties, and legal effect of the deeds or other instruments under which the counter claim is made, with the date of registration in the proper office in the colony; and in all cases of mortgage, judgment, charge, incumbrance, or lien, such counter claim shall also set forth for what sum the same was granted or recovered, what payments (if any) have been made thereon, and the dates of such payment, and what remains due thereon, whether the same is the prior lien or otherwise, on the property included therein, and also the legal effect of such securities upon slaves, according to the law and usage of the particular colony in which such slaves have been registered or settled; and that in addition thereto, the substance of such counter claim be embodied and arranged in the tabular form hereunto annexed, marked (C.)

8. That upon such counter claim being filed within the limited periods aforesaid, notice thereof be forthwith given by the party making the same to the party against whom it is made, or his agent, and a copy thereof be furnished to such party or his agent on application at the office of the Commissioners, or of the Assistant Commissioners in the colony.

9. That within three months after such counter claim has been filed, and such notice given, the original claimant may file a replication to the said counter claim before the Assistant Commissioners, or the Commissioners in London, and give notice forthwith of such replication to the counter claimant, or his agent, and a copy thereof be furnished to such counter claimant, or his agent, on application at the office of the Commissioners in London, or of the Assistant Commissioners in the colony.

10. That in case no replication be filed within the time aforesaid, the Commissioners may, on proof of notice of the counter claim having been served on the original claimant, or his agent, proceed to consider the claim and counter claim, and give such further directions, and make such award as to them shall seem fit in respect to the compensation to be paid thereon.

11. That in case a replication shall be filed within the time aforesaid, the Commissioners may, either upon application of the parties interested, or their agent for such purpose, or if to the Commissioners it shall seem fit, direct proof to be adduced in support of such claim, counter claim, or replication, by the production of deeds or other documents, or by interrogatories on oath or affirmation, to be drawn and exhibited to the parties or witnesses, or by affidavits, or by vide voce examination of witnesses, as the case may require.

SLAVE COMPENSATION RULES.

xlv

12. That on such proof as aforesaid being made, the Commissioners shall, on the application of any of the parties interested, or their agents, cause a notice to issue to all the claimants and counter claimants in such proceedings named, that the said Commissioners will on a day in such notice to be named, proceed to make their adjudication and award; copies of such notice to be served by the party applying for the same on all such claimants and counter claimants, or their agents.

13. That with the consent of the several parties, the Assistant Commissioners in their respective colonies be authorized to consider and proceed according to the several rules hereinbefore stated, to ascertain and report the amount of compensation appearing to be due to any of the litigant parties, in cases of contested claims, and transmit forthwith lists or copies of their proceedings and reports to the Commissioners.

14. That the Commissioners shall, upon such proceedings and reports being received from the Assistant Commissioners, proceed to the adjudication and award of the compensation which shall appear to be due according to such lists, reports, and proceedings.

15. That all persons claiming to act on behalf of any party interested in the said compensation monies shall lodge with the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners, as the case may be, a power of attorney, or other authority, under the hand of the party or parties so interested, to be registered in the proceedings of the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners, and no other than the person or persons named in such power of attorney or authority shall be entitled to act in that behalf so long as such power shall continue in force.

(Signed) (L. S.) JAMES LEWIS.

(L. S.) JOHN GEORGE SHAW LEFEVRE.

(L. S.) SAMUEL DUCKWORTH.

(L. S.) THOMAS AMYOT.

(L. S.) HENRY FREDERICK STEPHENSON.

(L. S.) HASTINGS ELWIN.

Name of Estate, or Domicils of Slaves.	(A.) [Name of Colony.] RETURN Of the NUMBER of SLAVES and ESTIMATED VALUE thereof, in each Class, in Possession of on the 1st day of August 1834.	No.
--	--	-----

TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVES

DIVISIONS.	No.	CLASSES.	Male.	Female.	No.	Value in Sterling.
Prædial Attached.	1	Head People
	2	Tradesmen
	3	Inferior Tradesmen
	4	Field Labourers
	5	Inferior Field Labourers
Prædial Unattached.	1	Head People
	2	Tradesmen
	3	Inferior Tradesmen
	4	Field Labourers
	5	Inferior Field Labourers
Non-Prædial.	1	Head Tradesmen
	2	Inferior Tradesmen
	3	Head People employed on Wharfs, Shipping, or other Avocations }
	4	Inferior People of the same description
	5	Head Domestic Servants
	6	Inferior Domesticities
Children under Six Years of Age on the 1st of August, 1834 ..
Aged, Diseased, or otherwise Non-effective

WE, the undersigned, being two of the Valuers appointed to classify and value the slaves in the above-named Colony, do on our oaths declare, after due examination and inquiry, that the above Return is a just, true, and accurate Classification and valuation of the slaves therein mentioned, on the 1st day of August, 1834, according to the best of our knowledge, information, and belief.

SLAVE COMPENSATION RULES.

Dated this day of 1834.
Sworn this day of 1833 } (Signed)
Before me

(B.)

FORM OF CLAIM,

FOR THE COMPENSATION TO BE AWARDED FOR SLAVES.

Name of Estate, } [Name of Colony.] { No. or Domicile of Slaves. } (Same No. as Return.)

The claim of A. B. of [as owner in fee &c. (a)] (by C. D. his Attorney as the case may be) to the comin the parish of Slaves in the possession of the said A. B. on the 1st day of August 1834, duly registered pensation for [except as undermentioned (b)] and described in the return made thereof, on the day of 1834.
(Signed, &c.)

(a) Character in which the claim is made, as

Owner in fee,	}	Guardian,
Tenant in Tail for life,		Sequestrator,
or years,		Committee,
Mortgagee,		Executor,
Trustee,		Administrator,
Receiver,		or otherwise.

(b) In case any children shall have been born between the last registration and the 1st of August 1834, and included in the return, their names, ages, and names of Mothers to be stated at foot of the claim.

And in case the property in any slave or slaves shall have been changed between the last registration and the 1st of August 1834, the claimant must briefly state his title from the person in whose name the slaves were last registered.

(C.)

FORM OF COUNTER CLAIM.

Name of Estate, } [Name of Colony.] { No. or Domicile of Slaves. } (Same number as Claim or Return.)

The Counter Claim of A. B. of [by C. D. his Attorney, as the case may be] in respect of certain Slaves registered in the said Colony, and in the possession of and described in the return thereof, dated the day of 1834.

[Particulars of Counter Claim.]

SLAVE COMPENSATION RULES.

xlvii

SCHEDULE TO COUNTER CLAIM.

Name of Estate, or Domicile of Slaves. }

[Name of Colony.]

No. (Same Number as the Claim
or Return.) }

Name and Address of Party preferring Counter Claim.	Description of Estate, Right, Title, or Interest of Counter Claimant, with a reference to Do- cuments in support thereof.	Amount due on Mortgage, Judg- ment, or other Lien or Incumbrance, in Sterling Money.	Description of Slaves, being the object of Counter Claim.	Number of Slaves.	Estimated Value of Slaves in Sterling, com- prised in Counter Claim.
			PRÆDIAL ATTACHED. 1. Head People 2. Tradesmen 3. Inferior Tradesmen 4. Field Labourers..... 5. Inferior Field Labourers .. PRÆDIAL UNATTACHED. 1. Head People 2. Tradesmen 3. Inferior Tradesmen 4. Field Labourers..... 5. Inferior Field Labourers .. NON-PRÆDIAL. 1. Head Tradesmen 2. Inferior Tradesmen 3. Head People employed on Wharfs, Shipping, or other Avocations } 4. Inferior People of the same description } 5. Head Domestic Servants .. 6. Inferior Domesticities Children under 6 Years of Age on the 1st of August 1834 } Aged, Diseased, or otherwise Non-effective }

TABLE

OF

All the STATUTES passed in the SECOND Session of the TWELTH Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

6 & 7 WILL. IV.

PUBLIC GENERAL ACTS.

- I. AN Act to apply certain Sums to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six—seven 3
- II. An Act for raising the sum of Fifteen Millions by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six—seven 3
- III. An Act for vesting the Office of Constable of the Castle of Saint Briavel's in the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings; and for vesting the Office of Keeper of the Forest of Dean in the county of Gloucester in the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings 4
- IV. An Act to amend an Act of the last Session for abolishing Capital Punishments in Cases of Letter Stealing and Sacrilege 5
- V. An Act for carrying into further Execution Two Acts of His present Majesty, relating to the Compensation for Slaves upon the Abolition of Slavery, and for facilitating the Distribution and Payment of such Compensation 5
- VI. An Act for carrying into effect a Treaty made between His Majesty and the Queen Regent of Spain for the Abolition of the Slave Trade 9
- VII. An Act to indemnify such Persons in the United Kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments, and for extending the time limited for those Purposes respectively until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; to permit such Persons in Great Britain as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attorneys and Solicitors to make and file the same on or before the First Day of Hilary Term One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and to allow Persons to make and file such Affidavits, although the Persons whom they served shall have neglected to take out their Annual Certificates 20
- VIII. An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters 22
- IX. An Act for the Regulation of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore 23
- X. An Act to indemnify Witnesses who may give Evidence before the Lords Spiritual and Temporal on a Bill to exclude the Borough of Stafford from sending Burgesses to serve in Parliament 23
- XI. An Act for the Registration of Aliens, and to repeal an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty for that Purpose 23
- XII. An Act for amending an Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled, 'An Act for the better Regulation of Divisions in the several Counties of England and Wales' 25
- XIII. An Act to consolidate the Laws relating to the Constabulary Force in Ireland 26
- XIV. An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts in Ireland 36
- XV. An Act to amend an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of His present Majesty, in order to enable certain Seamen belonging to Shetland or Orkney to pay certain Sums of Money, payable under that Act to the Seamen's Fund, at Lerwick in Shetland or Kirkwall in Orkney 58
- XVI. An Act to revive and continue in force, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty, an Act of the Legislature of Jamaica to explain and amend an Act for the Abolition of Slavery in that Island, and in aid of the same 60
- XVII. An Act to make Provision for the better Administration of Justice in certain of His Majesty's West India Colonies 60
- XVIII. An Act to apply the Sum of Eight Millions, out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six 64
- XIX. An Act for separating the Palatine Jurisdiction of the County Palatine of Durham from the Bishopric of Durham 65
- XX. An Act for imposing certain Restrictions on the Renewal of Leases by Ecclesiastical Persons 66
- XXI. An Act to provide that Persons in Scotland accused of

A TABLE OF THE STATUTES, (Public General) 6 & 7 WILL. IV. xlix

Letter Stealing shall not be entitled to Liberation on Bail unless in certain Cases	68	several Acts relating to the Importation and keeping of Arms and Gunpowder in Ireland	103
XXII. An Act to enable Bastards in Scotland to make Testaments	68	XL. An Act to continue for One Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the several Acts for regulating the Turnpike Roads in Ireland	104
XXIII. An Act to continue for Three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Acts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland	69	XLI. An Act to abolish the Commissary Court of Edinburgh, and to regulate the Mode of taking Proofs in Consistorial Causes in Scotland	104
XXIV. An Act to render valid certain Marriages solemnized in a Chapel of Ease, in the Parish of Wandsworth in the County of Surrey, called St. Ann's Chapel	69	XLII. An Act to grant certain Powers to Heirs of Entail in Scotland, and to authorize the Sale of Entailed Lands for the Payment of certain Debts affecting the same	105
XXV. An Act for granting an additional Rate of Postage on Letters between Great Britain and Ireland by way of Milford and Waterford	69	XLIII. An Act to provide for the taking of Judicial Ratifications of Scottish Deeds on Oath as heretofore	108
XXVI. An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, certain Duties on Sugars imported into the United Kingdom, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six	70	XLIV. An Act to continue the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament	133
XXVII. An Act for investing in Government Securities further Portions of the Cash lying unemployed in the Bank of England belonging to Bankrupts' Estates	71	XLV. An Act to transfer the Collection and Management of the Duties in Great Britain on Horses let for Hire, and on Licences relating to the same, from the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes to the Commissioners of Excise ..	109
XXVIII. An Act to enable Persons to make Deposits of Stock for Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond to the Postmaster General, and Commissioners of Land Revenue, Customs, Excise, Stamps and Taxes	73	XLVI. An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Ninth Year of His late Majesty, for the Administration of Justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land	110
XXIX. An Act for improving the Police in the District of Dublin Metropolis	75	XLVII. An Act to continue until the 1st Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the several Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors in India	110
XXX. An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts of the Ninth and Tenth Years of King George the Fourth as directs the Period of the Execution and the Prison Discipline of Persons convicted of the Crime of Murder	83	XLVIII. An Act to Indemnify the Governors and others of the Islands of Antigua, Saint Christopher, Nevis, and Montserrat for having permitted the Importation of certain Articles Duty-free	110
XXXI. An Act to amend an Act of His late Majesty King George the Second, for the Encouragement of building of Chapels of Ease in Ireland	84	XLIX. An Act to enable the Master of the Rolls to demise Part of the Rolls Estate to the Society of Judges and Serjeants	111
XXXII. An Act for the Regulation of Benefit Building Societies	86	L. An Act to authorize the placing of the Horse Patrol now acting under the Authority of the Chief Magistrate of the Public Office in Bow Street under the Authority of the Justices appointed for the Metropolitan Police District ..	111
XXXIII. An Act to amend and regulate the Law of Scotland as to Erasures in Instruments of Sasine and of Resignation ad remanentiam	87	LI. An Act for converting the Richmond General Penitentiary into one of the Prisons for the County of the City of Dublin, and to amend the Law relating to Prisons in Ireland	113
XXXIV. An Act to amend an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth for the better Administration of Justice at the holding of Petty Sessions by Justices of the Peace in Ireland	88	LII. An Act to repeal the Duties and Drawbacks of Excise on Paper printed, painted, or stained in the United Kingdom; and to reduce the Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks on Paper, Button-board, Mill-board, Paste-board, and Scale-board, made in the United Kingdom, of the First Class; and to discontinue the Excise Survey on the Manufacturers of certain Articles made from Paper, and on Dealers in and Retailers of Vinegar	115
XXXV. An Act for further improving the Road between London and Holyhead, by Coventry, Birmingham, and Shrewsbury	91	LIII. An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant Admiralty Jurisdiction to the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales's Island, Singapore, and Malacca	120
XXXVI. An Act to amend an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for consolidating the Laws relating to the Constabulary Force in Ireland	91	LIV. An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Conveyance of Newspapers by the Post	120
XXXVII. An Act to repeal the several Acts now in force relating to Bread to be sold out of the City of London and the Liberties thereof and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange; and to provide other Regulations for the making and Sale of Bread, and for preventing the Adulteration of Meal, Flour, and Bread, beyond the Limits aforesaid	93	LV. An Act to amend the Laws relating to Loan Societies in Ireland	125
XXXVIII. An Act to amend an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled 'An Act to amend the Laws relating to Excise Licences, and to the Sale of Wine, Spirits, Beer, and Cider by Retail, in Ireland'	99	LVI. An Act for regulating the Process of Cessio bonorum in the Court of Session, and for extending the Jurisdiction of Sheriffs in Scotland to such Cases	129
XXXIX. An Act to continue for One Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the

A TABLE OF THE STATUTES,

LXVII. An Act for the Prevention and Punishment of Offences committed by His Majesty's Subjects within certain Territories adjacent to the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope	132
LXVIII. An Act for declaring the Law as to the Day on which it is requisite to present for Payment to the Acceptors or Acceptor supra Protest for Honour, or to the Referees or Referee in case of Need, Bills of Exchange which had been dishonoured	133
LIX. An Act to extend the Protection of Copyright in Prints and Engravings to Ireland	133
LX. An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs,	134
LXI. An Act to assimilate the Law of Ireland to that of England in respect to the Liability of Owners of Vessels for Losses by Fire	137
LXII. An Act for continuing, until the first Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, the several Acts for regulating the Turnpike Roads in Great Britain which will expire with the present or the next Session of Parliament	138
LXIII. An Act to facilitate, until the Nineteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, the Recovery of certain Arrears of Highway Rates and Composition in lieu of Statute Duty	138
LXIV. An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament for imposing certain Restrictions on the Renewal of Leases by Ecclesiastical Persons	138
LXV. An Act for granting Relief from the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and on Stage Carriages, in certain Cases, and to regulate the charging of the Duty payable for taking or killing Game, in Great Britain; and to provide for the Collection of certain Local Taxes in Scotland	139
LXVI. An Act to prevent the advertising of Foreign and other illegal Lotteries	142
LXVII. An Act for suspending for One Year Appointments to certain Dignities and Offices in Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and to Sinecure Rectories	142
LXVIII. An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty, for providing for the Government of His Majesty's Settlements in Western Australia, on the Western Coast of New Australia	143
LXIX. An Act to fix the Standard Qualities of Gold and Silver Plate in Scotland, and to provide for the assaying and marking thereof	143
LXX. An Act to facilitate the Conveyance of Sites for School Rooms	149
LXXI. An Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales [Appendix, i—xvi]	150
LXXII. An Act to impose countervailing Duties of Excise on Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, and Commodities made from or with Spirits removed from Ireland to England or Scotland, or from Scotland to England, and to grant countervailing Drawbacks on the Removal of the same; to repeal the additional Duties of Excise on Licences to Retailers of Spirits in the United Kingdom; and to alter the Laws relating to Distillers and Retailers of Spirits	150
LXXIII. An Act to continue until the First of July next, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of His Present Majesty, relating to the Dispatch of Business done by the Court of Exchequer in Scotland	154
LXXIV. An Act to abolish certain Offices connected with the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and to provide for the Performance of the Duties thereof	154
LXXV. An Act to extend the Jurisdiction and regulate the Proceedings of the Civil Bill Courts in Ireland	161
LXXVI. An Act to reduce the Duties on Newspapers, and to amend the Laws relating to the Duties on Newspapers and Advertisements	172
LXXVII. An Act for carrying into effect the Reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the State of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, so far as they relate to Episcopal Dioceses, Revenues, and Patronage	184
LXXVIII. An Act to enable His Majesty to make Regulations for the better defining and establishing the Powers and Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Consuls in the Ottoman Dominions	189
LXXIX. An Act for vesting Lighthouses, Lights, and Sea Marks on the Coasts of England in the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strand; and for making Provisions respecting Lighthouses, Lights, Buoys, Beacons, and Sea Marks, and the Tolls and Duties payable in respect thereof	190
LXXX. An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting an Aid by a Land Tax, and for continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions	204
LXXXI. An Act to authorize His Majesty, until Six Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, to carry into immediate Execution, by Orders in Council, any Treaties, Conventions, or Stipulations made with any Foreign Power or State for the Suppression of the Slave Trade	204
LXXXII. An Act to carry into further Execution an Act for compensating Owners of Slaves upon the Abolition of Slavery, and for completing the full Payment of such Compensation	204
LXXXIII. An Act for the regulation of the Offices of Vice Treasurer and Teller of the Exchequer in Ireland	207
LXXXIV. An Act to consolidate and amend the several Acts for the uniform Valuation of Lands and Tenements in Ireland, and to incorporate certain detached Portions of Counties and Baronies with those Counties and Baronies respectively whereto the same may adjoin, or wherein the same are locally situate	207
LXXXV. An Act for Marriages in England [Appendix, xvi—xxiv]	220
LXXXVI. An Act for Registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England [Appendix, xxiv—xxiii]	220
LXXXVII. An Act for distinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Ely in certain Liberties in the Counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge	220
LXXXVIII. An Act to suspend to the End of the next Session of Parliament the making of Lists and the Ballots and Enrolments for the Militia of the United Kingdom	222
LXXXIX. An Act to provide for the Attendance and Remuneration of Medical Witnesses at Coroners' Inquests [Appendix, xxxiii—xxxiv]	223
XC. An Act to continue until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Fifty-fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Third, for rendering the Payment of Creditors more equal and expeditious in Scotland	223	civ. An Act for the better Administration of the Borough Fund in certain Boroughs [Appendix , xxxvii—xxxviii]	239

xcI. An Act to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to make and maintain a Road from the Church in the Parish of Sunk Island to the Town of Ottringham in the East Riding of the County of York.....	223	cv. An Act for the better Administration of Justice in certain Boroughs [Appendix , xxxviii—xli]	239
xcII. An Act to render valid certain Marriages solemnized in the Church of Saint Clement, Oxford.....	223	cvi. An Act to make Provision for the better and more expeditious Administration of Justice in the Stannaries of Cornwall, and for the enlarging the Jurisdiction and improving the Practice and Proceedings in the Courts of the said Stannaries	239 xcIII. An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; and to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven	223	cvII. An Act to extend the Period for the Repayment of Loans made under an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in England and Wales	247
xcIV. An Act to amend an Act for enabling His Majesty to carry into effect a Convention made between His Majesty the King of the French, the Emperor of all the Russias, and the King of Bavaria	224	cvIII. An Act to amend an Act passed in the First and Second Years of His present Majesty, for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland	248
xcv. An Act to suspend, until the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, Proceedings for recovering Payment of the Money advanced under the Acts for establishing Tithe Compositions in Ireland	224	cix. An Act to repeal certain Provisions respecting the Coal Trade	252
xcvi. An Act to regulate Parochial Assessments	225	cx. An Act to repeal so much of an Act of the Fifty-fourth Year of King George the Third respecting Copyrights as requires the Delivery of a Copy of every published Book to the Libraries of Sion College, the Four Universities of Scotland, and of the King's Inns in Dublin	253
xcvII. An Act for continuing and making perpetual the Duty on certain Offices and Pensions	227	cxI. An Act to prevent the Fact of a previous Conviction being given in Evidence to the Jury on the Case before them, except when Evidence to Character is given [Appendix , xli].....	254
xcvIII. An Act to supply the Sum of Four Millions out of the Consolidated Fund for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament	229	cxII. An Act for further facilitating the hearing and determining of Suits in Equity in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster.....	254
xcix. An Act to amend Two Acts passed respectively in the Third and Fourth and in the Fourth and Fifth Years of His present Majesty, for altering and amending the Laws relating to the Temporalities of the Church of Ireland ..	229	cxIII. An Act for raising the Sum of Fourteen millions seven thousand nine hundred and fifty Pounds by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six	254
c. An Act to restrain the Alienation of Corporate Property in certain Towns in Ireland	238	cxIV. An Act for enabling Persons indicted of Felony to make their Defence by Counsel or Attorney [Appendix , xli] 255
ci. An Act to legalize certain Lists of Voters and of Claims and Objections for the present Year [Appendix , xxxiv—xxxv]	237	cxv. An Act for facilitating the Inclosure of Open and Arable Fields in England and Wales	255
cII. An Act for rendering more easy the taking the Poll at County Elections	238	cxvi. An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland	267
cIII. An Act to make temporary Provision for the Boundaries of certain Boroughs [Appendix , xxxv—xxxvii]	239	cxvII. An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Harbour of Kingstown.....	306

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ACTS,

DECLARED PUBLIC,

AND TO BE JUDICIALLY NOTICED.

6 & 7 WILL. IV.

- i. An Act for better lighting with Gas the Borough of Reading and Hamlet of Whitley in the County of Berks, by a Company to be called the Reading Union Gas Company.
- ii. An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for repairing the Road from Farborough to Riverhill, in the Parish of Sevenoaks in the County of Kent; and for making a new Line of Road to communicate therewith.
- iii. An Act for removing the Markets held in the Town or Village of Bridgend in the County of Glamorgan, and for providing other Market Places in lieu thereof, and for regulating and maintaining the same.
- iv. An Act to establish a Company for more effectually lighting with Gas the City and County of the City of Exeter and certain Parishes and Places in the County of Devon.
- v. An Act for the better supplying the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, and the Neighbourhood thereof, with Gas.
- vi. An Act for extending the Time for building a Bridge over the River Avon from Clifton in the County of Gloucester to the opposite Side of the River in the County of Somerset.
- vii. An Act to incorporate the Subscribers to the Middlesex Hospital, and for better enabling them to carry on their charitable Designs.
- viii. An Act for repairing and maintaining the Road from Rochdale in the County Palatine of Lancaster to Halifax and Ealand in the West Riding of the County of York.
- ix. An Act for repairing the Road from the Town of Buckingham in the County of Buckingham to the West Chester or Holyhead Road in the Parish of Passenham in the County of Northampton, and from the North-east End of the Town of Stony Stratford to Newport Pagnell in the said County of Buckingham.
- x. An Act for making and maintaining a Turnpike Road and Branches leading from Radcliffe towards Bolton and Bury, all in the County of Lancaster.
- xi. An Act for erecting a County Hall and Courts of Justice, and for providing Accommodation for His Majesty's Justices of Assize, for the Eastern Part of the County of Suffolk.
- xii. An Act for building new Courts of Assize at Bodmin for the County of Cornwall, and for providing Judges Lodgings, and other Purposes connected therewith.
- xiii. An Act for the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Prestbury Division of the Hundred of Macclesfield in the County of Chester.
- xiv. An Act for making a Railway from Birmingham to Gloucester, with a Branch therefrom.
- xv. An Act to enable the Bristol and Clifton Oil Gas Company to produce Gas from Coal and other Materials; and to amend the Act relating to the said Company.
- xvi. An Act to enlarge the Powers of several Acts for effecting Improvements in the Streets and other Places within the Town of Manchester.
- xvii. An Act for making a Turnpike Road from Richmond to Reeth in the County of York.
- xviii. An Act for altering and amending an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, 'An Act for making and for more effectually maintaining and repairing certain Roads in the County of Lanark, and for building a Bridge over the River Clyde at Crossford in the said County.'
- xix. An Act for making and maintaining a Turnpike Road from Saint Leonards and Saint Mary Magdalen to the Royal Oak Inn at Whittington, and through Sedlescombe to Cripp's Corner in the Parish of Ewhurst, in the County of Sussex.
- xx. An Act to incorporate the Governors of the Westminster Hospital at the Broad Sanctuary, Westminster, and for conferring Powers the better to enable them to carry on their charitable Designs.
- xxi. An Act to enable the Proprietors or Shareholders of the Family Endowment Society to sue and be sued in the Name of any One of the Directors or of the Chairman or Secretary for the Time being of the said Society.
- xxii. An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the First and Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for better raising and securing the Fund established for making Provision for the Widows of the Writers to His Majesty's Signet in Scotland.
- xxiii. An Act for the more easy and speedy Recovery of - Small Debts within the Borough of Leicester in the County of Leicester.

- xxiv. An Act for erecting and maintaining a Justiciary Court Hall and other Apartments for the Use of the Justiciary Court at Glasgow, and also Public Offices for the City of Glasgow and the Lower Ward of the County of Lanark; and for other purposes therein mentioned.
- xxv. An Act for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving the Town of Crediton in the County of Devon.
- xxvi. An Act to enable John Howard Kyan to assign to a Company certain Letters Patent.
- xxvii. An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the Powers of an Act for lighting with Gas the City and County of the City of Exeter, and for lighting with Gas the several Parishes of Alphington, Heavitree, Saint Leonard, Saint Thomas the Apostle, and Topsham, in the County of Devon.
- xxviii. An Act for lighting with Gas the Towns of New Mills and Hayfield, and the Neighbourhoods thereof, in the County of Derby.
- xxix. An Act for making and maintaining a Dock or Docks at Southampton.
- xxx. An Act to enable the Wearmouth Dock Company to make and maintain a proper and convenient Entrance into the Wearmouth Dock at the Port of Sunderland in the County Palatine of Durham.
- xxxi. An Act to enlarge the Powers of the several Acts passed for making and maintaining the Saint Katherine Docks in the County of Middlesex.
- xxxii. An Act for making and maintaining a Railway from the Royal Burgh of Dundee in the County of Forfar to the Royal Burgh of Arbroath in the same County.
- xxxiii. An Act for making a Railway from the Town of Belfast to the City of Armagh in the Province of Ulster in Ireland.
- xxxiv. An Act for making and maintaining a Railway between the Royal Burgh of Arbroath in the County of Forfar and the Royal Burgh of Forfar in the same County.
- xxxv. An Act for making a Railway from the London and Birmingham Railway, near Birmingham, to Derby, to be called "The Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway," with a Branch.
- xxxvi. An Act for making a Railway from Bristol to Exeter, with Branches to the Towns of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset and Tiverton in the County of Devon.
- xxxvii. An Act for making a Railway from Aylesbury to join the London and Birmingham Railway near the Village of Cheddington in the County of Buckingham.
- xxxviii. An Act to alter the Line of the Great Western Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto.
- xxxix. An Act for building a Bridge over the River Aire at Leeds, and for making convenient Roads, Avenues, and Approaches thereto.
- xl. An Act for amending and enlarging the Powers of the several Acts for building a Bridge over the River Thames at Henley-upon-Thames in the County of Oxford.
- xli. An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, 'An Act for repairing, enlarging, and preserving the Harbour of Aberystwyth in the County of Cardigan.'
- xlii. An Act for improving, maintaining, and regulating the Harbour of Teignmouth and the Navigation of the River Teign in the County of Devon.
- xliii. An Act for improving, enlarging, and extending the Firth and Clyde Navigation, and certain Harbours and Works belonging thereto and connected therewith; and for making and maintaining Two Branch Cuts or Canals from the said Navigation.
- xliv. An Act to enable the British Alkali Company to sue and be sued in the Name of the Secretary or of any One Member for the Time being of the said Company.
- xlv. An Act for establishing a General Cemetery in the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham.
- xlvi. An Act for making and maintaining as Turnpike a Road leading from the Flimwell to Hastings Turnpike Road at or near Beaupre in the Parish of Hollington to Hastings in the County of Sussex.
- xlvii. An Act for repairing and improving certain Roads in and leading to and from the Town and County of the Town of Poole, and for making certain new Lines of Road in the said Town and County, and leading thence towards Wareham and Blandford in the County of Dorset.
- xlviii. An Act for more effectually repairing the Road from the Totnes Road at Lady Down in the Parish of Ugborough to within Four hundred Yards of the Bridge over the Lary, and for repairing the Road communicating therewith from Hollowcombe Cross to the Town of Modbury and Dark Lane, all in the County of Devon.
- xlix. An Act for more effectually repairing the Roads from Harlow Bush Common to and into the Parish of Woodford, and the Road from Epping to Writtle, and other roads therein mentioned, all in the County of Essex.
- i. An Act for the more effectually repairing, improving, and maintaining the Road from the Town of Ashford to the Town of Maidstone in the County of Kent.
- ii. An Act to make and maintain a Canal in the County of Dumbarton from the Firth and Clyde Canal to the River of Clyde, opposite to the River of Cart.
- iii. An Act to amend and enlarge the several Acts relating to the Bolton and Leigh Railway, and for other Purposes.
- liii. An Act for repairing and improving the Road from Wakefield to Sheffield in the County of York.
- liv. An Act for enabling the Universal Life Assurance Society to sue and be sued in the Name of the Actuary for the Time being or of any One of the Directors of the said Society.
- lv. An Act for granting further Powers to a Company called "The Imperial Continental Gas Association."
- lvi. An Act to amend an Act to enable the Birmingham Coal Company to sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary or One of the Members of the said Company; and to authorize the said Company to borrow a further Sum of Money; and for other Purposes relating to the said Company.
- lvii. An Act for incorporating certain Persons for carrying into effect the Purposes of an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for enabling John Brandling and Robert William Brandling Esquires to purchase and take Leases of Lands and Hereditaments for the Formation of a Railway from Gateshead to South Shields and Monkwearmouth, all in the County Palatine of Durham, with Branches therefrom; and for other Purposes.'
- lviii. An Act for better supplying with Water the Township of Dukinfield in the County Palatine of Chester.
- lix. An Act for better paving, lighting, watching, and improving the Town of Teignmouth in the County of Devon, and for supplying the Inhabitants thereof with Water.
- lx. An Act to enable the Carlisle Canal Company to make a

- Dock or Docks at Port Carlisle otherwise Fishers Cross, and for amending and enlarging the Powers and Provisions of the Act for making and maintaining the said Canal.
- lxi. An Act to alter, amend, and extend the Powers of an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for more effectually maintaining, improving, and extending the Harbour of Dundee, in the County of Forfar.
- lxii. An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the Road from the Eastern End of the Borough of Grampound, through the Towns of Saint Austell and Lostwithiel, and thence to the East End of the Western Tophouse Lane, in the County of Cornwall; and for making and maintaining certain new Roads communicating therewith.
- lxiii. An Act for making a Railway from the London and Greenwich Railway to the Deptford Pier, to be called 'The Deptford Pier Junction Railway.'
- lxiv. An Act to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Bristol to raise a Sum of Money towards discharging the Monies borrowed under the Authority of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.
- lxv. An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the more effectual Preservation and Increase of the Breed of Salmon, and for better regulating the Fisheries in the River Tweed, and the Rivers and Streams running into the same, and also within the Mouth or Entrance of the said River.'
- lxvi. An Act for regulating, preserving, and improving the Port or Harbour of Newport in the County of Monmouth.
- lxvii. An Act for better supplying with Water the City of Gloucester and Parishes and Places in the County of Gloucester near thereto.
- lxviii. An Act to alter and enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for incorporating the Hungerford Market Company.
- lxix. An Act to enable Charles Herbert Earl Manvers to endow the Chapelry of Perlethorp in the Parish of Ewdinstowe in the County of Nottingham, to create the same a separate Benefice, and to vest the Nomination of the Incumbents thereof in the said Earl and his Heirs.
- lxx. An Act to provide for the better Regulation of certain Common Pastures within the Borough of Beverley in the East Riding of the County of York.
- lxxi. An Act to extend the Time limited by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the improvement of the Newry Navigation.
- lxxii. An Act to amend and enlarge the Powers and Provisions of the several Acts for making the Ulster Canal in the Counties of Fermanagh, Monaghan, and Armagh, in Ireland.
- lxxiii. An Act to enable the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital to improve a certain Street called King Street, in the Parish of Greenwich in the County of Kent; and for other Purposes.
- lxxiv. An Act for improving the Approach to the Town of Newton Abbot from the City of Exeter through the Village of Kingsteignton, in the County of Devon.
- lxxv. An Act for making a Railway from the London and Croydon Railway to Dover to be called 'The South-eastern Railway.'
- lxxvi. An Act for making and maintaining a Railway from the Town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne in the County of the Town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne to North Shields in the County of Northumberland, with a Branch thereout in the County of Northumberland.
- lxxvii. An Act for making a Railway from Cheltenham and from Gloucester, to join the Great Western Railway near Swindon, to be called 'The Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway,' with a Branch to Cirencester.
- lxxviii. An Act for making a Railway, with Branches, commencing at the London and Birmingham Railway in the Parish of Rugby in the County of Warwick, to communicate with the Towns of Leicester, Nottingham, and Derby, to be called 'The Midland Counties Railway.'
- lxxix. An Act for making a Railway from the Basin of the Kensington Canal at Kensington to join the London and Birmingham and Great Western Railways at or near Holsden Green in the County of Middlesex, and to be called 'The Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway.'
- lxxx. An Act for making a Railway from Kingston-upon-Hull to Selby.
- lxxxi. An Act for making a Railway from the City of York to and into the Township of Altofts, with various Branches of Railway, all in the West Riding of the County of York or County of the said City.
- lxxxii. An Act for making a Railway from Merthyr [Tydfil] to Cardiff, to be called 'The Taff Vale Railway,' with Branches.
- lxxxiii. An Act for more effectually improving and maintaining the Turnpike Road leading from the Cow-Cawsey near the Town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne to the Town of Belford, and from thence to Buckton Burn, in the County of Northumberland.
- lxxxiv. An Act to amend an Act of the Seventh year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for more effectually repairing and improving the several Roads leading to and from the Towns of Newton Bushell, South Bovey, and Mortonhamptead in the County of Devon.
- lxxxv. An Act to amend an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, for diverting, improving, and maintaining the Roads between the Towns of Birstall and Huddersfield in the West Riding of the County of York.
- lxxxvi. An Act for more effectually maintaining the Road from Teignmouth to Dawlish, and for making Roads from Dawlish to the Exeter Turnpike Roads, and certain Branches communicating with the same, all in the County of Devon; and to make and maintain other roads communicating with the said Roads.
- lxxxvii. An Act to vary and alter the Line of the Marlborough and Salisbury Road, and for making a Road from the same to Amesbury, in the County of Wilt.
- lxxxviii. An Act for authorizing the Trustees on the Bridges over the Clyde at Glasgow to continue, uphold, repair, and maintain the Wooden Bridge over the said River opposite to Portland Street of Laurieston; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.
- lxxxix. An Act for altering and extending the Powers of the Trustees upon the Road from Livingston by Shotts to the City of Glasgow, and placing under their Charge the Bridge across the River of Clyde called Hamilton Bridge, and the Avenues thereto, and the Road between the East and West Ends of the Town of Hamilton.
- xc. An Act for improving and maintaining the Navigation of the River Suir, and for making and constructing a Ship Canal at Carrick on Suir.
- xci. An Act for lighting with Gas and supplying with Water the Town of Tolcross and Places adjacent in the County of Lanark.
- xcii. An Act for altering and amending several Acts passed - for improving the Outfall of the River Nene and the Drainage of the Lands discharging their Waters into the Wisbech River.

- xciii. An Act for extending and improving the Maintenance of the Fire Police in the Borough of Liverpool.
- xciv. An Act for enlarging the embankment of a Reservoir in the Valley of Wessenden in the Township of Marsden and Parish of Almondbury in the West Riding of the County of York, and for other Purposes.
- xcv. An Act for providing a more abundant and regular Supply of Water in the River called the Upper Bann, in Ireland.
- xcvi. An Act for maintaining the Public Conduits and other Waterworks belonging to the Town of Southampton, and for providing an additional Supply of Water for the inhabitants of the said Town and Neighbourhood.
- xcvii. An Act for incorporating a Company for the Improvement of Waste Lands in Ireland.
- xcviii. An Act to alter and amend an Act of His present Majesty, for improving the Port and Harbour of Aberavon in the County of Glamorgan, to further improve the said Harbour, and to change its Name.
- xcix. An Act to enable the Proprietors or Shareholders of a Company called "The Bank of British North America" to sue and be sued in the Name of any One of the Directors or of the Secretary for the Time being of the said Company.
- c. An Act to authorize the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company to apply a Portion of certain Monies already subscribed in fulfilment of their Contracts for building Six additional Steam Vessels, and to legalize such Subscription.
- ci. An Act for improving the Navigation of a Portion of the River Parrett, and for making a Navigable Canal from the said River to Barrington, all in the County of Somerset.
- cii. An Act to amend the Acts for making a Railway from Dundee to Newtyle in the County of Forfar.
- ciii. An Act for making a Railway to form a Communication between London and Cambridge, with a view to its being extended hereafter to the Northern and Eastern Counties of England.
- civ. An Act for making a Railway to join the London and Birmingham Railway at or near the Regent's Canal in the Parish of Saint Pancras in the County of Middlesex, and proceed from thence to Skinner Street in the City of London, to be called "The London Grand Junction Railway."
- cv. An Act for making a Railway from near the River Tyne to or near the River Tees, to be called "The Great North of England Railway," in the County of Durham.
- cvi. An Act for making a Railway from London to Norwich and Yarmouth, by Romford, Chelmsford, Colchester, and Ipswich, to be called "The Eastern Counties Railway."
- cvi. An Act for making a Railway from Leeds to Derby, to be called "The North Midland Railway."
- cviii. An Act for making a Railway from or near Romford in the County of Essex to Shell Haven in the same County, and for constructing a Tide Dock at the Termination of the said Railway at Shell Haven aforesaid.
- cix. An Act for making a Railway from Sheffield to Rotherham, with a Branch therefrom to Greasbrough Canal, all in the West Riding of the County of York.
- cx. An Act to enable the Hayle Railway Company to make certain Alterations in the Lines of such Railway, and for other Purposes relating thereto.
- cx. An Act for making a Railway from Manchester to Leeds.
- cxii. An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the Powers and Provisions of an Act for making and maintaining a Pier or Jetty and other Works at Herne Bay in the Parish of Herne in the County of Kent; and for giving additional Powers to the Herne Bay Pier Company.
- cxiii. An Act for making and maintaining a Harbour and other Works at Sidmouth in the County of Devon.
- cxiv. An Act to extend the Time limited by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for improving the Navigation and Harbour of Tralee in the County of Kerry.
- cxv. An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal to connect the Rochdale Canal and the River Irwell in the Township of Manchester in the County of Lancaster.
- cxvi. An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for erecting a Bridge over the River Dungleddau, within the Town and County of Haverfordwest and the Liberties thereof.'
- cxvii. An Act for regulating and improving the Town of Galway in the County of the same Town.
- cxvii. An Act for repairing, maintaining, and improving the Road from Dewsbury to Ealand in the West Riding of the County of York.
- cxix. An Act to enable the Liverpool Fire and Life Insurance Company to sue and be sued in the Name of the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, or of any One of the Directors of the said Company; and for other Purposes.
- cxx. An Act for the Amendment of Three several Acts passed in the Sixth, Tenth, and Forty-seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Third, for the Recovery of Small Debts within the Hundreds of Blackheath, of Bromley and Beckenham, of Rokeley, otherwise Ruxley, and of Little and Lessness, in the County of Kent, and within the Hundred of Wallington in the County of Surrey; and to extend the Powers thereof.
- cxxi. An Act to enable the London and Croydon Railway Company to provide a Station and other Works in the Parish of Saint Olave in the Borough of Southwark in the County of Surrey; and to amend the Act relating to the said Railway.
- cxxi. An Act for making and maintaining a Railway from Preston to Longridge in the County Palatine of Lancaster.
- cxxi. An Act for making a Railway from the Minorities to Blackwall, with Branches, to be called "The Commercial Railway."
- cxxiv. An Act for making and maintaining a Harbour and Breakwaters at Tremouth Haven in the County of Cornwall; and for making and maintaining a Railway from thence to the Town of Launceston in the same County.
- cxv. An Act to amend an Act for more effectually maintaining and improving the Harbour of Dover in the County of Kent.
- cxvi. An Act to alter and amend the several Acts for the Improvement of the Harbour of Swansea in the County of Glamorgan, and for further improving the said Harbour.
- cxvii. An Act to rectify a Mistake in an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for improving and maintaining the Navigation of the River Suir, and for making and constructing a Ship Canal at Carrick on Suir.
- cxviii. An Act for making and maintaining a Pier, Wharf and other Works at Greenwich in the County of Kent.

- cxix. An Act for establishing a Cemetery for the Interment of the Dead, Southward of the Metropolis to be called "The South Metropolitan Cemetery."
- cxix. An Act for establishing a Joint Stock Company for the Prosecution and Extension of the Fisheries off the Shores of Ireland, and for the Improvement of the Sea Coasts in Connexion with such Fisheries.
- cxix. An Act for making and maintaining a Railway or Railways from the City of Edinburgh to Leith, and to the Shore of the Frith of Forth at or near to Newhaven and Trinity, all in the County of Edinburgh.
- cxix. An Act for making a Railway from Dublin to Drogheda.
- cxix. An Act for building a Foot Bridge over the River Thames from Hungerford Market in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields in the County of Middlesex to the opposite Shore in the Parish of Lambeth in the County of Surrey, and for making suitable Approaches thereto.
- cxix. An Act for erecting and maintaining a Bridge across the River Thames from Church Street in the Parish of Saint Mary Lambeth in the County of Surrey to the opposite Bank of the said River near Market Street in the Parish of St. John the Evangelist within the City and Liberty of Westminster in the County of Middlesex.
- cxix. An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for amending the Proceedings and Practice of the Court of Passage of the Borough of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster; and to repeal an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts in the Town and Port of Liverpool and Liberties thereof in the County Palatine of Lancaster;' and to give further Power for the Recovery of Small Debts within the Borough of Liverpool.
- cxix. An Act for establishing Cemeteries for the Interment of the Dead, Northward, Southward, and Eastward of the Metropolis, by a Company to be called "The London Cemetery Company."
- cxix. An Act to repeal Two Acts of the Reign of King George the Second, for the Recovery of Small Debts within the City and Liberty of Westminster, and for granting more effectual Powers for that Purpose.
- cxix. An Act for making and maintaining a Turnpike Road from Anniesland Toll Bar to Saint George's Road, and Branch Roads therewith connected, all in the County of Lanark.

PRIVATE ACTS,
PRINTED BY THE KING'S PRINTER, AND WHEREOF THE PRINTED COPIES MAY BE GIVEN IN EVIDENCE.

6 & 7 WILLIAM IV.

1. An Act for inclosing Lands in the Parish of Hardwick in the County of Cambridge.
2. An Act for inclosing Lands in the Parish of Wootton in the County of Bedford.
3. An Act for inclosing Lands in the Parish of Orwell in the County of Cambridge, and for commuting the Tithes of the said Parish.
4. An Act for inclosing Lands in the Parish of North Runc-ton in the County of Norfolk.
5. An Act for inclosing Lands in the Parish of Alveston in the County of Gloucester, and in the Tithing of Tockington Upper in the Parish of Olveston in the same County.
6. An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for inclosing certain Lands within the Parish of Alstonefield in the County of Stafford.
7. An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing Lands within the Parish and Manor of Godmanstone in the County of Dorset.
8. An Act for inclosing and exonerating from Tithes Lands in the Parish of Stepingley in the County of Bedford.
9. An Act for settling and securing certain Parts and Portions of the Lands and Estate of Delvine in the County of Perth to and in favour of Sir John Muir Mackenzie Baronet, and the Series of Heirs entitled to take by certain Deeds of Entail made by George Muir Esquire, and under the Con-ditions and Limitations contained therein; and for vest-ing in lieu thereof the Lands and Estate of Cassencarie and others lying in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright and Counties of Dumfries and Wigton in the said Sir John Muir Mackenzie, and his Heirs and Assigns, in fee Simple.
10. An Act to authorize the sale of One Fourth Part or Share of a certain Tenement and Farm called Limehurst, in the Parish of Ashton under Line in the County of Lancaster, late belonging to John Gartside of Haugh in the Parish of Rochdale in the said County of Lancaster, Yeoman, deceased, and for laying out the Purchase Money in the Purchase of other estates, to be settled to the same Uses.
11. An Act for inclosing Lands within the Parish of South Petherton in the County of Somerset.
12. An Act to enable Francis Earl of Moray to borrow a certain Sum of Money upon the Security of certain of his Entailed Estates, for repayment to him of a Portion of the Monies laid out by him in the Improvement of these Estates.
13. An Act to enable the Reverend James White and the Persons for the Time being entitled to certain Estates situate in the Parish of Bonchurch in the Isle of Wight in the County of Southampton, devised by the Will of Charles Fitzmaurice Hill Esquire, deceased, to grant Building Leases.
14. An Act to amend an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, for vesting the Lands and Barony of Dryden, and certain other Entailed Estates of Sir Charles Macdonald Lockhart Baronet, in Trustees, to be sold, and for laying out the Prices thereof in the Purchase of other Lands and Estates more conveniently situated, to be entailed in a similar Manner; to regulate the Manner of holding the said Estates; and to grant Powers of feuing to the Heirs of Entail.
15. An Act to vest a part of the Entailed Estate of Milliken in the County of Renfrew in Trustees, to sell the same, and apply the Price thereof, or the Securities to be granted there-on, towards satisfying the debts affecting the said Entailed Estate, and the Debt contracted for Money laid out in the Improvement of the same.
16. An Act for dividing, allotting, and laying in Severalty Lands in the Parishes of Marsh Baldon and Toot Baldon in the County of Oxford.
17. An Act to enable the Trustees of Bowdler's Blue Coat School in Shrewsbury to effect a Sale to John Jones Esquire of Estates called Trefnant and Llanerchrockwell in the Parish of Guilsfield in the County of Montgomery.
18. An Act to enable the granting of Leases of certain Parts of the Estates and Hereditaments of which the Right Honourable Henry Nevill Earl of Abergavenny is seised as Tenant in Tail Male under an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of King Philip, and Queen Mary, and under the Limitations in the Will of George Lord Abergavenny in the said Act of Philip and Mary mentioned.
19. An Act for enabling James Edward Bradshaw Esquire and others to grant Leases of Estates in the County Palatine of Lancaster, devised by the Will of John Bradshaw Esquire, deceased.
20. An Act for consolidating the Rectories of Alford and Hornblotton in the County of Somerset, and for settling the Advowson of such consolidated Rectory; and also for rectifying a Settlement made in pursuance of the Will of the late John Thring Esquire, under the direction of the High Court of Chancery, of Estates in the County of Somers-et; and for other purposes.
21. An Act for empowering the Governors and Corporation of Etwell Hospital and Repton Free School in the County of Derby to sell certain Parts of their Estates in the same County, and to lay out the Monies arising from the sale thereof in the Purchase of other estates, to be conveyed to the same Uses.
22. An Act for authorizing the Sale a Part of the Estate, devised by the Wills of John Walker Heneage Esquire and Arabella Walker Heneage, and for investing the Produc

- in the Purchase of other Estates, to be settled to the same Uses.
23. An Act for enabling the Earl of Courtown and the Trustees of his Marriage Settlement to grant Building Leases of Part of his settled Estates in Ireland.
24. An Act confirming a certain Lease granted by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, Governors of the Possessions, Revenues, and Goods of the Hospital of King Edward the Sixth, called Christ's Hospital, and for extending the powers to grant Building Leases given to them by An Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth.
25. An Act to explain and extend the Powers of the Governors of the Hospital in Edinburgh, founded by George Heriot, Jeweller to King James the Sixth.
26. An Act for enabling Franz Anton Bernhardt to assign to a Company, and for enabling them to purchase and carry into effect the purposes of a Patent granted to him for warming and ventilating Buildings; and for other Purposes.
27. An Act to invest Part of the Entailed Estate of Skibo and others in the county of Sutherland in Trustees in Fee Simple, for Sale, and to raise a further sum of Money by Loan, for the several Purposes therein mentioned.
28. An Act to enable Sir John Ogilvy Baronet, and the Heirs of Entail succeeding to him in the Estate of Cairnie and others, lying in the County of Forfar, to grant Feus of certain Parts thereof.
29. An Act for enlarging the Powers of an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for vesting the Estates devised by the Will of Hannah Pownall Widow, deceased, situate in the County of York, in Trustees, for sale, and for investing the Purchase Money in the Purchase of other Estates to be settled to the former Uses;' and for authorizing the rebuilding of certain Mills on the said devised Estates, called Copley Mills, out of the Monies to arise from such Sales, and out of the Monies to be raised by Mortgage of the said devised Estates remaining unsold.
30. An Act for authorizing a Sale of Glebe Land, belonging to the Vicarage of Dudley in the County of Worcester, and for other Purposes.
31. An Act for vesting certain detached Parts of the Lands and Estate of Douglaston and others, situated in the Counties of Stirling and Dumbarton which were entailed by John Glassford of Douglaston Esquire, deceased, in Trustees, to be sold for the Purpose of paying Debts and Charges affecting the Entailed Estate and of purchasing other Lands contiguous and convenient thereto.
32. An Act to authorize Grants and long Leases for Building Purposes of an Estate in the Parish of Rochdale in the County of Lancaster, being Part of the Settled Estates of the late Charles Chadwick Esquire.
33. An Act for rendering effectual an Agreement entered into by the Dean and Chapter of Worcester for enfranchising certain Lands and Hereditaments situate in the Parish of Stoke Prior in the County of Worcester, and Parcel of the Manor of Stoke Prior; and for other Purposes.
34. An Act for removing Doubts from the Title of Devises under the Bill of Eusebius Horton Esquire, deceased.
35. An Act for enabling the Right Honourable Louisa Augusta Baroness Langford to release her Husband the Right Honourable Hercules Langford Baron Langford, and his Estates in the County of Meath in Ireland, from a certain Annuity or yearly Rent-charge thereon.

PRIVATE ACTS,

NOT PRINTED.

36. An Act for naturalizing His Excellency Admiral Paul Tchitchagoff and Catherine Tchitchagoff his Daughter.
37. An Act for naturalizing Frederick Steiner.
38. An Act for naturalizing Nicholas Ring.
39. An Act for naturalizing John Peter Darthez the younger.
40. An Act for naturalizing Bernhard Michaelis.
41. An Act for naturalizing Julius Focke.
42. An Act to enable Edward Hicks Gentleman to use and bear the Surname and Arms of Hicks, in compliance with the Will of the Reverend James Hicks deceased.
43. An Act to dissolve the Marriage of Edward Hodges Esquire with Clara Rebecca his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again; and for other Purposes.
44. An Act for inclosing and exonerating from Tithes Lands in the Parish of Abbotsey in the County of Huntingdon.
45. An Act for naturalizing James Liebreich, Herrman Julius Marcus, Edward Wurtzburg, and Lewis Heymann.
46. An Act for naturalizing Peter Anthony Steinkeller.
47. An Act for naturalizing Edward Stopford Claremont.
48. An Act for naturalizing Hermann Philipp Rée.
49. An Act for naturalizing Leopold Reiss.
50. An Act for naturalizing Johann Daniel Sopchay.
51. An Act for naturalizing Johann Jacob Schmidt.
52. An Act to authorize Dame Mary the Wife of Sir William Pilkington Baronet to bear the Surnames of Milborne and Swinnerton jointly with the Surname of Pilkington, and to be called by the surnames of Milborne Swinnerton Pilkington; and for authorizing the said Sir William Pilkington and Dame Mary his Wife to bear or quarter the Arms of Swinnerton of Butterson and Milborne; and also for authorizing the Second Son of the said Sir William Pilkington and Dame Mary his Wife, and his Issue, to assume and bear the Surnames of Milborne Swinnerton in lieu of the Surname of Pilkington, and to bear or quarter the said Arms of Swinnerton of Butterson and Milborne, in compliance with a Condition contained in the Will of Thomas Swinnerton Esquire, deceased.
53. An Act for naturalizing Oscar Joseph de Satge Baron de Thoren.

INDEX

TO THE

PUBLIC GENERAL ACTS,

6 & 7 WILLIAM IV.

Shewing whether they relate to the Whole or to any Part of the United Kingdom, viz.

E. signifies that the Act relates to	England (and Wales; if the Subject extends so far).
S.	Scotland.
I.	Ireland.
E. & I.	England and Ireland.
G.B.	Great Britain.
G.B. & I.	Great Britain and Ireland.
U.K.	The Whole of the United Kingdom.

	Cap. Relating to.		Cap. Relating to.
Abolition of Slavery, for carrying into further Execution the Provisions of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, and 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 45, for compensating the Owners of Slaves upon the	5. U.K.	for having permitted the Importation of certain Articles Duty-free	48. U.K.
Abolition of the Slave Trade, for carrying into Effect a Treaty with the Queen of Spain	6. U.K.	Appropriation Acts	1. U.K. 18. U.K. 98. U.K.
— in Jamaica, reviving and continuing an Act of the Legislature of Jamaica for explaining and amending an Act for ..	16. U.K.	Arms, continuing for One Year the several Acts relating to the Importation and keeping of	39. I.
— authorizing His Majesty to carry into immediate Execution by Orders in Council any Treaties with Foreign Powers for	81. U.K.	Army, annual Act for the Payment, &c. of Assessed Taxes, for granting Relief from the Duties of, in certain Cases	8. U.K.
— to carry into further Execution the Act 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, for compensating Owners of Slaves upon the	82. U.K.	Assessments (Parochial), for regulating ..	65. G.B.
Administration of Justice in the West India Colonies, making Provision for ...	17. U.K.	Attornies Clerks, annual Indemnity Act for Persons omitting to make and file Affidavits for the Execution of Indentures of	96. E.
— at the holding of Petty Sessions, amending the Act 7 & 8 Geo. 4. c. 67, for	34. I.	Australia (Western), continuing [to 31st December 1838] the Act 10 Geo. 4. c. 22, for the Government of His Majesty's Settlements in	7. U.K. 88. U.K.
— in New South Wales and, Van Diemen's Land, continuing the Act 9 Geo. 4. c. 83, for	46. U.K.	Bankrupts, amending the Laws relating to — Estates of, investing in Government Securities further Portions of unemployed Cash lying in the Bank of England belonging to	14. I.
— in certain Boroughs	105. E.	Bastards, enabled to make Testaments ..	27. E.
— in the Stannaries of Cornwall	106. E.	Bavaria (King of), enabling His Majesty to carry into effect a Convention with ..	22. S.
Admiralty Jurisdiction, enabling His Majesty to grant, to the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales's Island, Singapore, and Malacca	63. U.K.	Beer, amending the Act 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 68, relating to the Sale of, by Retail Benefit Building Societies, for the Regulation of	94. U.K.
Advertisements, amending the Laws relating to the Duties on	76. U.K.	Bills of Exchange—for declaring the Law as to the Day on which it is requisite to present for Payment to the Ac-	38. I.
Aliens, for the Registration of	11. U.K.		32. E.
Antigua (Island), Governor of, indemnified

	Cap. Relating to.		Cap. Relating to.
ceptors or Acceptor supra Protest for Honour, or to the Referee or Referees in case of Need, Bills of Exchange which had been dishonoured	58. U.K.	Evidence to a Jury on a Case before them, except when Evidence to Character is given	111. E.
Births, Registry of	86. E.	Copyright, repealing so much of Act, 54 Geo. c. 156, respecting, as requires the Delivery of a Copy of every published Book to the Libraries of Sion College (London), the Four Universities of Scotland, and the King's Inns in Dublin	110. G.B. & I.
Boroughs, making temporary Provisions for the Boundaries of certain	103. E.	— in Prints and Engravings, extending the Protection of, to Ireland	59. I.
— for the better Administration of the Borough Fund in certain	104. E.	Coroners Inquests, providing for the Attendance and Remuneration of Medical Witnesses at	89. E.
— for the better Administration of Justice in certain	105. E.	Corporate Property, restraining the Alienation of, in certain Towns	100. I.
Bread, repealing Acts relating to the Sale of, out of the City of London and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality, &c.	37. E.	Counsel or Attorney, enabling Persons indicted of Felony to make their Defence by	114. E.
Briavel's (St.) Castle, vesting the Office of Constable of, in the First Commissioner of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues	3. E.	Counties, amending Act 9 Geo. 4. c. 43, for regulating the Divisions of	12. E.
Cape of Good Hope, for the Prevention and Punishment of Offences committed within certain Territories adjacent to the Colony of	57. U.K.	— Elections for, rendering more easy the taking the Poll at	102. E.
Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, suspending for One Year Appointments to certain Dignities in	67. E.	Court of Session, for regulating the Process of Cessio bonorum in	56. S.
Cessio Bonorum, for regulating the Process of, in the Court of Session, and for extending the Jurisdiction of Sheriffs to such Cases	56. S.	Creditors, continuing [to 1st May 1837] Act 54 Geo. 3. c. 137, for rendering the Payment of, more equal and expeditious Customs, amending the Laws relating to (Commissioners of), enabling Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond to	90. S. 60. U.K. 28. U.K.
Chancery (Court of) abolishing certain Offices connected with the, and providing for the Performance of the Duties thereof	74. I.	Dean Forest (Gloucester), vesting the Office of Keeper of, in the First Commissioner of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues	3. E.
Chapels of Ease, amending Act 1 Geo. 2. for encouraging the Building of	31. I.	Deaths, Registry of	86. E.
Christopher (St.), Governor of the Island of, indemnified for having permitted the Importation of certain Articles Duty-free	48. U.K.	Debtors (Insolvent), continuing for Three Years the Acts for the Relief of	23. I.
Church Temporalities, amending Acts relating to	99. I.	— continuing for One Year the Laws relating to	44. E.
Cider, amending the Act, 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 68, relating to the Sale of, by Retail	38. I.	— in India, continuing [to 1st March 1839] several Acts relating to	47. U.K.
Civil Bill Courts, extending the Jurisdiction and regulating the Proceedings of	75. I.	Deeds, providing for the taking of judicial Ratifications of, on Oath	43. S.
Coal Trade, for repealing certain Provisions respecting	109. E.	Dublin District, improving the Police of, (City), for converting the Richmond General Penitentiary at, into a Prison	29. I. 51. I.
Commissary Court at Edinburgh, abolishing	41. S.	Durham, separating the Palatine Jurisdiction of, from the Bishoprick of Durham	19. E.
Commutation of Tithes	71. E.	Ecclesiastical Persons, imposing certain Restrictions on the Renewal of Leases by	20. E. 64. E.
Compensation to Owners of Slaves on the Abolition of Slavery, carrying into further Execution the Provisions of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, and 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 45, for	5. U.K. 82. U.K.	Edinburgh, abolishing the Commissary Court of	41. S.
Consistorial Causes, regulating the Mode of taking Proofs in	41. S.	Elections (County), rendering more easy the taking the Poll at	102. E.
Constabulary Force, consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the	13. I. 36. I.	Ely (Bishop of), extinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of, in certain Liberties in the County of Cambridge	87. E.
Consuls in the Ottoman Dominions, enabling His Majesty to make Regulations defining and establishing the Power and Jurisdiction of	78. U.K.	Employments, annual Indemnity Act for Persons neglecting to qualify themselves for	7. U.K.
Conviction—To prevent the Fact of a previous Conviction from being given in

INDEX TO THE GENERAL ACTS, 6 & 7 WILL. IV.

lxi

	Cap. Relating to.		Cap. Relating to.
Entail (Heirs of), granting certain Powers to, and authorizing the Sale of Entailed Lands for the Payment of certain Debts	42. S.	Holyhead and London, for further improving the Road between, by Coventry, Birmingham, and Shrewsbury.....	35. E.
Erasures in Instruments of Sasine and of Resignation ad remanentiam	33. E.	Horse Patrol now acting under the Authority of the Chief Magistrate of Bow Street, authorizing the placing of, under the Authority of the Justices for the Metropolitan Police District	50. E.
Established Church, for carrying into effect the Report of the Commissioners appointed to consider the State of, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues	77. E.	Horses let to Hire, transferring the Collection, &c. of, from the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes to the Commissioners of Excise	46. G.B.
Exchequer, regulating the Offices of Vice Treasurer and Teller of.....	83. I.	Inclosure of Open and Arable Fields, for facilitating.....	116. E.
Exchequer Bills, raising 15,000,000l. ...	2. U.K.	Indemnity Act, annual.....	7. U.K.
— raising 14,007,950l.	113. U.K.	Insolvent Debtors, continuing for Three Years Act for the Relief of	23. I.
— enabling Persons to make Deposits of, in lieu of giving Security by Bond to the Postmaster General, the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Customs, Excise, Stamps, and Taxes	28. U.K.	— continuing for One Year the Laws relating to	44. E.
Exchequer (Court of), continuing 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 46, relating to the Dispatch of Business done by	73. S.	— in India, continuing [to 1st March 1839] several Acts relating to	47. U.K.
— facilitating the hearing and determining of Suits of Equity in	112. E.	Justice, for the better Administration of, in the West India Colonies	17. U.K.
Excise, Commissioners of, transferring to them the Collection, &c. of the Duties on Horses let to Hire, &c.	45. G.B.	— at the holding of Petty Sessions, amending Act 7 & 8 Geo. 4. c. 67, for ..	34. I.
— enabling Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond to	28. U.K.	— in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, continuing Act of 9 Geo. 4. c. 83. relating to	46. U.K.
Excise Duties on Stained Paper repealed; and for reducing the Duties, &c. on Paper, Button Board, &c. of the First Class, and for discontinuing the Excise Survey on the Manufactures of certain Articles made from Paper, and on Dealers in and Retailers of Vinegar ..	52. U.K.	— in certain Boroughs.....	105. E.
— imposing countervailing Duties on Mixtures, &c. made from Spirits removed from Ireland to England or Scotland, or from Scotland to England, and granting countervailing Drawbacks on the Removal thereof.....	72. U.K.	— in the Stannaries of Cornwall....	106. E.
— Licences, amending Act 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 68. relating to	38. I.	Kingstown Harbour, amending several Acts relating to.....	117. I.
Felony, enabling Persons indicted of, to make their Defence by Counsel or Attorney	114. E.	Land Revenue (Commissioner of), enabling Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond to	28. U.K.
French (King of the), enabling His Majesty to carry into effect a Convention with	94. U.K.	— the First Commissioner of, invested with the Office of Constable of St. Briavel's Castle, and Keeper of Dean Forest	3. E.
Game, for regulating the charging of the Duty payable for the taking or killing of Gold Plate, fixing the Standard Qualities of, and to provide for the assaying and marking thereof.....	65. G.B.	Lands and Tenements, consolidating and amending Acts for the Valuation of ...	84. I.
Grand Juries, consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by	116. I.	Land Tax Commissioners, appointing additional	80. E.
Gunpowder, continuing for One Year several Acts relating to the Importation and keeping of	39. I.	Leases, imposing certain Restrictions on the Renewal of, by Ecclesiastical Persons	20. E.
Highway Rates, for facilitating the Recovery of certain Arrears of.....	63. E.	Letter Stealing, amending 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 81, for abolishing Capital Punishments in Cases of	64. E.
		— Persons accused of, in Scotland, not to be entitled to Liberation on Bail except in certain Cases.....	4. G.B. & I.
		Letters, granting additional Rate of Postage on, between Great Britain and Ireland, by way of Milford and Waterford	21. S.
		Licences, repealing additional Excise Duties on, to Retailers of Spirits	24. G.B. & I.
		— amending Act 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 68, relating to Excise	72. U.K.
		Lighthouses, Lights, and Sea Marks, on the Coasts of England, vesting, in the	38. I.

lxii INDEX TO THE GENERAL ACTS, 6 & 7 WILL. IV.

	Cap. Relating to.		Cap. Relating to.
Corporation of the Trinity House, and for making Provisions respecting Light-houses, &c.	79. 73.	ducing the Duties, &c. on Paper; &c. of the First Class, and discontinuing the Excise Survey on the Manufacturers of certain Articles made from Paper...	52. U.K.
Loan Societies, to amend the Laws relating to	55. I.	Parochial Assessments, regulating	96. E.
London and Holyhead, for further improving the Road between, by Coventry, Birmingham, and Shrewsbury.....	35. E.	Pensions and Personal Estates, continuing the Duties on	80. E.
Lotteries, for preventing the advertising of Foreign and other illegal Lotteries....	66. G.B. & I.	— continuing and making perpetual the Duty on certain	97. E.
Marine Forces while on Shore, an Act for the Regulation of.....	9. U.K.	Police. To authorize the placing of the Horse Patrol, now acting under the Authority of the Chief Magistrate of Bow Street, under the Authority of the Justices for the Metropolitan Police District.....	50. E.
Marriages, an Act for	85. E.	Poor Laws, for extending the Period for the Repayment of Loans made under 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 76, for the Amendment and better Administration of	107. E.
— for registering	86. E.	Post, amending the Laws relating to the sending of Newspapers by.....	54. U.K.
— for rendering valid certain, solemnized at St. Ann's Chapel, Wandsworth (Surrey).....	24. E.	Postage, granting additional Rates of, on Letters between Great Britain and Ireland, by way of Milford and Waterford	25. U.K.
— and at St. Clement's Church, Oxford	92. E.	Postmaster General, enabling Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond to	23. U.K.
Master of the Rolls enabled to demise Part of the Rolls Estate to the Society of Judges and Serjeants	49. E.	Prints and Engravings, extending the Copyright of, to Ireland.	59. I.
Medical Witnesses, Coroners Inquests, providing for the Attendance and Remuneration of	89. E.	Prisons, amending the Law relating to ..	61. I.
Militia, suspending the making of Lists, Ballots, and Enrolments for.....	88. U.K.	Public Works, amending 1 & 2 Will. 4. c. 33. for the Extension and Promotion of	108. L.
— annual Act for the Pay, Clothing, &c. of	93. G.B. & I.	Punishments (Capital), amending 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 81, for abolishing, in Cases of Letter Stealing and Sacrilege	4. G.B. & I.
Montserrat (Island), the Governor of, indemnified for having permitted the Importation of certain Articles Duty-free	48. U.K.	Registering of Births, Deaths, and Marriages.....	86. E.
Murder, repealing so much of Acts 9 Geo. 4. c. 31, and 10 Geo. 4. c. 34, as directs the Period of Execution and the Prison Discipline of Persons convicted of the Crime of	30. E.	Richmond General Penitentiary, for converting the, into one of the Prisons for the County of the City of Dublin.....	61. I.
Mutiny Act, annual	8. U.K.	Russia (Emperor of); enabling His Majesty to carry into effect a Convention with	94. U.K.
Nevis (Island), Governor of, indemnified for having permitted the Importation of certain Articles Duty-free	48. U.K.	⁴ Sacrilege, amending 5 & 6 Will. 4. c. 81, for abolishing Capital Punishments in Cases of	4. G.B. & I.
New South Wales, continuing [to 31st December 1837] Act 9 Geo. 4. c. 83, for the Administration of Justice in	46. U.K.	School Rooms, to facilitate the Conveyance of Sites for	70. E.
Newspapers, amending the Laws relating to the Conveyance of, by Post.	54. U.K.	Sheriffs, extending the Jurisdiction of, to Cases of Process of Cessio bonorum....	86. S.
— reducing the Duties on, and regulating the Laws relating to the Duties on Newspapers and Advertisements ...	76. U.K.	Shetland or Orkney, amending 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 52, enabling certain Seamen belonging to, to pay certain Sums of Money at Lerwick or Kirkwall.....	15. S.
Offices, annual Indemnity Act for Persons neglecting to qualify for	7. U.K.	Silver Plate, to fix the Standard Qualities of, and provide for the assaying and marking thereof	69. S.
— continuing and making perpetual the Duty on certain	97. E.	Sinecure Rectories, suspending for One Year Appointments to	67. E.
Orkney. See Shetland.		Slaves, for carrying into further Execution the Provisions of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, and 5 & 6 Will. 5. c. 45, for compensating the Owners of, on the Abolition of Slavery	5. U.K.
Owners of Vessels, for assimilating the Law of Ireland to that of England in respect to the Liability of, for Losses by Fire	61. E. & I.
Oxford, for rendering valid certain Marriages solemnized in the Church of St. Clement.....	92. E.
Paper. The Excise Duties and Drawbacks on Stained Paper repealed, and for re-

INDEX TO THE GENERAL ACTS, 6 & 7 WILL. IV.

lxiii

	Cap. Relating to.		Cap. Relating to.
Slaves, reviving and continuing [to 1st August 1840] an Act of the Legislature of Jamaica for the Abolition of Slavery	16. U.K.	Taxes (Local), providing for the Collection of certain	65. S.
— for carrying into further Execution the Act of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 73, for compensating the Owners of, on the Abolition of Slavery	82. U.K.	Temporalities of the Church, providing Laws relating to	99. I.
Slave Trade, for carrying into effect a Treaty with the Queen of Spain for the Abolition of the	6. U.K.	Testaments, enabling Bastards to make	22. S.
— authorizing His Majesty to carry into immediate Execution, by Orders in Council, any Treaties for the Suppression of	81. U.K.	Tithe Compositions, suspending [to 6th April 1837] Proceedings for recovering Payment of Money advanced under Acts for establishing	95. I.
Spirits, amending Act of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 68, relating to the Sale of, by Retail	38. I.	Tithes, Commutation of	71. E.
— imposing countervailing Excise Duties on Mixtures, &c. made from or with Spirits removed from Ireland to England or Scotland, or from Scotland to England, and to repeal additional Excise Duties on Licences to Retailers of Spirits, &c.	72. U.K.	Trinity House (Corporation of), vesting Lighthouses, Lights, &c. Sea Marks in Turnpike Roads, continuing for One Year the several Acts for regulating	79. E.
Stafford (Borough), indemnifying Witnesses giving Evidence before the House of Lords on a Bill to exclude it from sending Burgesses to Parliament	10. E.	— continuing [to 1st June 1838] several Acts relating to	40. I.
Stage Carriages, for granting Relief from the Duties on, in certain Cases	65. G.B.	Valuation of Lands and Tenements, consolidating and amending Acts for	62. G.B.
Stamps (Commissioners of), enabling Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond	28. U.K.	Van Diemen's Land, continuing [to 31st Dec. 1837] Act of 9 Geo. 4. c. 83, for the Administration of Justice in	84. I.
— transferring the Collection, &c. of the Duties on Horses let to Hire from them to the Commissioners of Excise	45. G.B.	Vessels, for assimilating the Law of Ireland to that of England in respect to the Liability of Owners of, for Losses by Vinegar, for discontinuing the Excise Survey on Dealers in and Retailers of	46. U.K.
Stannaries of Cornwall, for the better Administration of Justice in, and for the enlarging the Jurisdiction and improving the Practice and Proceedings in the Courts of	106. E.	Voters, legalizing certain Lists of, and of Claims and Objections, for the present Year	61. E. & I.
Statute Duty, for facilitating the Recovery of certain Arrears of Composition in lieu of	63. E.	Wandsworth, for rendering valid certain Marriages solemnized at St. Ann's Chapel	52. U.K.
Sugar imported, annual Duties on	26. U.K.	Western Australia, continuing [to 31st Dec. 1838] 10 Geo. 4. c. 22, for the Government of His Majesty's Settlements in	101. E.
Sunk Island, Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues enabled to make a Road from the Church in the Parish of, to Ottringham (E. R. York)	91. E.	West India Colonies, making Provision for the better Administration of Justice in	24. E.
Supplies, Appropriation of	1. U.K. 18. U.K. 98. U.K.	Wine, amending 3 & 4 Will. c. 68, relating to the Sale of, by Retail	68. U.K.
Taxes, (Commissioners of), enabling Persons to make Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond	28. U.K.	Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, the First Commissioner of, vested with the Office of Constable of St. Briavel's Castle, and Keeper of the Forest of Dean	17. U.K.
		— Commissioners of, enabled to make a Road from the Church in the Parish of Sunk Island to Ottringham (E. R. York)	38. I.
		York (Archbishop of), extinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of, in certain Liberties in the Counties of Nottingham and York	3. E.
			91. E.
			87. E.

